- <sup>14</sup> "O people of Israel, I am about to bring an enemy nation against you," says the LORD God of Heaven's Armies. "They will oppress you throughout your land—from Lebo-hamath in the north to the Arabah Valley in the south."

A VISION OF LOCUSTS

7 The Sovereign LORD showed me a vision. I saw him preparing to send a vast swarm of locusts over the land. This was after the king's share had been harvested from the fields and as the main crop was coming up.<sup>2</sup> In my vision the locusts ate every green plant in sight. Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, please forgive us or we will not survive, for Israel* is so small."

<sup>3</sup> So the LORD relented from this plan. "I will not do it," he said.

A VISION OF FIRE

<sup>4</sup> Then the Sovereign LORD showed me another vision. I saw him preparing to punish his people with a great fire. The fire had burned up the depths of the sea and was devouring the entire land.<sup>5</sup> Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, please stop or we will not survive, for Israel is so small."

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD relented from this plan, too. "I will not do that either," said the Sovereign LORD.

A VISION OF A PLUMB LINE

<sup>7</sup> Then he showed me another vision. I saw the Lord standing beside a wall that had been built using a plumb line. He was using a plumb line to see if it was still straight.<sup>8</sup> And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I answered, "A plumb line."

And the Lord replied, "I will test my people with this plumb line. I will no longer ignore all their sins.<sup>9</sup> The pagan shrines of your ancestors* will be ruined, and the temples of Israel will be destroyed; I will bring the dynasty of King Jeroboam to a sudden end."

AMOS AND AMAZIAH

<sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, king of Israel: "Amos is hatching a plot against you right here on your very doorstep! What he is saying is intolerable.<sup>11</sup> He is saying, 'Jeroboam will soon be killed, and the people of Israel will be sent away into exile.'"

<sup>12</sup>Then Amaziah sent orders to Amos: “Get out of here, you prophet! Go on back to the land of Judah, and earn your living by prophesying there! <sup>13</sup>Don’t bother us with your prophecies here in Bethel. This is the king’s sanctuary and the national place of worship!”

<sup>14</sup>But Amos replied, “I’m not a professional prophet, and I was never trained to be one. * I’m just a shepherd, and I take care of sycamore-fig trees. <sup>15</sup>But the LORD called me away from my flock and told me, ‘Go and prophesy to my people in Israel.’ <sup>16</sup>Now then, listen to this message from the LORD:

“You say,
‘Don’t prophesy against Israel.
Stop preaching against my people.’”

<sup>17</sup> But this is what the LORD says:
‘Your wife will become a prostitute in this city, and your sons and daughters will be killed.
Your land will be divided up, and you yourself will die in a foreign land.
And the people of Israel will certainly become captives in exile, far from their homeland.’”

A VISION OF RIPE FRUIT

8 Then the Sovereign LORD showed me another vision. In it I saw a basket filled with ripe fruit. <sup>24</sup>“What do you see, Amos?” he asked.
I replied, “A basket full of ripe fruit.”

Then the LORD said, “Like this fruit, Israel is ripe for punishment! I will not delay their punishment again. <sup>3</sup>In that day the singing in the temple will turn to wailing. Dead bodies will be scattered everywhere. They will be carried out of the city in silence. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

<sup>4</sup> Listen to this, you who rob the poor and trample down the needy!

<sup>5</sup> You can’t wait for the Sabbath day to be over and the religious festivals to end so you can get back to cheating the helpless.
You measure out grain with dishonest measures
and cheat the buyer with dishonest scales. *

<sup>6</sup> And you mix the grain you sell with chaff swept from the floor.
Then you enslave poor people for one piece of silver or a pair of sandals.

<sup>7</sup> Now the LORD has sworn this oath by his own name, the Pride of Israel*: “I will never forget the wicked things you have done!

<sup>8</sup> The earth will tremble for your deeds, and everyone will mourn.
The ground will rise like the Nile River
at floodtime;
it will heave up, then sink again.

<sup>9</sup> “In that day,” says the Sovereign LORD,
“I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth while it is still day.
<sup>10</sup> I will turn your celebrations into times of mourning and your singing into weeping.
You will wear funeral clothes and shave your heads to show your sorrow—
as if your only son had died.
How very bitter that day will be!

Sovereign LORD,
“when I will send a famine on the land—not a famine of bread or water but of hearing the words of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> People will stagger from sea to sea and wander from border to border* searching for the word of the LORD, but they will not find it.

will grow faint in that day, thirsting for the LORD’s word.

<sup>14</sup> And those who swear by the shameful idols of Samaria—who take oaths in the name of the god of Dan and make vows in the name of the god of Beersheba*— they will all fall down, never to rise again.”

A VISION OF GOD AT THE ALTAR

9 Then I saw a vision of the Lord standing beside the altar. He said, “Strike the tops of the Temple columns, so that the foundation will shake.

Bring down the roof on the heads of the people below.
I will kill with the sword those who survive.
No one will escape!

<sup>2</sup> “Even if they dig down to the place of the dead,*
I will reach down and pull them up.
Even if they climb up into the heavens,
I will bring them down.

Mount Carmel,
I will search them out and capture them.
Even if they hide at the bottom of the ocean,
I will send the sea serpent after them to bite them.

7:14 Or I’m not a prophet nor the son of a prophet. 7:16 Hebrew against the house of Isaac. 8:5 Hebrew You make the ephah [a unit for measuring grain] small and the shekel [a unit of weight] great, and you deal falsely by using deceitful balances. 8:7 Hebrew the pride of Jacob. See note on 3:13. 8:12 Hebrew from north to east. 8:14 Hebrew the way of Beersheba. 9:2 Hebrew to Sheol.

into exile,
I will command the sword to kill them there.
I am determined to bring disaster upon them and not to help them.”

touches the land and it melts,
and all its people mourn.
The ground rises like the Nile River
at floodtime,
and then it sinks again.
<sup>6</sup> The LORD’s home reaches up to the heavens, while its foundation is on the earth.
He draws up water from the oceans and pours it down as rain on the land.
The LORD is his name!

<sup>7</sup> “Are you Israelites more important to me than the Ethiopians?” asks the LORD.
“I brought Israel out of Egypt, but I also brought the Philistines from Crete*
and led the Arameans out of Kir.

<sup>8</sup> “I, the Sovereign LORD, am watching this sinful nation of Israel.
I will destroy it from the face of the earth.
But I will never completely destroy the family of Israel,*”
says the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “For I will give the command and will shake Israel along with the other nations
as grain is shaken in a sieve, yet not one true kernel will be lost.

<sup>10</sup> But all the sinners will die by the sword—all those who say, ‘Nothing bad will happen to us.’

A PROMISE OF RESTORATION

<sup>11</sup> “In that day I will restore the fallen house* of David.
I will repair its damaged walls.
From the ruins I will rebuild it and restore its former glory.

and all the nations I have called to be mine.*”

GOD’S DWELLING AT YOUR HOUSE

Amos 9:11

JACK HAYFORD

God can be worshipped anywhere a believer creates an atmosphere of praise and worship in spirit and in truth. As a priest in your home, you entertain the presence of the Lord. Focus your attention on preparing a place where God can dwell in your home. Fill your tabernacle with the breath of praise.

God is calling you to integrate the power of the Spirit, the truth of the Word, and the love of the Lord Jesus into your house. The challenge is not only to become a person of worship but also a person who welcomes the presence and glory of God into your home. If you feel discouraged by past failures, take heart because there is hope. God will raise up the tabernacle in your house as you follow His directives. As He promised through the prophet Amos, God will rebuild the ruins and restore His glory in you.

The LORD has spoken,
and he will do these things.

<sup>13</sup> “The time will come,” says the LORD, “when the grain and grapes will grow faster than they can be harvested.
Then the terraced vineyards on the hills of Israel
will drip with sweet wine!

<sup>14</sup> I will bring my exiled people of Israel back from distant lands, and they will rebuild their ruined cities and live in them again.
They will plant vineyards and gardens;
they will eat their crops and drink their wine.

<sup>15</sup> I will firmly plant them there in their own land.
They will never again be uprooted from the land I have given them,” says the LORD your God.

See note on 3:13. 9:11a Or kingdom; Hebrew reads tent. 9:11b-12 Greek version reads and restore its former glory, / so that the rest of humanity, including the Gentiles— / all those I have called to be mine—might seek me. # OBADIAH

ION HUNTZINGER, PHD

Obadiah, whose name means 'Servant of Yahweh,' prophesied around 587 BC, when the Babylonians overran Judah and destroyed the city of Jerusalem. The book of Obadiah is the shortest in the Old Testament with only 21 verses. In his denunciation of the nation of Edom, Obadiah may be grouped with Isaiah (34:5-15), Jeremiah (49:7-22), Ezekiel (25:12-14), Amos (1:11-12), and Malachi (1:2-5). Edom was located to the south and east of the Dead Sea. In the Old Testament, Edom is also known as Seir, meaning 'hairy,' because of its shrub lands. The people who lived there were the descendants of Esau, the brother of Jacob. The Edomites had taken advantage of the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem to invade Judah at that time. Their invasion of Judah was only the most recent conflict over the centuries. After the Exodus, for example, the Edomites had denied the Israelites passage through their land into Canaan (Numbers 20:14-21), and during the unified kingdom of David and Solomon, they had fought against Israel (2 Samuel 8:13-14; 1 Kings 9:26-28; 11:14-22).

Obadiah's short prophecy reveals the outrage he feels toward the Edomites for their violence against Judah. In his view, God is the God of all people, including the people of Edom, and He will judge them for their exploitation of His people. His view is informed by God's promise to Abraham that He would bless those who blessed Abraham's descendants and curse those who cursed them (Genesis 12:2-3). Since Edom had historically battled (or cursed) Abraham's descendants in the people of Judah and had taken advantage of their most recent struggle with the Babylonians, the nation would be judged (cursed) by God in return as He had said He would do to the enemies of His people.

This is the vision that the Sovereign LORD revealed to Obadiah concerning the land of Edom.

EDOM'S JUDGMENT ANNOUNCED

- We have heard a message from the LORD that an ambassador was sent to the nations to say,
“Get ready, everyone!
Let’s assemble our armies and attack Edom!”
- <sup>2</sup> The LORD says to Edom, “I will cut you down to size among the nations;
you will be greatly despised.
<sup>3</sup> You have been deceived by your own pride because you live in a rock fortress and make your home high in the mountains.
‘Who can ever reach us way up here?’
you ask boastfully.
<sup>4</sup> But even if you soar as high as eagles and build your nest among the stars,
I will bring you crashing down,”
says the LORD.
- <sup>5</sup> “If thieves came at night and robbed you (what a disaster awaits you!), they would not take everything.
Those who harvest grapes always leave a few for the poor.
But your enemies will wipe you out completely!
will be searched and looted.
Every treasure will be found and taken.
- <sup>7</sup> “All your allies will turn against you.
They will help to chase you from your land.
They will promise you peace
while plotting to deceive and destroy you.
Your trusted friends will set traps for you, and you won’t even know about it.
<sup>8</sup> At that time not a single wise person will be left in the whole land of Edom,” says the LORD.
“For on the mountains of Edom
I will destroy everyone who has understanding.
will be terrified, and everyone on the mountains of Edom will be cut down in the slaughter.

REASONS FOR EDOM'S PUNISHMENT

- <sup>10</sup> “Because of the violence you did to your close relatives in Israel,* you will be filled with shame and destroyed forever.
<sup>11</sup> When they were invaded,
you stood aloof, refusing to help them.

Foreign invaders carried off their wealth and cast lots to divide up Jerusalem, but you acted like one of Israel’s enemies.

- <sup>12</sup> “You should not have gloated when they exiled your relatives to distant lands.
You should not have rejoiced when the people of Judah suffered such misfortune.
You should not have spoken arrogantly in that terrible time of trouble.
<sup>13</sup> You should not have plundered the land of Israel
when they were suffering such calamity.
You should not have gloated over their destruction
when they were suffering such calamity.
You should not have seized their wealth
when they were suffering such calamity.
<sup>14</sup> You should not have stood at the crossroads, killing those who tried to escape.
You should not have captured the survivors and handed them over in their terrible time of trouble.

EDOM DESTROYED, ISRAEL RESTORED

- <sup>15</sup> “The day is near when I, the LORD, will judge all godless nations!
As you have done to Israel, so it will be done to you.
All your evil deeds will fall back on your own heads.
<sup>16</sup> Just as you swallowed up my people on my holy mountain, so you and the surrounding nations will swallow the punishment I pour out on you.
Yes, all you nations will drink and stagger and disappear from history.
- <sup>17</sup> “But Jerusalem* will become a refuge for those who escape;
it will be a holy place.
And the people of Israel* will come back to reclaim their inheritance.
<sup>18</sup> The people of Israel will be a raging fire, and Edom a field of dry stubble.
The descendants of Joseph will be a flame roaring across the field, devouring everything.
There will be no survivors in Edom.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

<sup>6</sup> Hebrew Esau; also in 8b, 9, 18, 19, 21. <sup>10</sup> Hebrew your brother Jacob. The names “Jacob” and “Israel” are often interchanged throughout the Old Testament, referring sometimes to the individual patriarch and sometimes to the nation. <sup>17a</sup> Hebrew Mount Zion. <sup>17b</sup> Hebrew house of Jacob; also in 18. See note on 10.

- <sup>19</sup> “Then my people living in the Negev will occupy the mountains of Edom.
Those living in the foothills of Judah* will possess the Philistine plains and take over the fields of Ephraim and Samaria.
And the people of Benjamin will occupy the land of Gilead.
<sup>20</sup> The exiles of Israel will return to their land and occupy the Phoenician coast as far north as Zarephath.

- The captives from Jerusalem exiled in the north* will return home and resettle the towns of the Negev.

And the LORD himself will be king!”

JONAH

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The story of Jonah and the great fish is one of the best known in the Bible, along with Noah's boat (ark), David and Goliath, and Daniel in the lions' den. The book is unusual because, unlike other prophetic books that preserve the messages of the prophets, this one preserves the story of the prophet himself rather than the details of his message.

Jonah lived during the reign of King Jeroboam II (786-746 BC) and was from the town of Gath-hepher in the northern kingdom of Israel (2 Kings 14:25), which would be overrun by the Assyrians less than a generation later in 722 BC. This historical background is important for understanding Jonah's initial refusal to go to Nineveh, the capital of Assyria, as described in the book.

Jonah boards a ship heading away from Nineveh when God commands him to preach repentance to the people there. He refuses to go to Nineveh because he knows the people are hard and cruel. God then sends a storm that threatens to sink the ship until the sailors throw him overboard, where a large fish swallows him and spits him onto the land after three days. Jonah then obeys God and goes to the capital, where he warns the people of God's judgment unless they repent of their sin. When the people respond with sackcloth and ashes, God saves them, to Jonah's unhappiness. At that time, Nineveh was one of the largest cities in the ancient Near East with 120,000 people, according to the book, making the salvation of its people extraordinary. In response to Jonah's displeasure at the conclusion of the story, God asks His prophet, "Shouldn't I feel sorry for such a great city?" (4:11).

A major question that readers have about the story concerns the historicity of the events it describes. Did all of these events really happen? Did God really send a storm? Did a large fish swallow Jonah and then expel him onto dry land? Some scholars think that the story is fiction and that ancient readers were more susceptible than modern ones to believe such accounts as historical. Of course, ancient readers were no more prone to reading fictitious stories as real history than people today and would have asked the same questions. The writer of the story would have known about such questions, too, as would those in the community who preserved the story. This means that when they upheld the story and added it to the other prophetic books, they did so because they were convinced that it was just as historical as those books, despite the incredible nature of the miracles it reports. Moreover, the fact that Jesus and His disciples (Matthew 12:38-42; 16:1-4) accepted the story as historical points to its authenticity. The book of Jonah is a true story.

The story of Jonah is the story of God's great compassion for all people and all nations, including the idolatrous people of Nineveh. Should God not feel sorry for the Ninevites? (4:11). Moreover, it depicts God's will and word as irresistible—they cannot be stopped. Because He has determined that the people of Nineveh should hear His word and be given a chance to repent, nothing will prevent that goal from being fulfilled. He will even use a great fish to do so. And when the people hear God's word, they do repent (3:6-10).

JONAH RUNS FROM THE LORD

1 The LORD gave this message to Jonah son of Amittai: <sup>2</sup>“Get up and go to the great city of Nineveh. Announce my judgment against it because I have seen how wicked its people are.”

<sup>3</sup>But Jonah got up and went in the opposite direction to get away from the LORD. He went down to the port of Joppa, where he found a ship leaving for Tarshish. He bought a ticket and went on board, hoping to escape from the LORD by sailing to Tarshish.

But all this time Jonah was sound asleep down in the hold. <sup>6</sup>So the captain went down after him. “How can you sleep at a time like this?” he shouted. “Get up and pray to your god! Maybe he will pay attention to us and spare our lives.”

<sup>7</sup>Then the crew cast lots to see which of them had offended the gods and caused the terrible storm. When they did this, the lots identified Jonah as the culprit. <sup>8</sup>“Why has this awful storm come down on us?” they demanded. “Who are you? What is your line of work? What country are you from? What is your nationality?”

<sup>9</sup>Jonah answered, “I am a Hebrew, and I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the land.”

<sup>10</sup>The sailors were terrified when they heard this, for he had already told them he was running away from the LORD. “Oh, why did you do it?” they groaned. <sup>11</sup>And since the storm was getting worse all the time, they asked him, “What should we do to you to stop this storm?”

<sup>12</sup>“Throw me into the sea,” Jonah said, “and it will become calm again. I know that this terrible storm is all my fault.”

<sup>13</sup>Instead, the sailors rowed even harder to get the ship to the land. But the stormy sea was too violent for them, and they couldn’t make it.

<sup>14</sup>Then they cried out to the LORD, Jonah’s God. “O LORD,” they pleaded, “don’t make us die for this man’s sin. And don’t hold us responsible for his death. O LORD, you have sent this storm upon him for your own good reasons.”

<sup>15</sup>Then the sailors picked Jonah up and threw him into the raging sea, and the storm stopped at once! <sup>16</sup>The sailors were awestruck by the LORD’s great power, and they offered him a sacrifice and vowed to serve him.

<sup>17</sup>Now the LORD had arranged for a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

JONAH’S PRAYER

2 <sup>1*</sup>Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from inside the fish. <sup>2</sup>He said, “I cried out to the LORD in my great trouble, and he answered me.

I called to you from the land of the dead,* and LORD, you heard me!

<sup>3</sup> You threw me into the ocean depths, and I sank down to the heart of the sea.

The mighty waters engulfed me;
I was buried beneath your wild and stormy waves.

<sup>4</sup> Then I said, ‘O LORD, you have driven me from your presence.

Yet I will look once more toward your holy Temple.’

Seaweed wrapped itself around my head.

I was imprisoned in the earth, whose gates lock shut forever.

But you, O LORD my God, snatched me from the jaws of death!

<sup>7</sup> As my life was slipping away,
I remembered the LORD.

And my earnest prayer went out to you in your holy Temple.

<sup>8</sup> Those who worship false gods turn their backs on all God’s mercies.

<sup>9</sup> But I will offer sacrifices to you with songs of praise,
and I will fulfill all my vows.
For my salvation comes from the LORD alone.”

JONAH GOES TO NINEVEH

3 Then the LORD spoke to Jonah a second time: <sup>1</sup>“Get up and go to the great city of Nineveh, and deliver the message I have given you.”

<sup>2</sup>This time Jonah obeyed the LORD’s command and went to Nineveh, a city so large that it took three days to see it all. <sup>3</sup>*On the day Jonah entered the city, he shouted to the crowds: “Forty days from now Nineveh will be destroyed!” <sup>4</sup>The people of Nineveh believed God’s message, and from the greatest to the least, they declared a fast and put on burlap to show their sorrow.

<sup>5</sup>When the king of Nineveh heard what Jonah was saying, he stepped down from his throne and took off his royal robes. He dressed himself in burlap and sat on a heap of ashes. <sup>7</sup>Then the king and his nobles sent this decree throughout the city:

“No one, not even the animals from your herds and flocks, may eat or drink anything at all. <sup>8</sup> People and animals alike must wear garments of mourning, and everyone must pray earnestly to God. They must turn from their evil ways and stop all their violence. <sup>9</sup> Who can tell? Perhaps even yet God will change his mind and hold back his fierce anger from destroying us.”

<sup>10</sup> When God saw what they had done and how they had put a stop to their evil ways, he changed his mind and did not carry out the destruction he had threatened.

JONAH'S ANGER AT THE LORD'S MERCY

4 This change of plans greatly upset Jonah, and he became very angry. <sup>2</sup> So he complained to the LORD about it: “Didn’t I say before I left home that you would do this, LORD? That is why I ran away to Tarshish! I knew that you are a merciful and compassionate God, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. You are eager to turn back from destroying people. <sup>3</sup> Just kill me now, LORD! I’d rather be dead than alive if what I predicted will not happen.”

“The LORD replied, “Is it right for you to be angry about this?”

<sup>5</sup> Then Jonah went out to the east side of the city and made a shelter to sit under as he waited to see what would happen to the city. <sup>6</sup> And the LORD God arranged for a leafy plant to grow there, and soon it spread its broad leaves over Jonah’s head, shading him from the sun. This eased his discomfort, and Jonah was very grateful for the plant.

<sup>7</sup> But God also arranged for a worm! The next morning at dawn the worm ate through the stem of the plant so that it withered away. <sup>8</sup> And as the sun grew hot, God arranged for a scorching east wind to blow on Jonah. The sun beat down on his head until he grew faint and wished to die. “Death is certainly better than living like this!” he exclaimed.

<sup>9</sup> Then God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry because the plant died?”

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD said, “You feel sorry about the plant, though you did nothing to put it there. It came quickly and died quickly. <sup>11</sup> But Nineveh has more than 120,000 people living in spiritual darkness,* not to mention all the animals. Shouldn’t I feel sorry for such a great city?”

MICAH

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The name Micah is an abbreviation of the Hebrew word that means 'Who is like Yahweh?' The prophet lived in the town of Moresheth, which is about 25 miles from Jerusalem. Micah also may have been a small farmer like the prophet Amos. He attributes his strength to proclaim God's judgment against the people of Israel and Judah to the Spirit of God and the sense of justice and power that the Spirit gives (3:8).

Micah is identified with the Judean kings Jotham (750-732 BC), Ahaz (732-716 BC), and Hezekiah (715-686 BC). He prophesied from the latter part of Jotham's reign to the beginning years of Hezekiah's. Micah was identified by Jeremiah's supporters (about 100 years later) when they defended Jeremiah's messages of judgment against Judah and Jerusalem by recalling Micah's oracles against Israel and Judah during his time (Jeremiah 26:16-19). The threat to Jerusalem (Micah 3:12) and the description of Assyria as a major enemy (5:5-6) point to the period 722-701 BC (when the Assyrian king threatened Jerusalem but could not overthrow the city) for the prime years of his ministry, during which he spoke God's oracles.

Micah has been described as "the doomsayer prophet" because the oracles he delivers switch back and forth between doom and hope. He begins (1:2-2:11) by announcing the impending destruction of Samaria for idolatry and oppression (doom) and then declares (2:12-13) God will come and lead His people like a shepherd (hope). Micah continues

(3:1-12) by denouncing the rulers and prophets of that time for leading the people astray (doom), only to say (4:1-5:15) that "in the last days" God will teach the people His laws, and they along with Zion will be restored by a king from Bethlehem (hope). Finally, he issues a courtroom-like indictment (6:1-7:7) against the people for injustice (doom), which he follows by saying (7:8-20) that despite sin God will show compassion and faithfulness (hope).

Many people best remember Micah for his prophecy of a ruler who will come from Bethlehem and shepherd God's flock (5:2-5), which Matthew quotes and relates to the birth of Jesus (Matthew 2:5-6).

Micah is also known for his definition of goodness:

to do what is right, to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with your God (6:8).

Like Amos, who condemns those who take advantage of others, causing them to lose their homes, farms, and possessions (see the introduction to the book of Amos), Micah is upset by unjust practices that are causing people to lose their fields and houses (2:1-2). For this reason, he condemns bribery and the influence of money among administrative and religious leaders (3:9-11; 6:10-12; 7:3). The Spirit of God that fills Micah revolts against injustice and desires for justice to be done among His people (3:8).

1 The LORD gave this message to Micah of Moresheth during the years when Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. The visions he saw concerned both Samaria and Jerusalem.

GRIEF OVER SAMARIA AND JERUSALEM

Let the earth and everything in it hear.
The Sovereign LORD is making accusations against you;
the Lord speaks from his holy Temple.

He leaves his throne in heaven and tramples the heights of the earth.

and flow into the valleys like wax in a fire, like water pouring down a hill.

Because of the rebellion of Israel*— yes, the sins of the whole nation.
Who is to blame for Israel's rebellion?
Samaria, its capital city!
Where is the center of idolatry in Judah?
In Jerusalem, its capital!

<sup>6</sup> "So I, the LORD, will make the city of Samaria a heap of ruins.
Her streets will be plowed up for planting vineyards.
I will roll the stones of her walls into the valley below, exposing her foundations.

<sup>7</sup> All her carved images will be smashed.
All her sacred treasures will be burned.
These things were bought with the money earned by her prostitution, and they will now be carried away to pay prostitutes elsewhere."

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, I will mourn and lament.
I will walk around barefoot and naked.
I will howl like a jackal and moan like an owl.

<sup>9</sup> For my people's wound is too deep to heal.
It has reached into Judah,
even to the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> Don't tell our enemies in Gath*;
don't weep at all.
You people in Beth-leaphrah*
roll in the dust to show your despair.

go as captives into exile—naked and ashamed.
The people of Zaanán* dare not come outside their walls.

The people of Beth-ezel* mourn, for their house has no support.

for relief, but only bitterness awaits them as the LORD's judgment reaches even to the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Harness your chariot horses and flee, you people of Lachish.*

You were the first city in Judah to follow Israel in her rebellion, and you led Jerusalem* into sin.

there is no hope of saving it.
The town of Aczib*
has deceived the kings of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> O people of Mareshah,*
I will bring a conqueror to capture your town.
And the leaders* of Israel will go to Adullam.

in sorrow, for the children you love will be snatched away.
Make yourselves as bald as a vulture, for your little ones will be exiled to distant lands.

JUDGMENT AGAINST WEALTHY OPPRESSORS

2 <sup>1</sup> What sorrow awaits you who lie awake at night, thinking up evil plans.
You rise at dawn and hurry to carry them out, simply because you have the power to do so.

you find a way to seize it.
When you want someone's house,
you take it by fraud and violence.
You cheat a man of his property, stealing his family's inheritance.

<sup>3</sup> But this is what the LORD says:
"I will reward your evil with evil;
you won't be able to pull your neck out of the noose.
You will no longer walk around proudly, for it will be a terrible time."

1:5 Hebrew Jacob; also in 1:5b. The names "Jacob" and "Israel" are often interchanged throughout the Old Testament, referring sometimes to the individual patriarch and sometimes to the nation. 1:10a Gath sounds like the Hebrew term for "tell." 1:10b Beth-leaphrah means "house of dust." 1:11a Shaphir means "pleasant." 1:11b Zaanán sounds like the Hebrew term for "come out." 1:11c Beth-ezel means "adjoining house." 1:12 Maroth sounds like the Hebrew term for "bitter." 1:13a Lachish sounds like the Hebrew term for "team of horses." 1:13b Hebrew the daughter of Zion. 1:14a Moresheth sounds like the Hebrew term for "gift" or "dowry." 1:14b Aczib means "deception." 1:15a Mareshah sounds like the Hebrew term for "conqueror." 1:15b Hebrew the glory.

- <sup>4</sup> In that day your enemies will make fun of you by singing this song of despair about you:
“We are finished,
completely ruined!
God has confiscated our land,
taking it from us.
He has given our fields to those who betrayed us.*”
- <sup>5</sup> Others will set your boundaries then, and the LORD’s people will have no say in how the land is divided.

TRUE AND FALSE PROPHETS

- <sup>6</sup> “Don’t say such things,” the people respond.*
“Don’t prophesy like that.
Such disasters will never come our way!”
- <sup>7</sup> Should you talk that way,
O family of Israel?
Will the LORD’s Spirit have patience with such behavior?
If you would do what is right, you would find my words comforting.
- <sup>8</sup> Yet to this very hour my people rise against me like an enemy!
You steal the shirts right off the backs of those who trusted you, making them as ragged as men returning from battle.
- <sup>9</sup> You have evicted women from their pleasant homes and forever stripped their children of all that God would give them.
- <sup>10</sup> Up! Begone!
This is no longer your land and home, for you have filled it with sin and ruined it completely.
- <sup>11</sup> Suppose a prophet full of lies would say to you, “I’ll preach to you the joys of wine and alcohol!”
That’s just the kind of prophet you would like!

HOPE FOR RESTORATION

- <sup>12</sup> “Someday, O Israel, I will gather you;
I will gather the remnant who are left.
I will bring you together again like sheep in a pen, like a flock in its pasture.
Yes, your land will again be filled with noisy crowds!
- <sup>13</sup> Your leader will break out and lead you out of exile, out through the gates of the enemy cities, back to your own land.
Your king will lead you;
the LORD himself will guide you.”

JUDGMENT AGAINST ISRAEL’S LEADERS

- 3 <sup>1</sup> I said, “Listen, you leaders of Israel!
You are supposed to know right from wrong,
<sup>2</sup> but you are the very ones who hate good and love evil.
You skin my people alive and tear the flesh from their bones.
<sup>3</sup> Yes, you eat my people’s flesh,
and break their bones.
You chop them up like meat for the cooking pot.
<sup>4</sup> Then you beg the LORD for help in times of trouble!
Do you really expect him to answer?
After all the evil you have done, he won’t even look at you!”
- <sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD says:
“You false prophets are leading my people astray!
You promise peace for those who give you food, but you declare war on those who refuse to feed you.
- <sup>6</sup> Now the night will close around you, cutting off all your visions.
Darkness will cover you, putting an end to your predictions.
The sun will set for you prophets, and your day will come to an end.
- <sup>7</sup> Then you seers will be put to shame, and you fortune-tellers will be disgraced.
And you will cover your faces because there is no answer from God.”
- <sup>8</sup> But as for me, I am filled with power—with the Spirit of the LORD.
I am filled with justice and strength to boldly declare Israel’s sin and rebellion.
- <sup>9</sup> Listen to me, you leaders of Israel!
You hate justice and twist all that is right.
- <sup>10</sup> You are building Jerusalem on a foundation of murder and corruption.
- <sup>11</sup> You rulers make decisions based on bribes;
you priests teach God’s laws only for a price;
you prophets won’t prophesy unless you are paid.
Yet all of you claim to depend on the LORD.
“No harm can come to us,” you say,
“for the LORD is here among us.”
- <sup>12</sup> Because of you, Mount Zion will be plowed like an open field;
Jerusalem will be reduced to ruins!
A thicket will grow on the heights where the Temple now stands.

2:4 Or to those who took us captive. 2:6 Or the prophets respond; Hebrew reads they prophesy. 2:7 Hebrew O house of Jacob? See note on 1:5a.

THE LORD'S FUTURE REIGN

- 4<sup>1</sup> In the last days, the mountain of the LORD's house will be the highest of all—the most important place on earth. It will be raised above the other hills, and people from all over the world will stream there to worship.
- 2 People from many nations will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of Jacob's God. There he will teach us his ways, and we will walk in his paths." For the LORD's teaching will go out from Zion; his word will go out from Jerusalem.
- 3 The LORD will mediate between peoples and will settle disputes between strong nations far away. They will hammer their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will no longer fight against nation, nor train for war anymore.
- 4 Everyone will live in peace and prosperity, enjoying their own grapevines and fig trees, for there will be nothing to fear. The LORD of Heaven's Armies has made this promise!
- 5 Though the nations around us follow their idols, we will follow the LORD our God forever and ever.

ISRAEL'S RETURN FROM EXILE

- 6 "In that coming day," says the LORD, "I will gather together those who are lame, those who have been exiles, and those whom I have filled with grief.
- 7 Those who are weak will survive as a remnant; those who were exiles will become a strong nation. Then I, the LORD, will rule from Jerusalem* as their king forever."
- 8 As for you, Jerusalem, the citadel of God's people,* your royal might and power will come back to you again. The kingship will be restored to my precious Jerusalem.
- 9 But why are you now screaming in terror? Have you no king to lead you? Have your wise people all died? Pain has gripped you like a woman in childbirth.
- 10 Writhe and groan like a woman in labor, you people of Jerusalem,* for now you must leave this city to live in the open country. You will soon be sent in exile to distant Babylon. But the LORD will rescue you there; he will redeem you from the grip of your enemies.

- 11 Now many nations have gathered against you. "Let her be desecrated," they say. "Let us see the destruction of Jerusalem."—
- 12 But they do not know the LORD's thoughts or understand his plan. These nations don't know that he is gathering them together to be beaten and trampled like sheaves of grain on a threshing floor.
- 13 "Rise up and crush the nations, O Jerusalem!"* says the LORD. "For I will give you iron horns and bronze hooves, so you can trample many nations to pieces. You will present their stolen riches to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of all the earth."

- 5 Mobilize! Marshal your troops! The enemy is laying siege to Jerusalem. They will strike Israel's leader in the face with a rod.

A RULER FROM BETHLEHEM

- 2* But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, are only a small village among all the people of Judah. Yet a ruler of Israel, whose origins are in the distant past, will come from you on my behalf.
- 3 The people of Israel will be abandoned to their enemies until the woman in labor gives birth. Then at last his fellow countrymen will return from exile to their own land.
- 4 And he will stand to lead his flock with the LORD's strength, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God. Then his people will live there undisturbed, for he will be highly honored around the world.
- 5 And he will be the source of peace.

When the Assyrians invade our land and break through our defenses,

4:7 Hebrew Mount Zion. 4:8 Hebrew As for you, Migdal-eder, / the Ophel of the daughter of Zion. 4:10 Hebrew O daughter of Zion. 4:11 Hebrew of Zion. 4:13 Hebrew "Rise up and thresh, O daughter of Zion." 5:1 Verse 5:1 is numbered 4:14 in Hebrew text. 5:2 Verses 5:2-15 are numbered 5:1-14 in Hebrew text.

we will appoint seven rulers to watch over us, eight princes to lead us.

- <sup>6</sup> They will rule Assyria with drawn swords and enter the gates of the land of Nimrod.
He will rescue us from the Assyrians when they pour over the borders to invade our land.

THE REMNANT PURIFIED

- <sup>7</sup> Then the remnant left in Israel*
will take their place among the nations.
They will be like dew sent by the LORD or like rain falling on the grass, which no one can hold back and no one can restrain.
- <sup>8</sup> The remnant left in Israel
will take their place among the nations.
They will be like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a strong young lion among flocks of sheep and goats, pouncing and tearing as they go with no rescuer in sight.
- <sup>9</sup> The people of Israel will stand up to their foes,
and all their enemies will be wiped out.
- <sup>10</sup> “In that day,” says the LORD,
“I will slaughter your horses and destroy your chariots.
- <sup>11</sup> I will tear down your walls and demolish your defenses.
- <sup>12</sup> I will put an end to all witchcraft, and there will be no more fortune-tellers.
- <sup>13</sup> I will destroy all your idols and sacred pillars, so you will never again worship the work of your own hands.
- <sup>14</sup> I will abolish your idol shrines with their Asherah poles and destroy your pagan cities.
- <sup>15</sup> I will pour out my vengeance on all the nations that refuse to obey me.”

THE LORD’S CASE AGAINST ISRAEL

6 Listen to what the LORD is saying:

- “Stand up and state your case against me.
Let the mountains and hills be called to witness your complaints.
- <sup>2</sup> And now, O mountains, listen to the LORD’s complaint!
He has a case against his people.
He will bring charges against Israel.
- <sup>3</sup> “O my people, what have I done to you?
What have I done to make you tired of me?
Answer me!
- <sup>4</sup> For I brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from slavery.
I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to help you.

- <sup>5</sup> Don’t you remember, my people, how King Balak of Moab tried to have you cursed and how Balaam son of Beor blessed you instead?
And remember your journey from Acacia Grove* to Gilgal, when I, the LORD, did everything I could to teach you about my faithfulness.”

- <sup>6</sup> What can we bring to the LORD?
Should we bring him burnt offerings?
Should we bow before God Most High with offerings of yearling calves?
- <sup>7</sup> Should we offer him thousands of rams and ten thousand rivers of olive oil?
Should we sacrifice our firstborn children to pay for our sins?
- <sup>8</sup> No, O people, the LORD has told you what is good,
and this is what he requires of you:
to do what is right, to love mercy,
and to walk humbly with your God.

ISRAEL’S GUILT AND PUNISHMENT

- <sup>9</sup> Fear the LORD if you are wise!
His voice calls to everyone in Jerusalem:
“The armies of destruction are coming;
the LORD is sending them.”
- <sup>10</sup> What shall I say about the homes of the wicked filled with treasures gained by cheating?
What about the disgusting practice of measuring out grain with dishonest measures?*
- <sup>11</sup> How can I tolerate your merchants who use dishonest scales and weights?
- <sup>12</sup> The rich among you have become wealthy through extortion and violence.
Your citizens are so used to lying that their tongues can no longer tell the truth.
- <sup>13</sup> “Therefore, I will wound you!
I will bring you to ruin for all your sins.
- <sup>14</sup> You will eat but never have enough.
Your hunger pangs and emptiness will remain.
And though you try to save your money, it will come to nothing in the end.
You will save a little,
but I will give it to those who conquer you.
- <sup>15</sup> You will plant crops but not harvest them.
You will press your olives but not get enough oil to anoint yourselves.

5:7 Hebrew in Jacob; also in 5:8. See note on 1:5a. 6:5 Hebrew Shittim. 6:9 Hebrew “Listen to the rod. / Who appointed it?” 6:10 Hebrew of using the short ephah? The ephah was a unit for measuring grain.

You will trample the grapes but get no juice to make your wine.

- <sup>16</sup> You keep only the laws of evil King Omri;
you follow only the example of wicked
King Ahab!

Therefore, I will make an example of you, bringing you to complete ruin.

You will be treated with contempt, mocked by all who see you."

MISERY TURNED TO HOPE

- 7 <sup>1</sup> How miserable I am!
I feel like the fruit picker after the harvest who can find nothing to eat.

Not a cluster of grapes or a single early fig can be found to satisfy my hunger.

- <sup>2</sup> The godly people have all disappeared;
not one honest person is left on the earth.
They are all murderers, setting traps even for their own brothers.

- <sup>3</sup> Both their hands are equally skilled at doing evil!
Officials and judges alike demand bribes.
The people with influence get what they want,
and together they scheme to twist justice.

- <sup>4</sup> Even the best of them is like a brier;
the most honest is as dangerous as a hedge of thorns.

But your judgment day is coming swiftly now.

Your time of punishment is here,
a time of confusion.

- <sup>5</sup> Don't trust anyone—not your best friend or even your wife!

- <sup>6</sup> For the son despises his father.
The daughter defies her mother.
The daughter-in-law defies her mother-in-law.

Your enemies are right in your own household!

- <sup>7</sup> As for me, I look to the LORD for help.
I wait confidently for God to save me, and my God will certainly hear me.

- <sup>8</sup> Do not gloat over me, my enemies!
For though I fall, I will rise again.
Though I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be my light.

- <sup>9</sup> I will be patient as the LORD punishes me, for I have sinned against him.
But after that, he will take up my case and give me justice for all I have suffered from my enemies.

The LORD will bring me into the light, and I will see his righteousness.

- <sup>10</sup> Then my enemies will see that the LORD is on my side.

They will be ashamed that they taunted me, saying,

"So where is the LORD—that God of yours?"

With my own eyes I will see their downfall; they will be trampled like mud in the streets.

- <sup>11</sup> In that day, Israel, your cities will be rebuilt, and your borders will be extended.

- <sup>12</sup> People from many lands will come and honor you—from Assyria all the way to the towns of Egypt, from Egypt all the way to the Euphrates River,*
and from distant seas and mountains.

- <sup>13</sup> But the land* will become empty and desolate because of the wickedness of those who live there.

THE LORD'S COMPASSION ON ISRAEL

- <sup>14</sup> O LORD, protect your people with your shepherd's staff;
lead your flock, your special possession.
Though they live alone in a thicket on the heights of Mount Carmel,* let them graze in the fertile pastures of Bashan and Gilead
as they did long ago.

- <sup>15</sup> "Yes," says the LORD,
"I will do mighty miracles for you, like those I did when I rescued you from slavery in Egypt."

- <sup>16</sup> All the nations of the world will stand amazed at what the LORD will do for you.

They will be embarrassed at their feeble power.

They will cover their mouths in silent awe, deaf to everything around them.

- <sup>17</sup> Like snakes crawling from their holes, they will come out to meet the LORD our God.

They will fear him greatly, trembling in terror at his presence.

- <sup>18</sup> Where is another God like you, who pardons the guilt of the remnant, overlooking the sins of his special people?
You will not stay angry with your people forever, because you delight in showing unfailing love.

- <sup>19</sup> Once again you will have compassion on us.
You will trample our sins under your feet and throw them into the depths of the ocean!

- <sup>20</sup> You will show us your faithfulness and unfailing love
as you promised to our ancestors
Abraham and Jacob long ago.

<sup>7:12</sup> Hebrew the river. <sup>7:13</sup> Or earth. <sup>7:14</sup> Or surrounded by a fruitful land.

NAHUM

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The name Nahum means ‘compassion’ which is ironic given the harsh message of rebuke the prophet makes against the Assyrian capital of Nineveh. The prophecies of this book occurred sometime after the destruction of the Egyptian city of Thebes by the Assyrians in 664 BC (which is recounted in 3:8–10) and before the destruction of the Assyrian city of Nineveh by the Medes in 612 BC.

This book is a vision that sees and describes the future destruction of Nineveh in striking images. Its primary theme is that the enemies of Israel are God’s enemies as well, and He will overthrow any nation that exploits and does violence to them. Nahum depicts God as the avenger of His people Israel who fights on their behalf.

The book moves from a general description of God as an avenger who will save His people (1:2–2:2) to a specific description of Nineveh’s destruction (2:3–10). Then it makes a series of gibes that the city of Nineveh is like a leaking reservoir (2:8), lions in their den that no longer incite fear (2:10–12), a mistress of deadly charms (3:4–7), an overrun city like Thebes (3:8–10), and swarming locusts (3:15–17). The movement in the book from the general to the specific is designed to show that Nineveh’s days are numbered because of the city’s violence against God’s people. Nahum clearly sees the divine hand of God at work in the downfall of Assyria as an international power.

The books of Nahum and Jonah are connected in three ways:

- The city of Nineveh is central to both books. In Jonah, the prophet goes to the city to preach repentance; in Nahum, the prophet foretells judgment against the city.
- Both books emphasize God’s compassion. Jonah highlights God’s compassion for all people, including Nineveh, by describing the extraordinary measures He takes to have His Word preached to them. Nahum (again, whose name means ‘compassion’) shows God’s compassion on behalf of His people by coming against Nineveh. This does not mean God’s compassion is capricious or unpredictable. It means that God’s nature is compassionate, and He will respond with compassion to all people, but He will also act with justice toward those who are exploited.
- Jonah and Nahum are the only two prophetic books that conclude with a rhetorical question. Jonah ends with God asking, “Shouldn’t I feel sorry for such a great city?” (4:11) while Nahum ends with God asking,

“Where can anyone be found who has not suffered from your [Nineveh’s] continual cruelty?” (3:19):

The answer to Jonah’s question is that, yes, God should show compassion to Nineveh, even as the answer to Nahum’s question is that everyone has suffered under Nineveh’s violence, and Nineveh must be judged for its actions. From Jonah and Nahum, we learn that God can be both compassionate and just to His people Israel as well as to the nations.

- 1 This message concerning Nineveh came as a vision to Nahum, who lived in Elkosh.

THE LORD'S ANGER AGAINST NINEVEH

- 2 The LORD is a jealous God, filled with vengeance and rage.
He takes revenge on all who oppose him and continues to rage against his enemies!
- 3 The LORD is slow to get angry, but his power is great, and he never lets the guilty go unpunished.
He displays his power in the whirlwind and the storm.
The billowing clouds are the dust beneath his feet.
- 4 At his command the oceans dry up, and the rivers disappear.
The lush pastures of Bashan and Carmel fade,
and the green forests of Lebanon wither.
- 5 In his presence the mountains quake, and the hills melt away;
the earth trembles,
and its people are destroyed.
- 7 Who can stand before his fierce anger?
Who can survive his burning fury?
His rage blazes forth like fire, and the mountains crumble to dust in his presence.
- 7 The LORD is good,
a strong refuge when trouble comes.
He is close to those who trust in him.
- 8 But he will sweep away his enemies*
in an overwhelming flood.
He will pursue his foes into the darkness of night.
- 9 Why are you scheming against the LORD?
He will destroy you with one blow;
he won't need to strike twice!
- 10 His enemies, tangled like thornbushes and staggering like drunks, will be burned up like dry stubble in a field.
- 11 Who is this wicked counselor of yours who plots evil against the LORD?
- 12 This is what the LORD says:
"Though the Assyrians have many allies,
they will be destroyed and disappear.
O my people, I have punished you before,
but I will not punish you again.
- 13 Now I will break the yoke of bondage from your neck and tear off the chains of Assyrian oppression."
- 14 And this is what the LORD says concerning the Assyrians in Nineveh:

"You will have no more children to carry on your name.
I will destroy all the idols in the temples of your gods.
I am preparing a grave for you because you are despicable!"

- 15* Look! A messenger is coming over the mountains with good news!
He is bringing a message of peace.
Celebrate your festivals,
O people of Judah,
and fulfill all your vows, for your wicked enemies will never invade your land again.
They will be completely destroyed!

THE FALL OF NINEVEH

- 2 1* Your enemy is coming to crush you, Nineveh.
Man the ramparts! Watch the roads!
Prepare your defenses!
Call out your forces!
- 2 Even though the destroyer has destroyed Judah,
the LORD will restore its honor.
Israel's vine has been stripped of branches, but he will restore its splendor.
- 3 Shields flash red in the sunlight!
See the scarlet uniforms of the valiant troops!
Watch as their glittering chariots move into position, with a forest of spears waving above them.*
- 4 The chariots race recklessly along
the streets
and rush wildly through the squares.
They flash like firelight and move as swiftly as lightning.
The king shouts to his officers;
they stumble in their haste, rushing to the walls to set up their defenses.
- 5 The river gates have been torn open!
The palace is about to collapse!
Nineveh's exile has been decreed, and all the servant girls mourn its capture.
They moan like doves and beat their breasts in sorrow.
- 8 Nineveh is like a leaking water reservoir!
The people are slipping away.
"Stop, stop!" someone shouts, but no one even looks back.

1:8 As in Greek version; Hebrew reads sweep away her place.
1:15 Verse 1:15 is numbered 2:1 in Hebrew text. 2:1 Verses 2:1-13 are numbered 2:2-14 in Hebrew text. 2:3 Greek and Syriac versions read into position, / the horses whipped into a frenzy.

- <sup>9</sup> Loot the silver!
Plunder the gold!
There's no end to Nineveh's treasures—its vast, uncounted wealth.
- <sup>10</sup> Soon the city is plundered, empty, and ruined.
Hearts melt and knees shake.
The people stand aghast, their faces pale and trembling.
- <sup>11</sup> Where now is that great Nineveh, that den filled with young lions?
It was a place where people—like lions and their cubs—walked freely and without fear.
- <sup>12</sup> The lion tore up meat for his cubs and strangled prey for his mate.
He filled his den with prey, his caverns with his plunder.
- <sup>13</sup> “I am your enemy!”
says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
“Your chariots will soon go up in smoke.
Your young men* will be killed in battle.
Never again will you plunder conquered nations.
The voices of your proud messengers will be heard no more.”

THE LORD'S JUDGMENT AGAINST NINEVEH

- 3 <sup>1</sup> What sorrow awaits Nineveh, the city of murder and lies!
She is crammed with wealth and is never without victims.
- <sup>2</sup> Hear the crack of whips, the rumble of wheels!
Horses' hooves pound, and chariots clatter wildly.
- <sup>3</sup> See the flashing swords and glittering spears as the charioteers charge past!
There are countless casualties, heaps of bodies—
so many bodies that people stumble over them.
- <sup>4</sup> All this because Nineveh, the beautiful and faithless city, mistress of deadly charms, enticed the nations with her beauty.
She taught them all her magic, enchancing people everywhere.
- <sup>5</sup> “I am your enemy!”
says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
“And now I will lift your skirts and show all the earth your nakedness and shame.
- <sup>6</sup> I will cover you with filth and show the world how vile you really are.
- <sup>7</sup> All who see you will shrink back and say, ‘Nineveh lies in ruins.
Where are the mourners?’
Does anyone regret your destruction?”

- <sup>8</sup> Are you any better than the city of Thebes,* situated on the Nile River, surrounded by water?
She was protected by the river on all sides, walled in by water.
- <sup>9</sup> Ethiopia* and the land of Egypt gave unlimited assistance.
The nations of Put and Libya were among her allies.
- <sup>10</sup> Yet Thebes fell, and her people were led away as captives.
Her babies were dashed to death against the stones of the streets.
Soldiers threw dice* to get Egyptian officers as servants.
All their leaders were bound in chains.
- <sup>11</sup> And you, Nineveh, will also stagger like a drunkard.
You will hide for fear of the attacking enemy.
- <sup>12</sup> All your fortresses will fall.
They will be devoured like the ripe figs that fall into the mouths of those who shake the trees.
- <sup>13</sup> Your troops will be as weak and helpless as women.
The gates of your land will be opened wide to the enemy and set on fire and burned.
- <sup>14</sup> Get ready for the siege!
Store up water!
Strengthen the defenses!
Go into the pits to trample clay,
and pack it into molds, making bricks to repair the walls.
- <sup>15</sup> But the fire will devour you;
the sword will cut you down.
The enemy will consume you like locusts, devouring everything they see.
There will be no escape,
even if you multiply like swarming locusts.
- <sup>16</sup> Your merchants have multiplied until they outnumber the stars.
But like a swarm of locusts, they strip the land and fly away.
- <sup>17</sup> Your guards* and officials are also like swarming locusts that crowd together in the hedges on a cold day.
But like locusts that fly away when the sun comes up,
all of them will fly away and disappear.
- <sup>18</sup> Your shepherds are asleep, O Assyrian king;
your princes lie dead in the dust.

Your people are scattered across the mountains
with no one to gather them together.
<sup>10</sup> There is no healing for your wound;
your injury is fatal.

All who hear of your destruction will clap their hands for joy.
Where can anyone be found who has not suffered from your continual cruelty?

HABAKKUK

ION HUNTZINGER, PhD

Of the many prophets who prophesied to the people of Judah in the seventh century BC when Assyria was in steep decline and Babylon on the rise, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and Habakkuk stand out. Though not much is known about Habakkuk the person, he prophesied during the years 608–587 BC in the final days of Judah before its fall to the Babylonians and the destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple. This means that he prophesied during a hard and difficult time in Judah's history. Early Jewish literature identifies Habakkuk as a Levite, which means he would have had some priestly responsibilities connected to the Temple.

The book of Habakkuk has four major sections:

- Chapter 1:1–11 records Habakkuk's complaint over the unrighteousness he sees among the people of Judah and his question of why God does not do something about it. God responds by saying He plans to judge the people through the Babylonians.
- Chapters 1:12–2:5 follow by reporting Habakkuk's confusion about God's judgment by the Babylonians and ask how God can use the unrighteous Babylonians to judge the unrighteousness of Judah. God responds by saying He knows who the Babylonians are, and thus, He knows what He is doing.
- Chapter 2:6–20 lists a series of "woes" against the Babylonians, revealing that even though God has chosen to use them to judge His people, they themselves will not go unjudged.
- Chapter 3 contains a psalm in which God is depicted in power to save His people, concluding with a beautiful expression of hope in the trustworthiness of God Himself.

An important issue addressed in the book, as in the book of Job, is theodicy: If God is good, loving, and powerful, then why does He allow good, innocent people to suffer? Habakkuk addresses the same question, yet on a different level. Why would God use the profane, arrogant, and unrighteous Babylonians to judge His people? At first, it does not make sense to Habakkuk, and he struggles with God's purposes (1:2; 1:12–2:1). When the prophet directs these questions to God, the divine response is unyielding. God knows who the Babylonians are and has chosen them to carry out His will even so:

"Look at the proud [the Babylonians]!

They trust in themselves, and their lives are crooked.

But the righteous [God's people] will live by their faithfulness to God" (2:4).

This declaration means that God knows the nature of the people He has chosen to judge Israel. They may be proud and puffed up; they may be unrighteous and not upright. Yet He will use them to see His ultimate plans for Israel accomplished. Will the people trust God's words and ways? They will show righteousness by believing God's words based on what He has done for them in the past. "But the righteous will live by their faithfulness to God" (2:4) means that God's people will trust Him because He has proven Himself to be trustworthy in the past.

Habakkuk's message resonated over the centuries, and he is quoted by both Paul (Romans 1:17) and the writer of Hebrews (Hebrews 10:38). What is the response of faith to the words God speaks, which at times are hard to comprehend? We find the answer in Habakkuk's final affirmation:

Even though the fig trees have no blossoms . . . yet I will rejoice in the LORD!

I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!"
(3:17–18).

Even when there is no evidence for belief in the present moment—when there is no blossom on the tree—the prophet says that he "will rejoice in the LORD" because God has proven to be faithful in the past. God's provision in the past gives Habakkuk confidence in the present and hope for the future. This is the faith of Habakkuk at the time of the Exile, and it is why he is known as God's faith-filled prophet.

1 This is the message that the prophet Habakkuk received in a vision.

HABAKKUK'S COMPLAINT

2 How long, O LORD, must I call for help?
But you do not listen!

"Violence is everywhere!" I cry, but you do not come to save.

3 Must I forever see these evil deeds?
Why must I watch all this misery?

Wherever I look,
I see destruction and violence.

I am surrounded by people who love to argue and fight.

4 The law has become paralyzed, and there is no justice in the courts.
The wicked far outnumber the righteous, so that justice has become perverted.

THE LORD'S REPLY

5 The LORD replied,

"Look around at the nations;
look and be amazed!*

For I am doing something in your own day, something you wouldn't believe even if someone told you about it.

6 I am raising up the Babylonians,* a cruel and violent people.

They will march across the world and conquer other lands.

7 They are notorious for their cruelty and do whatever they like.

8 Their horses are swifter than cheetahs* and fiercer than wolves at dusk.

Their charioteers charge from far away.
Like eagles, they swoop down to devour their prey.

9 "On they come, all bent on violence.
Their hordes advance like a desert wind, sweeping captives ahead of them like sand.

10 They scoff at kings and princes and scorn all their fortresses.
They simply pile ramps of earth against their walls and capture them!

11 They sweep past like the wind and are gone.
But they are deeply guilty, for their own strength is their god."

HABAKKUK'S SECOND COMPLAINT

12 O LORD my God, my Holy One, you who are eternal—surely you do not plan to wipe us out?

O LORD, our Rock, you have sent these Babylonians to correct us, to punish us for our many sins.

13 But you are pure and cannot stand the sight of evil.
Will you wink at their treachery?

Should you be silent while the wicked swallow up people more righteous than they?

14 Are we only fish to be caught and killed?
Are we only sea creatures that have no leader?

15 Must we be strung up on their hooks and caught in their nets while they rejoice and celebrate?

16 Then they will worship their nets and burn incense in front of them.
"These nets are the gods who have made us rich!"
they will claim.

17 Will you let them get away with this forever?
Will they succeed forever in their heartless conquests?

2 1 I will climb up to my watchtower and stand at my guardpost.
There I will wait to see what the LORD says and how he* will answer my complaint.

THE LORD'S SECOND REPLY

2 Then the LORD said to me,

"Write my answer plainly on tablets,
so that a runner can carry the correct
message to others.

3 This vision is for a future time.
It describes the end, and it will be fulfilled.
If it seems slow in coming, wait patiently, for it will surely take place.
It will not be delayed.

4 "Look at the proud!
They trust in themselves, and their lives are crooked.
But the righteous will live by their faithfulness to God.*

5 Wealth* is treacherous, and the arrogant are never at rest.
They open their mouths as wide as the grave,*
and like death, they are never satisfied.
In their greed they have gathered up many nations
and swallowed many peoples.

6 "But soon their captives will taunt them.
They will mock them, saying,
'What sorrow awaits you thieves!
Now you will get what you deserve!

1:5 Greek version reads Loath, you mothers; / loath and be amazed and die. Compare Acts 13:41. 1:6 Or Chaldeans. 1:8 Or leopards. 2:1 As in Syriac version; Hebrew reads I. 2:3b-4 Greek version reads If the vision is delayed, wait patiently, / for it will surely come and not delay. / I will take no pleasure in anyone who turns away. / But the righteous person will live by my faith. Compare Rom 1:17; Gal 3:11; Heb 10:37-38. 2:5a As in Dead Sea Scroll 1QpHab; other Hebrew manuscripts read Wine. 2:5b Hebrew as Sheol.

TESTIMONIES

Habakkuk 2:2

ROBERT MORRIS

Stories about God's work in your life are not just stories; they are testimonies. And testimonies are memorials to God's faithfulness and goodness in our lives. In Habakkuk 2:2, God says,

"Write my answer plainly on tablets
so that a runner can carry the correct
message to others."

When a person hears your testimony, it can encourage them and accelerate their walk with God.

The Bible is full of testimonies, such as the woman whom Jesus healed after 18 years of sickness (Luke 13:10–12), the 5,000 people Jesus fed (Matthew 14:13–21), and the entire nation of Israel that God set free from bondage in Egypt (Exodus 12:31–42). When you read these stories of God's goodness, you begin to think, If God did it for them, He can do it for me too. Your stories are really just testimonies of God's miraculous work in your life and the lives of others.

You've become rich by extortion, but how much longer can this go on?

<sup>7</sup> Suddenly, your debtors will take action.

They will turn on you and take all you have,
while you stand trembling and helpless.

<sup>8</sup> Because you have plundered many nations, now all the survivors will plunder you.

You committed murder throughout the countryside
and filled the towns with violence.

houses

with money gained dishonestly!
You believe your wealth will buy security, putting your family's nest beyond the reach of danger.

<sup>10</sup> But by the murders you committed, you have shamed your name and forfeited your lives.

<sup>11</sup> The very stones in the walls cry out against you, and the beams in the ceilings echo the complaint.

<sup>12</sup> "What sorrow awaits you who build cities with money gained through murder and corruption!

<sup>13</sup> Has not the LORD of Heaven's Armies promised that the wealth of nations will turn to ashes?

They work so hard,
but all in vain!

<sup>14</sup> For as the waters fill the sea, the earth will be filled with an awareness of the glory of the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> "What sorrow awaits you who make your neighbors drunk!

You force your cup on them so you can gloat over their shameful nakedness.

<sup>16</sup> But soon it will be your turn to be disgraced.
Come, drink and be exposed!*

Drink from the cup of the LORD's judgment, and all your glory will be turned to shame.

<sup>17</sup> You cut down the forests of Lebanon.
Now you will be cut down.

You destroyed the wild animals, so now their terror will be yours.

You committed murder throughout the countryside
and filled the towns with violence.

or a cast image that deceives you?
How foolish to trust in your own creation—a god that can't even talk!

wooden idols,

"Wake up and save us!"

To speechless stone images you say, 'Rise up and teach us!'

Can an idol tell you what to do?

They may be overlaid with gold and silver, but they are lifeless inside.

But the LORD is in his holy Temple.

Let all the earth be silent before him."

HABAKKUK'S PRAYER

3 This prayer was sung by the prophet
Habakkuk*:

<sup>2</sup> I have heard all about you, LORD.

I am filled with awe by your amazing works.

In this time of our deep need, help us again as you did in years gone by.
And in your anger,
remember your mercy.

<sup>1</sup> I see God moving across the deserts from Edom,†
the Holy One coming from Mount Paran.*
His brilliant splendor fills the heavens, and the earth is filled with his praise.

2:16 Dead Sea Scrolls and Greek and Syriac versions read and stagger! 3:1 Hebrew adds according to shigionoth, probably indicating the musical setting for the prayer. 3:3a Hebrew Teman. 3:3b Hebrew adds selah; also in 3:9, 13. The meaning of this Hebrew term is uncertain; it is probably a musical or literary term.

Rays of light flash from his hands, where his awesome power is hidden.

plague follows close behind.

<sup>6</sup> When he stops, the earth shakes.
When he looks, the nations tremble.
He shatters the everlasting mountains and levels the eternal hills.
He is the Eternal One!*

<sup>7</sup> I see the people of Cushan in distress, and the nation of Midian trembling in terror.

<sup>8</sup> Was it in anger, LORD, that you struck the rivers and parted the sea?
Were you displeased with them?
No, you were sending your chariots of salvation!

<sup>9</sup> You brandished your bow and your quiver of arrows.
You split open the earth with flowing rivers.

Onward swept the raging waters.
The mighty deep cried out, lifting its hands in submission.

<sup>11</sup> The sun and moon stood still in the sky as your brilliant arrows flew and your glittering spear flashed.

<sup>12</sup> You marched across the land in anger and trampled the nations in your fury.

<sup>13</sup> You went out to rescue your chosen people, to save your anointed ones.

You crushed the heads of the wicked and stripped their bones from head to toe.

you destroyed the chief of those who rushed out like a whirlwind, thinking Israel would be easy prey.

<sup>15</sup> You trampled the sea with your horses, and the mighty waters piled high.

<sup>16</sup> I trembled inside when I heard this;
my lips quivered with fear.
My legs gave way beneath me,* and I shook in terror.

I will wait quietly for the coming day when disaster will strike the people who invade us.

no blossoms,
and there are no grapes on the vines;
even though the olive crop fails, and the fields lie empty and barren;
even though the flocks die in the fields, and the cattle barns are empty,

<sup>18</sup> yet I will rejoice in the LORD!
I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

<sup>19</sup> The Sovereign LORD is my strength!
He makes me as surefooted as a deer,* able to tread upon the heights.

(For the choir director: This prayer is to be accompanied by stringed instruments.)

3:6 Or The ancient paths belong to him. 3:16 Hebrew Decay entered my bones. 3:19 Or He gives me the speed of a deer.

ZEPHANIAH

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The book of Zephaniah begins by tracing the prophet's lineage back to King Hezekiah, who was a descendant of King David. It also links his prophetic ministry to the time of King Josiah (640-609 BC), who discovered the Book of the Law in the Temple (2 Kings 22:1-23:3). These two facts mean Zephaniah would have had access to the court of the king because of his ancestry and would have witnessed the rapid decline of Assyria in the late seventh century BC because of the time he prophesied.

The book of Zephaniah has three parts:

- Chapters 1:2-2:3 describe God's sweeping judgment upon Judah for idolatry (1:17). This time of judgment is described as the day of the Lord (1:7, 14).
- Chapters 2:4-3:8 tell about God's judgment of the nations around Judah, particularly the cities of Gaza, Ashkelon, Ashdod, and Ekron to the west, the countries of Moab and Ammon to the east, and the countries of Ethiopia to the south and Assyria to the north (chapter 2). If God will judge His people, He will also judge the surrounding nations.
- Chapter 3:9-20 promises a time after judgment when God will save the nations and also be present in the midst of His people as the King of Israel.

Zephaniah joins other prophets like Amos (Amos 5:18-20) and Isaiah (Isaiah 13:9-22) in describing "the day of the LORD," when God will establish His justice among His people, the nations, and all of creation. Though the prophets often describe that day as one of darkness and despair, it primarily involves God's justice. His justice results in punishment for sin but also features the promotion of humility. Zephaniah depicts the God of Judah as a God of justice.

The judgment of which Zephaniah prophesies is related to the pride of Judah (and that of the nations) as it is expressed in the practice of idolatry (1:4-6). The people of Judah had imitated the worship of Assyria (1:8-9) and engaged in idolatry, which influenced how they lived with one another. This is why the prophet calls the people of Judah to seek humility (2:3). At the heart of idolatry is the pride of people who want to form their own idols and arrange their own religious rituals. According to the prophet, the humble person (like Moses, according to Numbers 12:3) recognizes the power of God and submits to the form of worship He has given in His covenant. The reforms to Temple worship instituted by King Josiah during the time of Zephaniah (see 2 Kings 22-23 listed above) point to the kind of humility that the prophet encourages. God desires offerings of worship from humble people who live justly with one another (Zephaniah 3:11-13).

1 The LORD gave this message to Zephaniah when Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. Zephaniah was the son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah.

COMING JUDGMENT AGAINST JUDAH

<sup>2</sup> “I will sweep away everything from the face of the earth,” says the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> “I will sweep away people and animals alike. I will sweep away the birds of the sky and the fish in the sea.

I will reduce the wicked to heaps of rubble,* and I will wipe humanity from the face of the earth,” says the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> “I will crush Judah and Jerusalem with my fist and destroy every last trace of their Baal worship.

I will put an end to all the idolatrous priests, so that even the memory of them will disappear.

<sup>5</sup> For they go up to their roofs and bow down to the sun, moon, and stars. They claim to follow the LORD, but then they worship Molech,* too.

<sup>6</sup> And I will destroy those who used to worship me but now no longer do. They no longer ask for the LORD’s guidance or seek my blessings.”

<sup>7</sup> Stand in silence in the presence of the Sovereign LORD, for the awesome day of the LORD’s judgment is near.

The LORD has prepared his people for a great slaughter and has chosen their executioners.*

<sup>8</sup> “On that day of judgment,” says the LORD,

“I will punish the leaders and princes of Judah and all those following pagan customs.

<sup>9</sup> Yes, I will punish those who participate in pagan worship ceremonies, and those who fill their masters’ houses with violence and deceit.

<sup>10</sup> “On that day,” says the LORD, “a cry of alarm will come from the Fish Gate and echo throughout the New Quarter of the city.*

And a great crash will sound from the hills.

<sup>11</sup> Wail in sorrow, all you who live in the market area,* for all the merchants and traders will be destroyed.

They think the LORD will do nothing to them, either good or bad.

<sup>13</sup> So their property will be plundered, their homes will be ransacked.

They will build new homes but never live in them.

They will plant vineyards but never drink wine from them.

<sup>14</sup> “That terrible day of the LORD is near.

Swiftly it comes—a day of bitter tears, a day when even strong men will cry out.

<sup>15</sup> It will be a day when the LORD’s anger is poured out—a day of terrible distress and anguish, a day of ruin and desolation,

a day of darkness and gloom,

a day of clouds and blackness,

<sup>16</sup> a day of trumpet calls and battle cries.

Down go the walled cities and the strongest battlements!

<sup>17</sup> “Because you have sinned against the LORD, I will make you grope around like the blind.

Your blood will be poured into the dust, and your bodies will lie rotting on the ground.”

<sup>18</sup> Your silver and gold will not save you on that day of the LORD’s anger.

For the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy.

He will make a terrifying end of all the people on earth.*

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

Act now, before the fierce fury of the LORD falls and the terrible day of the LORD’s anger begins.

Seek to do what is right and to live humbly.

Perhaps even yet the LORD will protect you—protect you from his anger on that day of destruction.

1:3 The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain. 1:5 Hebrew Malcam, a variant spelling of Molech; or it could possibly mean their king. 1:7 Hebrew has prepared a sacrifice and sanctified his guests. 1:10 Or the Second Quarter, a newer section of Jerusalem. Hebrew reads the Mishneh. 1:11 Or in the valley, a lower section of Jerusalem. Hebrew reads the Maktesh. 1:18 Or the people living in the land.

JUDGMENT AGAINST PHILISTIA

- <sup>4</sup> Gaza and Ashkelon will be abandoned, Ashdod and Ekron torn down.
- <sup>5</sup> And what sorrow awaits you Philistines* who live along the coast and in the land of Canaan, for this judgment is against you, too!
The LORD will destroy you until not one of you is left.
- <sup>6</sup> The Philistine coast will become a wilderness pasture, a place of shepherd camps and enclosures for sheep and goats.
- <sup>7</sup> The remnant of the tribe of Judah will pasture there.
They will rest at night in the abandoned houses in Ashkelon.
For the LORD their God will visit his people in kindness and restore their prosperity again.

JUDGMENT AGAINST MOAB AND AMMON

- <sup>8</sup> “I have heard the taunts of the Moabites and the insults of the Ammonites, mocking my people and invading their borders.
- <sup>9</sup> Now, as surely as I live,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel,
“Moab and Ammon will be destroyed—destroyed as completely as Sodom and Gomorrah.
Their land will become a place of stinging nettles, salt pits, and eternal desolation.
The remnant of my people will plunder them and take their land.”
- <sup>10</sup> They will receive the wages of their pride, for they have scoffed at the people of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.
- <sup>11</sup> The LORD will terrify them as he destroys all the gods in the land.
Then nations around the world will worship
the LORD,
each in their own land.

JUDGMENT AGAINST ETHIOPIA AND ASSYRIA

- <sup>12</sup> “You Ethiopians* will also be slaughtered by my sword,” says the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup> And the LORD will strike the lands of the north with his fist, destroying the land of Assyria.
He will make its great capital, Nineveh, a desolate wasteland,
parched like a desert.
- <sup>14</sup> The proud city will become a pasture for flocks and herds, and all sorts of wild animals will settle there.

The desert owl and screech owl will roost on its ruined columns, their calls echoing through the gaping windows.

Rubble will block all the doorways, and the cedar paneling will be exposed to the weather.

- <sup>15</sup> This is the boisterous city, once so secure.
“I am the greatest!” it boasted.
“No other city can compare with me!”
But now, look how it has become an utter ruin,
a haven for wild animals.
Everyone passing by will laugh in derision and shake a defiant fist.

JERUSALEM’S REBELLION AND REDEMPTION

- 3 <sup>1</sup> What sorrow awaits rebellious, polluted Jerusalem,
the city of violence and crime!
- <sup>2</sup> No one can tell it anything;
it refuses all correction.
It does not trust in the LORD or draw near to its God.
- <sup>3</sup> Its leaders are like roaring lions hunting for their victims.
Its judges are like ravenous wolves at evening time, who by dawn have left no trace of their prey.
- <sup>4</sup> Its prophets are arrogant liars seeking their own gain.
Its priests defile the Temple by disobeying God’s instructions.
- <sup>5</sup> But the LORD is still there in the city, and he does no wrong.
Day by day he hands down justice,
and he does not fail.
But the wicked know no shame.
- <sup>6</sup> “I have wiped out many nations, devastating their fortress walls and towers.
Their streets are now deserted;
their cities lie in silent ruin.
There are no survivors—
none at all.
- <sup>7</sup> I thought, ‘Surely they will have reverence for me now!
Surely they will listen to my warnings.
Then I won’t need to strike again, destroying their homes.’
But no, they get up early to continue their evil deeds.
Therefore, be patient,” says the LORD.
“Soon I will stand and accuse these evil nations.

- For I have decided to gather the kingdoms of the earth and pour out my fiercest anger and fury on them.
All the earth will be devoured by the fire of my jealousy.
- <sup>9</sup> “Then I will purify the speech of all people, so that everyone can worship the LORD together.
- <sup>10</sup> My scattered people who live beyond the rivers of Ethiopia* will come to present their offerings.
- <sup>11</sup> On that day you will no longer need to be ashamed, for you will no longer be rebels against me.
I will remove all proud and arrogant people from among you.
There will be no more haughtiness on my holy mountain.
- <sup>12</sup> Those who are left will be the lowly and humble, for it is they who trust in the name of the LORD.
- <sup>13</sup> The remnant of Israel will do no wrong;
they will never tell lies or deceive one another.
They will eat and sleep in safety, and no one will make them afraid.”
- <sup>14</sup> Sing, O daughter of Zion;
shout aloud, O Israel!
Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,
O daughter of Jerusalem!
- <sup>15</sup> For the LORD will remove his hand of judgment
and will disperse the armies of your enemy.
- And the LORD himself, the King of Israel, will live among you!
At last your troubles will be over,
and you will never again fear disaster.
- <sup>16</sup> On that day the announcement to Jerusalem will be,
“Cheer up, Zion! Don’t be afraid!
<sup>17</sup> For the LORD your God is living among you.
He is a mighty savior.
He will take delight in you with gladness.
With his love, he will calm all your fears.*
He will rejoice over you with joyful songs.”
- <sup>18</sup> “I will gather you who mourn for the appointed festivals;
you will be disgraced no more.*
- <sup>19</sup> And I will deal severely with all who have oppressed you.
I will save the weak and helpless ones;
I will bring together
those who were chased away.
I will give glory and fame to my former exiles, wherever they have been mocked and shamed.
- <sup>20</sup> On that day I will gather you together and bring you home again.
I will give you a good name, a name of distinction,
among all the nations of the earth, as I restore your fortunes before their very eyes.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

HAGGAI

ION HUNTZINGER, PHD

The prophet Haggai prophesied in Jerusalem in 520 BC at the same time as Zechariah. He is known simply as “the prophet,” which indicates he was well known at that time, and his name comes from the Hebrew word hag, meaning ‘festival,’ suggesting he was born on a holy day. Many of the people who had been taken into exile in 587 BC were permitted to return in 539 BC by Cyrus, the king of Persia (2 Chronicles 36:23; Ezra 1:2–4). They began rebuilding the Temple when they arrived back in the land. However, the work that started so quickly soon stopped when local opposition to the project arose from those who did not want to see the Temple rebuilt and Judah returned to its former power (Ezra 4:1–5; 5:3–5). When a new king (Darius, 521–486 BC) rose to the throne in Persia, God inspired Haggai to exhort the people to recommit themselves to rebuilding the Temple (Haggai 1:1–2).

The book of Haggai can be divided by four dated prophecies (1:1; 2:1; 2:10; 2:20), all of which occur within a four-month period during the second year of King Darius in 520 BC:

— The first prophecy (1:1–11) was given at the end of August when Haggai declares that the hardship the people had experienced after their return to the land was because they had put their own interests before those of God. They had devoted time and resources to rebuilding their homes and fields and had neglected the Temple.

- The second prophecy (2:1–9) was delivered in October on the last day of the Festival of Shelters. It encouraged people to rejoice in the Temple that was being rebuilt because, even if it might not appear as great as Solomon’s Temple to those who had seen the previous one, its glory would be greater (2:3; Ezra 3:12–13; Zechariah 4:10).
- The third prophecy (2:10–19) was given in December during the growing season. It reminded the people to pursue holiness in their offerings and that time away from their own interests like farming would result in greater harvests.
- The fourth prophecy (2:20–23) immediately followed the third and happened on that same day. It declared that Zerubbabel, the Jewish governor who served under Darius, would be God’s “signet ring” to accomplish His purposes. This word was fulfilled when work on the Temple was completed in 515 BC under his supervision.

The book of Haggai emphasizes the priority of worship in the lives of God’s people. The prophet declares that when people give their time, energy, and resources to God’s worship by rebuilding the Temple, then God will be present to them and provide for their needs.

A CALL TO REBUILD THE TEMPLE

1 On August 29* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD gave a message through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

<sup>2</sup>"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: The people are saying, 'The time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD.'"

Then the LORD sent this message through the prophet Haggai: <sup>4</sup>"Why are you living in luxurious houses while my house lies in ruins? <sup>5</sup>This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Look at what's happening to you! <sup>6</sup>You have planted much but harvest little. You eat but are not satisfied. You drink but are still thirsty. You put on clothes but cannot keep warm. Your wages disappear as though you were putting them in pockets filled with holes!

<sup>7</sup>"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Look at what's happening to you! <sup>8</sup>Now go up into the hills, bring down timber, and rebuild my house. Then I will take pleasure in it and be honored, says the LORD. <sup>9</sup>You hoped for rich harvests, but they were poor. And when you brought your harvest home, I blew it away. Why? Because my house lies in ruins, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, while all of you are busy building your own fine houses. <sup>10</sup>It's because of you that the heavens withhold the dew and the earth produces no crops. <sup>11</sup>I have called for a drought on your fields and hills—a drought to wither the grain and grapes and olive trees and all your other crops, a drought to starve you and your livestock and to ruin everything you have worked so hard to get."

OBEDIENCE TO GOD'S CALL

<sup>12</sup>Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the whole remnant of God's people began to obey the message from the LORD their God. When they heard the words of the prophet Haggai, whom the LORD their God had sent, the people feared the LORD.

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai, the LORD's messenger, gave the people this message from the LORD: "I am with you, says the LORD!"

<sup>14</sup>So the LORD sparked the enthusiasm of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the enthusiasm of Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the enthusiasm of the whole remnant of God's people. They began to work on the house of their God, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, <sup>15</sup>on September 21* of the second year of King Darius's reign.

THE NEW TEMPLE'S DIMINISHED SPLENDOR

2 Then on October 17 of that same year,* the LORD sent another message through the prophet Haggai. <sup>24</sup>"Say this to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of God's people there in the land: <sup>34</sup>"Does anyone remember this house—this Temple—in its former splendor? How, in comparison, does it look to you now? It must seem like nothing at all! <sup>4</sup>But now the LORD says: Be strong, Zerubbabel. Be strong, Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people still left in the land. And now get to work, for I am with you, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>5</sup>My Spirit remains among you, just as I promised when you came out of Egypt. So do not be afraid."

<sup>6</sup>"For this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: In just a little while I will again shake the heavens and the earth, the oceans and the dry land. <sup>7</sup>I will shake all the nations, and the treasures of all the nations will be brought to this Temple. I will fill this place with glory, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>8</sup>The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>9</sup>The future glory of this Temple will be greater than its past glory, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. And in this place I will bring peace. I, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!"

BLESSINGS PROMISED FOR OBEDIENCE

<sup>10</sup>On December 18* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD sent this message to the prophet Haggai: <sup>11</sup>"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says. Ask the priests this question about the law: <sup>12</sup>'If one of you is carrying some meat from a holy sacrifice in his robes and his robe happens to brush against some bread or stew, wine or olive oil, or any other kind of food, will it also become holy?'"

The priests replied, "No."

<sup>13</sup>Then Haggai asked, "If someone becomes ceremonially unclean by touching a dead person and then touches any of these foods, will the food be defiled?"

And the priests answered, "Yes."

<sup>14</sup>Then Haggai responded, "That is how it is with this people and this nation, says the LORD. Everything they do and everything they offer is defiled by their sin. <sup>15</sup>Look at what was happening to you before you began to lay the foundation of the LORD's Temple. <sup>16</sup>When you hoped for a twenty-bushel crop, you harvested only ten. When you expected to draw fifty gallons from the winepress, you found only twenty. <sup>17</sup>I sent blight and mildew and hail to destroy everything you

PROMISES FOR ZERUBBABEL

<sup>20</sup>On that same day, December 18, * the LORD sent this second message to Haggai: <sup>21</sup>“Tell Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, that I am about to shake the heavens and the earth. <sup>22</sup>I will overthrow royal thrones and destroy the power of foreign kingdoms. I will overturn their chariots and riders. The horses will fall, and their riders will kill each other.

<sup>23</sup>“But when this happens, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, I will honor you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant. I will make you like a signet ring on my finger, says the LORD, for I have chosen you. I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!”

ZECHARIAH

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

There are more than 25 people in the Bible named Zechariah, which means 'Yahweh has remembered.' The particular Zechariah for whom the book is named prophesied in Jerusalem during the years 520-518 BC at the same time as Haggai (Ezra 5:1). He came from a priestly family and had returned to Judah from the Exile with the Jewish governor Zerubbabel (Nehemiah 12:16). The writers of the New Testament Gospels quote Zechariah more than any other Old Testament book in relation to Jesus' passion (His arrest, trial, and crucifixion).

Like Ezekiel, who prophesied 50 years earlier, Zechariah was a priest concerned about the worship of God. That is why his book is filled with visions and oracles related to worship. A primary message of the book is that God's people are called to worship Him, and God will do what is necessary to make that possible.

The book of Zechariah contains two major sections:

- Chapters 1-8 feature eight visions that address the current situation of Judah (1:7-6:8), followed by a series of messages that are described as coming from the Lord.
- Chapters 9-14 are divided into two prophecies. The first is poetic and condemns the enemies of God's people even as it promises to restore Judah and Israel (chapters 9-11). The second is narrative and describes what the people should expect in their future "on that day," a phrase that is used 16 times (chapters 12-14).

Zechariah receives his visions at night (1:7-8). This fact highlights the type of revelation they give. Since night not only represents time but also ignorance or lack of understanding, the visions God gives to Zechariah represent the knowledge He possesses and is now sharing with His prophet in contrast to surrounding ignorance. God does not want His people to live in ignorance but with understanding. And the imagery of the visions is intended to guarantee that the knowledge given is remembered. It would be hard to forget a vision of a man on a red horse, the high priest with filthy clothes, a flying scroll, a woman in a basket, or four chariots with different colored horses. God gives understanding to His people and helps them remember the knowledge that He gives.

Altogether, the visions center on the renewal of worship in the life of God's people. This can be seen in that the prophet has arranged the visions in the form of a chiasm. A chiasm was a popular way of writing used at that time to emphasize the main point of a passage or teaching by linking the first and last elements of the passage or teaching together, then the second and next-to-last elements, and so on, down to the two central elements side-by-side. The two elements of the central pair represented the core of the passage or teaching. For example:

Thus, the vision of a horseman is paired with the vision of horse-drawn chariots (1:7-17; 6:1-8). The vision of scattered horns is paired with the vision of a woman in a basket being taken away (1:18-21; 5:5-11). The vision of a man who measures Jerusalem is matched with that of a flying scroll that judges or "measures" falsehood (2:1-13; 5:1-4). At the center of the chiasm, the vision of the high priest is matched with that of a golden lampstand (3:1-10; 4:1-14). In these visions, Zechariah sees Jeshua is given clean garments (he is purified), even as he sees a lampstand and hears that Zerubbabel will complete the rebuilding of the Temple through the power of the Spirit of the Lord (4:6). According to the book, these visions were given in February 519 BC, four years prior to the completion of the Temple in 515 BC (Ezra 6:13-15).

The second part of the book of Zechariah contains two messages given by the prophet that shift the focus from the near present to the more distant future. The first message (chapters 9-11) is poetic. It begins with judgment against the nations that have fought against Judah and continues with a vision of a coming king who will save the people. Despite the certainty of their salvation, the people will suffer much. The second message (chapters 12-14) is a narrative that describes what will happen "on that day" (12:3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 11; 13:1, 2, 4; 14:4, 6, 8, 9, 13, 20, 21), which culminates in the Festival of Shelters and the worship of God as King in Jerusalem by all nations (14:16-21). Just as the first major part of Zechariah (chapters 1-8) emphasizes the worship of God at the Temple by placing the two visions of the high priest and the lampstand in the middle of all the visions, so also the second major part (chapters 9-14) emphasizes worship by concluding with the promise of all nations joining God's people in worship in Jerusalem. The book of Zechariah sees God's present activity as well as His future ministry in terms of the restoration of His people, along with the nations, to worship Him.

A CALL TO RETURN TO THE LORD

1 In November* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD gave this message to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah and grandson of Iddo:

<sup>2</sup>"I, the LORD, was very angry with your ancestors. <sup>3</sup>Therefore, say to the people, 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.' <sup>4</sup>Don't be like your ancestors who would not listen or pay attention when the earlier prophets said to them, 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Turn from your evil ways, and stop all your evil practices.'

<sup>5</sup>"Where are your ancestors now? They and the prophets are long dead. <sup>6</sup>But everything I said through my servants the prophets happened to your ancestors, just as I said. As a result, they repented and said, 'We have received what we deserved from the LORD of Heaven's Armies. He has done what he said he would do.'"

A MAN AMONG THE MYRTLE TREES

<sup>7</sup>Three months later, on February 15,* the LORD sent another message to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah and grandson of Iddo.

<sup>8</sup>In a vision during the night, I saw a man sitting on a red horse that was standing among some myrtle trees in a small valley. Behind him were riders on red, brown, and white horses. <sup>9</sup>I asked the angel who was talking with me, "My lord, what do these horses mean?"

"I will show you," the angel replied.

<sup>10</sup>The rider standing among the myrtle trees then explained, "They are the ones the LORD has sent out to patrol the earth."

<sup>11</sup>Then the other riders reported to the angel of the LORD, who was standing among the myrtle trees, "We have been patrolling the earth, and the whole earth is at peace."

<sup>12</sup>Upon hearing this, the angel of the LORD prayed this prayer: "O LORD of Heaven's Armies, for seventy years now you have been angry with Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. How long until you again show mercy to them?" <sup>13</sup>And the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

<sup>14</sup>Then the angel said to me, "Shout this message for all to hear: 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: My love for Jerusalem and Mount Zion is passionate and strong.' <sup>15</sup>But I am very angry with the other nations that are now enjoying peace and security. I was only a little angry with my people, but the nations inflicted harm on them far beyond my intentions.

<sup>16</sup>"Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I have returned to show mercy to Jerusalem. My Temple will be rebuilt, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, and measurements will be taken for the reconstruction of Jerusalem."

<sup>17</sup>"Say this also: 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: The towns of Israel will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem as his own.'"

FOUR HORNS AND FOUR BLACKSMITHS

<sup>18</sup>"Then I looked up and saw four animal horns. <sup>19</sup>"What are these?" I asked the angel who was talking with me.

He replied, "These horns represent the nations that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

<sup>20</sup>Then the LORD showed me four blacksmiths.

The angel replied, "These four horns—these nations—scattered and humbled Judah. Now these blacksmiths have come to terrify those nations and throw them down and destroy them."

FUTURE PROSPERITY OF JERUSALEM

2 <sup>1</sup>"When I looked again, I saw a man with a measuring line in his hand. <sup>2</sup>"Where are you going?" I asked.

He replied, "I am going to measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long it is."

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel who was with me went to meet a second angel who was coming toward him. <sup>4</sup>The other angel said, "Hurry, and say to that young man, 'Jerusalem will someday be so full of people and livestock that there won't be room enough for everyone! Many will live outside the city walls.' <sup>5</sup>Then I, myself, will be a protective wall of fire around Jerusalem, says the LORD. And I will be the glory inside the city!'"

THE EXILES ARE CALLED HOME

<sup>6</sup>The LORD says, "Come away! Flee from Babylon in the land of the north, for I have scattered you to the four winds. <sup>7</sup>Come away, people of Zion, you who are exiled in Babylon!"

<sup>8</sup>After a period of glory, the LORD of Heaven's Armies sent me* against the nations who plundered you. For he said, "Anyone who harms you harms my most precious possession." <sup>9</sup>I will raise my fist to crush them, and their own slaves will plunder them." Then you will know that the LORD of Heaven's Armies has sent me.

<sup>10</sup>The LORD says, "Shout and rejoice, O beautiful Jerusalem,* for I am coming to live among you. <sup>11</sup>Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day, and they, too, will be my people. I will live among you, and you will know

CLEANSING FOR THE HIGH PRIEST

3 Then the angel showed me Jeshua* the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD. The Accuser, Satan,* was there at the angel's right hand, making accusations against Jeshua. <sup>2</sup>And the LORD said to Satan, "I, the LORD, reject your accusations, Satan. Yes, the LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebukes you. This man is like a burning stick that has been snatched from the fire."

<sup>3</sup>Jeshua's clothing was filthy as he stood there before the angel. "So the angel said to the others standing there, "Take off his filthy clothes." And turning to Jeshua he said, "See, I have taken away your sins, and now I am giving you these fine new clothes."

<sup>5</sup>Then I said, "They should also place a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean priestly turban on his head and dressed him in new clothes while the angel of the LORD stood by.

<sup>6</sup>Then the angel of the LORD spoke very solemnly to Jeshua and said, <sup>7</sup>"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: If you follow my ways and carefully serve me, then you will be given authority over my Temple and its courtyards. I will let you walk among these others standing here.

<sup>8</sup>"Listen to me, O Jeshua the high priest, and all you other priests. You are symbols of things to come. Soon I am going to bring my servant, the Branch. <sup>9</sup>Now look at the jewel I have set before Jeshua, a single stone with seven facets.* I will engrave an inscription on it, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, and I will remove the sins of this land in a single day.

<sup>10</sup>"And on that day, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, each of you will invite your neighbor to sit with you peacefully under your own grapevine and fig tree."

A LAMPSTAND AND TWO OLIVE TREES

4 Then the angel who had been talking with me returned and woke me, as though I had been asleep. <sup>2</sup>"What do you see now?" he asked.

I answered, "I see a solid gold lampstand with a bowl of oil on top of it. Around the bowl are seven lamps, each having seven spouts with wicks. <sup>3</sup>And I see two olive trees, one on each side of the bowl." <sup>4</sup>Then I asked the angel, "What are these, my lord? What do they mean?"

"No, my lord," I replied.

<sup>6</sup>Then he said to me, "This is what the LORD says to Zerubbabel: It is not by force nor by strength, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>7</sup>Nothing, not even a mighty mountain, will stand in Zerubbabel's way; it will become a level plain before him! And when Zerubbabel sets the final stone of the Temple in place, the people will shout: 'May God bless it! May God bless it!'" <sup>8</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Then another message came to me from the LORD: <sup>9</sup>"Zerubbabel is the one who laid the foundation of this Temple, and he will complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Heaven's Armies has sent me. <sup>10</sup>Do not despise these small beginnings, for the LORD rejoices to see the work begin, to see the plumb line in Zerubbabel's hand."

(The seven lamps* represent the eyes of the LORD that search all around the world.)

<sup>11</sup>Then I asked the angel, "What are these two olive trees on each side of the lampstand, <sup>12</sup>and what are the two olive branches that pour out golden oil through two gold tubes?"

<sup>13</sup>"Don't you know?" he asked.

"No, my lord," I replied.

<sup>14</sup>Then he said to me, "They represent the two anointed ones* who stand in the court of the Lord of all the earth."

A FLYING SCROLL

5 I looked up again and saw a scroll flying through the air.

"I see a flying scroll," I replied. "It appears to be about 30 feet long and 15 feet wide." <sup>3</sup>

<sup>3</sup>Then he said to me, "This scroll contains the curse that is going out over the entire land. One side of the scroll says that those who steal will be banished from the land; the other side says that those who swear falsely will be banished from the land. <sup>4</sup>And this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: I am sending this curse into the house of every thief and into the house of everyone who swears falsely using my name. And my curse will remain in that house and completely destroy it—even its timbers and stones."

A WOMAN IN A BASKET

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel who was talking with me came forward and said, "Look up and see what's coming."

<sup>6</sup>"What is it?" I asked.

He replied, "It is a basket for measuring grain,* and it's filled with the sins* of everyone throughout the land."

<sup>7</sup>Then the heavy lead cover was lifted off the basket, and there was a woman sitting inside it. <sup>8</sup>The angel said, "The woman's name is Wickedness,"

3:1a Hebrew Joshua, a variant spelling of Jeshua; also in 3:3, 4, 6, 8, 9. 3:1b Hebrew The satan; similarly in 3:2. 3:9 Hebrew seven eyes. 4:7 Hebrew 'Grace, grace to it.' 4:10 Or The seven facets (see 3:9); Hebrew reads These seven. 4:14 Or two heavenly beings; Hebrew reads two sons of fresh oil. 5:2 Hebrew 20 cubits [9.2 meters] long and 10 cubits [4.6 meters] wide. 5:6a Hebrew an ephah [20 quarts or 22 liters]; also in 5:7, 8, 9, 10, 11. 5:6b As in Greek version; Hebrew reads the appearance.

and he pushed her back into the basket and closed the heavy lid again.

<sup>9</sup>Then I looked up and saw two women flying toward us, gliding on the wind. They had wings like a stork, and they picked up the basket and flew into the sky.

<sup>11</sup>He replied, "To the land of Babylonia,* where they will build a temple for the basket. And when the temple is ready, they will set the basket there on its pedestal."

FOUR CHARIOTS

6 Then I looked up again and saw four chariots coming from between two bronze mountains. <sup>2</sup>The first chariot was pulled by red horses, the second by black horses, <sup>3</sup>the third by white horses, and the fourth by powerful dappled-gray horses. <sup>4</sup>"And what are these, my lord?" I asked the angel who was talking with me.

<sup>7</sup>The powerful horses were eager to set out to patrol the earth. And the LORD said, "Go and patrol the earth!" So they left at once on their patrol.

<sup>8</sup>Then the LORD summoned me and said, "Look, those who went north have vented the anger of my Spirit* there in the land of the north."

THE CROWNING OF JESHUA

<sup>9</sup>Then I received another message from the LORD: <sup>10</sup>"Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah will bring gifts of silver and gold from the Jews exiled in Babylon. As soon as they arrive, meet them at the home of Josiah son of Zephaniah. <sup>11</sup>Accept their gifts, and make a crown from the silver and gold. Then put the crown on the head of Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest. <sup>12</sup>Tell him, 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Here is the man called the Branch. He will branch out from where he is and build the Temple of the LORD. <sup>13</sup>Yes, he will build the Temple of the LORD. Then he will receive royal honor and will rule as king from his throne. He will also serve as priest from his throne,* and there will be perfect harmony between his two roles.'

<sup>14</sup>"The crown will be a memorial in the Temple of the LORD to honor those who gave it—Heldai,* Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah* son of Zephaniah."

<sup>15</sup>People will come from distant lands to rebuild the Temple of the LORD. And when this happens, you will know that my messages have been from the LORD of Heaven's Armies. All this will happen if you carefully obey what the LORD your God says

A CALL TO JUSTICE AND MERCY

7 On December 7<sup>a</sup> of the fourth year of King Darius's reign, another message came to Zechariah from the LORD. <sup>2</sup>The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regemmelech,* along with their attendants, to seek the LORD's favor. <sup>3</sup>They were to ask this question of the prophets and the priests at the Temple of the LORD of Heaven's Armies: "Should we continue to mourn and fast each summer on the anniversary of the Temple's destruction,* as we have done for so many years?"

<sup>4</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies sent me this message in reply: <sup>5</sup>"Say to all your people and your priests, 'During these seventy years of exile, when you fasted and mourned in the summer and in early autumn,* was it really for me that you were fasting?' <sup>6</sup>And even now in your holy festivals, aren't you eating and drinking just to please yourselves? <sup>7</sup>Isn't this the same message the LORD proclaimed through the prophets in years past when Jerusalem and the towns of Judah were bustling with people, and the Negev and the foothills of Judah* were well populated?"

<sup>8</sup>Then this message came to Zechariah from the LORD: <sup>9</sup>"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Judge fairly, and show mercy and kindness to one another. <sup>10</sup>Do not oppress widows, orphans, foreigners, and the poor. And do not scheme against each other.

<sup>11</sup>"Your ancestors refused to listen to this message. They stubbornly turned away and put their fingers in their ears to keep from hearing. <sup>12</sup>They made their hearts as hard as stone, so they could not hear the instructions or the messages that the LORD of Heaven's Armies had sent them by his Spirit through the earlier prophets. That is why the LORD of Heaven's Armies was so angry with them.

<sup>13</sup>"Since they refused to listen when I called to them, I would not listen when they called to me, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>14</sup>As with a whirlwind, I scattered them among the distant nations, where they lived as strangers. Their land became so desolate that no one even traveled through it. They turned their pleasant land into a desert."

5:11 Hebrew the land of Shinar. 6:5 Or the four winds.

6:6 Hebrew is going after them. 6:8 Hebrew have given my Spirit rest. 6:11 Hebrew Joshua, a variant spelling of Jeshua. 6:13 Or

There will be a priest by his throne. 6:14a As in Syriac version

(compare 6:10); Hebrew reads Hen. 7:1 Hebrew On the fourth lunar calendar. This event occurred on December 7, 518 B.C.; also see note on 1:1. 7:2 Or Bethel-sharezer had sent Regemmelech.

7:3 Hebrew mourn and fast in the fifth month. The Temple had been destroyed in the fifth month of the ancient Hebrew lunar calendar (August 586 B.C.); see 2 Kgs 25:8. 7:5 Hebrew fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months. The fifth month of the ancient Hebrew lunar calendar usually occurs within the months of July and August. The seventh month usually occurs within the months of September and October; both the Day of Atonement and the Festival of Shelters were celebrated in the seventh month. 7:7 Hebrew the Shepheiah.

PROMISED BLESSINGS FOR JERUSALEM

8 Then another message came to me from the LORD of Heaven's Armies:<sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: My love for Mount Zion is passionate and strong; I am consumed with passion for Jerusalem!

<sup>3</sup> "And now the LORD says: I am returning to Mount Zion, and I will live in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the Faithful City; the mountain of the LORD of Heaven's Armies will be called the Holy Mountain.

<sup>4</sup> "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Once again old men and women will walk Jerusalem's streets with their canes and will sit together in the city squares.<sup>5</sup> And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls at play.

<sup>6</sup> "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: All this may seem impossible to you now, a small remnant of God's people. But is it impossible for me? says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>7</sup> "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: You can be sure that I will rescue my people from the east and from the west.<sup>8</sup> I will bring them home again to live safely in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be faithful and just toward them as their God.

<sup>9</sup> "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Be strong and finish the task! Ever since the laying of the foundation of the Temple of the LORD of Heaven's Armies, you have heard what the prophets have been saying about completing the building.<sup>10</sup> Before the work on the Temple began, there were no jobs and no money to hire people or animals. No traveler was safe from the enemy, for there were enemies on all sides. I had turned everyone against each other.

<sup>11</sup> "But now I will not treat the remnant of my people as I treated them before, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.<sup>12</sup> For I am planting seeds of peace and prosperity among you. The grapevines will be heavy with fruit. The earth will produce its crops, and the heavens will release the dew. Once more I will cause the remnant in Judah and Israel to inherit these blessings.<sup>13</sup> Among the other nations, Judah and Israel became symbols of a cursed nation. But no longer! Now I will rescue you and make you both a symbol and a source of blessing. So don't be afraid. Be strong, and get on with rebuilding the Temple!

<sup>14</sup> "For this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: I was determined to punish you when your ancestors angered me, and I did not change my mind, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.<sup>15</sup> But now I am determined to bless Jerusalem and the people of Judah. So don't be afraid.<sup>16</sup> But this is what you must do: Tell the truth to each other. Render verdicts in your courts that are just and that lead to peace.<sup>17</sup> Don't scheme against each other. Stop your love of telling lies that you swear are the truth. I hate all these things, says the LORD."

what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: The traditional fasts and times of mourning you have kept in early summer, midsummer, autumn, and winter* are now ended. They will become festivals of joy and celebration for the people of Judah. So love truth and peace.

<sup>20</sup> "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: People from nations and cities around the world will travel to Jerusalem.<sup>21</sup> The people of one city will say to the people of another, 'Come with us to Jerusalem to ask the LORD to bless us. Let's worship the LORD of Heaven's Armies. I'm determined to go.'<sup>22</sup> Many peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the LORD of Heaven's Armies and to ask for his blessing.

<sup>23</sup> "This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: In those days ten men from different nations and languages of the world will clutch at the sleeve of one Jew. And they will say, 'Please let us walk with you, for we have heard that God is with you.'"

JUDGMENT AGAINST ISRAEL'S ENEMIES

9 This is the message* from the LORD against the land of Aram* and the city of Damascus, for the eyes of humanity, including all the tribes of Israel, are on the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Doom is certain for Hamath, near Damascus, and for the cities of Tyre and Sidon, though they are so clever.

<sup>3</sup> Tyre has built a strong fortress and has made silver and gold as plentiful as dust in the streets!

<sup>4</sup> But now the Lord will strip away Tyre's possessions and hurl its fortifications into the sea, and it will be burned to the ground.

<sup>5</sup> The city of Ashkelon will see Tyre fall and will be filled with fear.

Gaza will shake with terror, as will Ekron, for their hopes will be dashed.

Gaza's king will be killed, and Ashkelon will be deserted.

Then the surviving Philistines will worship our God and become like a clan in Judah.*

<sup>8-19</sup> Hebrew in the fourth, fifth, seventh, and tenth months. The fourth month of the ancient Hebrew lunar calendar usually occurs within the months of June and July. The fifth month usually occurs within the months of July and August. The seventh month usually occurs within the months of September and October. The tenth month usually occurs within the months of December and January. <sup>9:1a</sup> Hebrew An Oracle: The message. <sup>9:1b</sup> Hebrew land of Hadrach. <sup>9:7</sup> Hebrew like a leader in Judah.

PRISONERS WHO STILL HAVE HOPEZechariah 9:11–12*

OLEN GRIFFING

We all have seasons in our lives that we like and others that we do not. Because we live in a fallen world, we sometimes find ourselves in a dry pit. A dry pit is a season or situation that causes us to fall into a place where we lose hope. People find themselves in a dry pit because they either misunderstand God's ways, or they become strangers to His covenant promise of hope. We cannot get out of a dry pit on our own; we need God's help.

God wants us to return to His stronghold as "prisoners who still have hope" (Zechariah 9:12). He can draw us out of the dry pit, but we must agree with Him by declaring His truth. We enter God's stronghold of hope when we worship and align our attitudes with His Word. God promises to restore hope to our lives if we will put our trust in Him.

The Philistines of Ekron will join my people, as the ancient Jebusites once did.

- <sup>6</sup> I will guard my Temple and protect it from invading armies.
I am watching closely to ensure that no more foreign oppressors overrun my people's land.

ZION'S COMING KING

- <sup>9</sup> Rejoice, O people of Zion!*
Shout in triumph, O people of Jerusalem!
Look, your king is coming to you.
He is righteous and victorious,* yet he is humble, riding on a donkey—riding on a donkey's colt.
- <sup>10</sup> I will remove the battle chariots from Israel* and the warhorses from Jerusalem.
I will destroy all the weapons used in battle, and your king will bring peace to the nations.
His realm will stretch from sea to sea and from the Euphrates River* to the ends of the earth.*
- <sup>11</sup> Because of the covenant I made with you, sealed with blood,
I will free your prisoners from death in a waterless dungeon.
- <sup>12</sup> Come back to the place of safety, all you prisoners who still have hope!
I promise this very day that I will repay two blessings for each of your troubles.
- <sup>13</sup> Judah is my bow, and Israel is my arrow.
Jerusalem* is my sword, and like a warrior, I will brandish it against the Greeks.*

- <sup>14</sup> The LORD will appear above his people;
his arrows will fly like lightning!
The Sovereign LORD will sound the ram's horn and attack like a whirlwind from the southern desert.
- <sup>15</sup> The LORD of Heaven's Armies will protect his people, and they will defeat their enemies by hurling great stones.
They will shout in battle as though drunk with wine.
They will be filled with blood like a bowl, drenched with blood like the corners of the altar.
- <sup>16</sup> On that day the LORD their God will rescue
his people,
just as a shepherd rescues his sheep.
They will sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown.
- <sup>17</sup> How wonderful and beautiful they will be!
The young men will thrive on abundant grain, and the young women will flourish on new wine.

THE LORD WILL RESTORE HIS PEOPLE

- 10 Ask the LORD for rain in the spring, for he makes the storm clouds.
And he will send showers of rain so every field becomes a lush pasture.
- <sup>2</sup> Household gods give worthless advice, fortune-tellers predict only lies, and interpreters of dreams pronounce falsehoods that give no comfort.
So my people are wandering like lost sheep;
they are attacked because they have no shepherd.
- <sup>3</sup> "My anger burns against your shepherds, and I will punish these leaders."*
For the LORD of Heaven's Armies has arrived to look after Judah, his flock.
He will make them strong and glorious,
like a proud warhorse in battle.
- <sup>4</sup> From Judah will come the cornerstone,
the tent peg,
the bow for battle,
and all the rulers.
- <sup>5</sup> They will be like mighty warriors in battle, trampling their enemies in the mud under their feet.
Since the LORD is with them as they fight, they will overthrow even the enemy's horsemen.

- "I will strengthen Judah and save Israel";
I will restore them because of my compassion.
It will be as though I had never rejected them, for I am the LORD their God, who will hear their cries.
The people of Israel<sup>7</sup> will become like mighty warriors, and their hearts will be made happy as if by wine.
Their children, too, will see it and be glad;
their hearts will rejoice in the LORD.
<sup>8</sup> When I whistle to them, they will come running, for I have redeemed them.
From the few who are left, they will grow as numerous as they were before.
<sup>9</sup> Though I have scattered them like seeds among the nations, they will still remember me in
distant lands.
They and their children will survive and return again to Israel.
<sup>10</sup> I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
I will resettle them in Gilead and Lebanon until there is no more room for them all.
<sup>11</sup> They will pass safely through the sea of distress,<sup>8</sup> for the waves of the sea will be held back,
and the waters of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be crushed, and the rule of Egypt will end.
<sup>12</sup> By my power<sup>9</sup> I will make my people strong, and by my authority they will go wherever they wish.
I, the LORD, have spoken!"

- 11 <sup>1</sup> Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedar forests.
<sup>2</sup> Weep, you cypress trees, for all the ruined cedars;
the most majestic ones have fallen.
Weep, you oaks of Bashan, for the thick forests have been cut down.
<sup>3</sup> Listen to the wailing of the shepherds, for their rich pastures are destroyed.
Hear the young lions roaring, for their thickets in the Jordan Valley are ruined.

THE GOOD AND EVIL SHEPHERDS

<sup>4</sup>This is what the LORD my God says: "Go and care for the flock that is intended for slaughter. <sup>5</sup>The buyers slaughter their sheep without remorse. The sellers say, 'Praise the LORD! Now I'm rich!' Even the shepherds have no compassion for them. <sup>6</sup>Likewise, I will no longer have pity on the people of the land," says the LORD. "I will let them fall into each other's hands and into the hands of their king. They will turn the land into a wilderness, and I will not rescue them."

<sup>7</sup>So I cared for the flock intended for slaughter—the flock that was oppressed. Then I took two shepherd's staffs and named one Favor and the other Union. <sup>8</sup>I got rid of their three evil shepherds in a single month.

But I became impatient with these sheep, and they hated me, too. <sup>9</sup>So I told them, "I won't be your shepherd any longer. If you die, you die. If you are killed, you are killed. And let those who remain devour each other!"

<sup>10</sup>Then I took my staff called Favor and cut it in two, showing that I had revoked the covenant I had made with all the nations. <sup>11</sup>That was the end of my covenant with them. The suffering flock was watching me, and they knew that the LORD was speaking through my actions.

<sup>12</sup>And I said to them, "If you like, give me my wages, whatever I am worth; but only if you want to." So they counted out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.

<sup>13</sup>And the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter<sup>10</sup>"—this magnificent sum at which they valued me! So I took the thirty coins and threw them to the potter in the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Then I took my other staff, Union, and cut it in two, showing that the bond of unity between Judah and Israel was broken.

<sup>15</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "Go again and play the part of a worthless shepherd. <sup>16</sup>This illustrates how I will give this nation a shepherd who will not care for those who are dying, nor look after the young, nor heal the injured, nor feed the healthy. Instead, this shepherd will eat the meat of the fattest sheep and tear off their hooves.

- <sup>17</sup> "What sorrow awaits this worthless shepherd who abandons the flock!
The sword will cut his arm and pierce his right eye.
His arm will become useless,

FUTURE DELIVERANCE FOR JERUSALEM

12 This<sup>11</sup> message concerning the fate of Israel came from the LORD: "This message is from the LORD, who stretched out the heavens, laid the foundations of the earth, and formed the human spirit. <sup>2</sup>I will make Jerusalem like an intoxicating drink that makes the nearby nations stagger when they send their armies to besiege Jerusalem and Judah. <sup>3</sup>On that day I will make

In the LORD. <sup>11:13</sup> Syriac version reads into the treasury; also in

Jerusalem an immovable rock. All the nations will gather against it to try to move it, but they will only hurt themselves.

<sup>4</sup>“On that day,” says the LORD, “I will cause every horse to panic and every rider to lose his nerve. I will watch over the people of Judah, but I will blind all the horses of their enemies.<sup>5</sup> And the clans of Judah will say to themselves, ‘The people of Jerusalem have found strength in the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, their God.’

<sup>7</sup>“The LORD will give victory to the rest of Judah first, before Jerusalem, so that the people of Jerusalem and the royal line of David will not have greater honor than the rest of Judah.<sup>8</sup> On that day the LORD will defend the people of Jerusalem; the weakest among them will be as mighty as King David! And the royal descendants will be like God, like the angel of the LORD who goes before them!<sup>9</sup> For on that day I will begin to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup>“Then I will pour out a spirit* of grace and prayer on the family of David and on the people of Jerusalem. They will look on me whom they have pierced and mourn for him as for an only son. They will grieve bitterly for him as for a firstborn son who has died.<sup>11</sup> The sorrow and mourning in Jerusalem on that day will be like the great mourning for Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo.

<sup>12</sup>“All Israel will mourn, each clan by itself, and with the husbands separate from their wives. The clan of David will mourn alone, as will the clan of Nathan,<sup>13</sup> the clan of Levi, and the clan of Shimei.<sup>14</sup> Each of the surviving clans from Judah will mourn separately, and with the husbands separate from their wives.

A FOUNTAIN OF CLEANSING

13 “On that day a fountain will be opened for the dynasty of David and for the people of Jerusalem, a fountain to cleanse them from all their sins and impurity.

<sup>2</sup>“And on that day,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, “I will erase idol worship throughout the land, so that even the names of the idols will be forgotten. I will remove from the land both the false prophets and the spirit of impurity that came with them.<sup>3</sup> If anyone continues to prophesy, his own father and mother will tell him, ‘You must die, for you have prophesied lies in the name of the LORD.’ And as he prophesies, his own father and mother will stab him.

<sup>4</sup>“On that day people will be ashamed to claim the prophetic gift. No one will pretend to be a prophet by wearing prophet’s clothes.<sup>5</sup> He will say, ‘I’m no prophet; I’m a farmer. I began working for a farmer as a boy.’<sup>6</sup> And if someone asks, ‘Then what about those wounds on your chest?’ he will say, ‘I was wounded at my friends’ house!’

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHEEP

<sup>7</sup> “Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, the man who is my partner,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

“Strike down the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn against the lambs.

<sup>8</sup> Two-thirds of the people in the land will be cut off and die,” says the LORD. “But one-third will be left in the land.

<sup>9</sup> I will bring that group through the fire and make them pure.

I will refine them like silver and purify them like gold.

They will call on my name, and I will answer them.

I will say, ‘These are my people,’ and they will say, ‘The LORD is our God.’”

THE LORD WILL RULE THE EARTH

14 Watch, for the day of the LORD is coming when your possessions will be plundered right in front of you!<sup>2</sup> I will gather all the nations to fight against Jerusalem. The city will be taken, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half the population will be taken into captivity, and the rest will be left among the ruins of the city.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD will go out to fight against those nations, as he has fought in times past.

<sup>4</sup> On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem. And the Mount of Olives will split apart, making a wide valley running from east to west. Half the mountain will move toward the north and half toward the south.<sup>5</sup> You will flee through this valley, for it will reach across to Azal.* Yes, you will flee as you did from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all his holy ones with him.*

<sup>6</sup> On that day the sources of light will no longer shine,*<sup>7</sup> yet there will be continuous day! Only the LORD knows how this could happen. There will be no normal day and night, for at evening time it will still be light.

<sup>8</sup> On that day life-giving waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half toward the Dead Sea and half toward the Mediterranean,* flowing continuously in both summer and winter.

<sup>9</sup> And the LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day there will be one LORD—his name alone will be worshipped.

<sup>10</sup>All the land from Geba, north of Judah, to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, will become one vast plain. But Jerusalem will be raised up in its original place and will be inhabited all the way from the Benjamin Gate over to the site of the old gate, then to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. <sup>11</sup>And Jerusalem will be filled, safe at last, never again to be cursed and destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>And the LORD will send a plague on all the nations that fought against Jerusalem. Their people will become like walking corpses, their flesh rotting away. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. <sup>13</sup>On that day they will be terrified, stricken by the LORD with great panic. They will fight their neighbors hand to hand. <sup>14</sup>Judah, too, will be fighting at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the neighboring nations will be captured—great quantities of gold and silver and fine clothing. <sup>15</sup>This same plague will strike the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the other animals in the enemy camps.

<sup>16</sup>In the end, the enemies of Jerusalem who survive the plague will go up to Jerusalem each year to worship the King, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, and to celebrate the Festival of Shelters. <sup>17</sup>Any nation in the world that refuses to come to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, will have no rain. <sup>18</sup>If the people of Egypt refuse to attend the festival, the LORD will punish* them with the same plague that he sends on the other nations who refuse to go. <sup>19</sup>Egypt and the other nations will all be punished if they don't go to celebrate the Festival of Shelters.

<sup>20</sup>On that day even the harness bells of the horses will be inscribed with these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. And the cooking pots in the Temple of the LORD will be as sacred as the basins used beside the altar. <sup>21</sup>In fact, every cooking pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD of Heaven's Armies. All who come to worship will be free to use any of these pots to boil their sacrifices. And on that day there will no longer be traders* in the Temple of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

14:18 As in some Hebrew manuscripts and Greek and Syriac versions; Masoretic Text reads will not punish. 14:21 Hebrew Canaanites.

MALACHI

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Malachi, whose name means 'My messenger,' prophesied during the fifth century BC prior to the time of Ezra and Nehemiah. He prophesied after the people had returned to the land after the Exile and had begun to rebuild their lives. Not all the people who went into exile returned. Because they had put down roots in Babylon, they followed Jeremiah's advice (Jeremiah 29:5-6) and decided to remain and continue to live their lives where they had started businesses, had children, and embraced parts of the culture.

However, for those who returned, the work was hard, and the reality of their circumstances left many disappointed. They responded by giving offerings at the Temple that would have been unacceptable if they had been given to the governor (1:6-14). Malachi denounced the apathetic worship that the priests and people were giving to God at that time and the general lack of honor they were showing to His name in their behavior.

The book of Malachi is organized by several disputation speeches or arguments in which God and His people dispute or argue with each other (1:2; 1:6-9; 2:17; 3:7-8; 3:13-14). In these passages, God makes a claim, and the people question the validity or truthfulness of the claim that He makes:

— When God says He loves them, the people wonder if He truly does (1:2).

- When God says that His people do not honor Him, they ask how they have despised Him (1:6).
- When God says that His people have made Him weary, the people wonder how (2:17).
- When God says the people have cheated Him, they ask how they have cheated Him (3:8).
- When God says the people have said terrible things about Him, they say, "What have we said against you?" (3:13).

The people constantly argued with God and attempted to refute the words He spoke, revealing their disbelief. Malachi shows that the post-Exilic period (the period after the Exile) was difficult for the people of Judah. They had to make sense of their current circumstances in view of earlier prophecies that declared a glorious future (Ezekiel 40-48). Because of their disappointment, the people and priests had begun to disbelieve those earlier prophecies and the word that God spoke to them.

Malachi holds out hope and declares that God will personally appear to His people to purify their hearts so that they might once again offer worthy praise to Him and receive the blessings He wants them to enjoy as a result of their worship (3:10-12). Malachi says that day will bring healing like a warm sun ("the Sun of Righteousness") for those who respond with worship or destruction "burning like a furnace" (4:1-2) to those who remain in their disbelief.

1 This is the message* that the LORD gave to Israel through the prophet Malachi.*

THE LORD'S LOVE FOR ISRAEL

2 "I have always loved you," says the LORD.

But you retort, "Really? How have you loved us?"

And the LORD replies, "This is how I showed my love for you: I loved your ancestor Jacob,<sup>3</sup> but I rejected his brother, Esau, and devastated his hill country. I turned Esau's inheritance into a desert for jackals."

<sup>4</sup> Esau's descendants in Edom may say, "We have been shattered, but we will rebuild the ruins."

But the LORD of Heaven's Armies replies, "They may try to rebuild, but I will demolish them again. Their country will be known as 'The Land of Wickedness,' and their people will be called 'The People with Whom the LORD Is Forever Angry.' <sup>5</sup> When you see the destruction for yourselves, you will say, 'Truly, the LORD's greatness reaches far beyond Israel's borders!'"

UNWORTHY SACRIFICES

<sup>6</sup> The LORD of Heaven's Armies says to the priests: "A son honors his father, and a servant respects his master. If I am your father and master, where are the honor and respect I deserve? You have shown contempt for my name!

"But you ask, 'How have we ever shown contempt for your name?'

<sup>7</sup> "You have shown contempt by offering defiled sacrifices on my altar.

"Then you ask, 'How have we defiled the sacrifices?'

"You defile them by saying the altar of the LORD deserves no respect. <sup>8</sup> When you give blind animals as sacrifices, isn't that wrong? And isn't it wrong to offer animals that are crippled and diseased? Try giving gifts like that to your governor, and see how pleased he is!" says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>9</sup> "Go ahead, beg God to be merciful to you! But when you bring that kind of offering, why should he show you any favor at all?" asks the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>10</sup> "How I wish one of you would shut the Temple doors so that these worthless sacrifices could not be offered! I am not pleased with you," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "and I will not accept your offerings. <sup>11</sup> But my name is honored* by people of other nations from morning till night. All around the world they offer* sweet incense and pure offerings in honor of my name. For my name is great among the nations," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>12</sup> "But you dishonor my name with your actions. By bringing contemptible food, you are saying it's all right to defile the Lord's table. <sup>13</sup> You say, 'It's too hard to serve the LORD,' and you turn up your noses at my commands," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. "Think of it! Animals that are stolen and crippled and sick are being presented as offerings! Should I accept from you such offerings as these?" asks the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> "Cursed is the cheat who promises to give a fine ram from his flock but then sacrifices a defective one to the Lord. For I am a great king," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "and my name is feared among the nations!

A WARNING TO THE PRIESTS

2 "Listen, you priests—this command is for you! <sup>2</sup> Listen to me and make up your minds to honor my name," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "or I will bring a terrible curse against you. I will curse even the blessings you receive. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you have not taken my warning to heart. <sup>3</sup> I will punish your descendants and splatter your faces with the manure from your festival sacrifices, and I will throw you on the manure pile. <sup>4</sup> Then at last you will know it was I who sent you this warning so that my covenant with the Levites can continue," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>5</sup> "The purpose of my covenant with the Levites was to bring life and peace, and that is what I gave them. This required reverence from them, and they greatly revered me and stood in awe of my name. <sup>6</sup> They passed on to the people the truth of the instructions they received from me. They did not lie or cheat; they walked with me, living good and righteous lives, and they turned many from lives of sin.

<sup>7</sup> "The words of a priest's lips should preserve knowledge of God, and people should go to him for instruction, for the priest is the messenger of the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>8</sup> But you priests have left God's paths. Your instructions have caused many to stumble into sin. You have corrupted the covenant I made with the Levites," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>9</sup> "So I have made you despised and humiliated in the eyes of all the people. For you have not obeyed me but have shown favoritism in the way you carry out my instructions."

A CALL TO FAITHFULNESS

<sup>10</sup> Are we not all children of the same Father? Are we not all created by the same God? Then why do we betray each other, violating the covenant of our ancestors?

<sup>11</sup> Judah has been unfaithful, and a detestable thing has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem. The men of Judah have defiled the LORD's beloved sanctuary by marrying women who worship idols. <sup>12</sup> May the LORD cut off from the nation of Israel* every last man who has done

1:1a Hebrew An Oracle: The message. 1:1b Malachi means "my messenger." 1:7 As in Greek version; Hebrew reads defiled you? 1:11a Or will be honored. 1:11b Or will offer. 2:12 Hebrew from the tents of Jacob. The names "Jacob" and "Israel" are often interchanged throughout the Old Testament, referring sometimes to the individual patriarch and sometimes to the nation.

this and yet brings an offering to the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>13</sup> Here is another thing you do. You cover the LORD's altar with tears, weeping and groaning because he pays no attention to your offerings and doesn't accept them with pleasure. <sup>14</sup> You cry out, "Why doesn't the LORD accept my worship?" I'll tell you why! Because the LORD witnessed the vows you and your wife made when you were young. But you have been unfaithful to her, though she remained your faithful partner, the wife of your marriage vows.

<sup>15</sup> Didn't the LORD make you one with your wife? In body and spirit you are his.* And what does he want? Godly children from your union. So guard your heart; remain loyal to the wife of your youth. <sup>16</sup> "For I hate divorce!"* says the LORD, the God of Israel. "To divorce your wife is to overwhelm her with cruelty,"* says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. "So guard your heart; do not be unfaithful to your wife."

<sup>17</sup> You have wearied the LORD with your words. "How have we wearied him?" you ask.

You have wearied him by saying that all who do evil are good in the LORD's sight, and he is pleased with them. You have wearied him by asking, "Where is the God of justice?"

THE COMING DAY OF JUDGMENT

3 "Look! I am sending my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. Then the LORD you are seeking will suddenly come to his Temple. The messenger of the covenant, whom you look for so eagerly, is surely coming," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>2</sup> "But who will be able to endure it when he comes? Who will be able to stand and face him when he appears? For he will be like a blazing fire that refines metal, or like a strong soap that bleaches clothes. <sup>3</sup> He will sit like a refiner of silver, burning away the dross. He will purify the Levites, refining them like gold and silver, so that they may once again offer acceptable sacrifices to the LORD. <sup>4</sup> Then once more the LORD will accept the offerings brought to him by the people of Judah and Jerusalem, as he did in the past.

<sup>5</sup> "At that time I will put you on trial. I am eager to witness against all sorcerers and adulterers and liars. I will speak against those who cheat employees of their wages, who oppress widows and orphans, or who deprive the foreigners living among you of justice, for these people do not fear me," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

<sup>6</sup> "I am the LORD, and I do not change. That is why you descendants of Jacob are not already destroyed.<sup>7</sup> Ever since the days of your ancestors, you have scorned my decrees and failed to obey them. Now return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

WHAT TEST?

Malachi 3:6-12

ROBERT MORRIS

Most people know they're not supposed to test God. However, when it comes to tithing, God makes an exception. He says, "Try it! Put me to the test!" (Malachi 3:10). Tithing is a test of the heart. In fact, the word tithe means a "tenth part." Throughout Scripture, the number 10 represents testing. God tests our hearts through the tithe, and it's the only area where He says we can test Him too.

God wants His children to bring their tithes and offerings into the storehouse of the church. If we don't, we are under a curse. But the good news is if we do, we are under a blessing. Giving the firstfruits to God should be ordinary behavior for redeemed people. When we do this, God says He will pour out His blessings upon us, and "all the nations will call you blessed, for your land will be such a delight" (Malachi 3:12).

THE POWER OF OFFERINGS

Malachi 3:8

ROBERT MORRIS

In Malachi 3:8, God tells the people of Israel, "You have cheated me of the tithes and offerings due to me" (emphasis added). Because the firstfruits actually belong to the Lord, tithing isn't really giving—it's returning. To truly give to God, we have to go beyond our tithe.

In Matthew 14:13-21, Jesus feeds a crowd of 5,000 men plus their families with only five loaves of bread and two fish. In the same way, God can cause our finances to go further than we could ever imagine. I know this is true; I've seen it happen in my own life over and over again. However, if we want to see the multiplication of our finances, we must understand two principles:

- We give to the Lord first so that our finances are blessed.
- We give over and above our tithes because only that which is shared can be multiplied.

"But you ask, 'How can we return when we have never gone away?'"

<sup>8</sup> "Should people cheat God? Yet you have cheated me!"

"But you ask, 'What do you mean? When did we ever cheat you?'"

2:15 Or Didn't the one LORD make us and preserve our life and breath? or Didn't the one LORD make her, both flesh and spirit? The meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain. 2:16a Hebrew For he hates divorcing. 2:16b Hebrew to cover one's garment with violence.

"You have cheated me of the tithes and offerings due to me. <sup>9</sup>You are under a curse, for your whole nation has been cheating me. <sup>10</sup>Bring all the tithes into the storehouse so there will be enough food in my Temple. If you do," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "I will open the windows of heaven for you. I will pour out a blessing so great you won't have enough room to take it in! Try it! Put me to the test! <sup>11</sup>Your crops will be abundant, for I will guard them from insects and disease. *Your grapes will not fall from the vine before they are ripe," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. <sup>12</sup>"Then all nations will call you blessed, for your land will be such a delight," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

"But you say, 'What do you mean? What have we said against you?'

<sup>14</sup>"You have said, 'What's the use of serving God? What have we gained by obeying his commands or by trying to show the LORD of Heaven's Armies that we are sorry for our sins? <sup>15</sup>From now on we will call the arrogant blessed. For those who do evil get rich, and those who dare God to punish them suffer no harm.'"

THE LORD'S PROMISE OF MERCY

<sup>16</sup>Then those who feared the LORD spoke with each other, and the LORD listened to what they said. In his presence, a scroll of remembrance was written to record the names of those who feared him and always thought about the honor of his name.

<sup>17</sup>"They will be my people," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. "On the day when I act in judgment, they will be my own special treasure. I will spare them as a father spares an obedient child. <sup>18</sup>Then you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not."

THE COMING DAY OF JUDGMENT

4 <sup>1*</sup>The LORD of Heaven's Armies says, "The day of judgment is coming, burning like a furnace. On that day the arrogant and the wicked will be burned up like straw. They will be consumed—roots, branches, and all.

<sup>2</sup>"But for you who fear my name, the Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in his wings. *And you will go free, leaping with joy like calves let out to pasture. <sup>3</sup>On the day when I act, you will tread upon the wicked as if they were dust under your feet," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>5</sup>"Look, I am sending you the prophet Elijah before the great and dreadful day of the LORD arrives. <sup>6</sup>His preaching will turn the hearts of fathers to their children, and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise I will come and strike the land with a curse."

GOOD NEWS COMES IN JESUS CHRIST

ION HUNTZINGER, PHD

THE MESSAGE OF GOOD NEWS

An angel from heaven announced the birth of Jesus as "good news that will bring great joy" (Luke 2:10). What does the angel mean by "good news"? This proclamation is about God's salvation for all people. It is also about freedom from fear and ignorance and, ultimately, freedom from death. This "good news" is about healing for shattered hearts, deliverance from captivity, and the restoration of lost things (Isaiah 61:1-3). Therefore, when the angel says "good news" to simple shepherds, these aren't mere words. The angel is promising good news of freedom, healing, deliverance, and restoration, which will all come from this newborn baby.

The New Testament is more than a collection of books. It is a message of good news! It further develops the message of the Old Testament in which people first encountered God's good news. Seven hundred years before the birth of Jesus, the prophet Isaiah declared God's salvation and deliverance to a people living far away from their homeland in the Babylonian Exile. He exclaimed, "O Zion, messenger of good news, shout from the mountaintops! Shout it louder, O Jerusalem. Shout, and do not be afraid. Tell the towns of Judah, 'Your God is coming!'" (Isaiah 40:9). The four men God chose to record the Good News about Jesus are, in fact, Good News-casters. They describe God's salvation through Jesus to a world in need of freedom, deliverance, healing, and understanding. The apostle Paul picks up this theme of good news in his letters. He writes that there is only one gospel, only one declaration of Good News, and if anyone, including angels from heaven, announces a different one, the believers in Jesus should resist and reject them (Galatians 1:6-9).

THE NEW TESTAMENT RECORD OF GOOD NEWS

The New Testament consists of 27 books, including Gospels, letters, a history, a sermon or exhortation, wisdom literature, and one book of prophecy. Together, all of these books proclaim the Good News of God's salvation through Jesus. It took about 50 years for all the writers of the New Testament to finish their work. They wrote from the late 40s to the 90s. As many as nine different men had the God-given task of writing these books.

The subject matter holds this collection of books together. That subject is Jesus of Nazareth. He is the focus of every book from Matthew to Revelation. The four Gospels record Jesus' ministry, death, and resurrection. The letters of Paul, Peter, John, and others provide instruction for the churches that have accepted the Good News message about the truth of God's salvation coming through Jesus. All of these churches see Jesus as Messiah and Savior. The history of the book of Acts reports the spread of the Good News from Jerusalem to Rome through the ministry of the Holy Spirit in the lives of the followers of Jesus. The sermon of Hebrews proclaims the Good News that Jesus is God's great High Priest, who is also the acceptable sacrifice for the sins of all people. The wisdom literature, represented by the book of James, shows that the proper response to the Good News is to live in faithfulness to the Word of God (who is Jesus). The prophetic book of Revelation speaks of the rule of Jesus as the risen Messiah over His Church and the world in the present as well as in the future.

God inspired these writers, who developed these books of Good News from eyewitness accounts, oral and written sources, and through revelation from the Holy Spirit (Luke 1:1-4; Galatians 1:6-20; 2 Timothy 3:16). Why did the writers compose these books during this specific period? The answer includes several reasons:

- By the end of the first century, firsthand eyewitnesses were dying, so the writers surely sensed the urgency.
- The Church needed a permanent record of Jesus' ministry in written form.
- Some false documents began to spring up, including false gospels. Churches began to circulate them, so the writers needed to create an authoritative record and correct false teaching.
- The early followers of Jesus saw these books as vital for preserving the message of Good News and for establishing the basics of belief and the manner in which they should live together.
- The Holy Spirit moved in a special way to inspire the writers at this time.

So how did the early Church leaders decide which books were inspired by God and should be included in the collection? They used the following three criteria:

1. Apostolic—each book had to have a relationship to an apostle.
They began by tracing each book to an apostle. The New Testament contains writings the early Church saw as having a connection with the apostles, each of whom had a personal connection with Jesus. Apostolicity represents the relational center of every book to Jesus Himself.
2. Universal—each book had to be meant for all churches.
The books had to speak to all people, in all places, and at all times. Another term for this criterion is catholicity, which means “universal.” Universality represents the global nature of the collection for the Church throughout the entire world.
3. Orthodox—each book had to have the right beliefs, especially about Jesus.
They also saw books that conformed to the basic Good News about Jesus as acceptable. These books are orthodox, which means they have the right beliefs or the true theological standard.

If everyone in the early Church’s leadership agreed that a book contained these three important criteria, then they included it in the Canon. The word canon means “measuring stick,” which in relation to these books means they had to measure up to the right standards for the leaders to include them in the Bible. The books that make up the New Testament, then, are “canonical.” The Church’s leadership officially accepted them into the collection because they are directly related to Jesus Himself, developed with all of God’s people in mind, and devoted to the true proclamation of the Good News of God’s salvation in Jesus Christ.

EARLY NEW TESTAMENT DEVELOPMENT

ION HUNTZINGER, PHD

Jesus Himself began the development of the New Testament, meaning that without Him there would be no need for it to exist. Though Jesus could write (John 8:6), He did not leave any personal writings behind. Instead, He passed on that responsibility to His followers. Contrary to what many people may think, literacy was common in Israel during the time of Jesus. Consequently, at least some of Jesus' followers would have easily memorized His sayings and also have written them down.

Very likely, the first written stages occurred during the time of Jesus' own ministry. The ability to write in shorthand (tachygraphy) had already developed in the Greco-Roman world and in Israel before the time of Jesus. Since writing materials were scarce, shards of pottery and wax tablets were often used for writing, and because of their small size, shorthand was a way to record information efficiently within a small space. Government officials and business people quickly learned this skill. The apostle Matthew, for example, would have possessed the ability to do shorthand as a tax collector.

In the prologue to his Gospel, Luke writes that he has used many written sources to compile his book. He also notes that specific people among Jesus' followers were entrusted with telling about the events in Jesus' life. Luke's Gospel refers to eyewitnesses and servants of the word. More than likely, he was referring to specific people who saw and heard Jesus firsthand and had followed Him from the beginning of His ministry. The early Church entrusted these witnesses with the accurate recounting of Jesus' life because of their personal and long-term perspective. A ruler of a synagogue had the responsibility to remove the scroll of the Torah from a replica of the Ark of the Covenant, make it available for reading and study, and return it to its case. This great care preserved the integrity of the scroll. In the same way, some followers of Jesus who were servants of the Word had the responsibility for the precise preservation of the story of Jesus' teachings and ministry. Undoubtedly, these people would have been disciples whom Jesus called at the beginning of His ministry. They heard His teachings, saw His miracles, and even witnessed His suffering, death, and resurrection.

Some theories exist of a long and slow development of the Gospels, beginning with oral accounts of Jesus' teaching and healing ministry and evolving over a long time. According to these theories, the writers relaxed the standards of accountability and accuracy to meet the particular needs of local churches. Consequently, these theorists believe the messages in the New Testament may not be factual.

However, none of these theories are true. Instead, the writers carefully developed the New Testament under the watchful supervision of the followers of Jesus—the apostles—who had been with Him from the beginning. They knew what He said and did, and they reported the truth as it actually happened. They referred humorously to the many things Jesus did (John 21:25), mentioned writing materials (2 Timothy 4:13), and even wrote themselves (Revelation 1:11). Moreover, they collected texts and developed archives. Early Christian letters were among the first documents to be distributed as collections (2 Peter 3:15–16). Very likely, a collection of Paul's letters was gathered and distributed by the churches by the early 60s.

THE NEW TESTAMENT GOSPELS

ION HUNTZINGER, PHD

The English word gospel is a translation of the Greek word evangelion, meaning 'good news.' When referring to the books of the Bible, it applies to the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Each book records the Good News story of God's redemptive work in His Son, Jesus, as well as the Good News message itself.

Even though the Gospels bear some similarities to the biographies of famous people in the Greco-Roman world, they are not exactly like them. A primary similarity is that both record remarkable events and achievements in the lives of their main subjects. For instance, Matthew and Luke tell about the amazing circumstances surrounding Jesus' birth—including angelic visitations and dreams. In addition, all the Gospels describe healings performed by Jesus for blindness, deafness, lameness, leprosy, epilepsy, deliverance from spiritual powers and death, and miracles such as the feeding of more than 5,000 people. A major difference, however, is that the Gospels also report opposition to Jesus and criticism of Him by numerous people. Pharisees are critical of His words and actions; scribes say He is possessed by a demon; Temple leaders, like Caiaphas, plot His death; Romans, like Pontius Pilate, are unimpressed with Him; and God His Father seemingly turns His back on Him. Whereas ancient biographies only included events that highlighted the positive traits of their heroes, such as virtue, courage, and fidelity, the Gospels reach the moment when Jesus is beaten and then executed outside the walls of Jerusalem by Roman soldiers. All four Gospels give detailed attention to His humiliating and shameful death on a cross. Unlike most biographies of the time, the Gospels represent personal eyewitness testimony to Jesus' life and ministry.

New Testament scholars also see the Gospels as works of theology and not simply bare records of facts. They interpret Jesus as much as they give information about Him. This feature of the Gospels raises an important question: If they are theological as well as historical, can readers trust the historical information given in them? To answer, no ancient histories simply told the facts from an objective point of view. Writers of those histories always tried to teach lessons and sway readers to a particular point of view. The Gospels also follow this pattern. The Gospel writers never intended to give play-by-play accounts, such as a court stenographer might do. They gave factual accounts, but they also designed a portrait of Jesus to educate their readers, so they would know He is the Messiah, the Son of God who has come to save the world. Those who knew Him best intended these Gospels to assist their churches in worship and proclamation.

Nonetheless, the Gospel writers composed their accounts to give a true and accurate understanding of Jesus' ministry (Luke 1:1-4). We can trust the truthfulness of the Gospels because these eyewitnesses, including those who opposed Jesus and His message, were alive when they were written. These eyewitnesses could either confirm or contradict the portrayal of Jesus and the information about Him provided by the Gospels. So important was the goal of truthfulness that they recorded information about Him that many would view as embarrassing or difficult to explain otherwise. Thus, they report Jesus' baptism by John at the Jordan River; they recount His rejection by the religious leaders; they tell of His abandonment by some of His followers (John 6:66-71); and they describe the failure of the other disciples to stand alongside Him during His trial and crucifixion. The Gospel writers were so careful to give an accurate report of Jesus' ministry that they do not try to exaggerate or overstate His miracles. For example, Mark says Jesus could do few miracles in Nazareth, and a blind man required a second touch by Jesus before he could see clearly (Mark 6:5-6; 8:22-26). In the final analysis, these men wrote the Gospels to strengthen people in their belief and to assure them that what eyewitnesses had heard and experienced was true (John 20:30-31). To summarize, the Gospels' fourfold witness to Jesus is biographical, theological, and historical. Most of all, it is truthful testimony to the saving work of God in Jesus, His Son and Messiah.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THE SYNOPTIC GOSPELS

ION HUNTZINGER, PHD

The books of Matthew, Mark, and Luke are called the Synoptic Gospels from the Greek word synoptic, which means 'with the same vision or to see with the same eye.' These three Gospels all present a shared view of Jesus' teaching and miracle ministry, whereas the Gospel of John records teachings and miracles of Jesus that are different from, yet complementary to, those in the other Gospels. While the Synoptic Gospels share common structure, content, and vocabulary, each also contains unique information about Jesus. Each of these three writers had a special motivation and intention behind his Gospel.

MATTHEW'S SPECIAL GOSPEL MATERIAL

Much of the unique material in Matthew is found in Jesus' teachings. Matthew gave priority to teachings over miracles, such as Jesus' teachings in the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7) and the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20). Matthew's genealogy of Jesus stretches back to Abraham and is only found in this Gospel. He alone gave unique emphasis to Joseph's role in Jesus' birth.

MATTHEW	EVENT	MIRACLE	TEACHING
Genealogy 1:1-17	Begins with Abraham and includes David
Birth of Jesus 1:18-2:23	Emphasizes Joseph's role; includes Herod and wise men; Jesus taken to Egypt
Sermon on the Mount 5-7			Beatitudes; Jesus' word as new law; Lord's Prayer; fruit tree
Parable 13:24-30			Field of weeds and wheat
Miracle 17:24-27		Coin from fish used to pay Temple tax
Teaching 18:15-22		Forbid and permit; gathering of two or three; forgiveness and 70 times 7
Parable 18:23-35			Unforgiving servant
Parable 21:28-32			Two sons
Lament 23:1-36			Woe concerning scribes and Pharisees
Parable 25:1-13			10 bridesmaids
Last Judgment 25:31-46			Jesus' teaching on judgment
Passion 27:3-10	30 pieces of silver; Judas hangs himself
Passion 27:51-53, 62-66	Tombs break open; guards posted at tomb
Passion 28:11-15	False report about the Resurrection
Great Commission 28:16-20			Jesus commissions His disciples

MARK'S SPECIAL GOSPEL MATERIAL

Because much of the Gospel of Mark is found in Matthew and Luke, this book does not contain as much unique material as the other two. In fact, Mark is distinctive for what he does not record. For example, he does not provide a genealogy for Jesus like Matthew and Luke do, nor does he present a birth narrative. Moreover, he does not record anything like Matthew's Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5-7) or Luke's three lost-and-found parables (Luke 15).

Most surprising, according to the earliest manuscripts of the Gospel, Mark does not include an account of Jesus' followers encountering Him after the Resurrection. Instead, he concludes his Gospel with a description of an empty tomb (16:8).

MARK	EVENT	MIRACLE	TEACHING
Introduction	No genealogy or birth narrative
Temptation 1:12-13	Reference to wild animals and angels
Event 3:20-21	Family thinks Jesus is "out of his mind"
Parable 4:26-29			Growing seed
Event 6:1-3	Community refers to Jesus as "son of Mary"
Miracle 8:22-26		Blind man healed; spit shows Jesus' willingness to accommodate man's lack of faith; difficulty of healing underscores sub-theme of resistance in Mark
Passion 14:51-52	Young man flees; autobiographical note; Mark identifies himself with the other disciples whom he portrayed as weak and fearful
Resurrection 16:19-20		Missing from earliest manuscripts

LUKE'S SPECIAL GOSPEL MATERIAL

Other than the Gospel of John, Luke has the most unique material of the four Gospels. Much of this content is in the form of stories and teachings recorded nowhere else. For example, only Luke tells the stories of the Good Samaritan, the Rich Fool, and the Lost Son. And only Luke tells the famous story of Zacchaeus and the resurrection day account of Jesus on the road to Emmaus.

LUKE	EVENT	MIRACLE	TEACHING
Introduction 1:1-80	Birth of John
Birth of Jesus 2:1-38, 41-52	Birth and circumcision of Jesus

Passion 23:39-43	Two criminals beside Jesus
Resurrection 24:13-35	Jesus on road to Emmaus
Resurrection 24:44-53	Jesus ascends to heaven

People have long wondered about the literary relationship among the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, and Luke, given their common chronology of Jesus' life and ministry and the similarities of the vocabulary they use. How do these three Gospels relate to one another? Bible scholars have offered various theories about their relationship. The most popular theory is that Mark wrote his Gospel first, in part because it is the shortest of the three. Then Matthew and Luke used another common source to develop their Gospels. However it happened, from the very beginning, Jesus' followers preserved and ensured the accuracy of His teaching and the accounts of His miracles in writing and in memory as servants of the Word (Luke 1:2).

MATTHEW

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Early church tradition links the Gospel of Matthew to Jesus' disciple by that name. Matthew was a tax collector (Matthew 10:3; 9:9-13; Mark 2:14-17). As such, he would have had connections with King Herod's administration and would have assumed responsibility for collecting various fees and taxes from local people. Since Matthew worked in the area around Capernaum, along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he would have issued commercial fishing licenses, which means he likely collected fishing fees from fishermen like Simon (Peter), Andrew, James, and John.

Matthew's Gospel contains five major sections centered on five major teachings of Jesus and their supporting stories:

- The Sermon on the Mount (Chapters 5-7)
- The disciples' mission to Israel (Chapter 10)
- Parables about the Kingdom of Heaven (Chapter 13)
- Teaching about humility and forgiveness (Chapter 18)
- Teaching about judgment and future events (Chapters 23-25)

Each of these teachings concludes with "When Jesus had finished saying . . ." or similar words (7:28; 11:1; 13:53; 19:1; 26:1).

A NEW MOSES

Matthew records these teachings to show Jesus to be like Moses, the great teacher of Israel. Jesus is like Moses in other ways too. For instance, Matthew reports the escape of the young Jesus with His parents to Egypt when King Herod attempted to kill all young boys Jesus' age (2:13-23). This event recalls Moses' rescue from Pharaoh, who had ordered the killing of all male Israelite babies at that time (Exodus 1:15-16; 2:1-10). Matthew tells about Jesus' temptations in the wilderness (Matthew 4:1-11), which are like Moses' struggle with the Israelites during their journey to Canaan. Matthew records Jesus' teaching on the mountain (5-7), which recalls God's words to Moses on Mount Sinai. He also relates how Jesus often referred to the disciples as having little faith

(8:23-27; 14:28-32; 16:5-12; 17:14-21), which recalls the Israelites' struggle with faith during their deliverance from Egypt (for example, Exodus 16; 17:1-7).

SON OF DAVID

Matthew not only shows the relationship of Jesus to Moses but also to King David. Nine times, Matthew describes Jesus as "a descendant of David." He introduces Jesus as a son of David in His genealogy (1:1) and says His earthly father, Joseph, is a "son of David" too (1:20). Matthew reports wise men search for "the newborn king of the Jews" (2:1-12), meaning they were looking for a "Son of David"; a Canaanite woman calls Jesus "Son of David" and asks Him to deliver her daughter from a demon (15:21-28); and two blind men call Jesus "Son of David" as they ask Him to restore their sight (20:29-34). Matthew also reports Simon Peter's declaration that Jesus is "the Messiah, the Son of the living God" (16:16), an insight that recalls 2 Samuel 7 where God's covenant with David is described. And, finally, Matthew says the people of Jerusalem proclaim Jesus to be the "Son of David" upon His entry into the city (21:9). Jesus is crucified a week later as "King of the Jews" (27:29, 42).

Matthew likely wrote first to Jewish followers of Jesus. He alluded to Moses and David. Matthew also used the phrase "Kingdom of Heaven" (33 times) rather than "Kingdom of God" to refer to God's will. By making this reference, he showed honor to God by not referring to Him directly. Jewish readers would have recognized these associations and this style of writing and would have found them particularly meaningful.

Matthew's writing shows he had a strong and comprehensive understanding of the Hebrew Scriptures. In addition to his allusions to Moses and David, he quotes from the Old Testament 14 times and begins each quote with the word "fulfill." For Matthew, Jesus "fulfills" the Scriptures. Matthew shows what life looks like for God's people in relationship to His covenant and demonstrated through the teachings and miracles of Jesus.

Zadok was the father of Akim.
Akim was the father of Eliud.
- <sup>15</sup> Eliud was the father of Eleazar.
Eleazar was the father of Matthan.
Matthan was the father of Jacob.
- <sup>16</sup> Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary.
Mary gave birth to Jesus, who is called the Messiah.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS THE MESSIAH

<sup>18</sup> This is how Jesus the Messiah was born. His mother, Mary, was engaged to be married to Joseph. But before the marriage took place, while she was still a virgin, she became pregnant through the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup> Joseph, to whom she was engaged, was a righteous man and did not want to disgrace her publicly, so he decided to break the engagement* quietly.

<sup>20</sup> As he considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream: "Joseph, son of David," the angel said, "do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. For the child within her was conceived by the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup> And she will have a son, and you are to name him Jesus,* for he will save his people from their sins."

- <sup>23</sup> "Look! The virgin will conceive a child! She will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel,* which means 'God is with us.'"

<sup>24</sup> When Joseph woke up, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded and took Mary as his wife. <sup>25</sup> But he did not have sexual relations with her until her son was born. And Joseph named him Jesus.

AMAZING SAVIOR

Matthew 1:21

ROBERT MORRIS

The name Jesus is the same name as Joshua in the Old Testament. Joshua means 'God is salvation,' and Jesus means 'Savior.' After Moses died, God used Joshua to lead His people into the Promised Land. Similarly, God used His Son, Jesus, to bring us out from under the law and place us under grace. Jesus Christ is the only One who can save us. There's nothing we can do to earn our salvation. We just have to receive it by God's mercy and grace. And once we receive salvation by submitting to Jesus, God mercifully removes our sins as far "as the east is from the west" (Psalm 103:12). Just as Joshua led his people out of the wilderness and into the Promised Land, Jesus leads us out of sin and into restoration. He truly is an amazing Savior!

WE THREE KINGS

Matthew 2:1-12

ROBERT MORRIS

When you think about the first Christmas, do you picture shepherds and wise men kneeling by a manger? Many people do. However, the wise men actually weren't present at the birth of Jesus. They had to travel 1,000 miles from Persia to Bethlehem, a journey that probably took six to nine months. It may also surprise you to learn the wise men are not the only kings in the Christmas story. Matthew 2 mentions three: the wise men, King Herod, and Jesus.

1. The Joyous Kings

The wise men were men of science, the wealthy intelligentsia of the day. Yet they rejoiced unashamedly when the star finally stopped. When they entered the house and saw Jesus, the wise men "bowed down and worshiped him" (v. 11). They were completely undone in the presence of this Child! Overwhelmed, they "opened their treasure chests" (v. 11) and presented extravagant gifts. Why did the wise men behave this way? Because they knew they were in the presence of the King of all kings.

2. The Jealous King

From the moment he spoke with the wise men, Herod began plotting to kill the "newborn king of the Jews" (v. 2). He likely wanted to kill any witnesses, too, which is why he told the wise men to come back to see him. "When he realized that the wise men had outwitted him" (v. 16), Herod ordered the death of every boy in Bethlehem two years old or younger. This king was a ruthless leader with an insecure, manipulative spirit, and this same spirit drives people today, seeking to suffocate the life and rule of God's spirit in us.

3. The Just King

The King of all kings and Lord of all lords came into this world as a vulnerable, helpless baby. The Creator became dependent upon His creation. Jesus could have come in splendor, but in direct contrast to the Herod spirit, He chose to be the ultimate example of humility and mercy. Many women died during childbirth at that time, so the strips of cloth in which Mary wrapped Jesus were probably first intended as burial cloths. Those cloths were certainly symbolic for Jesus—Revelation 13:8 says He is "the Lamb who was slaughtered before the world was made." The message of Christmas is not simply that Jesus was born but that He came for a purpose: to give His life for humanity.

VISITORS FROM THE EAST

2 Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the reign of King Herod. About that time some wise men* from eastern lands arrived in Jerusalem, asking, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star as it rose,* and we have come to worship him."

3 King Herod was deeply disturbed when he heard this, as was everyone in Jerusalem. 4 He called a meeting of the leading priests and teachers of religious law and asked, "Where is the Messiah supposed to be born?"

5 "In Bethlehem in Judea," they said, "for this is what the prophet wrote:

6 'And you, O Bethlehem in the land of Judah, are not least among the ruling cities* of Judah, for a ruler will come from you who will be the shepherd for my people Israel.' 7"

7 Then Herod called for a private meeting with the wise men, and he learned from them the time when the star first appeared. 8 Then he told them, "Go to Bethlehem and search carefully for the child. And when you find him, come back and tell me so that I can go and worship him, too!"

9 After this interview the wise men went their way. And the star they had seen in the east guided them to Bethlehem. It went ahead of them and stopped over the place where the child was. 10 When they saw the star, they were filled with joy! 11 They entered the house and saw the child with his mother, Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasure chests and gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12 When it was time to leave, they returned to their own country by another route, for God had warned them in a dream not to return to Herod.

THE ESCAPE TO EGYPT

13 After the wise men were gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. "Get up! Flee to Egypt with the child and his mother," the angel said. "Stay there until I tell you to return, because Herod is going to search for the child to kill him."

14 That night Joseph left for Egypt with the child and Mary, his mother, 15 and they stayed there until Herod's death. This fulfilled what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: "I called my Son out of Egypt."*

16 Herod was furious when he realized that the wise men had outwitted him. He sent soldiers to kill all the boys in and around Bethlehem who were two years old and under, based on the wise men's report of the star's first appearance.

GETTING FROM PROMISE TO PURPOSE

Matthew 2:13

TODD LANE

When God gives us a promise, we often have to wait to see the fulfillment of His purpose. In Matthew 2:13, God tells Joseph in a dream to take Mary and Jesus to Egypt. God may call you to your own “Egypt,” a place that feels off course from your calling or destiny. What seems like a detour, however, may be a divine arrangement for you to be a blessing to someone else.

Some people think God is slow, but He has the timing of everything in His hands. Jesus had to wait 30 years to begin His ministry, and when He did, He certainly did not meet the Jewish people’s expectations. They were expecting the Messiah to be a part of the priestly elite or from a kingly family, neither of which applied to Jesus. God’s purpose for the Messiah was bigger than their expectations. Jesus was not just for the Jews but also for the whole world.

weeping and great mourning.
Rachel weeps for her children, refusing to be comforted, for they are dead.”*

THE RETURN TO NAZARETH

<sup>19</sup> When Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt. <sup>20</sup> “Get up!” the angel said. “Take the child and his mother back to the land of Israel, because those who were trying to kill the child are dead.”

<sup>21</sup> So Joseph got up and returned to the land of Israel with Jesus and his mother. <sup>22</sup> But when he learned that the new ruler of Judea was Herod’s son Archelaus, he was afraid to go there. Then, after being warned in a dream, he left for the region of Galilee. <sup>23</sup> So the family went and lived in a town called Nazareth. This fulfilled what the prophets had said: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

3 In those days John the Baptist came to the Judean wilderness and began preaching. His message was, <sup>2</sup> “Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near.” <sup>3</sup> The prophet Isaiah was speaking about John when he said,

“He is a voice shouting in the wilderness,
‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!
Clear the road for him!’”*

For food he ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup> People from Jerusalem and from all of Judea and all over the Jordan Valley went out to see and hear John. <sup>6</sup> And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.

<sup>7</sup> But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to watch him baptize,* he denounced them. “You brood of snakes!” he exclaimed. “Who warned you to flee the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup> Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to God. <sup>9</sup> Don’t just say to each other, ‘We’re safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.’ That means nothing, for I tell you, God can create children of Abraham from these very stones. <sup>10</sup> Even now the ax of God’s judgment is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire.”

<sup>11</sup> “I baptize with* water those who repent of their sins and turn to God. But someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not worthy even to be his slave and carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.” <sup>12</sup> He is ready to separate the chaff from the wheat with his winnowing fork. Then he will clean up the threshing area, gathering the wheat into his barn but burning the chaff with never-ending fire.”

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus went from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John. <sup>14</sup> But John tried to talk him out of it. “I am the one who needs to be baptized by you,” he said, “so why are you coming to me?”

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus said, “It should be done, for we must carry out all that God requires.*” So John agreed to baptize him.

<sup>16</sup> After his baptism, as Jesus came up out of the water, the heavens were opened* and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and settling on him. <sup>17</sup> And a voice from heaven said, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy.”

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

4 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted there by the devil. <sup>2</sup> For forty days and forty nights he fasted and became very hungry.

<sup>3</sup> During that time the devil* came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread.”

<sup>4</sup> But Jesus told him, “No! The Scriptures say,

‘People do not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

THE BREAD OF HEAVEN

Matthew 4:4

ROBERT MORRIS

In Matthew 4, Jesus fasts and prays in the wilderness for 40 days. Knowing Jesus is hungry, Satan arrives to tempt Him, saying, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread" (v. 3). Instead of giving into temptation, Jesus replies,

"No! The Scriptures say,

'People do not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God'" (v. 4).

There is nothing more important we can do than feed our spirits with God's Word. The more we allow ourselves to be sustained and nourished by the Word of God, the more we are equipped to resist temptation. When we know His Word, we'll be able to respond, No! The Scriptures say . . . No matter what comes against us, God's Word will sustain us.

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil took him to the holy city, Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple, <sup>6</sup> and said, "If you are the Son of God, jump off! For the Scriptures say,

'He will order his angels to protect you.
And they will hold you up with their hands so you won't even hurt your foot on a stone.'<sup>7</sup>"

<sup>7</sup> Jesus responded, "The Scriptures also say, 'You must not test the LORD your God.'<sup>8</sup>"

<sup>8</sup> Next the devil took him to the peak of a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. <sup>9</sup> "I will give it all to you," he said, "if you will kneel down and worship me."

'You must worship the LORD your God
and serve only him.'<sup>11</sup>"

THE MINISTRY OF JESUS BEGINS

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he left Judea and returned to Galilee. <sup>13</sup> He went first to Nazareth, then left there and moved to Capernaum, beside the Sea of Galilee, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali. <sup>14</sup> This fulfilled what God said through the prophet Isaiah:

<sup>15</sup> "In the land of Zebulun and of Naphtali, beside the sea, beyond the Jordan River,

RELEVANT FISHERMEN

Matthew 4:18-19

ROBERT MORRIS

Why did Jesus choose fishermen to be His disciples? A more obvious choice might have been to choose preachers or even politicians. Instead, He chose rugged, everyday men who knew how to go after something and catch it. He gave the work of the ministry to normal, working, and imperfect people.

Jesus calls all believers to be fishers of men, and it's surprisingly simple to do. All you need is the right bait and to cast your line in the right location. And the good news is you already have your bait! Bait is any story about God's goodness. It could be your salvation experience or a story about how God changed your life.

Every Christian can be like the disciples and learn how to "fish for people" (Matthew 4:19). People are hungry for the Good News, and you have what they're craving. So start "fishing" today!

in Galilee where so many Gentiles live, <sup>16</sup> the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light.
And for those who lived in the land where death casts its shadow, a light has shined."<sup>17</sup>

<sup>17</sup> From then on Jesus began to preach, "Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near."<sup>18</sup>

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

<sup>18</sup> One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers—Simon, also called Peter, and Andrew—throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. <sup>19</sup> Jesus called out to them, "Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!" <sup>20</sup> And they left their nets at once and followed him.

<sup>21</sup> A little farther up the shore he saw two other brothers, James and John, sitting in a boat with their father, Zebedee, repairing their nets. And he called them to come, too. <sup>22</sup> They immediately followed him, leaving the boat and their father behind.

CROWDS FOLLOW JESUS

<sup>23</sup> Jesus traveled throughout the region of Galilee, teaching in the synagogues and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom. And he healed every kind of disease and illness. <sup>24</sup> News about him spread as far as Syria, and people soon began bringing to him all who were sick. And whatever

HAPPINESS REDEFINED

Matthew 5:1-12

ROBERT MORRIS

You serve a happy God. Perhaps you've never thought about that. Sadly, religion often portrays God as angry. But the truth is God is happy, and He wants you to be happy too!

Matthew 5 contains one of Jesus' most famous teachings, the Beatitudes, in which He describes people whom God blesses. The Greek word for blessed is makarios, which means 'happy.' Jesus wants us to understand that God's version of happiness does not depend on emotions or possessions. Instead, it is an inner joy that remains constant in every situation.

1. "God blesses those who are poor and realize their need for him" (v. 3).

Jesus is not referring to the state of our bank accounts but to the state of our hearts. To enter the Kingdom of Heaven, we must see ourselves as spiritually bankrupt, unable to pay anything toward the overwhelming debt of sin. Our only hope is God, who is "rich in mercy" (Ephesians 2:4). When we enter His presence, we can't help but recognize His richness and our poverty.

2. "God blesses those who mourn" (v. 4).

When we think about a mourning person, we usually picture someone who has suffered a great loss. However, the mourning Jesus refers to is what we should feel about sin, especially when we realize that our sin put Jesus on the cross. This kind of godly sorrow produces repentance—a change in our hearts and minds. When we repent, the Holy Spirit comes to comfort us, and we experience the joy of salvation (Psalm 32:1-5; 51:1-4, 12).

3. "God blesses those who are humble" (v. 5).

Humility is not weakness—it's strength under control. Jesus was strong and still completely submissive and obedient to His Father. None of us are born with humility. Instead, it's a work of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Humility brings our strength under His control and harnesses it in the right direction. James 4:10 says, "Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up in honor."

4. "God blesses those who hunger and thirst for justice" (v. 6).

The word translated justice is sometimes translated as righteousness, which means 'right standing with a perfect and holy God.' Jesus uses the terms hunger and thirst because these are the two strongest impulses we experience; food and water are absolute necessities for physical life. In the same way, righteousness is an absolute necessity for spiritual life, and the only one who can satisfy our need for true righteousness is Jesus.

5. "God blesses those who are merciful" (v. 7).

In Jesus' day, mercy meant showing compassion on the poor or guilty. As sinful humans, we are both poor and guilty! The greatest need in our lives is the continuing mercy of God. Thankfully, "His mercies never cease"; they "begin afresh each morning" (Lamentations 3:22-23). Because we have received God's mercy, we can be merciful to others and receive even more of His mercy in return.

6. "God blesses those whose hearts are pure" (v. 8).

The word translated pure means 'free from any impure mixture.' How can we ever have pure hearts and see God? Jesus said, "You must be born again" (John 3:7). Attending church, reading the Bible, and tithing are all good things, but they do not save you. Eternal life comes only through believing in Jesus (John 3:36). If you want to know if you've been born again, ask yourself, When did I stop going my way and start going God's way?

7. "God blesses those who work for peace" (v. 9).

Jesus is the Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6), and He calls His followers to work for peace in a world that's filled with war. Peace is not the absence of conflict; it's the presence of righteousness. James 3:18 says, "Those who are peacemakers will plant seeds of peace and reap a harvest of righteousness." We can't be peacemakers if we aren't at peace. We must stay focused on the Lord and His Word because perfect peace comes only from Him (Isaiah 26:3).

8. "God blesses those who are persecuted for doing right" (vv. 10-12).

The word translated persecute means 'to drive someone away in a hostile manner.' People often believe everything will be easy once they get saved, but "everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution" (2 Timothy 3:12). Persecution comes through people, but it's a spiritual attack. The world hates righteousness just as darkness hates light. However, when we are persecuted, Jesus instructs us to "be happy about it!" Why? Because "a great reward awaits you in heaven" (v. 12). There is a deep joy that comes from building the Kingdom of Heaven, and like Stephen in Acts 7:55, we too will see the glory of God.

their sickness or disease, or if they were demon possessed or epileptic or paralyzed—he healed them all. <sup>25</sup>Large crowds followed him wherever he went—people from Galilee, the Ten Towns,*

Jerusalem, from all over Judea, and from east of the Jordan River.

4:25 Greek Decapolis.

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

5 One day as he saw the crowds gathering, Jesus went up on the mountainside and sat down. His disciples gathered around him, <sup>2</sup>and he began to teach them.

THE BEATITUDES

- <sup>3</sup> “God blesses those who are poor and realize their need for him,* for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.
- <sup>4</sup> God blesses those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
- <sup>5</sup> God blesses those who are humble, for they will inherit the whole earth.
- <sup>6</sup> God blesses those who hunger and thirst for justice,* for they will be satisfied.
- <sup>7</sup> God blesses those who are merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
- <sup>8</sup> God blesses those whose hearts are pure,
for they will see God.
- <sup>9</sup> God blesses those who work for peace, for they will be called the children of God.
- <sup>10</sup> God blesses those who are persecuted for doing right, for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

<sup>11</sup> “God blesses you when people mock you and persecute you and lie about you and say all sorts of evil things against you because you are my followers. <sup>12</sup> Be happy about it! Be very glad! For a great reward awaits you in heaven. And remember, the ancient prophets were persecuted in the same way.

TEACHING ABOUT SALT AND LIGHT

<sup>13</sup> “You are the salt of the earth. But what good is salt if it has lost its flavor? Can you make it salty again? It will be thrown out and trampled underfoot as worthless.

TEACHING ABOUT THE LAW

<sup>17</sup> “Don’t misunderstand why I have come. I did not come to abolish the law of Moses or the writings of the prophets. No, I came to accomplish their purpose. <sup>18</sup> I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not even the smallest detail of God’s law will disappear until its purpose is achieved. <sup>19</sup> So if you ignore the least commandment and teach others to do the same, you will be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But anyone who obeys God’s laws and teaches them will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>20</sup> “But I warn you—unless your righteousness is better than the righteousness of the teachers

ENGAGING INFLUENCERS

Matthew 5:13–15

ROBERT MORRIS

In Matthew 5:13, Jesus calls believers the “salt of the earth.” Salt is a preservative, and it also makes food taste better. In the natural, salt remains pure by staying close to the rock and by being washed by water. In the same way, to stay pure as believers, we must remain close to our Rock (1 Corinthians 10:4) and wash ourselves with God’s Word (Ephesians 5:26).

Then in Matthew 5:14, Jesus also calls believers the “light of the world.” Jesus is the Light who shines through us, the body of Christ. If we hide our light under a basket (Matthew 5:15), darkness will overtake the world.

Everywhere we go, we have the opportunity and responsibility to influence others for the Lord. We need to shine our light so the world can see Jesus. If people are going to be influenced toward God, it has to be through us—His salt and light.

UNDER GRACE

Matthew 5:17

ROBERT MORRIS

I hear many different excuses for not tithing, but the one I hear the most is, “I’m under grace, not law.” Some believers think that because Jesus fulfilled the Old Testament Law, they are off the hook from tithing. They somehow miss that every time Jesus pointed to an old covenant law, He then set a higher standard under new covenant grace. For example, the Law of Moses says not to commit adultery (Exodus 20:14 and Deuteronomy 5:18). However, in Matthew 5:27, Jesus says you should not even look at a woman lustfully. In other words, the righteousness that grace demands goes further than that which law demands.

I smile when someone tells me they give according to grace, not law. Then I reply, “Great! That means you give much more than 10 percent, because the righteousness of grace is a higher standard and always exceeds the righteousness of law.”

of religious law and the Pharisees, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

TEACHING ABOUT ANGER

<sup>21</sup> “You have heard that our ancestors were told, ‘You must not murder. If you commit murder, you are subject to judgment.’” <sup>22</sup> But I say, if you are even angry with someone,* you are subject to judgment! If you call someone an idiot,* you are in danger of 5:3 Greek poor in spirit. 5:6 Or for righteousness. 5:21 Exod 20:13; Deut 5:17. 5:22a Some manuscripts add without cause.

5:22b Greek uses an Aramaic term of contempt: If you say to your brother, ‘Raca.’

THE GOSPEL AND MORALITY

Matthew 5:17-20

JACK HAYFORD

People often try to find fulfillment in life by grasping at what the world has to offer. We will not win those people to Christ by confronting them. We have to recognize they are living the way they do because they are blinded, bound, and in the dark.

So how can we reconcile the joy of the gospel with the call to discipleship? Love. The Christian faith becomes convincing when it's demonstrated, not when it's demanded. When we approach people based on love, we spread the power of the gospel. Jesus calls us to live morally consistent and joyously vibrant lives. Make your home and church inviting places. Show you care for your neighborhood, your city, and your nation by trying to help people. We need to bring people to Jesus, not control the system. You cannot disciple darkened minds. Jesus brought people first into life and then into discipleship.

THE ANATOMY OF ADULTERY

Matthew 5:27-30

JACK HAYFORD

Adultery is first spiritual. It starts when you give your heart to another person through your attitude. What begins in your mind then seeps into your heart and nourishes and feeds your eyes. As your eyes view pornography or look at another person with lust, an adulterous act forms.

How can you resist temptation?

- Avoid and discern.
- Don't be alone with a person when you know you shouldn't.
- Don't compliment in ways you know you shouldn't.
- Don't accept a protective role. It is not your job to be the protector of someone who is not your spouse.

Your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19). God is not against sexual fulfillment, but He doesn't want anything to defile its beauty. We should not taint intimacy with something that is inappropriate to God's divine order. Scripture prohibits adultery, warns against it, and assures that judgment will inevitably follow.

being brought before the court. And if you curse someone,* you are in danger of the fires of hell.*

<sup>23</sup>“So if you are presenting a sacrifice* at the altar in the Temple and you suddenly remember that someone has something against you,<sup>24</sup> leave your sacrifice there at the altar. Go and be reconciled to that person. Then come and offer your sacrifice to God.

<sup>25</sup>“When you are on the way to court with your adversary, settle your differences quickly. Otherwise, your accuser may hand you over to the judge, who will hand you over to an officer, and you will be thrown into prison.<sup>26</sup> And if that happens, you surely won't be free again until you have paid the last penny.*

TEACHING ABOUT ADULTERY

<sup>27</sup>“You have heard the commandment that says, ‘You must not commit adultery.’*<sup>28</sup> But I say, anyone who even looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart.<sup>29</sup> So if your eye—even your good eye—causes you to lust, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.<sup>30</sup> And if your hand—even your stronger hand*—causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

TEACHING ABOUT DIVORCE

<sup>31</sup>“You have heard the law that says, ‘A man can divorce his wife by merely giving her a written notice of divorce.’*<sup>32</sup> But I say that a man who divorces his wife, unless she has been unfaithful, causes her to commit adultery. And anyone who marries a divorced woman also commits adultery.

TEACHING ABOUT VOWS

<sup>33</sup>“You have also heard that our ancestors were told, ‘You must not break your vows; you must carry out the vows you make to the LORD.’*<sup>34</sup> But I say, do not make any vows! Do not say, ‘By heaven!’ because heaven is God's throne.<sup>35</sup> And do not say, ‘By the earth!’ because the earth is his footstool. And do not say, ‘By Jerusalem!’ for Jerusalem is the city of the great King.<sup>36</sup> Do not even say, ‘By my head!’ for you can't turn one hair white or black.<sup>37</sup> Just say a simple, ‘Yes, I will,’ or ‘No, I won't.’ Anything beyond this is from the evil one.

TEACHING ABOUT REVENGE

<sup>38</sup>“You have heard the law that says the punishment must match the injury: ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’*<sup>39</sup> But I say, do not resist an evil person! If someone slaps you on the right cheek, offer the other cheek also.<sup>40</sup> If you are sued in court and your shirt is taken from you, give your coat, too.<sup>41</sup> If a soldier demands that you carry his gear for a mile,* carry it two miles.<sup>42</sup> Give to those who ask, and don't turn away from those who want to borrow.

5:41 Greek milion [4,854 feet or 1,478 meters].

TEACHING ABOUT LOVE FOR ENEMIES

<sup>43</sup>“You have heard the law that says, ‘Love your neighbor’* and hate your enemy. <sup>44</sup>But I say, love your enemies!* Pray for those who persecute you! <sup>45</sup>In that way, you will be acting as true children of your Father in heaven. For he gives his sunlight to both the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust alike. <sup>46</sup>If you love only those who love you, what reward is there for that? Even corrupt tax collectors do that much. <sup>47</sup>If you are kind only to your friends,* how are you different from anyone else? Even pagans do that. <sup>48</sup>But you are to be perfect, even as your Father in heaven is perfect.

TEACHING ABOUT GIVING TO THE NEEDY

6 <sup>1</sup>“Watch out! Don’t do your good deeds publicly, to be admired by others, for you will lose the reward from your Father in heaven. <sup>2</sup>When you give to someone in need, don’t do as the hypocrites do—blowing trumpets in the synagogues and streets to call attention to their acts of charity! I tell you the truth, they have received all the reward they will ever get. <sup>3</sup>But when you give to someone in need, don’t let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. <sup>4</sup>Give your gifts in private, and your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

TEACHING ABOUT PRAYER AND FASTING

<sup>5</sup>“When you pray, don’t be like the hypocrites who love to pray publicly on street corners and in the synagogues where everyone can see them. I tell you the truth, that is all the reward they will ever get. <sup>6</sup>But when you pray, go away by yourself, shut the door behind you, and pray to your Father in private. Then your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

<sup>7</sup>“When you pray, don’t babble on and on as the Gentiles do. They think their prayers are answered merely by repeating their words again and again. <sup>8</sup>Don’t be like them, for your Father knows exactly what you need even before you ask him! <sup>9</sup>Pray like this:

Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy.

<sup>10</sup> May your Kingdom come soon.
May your will be done on earth,
as it is in heaven.

<sup>12</sup> and forgive us our sins, as we have forgiven those who sin against us.

but rescue us from the evil one.*

<sup>14</sup>“If you forgive those who sin against you, your heavenly Father will forgive you. <sup>15</sup>But if you refuse to forgive others, your Father will not forgive your sins.

HOW TO HAVE A DAILY, DYNAMIC PRAYER LIFE

Matthew 6:5–15

JIMMY EVANS

God never intended the Christian life to be dull or boring. He wants every person to have a dynamic, fulfilling relationship with Him, but this requires communication going both ways. We cannot know someone without talking and listening, and the same is true for our relationship with God. Because we have a free will, He comes only by invitation.

Prayer is an intimate conversation with God. We pray to build a personal relationship with Him. In Matthew 6:5–15, Jesus gives the disciples a model for prayer. We should always begin by acknowledging God and His greatness. We worship and honor God for who He is and what He has done in our lives. Our prayers should be private and relational, not for showing off our “spirituality.” Prayer recognizes our need for God’s help and guidance, and it surrenders to His lordship and authority in every area of our lives.

TRUE RICHES

Matthew 6:19–20

ROBERT MORRIS

How can we obey Jesus’ command to store our treasures in heaven (Matthew 6:20)? By being good stewards and using our money for righteous purposes. The human soul is eternal, and the only things that last are people. This is why I want to invest my money in churches and ministries that invest in people. I know God loves people more than anything, so I want my money to be used in helping people, loving people, feeding people, and caring for people.

You may be thinking, I don’t have a lot of money to give. That’s okay! Having only a little bit of money gives us a great opportunity for blessing. In Luke 16:10, Jesus tells us, “If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones. But if you are dishonest in little things, you won’t be honest with greater responsibilities.”

<sup>16</sup>“And when you fast, don’t make it obvious, as the hypocrites do, for they try to look miserable and disheveled so people will admire them for their fasting. I tell you the truth, that is the only reward they will ever get. <sup>17</sup>But when you fast,

<sup>5:47</sup> Greek your brothers. <sup>6:11</sup> Or Give us today our food for the day; or Give us today our food for tomorrow. <sup>6:13a</sup> Or And keep us from being tested. <sup>6:13b</sup> Or from evil. Some manuscripts add For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

PASSING THE TEST

Matthew 6:21

ROBERT MORRIS

Many people think Matthew 6:21 says, "Where your heart is, there your treasure will also be." However, the verse actually says your heart follows your treasure. God knows where your heart is by where your treasure is. If you say, "My heart is in the Kingdom of God," your bank account will either validate or refute that claim.

Jesus spent 30 percent of His time teaching on money for a reason. Tithing represents the ultimate heart test for every believer. The test is how we handle our money, and the outcome of this test determines whether God can trust us with true riches or not. In Malachi 3:10, He says, "Bring all the tithes into the storehouse . . . I will open the windows of heaven for you. I will pour out a blessing so great you won't have enough room to take it in. Try it! Put me to the test!"

comb your hair* and wash your face.<sup>18</sup> Then no one will notice that you are fasting, except your Father, who knows what you do in private. And your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

TEACHING ABOUT MONEY AND POSSESSIONS

<sup>22</sup>"Your eye is like a lamp that provides light for your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is filled with light. <sup>23</sup>But when your eye is unhealthy, your whole body is filled with darkness. And if the light you think you have is actually darkness, how deep that darkness is!

<sup>24</sup>"No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money.

<sup>25</sup>"That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food and drink, or enough clothes to wear. Isn't life more than food, and your body more than clothing? <sup>26</sup>Look at the birds. They don't plant or harvest or store food in barns, for your heavenly Father feeds them. And aren't you far more valuable to him than they are? <sup>27</sup>Can all your worries add a single moment to your life?

they are.<sup>30</sup> And if God cares so wonderfully for wildflowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?

<sup>31</sup>"So don't worry about these things, saying, 'What will we eat? What will we drink? What will we wear?' <sup>32</sup>These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers, but your heavenly Father already knows all your needs. <sup>33</sup>Seek the Kingdom of God* above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need.

<sup>34</sup>"So don't worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring its own worries. Today's trouble is enough for today.

DO NOT JUDGE OTHERS

7 "Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. <sup>2</sup>For you will be treated as you treat others.* The standard you use in judging is the standard by which you will be judged.*

<sup>6</sup>"Don't waste what is holy on people who are unholy.* Don't throw your pearls to pigs! They will trample the pearls, then turn and attack you.

EFFECTIVE PRAYER

<sup>7</sup>"Keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you.

<sup>8</sup>For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

<sup>9</sup>"You parents—if your children ask for a loaf of bread, do you give them a stone instead? <sup>10</sup>Or if they ask for a fish, do you give them a snake? Of course not! <sup>11</sup>So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good gifts to those who ask him.

THE GOLDEN RULE

<sup>12</sup>"Do to others whatever you would like them to do to you. This is the essence of all that is taught in the law and the prophets.

THE NARROW GATE

<sup>13</sup>"You can enter God's Kingdom only through the narrow gate. The highway to hell* is broad, and its gate is wide for the many who choose that way.<sup>14</sup> But the gateway to life is very narrow and the road is difficult, and only a few ever find it.

6:17 Greek anoint your head. 6:33 Some manuscripts do not include of God. 7:2a Or For God will judge you as you judge others. 7:2b Or The measure you give will be the measure you get back. 7:3 Greek your brother's eye; also in 7:5. 7:4 Greek your brother. 7:6 Greek Don't give the sacred to dogs. 7:13 Greek The road that leads to destruction.

THE TREE AND ITS FRUIT

<sup>15</sup>“Beware of false prophets who come disguised as harmless sheep but are really vicious wolves. <sup>16</sup>You can identify them by their fruit, that is, by the way they act. Can you pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? <sup>17</sup>A good tree produces good fruit, and a bad tree produces bad fruit. <sup>18</sup>A good tree can’t produce bad fruit, and a bad tree can’t produce good fruit. <sup>19</sup>So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire. <sup>20</sup>Yes, just as you can identify a tree by its fruit, so you can identify people by their actions.

TRUE DISCIPLES

<sup>21</sup>“Not everyone who calls out to me, ‘Lord! Lord!’ will enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Only those who actually do the will of my Father in heaven will enter. <sup>22</sup>On judgment day many will say to me, ‘Lord! Lord! We prophesied in your name and cast out demons in your name and performed many miracles in your name.’ <sup>23</sup>But I will reply, ‘I never knew you. Get away from me, you who break God’s laws.’

BUILDING ON A SOLID FOUNDATION

<sup>24</sup>“Anyone who listens to my teaching and follows it is wise, like a person who builds a house on solid rock. <sup>25</sup>Though the rain comes in torrents and the floodwaters rise and the winds beat against that house, it won’t collapse because it is built on bedrock. <sup>26</sup>But anyone who hears my teaching and doesn’t obey it is foolish, like a person who builds a house on sand. <sup>27</sup>When the rains and floods come and the winds beat against that house, it will collapse with a mighty crash.”

STAND FIRM
Matthew 7:24–25

ROBERT MORRIS

Satan’s first priority is not to get you to sin; it’s to get you to believe a lie. The serpent lied to Eve in the Garden of Eden, and he continues to lie to us today. The way to defeat the words of the enemy and stand against him is to position ourselves firmly in God’s Word.

In Matthew 7:24, Jesus says, “Anyone who listens to my teaching and follows it is wise, like a person who builds a house on solid rock.” (Remember, 1 Corinthians 10:4 tells us that Jesus is the rock.) Jesus continues, “Though the rain comes in torrents and the floodwaters rise and the winds beat against that house, it won’t collapse because it is built on bedrock” (v. 25).

The next time the enemy comes against you, it will be his word versus God’s Word, and we already know who wins that battle!

THE FOUNDATION OF HEALING

Matthew 8:1–17

JACK HAYFORD

Healing is not arbitrary or an afterthought to salvation. Healing is tied up in the same package of total release for humanity, which comes through the cross of Jesus Christ. It is a historical fact that Jesus’ healing ministry has been transmitted to the Church. There is a biblical basis for God’s provision of health, healing, and deliverance. Jesus cast out demonic spirits and healed those who were sick as a fulfillment of the prophet Isaiah’s words:

He was pierced for our rebellion, crushed for our sins.

He was beaten so we could be whole.

He was whipped so we could be healed
(Isaiah 53:5).

JESUS HEALS A MAN WITH LEPROSY

8 Large crowds followed Jesus as he came down the mountainside. <sup>2</sup> Suddenly, a man with leprosy approached him and knelt before him. “Lord,” the man said, “if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean.”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” And instantly the leprosy disappeared. <sup>4</sup> Then Jesus said to him, “Don’t tell anyone about this. Instead, go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

THE FAITH OF A ROMAN OFFICER

<sup>8</sup> But the officer said, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come into my home. Just say the word from where you are, and my servant will be healed. <sup>9</sup> I know this because I am under the authority of my superior officers, and I have authority over my soldiers. I only need to say, ‘Go,’ and they go, or ‘Come,’ and they come. And if I say to my slaves, ‘Do this,’ they do it.”

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. Turning to those who were following him, he said, “I tell you the truth, I haven’t seen faith like this in all Israel! <sup>11</sup>And I tell you this, that many Gentiles will come from all over the world—from east and west—and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob at the feast in the Kingdom of Heaven. <sup>12</sup>But many Israelites—those for whom the Kingdom was prepared—will be thrown into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

8:4 See Lev 14:2–32. 8:5 Greek a centurion; similarly in 8:8, 13.

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to the Roman officer, “Go back home. Because you believed, it has happened.” And the young servant was healed that same hour.

JESUS HEALS MANY PEOPLE

<sup>14</sup>When Jesus arrived at Peter’s house, Peter’s mother-in-law was sick in bed with a high fever.

<sup>16</sup>That evening many demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. He cast out the evil spirits with a simple command, and he healed all the sick. <sup>17</sup>This fulfilled the word of the Lord through the prophet Isaiah, who said,

“He took our sicknesses and removed our diseases.”*

THE COST OF FOLLOWING JESUS

<sup>18</sup>When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he instructed his disciples to cross to the other side of the lake.

JESUS CALMS THE STORM

<sup>26</sup>Jesus responded, “Why are you afraid? You have so little faith!” Then he got up and rebuked the wind and waves, and suddenly there was a great calm.

<sup>27</sup>The disciples were amazed. “Who is this man?” they asked. “Even the winds and waves obey him!”

JESUS HEALS TWO DEMON-POSSESSED MEN

<sup>28</sup>When Jesus arrived on the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gadarenes,* two men who were possessed by demons met him. They came out of the tombs and were so violent that no one could go through that area.

<sup>29</sup>They began screaming at him, “Why are you interfering with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torture us before God’s appointed time?”

<sup>32</sup>“All right, go!” Jesus commanded them. So the demons came out of the men and entered the pigs, and the whole herd plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water.

<sup>33</sup>The herdsmen fled to the nearby town, telling everyone what happened to the demon-possessed men. <sup>34</sup>Then the entire town came out to meet Jesus, but they begged him to go away and leave them alone.

JESUS HEALS A PARALYZED MAN

9 Jesus climbed into a boat and went back across the lake to his own town. <sup>2</sup>Some people brought to him a paralyzed man on a mat. Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “Be encouraged, my child! Your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>3</sup>But some of the teachers of religious law said to themselves, “That’s blasphemy! Does he think he’s God?”

<sup>4</sup>Jesus knew* what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you have such evil thoughts in your hearts? <sup>5</sup>Is it easier to say ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up and walk’? <sup>6</sup>So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!”

<sup>8</sup>Fear swept through the crowd as they saw this happen. And they praised God for giving humans such authority.

JESUS CALLS MATTHEW

<sup>9</sup>As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. So Matthew got up and followed him.

<sup>10</sup>Later, Matthew invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. <sup>11</sup>But when the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with such scum?”*

<sup>12</sup>When Jesus heard this, he said, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do.”

<sup>13</sup>Then he added, “Now go and learn the meaning of this Scripture: ‘I want you to show mercy, not offer sacrifices.’* For I have come to call not

LET'S BE FRIENDS

Matthew 9:9-13

ROBERT MORRIS

Matthew (also known as Levi) was a tax collector until he answered Jesus' call in Matthew 9 to "Follow me and be my disciple" (v. 9). He invited Jesus and the other disciples to come to dinner at his home, and "many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners" joined them (v. 10). The Pharisees saw this and asked Jesus' disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with such scum?" (v. 11). Jesus heard and responded, "I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners" (v. 13).

Jesus is the best friend a sinner could ever have, and we are all sinners (Romans 3:23). You may wonder, What makes Him such a good friend? Here are three reasons:

1. A friend like Jesus isn't condemning.

Jesus was perfect and holy, yet sinners loved being around Him. Why? They knew He loved them. Yes, Jesus hates sin, but the reason He hates sin is because He loves sinners! He knows sin destroys people and separates them from God. John 3:17 says, "God sent His Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through him." Jesus was not surprised when sinners sinned, and we shouldn't be either. They usually don't know there is a line they have crossed, and you wouldn't either if weren't for the grace of God in your life.

2. A friend like Jesus isn't compromising.

In John 8, Jesus tells the woman caught in adultery two things: He doesn't condemn her, and "Go and sin no more" (v. 11). When faced with others' sin, we tend either to compromise our faith by "being a good friend," or we withdraw completely to "be separate from the world." However, Jesus is the perfect example of being both a friend of sinners and separate from them. He understands what it feels like to be tempted, but He never sinned (Hebrews 4:15). Jesus wasn't even curious about sin; He knows that sin always destroys people. He did not compromise in order to gain favor with sinners. Instead, sinners followed Him because they knew He spoke the truth! If we want to be in the world but not of it, we have no better example than Jesus.

3. A friend like Jesus is compassionate.

The woman caught in adultery was brought before the most important spiritual leader in all of history. According to the Law of Moses, Jesus could have stoned her for her immorality. Instead, He had compassion on her. The woman knew Jesus did not approve of her lifestyle, but she also knew that He loved her. Everyone Jesus met knew He loved them. How can we show this same love to others? The only way is to meet with the Compassionate One—Jesus. The more time we spend with Him, the more we will have His heart for people.

those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners."

A DISCUSSION ABOUT FASTING

<sup>14</sup>One day the disciples of John the Baptist came to Jesus and asked him, "Why don't your disciples fast* like we do and the Pharisees do?"

<sup>15</sup>Jesus replied, "Do wedding guests mourn while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>17</sup>"And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the old skins would burst from the pressure, spilling the wine and ruining the skins. New wine is stored in new wineskins so that both are preserved."

JESUS HEALS IN RESPONSE TO FAITH

<sup>18</sup>As Jesus was saying this, the leader of a synagogue came and knelt before him. "My daughter has just died," he said, "but you can bring her back to life again if you just come and lay your hand on her."

<sup>19</sup>So Jesus and his disciples got up and went with him. <sup>20</sup>Just then a woman who had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding came up behind him. She touched the fringe of his robe, <sup>21</sup>for she thought, "If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed."

<sup>22</sup>Jesus turned around, and when he saw her he said, "Daughter, be encouraged! Your faith has made you well." And the woman was healed at that moment.

JESUS HEALS THE BLIND

<sup>27</sup>After Jesus left the girl's home, two blind men followed along behind him, shouting, "Son of David, have mercy on us!"

9:14 Some manuscripts read fast often.

<sup>28</sup> They went right into the house where he was staying, and Jesus asked them, “Do you believe I can make you see?”

“Yes, Lord,” they told him, “we do.”

<sup>29</sup> Then he touched their eyes and said, “Because of your faith, it will happen.” <sup>30</sup> Then their eyes were opened, and they could see! Jesus sternly warned them, “Don’t tell anyone about this.” <sup>31</sup> But instead, they went out and spread his fame all over the region.

<sup>32</sup> When they left, a demon-possessed man who couldn’t speak was brought to Jesus. <sup>33</sup> So Jesus cast out the demon, and then the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed. “Nothing like this has ever happened in Israel!” they exclaimed.

<sup>34</sup> But the Pharisees said, “He can cast out demons because he is empowered by the prince of demons.”

THE NEED FOR WORKERS

<sup>35</sup> Jesus traveled through all the towns and villages of that area, teaching in the synagogues and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom. And he healed every kind of disease and illness. <sup>36</sup> When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them because they were confused and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. <sup>37</sup> He said to his disciples, “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. <sup>38</sup> So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields.”

JESUS SENDS OUT THE TWELVE APOSTLES

10 Jesus called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority to cast out evil spirits and to heal every kind of disease and illness.<sup>2</sup> Here are the names of the twelve apostles:

first, Simon (also called Peter), then Andrew (Peter’s brother),
James (son of Zebedee),
John (James’s brother),

Bartholomew,
Thomas,
Matthew (the tax collector),

SHARING OUR STORIES

Matthew 9:37

ROBERT MORRIS

As believers, we need to feel the urgency of witnessing and winning people to Christ. And the way to do this is by simply telling your story. Tell people about what God has done in your life. Remember, your testimony is not how bad you were; it’s how good God was and is to you.

I encourage you to start praying for the Holy Spirit to lead you to specific people who need to know Jesus. Then ask Him for the boldness to share your story of God’s goodness. I believe that praying for specific people helps us to become more focused and attentive to the leading of the Holy Spirit. If you agree to do this by God’s grace, then say this prayer: “Lord, please help me to be sensitive when the Holy Spirit speaks to me and to share my story of Your goodness with those who need to hear it.”

<sup>16</sup> “Look, I am sending you out as sheep among wolves. So be as shrewd as snakes and harmless as doves. <sup>17</sup> But beware! For you will be handed over to the courts and will be flogged with whips in the synagogues. <sup>18</sup> You will stand trial before governors and kings because you are my followers. But this will be your opportunity to tell the rulers and other unbelievers about me.* <sup>19</sup> When you are arrested, don’t worry about how to respond or what to say. God will give you the right words at the right time. <sup>20</sup> For it is not you who will be speaking—it will be the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

<sup>21</sup> “A brother will betray his brother to death, a father will betray his own child, and children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be killed. <sup>22</sup> And all nations will hate you because you are my followers.* But everyone who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>23</sup> When you are persecuted in one town, flee to the next. ## JESUS AND JOHN THE BAPTIST

11 When Jesus had finished giving these instructions to his twelve disciples, he went out to teach and preach in towns throughout the region.

<sup>2</sup>John the Baptist, who was in prison, heard about all the things the Messiah was doing. So he sent his disciples to ask Jesus, <sup>3</sup>“Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting,* or should we keep looking for someone else?”

<sup>7</sup>As John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began talking about him to the crowds. “What kind of man did you go into the wilderness to see? Was he a weak reed, swayed by every breath of wind? <sup>8</sup>Or were you expecting to see a man dressed in expensive clothes? No, people with expensive clothes live in palaces. <sup>9</sup>Were you looking for a prophet? Yes, and he is more than a prophet. <sup>10</sup>John is the man to whom the Scriptures refer when they say,

‘Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
and he will prepare your way before you.’*

<sup>11</sup>“I tell you the truth, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John the Baptist. Yet even the least person in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he is! <sup>12</sup>And from the time John the Baptist began preaching until now, the Kingdom of Heaven has been forcefully advancing,* and violent people are attacking it. <sup>13</sup>For before John came, all the prophets and the law of Moses looked forward to this present time. <sup>14</sup>And if you are willing to accept what I say, he is Elijah, the one the prophets said would come.* <sup>15</sup>Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!

<sup>16</sup>“To what can I compare this generation? It is like children playing a game in the public square. They complain to their friends,

‘We played wedding songs,
and you didn’t dance,
so we played funeral songs,
and you didn’t mourn.’

JUDGMENT FOR THE UNBELIEVERS

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus began to denounce the towns where he had done so many of his miracles, because they hadn't repented of their sins and turned to God.

<sup>21</sup> "What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. <sup>22</sup> I tell you, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you.

<sup>23</sup> "And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven? No, you will go down to the place of the dead.* For if the miracles I did for you had been done in wicked Sodom, it would still be here today. <sup>24</sup> I tell you, even Sodom will be better off on judgment day than you."

JESUS' PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus prayed this prayer: "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike. <sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way!

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. <sup>29</sup> Take my yoke upon you. Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light."

A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE SABBATH

12 At about that time Jesus was walking through some grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, so they began breaking off some heads of grain and eating them. <sup>2</sup> But some Pharisees saw them do it and protested, "Look, your disciples are breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath."

<sup>3</sup> Jesus said to them, "Haven't you read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup> He went into the house of God, and he and his companions broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests are allowed to eat. <sup>5</sup> And haven't you read in the law of Moses that the priests on duty in the Temple may work on the Sabbath? <sup>6</sup> I tell you, there is one here who is even greater than the Temple! <sup>7</sup> But you would not have condemned my innocent disciples if you knew the meaning of this Scripture: 'I want you to show mercy, not offer sacrifices.*' <sup>8</sup> For the Son of Man* is Lord, even over the Sabbath!"

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus went over to their synagogue, <sup>10</sup> where he noticed a man with a deformed hand.

The Pharisees asked Jesus, "Does the law permit a person to work by healing on the Sabbath?" (They were hoping he would say yes, so they could bring charges against him.)

<sup>11</sup> And he answered, "If you had a sheep that fell into a well on the Sabbath, wouldn't you work to pull it out? Of course you would. <sup>12</sup> And how much more valuable is a person than a sheep! Yes, the law permits a person to do good on the Sabbath."

<sup>13</sup> Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." So the man held out his hand, and it was restored, just like the other one! <sup>14</sup> Then the Pharisees called a meeting to plot how to kill Jesus.

JESUS, GOD'S CHOSEN SERVANT

<sup>15</sup> But Jesus knew what they were planning. So he left that area, and many people followed him. He healed all the sick among them, <sup>16</sup> but he warned them not to reveal who he was. <sup>17</sup> This fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah concerning him:

<sup>18</sup> "Look at my Servant, whom I have chosen.
He is my Beloved, who pleases me.

I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations.

<sup>19</sup> He will not fight or shout or raise his voice in public.

<sup>20</sup> He will not crush the weakest reed or put out a flickering candle.
Finally he will cause justice to be victorious.

<sup>21</sup> And his name will be the hope of all the world.*

JESUS AND THE PRINCE OF DEMONS

<sup>22</sup> Then a demon-possessed man, who was blind and couldn't speak, was brought to Jesus. He healed the man so that he could both speak and see. <sup>23</sup> The crowd was amazed and asked, "Could it be that Jesus is the Son of David, the Messiah?"

<sup>24</sup> But when the Pharisees heard about the miracle, they said, "No wonder he can cast out demons. He gets his power from Satan,* the prince of demons."

<sup>25</sup> Jesus knew their thoughts and replied, "Any kingdom divided by civil war is doomed. A town or family splintered by feuding will fall apart. <sup>26</sup> And if Satan is casting out Satan, he is divided and fighting against himself. His own kingdom will not survive. <sup>27</sup> And if I am empowered by Satan, what about your own exorcists? They cast out demons, too, so they will condemn you for what you have said. <sup>28</sup> But if I am casting out demons by the Spirit of God, then the Kingdom of God has arrived among you. <sup>29</sup> For who is powerful enough to enter the house of a strong man and plunder his goods? Only someone even

THE TRUTH ABOUT WORDS

Matthew 12:33-37

ROBERT MORRIS

In Matthew 12:33, Jesus speaks to the Pharisees about their words by comparing their hearts to a tree and their words to the tree's fruit. Just as its fruit reveals if a tree is good or bad, a person's words reveal the state of their heart. People who have experienced God's grace have a true heart change, and this should be reflected in the way they speak. If your mouth hasn't changed, it's possible your heart hasn't either.

Here are three truths about the words that come out of your mouth:

1. Words cost.

Can a person ever speak freely? The answer may surprise you. The truth is words are never free—they always cost something. Freedom of speech is an important right for which we should be grateful, but God's law is higher than any human law. According to Matthew 12:36-37, we are accountable to God for every word we speak. When we speak hurtful words over someone, the cost can be diminished trust, decreased intimacy, or even the loss of the relationship itself. If you find yourself saying, "I probably shouldn't say this," then it is either the Holy Spirit or common sense (or both!) telling you not to say something.

2. Words hurt.

Words don't hurt if you're just joking, right? Actually, they do. We try to convince ourselves that humor removes the sting of hurtful words, but this is simply not true. The writer of Proverbs says a person who lies and then claims to be joking is as destructive as "a madman shooting a deadly weapon" (Proverbs 26:18-19). Even if we aren't lying, we often put little jabs in our comments that hurt people. You may say you don't mean it, but Jesus says you do: "Whatever is in your heart determines what you say" (Matthew 12:34). When evil words come out of your mouth, it's time to examine your heart, repent, and ask for forgiveness. If someone has spoken hurtful words to you, the only way to break free is to forgive that person.

3. Words last.

Words don't evaporate or disappear into the air. On the contrary, James 3:5-6 says the tongue can start a forest fire. Hurtful words don't go away; instead, they can and do damage the people around us. Thankfully, good words last as well. They can build people up and heal old wounds. When we pray, we may not see an immediate answer, but we can rest assured that our prayers have no expiration date before God.

stronger—someone who could tie him up and then plunder his house.

<sup>30</sup>"Anyone who isn't with me opposes me, and anyone who isn't working with me is actually working against me.

<sup>31</sup>"So I tell you, every sin and blasphemy can be forgiven—except blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, which will never be forgiven. <sup>32</sup>Anyone who speaks against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, either in this world or in the world to come.

<sup>33</sup>"A tree is identified by its fruit. If a tree is good, its fruit will be good. If a tree is bad, its fruit will be bad. <sup>34</sup>You brood of snakes! How could evil men like you speak what is good and right? For whatever is in your heart determines what you say. <sup>35</sup>A good person produces good things from the treasury of a good heart, and an evil person produces evil things from the treasury of an evil heart. <sup>36</sup>And I tell you this, you must give an account on judgment day for every idle word you speak. <sup>37</sup>The words you say will either acquit you or condemn you."

THE SIGN OF JONAH

<sup>38</sup>One day some teachers of religious law and Pharisees came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we want you to show us a miraculous sign to prove your authority."

FILL YOUR HOUSE WITH THE WORD

Matthew 12:43-45

ROBERT MORRIS

Did you know Christians can be in bondage to demons? I used to think this was impossible, but God's Word says:

"When an evil spirit leaves a person, it goes into the desert, seeking rest but finding none. Then it says, 'I will return to the person I came from.' So it returns and finds its former home empty, swept, and in order. Then the spirit finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all enter the person and live there. And so that person is worse off than before" (Matthew 12:43-45).

The key word in this passage is empty. If a demonic spirit is driven out of you, then it will come back with others. Your house may be clean and in order, but you cannot afford to leave it empty and unguarded. You need to fill it with the power and protection of God's Word.

<sup>39</sup>But Jesus replied, "Only an evil, adulterous generation would demand a miraculous sign; but the only sign I will give them is the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup>For as Jonah was in the belly of the great fish for three days and three nights, so will the Son of Man be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.

<sup>41</sup>“The people of Nineveh will stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for they repented of their sins at the preaching of Jonah. Now someone greater than Jonah is here—but you refuse to repent. <sup>42</sup>The queen of Sheba* will also stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for she came from a distant land to hear the wisdom of Solomon. Now someone greater than Solomon is here—but you refuse to listen.

<sup>43</sup>“When an evil* spirit leaves a person, it goes into the desert, seeking rest but finding none. <sup>44</sup>Then it says, ‘I will return to the person I came from.’ So it returns and finds its former home empty, swept, and in order. <sup>45</sup>Then the spirit finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all enter the person and live there. And so that person is worse off than before. That will be the experience of this evil generation.”

THE TRUE FAMILY OF JESUS

<sup>46</sup>As Jesus was speaking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. <sup>47</sup>Someone told Jesus, “Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, and they want to speak to you.”*

<sup>48</sup>Jesus asked, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” <sup>49</sup>Then he pointed to his disciples and said, “Look, these are my mother and brothers. <sup>50</sup>Anyone who does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother!”

PARABLE OF THE FARMER SCATTERING SEED

13 Later that same day Jesus left the house and sat beside the lake. <sup>2</sup>A large crowd soon gathered around him, so he got into a boat. Then he sat there and taught as the people stood on the shore. <sup>3</sup>He told many stories in the form of parables, such as this one:

“Listen! A farmer went out to plant some seeds. <sup>4</sup>As he scattered them across his field, some seeds fell on a footpath, and the birds came and ate them. <sup>5</sup>Other seeds fell on shallow soil with underlying rock. The seeds sprouted quickly because the soil was shallow. <sup>6</sup>But the plants soon wilted under the hot sun, and since they didn’t have deep roots, they died. <sup>7</sup>Other seeds fell among thorns that grew up and choked out the tender plants. <sup>8</sup>Still other seeds fell on fertile soil, and they produced a crop that was thirty, sixty, and even a hundred times as much as had been planted! <sup>9</sup>Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.”

<sup>10</sup>His disciples came and asked him, “Why do you use parables when you talk to the people?”

<sup>11</sup>He replied, “You are permitted to understand the secrets* of the Kingdom of Heaven, but others are not. <sup>12</sup>To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given, and they will have an abundance of knowledge. But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them. <sup>13</sup>That is why I use these parables,

For they look, but they don’t really see.

They hear, but they don’t really listen or understand.

<sup>14</sup>This fulfills the prophecy of Isaiah that says,

‘When you hear what I say,

you will not understand.

When you see what I do,

you will not comprehend.

<sup>15</sup>For the hearts of these people are hardened, and their ears cannot hear, and they have closed their eyes—so their eyes cannot see, and their ears cannot hear, and their hearts cannot understand, and they cannot turn to me and let me heal them.’*

<sup>16</sup>“But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. <sup>17</sup>I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, but they didn’t see it. And they longed to hear what you hear, but they didn’t hear it.

<sup>18</sup>“Now listen to the explanation of the parable about the farmer planting seeds: <sup>19</sup>The seed that fell on the footpath represents those who hear the message about the Kingdom and don’t understand it. Then the evil one comes and snatches away the seed that was planted in their hearts. <sup>20</sup>The seed on the rocky soil represents those who hear the message and immediately receive it with joy. <sup>21</sup>But since they don’t have deep roots, they don’t last long. They fall away as soon as they have problems or are persecuted for believing God’s word. <sup>22</sup>The seed that fell among the thorns represents those who hear God’s word, but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life and the lure of wealth, so no fruit is produced. <sup>23</sup>The seed that fell on good soil represents those who truly hear and understand God’s word and produce a harvest of thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times as much as had been planted!”

PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND WEEDS

PRAYING LOVED ONES INTO THE FAMILY

Matthew 13:31–34

JACK HAYFORD

In Matthew 13:31–34, Jesus talks about the introduction of God's rule into places where His Kingdom was not before. He speaks about seeds planted in a field and yeast used in a kitchen. Both of these are everyday places in people's lives. The Kingdom enters and eventually takes over where people simply do the little bit they need to do. God says, "It is not by force nor by strength, but by my Spirit" (Zechariah 4:6).

In all of your family relationships, don't be typecast as the weird religious person. Be sensitive for the right timing. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you grace and wisdom, and let your presence communicate that to others. Be sensitive and sensible. Show an interest in the members of your family; love and care about them as people, as well as about their eternal souls. God is working. You have to trust that, even when you can't see it.

<sup>27</sup>"The farmer's workers went to him and said, 'Sir, the field where you planted that good seed is full of weeds! Where did they come from?'

"Should we pull out the weeds?' they asked.

<sup>29</sup>"No," he replied, 'you'll uproot the wheat if you do.' <sup>30</sup>Let both grow together until the harvest. Then I will tell the harvesters to sort out the weeds, tie them into bundles, and burn them, and to put the wheat in the barn."

PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

<sup>31</sup>Here is another illustration Jesus used: "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed planted in a field. <sup>32</sup>It is the smallest of all seeds, but it becomes the largest of garden plants; it grows into a tree, and birds come and make nests in its branches."

PARABLE OF THE YEAST

<sup>33</sup>Jesus also used this illustration: "The Kingdom of Heaven is like the yeast a woman used in making bread. Even though she put only a little yeast in three measures of flour, it permeated every part of the dough."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus always used stories and illustrations like these when speaking to the crowds. In fact, he never spoke to them without using such parables. <sup>35</sup>This fulfilled what God had spoken through the prophet:

"I will speak to you in parables.

I will explain things hidden since the creation of the world."

PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND WEEDS EXPLAINED

<sup>36</sup>Then, leaving the crowds outside, Jesus went into the house. His disciples said, "Please explain to us the story of the weeds in the field."

<sup>40</sup>As the weeds are sorted out and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the world.

<sup>41</sup>The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will remove from his Kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil. <sup>42</sup>And the angels will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

PARABLES OF THE HIDDEN TREASURE AND THE PEARL

PARABLE OF THE FISHING NET

<sup>47</sup>"Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a fishing net that was thrown into the water and caught fish of every kind. <sup>48</sup>When the net was full, they dragged it up onto the shore, sat down, and sorted the good fish into crates, but threw the bad ones away. <sup>49</sup>That is the way it will be at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked people from the righteous, <sup>50</sup>throwing the wicked into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. <sup>51</sup>Do you understand all these things?"

"Yes," they said, "we do."

<sup>52</sup>Then he added, "Every teacher of religious law who becomes a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a homeowner who brings from his storeroom new gems of truth as well as old."

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

<sup>53</sup>When Jesus had finished telling these stories and illustrations, he left that part of the country. <sup>54</sup>He returned to Nazareth, his hometown. When he taught there in the synagogue, everyone was amazed and said, "Where does he get this wisdom and the power to do miracles?"

<sup>55</sup>Then they scoffed, "He's just the carpenter's son, and we know Mary, his mother, and his brothers—James, Joseph,* Simon, and Judas. <sup>56</sup>All his sisters live right here among us. Where did he learn all these things?" <sup>57</sup>And they were deeply offended and refused to believe in him.

Then Jesus told them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his own family." <sup>58</sup>And so he did only a few miracles there because of their unbelief.

THE DEATH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

14 When Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,<sup>1</sup> heard about Jesus,<sup>2</sup> he said to his advisers, "This must be John the Baptist raised from the dead! That is why he can do such miracles."

THE EYE OF THE STORM

Matthew 14:22–33

DEBBIE MORRIS

Sometimes we think we won't face difficult situations if we're obediently following God. The disciples followed Jesus, but they still found themselves in the middle of a storm on the Sea of Galilee. And when they saw Jesus walking on the water toward the boat, they thought He was a ghost. Jesus reassured them, "Don't be afraid. . . . Take courage. I am here!" (Matthew 14:27).

All of us have "storms" in our lives. We all experience difficulties, whether in relationships, health, finances, work, or ministry. These storms test our faith and expose our fears. Sometimes the winds and waves of life are so strong that they threaten to capsize us. But we have a promise from the One whom "even the winds and waves obey" (Matthew 8:27): I am here. The disciples were not alone in their storm, and neither are we. Our Savior is with us, and He will not let us drown.

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

<sup>13</sup>As soon as Jesus heard the news, he left in a boat to a remote area to be alone. But the crowds heard where he was headed and followed on foot from many towns. <sup>14</sup>Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

<sup>15</sup>That evening the disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already getting late. Send the crowds away so they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves."

<sup>17</sup>"But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish!" they answered.

<sup>18</sup>"Bring them here," he said. <sup>19</sup>Then he told the people to sit down on the grass. Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he gave the bread to the disciples, who distributed it to the people. <sup>20</sup>They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers. <sup>21</sup>About 5,000 men were fed that day, in addition to all the women and children!

JESUS WALKS ON WATER

<sup>22</sup>Immediately after this, Jesus insisted that his disciples get back into the boat and cross to the other side of the lake, while he sent the people home. <sup>23</sup>After sending them home, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. Night fell while he was there alone.

<sup>24</sup>Meanwhile, the disciples were in trouble far away from land, for a strong wind had risen, and they were fighting heavy waves. <sup>25</sup>About three o'clock in the morning* Jesus came toward them, walking on the water. <sup>26</sup>When the disciples saw him walking on the water, they were terrified. In their fear, they cried out, "It's a ghost!"

<sup>28</sup>Then Peter called to him, "Lord, if it's really you, tell me to come to you, walking on the water."

<sup>29</sup>"Yes, come," Jesus said.

So Peter went over the side of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus. <sup>30</sup>But when he saw the strong* wind and the waves, he was terrified and began to sink. "Save me, Lord!" he shouted.

<sup>31</sup>Jesus immediately reached out and grabbed him. "You have so little faith," Jesus said. "Why did you doubt me?"

<sup>32</sup>When they climbed back into the boat, the wind stopped. <sup>33</sup>Then the disciples worshiped him. "You really are the Son of God!" they exclaimed.

13:55 Other manuscripts read Joses; still others read John.

14:1 Greek Herod the tetrarch. Herod Antipas was a son of King Herod and was ruler over Galilee. 14:25 Greek In the fourth watch of the night. 14:27 Or The 'I AM' is here; Greek reads I am. See Exod 3:14. 14:30 Some manuscripts do not include strong.

<sup>34</sup>After they had crossed the lake, they landed at Gennesaret. <sup>35</sup>When the people recognized Jesus, the news of his arrival spread quickly throughout the whole area, and soon people were bringing all their sick to be healed. <sup>36</sup>They begged him to let the sick touch at least the fringe of his robe, and all who touched him were healed.

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT INNER PURITY

15 Some Pharisees and teachers of religious law now arrived from Jerusalem to see Jesus. They asked him, <sup>2</sup>“Why do your disciples disobey our age-old tradition? For they ignore our tradition of ceremonial hand washing before they eat.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus replied, “And why do you, by your traditions, violate the direct commandments of God? <sup>4</sup>For instance, God says, ‘Honor your father and mother,’* and ‘Anyone who speaks disrespectfully of father or mother must be put to death.’* <sup>5</sup>But you say it is all right for people to say to their parents, ‘Sorry, I can’t help you. For I have vowed to give to God what I would have given to you.’ <sup>6</sup>In this way, you say they don’t need to honor their parents.* And so you cancel the word of God for the sake of your own tradition. <sup>7</sup>You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote,

“These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.
Their worship is a farce,
for they teach man-made ideas as commands from God.”*

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus called to the crowd to come and hear. “Listen,” he said, “and try to understand. <sup>11</sup>It’s not what goes into your mouth that defiles you; you are defiled by the words that come out of your mouth.”

<sup>12</sup>Then the disciples came to him and asked, “Do you realize you offended the Pharisees by what you just said?”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus replied, “Every plant not planted by my heavenly Father will be uprooted, <sup>14</sup>so ignore them. They are blind guides leading the blind, and if one blind person guides another, they will both fall into a ditch.”

<sup>15</sup>Then Peter said to Jesus, “Explain to us the parable that says people aren’t defiled by what they eat.”

THE FAITH OF A GENTILE WOMAN

who lived there came to him, pleading, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David! For my daughter is possessed by a demon that torments her severely.”

<sup>23</sup>But Jesus gave her no reply, not even a word. Then his disciples urged him to send her away. “Tell her to go away,” they said. “She is bothering us with all her begging.”

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to the woman, “I was sent only to help God’s lost sheep—the people of Israel.”

<sup>28</sup>“Dear woman,” Jesus said to her, “your faith is great. Your request is granted.” And her daughter was instantly healed.

JESUS HEALS MANY PEOPLE

<sup>29</sup>Jesus returned to the Sea of Galilee and climbed a hill and sat down. <sup>30</sup>A vast crowd brought to him people who were lame, blind, crippled, those who couldn’t speak, and many others. They laid them before Jesus, and he healed them all. <sup>31</sup>The crowd was amazed! Those who hadn’t been able to speak were talking, the crippled were made well, the lame were walking, and the blind could see again! And they praised the God of Israel.

JESUS FEEDS FOUR THOUSAND

<sup>32</sup>Then Jesus called his disciples and told them, “I feel sorry for these people. They have been here with me for three days, and they have nothing left to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry, or they will faint along the way.”

<sup>35</sup>So Jesus told all the people to sit down on the ground. <sup>36</sup>Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to the disciples, who distributed the food to the crowd.

<sup>37</sup>They all ate as much as they wanted. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven large baskets of leftover food. <sup>38</sup>There were 4,000 men who were fed that day, in addition to all the women and children. <sup>39</sup>Then Jesus sent the people home, and he got into a boat and crossed over to the region of Magadan.

15:4a Exod 20:12; Deut 5:16. 15:4b Exod 21:17 (Greek version); Lev 20:9 (Greek version). 15:6 Greek their father; other manuscripts read their father or their mother. 15:8-9 Isa 29:13 (Greek version). 15:22 Greek Canaanaite.

LEADERS DEMAND A MIRACULOUS SIGN

16 One day the Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus, demanding that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

<sup>2</sup>He replied, "You know the saying, 'Red sky at night means fair weather tomorrow; <sup>3</sup>red sky in the morning means foul weather all day.' You know how to interpret the weather signs in the sky, but you don't know how to interpret the signs of the times!" <sup>4</sup>Only an evil, adulterous generation would demand a miraculous sign, but the only sign I will give them is the sign of the prophet Jonah.*" Then Jesus left them and went away.

YEAST OF THE PHARISEES AND SADDUCEES

<sup>5</sup>Later, after they crossed to the other side of the lake, the disciples discovered they had forgotten to bring any bread. <sup>6</sup>"Watch out!" Jesus warned them. "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

<sup>7</sup>At this they began to argue with each other because they hadn't brought any bread. <sup>8</sup>Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said, "You have so little faith! Why are you arguing with each other about having no bread? <sup>9</sup>Don't you understand even yet? Don't you remember the 5,000 I fed with five loaves, and the baskets of leftovers you picked up? <sup>10</sup>Or the 4,000 I fed with seven loaves, and the large baskets of leftovers you picked up? <sup>11</sup>Why can't you understand that I'm not talking about bread? So again I say, 'Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.'"

<sup>12</sup>Then at last they understood that he wasn't speaking about the yeast in bread, but about the deceptive teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

PETER'S DECLARATION ABOUT JESUS

<sup>13</sup>When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"*

<sup>17</sup>Jesus replied, "You are blessed, Simon son of John,* because my Father in heaven has revealed this to you. You did not learn this from any human being. <sup>18</sup>Now I say to you that you are Peter (which means 'rock'),* and upon this rock I will build my church, and all the powers of hell* will not conquer it. <sup>19</sup>And I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you forbid* on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit* on earth will be permitted in heaven."

GOD WILL BUILD HIS CHURCH

Matthew 16:18

ROBERT MORRIS

Three months after we planted Gateway Church, I was having my quiet time. I had forgotten about the Scripture the Lord used to confirm the dream He gave me seven years earlier, but then I got to 1 Samuel 11:8. Once again, I read about God numbering the men of Israel at 300,000 and the men of Judah at 30,000. Then the Lord said to me, "I'm going to remind you what I've called you to do. I'm going to confirm these numbers to you again." Right then, I remembered that Trinity Fellowship gave us $30,000 to start when we planted Gateway Church.

Later that same day, I had lunch with a man who had visited our church twice. He said, "My family and I are going to join the church, and we're excited about it! Every now and then, we have some resources we can sow into the Kingdom. The Lord put an amount on my heart, and I want to give this to the church." He handed me a check and said, "God told me to tell you that this amount is going to confirm something to you." I thanked him and told him how grateful we were. We said goodbye, and after I got in my car, I reached into my pocket and pulled out the check. It was for $300,000! In just one day, the Lord had confirmed both numbers He had given me in a dream seven years before!

I have no doubt in my mind these numbers are from God. He wants to do something, and my part is to serve Him passionately with all my heart. It's up to God to accomplish His Word, and it's up to me to obey!

Jesus says, "I will build my church" (Matthew 16:18). Another way of reading this verse is, "~~I—Jesus—will—meaning there's no doubt—build—He's the One doing the building, not me—my—it belongs to Him—church—meaning it's a body, which is all of us and takes all of us to do.~~"

I knew God was telling me that if I would take care of the depth of my relationship with Him by having an intimate and thriving relationship with Jesus Christ, He would take care of the width of my ministry. He would take care of the numbers. And all these years later, God is still the One who makes the difference at Gateway Church.

<sup>20</sup>Then he sternly warned the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

16:2-3 Several manuscripts do not include any of the words in 16:2-3 after He replied. 16:4 Greek the sign of Jonah. 16:13 "Son of Man" is a title Jesus used for himself. 16:16 Or the Christ. Messiah (a Hebrew term) and Christ (a Greek term) both mean "anointed one." 16:17 Greek Simon bar-Jonah; see John 1:42; 21:15-17. 16:18a Greek that you are Peter. 16:18b Greek and the gates of Hades. 16:19a Or bind, or loch. 16:19b Or loose, or open.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>21</sup>From then on Jesus* began to tell his disciples plainly that it was necessary for him to go to Jerusalem, and that he would suffer many terrible things at the hands of the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but on the third day he would be raised from the dead.

<sup>22</sup>But Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him* for saying such things. "Heaven forbid, Lord," he said. "This will never happen to you!"

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus said to his disciples, "If any of you wants to be my follower, you must give up your own way, take up your cross, and follow me. <sup>25</sup>If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. <sup>26</sup>And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? Is anything worth more than your soul? <sup>27</sup>For the Son of Man will come with his angels in the glory of his Father and will judge all people according to their deeds. <sup>28</sup>And I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom."

THE TRANSFIGURATION

17 Six days later Jesus took Peter and the two brothers, James and John, and led them up a high mountain to be alone. As the men watched, Jesus' appearance was transformed so that his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as light. <sup>3</sup>Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared and began talking with Jesus.

<sup>4</sup>Peter exclaimed, "Lord, it's wonderful for us to be here! If you want, I'll make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

<sup>5</sup>But even as he spoke, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy. Listen to him." <sup>6</sup>The disciples were terrified and fell face down on the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Then Jesus came over and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." <sup>8</sup>And when they looked up, Moses and Elijah were gone, and they saw only Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>As they went back down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Don't tell anyone what you have seen until the Son of Man* has been raised from the dead."

<sup>10</sup>Then his disciples asked him, "Why do the teachers of religious law insist that Elijah must return before the Messiah comes?"

<sup>11</sup>Jesus replied, "Elijah is indeed coming first to get everything ready. <sup>12</sup>But I tell you, Elijah has already come, but he wasn't recognized, and they chose to abuse him. And in the same way they will also make the Son of Man suffer."<sup>13</sup> Then the disciples realized he was talking about John the Baptist.

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED BOY

<sup>14</sup>At the foot of the mountain, a large crowd was waiting for them. A man came and knelt before Jesus and said, <sup>15</sup>"Lord, have mercy on my son. He has seizures and suffers terribly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. <sup>16</sup>So I brought him to your disciples, but they couldn't heal him."

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said, "You faithless and corrupt people! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy here to me."

<sup>18</sup>Then Jesus rebuked the demon in the boy, and it left him. From that moment the boy was well.

<sup>20</sup>"You don't have enough faith," Jesus told them. "I tell you the truth, if you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it would move. Nothing would be impossible.*"

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>22</sup>After they gathered again in Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies. <sup>23</sup>He will be killed, but on the third day he will be raised from the dead." And the disciples were filled with grief.

PAYMENT OF THE TEMPLE TAX

<sup>24</sup>On their arrival in Capernaum, the collectors of the Temple tax* came to Peter and asked him, "Doesn't your teacher pay the Temple tax?"

<sup>25</sup>"Yes, he does," Peter replied. Then he went into the house.

But before he had a chance to speak, Jesus asked him, "What do you think, Peter?" Do kings tax their own people or the people they have conquered?"

<sup>26</sup>"They tax the people they have conquered," Peter replied.

"Well, then," Jesus said, "the citizens are free!

<sup>27</sup>However, we don't want to offend them, so go down to the lake and throw in a line. Open the mouth of the first fish you catch, and you will find a large silver coin.* Take it and pay the tax for both of us."

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM

18 About that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?"

<sup>5</sup>"And anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* is welcoming me. <sup>6</sup>But if you cause one of these little ones who trusts in me to fall into sin, it would be better for you to have a large millstone tied around your neck and be drowned in the depths of the sea.

<sup>10</sup>"Beware that you don't look down on any of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels are always in the presence of my heavenly Father.*

PARABLE OF THE LOST SHEEP

<sup>12</sup>"If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them wanders away, what will he do? Won't he leave the ninety-nine others on the hills and go out to search for the one that is lost? <sup>13</sup>And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he will rejoice over it more than over the ninety-nine that didn't wander away! <sup>14</sup>In the same way, it is not my heavenly Father's will that even one of these little ones should perish.

CORRECTING ANOTHER BELIEVER

<sup>15</sup>"If another believer* sins against you,* go privately and point out the offense. If the other person listens and confesses it, you have won that person back. <sup>16</sup>But if you are unsuccessful, take one or two others with you and go back again, so that everything you say may be confirmed by two or three witnesses. <sup>17</sup>If the person still refuses to listen, take your case to the church. Then if he or she won't accept the church's decision, treat that person as a pagan or a corrupt tax collector.

<sup>18</sup>"I tell you the truth, whatever you forbid* on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit* on earth will be permitted in heaven.

<sup>19</sup>"I also tell you this: If two of you agree here on earth concerning anything you ask, my Father in heaven will do it for you. <sup>20</sup>For where two or three gather together as my followers,* I am there among them."

PARABLE OF THE UNFORGIVING DEBTOR

<sup>21</sup>Then Peter came to him and asked, "Lord, how often should I forgive someone* who sins against me? Seven times?"

<sup>26</sup>"But the man fell down before his master and begged him, 'Please, be patient with me, and I will pay it all.' <sup>27</sup>Then his master was filled with pity for him, and he released him and forgave his debt.

<sup>29</sup>"His fellow servant fell down before him and begged for a little more time. 'Be patient with me, and I will pay it,' he pleaded. <sup>30</sup>But his creditor wouldn't wait. He had the man arrested and put in prison until the debt could be paid in full.

<sup>31</sup>"When some of the other servants saw this, they were very upset. They went to the king and told him everything that had happened. <sup>32</sup>Then the king called in the man he had forgiven and said, 'You evil servant! I forgave you that tremendous debt because you pleaded with me. <sup>33</sup>Shouldn't you have mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?' <sup>34</sup>Then the angry king sent the man to prison to be tortured until he had paid his entire debt.

<sup>35</sup>"That's what my heavenly Father will do to you if you refuse to forgive your brothers and sisters* from your heart."

DISCUSSION ABOUT DIVORCE AND MARRIAGE

19 When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went down to the region of Judea east of the Jordan River. <sup>2</sup>Large crowds followed him there, and he healed their sick.

<sup>3</sup>Some Pharisees came and tried to trap him with this question: "Should a man be allowed to divorce his wife for just any reason?"

18:5 Greek in my name. 18:9 Greek the Gehenna of fire.

18:10 Some manuscripts add verse 11, And the Son of Man came to save those who are lost. Compare Luke 19:10. 18:15a Greek if your brother. 18:15b Some manuscripts do not include against you. 18:18a Or bind, or lock. 18:18b Or loose, or open. 18:20 Greek gather together in my name. 18:21 Greek my brother. 18:22 Or seventy-seven times. 18:24 Greek 10,000 talents [375 tons or 340 metric tons of silver]. 18:28 Greek 100 denarii. A denarius was equivalent to a laborer's full day's wage. 18:35 Greek your brother.

<sup>4</sup>“Haven’t you read the Scriptures?” Jesus replied. “They record that from the beginning God made them male and female.”<sup>5</sup> And he said, “This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.”<sup>6</sup> Since they are no longer two but one, let no one split apart what God has joined together.”

<sup>7</sup>“Then why did Moses say in the law that a man could give his wife a written notice of divorce and send her away?”<sup>8</sup> they asked.

<sup>8</sup>Jesus replied, “Moses permitted divorce only as a concession to your hard hearts, but it was not what God had originally intended. <sup>9</sup>And I tell you this, whoever divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery—unless his wife has been unfaithful.”<sup>10</sup>

<sup>10</sup>Jesus’ disciples then said to him, “If this is the case, it is better not to marry!”

<sup>11</sup>“Not everyone can accept this statement,” Jesus said. “Only those whom God helps. <sup>12</sup>Some are born as eunuchs, some have been made eunuchs by others, and some choose not to marry* for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. Let anyone accept this who can.”

JESUS BLESSES THE CHILDREN

<sup>13</sup>One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so he could lay his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples scolded the parents for bothering him.

<sup>14</sup>But Jesus said, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who are like these children.”<sup>15</sup> And he placed his hands on their heads and blessed them before he left.

THE RICH MAN

<sup>16</sup>Someone came to Jesus with this question: “Teacher,* what good deed must I do to have eternal life?”

<sup>17</sup>“Why ask me about what is good?” Jesus replied. “There is only One who is good. But to answer your question—if you want to receive eternal life, keep* the commandments.”

And Jesus replied: “You must not murder. You must not commit adultery. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. <sup>19</sup>Honor your father and mother. Love your neighbor as yourself.”<sup>20</sup>

<sup>21</sup>Jesus told him, “If you want to be perfect, go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

<sup>22</sup>But when the young man heard this, he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

<sup>23</sup>Then Jesus said to his disciples, “I tell you the truth, it is very hard for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. <sup>24</sup>I’ll say it again—it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>25</sup>The disciples were astounded. “Then who in the world can be saved?” they asked.

<sup>27</sup>Then Peter said to him, “We’ve given up everything to follow you. What will we get?”

<sup>28</sup>Jesus replied, “I assure you that when the world is made new* and the Son of Man* sits upon his glorious throne, you who have been my followers will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup>And everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or property, for my sake, will receive a hundred times as much in return and will inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup>But many who are the greatest now will be least important then, and those who seem least important now will be the greatest then.*

PARABLE OF THE VINEYARD WORKERS

20 “For the Kingdom of Heaven is like the landowner who went out early one morning to hire workers for his vineyard. <sup>2</sup>He agreed to pay the normal daily wage* and sent them out to work.

<sup>3</sup>“At nine o’clock in the morning he was passing through the marketplace and saw some people standing around doing nothing. <sup>4</sup>So he hired them, telling them he would pay them whatever was right at the end of the day. <sup>5</sup>So they went to work in the vineyard. At noon and again at three o’clock he did the same thing.

<sup>6</sup>“At five o’clock that afternoon he was in town again and saw some more people standing around. He asked them, ‘Why haven’t you been working today?’

<sup>8</sup>“That evening he told the foreman to call the workers in and pay them, beginning with the last workers first. <sup>9</sup>When those hired at five o’clock were paid, each received a full day’s wage. <sup>10</sup>When those hired first came to get their pay, they assumed they would receive more. But they, too, were paid a day’s wage. <sup>11</sup>When they received their pay, they protested to the owner, <sup>12</sup>‘Those people worked only one hour, and yet you’ve paid them just as much as you paid us who worked all day in the scorching heat.’

19:4 Gen 1:27; 5:2. 19:5 Gen 2:24. 19:7 See Deut 24:1.

19:9 Some manuscripts add And anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery. Compare Matt 5:32. 19:12 Greek and some make themselves eunuchs. 19:16 Some manuscripts read Good Teacher. 19:17 Some manuscripts read continue to keep. 19:18-19 Exod 20:12-16; Deut 5:16-20; Lev 19:18. 19:28a Or in the regeneration. 19:28b “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. 19:30 Greek But many who are first will be last; and the last, first. 20:2 Greek a denarius, the payment for a full day’s labor; similarly in 20:9, 10, 13.

<sup>13</sup>“He answered one of them, ‘Friend, I haven’t been unfair! Didn’t you agree to work all day for the usual wage?’ <sup>14</sup>Take your money and go. I wanted to pay this last worker the same as you. <sup>15</sup>Is it against the law for me to do what I want with my money? Should you be jealous because I am kind to others?’

<sup>16</sup>“So those who are last now will be first then, and those who are first will be last.”

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>17</sup>As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside privately and told them what was going to happen to him. <sup>18</sup>“Listen,” he said, “we’re going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man* will be betrayed to the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. They will sentence him to die. <sup>19</sup>Then they will hand him over to the Romans* to be mocked, flogged with a whip, and crucified. But on the third day he will be raised from the dead.”

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT SERVING OTHERS

<sup>20</sup>Then the mother of James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus with her sons. She knelt respectfully to ask a favor. <sup>21</sup>“What is your request?” he asked.

She replied, “In your Kingdom, please let my two sons sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left.”

<sup>22</sup>But Jesus answered by saying to them, “You don’t know what you are asking! Are you able to drink from the bitter cup of suffering I am about to drink?”

“Oh yes,” they replied, “we are able!”

<sup>23</sup>Jesus told them, “You will indeed drink from my bitter cup. But I have no right to say who will sit on my right or my left. My Father has prepared those places for the ones he has chosen.”

<sup>24</sup>When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant. <sup>25</sup>But Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. <sup>26</sup>But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, <sup>27</sup>and whoever wants to be first among you must become your slave. <sup>28</sup>For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

JESUS HEALS TWO BLIND MEN

<sup>29</sup>As Jesus and the disciples left the town of Jericho, a large crowd followed behind. <sup>30</sup>Two blind men were sitting beside the road. When they heard that Jesus was coming that way, they began shouting, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

But they only shouted louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

<sup>32</sup>When Jesus heard them, he stopped and called, “What do you want me to do for you?”

<sup>33</sup>“Lord,” they said, “we want to see!” <sup>34</sup>Jesus felt sorry for them and touched their eyes. Instantly they could see! Then they followed him.

JESUS’ TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

21 As Jesus and the disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the town of Bethphage on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead. <sup>2</sup>“Go into the village over there,” he said. “As soon as you enter it, you will see a donkey tied there, with its colt beside it. Untie them and bring them to me. <sup>3</sup>If anyone asks what you are doing, just say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will immediately let you take them.”

<sup>4</sup>This took place to fulfill the prophecy that said,

‘Look, your King is coming to you.
He is humble, riding on a donkey—
riding on a donkey’s colt.’”*

<sup>6</sup>The two disciples did as Jesus commanded. <sup>7</sup>They brought the donkey and the colt to him and threw their garments over the colt, and he sat on it.*

<sup>8</sup>Most of the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup>Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting, “Praise God* for the Son of David!

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!
Praise God in highest heaven!”*

<sup>10</sup>The entire city of Jerusalem was in an uproar as he entered. “Who is this?” they asked.

JESUS CLEARS THE TEMPLE

<sup>12</sup>Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out all the people buying and selling animals for sacrifice. He knocked over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves. <sup>13</sup>He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves!”*

<sup>14</sup>The blind and the lame came to him in the Temple, and he healed them. <sup>15</sup>The leading priests and the teachers of religious law saw these wonderful miracles and heard even the Isa 62:11. 21:5b Zech 9:9. 21:7 Greek over them, and he sat on them. 21:9a Greek Hosanna, an exclamation of praise that literally means “save now”; also in 21:9b, 15. 21:9b Pss 118:25-26; 148:1. 21:13 Isa 56:7; Jer 7:11.

children in the Temple shouting, “Praise God for the Son of David.”

But the leaders were indignant. <sup>16</sup>They asked Jesus, “Do you hear what these children are saying?”

“Yes,” Jesus replied. “Haven’t you ever read the Scriptures? For they say, ‘You have taught children and infants to give you praise.’” <sup>17</sup>Then he returned to Bethany, where he stayed overnight.

JESUS CURSES THE FIG TREE

<sup>18</sup>In the morning, as Jesus was returning to Jerusalem, he was hungry, <sup>19</sup>and he noticed a fig tree beside the road. He went over to see if there were any figs, but there were only leaves. Then he said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” And immediately the fig tree withered up.

<sup>20</sup>The disciples were amazed when they saw this and asked, “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?”

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus told them, “I tell you the truth, if you have faith and don’t doubt, you can do things like this and much more. You can even say to this mountain, ‘May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen. <sup>22</sup>You can pray for anything, and if you have faith, you will receive it.”

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS CHALLENGED

<sup>23</sup>When Jesus returned to the Temple and began teaching, the leading priests and elders came up to him. They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right?”

<sup>24</sup>“I’ll tell you by what authority I do these things if you answer one question,” Jesus replied.

They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask us why we didn’t believe John. <sup>26</sup>But if we say it was merely human, we’ll be mobbed because the people believe John was a prophet.” <sup>27</sup>So they finally replied, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.”

PARABLE OF THE TWO SONS

<sup>28</sup>“But what do you think about this? A man with two sons told the older boy, ‘Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.’ <sup>29</sup>The son answered, ‘No, I won’t go,’ but later he changed his mind and went anyway. <sup>30</sup>Then the father told the other son, ‘You go,’ and he said, ‘Yes, sir, I will.’ But he didn’t go.

They replied, “The first.”

Then Jesus explained his meaning: “I tell you the truth, corrupt tax collectors and prostitutes will get into the Kingdom of God before you do.

<sup>32</sup>For John the Baptist came and showed you the right way to live, but you didn’t believe him, while tax collectors and prostitutes did. And even when you saw this happening, you refused to believe him and repent of your sins.

PARABLE OF THE EVIL FARMERS

<sup>38</sup>“But when the tenant farmers saw his son coming, they said to one another, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Come on, let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ <sup>39</sup>So they grabbed him, dragged him out of the vineyard, and murdered him.

<sup>40</sup>“When the owner of the vineyard returns,” Jesus asked, “what do you think he will do to those farmers?”

<sup>42</sup>Then Jesus asked them, “Didn’t you ever read this in the Scriptures?

‘The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone. This is the LORD’s doing, and it is wonderful to see.’”

<sup>43</sup>I tell you, the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation that will produce the proper fruit. <sup>44</sup>Anyone who stumbles over that stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on.”

<sup>45</sup>When the leading priests and Pharisees heard this parable, they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. <sup>46</sup>They wanted to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowds, who considered Jesus to be a prophet.

PARABLE OF THE GREAT FEAST

22 Jesus also told them other parables. He said, “The Kingdom of Heaven can be illustrated by the story of a king who prepared a great wedding feast for his son. <sup>3</sup>When the 21:16 Ps 8:2 (Greek version). 21:29-31 Other manuscripts read “The second.” In still other manuscripts the first son says “Yes” but does nothing, the second son says “No” but then repents and goes, and the answer to Jesus’ question is that the second son obeyed his father. 21:42 Ps 118:22-23. 21:44 This verse is not included in some early manuscripts. Compare Luke 20:18.

banquet was ready, he sent his servants to notify those who were invited. But they all refused to come!

<sup>4</sup>“So he sent other servants to tell them, ‘The feast has been prepared. The bulls and fattened cattle have been killed, and everything is ready. Come to the banquet!’ <sup>5</sup>But the guests he had invited ignored them and went their own way, one to his farm, another to his business. <sup>6</sup>Others seized his messengers and insulted them and killed them.

<sup>7</sup>“The king was furious, and he sent out his army to destroy the murderers and burn their town. <sup>8</sup>And he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, and the guests I invited aren’t worthy of the honor. <sup>9</sup>Now go out to the street corners and invite everyone you see.’ <sup>10</sup>So the servants brought in everyone they could find, good and bad alike, and the banquet hall was filled with guests.

<sup>11</sup>“But when the king came in to meet the guests, he noticed a man who wasn’t wearing the proper clothes for a wedding. <sup>12</sup>‘Friend,’ he asked, ‘how is it that you are here without wedding clothes?’ But the man had no reply. <sup>13</sup>Then the king said to his aides, ‘Bind his hands and feet and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

TAXES FOR CAESAR

<sup>15</sup>Then the Pharisees met together to plot how to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested. <sup>16</sup>They sent some of their disciples, along with the supporters of Herod, to meet with him. “Teacher,” they said, “we know how honest you are. You teach the way of God truthfully. You are impartial and don’t play favorites. <sup>17</sup>Now tell us what you think about this: Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

<sup>18</sup>But Jesus knew their evil motives. “You hypocrites!” he said. “Why are you trying to trap me?”

“Well, then,” he said, “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

DISCUSSION ABOUT RESURRECTION

<sup>23</sup>That same day Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. They posed this question: <sup>24</sup>“Teacher, Moses said, ‘If a man dies without children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother’s name.’ <sup>25</sup>Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children, so his brother married the widow. <sup>26</sup>But the second brother also died, and the

THE TEACHER

Matthew 22:33

ROBERT MORRIS

Many people believe Jesus is the greatest teacher who ever lived. In fact, He is referred to as “teacher” 48 times in the four Gospels. Huge crowds would follow Him everywhere He went, even to deserted places where there was little or no food, just to hear Him teach. Whenever Jesus taught, “the people were amazed at his teaching, for he taught with real authority—quite unlike the teachers of religious law” (Mark 1:22).

Jesus taught authoritatively, practically, and graphically. He never spoke the truth in a dull or boring lecture. He painted pictures and told stories. Jesus was a master teacher who knew that using visuals and illustrations would help the people learn and retain what He was teaching them.

third brother married her. This continued with all seven of them. <sup>27</sup>Last of all, the woman also died. <sup>28</sup>So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her.”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus replied, “Your mistake is that you don’t know the Scriptures, and you don’t know the power of God. <sup>30</sup>For when the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. In this respect they will be like the angels in heaven.

<sup>31</sup>“But now, as to whether there will be a resurrection of the dead—haven’t you ever read about this in the Scriptures? Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, God said, <sup>32</sup>‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ <sup>33</sup>So he is the God of the living, not the dead.”

<sup>33</sup>When the crowds heard him, they were astounded at his teaching.

THE MOST IMPORTANT COMMANDMENT

<sup>37</sup>Jesus replied, “‘You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.’ <sup>38</sup>This is the first and greatest commandment. <sup>39</sup>A second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ <sup>40</sup>The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments.”

WHOSE SON IS THE MESSIAH?

They replied, "He is the son of David."

<sup>43</sup>Jesus responded, "Then why does David, speaking under the inspiration of the Spirit, call the Messiah 'my Lord'? For David said, <sup>44</sup> 'The LORD said to my Lord,

Sit in the place of honor at my right hand until I humble your enemies beneath your feet.'*

<sup>45</sup>Since David called the Messiah 'my Lord,' how can the Messiah be his son?"

<sup>46</sup>No one could answer him. And after that, no one dared to ask him any more questions.

JESUS CRITICIZES THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS

23 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples, <sup>24</sup>"The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees are the official interpreters of the law of Moses.* <sup>3</sup> So practice and obey whatever they tell you, but don't follow their example. For they don't practice what they teach. <sup>4</sup> They crush people with unbearable religious demands and never lift a finger to ease the burden.

<sup>8</sup>"Don't let anyone call you 'Rabbi,' for you have only one teacher, and all of you are equal as brothers and sisters.* <sup>9</sup> And don't address anyone here on earth as 'Father,' for only God in heaven is your Father. <sup>10</sup> And don't let anyone call you 'Teacher,' for you have only one teacher, the Messiah. <sup>11</sup> The greatest among you must be a servant. <sup>12</sup> But those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.

<sup>15</sup>"What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you cross land and sea to make one convert, and then you turn that person into twice the child of hell* you yourselves are!

<sup>16</sup>"Blind guides! What sorrow awaits you! For you say that it means nothing to swear 'by God's Temple,' but that it is binding to swear 'by the gold in the Temple.' <sup>17</sup> Blind fools! Which is more important—the gold or the Temple that makes the gold sacred? <sup>18</sup> And you say that to swear 'by the altar' is not binding, but to swear 'by the gift on the altar' is binding. <sup>19</sup> How blind! For which is more important—the gift on the altar or the altar that makes the gift sacred? <sup>20</sup> When you swear 'by the altar,' you are swearing by it and by everything on it. <sup>21</sup> And when you swear 'by the Temple,' you are swearing by it and by God, who lives in it. <sup>22</sup> And when you swear 'by heaven,' you are swearing by the throne of God and by God, who sits on the throne.

<sup>25</sup>"What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are so careful to clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside you are filthy—full of greed and self-indulgence! <sup>26</sup> You blind Pharisee! First wash the inside of the cup and the dish,* and then the outside will become clean, too.

<sup>27</sup>"What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs—beautiful on the outside but filled on the inside with dead people's bones and all sorts of impurity. <sup>28</sup> Outwardly you look like righteous people, but inwardly your hearts are filled with hypocrisy and lawlessness.

<sup>29</sup>"What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you build tombs for the prophets your ancestors killed, and you decorate the monuments of the godly people your ancestors destroyed. <sup>30</sup> Then you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would never have joined them in killing the prophets.'

<sup>31</sup>"But in saying that, you testify against yourselves that you are indeed the descendants of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup> Go ahead and finish what your ancestors started. <sup>33</sup> Snakes! Sons of vipers! How will you escape the judgment of hell?

<sup>34</sup>"Therefore, I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers of religious law. But you will kill some by crucifixion, and you will flog others with whips in your synagogues, chasing them from city to city. <sup>35</sup> As a result, you will be held responsible for the murder of all godly people of all time—from the murder of righteous Abel to the murder of Zechariah son of Berekiah, whom you killed in the Temple

Hypocrites! You shamelessly cheat widows out of their property and then pretend to be pious by making long prayers in public. Because of this, you will be severely punished. Compare Mark 12:40 and Luke 20:47. 23:15 Greek of Gehenna; also in 23:33. 23:23 Greek tithe the mint, the dill, and the cumin. 23:24 See Lev 11:4, 23, where gnats and camels are both forbidden as food. 23:26 Some manuscripts do not include and the dish.

between the sanctuary and the altar. <sup>36</sup>I tell you the truth, this judgment will fall on this very generation.

JESUS GRIEVES OVER JERUSALEM

<sup>37</sup>"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God's messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn't let me. <sup>38</sup>And now, look, your house is abandoned and desolate.* <sup>39</sup>For I tell you this, you will never see me again until you say, 'Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!'"

JESUS SPEAKS ABOUT THE FUTURE

24 As Jesus was leaving the Temple grounds, his disciples pointed out to him the various Temple buildings. <sup>2</sup>But he responded, "Do you see all these buildings? I tell you the truth, they will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!"

<sup>3</sup>Later, Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives. His disciples came to him privately and said, "Tell us, when will all this happen? What sign will signal your return and the end of the world?"

<sup>4</sup>Jesus told them, "Don't let anyone mislead you, <sup>5</sup>for many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Messiah.' They will deceive many. <sup>6</sup>And you will hear of wars and threats of wars, but don't panic. Yes, these things must take place, but the end won't follow immediately. <sup>7</sup>Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in many parts of the world. <sup>8</sup>But all this is only the first of the birth pains, with more to come.

<sup>9</sup>"Then you will be arrested, persecuted, and killed. You will be hated all over the world because you are my followers.* <sup>10</sup>And many will turn away from me and betray and hate each other. <sup>11</sup>And many false prophets will appear and will deceive many people. <sup>12</sup>Sin will be rampant everywhere, and the love of many will grow cold. <sup>13</sup>But the one who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>14</sup>And the Good News about the Kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world, so that all nations* will hear it; and then the end will come.

be so great again. <sup>22</sup>In fact, unless that time of calamity is shortened, not a single person will survive. But it will be shortened for the sake of God's chosen ones.

<sup>23</sup>"Then if anyone tells you, 'Look, here is the Messiah,' or 'There he is,' don't believe it. <sup>24</sup>For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform great signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God's chosen ones. <sup>25</sup>See, I have warned you about this ahead of time.

the sun will be darkened,
the moon will give no light,
the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

<sup>30</sup>And then at last, the sign that the Son of Man is coming will appear in the heavens, and there will be deep mourning among all the peoples of the earth. And they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.* <sup>31</sup>And he will send out his angels with the mighty blast of a trumpet, and they will gather his chosen ones from all over the world*—from the farthest ends of the earth and heaven.

<sup>36</sup>"However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself.* Only the Father knows.

<sup>37</sup>"When the Son of Man returns, it will be like it was in Noah's day. <sup>38</sup>In those days before the flood, the people were enjoying banquets and parties and weddings right up to the time Noah entered his boat. <sup>39</sup>People didn't realize what was going to happen until the flood came and swept <sup>42</sup>“So you, too, must keep watch! For you don’t know what day your Lord is coming. <sup>43</sup>Understand this: If a homeowner knew exactly when a burglar was coming, he would keep watch and not permit his house to be broken into. <sup>44</sup>You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected.

In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

PARABLE OF THE TEN BRIDESMAIDS

25 “Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten bridesmaids* who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. <sup>2</sup>Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. <sup>3</sup>The five who were foolish didn’t take enough olive oil for their lamps, <sup>4</sup>but the other five were wise enough to take along extra oil. <sup>5</sup>When the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

<sup>6</sup>“At midnight they were roused by the shout, ‘Look, the bridegroom is coming! Come out and meet him!’

<sup>9</sup>“But the others replied, ‘We don’t have enough for all of us. Go to a shop and buy some for yourselves.’

<sup>10</sup>“But while they were gone to buy oil, the bridegroom came. Then those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was locked. <sup>11</sup>Later, when the other five bridesmaids returned, they stood outside, calling, ‘Lord! Lord! Open the door for us!’

<sup>12</sup>“But he called back, ‘Believe me, I don’t know you!’

<sup>13</sup>“So you, too, must keep watch! For you do not know the day or hour of my return.

PARABLE OF THE THREE SERVANTS

<sup>14</sup>“Again, the Kingdom of Heaven can be illustrated by the story of a man going on a long trip.

He called together his servants and entrusted his money to them while he was gone. <sup>15</sup>He gave five bags of silver* to one, two bags of silver to another, and one bag of silver to the last—dividing it in proportion to their abilities. He then left on his trip.

<sup>16</sup>“The servant who received the five bags of silver began to invest the money and earned five more. <sup>17</sup>The servant with two bags of silver also went to work and earned two more. <sup>18</sup>But the servant who received the one bag of silver dug a hole in the ground and hid the master’s money.

<sup>19</sup>“After a long time their master returned from his trip and called them to give an account of how they had used his money. <sup>20</sup>The servant to whom he had entrusted the five bags of silver came forward with five more and said, ‘Master, you gave me five bags of silver to invest, and I have earned five more.’

<sup>21</sup>“The master was full of praise. ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let’s celebrate together!’”

<sup>22</sup>“The servant who had received the two bags of silver came forward and said, ‘Master, you gave me two bags of silver to invest, and I have earned two more.’

<sup>23</sup>“The master said, ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant, You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let’s celebrate together!’

<sup>24</sup>“Then the servant with the one bag of silver came and said, ‘Master, I knew you were a harsh man, harvesting crops you didn’t plant and gathering crops you didn’t cultivate. <sup>25</sup>I was afraid I would lose your money, so I hid it in the earth. Look, here is your money back.’

<sup>28</sup>“Then he ordered, ‘Take the money from this servant, and give it to the one with the ten bags of silver. <sup>29</sup>To those who use well what they are given, even more will be given, and they will have an abundance. But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away. <sup>30</sup>Now throw this useless servant into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

CARING FOR GOD'S BRIDE

Matthew 25:29

ROBERT MORRIS

I love my bride, Debbie, with all my heart. If I had to go away on an extended trip, I would ensure that all her needs would be met and that she would lack nothing until I returned.

Did you know that the Church is also called a bride? It's the bride of Christ, and Jesus has gone away for a season, but He left instructions for us to follow until His return. He says, "I want you to take care of My bride (the Church) while I am away by giving 10 percent of what I have given you to My house. You can spend the remaining 90 percent as you desire."

Matthew 25:29 promises, "To those who use well what they are given, even more will be given, and they will have an abundance." It also warns, "But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away."

his glorious throne. <sup>32</sup>All the nations* will be gathered in his presence, and he will separate the people as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup>He will place the sheep at his right hand and the goats at his left.

<sup>34</sup>"Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. <sup>35</sup>For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. <sup>36</sup>I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.'

<sup>37</sup>"Then these righteous ones will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? <sup>38</sup>Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? <sup>39</sup>When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?'

<sup>40</sup>"And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters,* you were doing it to me!'

<sup>41</sup>"Then the King will turn to those on the left and say, 'Away with you, you cursed ones, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his demons.* <sup>42</sup>For I was hungry, and you didn't feed me. I was thirsty, and you didn't give me a drink. <sup>43</sup>I was a stranger, and you didn't invite me into your home. I was naked, and you didn't give me clothing. I was sick and in prison, and you didn't visit me.'

<sup>44</sup>"Then they will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and not help you?'

<sup>45</sup>"And he will answer, 'I tell you the truth, when you refused to help the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were refusing to help me.'

<sup>46</sup>"And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous will go into eternal life."

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

26 When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples, <sup>2</sup>"As you know, Passover begins in two days, and the Son of Man* will be handed over to be crucified."

<sup>3</sup>At that same time the leading priests and elders were meeting at the residence of Caiaphas, the high priest, <sup>4</sup>plotting how to capture Jesus secretly and kill him. <sup>5</sup>"But not during the Passover celebration," they agreed, "or the people may riot."

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY

<sup>8</sup>The disciples were indignant when they saw this. "What a waste!" they said. <sup>9</sup>"It could have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor."

<sup>10</sup>But Jesus, aware of this, replied, "Why criticize this woman for doing such a good thing to me? <sup>11</sup>You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me. <sup>12</sup>She has poured this perfume on me to prepare my body for burial. <sup>13</sup>I tell you the truth, wherever the Good News is preached throughout the world, this woman's deed will be remembered and discussed."

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

<sup>14</sup>Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples, went to the leading priests <sup>15</sup>and asked, "How much will you pay me to betray Jesus to you?" And they gave him thirty pieces of silver. <sup>16</sup>From that time on, Judas began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

THE LAST SUPPER

<sup>17</sup>On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal for you?"

<sup>18</sup>"As you go into the city," he told them, "you will see a certain man. Tell him, 'The Teacher says: My time has come, and I will eat the Passover meal with my disciples at your house.'" <sup>19</sup>So the disciples did as Jesus told them and prepared the Passover meal there.

<sup>20</sup>When it was evening, Jesus sat down at the table* with the Twelve. <sup>21</sup>While they were eating, he said, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me."

WHAT DIFFERENCE DOES THE RESURRECTION MAKE?

Matthew 26

ROBERT MORRIS

Some people think Jesus is the Messiah, but because of the Resurrection, we know He is the Messiah. This knowing makes a difference in our behavior. We don't just think Jesus is Lord—we know He's Lord. The apostle Peter thought Jesus was the Messiah, so he left everything to follow Him (Matthew 4:18). However, it took three years and three significant events in Peter's life before he knew Jesus was the Messiah.

1. The Declaration (Matthew 26:31-35)

Before His arrest, Jesus warned the disciples, "All of you will desert me" (v. 31). He even detailed how Peter would deny Him: "Before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you even know me" (v. 34). However, Peter emphatically declared that even if he faced death, he would never deny Jesus.

2. The Denial (Matthew 26:69-75)

Peter not only denied Jesus, but he also cursed and swore in an attempt to prove he wasn't one of Jesus' disciples. Can you imagine how Peter felt when he heard the rooster crow and realized Jesus' words had come true? Even worse, Jesus turned and looked at Peter the moment it happened (Luke 22:60-61). You may think, Well, I've never denied Jesus with my words, but have you ever denied Him by the way you live (Titus 1:16)? We've all done it.

3. The Decision (John 21)

In John 21, Peter encounters the newly-risen Jesus after the Resurrection. Like the first time he met the Savior (Luke 5:1-7), the disciple was tired from fishing all night and catching nothing. Once again, Jesus tells him to throw his net over the other side of the boat, and the same miracle happens as before—the net instantly fills with fish! Why does Jesus do the same miracle? I think He wants Peter to know, You can start again. I died for your failures, and I rose again. Every time you make a mistake, you can start over. Then Jesus repeatedly asks Peter, "Do you love me?" (John 21:15-17). I think He is saying, Peter, I know you love Me, but I want you to know you love Me. You're the one who is having doubts right now. You feel bad because you messed up, but My resurrection takes care of that. It takes care of all your failures.

Peter knew the cross meant death, but until the Resurrection, he didn't know it also meant life after death. He started following Jesus three years earlier, but there by the Sea of Galilee, he makes a commitment to follow Him again. Peter is a man who goes from denying Jesus to preaching about Him in a matter of weeks. What could make such a drastic difference? Only one thing: the Resurrection.

<sup>23</sup>He replied, "One of you who has just eaten from this bowl with me will betray me." <sup>24</sup>For the Son of Man must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for the one who betrays him. It would be far better for that man if he had never been born!"

<sup>25</sup>Judas, the one who would betray him, also asked, "Rabbi, am I the one?"

And Jesus told him, "You have said it."

<sup>27</sup>And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them and said, "Each of you drink from it, <sup>28</sup>for this is my blood, which confirms the covenant* between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice to forgive the sins of many. <sup>29</sup>Mark my words—I will not drink wine again until the day I drink it new with you in my Father's Kingdom."

<sup>30</sup>Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

'God will strike* the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

<sup>32</sup>But after I have been raised from the dead, I will go ahead of you to Galilee and meet you there."

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, Peter—this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you even know me."

<sup>35</sup>"No!" Peter insisted. "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!" And all the other disciples vowed the same.

JESUS PRAYS IN GETHSEMANE

<sup>36</sup>Then Jesus went with them to the olive grove called Gethsemane, and he said, "Sit here while I go over there to pray." <sup>37</sup>He took Peter and Zeb-edee's two sons, James and John, and he became anguished and distressed. <sup>38</sup>He told them, "My soul is crushed with grief to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me."

<sup>39</sup>He went on a little farther and bowed with his face to the ground, praying, "My Father! If it is possible, let this cup of suffering be taken

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

<sup>31</sup>On the way, Jesus told them, "Tonight all of you will desert me. For the Scriptures say, away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.”

<sup>40</sup>Then he returned to the disciples and found them asleep. He said to Peter, “Couldn’t you watch with me even one hour?” <sup>41</sup>Keep watch and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak!”

<sup>42</sup>Then Jesus left them a second time and prayed, “My Father! If this cup cannot be taken away* unless I drink it, your will be done.”

<sup>43</sup>When he returned to them again, he found them sleeping, for they couldn’t keep their eyes open.

<sup>44</sup>So he went to pray a third time, saying the same things again. <sup>45</sup>Then he came to the disciples and said, “Go ahead and sleep. Have your rest. But look—the time has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>46</sup>Up, let’s be going. Look, my betrayer is here!”

JESUS IS BETRAYED AND ARRESTED

<sup>47</sup>And even as Jesus said this, Judas, one of the twelve disciples, arrived with a crowd of men armed with swords and clubs. They had been sent by the leading priests and elders of the people. <sup>48</sup>The traitor, Judas, had given them a prearranged signal: “You will know which one to arrest when I greet him with a kiss.” <sup>49</sup>So Judas came straight to Jesus. “Greetings, Rabbi!” he exclaimed and gave him the kiss.

Then the others grabbed Jesus and arrested him. <sup>51</sup>But one of the men with Jesus pulled out his sword and struck the high priest’s slave, slashing off his ear.

<sup>52</sup>“Put away your sword,” Jesus told him. “Those who use the sword will die by the sword. <sup>53</sup>Don’t you realize that I could ask my Father for thousands* of angels to protect us, and he would send them instantly? <sup>54</sup>But if I did, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that describe what must happen now?”

<sup>55</sup>Then Jesus said to the crowd, “Am I some dangerous revolutionary, that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? Why didn’t you arrest me in the Temple? I was there teaching every day. <sup>56</sup>But this is all happening to fulfill the words of the prophets as recorded in the Scriptures.” At that point, all the disciples deserted him and fled.

JESUS BEFORE THE COUNCIL

<sup>57</sup>Then the people who had arrested Jesus led him to the home of Caiaphas, the high priest, where the teachers of religious law and the elders had gathered. <sup>58</sup>Meanwhile, Peter followed him at a distance and came to the high priest’s courtyard. He went in and sat with the guards and waited to see how it would all end.

<sup>59</sup>Inside, the leading priests and the entire high council* were trying to find witnesses who would lie about Jesus, so they could put him to death. <sup>60</sup>But even though they found many who agreed to give false witness, they could not use anyone’s testimony. Finally, two men came forward <sup>61</sup>who declared, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the Temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’”

<sup>62</sup>Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Well, aren’t you going to answer these charges? What do you have to say for yourself?”

<sup>63</sup>But Jesus remained silent. Then the high priest said to him, “I demand in the name of the living God—tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

<sup>64</sup>Jesus replied, “You have said it. And in the future you will see the Son of Man seated in the place of power at God’s right hand* and coming on the clouds of heaven.”*

<sup>65</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothing to show his horror and said, “Blasphemy! Why do we need other witnesses? You have all heard his blasphemy. <sup>66</sup>What is your verdict?”

“Guilty!” they shouted. “He deserves to die!”

<sup>67</sup>Then they began to spit in Jesus’ face and beat him with their fists. And some slapped him, <sup>68</sup>jeering, “Prophecy to us, you Messiah! Who hit you that time?”

PETER DENIES JESUS

<sup>69</sup>Meanwhile, Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant girl came over and said to him, “You were one of those with Jesus the Galilean.”

<sup>70</sup>But Peter denied it in front of everyone. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said.

<sup>71</sup>Later, out by the gate, another servant girl noticed him and said to those standing around, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.”*

<sup>72</sup>Again Peter denied it, this time with an oath. “I don’t even know the man,” he said.

<sup>73</sup>A little later some of the other bystanders came over to Peter and said, “You must be one of them; we can tell by your Galilean accent.”

<sup>75</sup>Suddenly, Jesus’ words flashed through Peter’s mind: “Before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you even know me.” And he went away, weeping bitterly.

JUDAS HANGS HIMSELF

27 Very early in the morning the leading priests and the elders of the people met again to lay plans for putting Jesus to death. <sup>2</sup>Then they bound him, led him away, and took him to Pilate, the Roman governor.

was filled with remorse. So he took the thirty pieces of silver back to the leading priests and the elders. <sup>4</sup> “I have sinned,” he declared, “for I have betrayed an innocent man.”

“What do we care?” they retorted. “That’s your problem.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Judas threw the silver coins down in the Temple and went out and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup> The leading priests picked up the coins. “It wouldn’t be right to put this money in the Temple treasury,” they said, “since it was payment for murder.”<sup>7</sup> After some discussion they finally decided to buy the potter’s field, and they made it into a cemetery for foreigners.<sup>8</sup> That is why the field is still called the Field of Blood.<sup>9</sup> This fulfilled the prophecy of Jeremiah that says,

“They took* the thirty pieces of silver—the price at which he was valued by the people of Israel, and purchased the potter’s field, as the LORD directed.*”

JESUS’ TRIAL BEFORE PILATE

<sup>11</sup> Now Jesus was standing before Pilate, the Roman governor. “Are you the king of the Jews?” the governor asked him.

Jesus replied, “You have said it.”

<sup>12</sup> But when the leading priests and the elders made their accusations against him, Jesus remained silent. <sup>13</sup> “Don’t you hear all these charges they are bringing against you?” Pilate demanded. <sup>14</sup> But Jesus made no response to any of the charges, much to the governor’s surprise.

<sup>15</sup> Now it was the governor’s custom each year during the Passover celebration to release one prisoner to the crowd—anyone they wanted. <sup>16</sup> This year there was a notorious prisoner, a man named Barabbas.<sup>17</sup> As the crowds gathered before Pilate’s house that morning, he asked them, “Which one do you want me to release to you—Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Messiah?” <sup>18</sup> (He knew very well that the religious leaders had arrested Jesus out of envy.)

<sup>19</sup> Just then, as Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him this message: “Leave that innocent man alone. I suffered through a terrible nightmare about him last night.”

<sup>20</sup> Meanwhile, the leading priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas to be released and for Jesus to be put to death. <sup>21</sup> So the governor asked again, “Which of these two do you want me to release to you?”

The crowd shouted back, “Barabbas!”

<sup>22</sup> Pilate responded, “Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?”

They shouted back, “Crucify him!”

But the mob roared even louder, “Crucify him!”

<sup>24</sup> Pilate saw that he wasn’t getting anywhere and that a riot was developing. So he sent for a bowl of water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this man’s blood. The responsibility is yours!”

<sup>25</sup> And all the people yelled back, “We will take responsibility for his death—we and our children!”<sup>26</sup>

<sup>26</sup> So Pilate released Barabbas to them. He ordered Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip, then turned him over to the Roman soldiers to be crucified.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS

THE CRUCIFIXION

<sup>35</sup> After they had nailed him to the cross, the soldiers gambled for his clothes by throwing dice.* <sup>36</sup> Then they sat around and kept guard as he hung there. <sup>37</sup> A sign was fastened above Jesus’ head, announcing the charge against him. It read: “This is Jesus, the King of the Jews.” <sup>38</sup> Two revolutionaries* were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.

<sup>39</sup> The people passing by shouted abuse, shaking their heads in mockery. <sup>40</sup> “Look at you now!” they yelled at him. “You said you were going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days. Well then, if you are the Son of God, save yourself and come down from the cross!”

<sup>41</sup> The leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders also mocked Jesus. <sup>42</sup> “He saved others,” they scoffed, “but he can’t save himself! So he is the King of Israel, is he? Let him come down from the cross right now, and we will believe in him!” <sup>43</sup> He trusted God, so let God rescue him now if he wants him! For he said,

THE DEATH OF JESUS

<sup>50</sup>Then Jesus shouted out again, and he released his spirit. <sup>51</sup>At that moment the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. The earth shook, rocks split apart, <sup>52</sup>and tombs opened. The bodies of many godly men and women who had died were raised from the dead. <sup>53</sup>They left the cemetery after Jesus’ resurrection, went into the holy city of Jerusalem, and appeared to many people.

<sup>54</sup>The Roman officer* and the other soldiers at the crucifixion were terrified by the earthquake and all that had happened. They said, “This man truly was the Son of God!”

<sup>55</sup>And many women who had come from Galilee with Jesus to care for him were watching from a distance. <sup>56</sup>Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James and Joseph), and the mother of James and John, the sons of Zebedee.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

<sup>57</sup>As evening approached, Joseph, a rich man from Arimathea who had become a follower of Jesus, <sup>58</sup>went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. And Pilate issued an order to release it to him. <sup>59</sup>Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a long sheet of clean linen cloth. <sup>60</sup>He placed it in his own new tomb, which had been carved out of the rock. Then he rolled a great stone across the entrance and left. <sup>61</sup>Both Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting across from the tomb and watching.

THE GUARD AT THE TOMB

<sup>62</sup>The next day, on the Sabbath,* the leading priests and Pharisees went to see Pilate. <sup>63</sup>They told him, “Sir, we remember what that deceiver once said while he was still alive: ‘After three days I will rise from the dead.’” <sup>64</sup>So we request that you seal the tomb until the third day. This will prevent his disciples from coming and stealing his body and then telling everyone he was raised from the dead! If that happens, we’ll be worse off than we were at first.”

<sup>65</sup>Pilate replied, “Take guards and secure it the best you can.” <sup>66</sup>So they sealed the tomb and posted guards to protect it.

THE RESURRECTION

28 Early on Sunday morning,* as the new day was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went out to visit the tomb.

<sup>2</sup>Suddenly there was a great earthquake! For an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled aside the stone, and sat on it. <sup>3</sup>His face shone like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow. <sup>4</sup>The guards shook with fear when they saw him, and they fell into a dead faint.

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel spoke to the women. “Don’t be afraid!” he said. “I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. <sup>6</sup>He isn’t here! He is risen from the dead, just as he said would happen. Come, see where his body was lying. <sup>7</sup>And now, go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and he is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there. Remember what I have told you.”

<sup>8</sup>The women ran quickly from the tomb. They were very frightened but also filled with great joy, and they rushed to give the disciples the angel’s message. <sup>9</sup>And as they went, Jesus met them and greeted them. And they ran to him, grasped his feet, and worshiped him. <sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid! Go tell my brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see me there.”

THE REPORT OF THE GUARD

<sup>11</sup>As the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and told the leading priests what had happened. <sup>12</sup>A meeting with the elders was called, and they decided to give the soldiers a large bribe. <sup>13</sup>They told the soldiers, “You must say, ‘Jesus’ disciples came during the night while we were sleeping, and they stole his body.” <sup>14</sup>If the governor hears about it, we’ll stand up for you so you won’t get in trouble.” <sup>15</sup>So the guards accepted the bribe and said what they were told to say. Their story spread widely among the Jews, and they still tell it today.

THE GREAT COMMISSION

<sup>16</sup>Then the eleven disciples left for Galilee, going to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. <sup>17</sup>When they saw him, they worshiped him—but some of them doubted!

<sup>18</sup>Jesus came and told his disciples, “I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. <sup>19</sup>Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations,* baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. <sup>20</sup>Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

MARK

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Of the four Gospels in the New Testament, Mark's is the shortest. Most Bible scholars believe it was also the first Gospel written, composed by John Mark from Jerusalem in the early 60s (Acts 12:12). He assisted both Peter and Paul in their ministries (Acts 13:5, 13; 15:36-40; Philemon 24; Colossians 4:10; 2 Timothy 4:11; and 1 Peter 5:13). →

Since the fourth century, readers of Mark's Gospel have noticed that his depiction of Jesus and His ministry closely follows the outline of Peter's sermon to the Roman centurion Cornelius (Acts 10:36-41). For that reason and others, readers throughout history have traced this Gospel's origins to the teachings of Peter about Jesus.

PETER'S SERMON (ACTS 10)

Peter preaches the "Good News" (v. 36).

"God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit" (v. 38).

Peter says that Jesus began His ministry in Galilee (v. 37).

Peter summarizes Jesus' ministry by saying that He "went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil" (v. 38).

Peter says he is a "[witness] of all [Jesus] did throughout Judea and in Jerusalem" (v. 39).

Peter says, "They put [Jesus] to death by hanging him on a cross" (v. 39).

Peter concludes his sermon by proclaiming, "God raised [Jesus] to life on the third day" (v. 40).

PRIMARY SECTIONS IN MARK'S GOSPEL

Mark begins his account with "This is the Good News" (1:1).

The Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus at the outset of His ministry (1:10).

Mark centers Jesus' ministry in Galilee in chapters 1-8.

Mark depicts Jesus' ministry as one of healing and exorcism. Though he describes Jesus as a teacher, Mark does not record much of His teaching.

Mark shifts the location of Jesus' ministry from Galilee to Jerusalem in chapters 11-16.

Mark gives a detailed description of Jesus' death in chapter 15.

Mark concludes his Gospel with the announcement of the angel to the women, "He isn't here! He is risen from the dead!" (16:6).

Mark's Gospel may be divided into seven parts, which supports the outline given above:

Part one introduces John the Baptist and reports Jesus' baptism (1:1-15).

Part two recounts the calling of the first disciples and the beginning of Jesus' ministry in the synagogues of Galilee (1:16-3:12).

Part three follows Jesus' teaching and miracle ministry to the crowds in and around Galilee (3:13-5:43).

Part four reports the sending of the disciples to continue Jesus' ministry and Jesus' two feeding miracles by the Sea of Galilee (6:1-8:26).

Part five tracks Jesus as He makes His "way" to Jerusalem (8:27-10:52; in particular, see 8:27; 10:17, 32, 46, 52; 11:1, 11).

Part six reports Jesus' entry into Jerusalem and the Temple (11:1-13:37).

Part seven describes Jesus' final meal with His disciples, His crucifixion, and the empty tomb (14:1-16:8).

Mark depicts Jesus as the Son of God at the beginning of his Gospel and near its conclusion (1:1; 15:39). In between, he uses the word immediately 40 times to show Jesus as a man of action. Jesus acts decisively in everything He does because the Holy Spirit is with Him as God's Son (1:10-11) to teach, heal, deliver, and cleanse people of their sin and impurity.

Thus, a particular focus in Mark is Jesus' ministry of purity. At different times in His ministry, Jesus delivers people from unclean spirits (1:21-28; 5:1-20; 9:14-29); He cleanses a leper of his skin disease (1:40-44); He heals a woman who is unclean because of a "constant bleeding" (5:21-34); He teaches about the nature of uncleanness (7:14-23); and He prophetically "cleanses" the Temple (11:15-19). By delivering and healing these people through the Holy Spirit, Jesus restores them so they might live their lives in wholeness and purity. And His actions in the Temple speak of His desire to revitalize worship for all people.

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

1 This is the Good News about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God.<sup>4</sup> It began just as the prophet Isaiah had written:

“Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, and he will prepare your way.”<sup>5</sup>

<sup>3</sup> He is a voice shouting in the wilderness, “Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!
Clear the road for him!”<sup>6</sup>

<sup>4</sup>This messenger was John the Baptist. He was in the wilderness and preached that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven.<sup>5</sup>All of Judea, including all the people of Jerusalem, went out to see and hear John. And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.<sup>6</sup>His clothes were woven from coarse camel hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food he ate locusts and wild honey.

<sup>7</sup>John announced: “Someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not even worthy to stoop down like a slave and untie the straps of his sandals.<sup>8</sup> I baptize you with* water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit!”

THE BAPTISM AND TEMPTATION OF JESUS

<sup>9</sup>One day Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and John baptized him in the Jordan River.<sup>10</sup>As Jesus came up out of the water, he saw the heavens splitting apart and the Holy Spirit descending on him* like a dove.<sup>11</sup>And a voice from heaven said, “You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy.”

<sup>12</sup>The Spirit then compelled Jesus to go into the wilderness,<sup>13</sup> where he was tempted by Satan for forty days. He was out among the wild animals, and angels took care of him.

<sup>14</sup>Later on, after John was arrested, Jesus went into Galilee, where he preached God’s Good News.*<sup>15</sup>“The time promised by God has come at last!” he announced. “The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!”

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

<sup>16</sup>One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon* and his brother Andrew throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living.<sup>17</sup>Jesus called out to them, “Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!”<sup>18</sup>And they left their nets at once and followed him.

<sup>19</sup>A little farther up the shore Jesus saw Zebedee’s sons, James and John, in a boat repairing their nets.<sup>20</sup>He called them at once, and they also followed him, leaving their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired men.

THE BENEFITS OF BAPTISM

Mark 1:9–11

JACK HAYFORD

Three things happened at Jesus’ baptism, and these same things also happen in the baptism of all believers.

1. The Father pronounced His approval of His Son.

For believers, God declares that sin is removed, and our faith in Jesus Christ brings Him great joy. We are His sons and daughters now.

2. The heavens parted.

For believers, the spiritual realm is opened, enabling them to see beyond the limits of human sight. God’s Word becomes alive and powerful, like a sword.

3. Jesus received the fullness of the Holy Spirit for the ministry set before Him.

For believers, baptism opens the way to the overflowing of the Holy Spirit. God sent His Son and gave Him the unlimited power of the Holy Spirit (John 3:34). Jesus later sent His disciples and gave them the same unlimited power of the Holy Spirit (John 20:22).

JESUS CASTS OUT AN EVIL SPIRIT

<sup>21</sup>Jesus and his companions went to the town of Capernaum. When the Sabbath day came, he went into the synagogue and began to teach.

<sup>22</sup>The people were amazed at his teaching, for he taught with real authority—quite unlike the teachers of religious law.

<sup>23</sup>Suddenly, a man in the synagogue who was possessed by an evil* spirit cried out, <sup>24</sup>“Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

<sup>25</sup>But Jesus reprimanded him. “Be quiet! Come out of the man,” he ordered. <sup>26</sup>At that, the evil spirit screamed, threw the man into a convulsion, and then came out of him.

<sup>27</sup>Amazement gripped the audience, and they began to discuss what had happened. “What sort of new teaching is this?” they asked excitedly. “It has such authority! Even evil spirits obey his orders!” <sup>28</sup>The news about Jesus spread quickly throughout the entire region of Galilee.

JESUS HEALS MANY PEOPLE

1:1 Some manuscripts do not include the Son of God. 1:2 Mal 3:1. 1:3 Isa 40:3 (Greek version). 1:8 Or in; also in 1:8b. 1:10 Or toward him, or into him. 1:14 Some manuscripts read the Good News of the Kingdom of God. 1:16 Simon is called “Peter” in 3:16 and thereafter. 1:23 Greek unclean; also in 1:26, 27.

<sup>32</sup> That evening after sunset, many sick and demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. <sup>33</sup> The whole town gathered at the door to watch. <sup>34</sup> So Jesus healed many people who were sick with various diseases, and he cast out many demons. But because the demons knew who he was, he did not allow them to speak.

JESUS PREACHES IN GALILEE

<sup>35</sup> Before daybreak the next morning, Jesus got up and went out to an isolated place to pray. <sup>36</sup> Later Simon and the others went out to find him. <sup>37</sup> When they found him, they said, “Everyone is looking for you.”

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus replied, “We must go on to other towns as well, and I will preach to them, too. That is why I came.” <sup>39</sup> So he traveled throughout the region of Galilee, preaching in the synagogues and casting out demons.

JESUS HEALS A MAN WITH LEPROSY

<sup>40</sup> A man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus, begging to be healed. “If you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean,” he said.

<sup>41</sup> Moved with compassion,* Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” <sup>42</sup> Instantly the leprosy disappeared, and the man was healed. <sup>43</sup> Then Jesus sent him on his way with a stern warning: <sup>44</sup> “Don’t tell anyone about this. Instead, go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

<sup>45</sup> But the man went and spread the word, proclaiming to everyone what had happened. As a result, large crowds soon surrounded Jesus, and he couldn’t publicly enter a town anywhere. He had to stay out in the secluded places, but people from everywhere kept coming to him.

JESUS HEALS A PARALYZED MAN

2 When Jesus returned to Capernaum several days later, the news spread quickly that he was back home. <sup>2</sup> Soon the house where he was staying was so packed with visitors that there was no more room, even outside the door. While he was preaching God’s word to them, <sup>3</sup> four men arrived carrying a paralyzed man on a mat. <sup>4</sup> They couldn’t bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, so they dug a hole through the roof above his head. Then they lowered the man on his mat, right down in front of Jesus. <sup>5</sup> Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “My child, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>6</sup> But some of the teachers of religious law who were sitting there thought to themselves, <sup>7</sup> “What is he saying? This is blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus knew immediately what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you question this in your hearts? <sup>9</sup> Is it easier to say to the paralyzed man ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk?’” <sup>10</sup> So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, <sup>11</sup> “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!”

<sup>12</sup> And the man jumped up, grabbed his mat, and walked out through the stunned onlookers. They were all amazed and praised God, exclaiming, “We’ve never seen anything like this before!”

JESUS CALLS LEVI (MATTHEW)

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus went out to the lakeshore again and taught the crowds that were coming to him. <sup>14</sup> As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. So Levi got up and followed him.

<sup>15</sup> Later, Levi invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. (There were many people of this kind among Jesus’ followers.) <sup>16</sup> But when the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees* saw him eating with tax collectors and other sinners, they asked his disciples, “Why does he eat with such scum?”

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus heard this, he told them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners.”

A DISCUSSION ABOUT FASTING

<sup>18</sup> Once when John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, some people came to Jesus and asked, “Why don’t your disciples fast like John’s disciples and the Pharisees do?”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus replied, “Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. They can’t fast while the groom is with them. <sup>20</sup> But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

<sup>22</sup> “And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the wine would burst the wineskins, and the wine and the skins would both be lost. New wine calls for new wineskins.”

A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE SABBATH

<sup>23</sup> One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples began breaking off heads of grain to eat. <sup>24</sup> But the Pharisees said to Jesus, “Look, why are they breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus said to them, “Haven’t you ever read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>26</sup>He went into the house of God (during the days when Abiathar was high priest) and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests are allowed to eat. He also gave some to his companions."

1:41 Some manuscripts read Moved with anger. 1:44 See Lev 14:2-32. 2:10 “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. 2:16a Greek the scribes of the Pharisees. 2:16b Greek with tax collectors and sinners?

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "The Sabbath was made to meet the needs of people, and not people to meet the requirements of the Sabbath. <sup>28</sup>So the Son of Man is Lord, even over the Sabbath!"

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

3 Jesus went into the synagogue again and noticed a man with a deformed hand. <sup>2</sup>Since it was the Sabbath, Jesus' enemies watched him closely. If he healed the man's hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath.

<sup>3</sup>Jesus said to the man with the deformed hand, "Come and stand in front of everyone." <sup>4</sup>Then he turned to his critics and asked, "Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?" But they wouldn't answer him.

<sup>5</sup>He looked around at them angrily and was deeply saddened by their hard hearts. Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! <sup>6</sup>At once the Pharisees went away and met with the supporters of Herod to plot how to kill Jesus.

CROWDS FOLLOW JESUS

<sup>7</sup>Jesus went out to the lake with his disciples, and a large crowd followed him. They came from all over Galilee, Judea, <sup>8</sup>Jerusalem, Idumea, from east of the Jordan River, and even from as far north as Tyre and Sidon. The news about his miracles had spread far and wide, and vast numbers of people came to see him.

<sup>9</sup>Jesus instructed his disciples to have a boat ready so the crowd would not crush him. <sup>10</sup>He had healed many people that day, so all the sick people eagerly pushed forward to touch him. <sup>11</sup>And whenever those possessed by evil* spirits caught sight of him, the spirits would throw them to the ground in front of him shrieking, "You are the Son of God!" <sup>12</sup>But Jesus sternly commanded the spirits not to reveal who he was.

JESUS CHOOSES THE TWELVE APOSTLES

<sup>13</sup>Afterward Jesus went up on a mountain and called out the ones he wanted to go with him. And they came to him. <sup>14</sup>Then he appointed twelve of them and called them his apostles.* They were to accompany him, and he would send them out to preach, <sup>15</sup>giving them authority to cast out demons. <sup>16</sup>These are the twelve he chose:

Simon (whom he named Peter),

JESUS AND THE PRINCE OF DEMONS

<sup>20</sup>One time Jesus entered a house, and the crowds began to gather again. Soon he and his disciples couldn't even find time to eat. <sup>21</sup>When his family heard what was happening, they tried to take him away. "He's out of his mind," they said.

<sup>22</sup>But the teachers of religious law who had arrived from Jerusalem said, "He's possessed by Satan,* the prince of demons. That's where he gets the power to cast out demons."

<sup>28</sup>"I tell you the truth, all sin and blasphemy can be forgiven, <sup>29</sup>but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. This is a sin with eternal consequences." <sup>30</sup>He told them this because they were saying, "He's possessed by an evil spirit."

THE TRUE FAMILY OF JESUS

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him. They stood outside and sent word for him to come out and talk with them. <sup>32</sup>There was a crowd sitting around Jesus, and someone said, "Your mother and your brothers* are outside asking for you."

<sup>33</sup>Jesus replied, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" <sup>34</sup>Then he looked at those around him and said, "Look, these are my mother and brothers. <sup>35</sup>Anyone who does God's will is my brother and sister and mother."

PARABLE OF THE FARMER SCATTERING SEED

4 Once again Jesus began teaching by the lakeshore. A very large crowd soon gathered around him, so he got into a boat. Then he sat

DRIVING OUT THE ENEMY

Mark 4:7

ROBERT MORRIS

In Mark 4, Jesus tells the parable of the farmer scattering seed. The seed represents God's Word. Some seeds fell "among thorns that grew up and choked out the tender plants so they produced no grain" (v. 7). Jesus later explains that the thorns in this parable are symbolic of "the worries of this life, the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things" (v. 19).

Even the apostle Paul, who wrote a third of the New Testament, wrote about having "a thorn in my flesh" (2 Corinthians 12:7). No matter who you are or where you are in your walk with God, thorns will always try to choke the Word of God out of your life.

What does a thorn look like in your life? Maybe it's bitterness, unforgiveness, lust, pride, or anger. God's Word is the only tool that can defeat thorns and allow us to walk in freedom.

in the boat while all the people remained on the shore. <sup>2</sup>He taught them by telling many stories in the form of parables, such as this one:

<sup>10</sup>Later, when Jesus was alone with the twelve disciples and with the others who were gathered around, they asked him what the parables meant.

<sup>11</sup>He replied, "You are permitted to understand the secret* of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables for everything I say to outsiders, <sup>12</sup>so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled:

'When they see what I do,
they will learn nothing.
When they hear what I say,
they will not understand.
Otherwise, they will turn to me and be forgiven.'"<sup>13</sup>

<sup>13</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "If you can't understand the meaning of this parable, how will you understand all the other parables? <sup>14</sup>The farmer plants seed by taking God's word to others. <sup>15</sup>The seed that fell on the footpath represents those who hear the message, only to have Satan come at once and take it away. <sup>16</sup>The seed on the rocky soil represents those who hear the message and immediately receive it with joy. <sup>17</sup>But since they don't have deep roots, they don't last long. They fall away as soon as they have problems or are persecuted for believing God's word. <sup>18</sup>The seed that fell among the thorns represents others who hear God's word, <sup>19</sup>but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life, the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things, so no fruit is produced. <sup>20</sup>And the seed that fell on good soil represents those who hear and accept God's word and produce a harvest of thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times as much as had been planted!"

PARABLE OF THE LAMP

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus asked them, "Would anyone light a lamp and then put it under a basket or under a bed? Of course not! A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light will shine. <sup>22</sup>For everything that is hidden will eventually be brought into the open, and every secret will be brought to light. <sup>23</sup>Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand."

<sup>24</sup>Then he added, "Pay close attention to what you hear. The closer you listen, the more understanding you will be given*—and you will receive even more. <sup>25</sup>To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given. But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them."

PARABLE OF THE GROWING SEED

<sup>26</sup>Jesus also said, "The Kingdom of God is like a farmer who scatters seed on the ground. <sup>27</sup>Night and day, while he's asleep or awake, the seed sprouts and grows, but he does not understand how it happens. <sup>28</sup>The earth produces the crops on its own. First a leaf blade pushes through, then the heads of wheat are formed, and finally the grain ripens. <sup>29</sup>And as soon as the grain is ready, the farmer comes and harvests it with a sickle, for the harvest time has come."

PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

<sup>30</sup>Jesus said, "How can I describe the Kingdom of God? What story should I use to illustrate it? <sup>31</sup>It is like a mustard seed planted in the ground. It is the smallest of all seeds, <sup>32</sup>but it becomes the largest of all garden plants; it grows long branches, and birds can make nests in its shade."

<sup>33</sup>Jesus used many similar stories and illustrations to teach the people as much as they could understand. <sup>34</sup>In fact, in his public ministry he never taught without using parables; but afterward, when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything to them.

STEWARD HIS SPOKEN WORD

Mark 4:24-25

ROBERT MORRIS

When God speaks something to your heart, what do you do with it? Many people know it's important to steward their finances, but the principle of stewardship applies to all of God's resources, including His words! Here are three ways to steward the words God speaks to you:

1. Steward what you hear.

Jesus said, "Pay close attention to what you hear. The closer you listen, the more understanding you will be given . . . But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them" (Mark 4:24-25). God speaks all the time and in many different ways, such as dreams, circumstances, and people. We just need to listen.

2. Steward how you hear.

How do you know God is speaking to you? Ask yourself, Does this word put the emphasis on others or on me? Leadership in God's Kingdom is not about how many people you can get to serve you—it's about how many people you can serve. If a word causes you to become prideful, it's not God. God will resist our pride, and we cannot resist the devil when God is resisting us (James 4:6-7).

3. Heed what you hear.

Another word for heed is obey. When you don't obey what God has spoken to you, you leave His presence. The prophet Jonah refused to obey God's voice, so God spoke to him through circumstances—wind, waves, and a "great fish" (Jonah 1:17). If you're having trouble hearing God's voice, look at your circumstances. Has God told you to do something you still haven't done? If so, go and do it!

JESUS CALMS THE STORM

<sup>35</sup>As evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's cross to the other side of the lake."<sup>36</sup>So they took Jesus in the boat and started out, leaving the crowds behind (although other boats followed).<sup>37</sup>But soon a fierce storm came up. High waves were breaking into the boat, and it began to fill with water.

<sup>38</sup>Jesus was sleeping at the back of the boat with his head on a cushion. The disciples woke him up, shouting, "Teacher, don't you care that we're going to drown?"

<sup>39</sup>When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and said to the waves, "Silence! Be still!" Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm.<sup>40</sup>Then he asked them, "Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?"

"The disciples were absolutely terrified. "Who is this man?" they asked each other. "Even the wind and waves obey him!"

SOWING AND REAPING

Mark 4:26-29

ROBERT MORRIS

There are three principles of sowing and reaping:

1. You reap what you sow.

Can you imagine a farmer planting wheat seeds and expecting corn to grow? That would be foolishness! Yet many believers expect a harvest of something they've never planted. If you want to reap financial blessings, you first have to sow your tithe.

2. You reap after you sow.

Many people say, "When I have more money, I'll start giving." The problem is you can't reap before you sow. Luke 16:10 says, "If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones." You have to start right where you are.

3. You reap more than you sow.

Just a few kernels of planted corn will produce a stalk with several ears, and each ear will contain hundreds of seed kernels. That's a pretty good return, isn't it? You always get more when you sow God's way, but it starts with faithfully planting the first seed.

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED MAN

5 So they arrived at the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gerasenes.<sup>2</sup> When Jesus climbed out of the boat, a man possessed by an evil* spirit came out from the tombs to meet him.<sup>3</sup> This man lived in the burial caves and could no longer be restrained, even with a chain.<sup>4</sup> Whenever he was put into chains and shackles—as he often was—he snapped the chains from his wrists and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him.<sup>5</sup> Day and night he wandered among the burial caves and in the hills, howling and cutting himself with sharp stones.

<sup>6</sup>When Jesus was still some distance away, the man saw him, ran to meet him, and bowed low before him.<sup>7</sup>With a shriek, he screamed, "Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In the name of God, I beg you, don't torture me!"<sup>8</sup>For Jesus had already said to the spirit, "Come out of the man, you evil spirit."

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus demanded, "What is your name?" And he replied, "My name is Legion, because there are many of us inside this man."<sup>10</sup>Then the evil spirits begged him again and again not to send them to some distant place.

<sup>11</sup>There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby.<sup>12</sup>"Send us into those pigs," the spirits begged. "Let us enter them."

<sup>13</sup>So Jesus gave them permission. The evil spirits came out of the man and entered the pigs, and

RUN TO JESUS

Mark 5:6

ROBERT MORRIS

In Mark 5, Jesus and His disciples encounter a demon-possessed man. Even though this man was under Satan's power, the enemy couldn't stop him from running to Jesus. And that's just what we need to do when we're under attack. When we run to Jesus and allow Him to set us free, we "strip off every weight that slows us down" (Hebrews 12:1).

People often try to clean out the junk in their lives on their own, even though all the resolutions and promises in the world rarely seem to work. As a believer, you can decide to leave behind the things that are holding you back. You don't do this by making resolutions and promises to anyone. You simply need to run to Jesus, trust God, and allow the Holy Spirit to set you free! Then you can freely pursue God and experience a deeper level of His presence.

the entire herd of about 2,000 pigs plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water.

<sup>14</sup>The herdsmen fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. People rushed out to see what had happened. <sup>15</sup>A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons. He was sitting there fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. <sup>16</sup>Then those who had seen what happened told the others about the demon-possessed man and the pigs. <sup>17</sup>And the crowd began pleading with Jesus to go away and leave them alone.

<sup>18</sup>As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon possessed begged to go with him. <sup>19</sup>But Jesus said, "No, go home to your family, and tell them everything the Lord has done for you and how merciful he has been." <sup>20</sup>So the man started off to visit the Ten Towns* of that region and began to proclaim the great things Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed at what he told them.

JESUS HEALS IN RESPONSE TO FAITH

many doctors, and over the years she had spent everything she had to pay them, but she had gotten no better. In fact, she had gotten worse. <sup>27</sup>She had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his robe. <sup>28</sup>For she thought to herself, "If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed." <sup>29</sup>Immediately the bleeding stopped, and she could feel in her body that she had been healed of her terrible condition.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus realized at once that healing power had gone out from him, so he turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my robe?"

<sup>31</sup>His disciples said to him, "Look at this crowd pressing around you. How can you ask, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>32</sup>But he kept on looking around to see who had done it. <sup>33</sup>Then the frightened woman, trembling at the realization of what had happened to her, came and fell to her knees in front of him and told him what she had done. <sup>34</sup>And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace. Your suffering is over."

<sup>37</sup>Then Jesus stopped the crowd and wouldn't let anyone go with him except Peter, James, and John (the brother of James). <sup>38</sup>When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw much commotion and weeping and wailing. <sup>39</sup>He went inside and asked, "Why all this commotion and weeping? The child isn't dead; she's only asleep."

<sup>43</sup>Jesus gave them strict orders not to tell anyone what had happened, and then he told them to give her something to eat.

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

6 Jesus left that part of the country and returned with his disciples to Nazareth, his hometown. <sup>2</sup>The next Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. They asked, "Where did he get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?" <sup>3</sup>Then they scoffed, "He's just a carpenter, the son of Mary* and the brother of James, Joseph,* Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us.” They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him.

5:20 Greek Decapolis. 5:36 Or ignored. 6:3a Some manuscripts read He's just the son of the carpenter and of Mary. 6:3b Most manuscripts read Jesus; see Matt 13:55.

<sup>4</sup>Then Jesus told them, “A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family.” <sup>5</sup>And because of their unbelief, he couldn’t do any miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them. <sup>6</sup>And he was amazed at their unbelief.

JESUS SENDS OUT THE TWELVE DISCIPLES

Then Jesus went from village to village, teaching the people. <sup>7</sup>And he called his twelve disciples together and began sending them out two by two, giving them authority to cast out evil* spirits. <sup>8</sup>He told them to take nothing for their journey except a walking stick—no food, no traveler’s bag, no money.* <sup>9</sup>He allowed them to wear sandals but not to take a change of clothes.

<sup>10</sup>“Wherever you go,” he said, “stay in the same house until you leave town.” But if any place refuses to welcome you or listen to you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.”

<sup>12</sup>So the disciples went out, telling everyone they met to repent of their sins and turn to God. <sup>13</sup>And they cast out many demons and healed many sick people, anointing them with olive oil.

THE DEATH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

<sup>14</sup>Herod Antipas, the king, soon heard about Jesus, because everyone was talking about him. Some were saying, “This must be John the Baptist raised from the dead. That is why he can do such miracles.” <sup>15</sup>Others said, “He’s the prophet Elijah.” Still others said, “He’s a prophet like the other great prophets of the past.”

<sup>16</sup>When Herod heard about Jesus, he said, “John, the man I beheaded, has come back from the dead.”

<sup>17</sup>For Herod had sent soldiers to arrest and imprison John as a favor to Herodias. She had been his brother Philip’s wife, but Herod had married her. <sup>18</sup>John had been telling Herod, “It is against God’s law for you to marry your brother’s wife.” <sup>19</sup>So Herodias bore a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But without Herod’s approval she was powerless, <sup>20</sup>for Herod respected John; and knowing that he was a good and holy man, he protected him. Herod was greatly disturbed whenever he talked with John, but even so, he liked to listen to him.

<sup>21</sup>Herodias’s chance finally came on Herod’s birthday. He gave a party for his high government officials, army officers, and the leading citizens of Galilee. <sup>22</sup>Then his daughter, also named Herodias,* came in and performed a dance that greatly pleased Herod and his guests. “Ask me for anything you like,” the king said to the girl, “and I will give it to you.” <sup>23</sup>He even vowed, “I will give you whatever you ask, up to half my kingdom!”

Her mother told her, “Ask for the head of John the Baptist!”

<sup>25</sup>So the girl hurried back to the king and told him, “I want the head of John the Baptist, right now, on a tray!”

<sup>26</sup>Then the king deeply regretted what he had said; but because of the vows he had made in front of his guests, he couldn’t refuse her. <sup>27</sup>So he immediately sent an executioner to the prison to cut off John’s head and bring it to him. The soldier beheaded John in the prison, <sup>28</sup>brought his head on a tray, and gave it to the girl, who took it to her mother. <sup>29</sup>When John’s disciples heard what had happened, they came to get his body and buried it in a tomb.

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

<sup>30</sup>The apostles returned to Jesus from their ministry tour and told him all they had done and taught. <sup>31</sup>Then Jesus said, “Let’s go off by ourselves to a quiet place and rest awhile.” He said this because there were so many people coming and going that Jesus and his apostles didn’t even have time to eat.

<sup>32</sup>So they left by boat for a quiet place, where they could be alone. <sup>33</sup>But many people recognized them and saw them leaving, and people from many towns ran ahead along the shore and got there ahead of them. <sup>34</sup>Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

<sup>35</sup>Late in the afternoon his disciples came to him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s already getting late. <sup>36</sup>Send the crowds away so they can go to the nearby farms and villages and buy something to eat.”

<sup>37</sup>But Jesus said, “You feed them.” “With what?” they asked. “We’d have to work for months to earn enough money* to buy food for all these people!”

They came back and reported, “We have five loaves of bread and two fish.”

<sup>39</sup>Then Jesus told the disciples to have the people sit down in groups on the green grass. <sup>40</sup>So they sat down in groups of fifty or a hundred.

<sup>41</sup>Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. He also divided the fish for everyone to share. <sup>42</sup>They all ate as much as they

THE PRIORITY OF PEOPLE

Mark 6:34

ROBERT MORRIS

If we could point a video camera at Jesus' mind and show the footage on a big screen, what would we see? People. People were always on His mind. When Jesus called the fishermen Peter and Andrew to be His disciples, He said, "Follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!" (Matthew 4:19). Even as He hung on the cross, Jesus thought about people. He thought about his mother's welfare and asked John to take care of her (John 19:26-27). He thought about the criminal hanging beside Him and promised, "Today you will be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:43). And He thought about the people who nailed Him to the cross as He prayed, "Father, forgive them . . ." (Luke 23:34).

Why did Jesus have people on His mind so much? Here are three reasons:

1. He knew the Father's heart.

Jesus knew the heart of the Father better than anyone. The Father loves people, so Jesus tried to reach people everywhere He went. At Gateway Church, our motto is "we're all about people." Some people ask, "Shouldn't we be all about God?" and I reply, "Yes! But if we're all about God, then we should be all about what God's all about. And God's all about people."

2. He knew the reality of eternity.

More than any other religious leader ever, Jesus talked about the absolute certainty of an impending eternal destination. Every person will spend eternity in one of two ways: communion with God or perpetual torment. Jesus knew that only people last forever, which is why He placed such a high value on human souls.

3. He knew the potential of people.

In Luke 19, Jesus meets a rich tax collector named Zacchaeus and goes to his house. This is an unpopular decision with many people, and they complain, "He has gone to be the guest of a notorious sinner" (v. 7). Jesus was the only one able to see the generous potential in Zacchaeus, and He can see your potential too. It doesn't matter where you come from, what you've gone through, or how many wounds you have. Jesus never gets bogged down by a person's past—He knows His power is always greater! He is radically inclusive of all people: young, old, rich, poor, popular, forgotten, saved, lost, healed, and hurting!

wanted,<sup>43</sup> and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftover bread and fish.<sup>44</sup> A total of 5,000 men and their families were fed.<sup>45</sup>

JESUS WALKS ON WATER

<sup>46</sup> Immediately after this, Jesus insisted that his disciples get back into the boat and head across the lake to Bethsaida, while he sent the people home.<sup>46</sup> After telling everyone good-bye, he went up into the hills by himself to pray.

<sup>47</sup> Late that night, the disciples were in their boat in the middle of the lake, and Jesus was alone on land.<sup>48</sup> He saw that they were in serious trouble, rowing hard and struggling against the wind and waves. About three o'clock in the morning<sup>49</sup> Jesus came toward them, walking on the water. He intended to go past them,<sup>49</sup> but when they saw him walking on the water, they cried out in terror, thinking he was a ghost.<sup>50</sup> They were all terrified when they saw him.

But Jesus spoke to them at once. "Don't be afraid," he said. "Take courage! I am here!"<sup>51</sup> Then he climbed into the boat, and the wind stopped. They were totally amazed,<sup>52</sup> for they still didn't understand the significance of the miracle of the loaves. Their hearts were too hard to take it in.

<sup>53</sup> After they had crossed the lake, they landed at Gennesaret. They brought the boat to shore<sup>54</sup> and climbed out. The people recognized Jesus at once,<sup>55</sup> and they ran throughout the whole area, carrying sick people on mats to wherever they

THE PHYSICIAN

Mark 6:55-56

ROBERT MORRIS

Jesus is the Great Physician. When He walked on earth, He healed people because He was moved with compassion for them (Matthew 14:14). Hebrews 13:8 says, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever," which means He still has compassion and heals people today.

Sometimes people believe Jesus took our sins on the cross, but they have a hard time believing Matthew 8:17:

"He took our sicknesses
and removed our diseases."

It is God's will for all to be saved and all to be healed. Jesus is willing and wants to heal you. Yet some people still feel as if they aren't good enough or deserving enough to be healed. The truth is, similar to salvation, no one is deserving. This is why we all need God's grace. The grace we need to be saved is the same grace we need to be healed. And the great news is that it's available to everyone!

6:44 Some manuscripts read fed from the loaves. 6:48 Greek About the fourth watch of the night. 6:50 Or The 'I Am' is here; Greek reads I am. See Exod 3:14.

heard he was. <sup>56</sup>Wherever he went—in villages, cities, or the countryside—they brought the sick out to the marketplaces. They begged him to let the sick touch at least the fringe of his robe, and all who touched him were healed.

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT INNER PURITY

7 One day some Pharisees and teachers of religious law arrived from Jerusalem to see Jesus. <sup>2</sup>They noticed that some of his disciples failed to follow the Jewish ritual of hand washing before eating. <sup>3</sup>(The Jews, especially the Pharisees, do not eat until they have poured water over their cupped hands,* as required by their ancient traditions. <sup>4</sup>Similarly, they don't eat anything from the market until they immerse their hands* in water. This is but one of many traditions they have clung to—such as their ceremonial washing of cups, pitchers, and kettles.)

<sup>5</sup>So the Pharisees and teachers of religious law asked him, “Why don't your disciples follow our age-old tradition? They eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony.”

<sup>6</sup>Jesus replied, “You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote,

‘These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me.

<sup>7</sup> Their worship is a farce,
for they teach man-made ideas as

<sup>9</sup>Then he said, “You skillfully sidestep God's law in order to hold on to your own tradition. <sup>10</sup>For instance, Moses gave you this law from God: ‘Honor your father and mother,’* and ‘Anyone who speaks disrespectfully of father or mother must be put to death.’* <sup>11</sup>But you say it is all right for people to say to their parents, ‘Sorry, I can't help you. For I have vowed to give to God what I would have given to you.’* <sup>12</sup>In this way, you let them disregard their needy parents. <sup>13</sup>And so you cancel the word of God in order to hand down your own tradition. And this is only one example among many others.”

<sup>14</sup>Then Jesus called to the crowd to come and hear. “All of you listen,” he said, “and try to understand. <sup>15</sup>It's not what goes into your body that defiles you; you are defiled by what comes from your heart.”*

<sup>17</sup>Then Jesus went into a house to get away from the crowd, and his disciples asked him what he meant by the parable he had just used. <sup>18</sup>“Don't you understand either?” he asked. “Can't you see that the food you put into your body cannot defile you? <sup>19</sup>Food doesn't go into your heart, but only passes through the stomach and then goes into the sewer.” (By saying this, he declared that every kind of food is acceptable in God's eyes.)

THE FAITH OF A GENTILE WOMAN

<sup>24</sup>Then Jesus left Galilee and went north to the region of Tyre.* He didn't want anyone to know which house he was staying in, but he couldn't keep it a secret. <sup>25</sup>Right away a woman who had heard about him came and fell at his feet. Her little girl was possessed by an evil* spirit, <sup>26</sup>and she begged him to cast out the demon from her daughter.

Since she was a Gentile, born in Syrian Phoenicia, <sup>27</sup>Jesus told her, “First I should feed the children—my own family, the Jews.* It isn't right to take food from the children and throw it to the dogs.”

<sup>28</sup>She replied, “That's true, Lord, but even the dogs under the table are allowed to eat the scraps from the children's plates.”

<sup>29</sup>“Good answer!” he said. “Now go home, for the demon has left your daughter.” <sup>30</sup>And when she arrived home, she found her little girl lying quietly in bed, and the demon was gone.

JESUS HEALS A DEAF MAN

<sup>31</sup>Jesus left Tyre and went up to Sidon before going back to the Sea of Galilee and the region of the Ten Towns.* <sup>32</sup>A deaf man with a speech impediment was brought to him, and the people begged Jesus to lay his hands on the man to heal him.

<sup>33</sup>Jesus led him away from the crowd so they could be alone. He put his fingers into the man's ears. Then, spitting on his own fingers, he touched the man's tongue. <sup>34</sup>Looking up to heaven, he sighed and said, “Ephphatha,” which means, “Be opened!” <sup>35</sup>Instantly the man could hear perfectly, and his tongue was freed so he could speak plainly!

<sup>36</sup>Jesus told the crowd not to tell anyone, but the more he told them not to, the more they spread the news. <sup>37</sup>They were completely amazed and said again and again, “Everything he does is wonderful. He even makes the deaf to hear and gives speech to those who cannot speak.”

OPEN YOUR SPIRITUAL EYES

Mark 8

ROBERT MORRIS

Mark 8 is a chapter full of people suffering from spiritual blindness. In verse 11, the Pharisees try to make Jesus prove His authority by giving them a sign. Then the disciples panic when they realize they did not bring enough food for their journey. Jesus says, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod" (v. 15). The disciples think their Master—who just fed over 4,000 people from almost nothing—is upset about the present food situation. However, Jesus is talking about something much more important than bread.

When they arrive in Bethsaida, Jesus opens the eyes of a blind man. Do you see the symbolism there? If you read the Bible while thinking you already know everything, you won't "see" anything. However, if you humbly pray, "Lord, I am blind without You. I can't understand the Bible unless You show me," then God will open your spiritual eyes to see and truly understand His Word.

JESUS FEEDS FOUR THOUSAND

8 About this time another large crowd had gathered, and the people ran out of food again. Jesus called his disciples and told them, <sup>2</sup>"I feel sorry for these people. They have been here with me for three days, and they have nothing left to eat. <sup>3</sup>If I send them home hungry, they will faint along the way. For some of them have come a long distance."

<sup>6</sup>So Jesus told all the people to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to his disciples, who distributed the bread to the crowd. <sup>7</sup>A few small fish were found, too, so Jesus also blessed these and told the disciples to distribute them.

<sup>8</sup>They ate as much as they wanted. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven large baskets of leftover food. <sup>9</sup>There were about 4,000 men in the crowd that day, and Jesus sent them home after they had eaten. <sup>10</sup>Immediately after this, he got into a boat with his disciples and crossed over to the region of Dalmanutha.

PHARISEES DEMAND A MIRACULOUS SIGN

<sup>11</sup>When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had arrived, they came and started to argue with him. Testing him, they demanded that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

<sup>12</sup>When he heard this, he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, "Why do these people keep demanding a miraculous sign? I tell you the truth, I will not give this generation any such sign."<sup>13</sup> So he got back into the boat and left them, and he crossed to the other side of the lake.

YEAST OF THE PHARISEES AND HEROD

<sup>14</sup>But the disciples had forgotten to bring any food. They had only one loaf of bread with them in the boat. <sup>15</sup>As they were crossing the lake, Jesus warned them, "Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod."

<sup>16</sup>At this they began to argue with each other because they hadn't brought any bread. <sup>17</sup>Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said, "Why are you arguing about having no bread? Don't you know or understand even yet? Are your hearts too hard to take it in?" <sup>18</sup>"You have eyes—can't you see? You have ears—can't you hear?"* Don't you remember anything at all? <sup>19</sup>When I fed the 5,000 with five loaves of bread, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up afterward?"

"Twelve," they said.

<sup>20</sup>"And when I fed the 4,000 with seven loaves, how many large baskets of leftovers did you pick up?"

"Seven," they said.

<sup>21</sup>"Don't you understand yet?" he asked them.

JESUS HEALS A BLIND MAN

<sup>22</sup>When they arrived at Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man to Jesus, and they begged him to touch the man and heal him. <sup>23</sup>Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village. Then, spitting on the man's eyes, he laid his hands on him and asked, "Can you see anything now?"

<sup>25</sup>Then Jesus placed his hands on the man's eyes again, and his eyes were opened. His sight was completely restored, and he could see everything clearly. <sup>26</sup>Jesus sent him away, saying, "Don't go back into the village on your way home."

PETER'S DECLARATION ABOUT JESUS

<sup>27</sup>Jesus and his disciples left Galilee and went up to the villages near Caesarea Philippi. As they were walking along, he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"

<sup>28</sup>"Well," they replied, "some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other prophets."

<sup>29</sup>Then he asked them, "But who do you say I am?"

Peter replied, "You are the Messiah.*"

8:18 Jer 5:21. 8:29 Or the Christ, Messiah (a Hebrew term) and Christ (a Greek term) both mean "anointed one."

<sup>30</sup>But Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus began to tell them that the Son of Man* must suffer many terrible things and be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but three days later he would rise from the dead. <sup>32</sup>As he talked about this openly with his disciples, Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him for saying such things.*

<sup>33</sup>Jesus turned around and looked at his disciples, then reprimanded Peter. “Get away from me, Satan!” he said. “You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God’s.”

<sup>34</sup>Then, calling the crowd to join his disciples, he said, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must give up your own way, take up your cross, and follow me. <sup>35</sup>If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake and for the sake of the Good News, you will save it. <sup>36</sup>And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul? <sup>37</sup>Is anything worth more than your soul? <sup>38</sup>If anyone is ashamed of me and my message in these adulterous and sinful days, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

9 Jesus went on to say, “I tell you the truth some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God arrive in great power!”

THE TRANSFIGURATION

<sup>2</sup>Six days later Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain to be alone. As the men watched, Jesus’ appearance was transformed,<sup>3</sup> and his clothes became dazzling white, far whiter than any earthly bleach could ever make them. <sup>4</sup>Then Elijah and Moses appeared and began talking with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>Peter exclaimed, “Rabbi, it’s wonderful for us to be here! Let’s make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” <sup>6</sup>He said this because he didn’t really know what else to say, for they were all terrified.

<sup>7</sup>Then a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my dearly loved Son. Listen to him.” <sup>8</sup>Suddenly, when they looked around, Moses and Elijah were gone, and they saw only Jesus with them.

<sup>9</sup>As they went back down the mountain, he told them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man* had risen from the dead. <sup>10</sup>So they kept it to themselves, but they often asked each other what he meant by “rising from the dead.”

<sup>12</sup>Jesus responded, “Elijah is indeed coming first to get everything ready. Yet why do the Scriptures say that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be treated with utter contempt? <sup>13</sup>But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they chose to abuse him, just as the Scriptures predicted.”

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED BOY

<sup>14</sup>When they returned to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd surrounding them, and some teachers of religious law were arguing with them. <sup>15</sup>When the crowd saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with awe, and they ran to greet him.

<sup>16</sup>“What is all this arguing about?” Jesus asked.

<sup>17</sup>One of the men in the crowd spoke up and said, “Teacher, I brought my son so you could heal him. He is possessed by an evil spirit that won’t let him talk. <sup>18</sup>And whenever this spirit seizes him, it throws him violently to the ground. Then he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid.* So I asked your disciples to cast out the evil spirit, but they couldn’t do it.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said to them,* “You faithless people! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy to me.”

<sup>20</sup>So they brought the boy. But when the evil spirit saw Jesus, it threw the child into a violent convulsion, and he fell to the ground, writhing and foaming at the mouth.

<sup>21</sup>“How long has this been happening?” Jesus asked the boy’s father.

He replied, “Since he was a little boy. <sup>22</sup>The spirit often throws him into the fire or into water, trying to kill him. Have mercy on us and help us, if you can.”

<sup>25</sup>When Jesus saw that the crowd of onlookers was growing, he rebuked the evil* spirit. “Listen, you spirit that makes this boy unable to hear and speak,” he said. “I command you to come out of this child and never enter him again!”

<sup>26</sup>Then the spirit screamed and threw the boy into another violent convulsion and left him. The boy appeared to be dead. A murmur ran through the crowd as people said, “He’s dead.” <sup>27</sup>But Jesus took him by the hand and helped him to his feet, and he stood up.

<sup>28</sup>Afterward, when Jesus was alone in the house with his disciples, they asked him, “Why couldn’t we cast out that evil spirit?”

<sup>29</sup>Jesus replied, “This kind can be cast out only by prayer.*”

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>30</sup> Leaving that region, they traveled through Galilee. Jesus didn't want anyone to know he was there, <sup>31</sup> for he wanted to spend more time with his disciples and teach them. He said to them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies. He will be killed, but three days later he will rise from the dead." <sup>32</sup> They didn't understand what he was saying, however, and they were afraid to ask him what he meant.

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM

<sup>33</sup> After they arrived at Capernaum and settled in a house, Jesus asked his disciples, "What were you discussing out on the road?" <sup>34</sup> But they didn't answer, because they had been arguing about which of them was the greatest. <sup>35</sup> He sat down, called the twelve disciples over to him, and said, "Whoever wants to be first must take last place and be the servant of everyone else."

<sup>36</sup> Then he put a little child among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, <sup>37</sup> "Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not only me but also my Father who sent me."

USING THE NAME OF JESUS

<sup>38</sup> John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he wasn't in our group."

<sup>39</sup> "Don't stop him!" Jesus said. "No one who performs a miracle in my name will soon be able to speak evil of me. <sup>40</sup> Anyone who is not against us is for us. <sup>41</sup> If anyone gives you even a cup of water because you belong to the Messiah, I tell you the truth, that person will surely be rewarded."

<sup>49</sup> "For everyone will be tested with fire.* <sup>50</sup> Salt is good for seasoning. But if it loses its flavor, how do you make it salty again? You must have the qualities of salt among yourselves and live in peace with each other."

DISCUSSION ABOUT DIVORCE AND MARRIAGE

10 Then Jesus left Capernaum and went down to the region of Judea and into the area east of the Jordan River. Once again crowds gathered around him, and as usual he was teaching them.

<sup>2</sup> Some Pharisees came and tried to trap him with this question: "Should a man be allowed to divorce his wife?"

<sup>5</sup> But Jesus responded, "He wrote this commandment only as a concession to your hard hearts. <sup>6</sup> But 'God made them male and female'* from the beginning of creation. <sup>7</sup> 'This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife,* <sup>8</sup> and the two are united into one.* <sup>9</sup> Since they are no longer two but one, <sup>9</sup> let no one split apart what God has joined together."

<sup>10</sup> Later, when he was alone with his disciples in the house, they brought up the subject again. <sup>11</sup> He told them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup> And if a woman divorces her husband and marries someone else, she commits adultery."

JESUS BLESSES THE CHILDREN

<sup>13</sup> One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so he could touch and bless them. But the disciples scolded the parents for bothering him.

<sup>14</sup> When Jesus saw what was happening, he was angry with his disciples. He said to them, "Let the children come to me. Don't stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. <sup>15</sup> I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn't receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it." <sup>16</sup> Then he took the children in his arms and placed his hands on their heads and blessed them.

THE RICH MAN

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was starting out on his way to Jerusalem, a man came running up to him, knelt down, and asked, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>18</sup> "Why do you call me good?" Jesus asked. "Only God is truly good. <sup>19</sup> But to answer your question, you know the commandments: 'You must not murder. You must not commit adultery. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. You must not cheat anyone. Honor your father and mother.'*"

WHAT'S IN YOUR HEART?

Mark 10:17-27

ROBERT MORRIS

In Mark 10, Jesus tells the rich man to sell his possessions and give the proceeds to the poor because his wealth is keeping him from making a total commitment to the Lord. God requires the same from each of us: to take up our cross, deny ourselves, and follow Jesus.

Ask yourself if anything, like pride, fear, money, or a relationship, is keeping you from totally committing everything to the Lord. Then pray and ask Him to reveal to you what's in your heart. Just as He showed the rich man that he couldn't save himself and the truth about what was in his heart—that he loved his wealth more than he loved God—He'll do the same for you. Jesus loves you this much too. He wants to bless you, but first you must deny yourself, take up your cross, and follow Him.

<sup>21</sup> Looking at the man, Jesus felt genuine love for him. “There is still one thing you haven't done,” he told him. “Go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

<sup>22</sup> At this the man's face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God!” <sup>24</sup> This amazed them. But Jesus said again, “Dear children, it is very hard* to enter the Kingdom of God. <sup>25</sup> In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>27</sup> Jesus looked at them intently and said, “Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But not with God. Everything is possible with God.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Peter began to speak up. “We've given up everything to follow you,” he said.

<sup>29</sup> “Yes,” Jesus replied, “and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or property, for my sake and for the Good News, <sup>30</sup> will receive now in return a hundred times as many houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and property—along with persecution. And in the world to come that person will have eternal life. <sup>31</sup> But many who are the greatest now will be least important then, and those who seem least important now will be the greatest then.”*

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>32</sup> They were now on the way up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them. The disciples were filled with awe, and the people following behind were overwhelmed with fear. Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus once more began to describe everything that was about to happen to him. <sup>33</sup> “Listen,” he said, “we're going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man* will be betrayed to the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. They will sentence him to die and hand him over to the Romans.” <sup>34</sup> They will mock him, spit on him, flog him with a whip, and kill him, but after three days he will rise again.”

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT SERVING OTHERS

<sup>35</sup> Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came over and spoke to him. “Teacher,” they said, “we want you to do us a favor.”

<sup>37</sup> They replied, “When you sit on your glorious throne, we want to sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left.”

<sup>38</sup> But Jesus said to them, “You don't know what you are asking! Are you able to drink from the bitter cup of suffering I am about to drink? Are you able to be baptized with the baptism of suffering I must be baptized with?”

<sup>39</sup> “Oh yes,” they replied, “we are able!”

Then Jesus told them, “You will indeed drink from my bitter cup and be baptized with my baptism of suffering. <sup>40</sup> But I have no right to say who will sit on my right or my left. God has prepared those places for the ones he has chosen.”

<sup>41</sup> When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant.

<sup>42</sup> So Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. <sup>43</sup> But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup> and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of everyone else. <sup>45</sup> For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

JESUS HEALS BLIND BARTIMAEUS

<sup>46</sup> Then they reached Jericho, and as Jesus and his disciples left town, a large crowd followed him. A blind beggar named Bartimaeus (son of Timaeus) was sitting beside the road. <sup>47</sup> When Bartimaeus heard that Jesus of Nazareth was nearby, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>49</sup> When Jesus heard him, he stopped and said, “Tell him to come here.”

So they called the blind man. “Cheer up,” they said. “Come on, he's calling you!” <sup>50</sup> Bartimaeus threw aside his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

<sup>10:24</sup> Some manuscripts read very hard for those who trust in riches. <sup>10:31</sup> Greek But many who are first will be last; and the last, first. <sup>10:33a</sup> “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. <sup>10:33b</sup> Greek the Gentiles.

<sup>51</sup>“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked.

“My Rabbi,” the blind man said, “I want to see!”

<sup>52</sup>And Jesus said to him, “Go, for your faith has healed you.” Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus down the road.*

JESUS’ TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

11 As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead. <sup>2</sup>“Go into that village over there,” he told them. “As soon as you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>3</sup>If anyone asks, ‘What are you doing?’ just say, ‘The Lord needs it and will return it soon.’”

<sup>8</sup>Many in the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others spread leafy branches they had cut in the fields. <sup>9</sup>Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting,

“Praise God!”

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!

Praise God in highest heaven!”*

<sup>11</sup>So Jesus came to Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around carefully at everything, he left because it was late in the afternoon. Then he returned to Bethany with the twelve disciples.

JESUS CURSES THE FIG TREE

<sup>12</sup>The next morning as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry. <sup>13</sup>He noticed a fig tree in full leaf a little way off, so he went over to see if he could find any figs. But there were only leaves because it was too early in the season for fruit. <sup>14</sup>Then Jesus said to the tree, “May no one ever eat your fruit again!” And the disciples heard him say it.

JESUS CLEARS THE TEMPLE

<sup>15</sup>When they arrived back in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people buying and selling animals for sacrifices. He knocked over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves, <sup>16</sup>and he stopped everyone from using the Temple as a marketplace.* <sup>17</sup>He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves.”*

<sup>18</sup>When the leading priests and teachers of religious law heard what Jesus had done, they began planning how to kill him. But they were afraid of him because the people were so amazed at his teaching.

<sup>20</sup>The next morning as they passed by the fig tree he had cursed, the disciples noticed it had withered from the roots up. <sup>21</sup>Peter remembered what Jesus had said to the tree on the previous day and exclaimed, “Look, Rabbi! The fig tree you cursed has withered and died!”

<sup>22</sup>Then Jesus said to the disciples, “Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup>I tell you the truth, you can say to this mountain, ‘May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen. But you must really believe it will happen and have no doubt in your heart. <sup>24</sup>I tell you, you can pray for anything, and if you believe that you’ve received it, it will be yours. <sup>25</sup>But when you are praying, first forgive anyone you are holding a grudge against, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your sins, too.”*

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS CHALLENGED

<sup>27</sup>Again they entered Jerusalem. As Jesus was walking through the Temple area, the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders came up to him. <sup>28</sup>They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right to do them?”

<sup>29</sup>“I’ll tell you by what authority I do these things if you answer one question,” Jesus replied. <sup>30</sup>“Did John’s authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human? Answer me!”

<sup>31</sup>They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask why we didn’t believe John. <sup>32</sup>But do we dare say it was merely human?” For they were afraid of what the people would do, because everyone believed that John was a prophet. <sup>33</sup>So they finally replied, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.”

PARABLE OF THE EVIL FARMERS

12 Then Jesus began teaching them with stories: “A man planted a vineyard. He built a wall around it, dug a pit for pressing out the grape juice, and built a lookout tower. Then he leased the vineyard to tenant farmers and moved to another country.<sup>2</sup> At the time of the grape harvest, he sent one of his servants to collect his share of the crop.<sup>3</sup> But the farmers grabbed the servant, beat him up, and sent him back empty-handed.<sup>4</sup> The owner then sent another servant, but they insulted him and beat him over the head.<sup>5</sup> The next servant he sent was killed. Others he sent were either beaten or killed,<sup>6</sup> until there was only one left—his son whom he loved dearly. The owner finally sent him, thinking, ‘Surely they will respect my son.’

Compare Matt 6:15.

<sup>7</sup>“But the tenant farmers said to one another, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’<sup>8</sup> So they grabbed him and murdered him and threw his body out of the vineyard.

<sup>9</sup>“What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do?” Jesus asked. “I’ll tell you—he will come and kill those farmers and lease the vineyard to others.<sup>10</sup> Didn’t you ever read this in the Scriptures?

‘The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.

<sup>11</sup> This is the LORD’s doing, and it is wonderful to see.’<sup>12</sup>”

<sup>12</sup> The religious leaders* wanted to arrest Jesus because they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. But they were afraid of the crowd, so they left him and went away.

TAXES FOR CAESAR

<sup>13</sup> Later the leaders sent some Pharisees and supporters of Herod to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested.<sup>14</sup> “Teacher,” they said, “we know how honest you are. You are impartial and don’t play favorites. You teach the way of God truthfully. Now tell us—is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?<sup>15</sup> Should we pay them, or shouldn’t we?”

Jesus saw through their hypocrisy and said, “Why are you trying to trap me? Show me a Roman coin,* and I’ll tell you.”<sup>16</sup> When they handed it to him, he asked, “Whose picture and title are stamped on it?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

<sup>17</sup>“Well, then,” Jesus said, “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

His reply completely amazed them.

DISCUSSION ABOUT RESURRECTION

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. They posed this question:<sup>19</sup> “Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife without children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother’s name.*<sup>20</sup> Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one

CREATED FOR LOVE

Mark 12:28–30

ROBERT MORRIS

Have you ever looked at a person and thought, I just don’t love God as much as they do, but I wish I did? For many years, I felt this way about my wife, Debbie. When I got saved at age 19, she had already been walking and talking with God for 10 years. She already knew Him so well. Then I learned that love grows. The longer you know God, the more you’re going to love Him.

Love also leaks. The apostle Paul says Satan is always trying to shoot arrows at you (Ephesians 6:16). He wants you to feel discouraged, depressed, hard, and bitter. He wants your love for God to leak out of your heart.

So how do you stop the leaks and grow in the Lord? By expressing your love to God through worship. Worship is simply communicating your love to God and God communicating His love to you. He created you to love and be loved.

married and then died without children.<sup>21</sup> So the second brother married the widow, but he also died without children. Then the third brother married her.<sup>22</sup> This continued with all seven of them, and still there were no children. Last of all, the woman also died.<sup>23</sup> So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her.”

<sup>24</sup> Jesus replied, “Your mistake is that you don’t know the Scriptures, and you don’t know the power of God.<sup>25</sup> For when the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. In this respect they will be like the angels in heaven.

<sup>26</sup> “But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—haven’t you ever read about this in the writings of Moses, in the story of the burning bush? Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, God said to Moses,* ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’”<sup>27</sup> So he is the God of the living, not the dead. You have made a serious error.”

THE MOST IMPORTANT COMMANDMENT

<sup>28</sup> One of the teachers of religious law was standing there listening to the debate. He realized that Jesus had answered well, so he asked, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus replied, “The most important commandment is this: ‘Listen, O Israel! The LORD our God is the one and only LORD.’<sup>30</sup> And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength.”

neighbor as yourself.” No other commandment is greater than these.”

<sup>32</sup>The teacher of religious law replied, “Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth by saying that there is only one God and no other. <sup>33</sup>And I know it is important to love him with all my heart and all my understanding and all my strength, and to love my neighbor as myself. This is more important than to offer all of the burnt offerings and sacrifices required in the law.”

<sup>34</sup>Realizing how much the man understood, Jesus said to him, “You are not far from the Kingdom of God.” And after that, no one dared to ask him any more questions.

WHOSE SON IS THE MESSIAH?

<sup>35</sup>Later, as Jesus was teaching the people in the Temple, he asked, “Why do the teachers of religious law claim that the Messiah is the son of David? <sup>36</sup>For David himself, speaking under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, said,

‘The LORD said to my Lord,
Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
until I humble your enemies beneath
your feet.’*

<sup>37</sup>Since David himself called the Messiah ‘my Lord,’ how can the Messiah be his son?” The large crowd listened to him with great delight.

THE WIDOW’S OFFERING

<sup>41</sup>Jesus sat down near the collection box in the Temple and watched as the crowds dropped in their money. Many rich people put in large amounts. <sup>42</sup>Then a poor widow came and dropped in two small coins.*

<sup>43</sup>Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I tell you the truth, this poor widow has given more than all the others who are making contributions. <sup>44</sup>For they gave a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she had to live on.”

JESUS SPEAKS ABOUT THE FUTURE

13 As Jesus was leaving the Temple that day, one of his disciples said, “Teacher, look at these magnificent buildings! Look at the impressive stones in the walls.”

<sup>2</sup>Jesus replied, “Yes, look at these great buildings. But they will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

<sup>3</sup>Later, Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives across the valley from the Temple. Peter, James, John, and Andrew came to him privately and asked him, <sup>4</sup>“Tell us, when will all this happen? What sign will show us that these things are about to be fulfilled?”

<sup>5</sup>Jesus replied, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, <sup>6</sup>for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah.’* They will deceive many. <sup>7</sup>And you will hear of wars and threats of wars, but don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place, but the end won’t follow immediately. <sup>8</sup>Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in many parts of the world, as well as famines. But this is only the first of the birth pains, with more to come.

<sup>9</sup>“When these things begin to happen, watch out! You will be handed over to the local councils and beaten in the synagogues. You will stand trial before governors and kings because you are my followers. But this will be your opportunity to tell them about me.* <sup>10</sup>For the Good News must first be preached to all nations.* <sup>11</sup>But when you are arrested and stand trial, don’t worry in advance about what to say. Just say what God tells you at that time, for it is not you who will be speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

<sup>12</sup>“A brother will betray his brother to death, a father will betray his own child, and children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be killed. <sup>13</sup>And everyone will hate you because you are my followers.* But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

<sup>14</sup>“The day is coming when you will see the sacrilegious object that causes desecration* standing where he* should not be.” (Reader, pay attention!) “Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. <sup>15</sup>A person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. <sup>16</sup>A person out in the field must not return even to get a coat. <sup>17</sup>How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. <sup>18</sup>And pray that your flight will not be in winter. <sup>19</sup>For there will be greater anguish in those days than at any time since God created the world. And it will never be so great again. <sup>20</sup>In fact, unless the Lord shortens that time of calamity, not a single person will survive. But for the sake of his chosen ones he has shortened those days.

<sup>21</sup>“Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah,’ or ‘There he is,’ don’t believe it. <sup>22</sup>For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God’s chosen ones. <sup>23</sup>Watch out! I have warned you about this ahead of time!

12:31 Lev 19:18. 12:36 Ps 110:1. 12:42 Greek two lepta, which is a hodrantes [i.e., a quadrans]. 13:6 Greek claiming, ‘I am’. 13:9 Or But this will be your testimony against them. 13:10 Or all peoples. 13:13 Greek on account of my name. 13:14a Greek the abomination of desolation. See Dan 9:27; 11:31; 12:11. 13:14b Or it.

the sun will be darkened,
the moon will give no light, <sup>25</sup> the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

<sup>26</sup>Then everyone will see the Son of Man* coming on the clouds with great power and glory.* <sup>27</sup>And he will send out his angels to gather his chosen ones from all over the world*—from the farthest ends of the earth and heaven.

<sup>32</sup>“However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself. Only the Father knows. <sup>33</sup>And since you don’t know when that time will come, be on guard! Stay alert*!

<sup>34</sup>“The coming of the Son of Man can be illustrated by the story of a man going on a long trip. When he left home, he gave each of his slaves instructions about the work they were to do, and he told the gatekeeper to watch for his return. <sup>35</sup>You, too, must keep watch! For you don’t know when the master of the household will return—in the evening, at midnight, before dawn, or at daybreak. <sup>36</sup>Don’t let him find you sleeping when he arrives without warning. <sup>37</sup>I say to you what I say to everyone: Watch for him!”

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY

14 It was now two days before Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The leading priests and the teachers of religious law were still looking for an opportunity to capture Jesus secretly and kill him. <sup>2</sup>“But not during the Passover celebration,” they agreed, “or the people may riot.”

<sup>3</sup>Meanwhile, Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had previously had leprosy. While he was eating,* a woman came in with a beautiful alabaster jar of expensive perfume made from essence of nard. She broke open the jar and poured the perfume over his head.

<sup>4</sup>Some of those at the table were indignant. “Why waste such expensive perfume?” they asked. <sup>5</sup>“It could have been sold for a year’s wages* and the money given to the poor!” So they scolded her harshly.

<sup>6</sup>But Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. Why criticize her for doing such a good thing to me? <sup>7</sup>You will always have the poor among you, and you can help them whenever you want to. But you will not always have me. <sup>8</sup>She has done what she could and has anointed my body for burial ahead of time. <sup>9</sup>I tell you the truth, wherever the Good News is preached throughout the world, this woman’s deed will be remembered and discussed.”

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

<sup>10</sup>Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples, went to the leading priests to arrange to betray Jesus to them. <sup>11</sup>They were delighted when they heard why he had come, and they promised to give him money. So he began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

THE LAST SUPPER

<sup>12</sup>On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, Jesus’ disciples asked him, “Where do you want us to go to prepare the Passover meal for you?”

<sup>13</sup>So Jesus sent two of them into Jerusalem with these instructions: “As you go into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. <sup>14</sup>At the house he enters, say to the owner, ‘The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?’ <sup>15</sup>He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal.” <sup>16</sup>So the two disciples went into the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

<sup>17</sup>In the evening Jesus arrived with the Twelve. <sup>18</sup>As they were at the table* eating, Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, one of you eating with me here will betray me.”

<sup>20</sup>He replied, “It is one of you twelve who is eating from this bowl with me. <sup>21</sup>For the Son of Man* must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for the one who betrays him. It would be far better for that man if he had never been born!”

<sup>23</sup>And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. <sup>24</sup>And he said to them, “This is my blood, which confirms the covenant* between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice for many. <sup>25</sup>I tell you the truth, I will not drink wine again until the day I drink it new in the Kingdom of God.”

13:24-25 See Isa 13:10; 34:4; Joel 2:10. 13:26a “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. 13:26b See Dan 7:13. 13:27 Greek from the four winds. 13:30 Or this age, or this nation. 13:33 Some manuscripts add and pray. 14:3 Or reclining. 14:5 Greek for 300 denarii. A denarius was equivalent to a laborer’s full day’s wage. 14:18 Or As they reclined. 14:21 “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. 14:24 Some manuscripts read the new covenant.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

<sup>27</sup>On the way, Jesus told them, "All of you will desert me. For the Scriptures say, ‘God will strike* the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’

<sup>28</sup>But after I am raised from the dead, I will go ahead of you to Galilee and meet you there."

<sup>29</sup>Peter said to him, "Even if everyone else deserts you, I never will."

<sup>30</sup>Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, Peter—this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me."

<sup>31</sup>"No!" Peter declared emphatically. "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!" And all the others vowed the same.

JESUS PRAYS IN GETHSEMANE

<sup>32</sup>They went to the olive grove called Gethsemane, and Jesus said, "Sit here while I go and pray."

<sup>33</sup>He took Peter, James, and John with him, and he became deeply troubled and distressed. <sup>34</sup>He told them, "My soul is crushed with grief to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me."

<sup>35</sup>He went on a little farther and fell to the ground. He prayed that, if it were possible, the awful hour awaiting him might pass him by.

<sup>36</sup>"Abba, Father,"* he cried out, "everything is possible for you. Please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine."

<sup>37</sup>Then he returned and found the disciples asleep. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Couldn't you watch with me even one hour?" <sup>38</sup>Keep watch and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak."

<sup>39</sup>Then Jesus left them again and prayed the same prayer as before. <sup>40</sup>When he returned to them again, he found them sleeping, for they couldn't keep their eyes open. And they didn't know what to say.

<sup>41</sup>When he returned to them the third time, he said, "Go ahead and sleep. Have your rest. But no—the time has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup>Up, let's be going. Look, my betrayer is here!"

JESUS IS BETRAYED AND ARRESTED

<sup>43</sup>And immediately, even as Jesus said this, Judas, one of the twelve disciples, arrived with a crowd of men armed with swords and clubs. They had been sent by the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders. <sup>44</sup>The traitor, Judas, had given them a prearranged signal: "You will know which one to arrest when I greet him with a kiss. Then you can take him away under guard." <sup>45</sup>As soon as they arrived, Judas walked up to Jesus. "Rabbi!" he exclaimed, and gave him the kiss.

<sup>48</sup>Jesus asked them, "Am I some dangerous revolutionary, that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? <sup>49</sup>Why didn't you arrest me in the Temple? I was there among you teaching every day. But these things are happening to fulfill what the Scriptures say about me."

<sup>50</sup>Then all his disciples deserted him and ran away. <sup>51</sup>One young man following behind was clothed only in a long linen shirt. When the mob tried to grab him, <sup>52</sup>he slipped out of his shirt and ran away naked.

JESUS BEFORE THE COUNCIL

<sup>53</sup>They took Jesus to the high priest's home where the leading priests, the elders, and the teachers of religious law had gathered. <sup>54</sup>Meanwhile, Peter followed him at a distance and went right into the high priest's courtyard. There he sat with the guards, warming himself by the fire.

<sup>55</sup>Inside, the leading priests and the entire high council* were trying to find evidence against Jesus, so they could put him to death. But they couldn't find any. <sup>56</sup>Many false witnesses spoke against him, but they contradicted each other. <sup>57</sup>Finally, some men stood up and gave this false testimony: <sup>58</sup>"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this Temple made with human hands, and in three days I will build another, made without human hands.'" <sup>59</sup>But even then they didn't get their stories straight!

<sup>60</sup>Then the high priest stood up before the others and asked Jesus, "Well, aren't you going to answer these charges? What do you have to say for yourself?" <sup>61</sup>But Jesus was silent and made no reply. Then the high priest asked him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"

<sup>62</sup>Jesus said, "I AM.* And you will see the Son of Man seated in the place of power at God's right hand* and coming on the clouds of heaven.*"

<sup>63</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothing to show his horror and said, "Why do we need other witnesses? <sup>64</sup>You have all heard his blasphemy. What is your verdict?"

"Guilty!" they all cried. "He deserves to die!"

<sup>65</sup>Then some of them began to spit at him, and they blindfolded him and beat him with their fists. "Prophecy to us," they jeered. And the guards slapped him as they took him away.

14:27 Greek I will strike, Zech 13:7. 14:36 Abba is an Aramaic term for "father." 14:55 Greek the Sanhedrin. 14:62a Or The 'I AM' is here; or I am the LORD. See Exod 3:14. 14:62b Greek seated at the right hand of the power. See Ps 110:1. 14:62c See Dan 7:13.

PETER DENIES JESUS

<sup>66</sup> Meanwhile, Peter was in the courtyard below. One of the servant girls who worked for the high priest came by <sup>67</sup> and noticed Peter warming himself at the fire. She looked at him closely and said, “You were one of those with Jesus of Nazareth.”

<sup>68</sup> But Peter denied it. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said, and he went out into the entryway. Just then, a rooster crowed.*

A little later some of the other bystanders confronted Peter and said, “You must be one of them, because you are a Galilean.”

Suddenly, Jesus’ words flashed through Peter’s mind: “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me.” And he broke down and wept.

JESUS’ TRIAL BEFORE PILATE

15 Very early in the morning the leading priests, the elders, and the teachers of religious law—the entire high council*—met to discuss their next step. They bound Jesus, led him away, and took him to Pilate, the Roman governor.

Jesus replied, “You have said it.”

<sup>3</sup> Then the leading priests kept accusing him of many crimes,<sup>4</sup> and Pilate asked him, “Aren’t you going to answer them? What about all these charges they are bringing against you?” <sup>5</sup> But Jesus said nothing, much to Pilate’s surprise.

<sup>6</sup> Now it was the governor’s custom each year during the Passover celebration to release one prisoner—anyone the people requested. <sup>7</sup> One of the prisoners at that time was Barabbas, a revolutionary who had committed murder in an uprising. <sup>8</sup> The crowd went to Pilate and asked him to release a prisoner as usual.

<sup>9</sup> “Would you like me to release to you this ‘King of the Jews’?” Pilate asked. <sup>10</sup> (For he realized by now that the leading priests had arrested Jesus out of envy.) <sup>11</sup> But at this point the leading priests stirred up the crowd to demand the release of Barabbas instead of Jesus. <sup>12</sup> Pilate asked them, “Then what should I do with this man you call the king of the Jews?”

But the mob roared even louder, “Crucify him!”

<sup>15</sup> So to pacify the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He ordered Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip, then turned him over to the Roman soldiers to be crucified.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS

<sup>16</sup> The soldiers took Jesus into the courtyard of the governor’s headquarters (called the Praetorium) and called out the entire regiment. <sup>17</sup> They dressed him in a purple robe, and they wove thorn branches into a crown and put it on his head. <sup>18</sup> Then they saluted him and taunted, “Hail! King of the Jews!” <sup>19</sup> And they struck him on the head with a reed stick, spit on him, and dropped to their knees in mock worship. <sup>20</sup> When they were finally tired of mocking him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led him away to be crucified.

THE CRUCIFIXION

<sup>21</sup> A passerby named Simon, who was from Cyrene,* was coming in from the countryside just then, and the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus’ cross. (Simon was the father of Alexander and Rufus.) <sup>22</sup> And they brought Jesus to a place called Golgotha (which means “Place of the Skull”). <sup>23</sup> They offered him wine drugged with myrrh, but he refused it.

<sup>28</sup> The people passing by shouted abuse, shaking their heads in mockery. “Ha! Look at you now!” they yelled at him. “You said you were going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days. <sup>30</sup> Well then, save yourself and come down from the cross!”

<sup>31</sup> The leading priests and teachers of religious law also mocked Jesus. “He saved others,” they scoffed, “but he can’t save himself! <sup>32</sup> Let this Messiah, this King of Israel, come down from the cross so we can see it and believe him!” Even the men who were crucified with Jesus ridiculed him.

THE DEATH OF JESUS

<sup>33</sup> At noon, darkness fell across the whole land until three o’clock. <sup>34</sup> Then at three o’clock Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi; lema sabachthani?” which means “My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?”*

<sup>35</sup> Some of the bystanders misunderstood and thought he was calling for the prophet Elijah.

<sup>36</sup> One of them ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, holding it up to him on a reed stick so he could drink. “Wait!” he said. “Let’s see whether Elijah comes to take him down!”

14:67 Or Jesus the Nazarene. 14:68 Some manuscripts do not include Just then, a rooster crowed. 15:1 Greek the Sanhedrin; also in 15:43. 15:21 Cyrene was a city in northern Africa. 15:24 Greek cast lots. See Ps 22:18. 15:27a Or Two criminals. 15:27b Some manuscripts add verse 28, And the Scripture was fulfilled that said, “He was counted among those who were rebels.” See Isa 53:12; also compare Luke 22:37. 15:34 Ps 22:1.

<sup>39</sup>When the Roman officer* who stood facing him* saw how he had died, he exclaimed, "This man truly was the Son of God!"

<sup>40</sup>Some women were there, watching from a distance, including Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James the younger and of Joseph*), and Salome. <sup>41</sup>They had been followers of Jesus and had cared for him while he was in Galilee. Many other women who had come with him to Jerusalem were also there.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

<sup>42</sup>This all happened on Friday, the day of preparation,* the day before the Sabbath. As evening approached, <sup>43</sup>Joseph of Arimathea took a risk and went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. (Joseph was an honored member of the high council, and he was waiting for the Kingdom of God to come.) <sup>44</sup>Pilate couldn't believe that Jesus was already dead, so he called for the Roman officer and asked if he had died yet. <sup>45</sup>The officer confirmed that Jesus was dead, so Pilate told Joseph he could have the body. <sup>46</sup>Joseph bought a long sheet of linen cloth. Then he took Jesus' body down from the cross, wrapped it in the cloth, and laid it in a tomb that had been carved out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone in front of the entrance. <sup>47</sup>Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where Jesus' body was laid.

THE RESURRECTION

16 Saturday evening, when the Sabbath ended, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome went out and purchased burial spices so they could anoint Jesus' body. <sup>2</sup>Very early on Sunday morning,* just at sunrise, they went to the tomb. <sup>3</sup>On the way they were asking each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" <sup>4</sup>But as they arrived, they looked up and saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled aside.

<sup>5</sup>When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a white robe sitting on the right side. The women were shocked, <sup>6</sup>but the angel said, "Don't be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth,* who was crucified. He isn't here! He is risen from the dead! Look, this is where they laid his body. <sup>7</sup>Now go and tell his disciples, including Peter, that Jesus is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there, just as he told you before he died."

[The most ancient manuscripts of Mark conclude with verse 16:8. Later manuscripts add one or both of the following endings.]

[Shorter Ending of Mark]

Then they briefly reported all this to Peter and his companions. Afterward Jesus himself sent them out from east to west with the sacred and unfailing message of salvation that gives eternal life. Amen.

[Longer Ending of Mark]

<sup>9</sup>After Jesus rose from the dead early on Sunday morning, the first person who saw him was Mary Magdalene, the woman from whom he had cast out seven demons. <sup>10</sup>She went to the disciples, who were grieving and weeping, and told them what had happened. <sup>11</sup>But when she told them that Jesus was alive and she had seen him, they didn't believe her.

<sup>12</sup>Afterward he appeared in a different form to two of his followers who were walking from Jerusalem into the country. <sup>13</sup>They rushed back to tell the others, but no one believed them.

<sup>14</sup>Still later he appeared to the eleven disciples as they were eating together. He rebuked them for their stubborn unbelief because they refused to believe those who had seen him after he had been raised from the dead.*

<sup>15</sup>And then he told them, "Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone. <sup>16</sup>Anyone who believes and is baptized will be saved. But anyone who refuses to believe will be condemned. <sup>17</sup>These miraculous signs will accompany those who believe: They will cast out demons in my name, and they will speak in new languages.* <sup>18</sup>They will be able to handle snakes with safety, and if they drink anything poisonous, it won't hurt them. They will be able to place their hands on the sick, and they will be healed."

<sup>19</sup>When the Lord Jesus had finished talking with them, he was taken up into heaven and sat down in the place of honor at God's right hand. <sup>20</sup>And the disciples went everywhere and preached, and the Lord worked through them, confirming what they said by many miraculous signs.

15:39a Greek the centurion; similarly in 15:44, 45. 15:39b Some manuscripts add heard his cry and. 15:40 Greek Jesus; also in 15:47. See Matt 27:56. 15:42 Greek It was the day of preparation. 16:2 Greek on the first day of the week; also in 16:9. 16:6 Or Jesus the Nazarene. 16:8 The most reliable early manuscripts of the Gospel of Mark end at verse 8. Other manuscripts include various endings to the Gospel. A few include both the "shorter ending" and the "longer ending." The majority of manuscripts include the "longer ending" immediately after verse 8. 16:14 Some early manuscripts add: And they excused themselves, saying, "This age of lawlessness and unbelief is under Satan, who does not permit God's truth and power to conquer the evil [un]clean spirits. Therefore, reveal your justice now!" This is what they said to Christ. And Christ replied to them, "The period of years of Satan's power has been fulfilled, but other dreadful things will happen soon. And I was handed over to death for those who have sinned, so that they may return to the truth and sin no more, and so they may inherit the spiritual, incorruptible, and righteous glory in heaven." 16:17 Or new tongues; some manuscripts do not include new.

LUKE

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The Gospel of Luke is the longest book in the New Testament. It was written by Paul's traveling companion by that name, who was also a physician (Colossians 4:14). It is the first part of a two-part work, which also includes the book of Acts. Together, they make up about a quarter of the New Testament. Since Acts concludes with a description of Paul in Rome awaiting his legal hearing before Caesar, which occurred sometime in the mid-60s, many believe Luke wrote both books prior to that time but after Mark wrote his Gospel.

Luke begins his Gospel by telling Theophilus (meaning 'friend of God'), the recipient of the book, that he has written an "accurate account" of the Good News of Jesus (1:1-3). Luke proceeds by giving attention to Jesus' ministry among humble and poor people (1:52-53; 4:16-19; 6:20-23; 10:29-37; 14:12-14; 16:19-23; 18:35-43; 21:1-4), as well as women (1:26-56; 2:17-19, 36-38; 7:11-17, 36-50; 8:1-3; 10:38-42; 18:1-8; 21:1-4; 23:27-31, 49; 23:55-24:11). He also shows Jesus in relation to those who, for one reason or another (such as impurity), stand on the margins of society (4:16-19; 17:11-19; 23:39-43).

Luke's Gospel may be divided into four primary parts:

- Jesus' birth and preparation for ministry (1:1-4:13)
- Jesus' ministry in Galilee (4:14-9:50)
- Jesus' movement toward Jerusalem (9:51-19:44)
- Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem, where He is put to death and raised to life (19:45-24:53)

Though the structure of Luke's Gospel is similar to that of Matthew and Mark, it is notable for the very long section describing Jesus' travel from Galilee to Jerusalem (10 chapters), which Matthew does not emphasize and Mark, though he does draw attention to it by describing Jesus "on his way," only gives a chapter (chapter 10) to that journey.

A primary theme in Luke's Gospel is God's salvation for all people. That is why he begins the Gospel by describing the angel Gabriel's appearance to Mary. Gabriel declares she is favored by God and will give birth to a son whose name will be Jesus (1:26-33). The name Jesus is the English form of the Greek Iêsous, which, in turn, comes from the Hebrew name Yeshua. Yeshua is derived from the Hebrew word yašah, meaning 'to save.' The name Jesus means 'salvation,' and Luke develops this important truth throughout his Gospel. Mary will give birth to a son who will bring salvation to God's people.

After Mary hears the angel's words, she sings that God is her Savior (1:47). Then the angels announce the birth of Jesus to the shepherds, saying the Savior has been born (2:11). Later, Luke describes the ministry of John the Baptist as preparation for Jesus' ministry by quoting from the prophet Isaiah, who looked forward to the day of God's salvation (3:4-6). Luke also shows that people experience salvation from Jesus in many ways: a woman is forgiven of her sins (7:47-50); a man is delivered from demons (8:26-36); another woman is healed of sickness in her body (8:43-48); and a rich man is restored to the people of his community (19:1-10). In all these stories, Luke uses a word meaning 'to save' to describe what Jesus has done.

According to Luke, Jesus ministers God's salvation among His people through prayer and the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus is dependent on His relationship with His Father, which He cultivates through prayer, for understanding when and how He should minister, and He relies upon God's Spirit for the performance of that ministry. Luke shows Jesus as a man of prayer in numerous passages (5:16; 6:12; 9:18, 28-29; 10:21; 11:1, 5-13; 18:1-8; 22:31-32, 39-46; 23:34, 46;), even as He is shown to be a man of the Spirit (1:35; 3:21-22; 4:1, 14; 10:21; 24:49). He speaks with God His Father and enjoys the immediate presence of the Holy Spirit.

INTRODUCTION

1 Many people have set out to write accounts about the events that have been fulfilled among us. <sup>2</sup>They used the eyewitness reports circulating among us from the early disciples.* <sup>3</sup>Having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I also have decided to write an accurate account for you, most honorable Theophilus, <sup>4</sup>so you can be certain of the truth of everything you were taught.

THE BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST FORETOLD

<sup>5</sup>When Herod was king of Judea, there was a Jewish priest named Zechariah. He was a member of the priestly order of Abijah, and his wife, Elizabeth, was also from the priestly line of Aaron. <sup>6</sup>Zechariah and Elizabeth were righteous in God's eyes, careful to obey all of the Lord's commandments and regulations. <sup>7</sup>They had no children because Elizabeth was unable to conceive, and they were both very old.

<sup>8</sup>One day Zechariah was serving God in the Temple, for his order was on duty that week. <sup>9</sup>As was the custom of the priests, he was chosen by lot to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and burn incense. <sup>10</sup>While the incense was being burned, a great crowd stood outside, praying.

<sup>11</sup>While Zechariah was in the sanctuary, an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the incense altar. <sup>12</sup>Zechariah was shaken and overwhelmed with fear when he saw him. <sup>13</sup>But the angel said, "Don't be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give you a son, and you are to name him John. <sup>14</sup>You will have great joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, <sup>15</sup>for he will be great in the eyes of the Lord. He must never touch wine or other alcoholic drinks. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even before his birth.* <sup>16</sup>And he will turn many Israelites to the Lord their God. <sup>17</sup>He will be a man with the spirit and power of Elijah. He will prepare the people for the coming of the Lord. He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children,* and he will cause those who are rebellious to accept the wisdom of the godly."

<sup>18</sup>Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I be sure this will happen? I'm an old man now, and my wife is also well along in years."

<sup>19</sup>Then the angel said, "I am Gabriel! I stand in the very presence of God. It was he who sent me to bring you this good news! <sup>20</sup>But now, since you didn't believe what I said, you will be silent and unable to speak until the child is born. For my words will certainly be fulfilled at the proper time."

<sup>21</sup>Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah to come out of the sanctuary, wondering why he was taking so long. <sup>22</sup>When he finally did come out, he couldn't speak to them. Then they realized from his gestures and his silence that he must have seen a vision in the sanctuary.

<sup>23</sup>When Zechariah's week of service in the Temple was over, he returned home. <sup>24</sup>Soon afterward his wife, Elizabeth, became pregnant and went into seclusion for five months. <sup>25</sup>"How kind the Lord is!" she exclaimed. "He has taken away my disgrace of having no children."

THE BIRTH OF JESUS FORETOLD

<sup>26</sup>In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a village in Galilee, <sup>27</sup>to a virgin named Mary. She was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of King David. <sup>28</sup>Gabriel appeared to her and said, "Greetings,* favored woman! The Lord is with you!"

<sup>29</sup>Confused and disturbed, Mary tried to think what the angel could mean. <sup>30</sup>"Don't be afraid, Mary," the angel told her, "for you have found favor with God! <sup>31</sup>You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus. <sup>32</sup>He will be very great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David. <sup>33</sup>And he will reign over Israel* forever; his Kingdom will never end!"

<sup>35</sup>The angel replied, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the baby to be born will be holy, and he will be called the Son of God. <sup>36</sup>What's more, your relative Elizabeth has become pregnant in her old age! People used to say she was barren, but she has conceived a son and is now in her sixth month. <sup>37</sup>For the word of God will never fail.*"

<sup>38</sup>Mary responded, "I am the Lord's servant. May everything you have said about me come true." And then the angel left her.

MARY VISITS ELIZABETH

<sup>42</sup>Elizabeth gave a glad cry and exclaimed to Mary, "God has blessed you above all women, and your child is blessed. <sup>43</sup>Why am I so honored, that the mother of my Lord should visit me? <sup>44</sup>When I heard your greeting, the baby in my womb jumped for joy. <sup>45</sup>You are blessed because you believed that the Lord would do what he said."

1:2 Greek from those who from the beginning were servants of the word. 1:15 Or even from birth. 1:17 See Mal 4:5-6. 1:28a Or Rejoice. 1:28b Some manuscripts add blessed are you among women. 1:33 Greek over the house of Jacob. 1:37 Some manuscripts read For nothing is impossible with God.

THE MAGNIFICAT: MARY'S SONG OF PRAISE

“Oh, how my soul praises the Lord.

and from now on all generations will call me blessed.

<sup>49</sup> For the Mighty One is holy,
and he has done great things for me.

<sup>50</sup> He shows mercy from generation to generation to all who fear him.

<sup>51</sup> His mighty arm has done tremendous things!

He has scattered the proud and haughty ones.

<sup>52</sup> He has brought down princes from their thrones and exalted the humble.

<sup>53</sup> He has filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away with empty hands.

<sup>54</sup> He has helped his servant Israel and remembered to be merciful.

<sup>55</sup> For he made this promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his children forever.”

months and then went back to her own home.

THE BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

<sup>57</sup> When it was time for Elizabeth's baby to be born, she gave birth to a son. <sup>58</sup> And when her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had been very merciful to her, everyone rejoiced with her.

<sup>59</sup> When the baby was eight days old, they all came for the circumcision ceremony. They wanted to name him Zechariah, after his father.

<sup>60</sup> But Elizabeth said, “No! His name is John!”

<sup>61</sup> “What?” they exclaimed. “There is no one in all your family by that name.” <sup>62</sup> So they used gestures to ask the baby's father what he wanted to name him. <sup>63</sup> He motioned for a writing tablet, and to everyone's surprise he wrote, “His name is John.” <sup>64</sup> Instantly Zechariah could speak again, and he began praising God.

<sup>65</sup> Awe fell upon the whole neighborhood, and the news of what had happened spread throughout the Judean hills. <sup>66</sup> Everyone who heard about it reflected on these events and asked, “What will this child turn out to be?” For the hand of the Lord was surely upon him in a special way.

ZECHARIAH'S PROPHECY

<sup>67</sup> Then his father, Zechariah, was filled with the Holy Spirit and gave this prophecy:

<sup>68</sup> “Praise the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has visited and redeemed
his people.

<sup>69</sup> He has sent us a mighty Savior*
from the royal line of his servant David, <sup>70</sup> just as he promised through his holy prophets long ago.

<sup>71</sup> Now we will be saved from our enemies and from all who hate us.

<sup>72</sup> He has been merciful to our ancestors by remembering his sacred covenant—

<sup>73</sup> the covenant he swore with an oath to our ancestor Abraham.

<sup>74</sup> We have been rescued from our enemies
so we can serve God without fear,

<sup>75</sup> in holiness and righteousness for as long as we live.

<sup>76</sup> “And you, my little son, will be called the prophet of the Most High, because you will prepare the way for the Lord.

<sup>77</sup> You will tell his people how to find salvation through forgiveness of their sins.

<sup>78</sup> Because of God's tender mercy, the morning light from heaven is about to break upon us,*

<sup>79</sup> to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, and to guide us to the path of peace.”

<sup>80</sup> John grew up and became strong in spirit.
And he lived in the wilderness until he began his public ministry to Israel.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS

2 At that time the Roman emperor, Augustus, decreed that a census should be taken throughout the Roman Empire. <sup>2</sup> (This was the first census taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria.) <sup>3</sup> All returned to their own ancestral towns to register for this census. <sup>4</sup> And because Joseph was a descendant of King David, he had to go to Bethlehem in Judea, David's ancient home.
He traveled there from the village of Nazareth in Galilee. <sup>5</sup> He took with him Mary, to whom he was engaged, who was now expecting a child.

<sup>6</sup> And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born. <sup>7</sup> She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them.

THE SHEPHERDS AND ANGELS

<sup>8</sup> That night there were shepherds staying in the fields nearby, guarding their flocks of sheep.

<sup>9</sup> Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord's glory surrounded them. They were terrified, <sup>10</sup> but the angel reassured them. “Don't be afraid!” he said.
“I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people. <sup>11</sup> The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the 1:69 Greek has raised up a horn of salvation for us. 1:78 Or the Morning Light from Heaven is about to visit us.

THE CHRIST

Luke 2:8-12

ROBERT MORRIS

The word Christ, also translated Messiah, comes from the Greek word Christos and means 'anointed.' In the Old Testament, only three groups of people were anointed: prophets, priests, and kings. In the New Testament, Jesus is the Anointed One. That means He's our Prophet, Priest, and King.

In the Old Testament, God usually spoke through prophets. Jesus is now our Prophet, and we can hear God. The Holy Spirit lives within every believer and can speak to us at any time.

In the Old Testament, only the high priests could enter the presence of God. When Jesus came, He became our eternal High Priest, and now we can personally enter the presence of God.

Because Jesus is our King, He rules and reigns over everything in our lives—every situation, family issue, job problem, financial difficulty, emotional struggle, etc. Everything. We can live victoriously in every area of our lives!

PEACE ON EARTH

Luke 2:14

ROBERT MORRIS

The angels declared, "Peace on earth" as they announced Jesus' birth to frightened shepherds in the fields. But how can we have peace on our earth today?

1. Recognize you're in a battle.

Satan never takes a break, not even at Christmas. He's constantly reminding us of bad memories and the people we've lost. We need to remember that the battle is real. It's taking place in the spiritual realm, and it must also be fought in the spiritual realm.

2. Stop listening to yourself and start talking to yourself.

You have to quiet your soul (your mind, will, and emotions) and allow your spirit to start talking and rebuking the enemy.

3. Get with God.

You can have peace on your earth because you know the Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6). No matter what battle or struggle you're facing, spend time in His presence, and you will have peace in your heart.

Lord—has been born today in Bethlehem, the city of David! <sup>12</sup>And you will recognize him by this sign: You will find a baby wrapped snugly in strips of cloth, lying in a manger."

<sup>13</sup>Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God and saying,

<sup>14</sup> "Glory to God in highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased."

<sup>15</sup>When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Let's go to Bethlehem! Let's see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

<sup>16</sup>They hurried to the village and found Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup>After seeing him, the shepherds told everyone what had happened and what the angel had said to them about this child. <sup>18</sup>All who heard the shepherds' story were astonished, <sup>19</sup>but Mary kept all these things in her heart and thought about them often. <sup>20</sup>The shepherds went back to their flocks, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen. It was just as the angel had told them.

JESUS IS PRESENTED IN THE TEMPLE

<sup>21</sup>Eight days later, when the baby was circumcised, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel even before he was conceived.

<sup>22</sup>Then it was time for their purification offering, as required by the law of Moses after the birth of a child; so his parents took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>The law of the Lord says, "If a woman's first child is a boy, he must be dedicated to the Lord."* <sup>24</sup>So they offered the sacrifice required in the law of the Lord—"either a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."*

THE PROPHECY OF SIMEON

<sup>25</sup>At that time there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon. He was righteous and devout and was eagerly waiting for the Messiah to come and rescue Israel. The Holy Spirit was upon him <sup>26</sup>and had revealed to him that he would not die until he had seen the Lord's Messiah. <sup>27</sup>That day the Spirit led him to the Temple. So when Mary and Joseph came to present the baby Jesus to the Lord as the law required, <sup>28</sup>Simeon was there. He took the child in his arms and praised God, saying,

"Sovereign Lord, now let your servant die in peace,
as you have promised.

<sup>30</sup> I have seen your salvation,

<sup>31</sup> which you have prepared for all people.

<sup>12</sup> He is a light to reveal God to the nations, and he is the glory of your people Israel!"

<sup>13</sup>Jesus' parents were amazed at what was being said about him. <sup>34</sup>Then Simeon blessed them, and he said to Mary, the baby's mother, "This child is destined to cause many in Israel to fall, and many others to rise. He has been sent as a sign from God, but many will oppose him.<sup>35</sup> As a result, the deepest thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your very soul.”

THE PROPHECY OF ANNA

<sup>36</sup> Anna, a prophet, was also there in the Temple. She was the daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher, and she was very old. Her husband died when they had been married only seven years. <sup>37</sup> Then she lived as a widow to the age of eighty-four.* She never left the Temple but stayed there day and night, worshiping God with fasting and prayer.<sup>38</sup> She came along just as Simon was talking with Mary and Joseph, and she began praising God. She talked about the child to everyone who had been waiting expectantly for God to rescue Jerusalem.

<sup>39</sup> When Jesus’ parents had fulfilled all the requirements of the law of the Lord, they returned home to Nazareth in Galilee.<sup>40</sup> There the child grew up healthy and strong. He was filled with wisdom, and God’s favor was on him.

JESUS SPEAKS WITH THE TEACHERS

<sup>41</sup> Every year Jesus’ parents went to Jerusalem for the Passover festival.<sup>42</sup> When Jesus was twelve years old, they attended the festival as usual.

<sup>43</sup> After the celebration was over, they started home to Nazareth, but Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents didn’t miss him at first,<sup>44</sup> because they assumed he was among the other travelers. But when he didn’t show up that evening, they started looking for him among their relatives and friends.

<sup>45</sup> When they couldn’t find him, they went back to Jerusalem to search for him there.

<sup>46</sup> Three days later they finally discovered him in the Temple, sitting among the religious teachers, listening to them and asking questions.<sup>47</sup> All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

<sup>48</sup> His parents didn’t know what to think. “Son,” his mother said to him, “why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been frantic, searching for you everywhere.”

<sup>49</sup> “But why did you need to search?” he asked. “Didn’t you know that I must be in my Father’s house?”<sup>50</sup> But they didn’t understand what he meant.

<sup>51</sup> Then he returned to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. And his mother stored all these things in her heart.

<sup>52</sup> Jesus grew in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and all the people.

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

THE EDGE OF REPENTANCE

Luke 3:1–14

JACK HAYFORD

Your spiritual life is like a garden. When you come under God’s rule and make Jesus your Lord and King, you till the soil and plant the seed. Over time, though, weeds try to grow between the rows. Jesus will guide you by saying, “You’re going to have to stop doing that.” He wants you to acknowledge His words of warning and act immediately—cut the weeds.

John the Baptist preached the baptism of repentance in the wilderness. He said, “Every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire” (Luke 3:9).

Repentance is the antidote to stop the weeds. There are specific issues in our hearts that need to be cut and rooted out, like lust, unforgiveness, pride, etc. Repentance stops the spread of spiritual disease and cuts down root beliefs and attitudes so we can become more and more like Christ.

over Abilene.<sup>2</sup> Annas and Caiaphas were the high priests. At this time a message from God came to John son of Zechariah, who was living in the wilderness.<sup>3</sup> Then John went from place to place on both sides of the Jordan River, preaching that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven.<sup>4</sup> Isaiah had spoken of John when he said,

“He is a voice shouting in the wilderness,
‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!
Clear the road for him!’

<sup>5</sup> The valleys will be filled, and the mountains and hills made level.
The curves will be straightened, and the rough places made smooth.

<sup>6</sup> And then all people will see the salvation sent from God.”<sup>7</sup>*

<sup>7</sup> When the crowds came to John for baptism, he said, “You brood of snakes! Who warned you to flee the coming wrath?”<sup>8</sup> Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to God. Don’t just say to each other, ‘We’re safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.’ That means nothing, for I tell you, God can create children of Abraham from these very stones.<sup>9</sup> Even now the ax of God’s judgment is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire.”

2:37 Or She had been a widow for eighty-four years. 2:49 Or “Didn’t you realize that I should be involved with my Father’s affairs?” 3:1a Greek Herod was tetrarch. Herod Antipas was a son of King Herod. 3:1b Greek tetrarch; also in 3:1c. 3:4–6 Isa 40:3–5 (Greek version).

<sup>10</sup> The crowds asked, "What should we do?"

<sup>11</sup> John replied, "If you have two shirts, give one to the poor. If you have food, share it with those who are hungry."

<sup>12</sup> Even corrupt tax collectors came to be baptized and asked, "Teacher, what should we do?"

John replied, "Don't extort money or make false accusations. And be content with your pay."

<sup>15</sup> Everyone was expecting the Messiah to come soon, and they were eager to know whether John might be the Messiah. <sup>16</sup> John answered their questions by saying, "I baptize you with * water; but someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I'm not even worthy to be his slave and untie the straps of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.* <sup>17</sup> He is ready to separate the chaff from the wheat with his winnowing fork. Then he will clean up the threshing area, gathering the wheat into his barn but burning the chaff with never-ending fire."<sup>18</sup> John used many such warnings as he announced the Good News to the people.

<sup>19</sup> John also publicly criticized Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,* for marrying Herodias, his brother's wife, and for many other wrongs he had done. <sup>20</sup> So Herod put John in prison, adding this sin to his many others.

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

<sup>21</sup> One day when the crowds were being baptized, Jesus himself was baptized. As he was praying, the heavens opened, <sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit, in bodily form, descended on him like a dove. And a voice from heaven said, "You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy."<sup>23</sup>

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

4 Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan River. He was led by the Spirit in the wilderness,*<sup>2</sup> where he was tempted by the devil for forty days. Jesus ate nothing all that time and became very hungry.

<sup>3</sup> Then the devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread."

<sup>4</sup> But Jesus told him, "No! The Scriptures say, 'People do not live by bread alone.'"

<sup>5</sup> Then the devil took him up and revealed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>6</sup> "I will give you the glory of these kingdoms and authority over them," the devil said, "because they are mine to give to anyone I please. <sup>7</sup> I will give it all to you if you will worship me."

<sup>8</sup> Jesus replied, "The Scriptures say,

'You must worship the LORD your God
 and serve only him.'<sup>9</sup>"

<sup>9</sup> Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple, and said, "If you are the Son of God, jump off! <sup>10</sup> For the Scriptures say,

'He will order his angels to protect and guard you.

<sup>11</sup> And they will hold you up with their hands so you won't even hurt your foot on a stone.'<sup>12</sup>"

<sup>12</sup> Jesus responded, "The Scriptures also say, 'You must not test the LORD your God.'<sup>13</sup>"

<sup>13</sup> When the devil had finished tempting Jesus, he left him until the next opportunity came.

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus returned to Galilee, filled with the Holy Spirit's power. Reports about him spread quickly through the whole region. <sup>15</sup> He taught regularly in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

<sup>16</sup> When he came to the village of Nazareth, his boyhood home, he went as usual to the synagogue on the Sabbath and stood up to read the Scriptures. <sup>17</sup> The scroll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where this was written:

<sup>18</sup> "The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released,
 that the blind will see,
 that the oppressed will be set free,

HEALED

Luke 4:14-30

ROBERT MORRIS

If you're saved, then God has healed your spirit. He has made your spirit whole. But what about your soul and body? Does God want to make them whole too? According to the Bible, yes! He does!

1. Physical Healing

In Exodus 15:26, God not only says what He does (heals) but also who He is—Jehovah Rapha, the Lord who heals. Over and over again in Scripture, "God heals people who have physical sicknesses and diseases. For a few examples, see Exodus 23:25; Deuteronomy 7:15; Psalm 103:2-3; Isaiah 53:4; Matthew 4:23; and John 6:28. Hebrews 13:8 says God never changes, so since He healed in the Old and New Testaments, then He still heals today. Jesus never healed people to draw attention to Himself or to prove He was the Messiah. He healed people because He cared about them, and He cares about you too!

2. Emotional Healing

We wouldn't tell someone with a broken arm to "Get over it!" and we can't say that to someone with a broken heart either. Many people have deep emotional wounds that have never healed. Their hearts have been broken through harsh words, disappointments, and tragedies. The most common and longest lasting wound is rejection. Every single person has experienced rejection at some point in life, and this wound can hold us in terrible bondage. But here is the Good News: Jesus came to set you free! He doesn't want you just to cope with your problems—He wants to heal you from them! Will you let Him make you whole in your body, soul, and spirit?

 has come.*<sup>20</sup>

<sup>20</sup> He rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the attendant, and sat down. All eyes in the synagogue looked at him intently. <sup>21</sup> Then he began to speak to them. "The Scripture you've just heard has been fulfilled this very day!"

<sup>22</sup> Everyone spoke well of him and was amazed by the gracious words that came from his lips. "How can this be?" they asked. "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

<sup>23</sup> Then he said, "You will undoubtedly quote me this proverb: 'Physician, heal yourself'—meaning, 'Do miracles here in your hometown like those you did in Capernaum.' <sup>24</sup> But I tell

THE MINISTRY OF JESUS

Luke 4:16–19

ROBERT MORRIS

In Luke 4, Jesus tells the people who He really is and what He came to do. Hebrews 13:8 says, “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever,” but many churches today preach about a different Jesus. This “Jesus” can save you and get you to heaven, but He doesn’t have any power to help you on this earth. Let me be clear—the real Jesus can help you. That’s why God sent Him to earth!

Here are the five foundational ministries of Jesus:

1. Salvation

Jesus came to preach the gospel—the Good News—which is this: All people are sinners and completely lost. We cannot do anything to change our situation, so God sent Jesus to die on the cross and redeem us from our sins. Christianity is different from every other religion because it doesn’t require you to work your way into heaven. Instead, salvation is by grace through faith. Salvation was the first and primary ministry of Jesus, and it must be ours as well.

2. Healing

Jesus came so “the blind will see” (Luke 4:18). This recovery of sight applies both to spiritual and physical healing. Yes, we want to see people healed physically, but we also want to see them no longer oppressed by the devil. Acts 10:38 says, “Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.” Since Jesus doesn’t change, He still heals people today.

3. Inner healing

Jesus came to heal broken-hearted people. How many times has your heart been hurt, bruised, or even shattered in a relationship? If your heart and emotions don’t get healed properly, they will affect how much you can do on this earth and how you relate to other people. Jesus doesn’t teach people how to cope; He sets them free. He wants to heal our hearts completely so we can love and trust again.

4. Deliverance

Jesus came not only to save us from our sins but also to free us from our sins. Demons still exist today, and even believers can be in bondage to spirits of unforgiveness, anger, envy, pride, lying, lust, etc. Demons tried to talk to Jesus, and they will try to speak with you too. It doesn’t mean you’re a bad person; you just need deliverance. Jesus came to set us free from every evil spirit.

5. Baptism in the Holy Spirit

Jesus did not begin His ministry until He was baptized in the Holy Spirit (Luke 3:21–22). And the last instruction He gave His followers before returning to heaven was to stay in Jerusalem and “receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you” (Acts 1:8). If Jesus and His disciples needed the power of the Holy Spirit on earth, how much more do we need that same power?

you the truth, no prophet is accepted in his own hometown.

<sup>25</sup>“Certainly there were many needy widows in Israel in Elijah’s time, when the heavens were closed for three and a half years, and a severe famine devastated the land. <sup>26</sup>Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them. He was sent instead to a foreigner—a widow of Zarephath in the land of Sidon. <sup>27</sup>And many in Israel had leprosy in the time of the prophet Elisha, but the only one healed was Naaman, a Syrian.”

<sup>28</sup>When they heard this, the people in the synagogue were furious. <sup>29</sup>Jumping up, they mobbed him and forced him to the edge of the hill on which the town was built. They intended to push him over the cliff, <sup>30</sup>but he passed right through the crowd and went on his way.

JESUS CASTS OUT A DEMON

<sup>31</sup>Then Jesus went to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and taught there in the synagogue every Sabbath day. <sup>32</sup>There, too, the people were amazed at his teaching, for he spoke with authority.

<sup>33</sup>Once when he was in the synagogue, a man possessed by a demon—an evil spirit—cried out, shouting, <sup>34</sup>“Go away! Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!”

<sup>35</sup>But Jesus reprimanded him. “Be quiet! Come out of the man,” he ordered. At that, the demon threw the man to the floor as the crowd watched; then it came out of him without hurting him further.

<sup>36</sup>Amazed, the people exclaimed, “What authority and power this man’s words possess! Even evil spirits obey him, and they flee at his command!” <sup>37</sup>The news about Jesus spread through every village in the entire region.

JESUS HEALS MANY PEOPLE

<sup>38</sup>After leaving the synagogue that day, Jesus went to Simon’s home, where he found Simon’s mother-in-law very sick with a high fever. “Please heal her,” everyone begged. <sup>39</sup>Standing at her bedside, he rebuked the fever, and it left her. And she got up at once and prepared a meal for them.

<sup>40</sup>As the sun went down that evening, people throughout the village brought sick family members to Jesus. No matter what their diseases were, the touch of his hand healed every one.

4:33 Greek unclean; also in 4:36.

<sup>41</sup> Many were possessed by demons; and the demons came out at his command, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” But because they knew he was the Messiah, he rebuked them and refused to let them speak.

JESUS CONTINUES TO PREACH

<sup>42</sup> Early the next morning Jesus went out to an isolated place. The crowds searched everywhere for him, and when they finally found him, they begged him not to leave them. <sup>43</sup> But he replied, “I must preach the Good News of the Kingdom of God in other towns, too, because that is why I was sent.” <sup>44</sup> So he continued to travel around, preaching in synagogues throughout Judea.*

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

5 One day as Jesus was preaching on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, great crowds pressed in on him to listen to the word of God. <sup>2</sup> He noticed two empty boats at the water’s edge, for the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. <sup>3</sup> Stepping into one of the boats, Jesus asked Simon,* its owner, to push it out into the water. So he sat in the boat and taught the crowds from there.

<sup>4</sup> When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Now go out where it is deeper, and let down your nets to catch some fish.”

<sup>5</sup> “Master,” Simon replied, “we worked hard all last night and didn’t catch a thing. But if you say so, I’ll let the nets down again.” <sup>6</sup> And this time their nets were so full of fish they began to tear! <sup>7</sup> A shout for help brought their partners in the other boat, and soon both boats were filled with fish and on the verge of sinking.

<sup>8</sup> When Simon Peter realized what had happened, he fell to his knees before Jesus and said, “Oh, Lord, please leave me—I’m such a sinful man.” <sup>9</sup> For he was awestruck by the number of fish they had caught, as were the others with him. <sup>10</sup> His partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were also amazed.

Jesus replied to Simon, “Don’t be afraid! From now on you’ll be fishing for people!” <sup>11</sup> And as soon as they landed, they left everything and followed Jesus.

JESUS HEALS A MAN WITH LEPROSY

<sup>12</sup> In one of the villages, Jesus met a man with an advanced case of leprosy. When the man saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground, begging to be healed. “Lord,” he said, “if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean.”

<sup>13</sup> Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” And instantly the leprosy disappeared. <sup>14</sup> Then Jesus instructed him not to tell anyone what had happened. He said, “Go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

CHOSEN FOR HIS PURPOSE

Luke 5:1–11

JACK HAYFORD

In Luke 5:8, Peter falls to his knees and says to Jesus, “Oh, Lord, please leave me—I’m such a sinful man.” God wants us to see what happens when people seek Him on their knees at His feet. It is there at Jesus’ feet that things begin to happen and transformation takes place.

God does not want you to be afraid because of your limitations. As with Peter, He can handle you with all your weaknesses if you give Him everything you have. Don’t let anything obstruct the full flow of God’s purpose in your life. The biggest miracles happen when a person’s whole life is forever changed. The enemy would like to stop you from getting on your knees, but you cannot be afraid to expect God to do great things. Come to Jesus’ feet and allow Him to work bigger things than you can ever imagine.

<sup>15</sup> But despite Jesus’ instructions, the report of his power spread even faster, and vast crowds came to hear him preach and to be healed of their diseases. <sup>16</sup> But Jesus often withdrew to the wilderness for prayer.

JESUS HEALS A PARALYZED MAN

<sup>17</sup> One day while Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and teachers of religious law were sitting nearby. (It seemed that these men showed up from every village in all Galilee and Judea, as well as from Jerusalem.) And the Lord’s healing power was strongly with Jesus.

<sup>18</sup> Some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a sleeping mat. They tried to take him inside to Jesus, <sup>19</sup> but they couldn’t reach him because of the crowd. So they went up to the roof and took off some tiles. Then they lowered the sick man on his mat down into the crowd, right in front of Jesus. <sup>20</sup> Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the man, “Young man, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>21</sup> But the Pharisees and teachers of religious law said to themselves, “Who does he think he is? That’s blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you question this in your hearts? <sup>23</sup> Is it easier to say ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up and walk’? <sup>24</sup> So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!”

<sup>25</sup> And immediately, as everyone watched, the man jumped up, picked up his mat, and went home praising God. <sup>26</sup> Everyone was gripped

4:44 Some manuscripts read Galilee. 5:1 Greek Lake Gennesaret, another name for the Sea of Galilee. 5:3 Simon is called “Peter” in 6:14 and thereafter. 5:14 See Lev 14:2–32. 5:24 “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself.

with great wonder and awe, and they praised God, exclaiming, “We have seen amazing things today!”

JESUS CALLS LEVI (MATTHEW)

<sup>27</sup> Later, as Jesus left the town, he saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. <sup>28</sup> So Levi got up, left everything, and followed him.

<sup>29</sup> Later, Levi held a banquet in his home with Jesus as the guest of honor. Many of Levi’s fellow tax collectors and other guests also ate with them. <sup>30</sup> But the Pharisees and their teachers of religious law complained bitterly to Jesus’ disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with such scum?”

<sup>31</sup> Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. <sup>32</sup> I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.

A DISCUSSION ABOUT FASTING

<sup>33</sup> One day some people said to Jesus, “John the Baptist’s disciples fast and pray regularly, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. Why are your disciples always eating and drinking?”

<sup>36</sup> Then Jesus gave them this illustration: “No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and uses it to patch an old garment. For then the new garment would be ruined, and the new patch wouldn’t even match the old garment.

<sup>37</sup> “And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the new wine would burst the wineskins, spilling the wine and ruining the skins.

A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE SABBATH

6 One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples broke off heads of grain, rubbed off the husks in their hands, and ate the grain. <sup>2</sup> But some Pharisees said, “Why are you breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus replied, “Haven’t you read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? <sup>4</sup> He went into the house of God and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests can eat. He also gave some to his companions.” <sup>5</sup> And Jesus added, “The Son of Man* is Lord, even over the Sabbath.”

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

<sup>6</sup> On another Sabbath day, a man with a deformed right hand was in the synagogue while Jesus was teaching. <sup>7</sup> The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees watched Jesus closely. If he healed the man’s hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath.

<sup>8</sup> But Jesus knew their thoughts. He said to the man with the deformed hand, “Come and stand in front of everyone.” So the man came forward. <sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to his critics, “I have a question for you. Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?”

<sup>10</sup> He looked around at them one by one and then said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! <sup>11</sup> At this, the enemies of Jesus were wild with rage and began to discuss what to do with him.

JESUS CHOOSES THE TWELVE APOSTLES

<sup>12</sup> One day soon afterward Jesus went up on a mountain to pray, and he prayed to God all night.

<sup>13</sup> At daybreak he called together all of his disciples and chose twelve of them to be apostles. Here are their names:

Andrew (Peter’s brother),

James,
John,
Philip,
Bartholomew,

<sup>15</sup> Matthew,
Thomas,
James (son of Alphaeus),
Simon (who was called the zealot),

<sup>16</sup> Judas (son of James),
Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).

CROWDS FOLLOW JESUS

<sup>17</sup> When they came down from the mountain, the disciples stood with Jesus on a large, level area, surrounded by many of his followers and by the crowds. There were people from all over Judea and from Jerusalem and from as far north as the seacoasts of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>18</sup> They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those troubled by evil* spirits were healed. <sup>19</sup> Everyone tried to touch him, because healing power went out from him, and he healed everyone.

THE BEATITUDES

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus turned to his disciples and said, “God blesses you who are poor, for the Kingdom of God is yours.

<sup>21</sup> God blesses you who are hungry now, for you will be satisfied.

God blesses you who weep now, for in due time you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup>What blessings await you when people hate you and exclude you and mock you and curse you as evil because you follow the Son of Man. <sup>23</sup>When that happens, be happy! Yes, leap for joy! For a great reward awaits you in heaven. And remember, their ancestors treated the ancient prophets that same way.

SORROWS FORETOLD

<sup>24</sup>“What sorrow awaits you who are rich, for you have your only happiness now. <sup>25</sup>What sorrow awaits you who are fat and prosperous now, for a time of awful hunger awaits you. What sorrow awaits you who laugh now, for your laughing will turn to mourning and sorrow. <sup>26</sup>What sorrow awaits you who are praised by the crowds, for their ancestors also praised false prophets.

LOVE FOR ENEMIES

<sup>27</sup>“But to you who are willing to listen, I say, love your enemies! Do good to those who hate you. <sup>28</sup>Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who hurt you. <sup>29</sup>If someone slaps you on one cheek, offer the other cheek also. If someone demands your coat, offer your shirt also. <sup>30</sup>Give to anyone who asks; and when things are taken away from you, don’t try to get them back. <sup>31</sup>Do to others as you would like them to do to you. <sup>32</sup>“If you love only those who love you, why should you get credit for that? Even sinners love those who love them! <sup>33</sup>And if you do good only to those who do good to you, why should you get credit? Even sinners do that much! <sup>34</sup>And if you lend money only to those who can repay you, why should you get credit? Even sinners will lend to other sinners for a full return.

<sup>35</sup>“Love your enemies! Do good to them. Lend to them without expecting to be repaid. Then your reward from heaven will be very great, and you will truly be acting as children of the Most High, for he is kind to those who are unthankful and wicked. <sup>36</sup>You must be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate.

DO NOT JUDGE OTHERS

<sup>37</sup>“Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn others, or it will all come back against you. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven. <sup>38</sup>Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back.”

<sup>39</sup>Then Jesus gave the following illustration: “Can one blind person lead another? Won’t they both fall into a ditch? <sup>40</sup>Students* are not greater than their teacher. But the student who is fully trained will become like the teacher.

<sup>41</sup>“And why worry about a speck in your friend’s eye* when you have a log in your own? <sup>42</sup>How can you think of saying, ‘Friend,* let me help you get rid of that speck in your eye,’ when you can’t see past the log in your own eye? Hypocrite! First get rid of the log in your own eye; then you will see well enough to deal with the speck in your friend’s eye.

THE TREE AND ITS FRUIT

BUILDING ON A SOLID FOUNDATION

<sup>46</sup>“So why do you keep calling me ‘Lord, Lord!’ when you don’t do what I say? <sup>47</sup>I will show you what it’s like when someone comes to me, listens to my teaching, and then follows it. <sup>48</sup>It is like a person building a house who digs deep and lays the foundation on solid rock. When the floodwaters rise and break against that house, it stands firm because it is well built. <sup>49</sup>But anyone who hears and doesn’t obey is like a person who builds a house right on the ground, without a foundation. When the floods sweep down against that house, it will collapse into a heap of ruins.”

IT’S ALL ABOUT THE HEART

Luke 6:38

ROBERT MORRIS

Many people read Luke 6:38 and think Jesus is talking only about money: “Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap.” While this verse does apply to our finances, it also applies to forgiveness, mercy, understanding, and patience.

We must remember that God does not bless the mere act of giving; rather, He blesses giving from a right heart attitude. Personal gain should not be our motivation. When you were born in the natural, you were born selfish. But when you were born again into God’s family, you were born generous. Genuine gratitude is powerful, and a heart of gratitude is vital for creating a lifestyle of generosity. Joy-filled giving is what God desires from us. God wants us to be generous in our giving because He is generous in His.

6:38 Or The measure you give will be the measure you get back.

THE FAITH OF A ROMAN OFFICER

7 When Jesus had finished saying all this to the people, he returned to Capernaum. <sup>2</sup>At that time the highly valued slave of a Roman officer* was sick and near death. <sup>3</sup>When the officer heard about Jesus, he sent some respected Jewish elders to ask him to come and heal his slave. <sup>4</sup>“So they earnestly begged Jesus to help the man. “If anyone deserves your help, he does,” they said, <sup>5</sup>“for he loves the Jewish people and even built a synagogue for us.”

<sup>6</sup>So Jesus went with them. But just before they arrived at the house, the officer sent some friends to say, “Lord, don’t trouble yourself by coming to my home, for I am not worthy of such an honor. <sup>7</sup>I am not even worthy to come and meet you. Just say the word from where you are, and my servant will be healed. <sup>8</sup>I know this because I am under the authority of my superior officers, and I have authority over my soldiers. I only need to say, ‘Go,’ and they go, or ‘Come,’ and they come. And if I say to my slaves, ‘Do this,’ they do it.”

<sup>9</sup>When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. Turning to the crowd that was following him, he said, “I tell you, I haven’t seen faith like this in all Israel!” <sup>10</sup>And when the officer’s friends returned to his house, they found the slave completely healed.

JESUS RAISES A WIDOW’S SON

<sup>11</sup>Soon afterward Jesus went with his disciples to the village of Nain, and a large crowd followed him. <sup>12</sup>A funeral procession was coming out as he approached the village gate. The young man who had died was a widow’s only son, and a large crowd from the village was with her. <sup>13</sup>When the Lord saw her, his heart overflowed with compassion. “Don’t cry!” he said. <sup>14</sup>Then he walked over to the coffin and touched it, and the bearers stopped. “Young man,” he said, “I tell you, get up.” <sup>15</sup>Then the dead boy sat up and began to talk! And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup>Great fear swept the crowd, and they praised God, saying, “A mighty prophet has risen among us,” and “God has visited his people today.” <sup>17</sup>And the news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding countryside.

JESUS AND JOHN THE BAPTIST

<sup>18</sup>The disciples of John the Baptist told John about everything Jesus was doing. So John called for two of his disciples, <sup>19</sup>and he sent them to the Lord to ask him, “Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting, or should we keep looking for someone else?”

<sup>20</sup>John’s two disciples found Jesus and said to him, “John the Baptist sent us to ask, ‘Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting, or should we keep looking for someone else?’”

<sup>21</sup>At that very time, Jesus cured many people of their diseases, illnesses, and evil spirits, and he restored sight to many who were blind. <sup>22</sup>Then he told John’s disciples, “Go back to John and tell him what you have seen and heard—the blind see, the lame walk, those with leprosy are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life, and the Good News is being preached to the poor.” <sup>23</sup>And he added, “God blesses those who do not fall away because of me.”*

<sup>24</sup>After John’s disciples left, Jesus began talking about him to the crowds. “What kind of man did you go into the wilderness to see? Was he a weak reed, swayed by every breath of wind? <sup>25</sup>Or were you expecting to see a man dressed in expensive clothes? No, people who wear beautiful clothes and live in luxury are found in palaces. <sup>26</sup>Were you looking for a prophet? Yes, and he is more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup>John is the man to whom the Scriptures refer when they say,

‘Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you,
and he will prepare your way before you.’*

<sup>28</sup>I tell you, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John. Yet even the least person in the Kingdom of God is greater than he is!”

<sup>29</sup>When they heard this, all the people—even the tax collectors—agreed that God’s way was right,* for they had been baptized by John. <sup>30</sup>But the Pharisees and experts in religious law rejected God’s plan for them, for they had refused John’s baptism.

<sup>31</sup>“To what can I compare the people of this generation?” Jesus asked. “How can I describe them? <sup>32</sup>They are like children playing a game in the public square. They complain to their friends,

‘We played wedding songs,
and you didn’t dance,
so we played funeral songs,
and you didn’t weep.’

<sup>33</sup>For John the Baptist didn’t spend his time eating bread or drinking wine, and you say, ‘He’s possessed by a demon.’ <sup>34</sup>The Son of Man,* on the other hand, feasts and drinks, and you say, ‘He’s a glutton and a drunkard, and a friend of tax collectors and other sinners!’ <sup>35</sup>But wisdom is shown to be right by the lives of those who follow it.”*

JESUS ANOINTED BY A SINFUL WOMAN

<sup>36</sup>One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to have dinner with him, so Jesus went to his home and sat down to eat. <sup>37</sup>When a certain immoral woman from that city heard he was eating there, she brought a beautiful alabaster jar filled with expensive perfume. <sup>38</sup>Then she knelt behind him at his feet, weeping. Her tears fell on his feet, and she wiped them off with her hair. Then she kept kissing his feet and putting perfume on them.

<sup>39</sup> When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know what kind of woman is touching him. She's a sinner!"

<sup>40</sup> Then Jesus answered his thoughts. "Simon," he said to the Pharisee, "I have something to say to you."

"Go ahead, Teacher," Simon replied.

<sup>41</sup> Then Jesus told him this story: "A man loaned money to two people—500 pieces of silver* to one and 50 pieces to the other. <sup>42</sup> But neither of them could repay him, so he kindly forgave them both, canceling their debts. Who do you suppose loved him more after that?"

"That's right," Jesus said. <sup>44</sup> Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, "Look at this woman kneeling here. When I entered your home, you didn't offer me water to wash the dust from my feet, but she has washed them with her tears and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup> You didn't greet me with a kiss, but from the time I first came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet. <sup>46</sup> You neglected the courtesy of olive oil to anoint my head, but she has anointed my feet with rare perfume.

<sup>47</sup> "I tell you, her sins—and they are many—have been forgiven, so she has shown me much love. But a person who is forgiven little shows only little love." <sup>48</sup> Then Jesus said to the woman, "Your sins are forgiven."

<sup>50</sup> And Jesus said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

WOMEN WHO FOLLOWED JESUS

8 Soon afterward Jesus began a tour of the nearby towns and villages, preaching and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom of God. He took his twelve disciples with him, <sup>2</sup> along with some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases. Among them were Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons; <sup>3</sup> Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's business manager; Susanna; and many others who were contributing from their own resources to support Jesus and his disciples.

PARABLE OF THE FARMER SCATTERING SEED

<sup>4</sup> One day Jesus told a story in the form of a parable to a large crowd that had gathered from many towns to hear him: <sup>5</sup> "A farmer went out to plant his seed. As he scattered it across his field, some seed fell on a footpath, where it was stepped on, and the birds ate it. <sup>6</sup> Other seed fell among

PREPARING THE SOIL

Luke 8:4–15

ROBERT MORRIS

What kind of soil do you have? This may sound like a question about gardening, but it's actually a question about your heart. In the parable of the farmer scattering seed, Jesus says, "The seeds that fell on the good soil represent honest, good-hearted people who hear God's word, cling to it, and patiently produce a huge harvest" (Luke 8:15). The soil in this parable is a metaphor for the heart. When we have a good heart, God's Word can do its work in us, and we can bear fruit.

We have to be careful to protect our hearts from becoming hardened. When we enter God's presence through praise and worship, pride and pain are stripped away, and our hearts begin to soften. Telling God how much we love Him opens our hearts so we can receive what His Word has to say.

rocks. It began to grow, but the plant soon wilted and died for lack of moisture. <sup>7</sup> Other seed fell among thorns that grew up with it and choked out the tender plants. <sup>8</sup> Still other seed fell on fertile soil. This seed grew and produced a crop that was a hundred times as much as had been planted!" When he had said this, he called out, "Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand."

<sup>9</sup> His disciples asked him what this parable meant. <sup>10</sup> He replied, "You are permitted to understand the secrets* of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables to teach the others so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled:

"When they look, they won't really see.

When they hear, they won't understand."*

<sup>11</sup> "This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is God's word. <sup>12</sup> The seeds that fell on the footpath represent those who hear the message, only to have the devil come and take it away from their hearts and prevent them from believing and being saved. <sup>13</sup> The seeds on the rocky soil represent those who hear the message and receive it with joy. But since they don't have deep roots, they believe for a while, then they fall away when they face temptation. <sup>14</sup> The seeds that fell among the thorns represent those who hear the message, but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the cares and riches and pleasures of this life. And so they never grow into maturity. <sup>15</sup> And the seeds that fell on the good soil represent honest, good-hearted people who hear God's word, cling to it, and patiently produce a huge harvest.

PARABLE OF THE LAMP

<sup>16</sup>"No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a bowl or hides it under a bed. A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light can be seen by all who enter the house. <sup>17</sup>For all that is secret will eventually be brought into the open, and everything that is concealed will be brought to light and made known to all.

<sup>18</sup>"So pay attention to how you hear. To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given. But for those who are not listening, even what they think they understand will be taken away from them."

THE TRUE FAMILY OF JESUS

<sup>19</sup>Then Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him, but they couldn't get to him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup>Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, and they want to see you."

<sup>21</sup>Jesus replied, "My mother and my brothers are all those who hear God's word and obey it."

JESUS CALMS THE STORM

<sup>22</sup>One day Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's cross to the other side of the lake." So they got into a boat and started out. <sup>23</sup>As they sailed across, Jesus settled down for a nap. But soon a fierce storm came down on the lake. The boat was filling with water, and they were in real danger.

<sup>24</sup>The disciples went and woke him up, shouting, "Master, Master, we're going to drown!"

When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and the raging waves. Suddenly the storm stopped and all was calm. <sup>25</sup>Then he asked them, "Where is your faith?"

The disciples were terrified and amazed. "Who is this man?" they asked each other.

WHAT'S IN A TOUCH?

Luke 8:41-47

OLEN GRIFFING

If you have a problem, you are a candidate for a miracle. God wants to set us free for His glorious purpose, and this happens when we touch Jesus.

The woman with constant bleeding had a strategy. She heard about the power of Jesus, and she was determined to touch Him. In the same way, God wants you to determine a strategy through prayer for your own needs and then press forward. That is exactly what this woman did, and she received her miracle. Begin to pursue God's touch in your life, and you will find yourself on the road to a miracle.

God has a solution for every problem you face. His power is able to do the miraculous in your life. When you intentionally connect to God's power, you will experience complete wholeness—in body, soul, and spirit. Press into Jesus for His touch and never give up.

"When he gives a command, even the wind and waves obey him!"

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED MAN

<sup>26</sup>So they arrived in the region of the Gerasenes,* across the lake from Galilee. <sup>27</sup>As Jesus was climbing out of the boat, a man who was possessed by demons came out to meet him. For a long time he had been homeless and naked, living in the tombs outside the town.

<sup>28</sup>As soon as he saw Jesus, he shrieked and fell down in front of him. Then he screamed, "Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Please, I beg you, don't torture me!" <sup>29</sup>For Jesus had already commanded the evil* spirit to come out of him. This spirit had often taken control of the man. Even when he was placed under guard and put in chains and shackles, he simply broke them and rushed out into the wilderness, completely under the demon's power.

"Legion," he replied, for he was filled with many demons. <sup>31</sup>The demons kept begging Jesus not to send them into the bottomless pit.*

<sup>32</sup>There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby, and the demons begged him to let them enter into the pigs.

So Jesus gave them permission. <sup>33</sup>Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned.

<sup>34</sup>When the herdsmen saw it, they fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. <sup>35</sup>People rushed out to see what had happened. A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been freed from the demons. He was sitting at Jesus' feet, fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. <sup>36</sup>Then those who had seen what happened told the others how the demon-possessed man had been healed. <sup>37</sup>And all the people in the region of the Gerasenes begged Jesus to go away and leave them alone, for a great wave of fear swept over them.

So Jesus returned to the boat and left, crossing back to the other side of the lake. <sup>38</sup>The man who had been freed from the demons begged to go with him. But Jesus sent him home, saying, <sup>39</sup>"No, go back to your family, and tell them everything God has done for you." So he went all through the town proclaiming the great things Jesus had done for him.

JESUS HEALS IN RESPONSE TO FAITH

<sup>40</sup>On the other side of the lake the crowds welcomed Jesus, because they had been waiting for him. <sup>41</sup>Then a man named Jairus, a leader of

MY CHRISTIAN CALLING

Luke 9:1

ROBERT MORRIS

When I think of calling, I think of Jesus calling the disciples. He called 12 men to be His followers, and He also calls you and me. Here are three words to help us better understand what it means to follow Jesus:

1. Knowing

Jesus called the disciples to preach the gospel, cast out demons, and heal the sick (Luke 9:1-2). But before He called them to do those things, Jesus called the men to “accompany him”—to be with Him (Mark 3:14). Being with Jesus was their number one priority, and as Christians, this is our first and primary calling too. We have no power to preach, heal, or cast anything out without Him. Like extension cords, we have no power within ourselves. We are only effective when we are plugged into the Source.

2. Growing

In John 15:5, Jesus says, “I am the vine; you are the branches.” Branches can only grow and bear fruit if they are connected to a living source. Second Peter 3:18 says, “You must grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.” As believers, growing is part of our calling, no matter how long we have been saved. We should all desire God’s Word in the same way a new baby desires milk (1 Peter 2:2).

3. Glowing

We are not the light, but we know the Light—Jesus (John 8:12). The more we know Him, the more He shines through us and the more we reflect Him, just as the moon reflects the sun. All Christians have been called to bring light to this dark world. But we will only glow when we grow, and we will only grow when we know Jesus.

the local synagogue, came and fell at Jesus’ feet, pleading with him to come home with him.<sup>42</sup> His only daughter,* who was about twelve years old, was dying.

As Jesus went with him, he was surrounded by the crowds.<sup>43</sup> A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding,* and she could find no cure.<sup>44</sup> Coming up behind Jesus, she touched the fringe of his robe. Immediately, the bleeding stopped.

<sup>45</sup> “Who touched me?” Jesus asked.

Everyone denied it, and Peter said, “Master, this whole crowd is pressing up against you.”

<sup>46</sup> But Jesus said, “Someone deliberately touched me, for I felt healing power go out from me.”<sup>47</sup> When the woman realized that she could not stay hidden, she began to tremble and fell to her knees in front of him. The whole crowd heard her explain why she had touched him and that she had been immediately healed.<sup>48</sup> “Daughter,” he said to her, “your faith has made you well. Go in peace.”

<sup>49</sup> While he was still speaking to her, a messenger arrived from the home of Jairus, the leader of the synagogue. He told him, “Your daughter is dead. There’s no use troubling the Teacher now.”

<sup>50</sup> But when Jesus heard what had happened, he said to Jairus, “Don’t be afraid. Just have faith, and she will be healed.”

<sup>51</sup> When they arrived at the house, Jesus wouldn’t let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, James, and the little girl’s father and mother.<sup>52</sup> The house was filled with people weeping and wailing, but he said, “Stop the weeping! She isn’t dead; she’s only asleep.”

<sup>53</sup> But the crowd laughed at him because they all knew she had died.<sup>54</sup> Then Jesus took her by the hand and said in a loud voice, “My child, get up!”<sup>55</sup> And at that moment her life* returned, and she immediately stood up! Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat.<sup>56</sup> Her parents were overwhelmed, but Jesus insisted that they not tell anyone what had happened.

JESUS SENDS OUT THE TWELVE DISCIPLES

9 One day Jesus called together his twelve disciples* and gave them power and authority to cast out all demons and to heal all diseases.<sup>2</sup> Then he sent them out to tell everyone about the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick.<sup>3</sup> “Take nothing for your journey,” he instructed them. “Don’t take a walking stick, a traveler’s bag, food, money,* or even a change of clothes.”<sup>4</sup> Wherever you go, stay in the same house until you leave town.<sup>5</sup> And if a town refuses to welcome you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.*

HEROD’S CONFUSION

<sup>7</sup> When Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,* heard about everything Jesus was doing, he was puzzled. Some were saying that John the Baptist had been raised from the dead.<sup>8</sup> Others thought Jesus was Elijah or one of the other prophets risen from the dead.

<sup>9</sup> “I beheaded John,” Herod said, “so who is this man about whom I hear such stories?” And he kept trying to see him.

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

THE PRINCIPLE OF MULTIPLICATION

Luke 9:10-17

ROBERT MORRIS

Have you ever watched 12 guys try to organize 5,000 men plus women and children into groups of 50? Herding cats across Texas would be a breeze by comparison. Even more miraculously, Jesus used two fish and five loaves of bread to satisfy the entire crowd, and there were enough leftovers to fill 12 baskets.

The principle of multiplication requires that something must be blessed before it can multiply. The way our money is blessed and redeemed is by giving our firstfruits (the tithe). Jesus receives our tithes, and He is the only One with the power to bless them so they can multiply.

Additionally, only what is given away can multiply. If the disciples had simply kept the food for themselves, it would never have multiplied. It's when we give over and above our tithe that our finances have the potential to multiply.

Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup>But the crowds found out where he was going, and they followed him. He welcomed them and taught them about the Kingdom of God, and he healed those who were sick.

<sup>12</sup>Late in the afternoon the twelve disciples came to him and said, "Send the crowds away to the nearby villages and farms, so they can find food and lodging for the night. There is nothing to eat here in this remote place."

<sup>13</sup>But Jesus said, "You feed them."

"But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered. "Or are you expecting us to go and buy enough food for this whole crowd?"

<sup>14</sup>For there were about 5,000 men there.

Jesus replied, "Tell them to sit down in groups of about fifty each." <sup>15</sup>So the people all sat down. <sup>16</sup>Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread and fish to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. <sup>17</sup>They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers!

PETER'S DECLARATION ABOUT JESUS

<sup>18</sup>One day Jesus left the crowds to pray alone. Only his disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"

<sup>19</sup>"Well," they replied, "some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other ancient prophets risen from the dead."

<sup>20</sup>Then he asked them, "But who do you say I am?"

Peter replied, "You are the Messiah* sent from God!"

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>21</sup>Jesus warned his disciples not to tell anyone who he was. <sup>22</sup>"The Son of Man* must suffer many terrible things," he said. "He will be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He will be killed, but on the third day he will be raised from the dead."

<sup>23</sup>Then he said to the crowd, "If any of you wants to be my follower, you must give up your own way, take up your cross daily, and follow me."

<sup>24</sup>If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. <sup>25</sup>And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but are yourself lost or destroyed?

<sup>26</sup>If anyone is ashamed of me and my message, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in his glory and in the glory of the Father and the holy angels. <sup>27</sup>I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God."

THE TRANSFIGURATION

<sup>28</sup>About eight days later Jesus took Peter, John, and James up on a mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup>And as he was praying, the appearance of his face was transformed, and his clothes became dazzling white. <sup>30</sup>Suddenly, two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared and began talking with Jesus. <sup>31</sup>They were glorious to see. And they were speaking about his exodus from this world, which was about to be fulfilled in Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup>Peter and the others had fallen asleep. When they woke up, they saw Jesus' glory and the two men standing with him. <sup>33</sup>As Moses and Elijah were starting to leave, Peter, not even knowing what he was saying, blurted out, "Master, it's wonderful for us to be here! Let's make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." <sup>34</sup>But even as he was saying this, a cloud overshadowed them, and terror gripped them as the cloud covered them.

<sup>35</sup>Then a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, my Chosen One.* Listen to him." <sup>36</sup>When the voice finished, Jesus was there alone. They didn't tell anyone at that time what they had seen.

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED BOY

<sup>37</sup>The next day, after they had come down the mountain, a large crowd met Jesus. <sup>38</sup>A man in the crowd called out to him, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, my only child. <sup>39</sup>An evil spirit keeps seizing him, making him scream. It throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It batters him and hardly ever leaves him alone. <sup>40</sup>I begged your disciples to cast out the spirit, but they couldn't do it."

9:20 Or the Christ. Messiah (a Hebrew term) and Christ (a Greek term) both mean "anointed one." 9:22 "Son of Man" is a title Jesus used for himself. 9:33 Greek three tabernacles. 9:35 Some manuscripts read This is my dearly loved Son.

<sup>41</sup> Jesus said, "You faithless and corrupt people! How long must I be with you and put up with you?" Then he said to the man, "Bring your son here."

<sup>42</sup> As the boy came forward, the demon knocked him to the ground and threw him into a violent convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the evil* spirit and healed the boy. Then he gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup> Awe gripped the people as they saw this majestic display of God's power.

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

While everyone was marveling at everything he was doing, Jesus said to his disciples, <sup>44</sup> "Listen to me and remember what I say. The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies." <sup>45</sup> But they didn't know what he meant. Its significance was hidden from them, so they couldn't understand it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM

<sup>46</sup> Then his disciples began arguing about which of them was the greatest. <sup>47</sup> But Jesus knew their thoughts, so he brought a little child to his side. <sup>48</sup> Then he said to them, "Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me also welcomes my Father who sent me. Whoever is the least among you is the greatest."

USING THE NAME OF JESUS

<sup>49</sup> John said to Jesus, "Master, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he isn't in our group."

<sup>50</sup> But Jesus said, "Don't stop him! Anyone who is not against you is for you."

OPPOSITION FROM SAMARITANS

<sup>51</sup> As the time drew near for him to ascend to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem.

<sup>52</sup> He sent messengers ahead to a Samaritan village to prepare for his arrival. <sup>53</sup> But the people of the village did not welcome Jesus because he was on his way to Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup> When James and John saw this, they said to Jesus, "Lord, should we call down fire from heaven to burn them up?" <sup>55</sup> But Jesus turned and rebuked them. <sup>56</sup> So they went on to another village.

THE COST OF FOLLOWING JESUS

<sup>57</sup> As they were walking along, someone said to Jesus, "I will follow you wherever you go."

<sup>58</sup> But Jesus replied, "Foxes have dens to live in, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has no place even to lay his head."

<sup>59</sup> He said to another person, "Come, follow me."

The man agreed, but he said, "Lord, first let me return home and bury my father."

<sup>60</sup> But Jesus told him, "Let the spiritually dead bury their own dead!* Your duty is to go and preach about the Kingdom of God."

<sup>61</sup> Another said, "Yes, Lord, I will follow you, but first let me say good-bye to my family."

<sup>62</sup> But Jesus told him, "Anyone who puts a hand to the plow and then looks back is not fit for the Kingdom of God."

JESUS SENDS OUT HIS DISCIPLES

10 The Lord now chose seventy-two* other disciples and sent them ahead in pairs to all the towns and places he planned to visit.

<sup>2</sup> These were his instructions to them: "The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields. <sup>3</sup> Now go, and remember that I am sending you out as lambs among wolves. <sup>4</sup> Don't take any money with you, nor a traveler's bag, nor an extra pair of sandals. And don't stop to greet anyone on the road.

<sup>5</sup> "Whenever you enter someone's home, first say, 'May God's peace be on this house.' <sup>6</sup> If those who live there are peaceful, the blessing will stand; if they are not, the blessing will return to you. <sup>7</sup> Don't move around from home to home. Stay in one place, eating and drinking what they provide. Don't hesitate to accept hospitality, because those who work deserve their pay.

<sup>8</sup> "If you enter a town and it welcomes you, eat whatever is set before you. <sup>9</sup> Heal the sick, and tell them, 'The Kingdom of God is near you now.' <sup>10</sup> But if a town refuses to welcome you, go out into its streets and say, <sup>11</sup> 'We wipe even the dust of your town from our feet to show that we have abandoned you to your fate. And know this—the Kingdom of God is near!' <sup>12</sup> I assure you, even wicked Sodom will be better off than such a town on judgment day.

<sup>13</sup> "What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. <sup>14</sup> Yes, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you. <sup>15</sup> And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven? No, you will go down to the place of the dead."*

<sup>16</sup> Then he said to the disciples, "Anyone who accepts your message is also accepting me. And anyone who rejects you is rejecting me. And anyone who rejects me is rejecting God, who sent me."

<sup>17</sup> When the seventy-two disciples returned, they joyfully reported to him, "Lord, even the demons obey us when we use your name!"

UNDER THE INFLUENCE

Luke 10:17-20

ROBERT MORRIS

To be free as God intends us to be, we must understand three things:

1. There really are demons.

When Satan rebelled against God, he was cast out of heaven, and one-third of the angels fell with him. These fallen angels are called demons. Mark 5 tells about a man under the influence of a multitude of demons and how this bondage affected him.

2. Demons really do enter people.

Demons have one purpose: to steal, kill, and destroy (John 10:10). A Christian cannot be possessed by a demon in the sense of being owned, but a Christian can be under the control or influence of a demon.

3. Jesus really does cast demons out.

Jesus cast out demons when He ministered to people, and He has empowered us to do the same. He declares, "I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy" (Luke 10:19).

authority over all the power of the enemy, and you can walk among snakes and scorpions and crush them. Nothing will injure you.<sup>29</sup> But don't rejoice because evil spirits obey you; rejoice because your names are registered in heaven."

JESUS' PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

<sup>21</sup>At that same time Jesus was filled with the joy of the Holy Spirit, and he said, "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the child-like. Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way.

<sup>23</sup>Then when they were alone, he turned to the disciples and said, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you have seen.<sup>24</sup> I tell you, many prophets and kings longed to see what you see, but they didn't see it. And they longed to hear what you hear, but they didn't hear it."

THE MOST IMPORTANT COMMANDMENT

<sup>25</sup>One day an expert in religious law stood up to test Jesus by asking him this question: "Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>26</sup>Jesus replied, "What does the law of Moses say? How do you read it?"

<sup>27</sup>The man answered, "'You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind.' And, 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'"

<sup>28</sup>"Right!" Jesus told him. "Do this and you will live!"

BECOMING ONE SOUL

Luke 10:25-28

JIMMY EVANS

If you are married, God wants you and your spouse to become soul mates. True love is not just an emotion. It flows out of your total being—body, soul, and spirit. Becoming soul mates is based on choices, such as demonstrating empathy, being generous, and making your spouse a priority.

Don't believe soul mate lies that set you up for disappointment and failure. Some of these lies include:

— Your soul mate will be just like you.

— If you marry your soul mate, you won't have any big problems and will always be in love.

— Your soul mate will always make you happy and meet all of your needs.

God wants you to enjoy a lifelong marriage with your soul mate. Basic compatibility—in terms of shared faith and values—is important, but in the long run, it will be your choices that will determine the success of your marriage.

<sup>29</sup>The man wanted to justify his actions, so he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

<sup>30</sup>Jesus replied with a story: "A Jewish man was traveling from Jerusalem down to Jericho, and he was attacked by bandits. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him up, and left him half dead beside the road.

<sup>31</sup>"By chance a priest came along. But when he saw the man lying there, he crossed to the other side of the road and passed him by. <sup>32</sup>A Temple assistant* walked over and looked at him lying there, but he also passed by on the other side.

<sup>33</sup>"Then a despised Samaritan came along, and when he saw the man, he felt compassion for him. <sup>34</sup>Going over to him, the Samaritan soothed his wounds with olive oil and wine and bandaged them. Then he put the man on his own donkey and took him to an inn, where he took care of him. <sup>35</sup>The next day he handed the innkeeper two silver coins,* telling him, 'Take care of this man. If his bill runs higher than this, I'll pay you the next time I'm here.'

<sup>36</sup>"Now which of these three would you say was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by bandits?" Jesus asked.

Then Jesus said, "Yes, now go and do the same."

JESUS VISITS MARTHA AND MARY

<sup>41</sup> But the Lord said to her, "My dear Martha, you are worried and upset over all these details!

<sup>42</sup> There is only one thing worth being concerned about. Mary has discovered it, and it will not be taken away from her."

TEACHING ABOUT PRAYER

11 Once Jesus was in a certain place praying. As he finished, one of his disciples came to him and said, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

<sup>2</sup> Jesus said, "This is how you should pray:*

"Father, may your name be kept holy.

May your Kingdom come soon.

<sup>3</sup> Give us each day the food we need,*

<sup>4</sup> and forgive us our sins,

as we forgive those who sin against us.

And don't let us yield to temptation.*"

<sup>5</sup> Then, teaching them more about prayer, he used this story: "Suppose you went to a friend's house at midnight, wanting to borrow three loaves of bread. You say to him, <sup>6</sup> 'A friend of mine has just arrived for a visit, and I have nothing for him to eat.' " And suppose he calls out from his bedroom, 'Don't bother me. The door is locked for the night, and my family and I are all in bed. I can't help you.' <sup>8</sup> But I tell you this—though he won't do it for friendship's sake, if you keep knocking long enough, he will get up and give you whatever you need because of your shameless persistence.*

<sup>9</sup> "And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

<sup>11</sup> "You fathers—if your children ask* for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? <sup>12</sup> Or if they ask for an egg, do you give them a scorpion? Of course not! <sup>13</sup> So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him."

JESUS AND THE PRINCE OF DEMONS

<sup>14</sup> One day Jesus cast out a demon from a man who couldn't speak, and when the demon was gone, the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed, <sup>15</sup> but some of them said, "No wonder he can cast out demons. He gets his power from Satan,* the prince of demons." <sup>16</sup> Others, trying to test Jesus, demanded that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

<sup>17</sup> He knew their thoughts, so he said, "Any kingdom divided by civil war is doomed. A family splintered by feuding will fall apart. <sup>18</sup> You say I am empowered by Satan. But if Satan is divided and fighting against himself, how can his kingdom survive? <sup>19</sup> And if I am empowered by Satan, what about your own exorcists? They cast out demons, too, so they will condemn you for what you have said. <sup>20</sup> But if I am casting out demons by the power of God,* then the Kingdom of God has arrived among you. <sup>21</sup> For when a strong man is fully armed and guards his palace, his possessions are safe—<sup>22</sup> until someone even stronger attacks and overpowers him, strips him of his weapons, and carries off his belongings.

<sup>23</sup> "Anyone who isn't with me opposes me, and anyone who isn't working with me is actually working against me.

<sup>24</sup> "When an evil* spirit leaves a person, it goes into the desert, searching for rest. But when it finds none, it says, 'I will return to the person I came from.' <sup>25</sup> So it returns and finds that its former home is all swept and in order. <sup>26</sup> Then

THE PURPOSE OF PRAYER

Luke 11

ROBERT MORRIS

As followers of Jesus Christ, we all experience spiritual warfare. However, if we focus only on the attacks against us, we give the devil too much credit. When spiritual warfare increases in our lives, we need to go to a new level of prayer so we can release God's power and will.

You must take prayer seriously. You are in a war, and your enemy wants to kill you (John 10:10; Ephesians 6:12). One type of demon that comes against us is called a principality, which is a spirit prince over a geographic region. In the Old Testament, the prophet Daniel battled principalities (Daniel 10:12–13, 20–21). Jesus' healing of the demon-possessed man in Mark 5 also shows the reality of territorial principalities (Mark 5:9–10). We fight principalities every time souls are saved, every time we plant a new church in a new city, and every time we stand for righteousness in our nation.

<sup>11:2</sup> Some manuscripts add additional phrases from the Lord's Prayer as it reads in Matt 6:9–13. <sup>11:3</sup> Or Give us each day our food for the day; or Give us each day our food for tomorrow. <sup>11:4</sup> Or And keep us from being tested. <sup>11:8</sup> Or in order to avoid shame, or so his reputation won't be damaged. <sup>11:11</sup> Some manuscripts add for bread, do you give them a stone? Or [if they ask]. <sup>11:15</sup> Greek Beelzeboul; also in 11:18, 19. Other manuscripts read Beezebul; Latin version reads Beelzebub. <sup>11:20</sup> Greek by the finger of God. <sup>11:24</sup> Greek unclean.

LISTEN AND OBEY

Luke 11:28

TOM LANE

Our society is filled with clutter. We often risk ignoring God because we cannot hear Him over the noise of life.

Every person is responsible for hearing from God for themselves, but we do not live in a vacuum. When God speaks and we believe and obey, our actions ripple outward, joining with the actions of other believers who are also listening to His voice. When I see everything God is doing through His Church around the world, I think, Wow! This is what happens when people live with a passion for His presence and voice!

When you listen to God, you can act on what He says and join the multitude of voices proclaiming His name in every nation. Together, we are the symphony of God's Kingdom on the earth. Let us link arms and pursue Him. One day we'll look back together and say, "Can you believe what God has done?! It's incredible!"

the spirit finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all enter the person and live there. And so that person is worse off than before."

<sup>27</sup>As he was speaking, a woman in the crowd called out, "God bless your mother—the womb from which you came, and the breasts that nursed you!"

<sup>28</sup>Jesus replied, "But even more blessed are all who hear the word of God and put it into practice."

THE SIGN OF JONAH

<sup>29</sup>As the crowd pressed in on Jesus, he said, "This evil generation keeps asking me to show them a miraculous sign. But the only sign I will give them is the sign of Jonah. <sup>30</sup>What happened to him was a sign to the people of Nineveh that God had sent him. What happens to the Son of Man* will be a sign to these people that he was sent by God.

<sup>31</sup>"The queen of Sheba* will stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for she came from a distant land to hear the wisdom of Solomon. Now someone greater than Solomon is here—but you refuse to listen. <sup>32</sup>The people of Nineveh will also stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for they repented of their sins at the preaching of Jonah. Now someone greater than Jonah is here—but you refuse to repent.

RECEIVING THE LIGHT

<sup>33</sup>"No one lights a lamp and then hides it or puts it under a basket.* Instead, a lamp is placed on a stand, where its light can be seen by all who enter the house.

<sup>34</sup>"Your eye is like a lamp that provides light for your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is filled with light. But when it is unhealthy, your body is filled with darkness. <sup>35</sup>Make sure that the light you think you have is not actually darkness. <sup>36</sup>If you are filled with light, with no dark corners, then your whole life will be radiant, as though a floodlight were filling you with light."

JESUS CRITICIZES THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS

<sup>37</sup>As Jesus was speaking, one of the Pharisees invited him home for a meal. So he went in and took his place at the table.* <sup>38</sup>His host was amazed to see that he sat down to eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony required by Jewish custom. <sup>39</sup>Then the Lord said to him, "You Pharisees are so careful to clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside you are filthy—full of greed and wickedness! <sup>40</sup>Fools! Didn't God make the inside as well as the outside? <sup>41</sup>So clean the inside by giving gifts to the poor, and you will be clean all over.

<sup>42</sup>"What sorrow awaits you Pharisees! For you are careful to tithe even the tiniest income from your herb gardens,* but you ignore justice and the love of God. You should tithe, yes, but do not neglect the more important things.

<sup>43</sup>"What sorrow awaits you Pharisees! For you love to sit in the seats of honor in the synagogues and receive respectful greetings as you walk in the marketplaces. <sup>44</sup>Yes, what sorrow awaits you! For you are like hidden graves in a field. People walk over them without knowing the corruption they are stepping on."

<sup>45</sup>"Teacher," said an expert in religious law, "you have insulted us, too, in what you just said."

<sup>46</sup>"Yes," said Jesus, "what sorrow also awaits you experts in religious law! For you crush people with unbearable religious demands, and you never lift a finger to ease the burden. <sup>47</sup>What sorrow awaits you! For you build monuments for the prophets your own ancestors killed long ago. <sup>48</sup>But in fact, you stand as witnesses who agree with what your ancestors did. They killed the prophets, and you join in their crime by building the monuments! <sup>49</sup>This is what God in his wisdom said about you:* 'I will send prophets and apostles to them, but they will kill some and persecute the others.'

<sup>50</sup>"As a result, this generation will be held responsible for the murder of all God's prophets from the creation of the world—<sup>51</sup>from the murder of Abel to the murder of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, it will certainly be charged against this generation.

11:30 "Son of Man" is a title Jesus used for himself. 11:31 Greek The queen of the south. 11:33 Some manuscripts do not include or puts it under a basket. 11:37 Or and reclined. 11:42 Greek tithe the mint, the rue, and every herb. 11:49 Greek Therefore, the wisdom of God said.

<sup>52</sup>“What sorrow awaits you experts in religious law! For you remove the key to knowledge from the people. You don’t enter the Kingdom yourselves, and you prevent others from entering.”

<sup>53</sup>As Jesus was leaving, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees became hostile and tried to provoke him with many questions.

<sup>54</sup>They wanted to trap him into saying something they could use against him.

A WARNING AGAINST HYPOCRISY

12 Meanwhile, the crowds grew until thousands were milling about and stepping on each other. Jesus turned first to his disciples and warned them, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees—their hypocrisy. <sup>2</sup>The time is coming when everything that is covered up will be revealed, and all that is secret will be made known to all. <sup>3</sup>Whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be shouted from the housetops for all to hear!

<sup>4</sup>“Dear friends, don’t be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot do any more to you after that. <sup>5</sup>But I’ll tell you whom to fear. Fear God, who has the power to kill you and then throw you into hell. <sup>6</sup>Yes, he’s the one to fear.

<sup>6</sup>“What is the price of five sparrows—two copper coins?<sup>7</sup> Yet God does not forget a single one of them. <sup>7</sup>And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. So don’t be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows.

<sup>8</sup>“I tell you the truth, everyone who acknowledges me publicly here on earth, the Son of Man* will also acknowledge in the presence of God’s angels. <sup>9</sup>But anyone who denies me here on earth will be denied before God’s angels. <sup>10</sup>Anyone who speaks against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup>“And when you are brought to trial in the synagogues and before rulers and authorities, don’t worry about how to defend yourself or what to say, <sup>12</sup>for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what needs to be said.”

PARABLE OF THE RICH FOOL

<sup>13</sup>Then someone called from the crowd, “Teacher, please tell my brother to divide our father’s estate with me.”

<sup>14</sup>Jesus replied, “Friend, who made me a judge over you to decide such things as that?” <sup>15</sup>Then he said, “Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own.”

<sup>16</sup>Then he told them a story: “A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. <sup>17</sup>He said to himself, ‘What should I do? I don’t have room for all my crops.’ <sup>18</sup>Then he said, ‘I know! I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I’ll have room enough to store all my wheat and other goods.’ <sup>19</sup>And I’ll sit back and say to myself, ‘My friend, you have enough stored away for

ABUNDANCE AND GENEROSITY

JACK HAYFORD

Financial management is every bit as important as other dimensions of life management. In fact, God sees money management not simply as materially but also as spiritually rooted. Some churches create a false dichotomy between godliness and wealth, leading to the belief that godliness equates with poverty. However, as believers, one of our primary calls in the Kingdom is becoming God’s distributors of abundance.

We often fail to realize our accountability before God for the way we handle our resources. This is the rich fool’s problem in Luke 12. The man is not in error for being rich, nor in his desire to enjoy his wealth. Verse 21 explains, “A person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God.” Abundance and generosity can and should be embraced together; however, abundance without generosity is placing too much value on material things.

years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!”

<sup>20</sup>“But God said to him, ‘You fool! You will die this very night. Then who will get everything you worked for?’

<sup>21</sup>“Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God.”

TEACHING ABOUT MONEY AND POSSESSIONS

<sup>22</sup>Then, turning to his disciples, Jesus said, “That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food to eat or enough clothes to wear. <sup>23</sup>For life is more than food, and your body more than clothing. <sup>24</sup>Look at the ravens. They don’t plant or harvest or store food in barns, for God feeds them. And you are far more valuable to him than any birds! <sup>25</sup>Can all your worries add a single moment to your life? <sup>26</sup>And if worry can’t accomplish a little thing like that, what’s the use of worrying over bigger things?

<sup>27</sup>“Look at the lilies and how they grow. They don’t work or make their clothing, yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are. <sup>28</sup>And if God cares so wonderfully for flowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?

<sup>29</sup>“And don’t be concerned about what to eat and what to drink. Don’t worry about such things. <sup>30</sup>These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers all over the world, but your Father already knows your needs. <sup>31</sup>Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and he will give you everything you need.

<sup>32</sup>“So don’t be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom.

<sup>33</sup>“Sell your possessions and give to those in need. This will store up treasure for you in heaven! And the purses of heaven never get old or develop holes. Your treasure will be safe; no thief can steal it and no moth can destroy it.

<sup>34</sup>Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

BE READY FOR THE LORD’S COMING

<sup>35</sup>“Be dressed for service and keep your lamps burning, <sup>36</sup>as though you were waiting for your master to return from the wedding feast. Then you will be ready to open the door and let him in the moment he arrives and knocks. <sup>37</sup>The servants who are ready and waiting for his return will be rewarded. I tell you the truth, he himself will seat them, put on an apron, and serve them as they sit and eat! <sup>38</sup>He may come in the middle of the night or just before dawn.* But whenever he comes, he will reward the servants who are ready.

<sup>39</sup>“Understand this: If a homeowner knew exactly when a burglar was coming, he would not permit his house to be broken into. <sup>40</sup>You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected.”

<sup>42</sup>And the Lord replied, “A faithful, sensible servant is one to whom the master can give the responsibility of managing his other household servants and feeding them. <sup>43</sup>If the master returns and finds that the servant has done a good job, there will be a reward. <sup>44</sup>I tell you the truth, the master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. <sup>45</sup>But what if the servant thinks, ‘My master won’t be back for a while,’ and he begins beating the other servants, partying, and getting drunk? <sup>46</sup>The master will return unannounced and unexpected, and he will cut the servant in pieces and banish him with the unfaithful.

<sup>47</sup>“And a servant who knows what the master wants, but isn’t prepared and doesn’t carry out those instructions, will be severely punished. <sup>48</sup>But someone who does not know, and then does something wrong, will be punished only lightly. When someone has been given much, much will be required in return; and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required.

JESUS CAUSES DIVISION

<sup>49</sup>“I have come to set the world on fire, and I wish it were already burning! <sup>50</sup>I have a terrible baptism of suffering ahead of me, and I am under a heavy burden until it is accomplished. <sup>51</sup>Do you think I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I have come to divide people against each other! <sup>52</sup>From now on families will be split apart, three in favor of me, and two against—or two in favor and three against.

<sup>53</sup> ‘Father will be divided against son and son against father;
mother against daughter and daughter against mother; and mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.’*”

<sup>54</sup>Then Jesus turned to the crowd and said, “When you see clouds beginning to form in the west, you say, ‘Here comes a shower.’ And you are right. <sup>55</sup>When the south wind blows, you say, ‘Today will be a scorcher.’ And it is. <sup>56</sup>You fools! You know how to interpret the weather signs of the earth and sky, but you don’t know how to interpret the present times.

<sup>57</sup>“Why can’t you decide for yourselves what is right? <sup>58</sup>When you are on the way to court with your accuser, try to settle the matter before you get there. Otherwise, your accuser may drag you before the judge, who will hand you over to an officer, who will throw you into prison. <sup>59</sup>And if that happens, you won’t be free again until you have paid the very last penny.*”

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

13 About this time Jesus was informed that Pilate had murdered some people from Galilee as they were offering sacrifices at the Temple. <sup>2</sup>“Do you think those Galileans were worse sinners than all the other people from Galilee?” Jesus asked. “Is that why they suffered? <sup>3</sup>Not at all! And you will perish, too, unless you repent of your sins and turn to God. <sup>4</sup>And what about the eighteen people who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them? Were they the worst sinners in Jerusalem? <sup>5</sup>No, and I tell you again that unless you repent, you will perish, too.”

PARABLE OF THE BARREN FIG TREE

<sup>6</sup>Then Jesus told this story: “A man planted a fig tree in his garden and came again and again to see if there was any fruit on it, but he was always disappointed. <sup>7</sup>Finally, he said to his gardener, ‘I’ve waited three years, and there hasn’t been a single fig! Cut it down. It’s just taking up space in the garden.’

<sup>8</sup>“The gardener answered, ‘Sir, give it one more chance. Leave it another year, and I’ll give it special attention and plenty of fertilizer. <sup>9</sup>If we get figs next year, fine. If not, then you can cut it down.’”

BELIEVERS IN BONDAGE

Luke 13:10-16

ROBERT MORRIS

Believers can be in bondage to Satan through sin, sickness, and demonic influences allowed into their lives. Like the believers Jesus speaks to in John 8:31-36, we can be blind to our own bondage. Sometimes we view continued sin in our lives as merely weakness, not bondage that leads to death. But we can't be set free until we realize we're in bondage.

In Luke 13, Jesus heals a woman of a sickness caused by a spirit of infirmity. Not all sickness is demonic, but some sicknesses do have spiritual roots. Continued illness can be a sign that there is an open door to the enemy in our lives.

In Mark 7, Jesus casts an evil spirit out of the Syro-Phoenician woman's daughter. This woman's cultural heritage included significant instances of Jewish beliefs mixed with the occult. Many Christians today arrogantly believe that dabbling in the occult will not affect them. However, when we expose ourselves to the occult, we open the door to the enemy.

Jesus can set you free from all bondage. If you need freedom, be honest with yourself and with God. Then ask Him for help. God wants you to be completely free!

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

<sup>10</sup> One Sabbath day as Jesus was teaching in a synagogue, <sup>11</sup> he saw a woman who had been crippled by an evil spirit. She had been bent double for eighteen years and was unable to stand up straight. <sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Dear woman, you are healed of your sickness!" <sup>13</sup> Then he touched her, and instantly she could stand straight. How she praised God!

<sup>14</sup> But the leader in charge of the synagogue was indignant that Jesus had healed her on the Sabbath day. "There are six days of the week for working," he said to the crowd. "Come on those days to be healed, not on the Sabbath."

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord replied, "You hypocrites! Each of you works on the Sabbath day! Don't you untie your ox or your donkey from its stall on the Sabbath and lead it out for water?" <sup>16</sup> This dear woman, a daughter of Abraham, has been held in bondage by Satan for eighteen years. Isn't it right that she be released, even on the Sabbath?"

<sup>17</sup> This shamed his enemies, but all the people rejoiced at the wonderful things he did.

PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

<sup>18</sup> Then Jesus said, "What is the Kingdom of God like? How can I illustrate it? <sup>19</sup> It is like a tiny mustard seed that a man planted in a garden; it grows and becomes a tree, and the birds make nests in its branches."

PARABLE OF THE YEAST

<sup>20</sup> He also asked, "What else is the Kingdom of God like? <sup>21</sup> It is like the yeast a woman used in making bread. Even though she put only a little yeast in three measures of flour, it permeated every part of the dough."

THE NARROW DOOR

<sup>22</sup> Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he went, always pressing on toward Jerusalem. <sup>23</sup> Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?"

He replied, <sup>24</sup> "Work hard to enter the narrow door to God's Kingdom, for many will try to enter but will fail. <sup>25</sup> When the master of the house has locked the door, it will be too late. You will stand outside knocking and pleading, 'Lord, open the door for us!' But he will reply, 'I don't know you or where you come from.' <sup>26</sup> Then you will say, 'But we ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.' <sup>27</sup> And he will reply, 'I tell you, I don't know you or where you come from. Get away from me, all you who do evil.'"

<sup>28</sup> "There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, for you will see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, but you will be thrown out. <sup>29</sup> And people will come from all over the world—from east and west, north and south—to take their places in the Kingdom of God. <sup>30</sup> And note this: Some who seem least important now will be the greatest then, and some who are the greatest now will be least important then."

JESUS GRIEVES OVER JERUSALEM

<sup>31</sup> At that time some Pharisees said to him, "Get away from here if you want to live! Herod Antipas wants to kill you!"

<sup>32</sup> Jesus replied, "Go tell that fox that I will keep on casting out demons and healing people today and tomorrow; and the third day I will accomplish my purpose. <sup>33</sup> Yes, today, tomorrow, and the next day I must proceed on my way. For it wouldn't do for a prophet of God to be killed except in Jerusalem!

<sup>34</sup> "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God's messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn't let me. <sup>35</sup> And now, look, your house is abandoned. And you will never see me again until you say, 'Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!'"

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

14 One Sabbath day Jesus went to eat dinner in the home of a leader of the Pharisees, and the people were watching him closely.

<sup>13:30</sup> Greek Some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last. <sup>13:35</sup> Ps 118:26.

<sup>2</sup>There was a man there whose arms and legs were swollen.* <sup>3</sup>Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in religious law, “Is it permitted in the law to heal people on the Sabbath day, or not?” <sup>4</sup>When they refused to answer, Jesus touched the sick man and healed him and sent him away. <sup>5</sup>Then he turned to them and said, “Which of you doesn’t work on the Sabbath? If your son* or your cow falls into a pit, don’t you rush to get him out?” <sup>6</sup>Again they could not answer.

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT HUMILITY

<sup>7</sup>When Jesus noticed that all who had come to the dinner were trying to sit in the seats of honor near the head of the table, he gave them this advice: <sup>8</sup>“When you are invited to a wedding feast, don’t sit in the seat of honor. What if someone who is more distinguished than you has also been invited? <sup>9</sup>The host will come and say, ‘Give this person your seat.’ Then you will be embarrassed, and you will have to take whatever seat is left at the foot of the table!

<sup>10</sup>“Instead, take the lowest place at the foot of the table. Then when your host sees you, he will come and say, ‘Friend, we have a better place for you!’ Then you will be honored in front of all the other guests. <sup>11</sup>For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

<sup>12</sup>Then he turned to his host. “When you put on a luncheon or a banquet,” he said, “don’t invite your friends, brothers, relatives, and rich neighbors. For they will invite you back, and that will be your only reward. <sup>13</sup>Instead, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. <sup>14</sup>Then at the resurrection of the righteous, God will reward you for inviting those who could not repay you.”

PARABLE OF THE GREAT FEAST

<sup>15</sup>Hearing this, a man sitting at the table with Jesus exclaimed, “What a blessing it will be to attend a banquet* in the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus replied with this story: “A man prepared a great feast and sent out many invitations. <sup>17</sup>When the banquet was ready, he sent his servant to tell the guests, ‘Come, the banquet is ready.’ <sup>18</sup>But they all began making excuses. One said, ‘I have just bought a field and must inspect it. Please excuse me.’ <sup>19</sup>Another said, ‘I have just bought five pairs of oxen, and I want to try them out. Please excuse me.’ <sup>20</sup>Another said, ‘I just got married, so I can’t come.’

<sup>21</sup>“The servant returned and told his master what they had said. His master was furious and said, ‘Go quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and invite the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.’ <sup>22</sup>After the servant had done this, he reported, ‘There is still room for more.’ <sup>23</sup>So his master said, ‘Go out into the country lanes and behind the hedges and urge anyone you find to come, so that the house will be full. <sup>24</sup>For none of those I first invited will get even the smallest taste of my banquet.’”

THE COST OF BEING A DISCIPLE

<sup>25</sup>A large crowd was following Jesus. He turned around and said to them, <sup>26</sup>“If you want to be my disciple, you must, by comparison, hate everyone else—your father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even your own life. Otherwise, you cannot be my disciple. <sup>27</sup>And if you do not carry your own cross and follow me, you cannot be my disciple.

<sup>28</sup>“But don’t begin until you count the cost. For who would begin construction of a building without first calculating the cost to see if there is enough money to finish it? <sup>29</sup>Otherwise, you might complete only the foundation before running out of money, and then everyone would laugh at you. <sup>30</sup>They would say, ‘There’s the person who started that building and couldn’t afford to finish it!’

<sup>34</sup>“Salt is good for seasoning. But if it loses its flavor, how do you make it salty again? <sup>35</sup>Flavorless salt is good neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown away. Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!”

PARABLE OF THE LOST SHEEP

15 Tax collectors and other notorious sinners often came to listen to Jesus teach. *This made the Pharisees and teachers of religious law complain that he was associating with such sinful people—even eating with them!

<sup>3</sup>So Jesus told them this story: <sup>4</sup>“If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them gets lost, what will he do? Won’t he leave the ninety-nine others in the wilderness and go to search for the one that is lost until he finds it? <sup>5</sup>And when he has found it, he will joyfully carry it home on his shoulders. <sup>6</sup>When he arrives, he will call together his friends and neighbors, saying, ‘Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.’ <sup>7</sup>In the same way, there is more joy in heaven over one lost sinner who repents and returns to God than over ninety-nine others who are righteous and haven’t strayed away!

FULL RESTORATION

Luke 15:8-9

ROBERT MORRIS

It's always good to read God's Word when you've lost something or someone precious to you. In Luke 15:8-9, Jesus tells the parable of the lost coin.

"Suppose a woman has ten silver coins and loses one. Won't she light a lamp and sweep the entire house and search carefully until she finds it? And when she finds it, she will call in her friends and neighbors and say, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost coin.'"

The woman in the parable lights a lamp because she lost something precious. You too can "light a lamp" by allowing God's Word to be a lamp to your feet (Psalm 119:105). No matter what you've lost, God wants to bring restoration to your life. Start lighting a lamp every day so He can speak to you, heal you, and restore you through His Word.

entire house and search carefully until she finds it? <sup>9</sup>And when she finds it, she will call in her friends and neighbors and say, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost coin.'<sup>10</sup> In the same way, there is joy in the presence of God's angels when even one sinner repents."

PARABLE OF THE LOST SON

<sup>11</sup>To illustrate the point further, Jesus told them this story: "A man had two sons. <sup>12</sup>The younger son told his father, 'I want my share of your estate now before you die.' So his father agreed to divide his wealth between his sons.

<sup>13</sup>"A few days later this younger son packed all his belongings and moved to a distant land, and there he wasted all his money in wild living. <sup>14</sup>About the time his money ran out, a great famine swept over the land, and he began to starve. <sup>15</sup>He persuaded a local farmer to hire him, and the man sent him into his fields to feed the pigs. <sup>16</sup>The young man became so hungry that even the pods he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. But no one gave him anything.

<sup>17</sup>"When he finally came to his senses, he said to himself, 'At home even the hired servants have food enough to spare, and here I am dying of hunger! <sup>18</sup>I will go home to my father and say, "Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, <sup>19</sup>and I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Please take me on as a hired servant.'"

<sup>20</sup>"So he returned home to his father. And while he was still a long way off, his father saw

HOW TO COME HOME

Luke 15:11-19

ROBERT MORRIS

Do you ever have trouble restraining yourself? The lost son (often called the "prodigal son") in Luke 15 certainly did. Demanding an early inheritance, he rejected his family and "wasted all his money in wild living" (v. 13). The son soon found himself penniless, and he had to make a choice: starve to death or return home. But how could he face his father after what he had done?

You may have asked yourself a similar question about your heavenly Father—How could God ever forgive me for what I've done? I've got great news for you: His grace is more powerful than your worst sin. You can come home to your Father today, and it's as simple as these three steps:

1. Come clean in your heart.

Verse 17 says the lost son "finally came to his senses." In other words, he stopped lying to himself. When his money ran out and his circumstances caught up with him, the lost son had to face the truth: sin will always catch you. Every person is born with a sinful heart, but when you have an encounter with God, He gives you a new, pure heart (Ezekiel 36:26). We must guard our new hearts against becoming cold or hard and remind ourselves that we are no longer sinners—we are children of the King!

2. Come clean with the Father:

Have you ever confessed a sin so many times that you worried God's grace was going to run out? Sin makes us want to hide from God, but the only way to overcome sin is to bring it to the Father. When the lost son returned home, his father could have demanded an account of his foolish behavior; instead, he simply forgave him. Our heavenly Father knows everything you've ever done or ever will do wrong, and guess what? He's forgiven you! If you're a believer, Jesus' blood covers all your sins—past, present, and future. First John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness."

3. Come clean from the pigs.

When his money ran out, the lost son took a job feeding pigs. This was not a glamorous job, and by the time he came home, he was probably dirty from head to toe. The lost son's body certainly needed a bath, but what about his spirit and soul? Past sins can still affect us today, and issues such as emotional wounds, generational curses, and habitual sins can keep believers in bondage. The only way to get free is to bring everything to Jesus. Deliverance is the birthright of every believer, and God wants to set you free today.

THE OLDER BROTHER SYNDROME

Luke 15:25-32

ROBERT MORRIS

When the lost son returned home, his father was so happy to see him that he threw a party. However, one family member was not in the mood to celebrate: the lost son's older brother. He refused to attend the party and angrily scolded the father, "When this son of yours comes back after squandering your money on prostitutes, you celebrate by killing the fattened calf!" (v. 30).

Have you ever felt that way about other believers? Have you ever thought, That's not fair! I've been much more faithful to God, so why are they getting all the blessings? I call this the older brother syndrome—seeing others as worse than yourself and despising them for it. I could also call it the Pharisaic syndrome, because all three parables in Luke 15 address how the Pharisees looked down on other people.

So what causes this syndrome? Pride. And pride has three major effects on our lives:

1. Pride affects the way we see ourselves.

The older brother was prideful about his obedience—"I've slaved for you and never once refused to do a single thing you told me to" (v. 29). The root of pride is self-righteousness, which means we think we can attain righteousness on our own without Christ. However, no one is perfect; everyone sins (Romans 3:23). The Pharisees were self-righteous, and Jesus rebuked them for it (Luke 18:9-14).

2. Pride affects the way we see others.

Some people think their sins are less "bad" than other people's sins. But Jesus never said there are better or worse sinners. Instead, we each owe the same amount—everything! The older brother saw himself as better than the lost son, but compared to God, no one is perfect. That is why we all need Jesus!

3. Pride affects the way we see the Father.

When we allow self-righteousness to come into our lives, we not only look down on other believers, but we also begin to judge God. Have you ever responded to someone else's blessing like the older brother: "You never gave me even one young goat for a feast with my friends" (v. 29)? How many "mature" believers miss out on the presence and provision of the Father because they allow bitterness and envy to harden their hearts? The only way to avoid the older brother syndrome is to keep our focus on the cross. Like the apostle Paul, we must "forget everything except Jesus Christ, the one who was crucified" (1 Corinthians 2:2). We all are sinners, and we all need God's incredible grace.

him coming. Filled with love and compassion, he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him. <sup>21</sup>His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, and I am no longer worthy of being called your son.'

<sup>22</sup>"But his father said to the servants, 'Quick! Bring the finest robe in the house and put it on him. Get a ring for his finger and sandals for his feet. <sup>23</sup>And kill the calf we have been fattening. We must celebrate with a feast, <sup>24</sup>for this son of mine was dead and has now returned to life. He was lost, but now he is found.' So the party began.

<sup>25</sup>"Meanwhile, the older son was in the fields working. When he returned home, he heard music and dancing in the house, <sup>26</sup>and he asked one of the servants what was going on. <sup>27</sup>'Your brother is back,' he was told, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf. We are celebrating because of his safe return.'

<sup>28</sup>"The older brother was angry and wouldn't go in. His father came out and begged him, <sup>29</sup>but he replied, 'All these years I've slaved for you and never once refused to do a single thing you told me to. And in all that time you never gave me even one young goat for a feast with my friends. <sup>30</sup>Yet when this son of yours comes back after squandering your money on prostitutes, you celebrate by killing the fattened calf!'

<sup>31</sup>"His father said to him, 'Look, dear son, you have always stayed by me, and everything I have is yours. <sup>32</sup>We had to celebrate this happy day. For your brother was dead and has come back to life! He was lost, but now he is found!'"

PARABLE OF THE SHREWD MANAGER

16 Jesus told this story to his disciples: "There was a certain rich man who had a manager handling his affairs. One day a report came that the manager was wasting his employer's money. <sup>2</sup>So the employer called him in and said, 'What's this I hear about you? Get your report in order, because you are going to be fired.'

<sup>3</sup>"The manager thought to himself, 'Now what? My boss has fired me. I don't have the strength to dig ditches, and I'm too proud to beg. <sup>4</sup>Ah, I know how to ensure that I'll have plenty of friends who will give me a home when I am fired.'

<sup>5</sup>"So he invited each person who owed money to his employer to come and discuss the situation. He asked the first one, 'How much do you owe him?' <sup>6</sup>The man replied, 'I owe him 800 gallons of olive oil.' So the manager told him, 'Take the bill and quickly change it to 400 gallons.'

<sup>7</sup>"And how much do you owe my employer?' he asked the next man. 'I owe him 1,000 bushels of wheat,' was the reply. 'Here,' the manager said, 'take the bill and change it to 800 bushels.'

15:21 Some manuscripts add Please take me on as a hired servant.

BREAKING THE SPIRIT OF MAMMON

Luke 16:10-13

ROBERT MORRIS

Did you know that all money has a spirit on it? Money that has been redeemed through tithing has the Spirit of God on it, but unredeemed money has the spirit of mammon on it. Mammon is an Aramaic word that means 'riches.' The spirit of mammon stands in direct contrast to the Spirit of God and says that money is the answer to every problem.

Money is not inherently evil. It can be used for righteous or unrighteous purposes. However, Jesus plainly says, "You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money" (Luke 16:13). The first 10 percent of our income belongs to God. When we are faithful through tithing, we will be entrusted with "the true riches of heaven," meaning the souls of people (Luke 16:11). When we tithe, we submit our money to the Spirit of God and break the curse of the spirit of mammon.

<sup>8</sup>"The rich man had to admire the dishonest rascal for being so shrewd. And it is true that the children of this world are more shrewd in dealing with the world around them than are the children of the light. <sup>9</sup>Here's the lesson: Use your worldly resources to benefit others and make friends. Then, when your possessions are gone, they will welcome you to an eternal home.*

<sup>10</sup>"If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones. But if you are dishonest in little things, you won't be honest with greater responsibilities. <sup>11</sup>And if you are untrustworthy about worldly wealth, who will trust you with the true riches of heaven? <sup>12</sup>And if you are not faithful with other people's things, why should you be trusted with things of your own?

<sup>13</sup>"No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money."

<sup>14</sup>The Pharisees, who dearly loved their money, heard all this and scoffed at him. <sup>15</sup>Then he said to them, "You like to appear righteous in public, but God knows your hearts. What this world honors is detestable in the sight of God.

<sup>16</sup>"Until John the Baptist, the law of Moses and the messages of the prophets were your guides. But now the Good News of the Kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is eager to get in.* <sup>17</sup>But that doesn't mean that the law has lost its force. It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the smallest point of God's law to be overturned.

PARABLE OF THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said, "There was a certain rich man who was splendidly clothed in purple and fine linen and who lived each day in luxury. <sup>20</sup>At his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus who was covered with sores. <sup>21</sup>As Lazarus lay there longing for scraps from the rich man's table, the dogs would come and lick his open sores.

<sup>22</sup>"Finally, the poor man died and was carried by the angels to sit beside Abraham at the heavenly banquet.* The rich man also died and was buried, <sup>23</sup>and he went to the place of the dead.* There, in torment; he saw Abraham in the far distance with Lazarus at his side.

<sup>24</sup>"The rich man shouted, 'Father Abraham, have some pity! Send Lazarus over here to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue. I am in anguish in these flames.'

<sup>25</sup>"But Abraham said to him, 'Son, remember that during your lifetime you had everything you wanted, and Lazarus had nothing. So now he is here being comforted, and you are in anguish. <sup>26</sup>And besides, there is a great chasm separating us. No one can cross over to you from here, and no one can cross over to us from there.'

<sup>27</sup>"Then the rich man said, 'Please, Father Abraham, at least send him to my father's home. <sup>28</sup>For I have five brothers, and I want him to warn them so they don't end up in this place of torment.'

<sup>29</sup>"But Abraham said, 'Moses and the prophets have warned them. Your brothers can read what they wrote.'

<sup>30</sup>"The rich man replied, 'No, Father Abraham! But if someone is sent to them from the dead, then they will repent of their sins and turn to God.'

<sup>31</sup>"But Abraham said, 'If they won't listen to Moses and the prophets, they won't be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.'"

TEACHINGS ABOUT FORGIVENESS AND FAITH

17 One day Jesus said to his disciples, "There will always be temptations to sin, but what sorrow awaits the person who does the tempting! <sup>2</sup>It would be better to be thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around your neck than to cause one of these little ones to fall into sin. <sup>3</sup>So watch yourselves!

"If another believer" sins, rebuke that person; then if there is repentance, forgive. <sup>4</sup>Even if that person wrongs you seven times a day and each time turns again and asks forgiveness, you must forgive."

<sup>6</sup>The Lord answered, "If you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this

HIS THANKSGIVING

Luke 17:11-19

ROBERT MORRIS

We can live continually in God's presence by developing a life of thanksgiving. We are grateful to God as He blesses us with His miraculous provision, and we express our gratitude and love in worship.

1. Worship is giving thanks.

Worship is about thanking someone after you've received something. It's showing your gratitude and love. True, genuine love is always expressed. Perhaps you did not always see this in your family growing up, but you are in a new family now—the body of Christ. You have a good Father, and you can express your love to Him because you have received something good from Him.

2. Miracles precede gratitude.

If you had a disease and Jesus healed you, would it be appropriate to express your thanks? Of course it would be! Well, if you're a believer, God has healed you from the worst disease—sin! Romans 6:23 says, "For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord." Salvation is a miracle, and it is definitely okay to express your gratitude to God through worship.

3. Obedience precedes miracles.

Miracles are not earned, but the Bible shows us an unmistakable pattern of obedience leading to miracles. Is it possible that we don't feel as though we have anything to be grateful for because we're not walking in daily obedience to God? If we obey, we'll experience miracles, and when we experience miracles, we'll be grateful and express our love to God through worship.

mulberry tree, 'May you be uprooted and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you!

<sup>7</sup>"When a servant comes in from plowing or taking care of sheep, does his master say, 'Come in and eat with me'? <sup>8</sup>No, he says, 'Prepare my meal, put on your apron, and serve me while I eat. Then you can eat later.' <sup>9</sup>And does the master thank the servant for doing what he was told to do? Of course not. <sup>10</sup>In the same way, when you obey me you should say, 'We are unworthy servants who have simply done our duty.'"

TEN HEALED OF LEPROSY

<sup>12</sup>As he entered a village there, ten men with leprosy stood at a distance, <sup>13</sup>crying out, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

<sup>14</sup>He looked at them and said, "Go show yourselves to the priests."* And as they went, they were cleansed of their leprosy.

<sup>15</sup>One of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back to Jesus, shouting, "Praise God!" <sup>16</sup>He fell to the ground at Jesus' feet, thanking him for what he had done. This man was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus asked, "Didn't I heal ten men? Where are the other nine?" <sup>18</sup>Has no one returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?" <sup>19</sup>And Jesus said to the man, "Stand up and go. Your faith has healed you."*

THE COMING OF THE KINGDOM

<sup>20</sup>One day the Pharisees asked Jesus, "When will the Kingdom of God come?"

Jesus replied, "The Kingdom of God can't be detected by visible signs."* <sup>21</sup>You won't be able to say, 'Here it is!' or 'It's over there!' For the Kingdom of God is already among you."* <sup>22</sup>Then he said to his disciples, "The time is coming when you will long to see the day when the Son of Man returns,* but you won't see it. <sup>23</sup>People will tell you, 'Look, there is the Son of Man,' or 'Here he is,' but don't go out and follow them. <sup>24</sup>For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other, so it will be on the day* when the Son of Man comes. <sup>25</sup>But first the Son of Man must suffer terribly* and be rejected by this generation.

<sup>26</sup>"When the Son of Man returns, it will be like it was in Noah's day. <sup>27</sup>In those days, the people enjoyed banquets and parties and weddings right up to the time Noah entered his boat and the flood came and destroyed them all.

<sup>28</sup>"And the world will be as it was in the days of Lot. People went about their daily business—eating and drinking, buying and selling, farming and building—<sup>29</sup>until the morning Lot left Sodom. Then fire and burning sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup>Yes, it will be 'business as usual' right up to the day when the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup>On that day a person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. A person out in the field must not return home. <sup>32</sup>Remember what happened to Lot's wife! <sup>33</sup>If you cling to your life, you will lose it, and if you let your life go, you will save it. <sup>34</sup>That night two people will be asleep in one bed; one will be taken, the other left. <sup>35</sup>Two women will be grinding flour together at the mill; one will be taken, the other left."*

Jesus replied, "Just as the gathering of vultures shows there is a carcass nearby, so these signs indicate that the end is near."*

PARABLE OF THE PERSISTENT WIDOW

18 One day Jesus told his disciples a story to show that they should always pray and never give up. <sup>2</sup>“There was a judge in a certain city,” he said, “who neither feared God nor cared about people. <sup>3</sup>A widow of that city came to him repeatedly, saying, ‘Give me justice in this dispute with my enemy.’ <sup>4</sup>The judge ignored her for a while, but finally he said to himself, ‘I don’t fear God or care about people, <sup>5</sup>but this woman is driving me crazy. I’m going to see that she gets justice, because she is wearing me out with her constant requests!’”

<sup>6</sup>Then the Lord said, “Learn a lesson from this unjust judge. <sup>7</sup>Even he rendered a just decision in the end. So don’t you think God will surely give justice to his chosen people who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? <sup>8</sup>I tell you, he will grant justice to them quickly! But when the Son of Man* returns, how many will he find on the earth who have faith?”

PARABLE OF THE PHARISEE AND TAX COLLECTOR

<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus told this story to some who had great confidence in their own righteousness and scorned everyone else: <sup>10</sup>“Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other was a despised tax collector. <sup>11</sup>The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed this prayer*: ‘I thank you, God, that I am not like other people—cheaters, sinners, adulterers. I’m certainly not like that tax collector! <sup>12</sup>I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of my income.’

<sup>13</sup>“But the tax collector stood at a distance and dared not even lift his eyes to heaven as he prayed. Instead, he beat his chest in sorrow, saying, ‘O God, be merciful to me, for I am a sinner.’ <sup>14</sup>I tell you, this sinner, not the Pharisee, returned home justified before God. For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

JESUS BLESSES THE CHILDREN

<sup>15</sup>One day some parents brought their little children to Jesus so he could touch and bless them. But when the disciples saw this, they scolded the parents for bothering him.

<sup>16</sup>Then Jesus called for the children and said to the disciples, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. <sup>17</sup>I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn’t receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.”

THE RICH MAN

<sup>18</sup>Once a religious leader asked Jesus this question: “Good Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>19</sup>“Why do you call me good?” Jesus asked him. “Only God is truly good. <sup>20</sup>But to answer your question, you know the commandments: ‘You must not commit adultery. You must not murder.

You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. Honor your father and mother.’”

<sup>22</sup>When Jesus heard his answer, he said, “There is still one thing you haven’t done. Sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

<sup>23</sup>But when the man heard this he became very sad, for he was very rich.

<sup>24</sup>When Jesus saw this,* he said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup>In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>29</sup>“Yes,” Jesus replied, “and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of God, <sup>30</sup>will be repaid many times over in this life, and will have eternal life in the world to come.”

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>31</sup>Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus said, “Listen, we’re going up to Jerusalem, where all the predictions of the prophets concerning the Son of Man will come true. <sup>32</sup>He will be handed over to the Romans,* and he will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit upon. <sup>33</sup>They will flog him with a whip and kill him, but on the third day he will rise again.”

<sup>34</sup>But they didn’t understand any of this. The significance of his words was hidden from them, and they failed to grasp what he was talking about.

JESUS HEALS A BLIND BEGGAR

<sup>35</sup>As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind beggar was sitting beside the road. <sup>36</sup>When he heard the noise of a crowd going past, he asked what was happening. <sup>37</sup>They told him that Jesus the Nazarene* was going by. <sup>38</sup>So he began shouting, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>39</sup>“Be quiet!” the people in front yelled at him. But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>40</sup>When Jesus heard him, he stopped and ordered that the man be brought to him. As the man came near, Jesus asked him, <sup>41</sup>“What do you want me to do for you?”

18:8 “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. 18:11 Some manuscripts read stood and prayed this prayer to himself. 18:20 Exod 20:12-16; Deut 5:16-20. 18:24 Some manuscripts read When Jesus saw how sad the man was. 18:32 Greek the Gentiles. 18:37 Or Jesus of Nazareth.

“Lord,” he said, “I want to see!”

<sup>42</sup>And Jesus said, “All right, receive your sight! Your faith has healed you.” <sup>43</sup>Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus, praising God. And all who saw it praised God, too.

JESUS AND ZACCHAEUS

19 Jesus entered Jericho and made his way through the town. <sup>2</sup>There was a man there named Zacchaeus. He was the chief tax collector in the region, and he had become very rich. <sup>3</sup>He tried to get a look at Jesus, but he was too short to see over the crowd. <sup>4</sup>So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree beside the road, for Jesus was going to pass that way.

<sup>5</sup>When Jesus came by, he looked up at Zacchaeus and called him by name. “Zacchaeus!” he said. “Quick, come down! I must be a guest in your home today.”

<sup>6</sup>Zacchaeus quickly climbed down and took Jesus to his house in great excitement and joy. <sup>7</sup>But the people were displeased. “He has gone to be the guest of a notorious sinner,” they grumbled.

<sup>8</sup>Meanwhile, Zacchaeus stood before the Lord and said, “I will give half my wealth to the poor, Lord, and if I have cheated people on their taxes, I will give them back four times as much!”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus responded, “Salvation has come to this home today, for this man has shown himself to be a true son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup>For the Son of Man* came to seek and save those who are lost.”

PARABLE OF THE TEN SERVANTS

<sup>11</sup>The crowd was listening to everything Jesus said. And because he was nearing Jerusalem, he told them a story to correct the impression that the Kingdom of God would begin right away. <sup>12</sup>He said, “A nobleman was called away to a distant empire to be crowned king and then return. <sup>13</sup>Before he left, he called together ten of his servants and divided among them ten pounds of silver,* saying, ‘Invest this for me while I am gone.’ <sup>14</sup>But his people hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, ‘We do not want him to be our king.’

<sup>15</sup>“After he was crowned king, he returned and called in the servants to whom he had given the money. He wanted to find out what their profits were. <sup>16</sup>The first servant reported, ‘Master, I invested your money and made ten times the original amount!’

<sup>17</sup>“‘Well done!’ the king exclaimed. ‘You are a good servant. You have been faithful with the little I entrusted to you, so you will be governor of ten cities as your reward.’

<sup>18</sup>“The next servant reported, ‘Master, I invested your money and made five times the original amount.’

<sup>19</sup>“‘Well done!’ the king said. ‘You will be governor over five cities.’

<sup>20</sup>“But the third servant brought back only the original amount of money and said, ‘Master,

A GLORIOUS DAY

Luke 19:11–27

ROBERT MORRIS

Many people are obsessed with figuring out the details and the date of the second coming of Christ. They constantly argue over interpretations of prophecy and current events. Others have a lethargic, complacent attitude; they’ve heard the rapture is near, so they are content to sit and wait for it. Both of these extremes are tactics of the enemy to keep the body of Christ from its purpose: sharing the Gospel.

I can give you Gateway Church’s doctrine of the end times in three words: Jesus is coming. That’s it! Perhaps you were expecting more—a possible date or two—but instead of concentrating on speculative views, I believe we need to focus on scripturally irrefutable facts, such as Jesus Himself is coming again (1 Thessalonians 4:16), He will come with power and great glory (Matthew 24:30), and He will destroy the antichrist (2 Thessalonians 2:8).

No one knows the exact time or day when Jesus will return (Matthew 24:36), but He has given us clear instructions to follow while we wait:

1. Do business until I come.

In Jesus’ parable of the 10 servants, the king gives money to his servants and says, “Invest this for me while I am gone” (Luke 19:13). Those who invest wisely receive even more, but the servant who does nothing with his money loses everything. Why did Jesus tell this story? He wants His followers—including you and me—to do more than just believe He will return. He wants us to do the work of the Kingdom of God: loving, serving, and witnessing to others.

2. Don’t get sidetracked.

In Matthew 24, Jesus describes many things that will happen before His return. It may surprise you to learn that every generation has experienced some of these signs. But Jesus says, “Don’t let anyone mislead you” (v. 4). In other words, don’t get sidetracked. And then He reminds us of our purpose: “The Good News about the Kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world, so that all nations will hear it; and then the end will come” (v. 14). I don’t mind talking about the Second Coming, but I do have a problem with believers becoming argumentative and divisive over it. We cannot focus on the end times so much that we stop doing the job at hand: spreading the gospel throughout the earth until He comes.

I hid your money and kept it safe. <sup>21</sup>I was afraid because you are a hard man to deal with, taking what isn't yours and harvesting crops you didn't plant.'

<sup>24</sup>"Then, turning to the others standing nearby, the king ordered, 'Take the money from this servant, and give it to the one who has ten pounds.'

<sup>25</sup>"But, master,' they said, 'he already has ten pounds!'

<sup>26</sup>"Yes,' the king replied, 'and to those who use well what they are given, even more will be given. But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away. <sup>27</sup>And as for these enemies of mine who didn't want me to be their king—bring them in and execute them right here in front of me.'"

JESUS' TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

<sup>28</sup>After telling this story, Jesus went on toward Jerusalem, walking ahead of his disciples. <sup>29</sup>As he came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives, he sent two disciples ahead. <sup>30</sup>"Go into that village over there," he told them.

"As you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. <sup>31</sup>If anyone asks, 'Why are you untying that colt?' just say, 'The Lord needs it.'"

<sup>32</sup>So they went and found the colt, just as Jesus had said. <sup>33</sup>And sure enough, as they were untying it, the owners asked them, "Why are you untying that colt?"

<sup>34</sup>And the disciples simply replied, "The Lord needs it." <sup>35</sup>So they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it for him to ride on.

<sup>36</sup>As he rode along, the crowds spread out their garments on the road ahead of him. <sup>37</sup>When he reached the place where the road started down the Mount of Olives, all of his followers began to shout and sing as they walked along, praising God for all the wonderful miracles they had seen.

<sup>38</sup> "Blessings on the King who comes in the name of the LORD!
Peace in heaven, and glory in highest heaven!"*

<sup>39</sup>But some of the Pharisees among the crowd said, "Teacher, rebuke your followers for saying things like that!"

<sup>40</sup>He replied, "If they kept quiet, the stones along the road would burst into cheers!"

JESUS WEEPS OVER JERUSALEM

<sup>41</sup>But as he came closer to Jerusalem and saw the city ahead, he began to weep. <sup>42</sup>"How I wish today that you of all people would understand the way to peace. But now it is too late, and peace is hidden from your eyes. <sup>43</sup>Before long your enemies will build ramparts against your walls and encircle you and close in on you from every side. <sup>44</sup>They will crush you into the ground, and your children with you. Your enemies will not leave a single stone in place, because you did not recognize it when God visited you."

JESUS CLEARS THE TEMPLE

<sup>45</sup>Then Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people selling animals for sacrifices.

<sup>46</sup>He said to them, "The Scriptures declare, 'My Temple will be a house of prayer,' but you have turned it into a den of thieves."*

<sup>47</sup>After that, he taught daily in the Temple, but the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the other leaders of the people began planning how to kill him. <sup>48</sup>But they could think of nothing, because all the people hung on every word he said.

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS CHALLENGED

20 One day as Jesus was teaching the people and preaching the Good News in the Temple, the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders came up to him. <sup>2</sup>They demanded, "By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right?"

<sup>3</sup>"Let me ask you a question first," he replied.

<sup>4</sup>"Did John's authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human?"

<sup>5</sup>They talked it over among themselves. "If we say it was from heaven, he will ask why we didn't believe John. <sup>6</sup>But if we say it was merely human, the people will stone us because they are convinced John was a prophet." <sup>7</sup>So they finally replied that they didn't know.

<sup>8</sup>And Jesus responded, "Then I won't tell you by what authority I do these things."

PARABLE OF THE EVIL FARMERS

<sup>9</sup>Now Jesus turned to the people again and told them this story: "A man planted a vineyard, leased it to tenant farmers, and moved to another country to live for several years. <sup>10</sup>At the time of the grape harvest, he sent one of his servants to collect his share of the crop. But the farmers attacked the servant, beat him up, and sent him back empty-handed. <sup>11</sup>So the owner sent another servant, but they also insulted him, beat him up, and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>12</sup>A third man was sent, and they wounded him and chased him away.

<sup>13</sup>"What will I do?' the owner asked himself. 'I know! I'll send my cherished son. Surely they will respect him.'

<sup>14</sup>“But when the tenant farmers saw his son, they said to each other, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ <sup>15</sup>So they dragged him out of the vineyard and murdered him.

“What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do to them?” Jesus asked. <sup>16</sup>“I’ll tell you—he will come and kill those farmers and lease the vineyard to others.”

“How terrible that such a thing should ever happen,” his listeners protested.

<sup>17</sup>Jesus looked at them and said, “Then what does this Scripture mean?

‘The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.’*

<sup>18</sup>Everyone who stumbles over that stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on.”

<sup>19</sup>The teachers of religious law and the leading priests wanted to arrest Jesus immediately because they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. But they were afraid of the people’s reaction.

TAXES FOR CAESAR

<sup>20</sup>Watching for their opportunity, the leaders sent spies pretending to be honest men. They tried to get Jesus to say something that could be reported to the Roman governor so he would arrest Jesus. <sup>21</sup>“Teacher,” they said, “we know that you speak and teach what is right and are not influenced by what others think. You teach the way of God truthfully. <sup>22</sup>Now tell us—is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

“Caesar’s,” they replied.

<sup>25</sup>“Well then,” he said, “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

<sup>26</sup>So they failed to trap him by what he said in front of the people. Instead, they were amazed by his answer, and they became silent.

DISCUSSION ABOUT RESURRECTION

<sup>27</sup>Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. <sup>28</sup>They posed this question: “Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife but no children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother’s name.*

<sup>29</sup>Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children. <sup>30</sup>So the second brother married the widow, but he also died. <sup>31</sup>Then the third brother married her. This continued with all seven of them, who died without children. <sup>32</sup>Finally, the woman also died. <sup>33</sup>So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her!”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “Marriage is for people here on earth. <sup>35</sup>But in the age to come, those worthy of being raised from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage. <sup>36</sup>And they will never die again. In this respect they will be like angels. They are children of God and children of the resurrection.

<sup>37</sup>“But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—even Moses proved this when he wrote about the burning bush. Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, he referred to the Lord* as ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’* <sup>38</sup>So he is the God of the living, not the dead, for they are all alive to him.”

<sup>39</sup>“Well said, Teacher!” remarked some of the teachers of religious law who were standing there. <sup>40</sup>And then no one dared to ask him any more questions.

WHOSE SON IS THE MESSIAH?

<sup>41</sup>Then Jesus presented them with a question. “Why is it,” he asked, “that the Messiah is said to be the son of David? <sup>42</sup>For David himself wrote in the book of Psalms:

‘The LORD said to my Lord,
Sit in the place of honor at my right hand
<sup>43</sup>until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.’*

<sup>45</sup>Then, with the crowds listening, he turned to his disciples and said, <sup>46</sup>“Beware of these teachers of religious law! For they like to parade around in flowing robes and love to receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces. And how they love the seats of honor in the synagogues and the head table at banquets. <sup>47</sup>Yet they shamelessly cheat widows out of their property and then pretend to be pious by making long prayers in public. Because of this, they will be severely punished.”

THE WIDOW’S OFFERING

21 While Jesus was in the Temple, he watched the rich people dropping their gifts in the collection box. <sup>2</sup>Then a poor widow came by and dropped in two small coins.*

<sup>3</sup>“I tell you the truth,” Jesus said, “this poor widow has given more than all the rest of them. <sup>4</sup>For they have given a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she has.”

20:17 Ps 118:22. 20:24 Greek a denarius. 20:28 See Deut 25:5-6. 20:37a Greek when he wrote about the bush. He referred to the Lord. 20:37b Exod 3:6. 20:42-43 Ps 110:1. 21:2 Greek two lepta [the smallest of Jewish coins].

JESUS SPEAKS ABOUT THE FUTURE

<sup>5</sup>Some of his disciples began talking about the majestic stonework of the Temple and the memorial decorations on the walls. But Jesus said, <sup>6</sup>“The time is coming when all these things will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

<sup>8</sup>He replied, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah,’* and saying, ‘The time has come!’ But don’t believe them. <sup>9</sup>And when you hear of wars and insurrections, don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place first, but the end won’t follow immediately.” <sup>10</sup>Then he added, “Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup>There will be great earthquakes, and there will be famines and plagues in many lands, and there will be terrifying things and great miraculous signs from heaven.

<sup>12</sup>“But before all this occurs, there will be a time of great persecution. You will be dragged into synagogues and prisons, and you will stand trial before kings and governors because you are my followers. <sup>13</sup>But this will be your opportunity to tell them about me.* <sup>14</sup>So don’t worry in advance about how to answer the charges against you, <sup>15</sup>for I will give you the right words and such wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to reply or refute you! <sup>16</sup>Even those closest to you—your parents, brothers, relatives, and friends—will betray you. They will even kill some of you. <sup>17</sup>And everyone will hate you because you are my followers.* <sup>18</sup>But not a hair of your head will perish! <sup>19</sup>By standing firm, you will win your souls.

<sup>20</sup>“And when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then you will know that the time of its destruction has arrived. <sup>21</sup>Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. Those in Jerusalem must get out, and those out in the country should not return to the city. <sup>22</sup>For those will be days of God’s vengeance, and the prophetic words of the Scriptures will be fulfilled. <sup>23</sup>How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. For there will be disaster in the land and great anger against this people. <sup>24</sup>They will be killed by the sword or sent away as captives to all the nations of the world. And Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles until the period of the Gentiles comes to an end.

<sup>25</sup>“And there will be strange signs in the sun, moon, and stars. And here on earth the nations will be in turmoil, perplexed by the roaring seas and strange tides. <sup>26</sup>People will be terrified at what they see coming upon the earth, for the powers in the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup>Then everyone will see the Son of Man* coming on a cloud with power and great glory.* <sup>28</sup>So when all these things begin to happen, stand and look up, for your salvation is near!”

<sup>29</sup>Then he gave them this illustration: “Notice the fig tree, or any other tree. <sup>30</sup>When the leaves come out, you know without being told that summer is near. <sup>31</sup>In the same way, when you see all these things taking place, you can know that the Kingdom of God is near. <sup>32</sup>I tell you the truth, this generation will not pass from the scene until all these things have taken place. <sup>33</sup>Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

<sup>34</sup>“Watch out! Don’t let your hearts be dulled by carousing and drunkenness, and by the worries of this life. Don’t let that day catch you unaware, <sup>35</sup>like a trap. For that day will come upon everyone living on the earth. <sup>36</sup>Keep alert at all times. And pray that you might be strong enough to escape these coming horrors and stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>37</sup>Every day Jesus went to the Temple to teach, and each evening he returned to spend the night on the Mount of Olives. <sup>38</sup>The crowds gathered at the Temple early each morning to hear him.

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

22 The Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is also called Passover, was approaching. <sup>2</sup>The leading priests and teachers of religious law were plotting how to kill Jesus, but they were afraid of the people’s reaction.

<sup>3</sup>Then Satan entered into Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve disciples; and he went to the leading priests and captains of the Temple guard to discuss the best way to betray Jesus to them. <sup>5</sup>They were delighted, and they promised to give him money. <sup>6</sup>So he agreed and began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus so they could arrest him when the crowds weren’t around.

THE LAST SUPPER

<sup>7</sup>Now the Festival of Unleavened Bread arrived, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed. <sup>8</sup>Jesus sent Peter and John ahead and said, “Go and prepare the Passover meal, so we can eat it together.”

<sup>9</sup>“Where do you want us to prepare it?” they asked him.

<sup>10</sup>He replied, “As soon as you enter Jerusalem, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. At the house he enters, <sup>11</sup>say to the owner, ‘The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?’ <sup>12</sup>He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal.” <sup>13</sup>They went off to the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

PERMISSION GRANTED

Luke 22:31–38

ROBERT MORRIS

Would you ever give Satan permission to come against you? You're probably thinking, Of course not! However, unaddressed sin in our lives opens the door to the enemy. Throughout the Old Testament, God's people sinned, and God granted Satan permission to take His people into bondage. Why? So they would cry out and return to the Lord.

Satan is a thief who is always trying to get into our lives in any way he can (John 10:10). He constantly searches for open windows and doors, and one of the biggest open doors he finds is pride. Here are three definitions of pride to help us identify and overcome it:

1. Pride is trusting in your own strength.

In Luke 22:31, Jesus tells Simon Peter that Satan has asked permission to sift him like wheat. Jesus warns him that there is an open door in his life, and I believe this open door is pride. When Jesus says all the disciples will desert Him, Peter pridefully responds, "I never will" (Mark 14:29). Peter trusts in his own strength, a trap into which even mature believers fall. When we rely on our own strength to resist temptation, we will always fail, as Peter did when he denied Jesus in Matthew 26:69–75.

2. Pride is trusting in your own righteousness.

If you think you're righteous for what you do rather than Whom you know, you have pride. In Job 1:12 and 2:6, God gives Satan permission to come against Job, a man whom God Himself calls "blameless" (Job 2:3). Another word for blameless is righteous. But why would God allow a righteous person to suffer? Job asks the same question. The problem is that his defense is in how he lives, not in Whom he trusts. Can any of us live righteously enough to meet God's standard? No! When we compare ourselves to God, none of us measure up. Yes, we should live righteously, but we must remember that our righteousness comes from the blood of Jesus, not our works.

3. Pride is trusting in your own wisdom.

Pride will destroy your life (Proverbs 16:18). If you believe you are smarter than anyone else and refuse correction, you don't have God's wisdom; instead, you open the door to the enemy who brings "disorder and evil of every kind" (James 3:16). The only way to close pride's door is to cry out to God and repent. He alone has the power to free you from bondage and restore your life.

<sup>14</sup>When the time came, Jesus and the apostles sat down together at the table.* <sup>15</sup>Jesus said, "I have been very eager to eat this Passover meal with you before my suffering begins. <sup>16</sup>For I tell you now that I won't eat this meal again until its meaning is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God."

<sup>17</sup>Then he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. Then he said, "Take this and share it among yourselves. <sup>18</sup>For I will not drink wine again until the Kingdom of God has come."

<sup>19</sup>He took some bread and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

<sup>20</sup>After supper he took another cup of wine and said, "This cup is the new covenant between God and his people—an agreement confirmed with my blood, which is poured out as a sacrifice for you."

<sup>21</sup>"But here at this table, sitting among us as a friend, is the man who will betray me.

<sup>22</sup>For it has been determined that the Son of Man* must die. But what sorrow awaits the one who betrays him." <sup>23</sup>The disciples began to ask each other which of them would ever do such a thing.

<sup>24</sup>Then they began to argue among themselves about who would be the greatest among them.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus told them, "In this world the kings and great men lord it over their people, yet they are called 'friends of the people.' <sup>26</sup>But among you it will be different. Those who are the greatest among you should take the lowest rank, and the leader should be like a servant. <sup>27</sup>Who is more important, the one who sits at the table or the one who serves? The one who sits at the table, of course. But not here! For I am among you as one who serves.

<sup>28</sup>"You have stayed with me in my time of trial. <sup>29</sup>And just as my Father has granted me a Kingdom, I now grant you the right <sup>30</sup>to eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. And you will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

<sup>31</sup>"Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift each of you like wheat. <sup>32</sup>But I have pleaded in prayer for you, Simon, that your faith should not fail. So when you have repented and turned to me again, strengthen your brothers."

<sup>33</sup>Peter said, "Lord, I am ready to go to prison with you, and even to die with you."

<sup>34</sup>But Jesus said, "Peter, let me tell you something. Before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me."

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus asked them, "When I sent you out to preach the Good News and you did not 22:14 Or reclined together. 22:19–20 Some manuscripts do not include 22:19b–20, which is given for you . . . which is poured out as a sacrifice for you. 22:22 "Son of Man" is a title Jesus used for himself.

have money, a traveler's bag, or an extra pair of sandals, did you need anything?"

"No," they replied.

<sup>36</sup>"But now," he said, "take your money and a traveler's bag. And if you don't have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one!" <sup>37</sup>For the time has come for this prophecy about me to be fulfilled: 'He was counted among the rebels.'* Yes, everything written about me by the prophets will come true."

<sup>38</sup>"Look, Lord," they replied, "we have two swords among us."

"That's enough," he said.

JESUS PRAYS ON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES

<sup>39</sup>Then, accompanied by the disciples, Jesus left the upstairs room and went as usual to the Mount of Olives. <sup>40</sup>There he told them, "Pray that you will not give in to temptation."

<sup>41</sup>He walked away, about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, <sup>42</sup>"Father, if you are willing, please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine."

<sup>43</sup>Then an angel from heaven appeared and strengthened him. <sup>44</sup>He prayed more fervently, and he was in such agony of spirit that his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood.*

<sup>45</sup>At last he stood up again and returned to the disciples, only to find them asleep, exhausted from grief. <sup>46</sup>"Why are you sleeping?" he asked them. "Get up and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation."

JESUS IS BETRAYED AND ARRESTED

<sup>47</sup>But even as Jesus said this, a crowd approached, led by Judas, one of the twelve disciples. Judas walked over to Jesus to greet him with a kiss.

<sup>48</sup>But Jesus said, "Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

<sup>51</sup>But Jesus said, "No more of this." And he touched the man's ear and healed him.

<sup>52</sup>Then Jesus spoke to the leading priests, the captains of the Temple guard, and the elders who had come for him. "Am I some dangerous revolutionary," he asked, "that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me?" <sup>53</sup>Why didn't you arrest me in the Temple? I was there every day. But this is your moment, the time when the power of darkness reigns."

PETER DENIES JESUS

<sup>54</sup>So they arrested him and led him to the high priest's home. And Peter followed at a distance.

<sup>55</sup>The guards lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat around it, and Peter joined them there. <sup>56</sup>A servant girl noticed him in the firelight and began staring at him. Finally she said, "This man was one of Jesus' followers!"

<sup>57</sup>But Peter denied it. "Woman," he said, "I don't even know him!"

<sup>58</sup>After a while someone else looked at him and said, "You must be one of them!"

"No, man, I'm not!" Peter retorted.

<sup>59</sup>About an hour later someone else insisted, "This must be one of them, because he is a Galilean, too."

<sup>60</sup>But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about." And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.

<sup>61</sup>At that moment the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Suddenly, the Lord's words flashed through Peter's mind: "Before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me." <sup>62</sup>And Peter left the courtyard, weeping bitterly.

<sup>63</sup>The guards in charge of Jesus began mocking and beating him. <sup>64</sup>They blindfolded him and said, "Prophecy to us! Who hit you that time?"

JESUS BEFORE THE COUNCIL

<sup>66</sup>At daybreak all the elders of the people assembled, including the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. Jesus was led before this high council,* <sup>67</sup>and they said, "Tell us, are you the Messiah?"

But he replied, "If I tell you, you won't believe me. <sup>68</sup>And if I ask you a question, you won't answer. <sup>69</sup>But from now on the Son of Man will be seated in the place of power at God's right hand.*"

<sup>70</sup>They all shouted, "So, are you claiming to be the Son of God?"

And he replied, "You say that I am."

<sup>71</sup>"Why do we need other witnesses?" they said. "We ourselves heard him say it."

JESUS' TRIAL BEFORE PILATE

23 Then the entire council took Jesus to Pilate, the Roman governor. <sup>2</sup>They began to state their case: "This man has been leading our people astray by telling them not to pay their taxes to the Roman government and by claiming he is the Messiah, a king."

<sup>3</sup>So Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

Jesus replied, "You have said it."

<sup>4</sup>Pilate turned to the leading priests and to the crowd and said, "I find nothing wrong with this man!"

<sup>5</sup>Then they became insistent. "But he is causing riots by his teaching wherever he goes—all over Judea, from Galilee to Jerusalem!"

<sup>6</sup>"Oh, is he a Galilean?" Pilate asked. <sup>7</sup>When they said that he was, Pilate sent him to Herod Antipas, because Galilee was under Herod's jurisdiction, and Herod happened to be in Jerusalem at the time.

<sup>8</sup>Herod was delighted at the opportunity to see Jesus, because he had heard about him and had been hoping for a long time to see him perform a miracle. <sup>9</sup>He asked Jesus question after question, but Jesus refused to answer. <sup>10</sup>Meanwhile, the leading priests and the teachers of religious law stood there shouting their accusations. <sup>11</sup>Then Herod and his soldiers began mocking and ridiculing Jesus. Finally, they put a royal robe on him and sent him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>(Herod and Pilate, who had been enemies before, became friends that day.)

<sup>13</sup>Then Pilate called together the leading priests and other religious leaders, along with the people, <sup>14</sup>and he announced his verdict. “You brought this man to me, accusing him of leading a revolt. I have examined him thoroughly on this point in your presence and find him innocent. <sup>15</sup>Herod came to the same conclusion and sent him back to us. Nothing this man has done calls for the death penalty. <sup>16</sup>So I will have him flogged, and then I will release him.”*

<sup>18</sup>Then a mighty roar rose from the crowd, and with one voice they shouted, “Kill him, and release Barabbas to us!” <sup>19</sup>(Barabbas was in prison for taking part in an insurrection in Jerusalem against the government, and for murder.) <sup>20</sup>Pilate argued with them, because he wanted to release Jesus. <sup>21</sup>But they kept shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

<sup>22</sup>For the third time he demanded, “Why? What crime has he committed? I have found no reason to sentence him to death. So I will have him flogged, and then I will release him.”

<sup>23</sup>But the mob shouted louder and louder, demanding that Jesus be crucified, and their voices prevailed. <sup>24</sup>So Pilate sentenced Jesus to die as they demanded. <sup>25</sup>As they had requested, he released Barabbas, the man in prison for insurrection and murder. But he turned Jesus over to them to do as they wished.

THE CRUCIFIXION

<sup>32</sup>Two others, both criminals, were led out to be executed with him. <sup>33</sup>When they came to a place called The Skull,* they nailed him to the cross. And the criminals were also crucified—one on his right and one on his left.

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they don’t know what they are doing.”* And the soldiers gambled for his clothes by throwing dice.*

<sup>35</sup>The crowd watched and the leaders scoffed. “He saved others,” they said, “let him save himself if he is really God’s Messiah, the Chosen One.” <sup>36</sup>The soldiers mocked him, too, by offering him a drink of sour wine. <sup>37</sup>They called out to him, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!” <sup>38</sup>A sign was fastened above him with these words: “This is the King of the Jews.”

<sup>40</sup>But the other criminal protested, “Don’t you fear God even when you have been sentenced to die? <sup>41</sup>We deserve to die for our crimes, but this man hasn’t done anything wrong.” <sup>42</sup>Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.”

<sup>43</sup>And Jesus replied, “I assure you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

THE DEATH OF JESUS

<sup>44</sup>By this time it was about noon, and darkness fell across the whole land until three o’clock. <sup>45</sup>The light from the sun was gone. And suddenly, the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn down the middle. <sup>46</sup>Then Jesus shouted, “Father, I entrust my spirit into your hands!”* And with those words he breathed his last.

<sup>47</sup>When the Roman officer* overseeing the execution saw what had happened, he worshiped God and said, “Surely this man was innocent.”*

<sup>48</sup>And when all the crowd that came to see the crucifixion saw what had happened, they went home in deep sorrow.* <sup>49</sup>But Jesus’ friends, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance watching.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

<sup>50</sup>Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph. He was a member of the Jewish high council, <sup>51</sup>but he had not agreed with the decision and actions of the other religious leaders. He was from the town of Arimathea in Judea, and he was waiting for the Kingdom of God to come. <sup>52</sup>He went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body.<sup>53</sup> Then he took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in a long sheet of linen cloth and laid it in a new tomb that had been carved out of rock.<sup>54</sup> This was done late on Friday afternoon, the day of preparation,* as the Sabbath was about to begin.

<sup>55</sup>As his body was taken away, the women from Galilee followed and saw the tomb where his body was placed.<sup>56</sup> Then they went home and prepared spices and ointments to anoint his body. But by the time they were finished the Sabbath had begun, so they rested as required by the law.

THE RESURRECTION

24 But very early on Sunday morning† the women went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared.<sup>2</sup> They found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance.<sup>3</sup> So they went in, but they didn't find the body of the Lord Jesus.<sup>4</sup> As they stood there puzzled, two men suddenly appeared to them, clothed in dazzling robes.

<sup>5</sup>The women were terrified and bowed with their faces to the ground. Then the men asked, "Why are you looking among the dead for someone who is alive? <sup>6</sup>He isn't here! He is risen from the dead! Remember what he told you back in Galilee, <sup>7</sup>that the Son of Man* must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and that he would rise again on the third day."

<sup>8</sup>Then they remembered that he had said this.<sup>9</sup> So they rushed back from the tomb to tell his eleven disciples—and everyone else—what had happened.<sup>10</sup> It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and several other women who told the apostles what had happened.<sup>11</sup> But the story sounded like nonsense to the men, so they didn't believe it.<sup>12</sup> However, Peter jumped up and ran to the tomb to look. Stooping, he peered in and saw the empty linen wrappings; and he went home again, wondering what had happened.

THE WALK TO EMMAUS

<sup>13</sup>That same day two of Jesus' followers were walking to the village of Emmaus, seven miles* from Jerusalem.<sup>14</sup> As they walked along they were talking about everything that had happened.<sup>15</sup> As they talked and discussed these things, Jesus himself suddenly came and began walking with them.<sup>16</sup> But God kept them from recognizing him.

<sup>17</sup>He asked them, "What are you discussing so intently as you walk along?"

They stopped short, sadness written across their faces.<sup>18</sup> Then one of them, Cleopas, replied, "You must be the only person in Jerusalem who hasn't heard about all the things that have happened there the last few days."

"The things that happened to Jesus, the man from Nazareth," they said. "He was a prophet who did powerful miracles, and he was a mighty teacher in the eyes of God and all the people.<sup>20</sup> But our leading priests and other religious leaders handed him over to be condemned to death, and they crucified him.<sup>21</sup> We had hoped he was the Messiah who had come to rescue Israel. This all happened three days ago.

<sup>22</sup>"Then some women from our group of his followers were at his tomb early this morning, and they came back with an amazing report.<sup>23</sup> They said his body was missing, and they had seen angels who told them Jesus is alive!<sup>24</sup> Some of our men ran out to see, and sure enough, his body was gone, just as the women had said."

<sup>25</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "You foolish people! You find it so hard to believe all that the prophets wrote in the Scriptures.<sup>26</sup> Wasn't it clearly predicted that the Messiah would have to suffer all these things before entering his glory?"<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus took them through the writings of Moses and all the prophets, explaining from all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

<sup>28</sup>By this time they were nearing Emmaus and the end of their journey. Jesus acted as if he were going on,<sup>29</sup> but they begged him, "Stay the night with us, since it is getting late." So he went home with them.<sup>30</sup> As they sat down to eat,* he took the bread and blessed it. Then he broke it and gave it to them.<sup>31</sup> Suddenly, their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And at that moment he disappeared!

<sup>32</sup>They said to each other, "Didn't our hearts burn within us as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?"<sup>33</sup> And within the hour they were on their way back to Jerusalem. There they found the eleven disciples and the others who had gathered with them,<sup>34</sup> who said, "The Lord has really risen! He appeared to Peter."<sup>35</sup>

JESUS APPEARS TO THE DISCIPLES

<sup>35</sup>Then the two from Emmaus told their story of how Jesus had appeared to them as they were walking along the road, and how they had recognized him as he was breaking the bread.<sup>36</sup> And just as they were telling about it, Jesus himself was suddenly standing there among them. "Peace be with you," he said.<sup>37</sup> But the whole group was startled and frightened, thinking they were seeing a ghost!

<sup>38</sup>"Why are you frightened?" he asked. "Why are your hearts filled with doubt? <sup>39</sup>Look at my hands. Look at my feet. You can see that it's really me. Touch me and make sure that I am not a ghost, because ghosts don't have bodies, as you see that I do."<sup>40</sup> As he spoke, he showed them his hands and his feet.

23:54 Greek It was the day of preparation. 24:1 Greek But on the first day of the week, very early in the morning. 24:7 "Son of Man" is a title Jesus used for himself. 24:13 Greek 60 stadia [11.1 kilometers]. 24:30 Or As they reclined. 24:34 Greek Simon.

UNDERSTANDING GOD'S WORD

Luke 24:45

ROBERT MORRIS

As Christians, sometimes when we turn to God's Word for understanding, we feel overwhelmed or confused. How many times do we say things like "If I could just understand what I'm going through" or "I don't know what God is trying to teach me right now, but I know He's trying to teach me something"?

When the disciples couldn't grasp Jesus' resurrection, He "opened their minds to understand the Scriptures" (Luke 24:45). Not only has God given us His Word, but He also wants to give us an understanding of it. The Word of God is the only way we can make sense of what's happening in our lives. The more you read it, the more you'll understand what's going on in your circumstances.

<sup>44</sup>Then he said, "When I was with you before, I told you that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled." <sup>45</sup>Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup>And he said, "Yes, it was written long ago that the Messiah would suffer and die and rise from the dead on the third day. <sup>47</sup>It was also written that this message would be proclaimed in the authority of his name to all the nations,* beginning in Jerusalem: 'There is forgiveness of sins for all who repent.' <sup>48</sup>You are witnesses of all these things.

<sup>49</sup>"And now I will send the Holy Spirit, just as my Father promised. But stay here in the city until the Holy Spirit comes and fills you with power from heaven."

THE ASCENSION

<sup>50</sup>Then Jesus led them to Bethany, and lifting his hands to heaven, he blessed them. <sup>51</sup>While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up to heaven. <sup>52</sup>So they worshiped him and then returned to Jerusalem filled with great joy. <sup>53</sup>And they spent all of their time in the Temple, praising God.

24:47 Or all peoples.

JOHN

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The Gospel of John gives a portrait of Jesus that complements the other Gospels but is different from them in several ways. In the three Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke), for example, Jesus teaches in stories, with occasional long discourses (such as those in Matthew). In John, however, Jesus primarily teaches in long discourses, and when He teaches, He talks about eternal life (3:16; 4:14, 36; 5:24-25, 39-40; 6:47, 54; 10:28; 11:25-26; 12:25, 49-50) and not the "Kingdom of God" or "Kingdom of Heaven" as in the other Gospels. In the Synoptic Gospels, Jesus performs healings and miracles. John calls Jesus' healings and miracles "signs" (2:11; 4:48, 54; 6:30; 20:30-31). These signs contain different content from the miracles in Matthew, Mark, and Luke. They include the miracle of water turned to wine (2:1-11), the healing of an official's son (4:46-54), the healing of the lame man by the pool of Bethesda (5:1-15), the restoration of sight to a man born blind (9:1-7), and the raising of Lazarus (11:38-44). No other Gospel includes these stories.

Additionally, in the Synoptic Gospels, Jesus ministers in and around Galilee before He goes to Jerusalem, where He overturns tables in the Temple, eats a Passover meal with His disciples, and is arrested and eventually put to death. In John, Jesus moves back and forth between Galilee and Jerusalem. He overturns tables in the Temple early in His ministry (2:13-17). John clearly intends to complement the depiction of Jesus given by the other Gospel writers by adding his own eyewitness knowledge and insight. For this reason, the Gospel of John was the last of the four Gospels, written sometime during the years after the destruction of the Temple in AD 70.

John, a son of Zebedee and brother of James, wrote this Gospel. He was with Jesus from the beginning of His public ministry and observed firsthand important moments throughout those years. Thus, John saw Jesus' restoration to life of Jairus's daughter (Mark 5:35-43; Luke 8:49-56), Jesus' transfiguration on the mountain (Mark 9:2-8; Matthew 17:1-8), and Jesus' agony in the Garden of Gethsemane before His crucifixion (Mark 14:32-34; Matthew 26:36-38). John refers to himself as "the disciple Jesus loved" in his accounts of Jesus' Last Supper (13:23), his place at the cross with Jesus' mother (19:26-27), and the empty tomb (20:2-9). And he says that he ("this disciple") is the one who has written the Gospel (21:24). The fact that he refers to himself in this way points to the great love he had personally experienced from Jesus. It explains why he emphasizes God's love throughout his Gospel. John uses the word love almost 60 times, including 3:16; 13:34-35; 14:15-24; 15:12-17; 21:15-19.

John's emphasis on God's love and the love the disciples are to have for one another is a key theme for him. Another theme is the ministry of the Holy Spirit. John reports the Spirit moved upon Jesus at His baptism and remained with Him (1:32-34), meaning everything Jesus said and did from that moment was done with the help of the Spirit. The same Holy Spirit will be with the disciples (14:15-17, 25-27; 15:26) as well as with the world (16:5-15).

Yet another theme is John's understanding of Jesus' identity. Just as Matthew sees Jesus in relation to Moses and David, Mark shows Him to be the Son of God, and Luke reveals Him to be the Savior of the world, John adds that Jesus is the Word of God (1:1-3, 14), the Light of the World (1:5, 9; 8:12), and the Lamb of God (1:29). Moreover, he presents Jesus in relation to the God of Israel who delivered His people from Egypt as "I Am Who I Am" (Exodus 3:13-14). Seven times Jesus uses the verbal expression "I Am" with different nouns to name Himself. Who is Jesus, according to John? He is the one God has sent to deliver people from bondage and give them eternal life just as God delivered Israel and led them into the rich land of Canaan. John shows that Jesus reprises God's great miracle of deliverance and manifests God's great act of love and faithfulness (Deuteronomy 4; 7; Hosea 11:1-4) to the people of His own day.

Thus, when Jesus says He is the "bread of life" (6:22-59), He means that He has come to provide

JOHN	"I AM"	EXODUS CONNECTION
6:22-59	Bread of Life	Manna
8:12-20; 9:1-7	Light of the World	Light in tabernacle
8:48-59	Before Abraham	Covenant
10:1-30	Gate for the Sheep/Good Shepherd	Moses
11:17-27	Resurrection and Life	New beginning in Canaan
14:1-6	Way, Truth, and Life	Commandments/Torah
15:1-8	The Vine	Bear fruit

what people need most in their lives, just as God provided manna for the Israelites in the wilderness (Exodus 16). When He says He is the “light of the world” (8:12–20; 9:1–7), He means He has come to give understanding (light) about what God is like. In the same way God was present to the Israelites in the form of fire (light) above the Tabernacle, they would know Jesus was with them (Exodus 40:34–38). When He says He is the “I AM” before Abraham (John 8:48–59), He means He has come to remind the people of the importance of belief for their relationship with God through the covenant He first made with Abraham (Genesis 15:1–6; Exodus 3:6, 13–16) and then with Moses (Exodus 19–20). When Jesus says He is the “gate for the sheep” and “the good shepherd” (John 10:1–30), He means He has come to care for God’s people in the same way God cared for the Israelites as their Shepherd during the Exodus (Psalm 78:52). When He says He is “the resurrection and the life” (John 11:17–27), He means He has come to offer a new beginning, just as God gave a new beginning to the Israelites who had virtually died in slavery in Egypt. When Jesus says He is “the way, the truth, and the life” (14:1–6), He means He has come to show what life looks like when lived in obedience to God’s commandments, just as God gave the commandments to the Israelites at Mount Sinai to bless them (Deuteronomy 5–8). And when Jesus says He is the vine (John 15:1–8), He means He has come to make people fruitful in their lives when they are in relation to Him, just as the Israelites were to be fruitful when they lived in covenant relationship with God through His commandments.

According to John, not only does Jesus identify Himself with the God of the Exodus who delivered the Israelites from Egypt, but Jesus also performs seven signs to back up what He was saying about Himself. As noted above, John uses the word “sign” rather than “miracle” because, according to him, the miracles Jesus performed have special meaning. They prove He is qualified to talk to people about the love of God, and He is able to do all the things that His “I AM” names suggest.

Altogether, the signs performed by Jesus recall the Exodus story and reveal God’s continued blessing upon His people through Jesus. God is with Jesus to heal them, deliver them, provide for their needs, give understanding to them, and empower them to experience new life.

JOHN	SIGNS	EXODUS CONNECTION

Unlike the Synoptic Gospels, John’s Gospel does not contain any parables. Instead, John records many of Jesus’ teachings in the form of allegories or wise sayings.

PROLOGUE: CHRIST, THE ETERNAL WORD

1 <sup>1</sup> In the beginning the Word already existed.

The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

<sup>3</sup> God created everything through him, and nothing was created except through him.

<sup>4</sup> The Word gave life to everything that was created,*
and his life brought light to everyone.

<sup>5</sup> The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it.*

<sup>6</sup> God sent a man, John the Baptist,* <sup>7</sup> to tell about the light so that everyone might believe because of his testimony. <sup>8</sup> John himself was not the light; he was simply a witness to tell about the light. <sup>9</sup> The one who is the true light, who gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

<sup>10</sup> He came into the very world he created, but the world didn't recognize him. <sup>11</sup> He came to his own people, and even they rejected him. <sup>12</sup> But to all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right to become children of God. <sup>13</sup> They are reborn—not with a physical birth resulting from human passion or plan, but a birth that comes from God.

<sup>14</sup> So the Word became human* and made his home among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness.* And we have seen his glory, the glory of the Father's one and only Son.

<sup>15</sup> John testified about him when he shouted to the crowds, "This is the one I was talking about when I said, 'Someone is coming after me who is far greater than I am, for he existed long before me.'"

<sup>16</sup> From his abundance we have all received one gracious blessing after another.* <sup>17</sup> For the law was given through Moses, but God's unfailing love and faithfulness came through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God. But the unique One, who is himself God,* is near to the Father's heart. He has revealed God to us.

THE TESTIMONY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

<sup>19</sup> This was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders sent priests and Temple assistants* from Jerusalem to ask John, "Who are you?" <sup>20</sup> He came right out and said, "I am not the Messiah."

<sup>21</sup> "Well then, who are you?" they asked. "Are you Elijah?"

"No," he replied.

"Are you the Prophet we are expecting?"*

"No."

<sup>22</sup> "Then who are you? We need an answer for those who sent us. What do you have to say about yourself?"

<sup>23</sup> John replied in the words of the prophet Isaiah:

"I am a voice shouting in the wilderness,
'Clear the way for the LORD's coming!'"*

<sup>24</sup> Then the Pharisees who had been sent <sup>25</sup> asked him, "If you aren't the Messiah or Elijah or the Prophet, what right do you have to baptize?"

JESUS, THE LAMB OF GOD

<sup>29</sup> The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup> He is the one I was talking about when I said, 'A man is coming after me who is far greater than I am, for he existed long before me.' <sup>31</sup> I did not recognize him as the Messiah, but I have been baptizing with water so that he might be revealed to Israel."

<sup>32</sup> Then John testified, "I saw the Holy Spirit descending like a dove from heaven and resting upon him. <sup>33</sup> I didn't know he was the one, but when God sent me to baptize with water, he told me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit descend and rest is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' <sup>34</sup> I saw this happen to Jesus, so I testify that he is the Chosen One of God.*"

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

<sup>38</sup> Jesus looked around and saw them following. "What do you want?" he asked them.

They replied, "Rabbi" (which means "Teacher"), "where are you staying?"

<sup>39</sup> "Come and see," he said. It was about four o'clock in the afternoon when they went with him to the place where he was staying, and they remained with him the rest of the day.

<sup>40</sup> Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of these men who heard what John said and then followed Jesus. <sup>41</sup> Andrew went to find his brother, Simon, and told him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means "Christ"*).

1:3-4 Or and nothing that was created was created except through him. The Word gave life to everything. 1:5 Or and the darkness has not understood it. 1:6 Greek a man named John. 1:14a Greek became flesh. 1:14b Or grace and truth; also in 1:17. 1:16 Or received the grace of Christ rather than the grace of the law; Greek reads received grace upon grace. 1:18 Some manuscripts read But the one and only Son. 1:19 Greek and Levites. 1:21 Greek Are you the Prophet? See Deut 18:15, 18; Mal 4:5-6. 1:23 Isa 40:3. 1:26 Or in; also in 1:31, 33. 1:34 Some manuscripts read the Son of God. 1:41 Messiah (a Hebrew term) and Christ (a Greek term) both mean "anointed one."

<sup>42</sup>Then Andrew brought Simon to meet Jesus. Looking intently at Simon, Jesus said, “Your name is Simon, son of John—but you will be called Cephas” (which means “Peter”).

<sup>43</sup>The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Come, follow me.” <sup>44</sup>Philip was from Bethsaida, Andrew and Peter’s hometown.

<sup>45</sup>Philip went to look for Nathanael and told him, “We have found the very person Moses* and the prophets wrote about! His name is Jesus, the son of Joseph from Nazareth.”

“Come and see for yourself,” Philip replied.

<sup>47</sup>As they approached, Jesus said, “Now here is a genuine son of Israel—a man of complete integrity.”

<sup>48</sup>“How do you know about me?” Nathanael asked.

Jesus replied, “I could see you under the fig tree before Philip found you.”

<sup>49</sup>Then Nathanael exclaimed, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God—the King of Israel!”

<sup>50</sup>Jesus asked him, “Do you believe this just because I told you I had seen you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than this.”

<sup>51</sup>Then he said, “I tell you the truth, you will all see heaven open and the angels of God going up and down on the Son of Man, the one who is the stairway between heaven and earth.”*

THE WEDDING AT CANA

2 The next day* there was a wedding celebration in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus’ mother was there, <sup>2</sup>and Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the celebration. <sup>3</sup>The wine supply ran out during the festivities, so Jesus’ mother told him, “They have no more wine.”

<sup>4</sup>“Dear woman, that’s not our problem,” Jesus replied. “My time has not yet come.”

<sup>6</sup>Standing nearby were six stone water jars, used for Jewish ceremonial washing. Each could hold twenty to thirty gallons.* <sup>7</sup>Jesus told the servants, “Fill the jars with water.” When the jars had been filled, <sup>8</sup>he said, “Now dip some out, and take it to the master of ceremonies.” So the servants followed his instructions.

<sup>9</sup>When the master of ceremonies tasted the water that was now wine, not knowing where it had come from (though, of course, the servants knew), he called the bridegroom over. <sup>10</sup>“A host always serves the best wine first,” he said. “Then, when everyone has had a lot to drink, he brings out the less expensive wine. But you have kept the best until now!”

<sup>12</sup>After the wedding he went to Capernaum for a few days with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples.

JESUS CLEARS THE TEMPLE

<sup>13</sup>It was nearly time for the Jewish Passover celebration, so Jesus went to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>In the Temple area he saw merchants selling cattle, sheep, and doves for sacrifices; he also saw dealers at tables exchanging foreign money. <sup>15</sup>Jesus made a whip from some ropes and chased them all out of the Temple. He drove out the sheep and cattle, scattered the money changers’ coins over the floor, and turned over their tables. <sup>16</sup>Then, going over to the people who sold doves, he told them, “Get these things out of here. Stop turning my Father’s house into a marketplace!”

<sup>17</sup>Then his disciples remembered this prophecy from the Scriptures: “Passion for God’s house will consume me.”*

<sup>18</sup>But the Jewish leaders demanded, “What are you doing? If God gave you authority to do this, show us a miraculous sign to prove it.”

<sup>19</sup>“All right,” Jesus replied. “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.”

<sup>20</sup>“What!” they exclaimed. “It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple, and you can rebuild it in three days?” <sup>21</sup>But when Jesus said “this temple,” he meant his own body. <sup>22</sup>After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered he had said this, and they believed both the Scriptures and what Jesus had said.

JESUS AND NICODEMUS

<sup>23</sup>Because of the miraculous signs Jesus did in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration, many began to trust in him. <sup>24</sup>But Jesus didn’t trust them, because he knew all about people. <sup>25</sup>No one needed to tell him about human nature, for he knew what was in each person’s heart.

3 There was a man named Nicodemus, a Jewish religious leader who was a Pharisee. <sup>2</sup>After dark one evening, he came to speak with Jesus. “Rabbi,” he said, “we all know that God has sent you to teach us. Your miraculous signs are evidence that God is with you.”

<sup>3</sup>Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, unless you are born again,* you cannot see the Kingdom of God.”

<sup>4</sup>“What do you mean?” exclaimed Nicodemus. “How can an old man go back into his mother’s womb and be born again?”

1:42 The names Cephas (from Aramaic) and Peter (from Greek) both mean “rock.” 1:45 Greek Moses in the law. 1:51 Greek going up and down on the Son of Man; see Gen 28:10–17. “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. 2:1 Greek On the third day; see 1:35, 43. 2:6 Greek 2 or 3 measures [75 to 113 liters]. 2:17 Or “Concern for God’s house will be my undoing.” Ps 69:9. 3:3 Or born from above; also in 3:7.

MUST-MANY-KNOW

John 3:1-21

ROBERT MORRIS

Think about when you first got saved. The apostle Paul said to the believers in Corinth, "Examine yourselves to see if your faith is genuine" (2 Corinthians 13:5). I'm not trying to get you to question your salvation; I just want you to think about on what you're basing your eternal destination. Attending church or giving money to a church does not save you. You only go to heaven if you truly accept Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior.

Here is what Jesus says about salvation:

1. You must be born again.

In John 3, Jesus tells Nicodemus, "You must be born again" (v. 7). He doesn't say, "I think this is something you should strongly consider." Nicodemus was a Pharisee, which means he would have memorized the first five books of the Bible, tithed, fasted, prayed, and attended the Temple. He believed in the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He even believed God was with Jesus. However, none of these things saved him. Jesus tells Nicodemus, "Unless you are born again, you cannot see the Kingdom of God" (v. 3).

2. Many people have not been born again.

In Matthew 7:21-22, Jesus says there are many people who prophesy, cast out demons, and do miracles in His name, but they will not enter heaven. Why? Because "I never knew you" (v. 23). It's possible to do good things without being born again. And if many people who are actively engaged in the work of God are not saved, how many more are not saved who just attend church? You can't change yourself; only Jesus can change you.

3. How can you know if you've been born again?

The apostle John says you can know you have eternal life (1 John 5:13). When you come to Jesus, you can't say, "Please save me if I'm a sinner." You have to say and believe, "I am a sinner, and I need You." When you submit your will to God's will, He changes you, and you begin to desire His way instead of your own way. God reverses the direction of where you were headed (hell) to the destination He provided for you from the very beginning (heaven). My life totally and radically changed when Jesus came into my heart. If you have never experienced this, or if you are doubting that you are truly saved, be honest with God and yourself. You can give your life to Jesus today, and He will change you!

<sup>5</sup>Jesus replied, "I assure you, no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and the Spirit.* <sup>6</sup>Humans can reproduce only human life, but the Holy Spirit gives birth to

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE SAVED

John 3:14-17

JACK HAYFORD

We enter a new world when we accept Jesus. By grace, through faith, we are regenerated, redeemed, and justified.

Regeneration brings the newness every human being needs. Sin makes us wither up and die on the inside, and we all need to be born again. God gives us a breath of spiritual life by His Holy Spirit.

Redemption refers to paying a price. We have no ability to pay the price for sin, which is death, so Jesus came and did this for us. He shed His own blood to make us right with God.

Justification has to do with being given a perfect record. As a judge, God is always honest, fair, and right. When we put our faith in the Lord Jesus, God gives us His Son's record. We are now legally right with Him.

Jesus has come to give us new life, redeem what's broken, and give us right standing before God.

spiritual life.* <sup>7</sup>So don't be surprised when I say, 'You* must be born again.' <sup>8</sup>The wind blows wherever it wants. Just as you can hear the wind but can't tell where it comes from or where it is going, so you can't explain how people are born of the Spirit."

<sup>10</sup>Jesus replied, "You are a respected Jewish teacher, and yet you don't understand these things?"

<sup>11</sup>I assure you, we tell you what we know and have seen, and yet you won't believe our testimony. <sup>12</sup>But if you don't believe me when I tell you about earthly things, how can you possibly believe if I tell you about heavenly things? <sup>13</sup>No one has ever gone to heaven and returned. But the Son of Man* has come down from heaven. <sup>14</sup>And as Moses lifted up the bronze snake on a pole in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, <sup>15</sup>so that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life.*

<sup>16</sup>"For this is how God loved the world: He gave* his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. <sup>17</sup>God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through him.

<sup>18</sup>"There is no judgment against anyone who believes in him. But anyone who does not believe in him has already been judged for not believing in God's one and only Son. <sup>19</sup>And the judgment is based on this fact: God's light came into the 3:5 Or and spirit. The Greek word for Spirit can also be translated wind; see 3:8. 3:6 Greek what is born of the Spirit is spirit.

3:7 The Greek word for you is plural; also in 3:12. 3:13 Some manuscripts add who lives in heaven. "Son of Man" is a title Jesus used for himself. 3:15 Or everyone who believes will have eternal life in him. 3:16 Or For God loved the world so much that he gave.

THE SON

John 3:16

ROBERT MORRIS

God created us to exist in perfect relationship with Him, but when Adam and Eve disobeyed in the Garden of Eden, sin entered the world. Sin separates us from God, and we can never do enough “good” things to undo sin. However, God loves us so much that He gave His Son, Jesus, to save us and restore our relationship with Him.

When Jesus died on the cross, He stood in our place and took the punishment for our sins. Because Jesus never sinned, He was the perfect sacrifice and removed the barrier between God and us.

But after three days, God raised Jesus from the dead! More than 500 people saw Him during the next 40 days, and then He ascended to heaven. If you ask Jesus to forgive you for your sins and receive Him as your Lord and Savior, you can join Him one day for all eternity!

world, but people loved the darkness more than the light, for their actions were evil. <sup>20</sup> All who do evil hate the light and refuse to go near it for fear their sins will be exposed. <sup>21</sup> But those who do what is right come to the light so others can see that they are doing what God wants.*”

JOHN THE BAPTIST EXALTS JESUS

<sup>22</sup> Then Jesus and his disciples left Jerusalem and went into the Judean countryside. Jesus spent some time with them there, baptizing people.

<sup>27</sup> John replied, “No one can receive anything unless God gives it from heaven. <sup>28</sup> You yourselves know how plainly I told you, ‘I am not the Messiah. I am only here to prepare the way for him.’ <sup>29</sup> It is the bridegroom who marries the bride, and the bridegroom’s friend is simply glad to stand with him and hear his vows. Therefore, I am filled with joy at his success. <sup>30</sup> He must become greater and greater, and I must become less and less.

<sup>31</sup> “He has come from above and is greater than anyone else. We are of the earth, and we speak of earthly things, but he has come from heaven and is greater than anyone else.*” <sup>32</sup> He testifies about what he has seen and heard, but how few believe what he tells them! <sup>33</sup> Anyone who accepts his testimony can affirm that God is true. <sup>34</sup> For

HE GAVE

John 3:16

ROBERT MORRIS

The entire Bible can be summarized in two words: He gave. Giving is the active expression of God’s love. John 3:16 says, “For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.” When we receive Jesus as our Lord and Savior, we also receive His giving nature.

A magazine reporter once asked me, “How often do you preach on giving?” Without even thinking, I replied, “Every week!” The reporter seemed surprised, so I explained, “I think you asked me the wrong question. I think you meant to ask me how often I preach on giving money, which is about every two to three years. But I can’t preach on prayer, marriage, grace, or faith without giving!” Giving is the theme of the Bible, and it’s the only reason we’re here. God gave His Son for us, and we have eternal security when we give our lives to Him in return.

he is sent by God. He speaks God’s words, for God gives him the Spirit without limit. <sup>35</sup> The Father loves his Son and has put everything into his hands. <sup>36</sup> And anyone who believes in God’s Son has eternal life. Anyone who doesn’t obey the Son will never experience eternal life but remains under God’s angry judgment.”

JESUS AND THE SAMARITAN WOMAN

4 Jesus* knew the Pharisees had heard that he was baptizing and making more disciples than John <sup>2</sup> (though Jesus himself didn’t baptize them—his disciples did). <sup>3</sup> So he left Judea and returned to Galilee.

<sup>4</sup> He had to go through Samaria on the way. <sup>5</sup> Eventually he came to the Samaritan village of Sychar, near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup> Jacob’s well was there; and Jesus, tired from the long walk, sat wearily beside the well about noontime. <sup>7</sup> Soon a Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, “Please give me a drink.” <sup>8</sup> He was alone at the time because his disciples had gone into the village to buy some food.

<sup>9</sup> The woman was surprised, for Jews refuse to have anything to do with Samaritans.* She said to Jesus, “You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. Why are you asking me for a drink?”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus replied, “If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask me, and I would give you living water.”

3:21 Or can see God at work in what he is doing. 3:25 Some manuscripts read some Jews. 3:31 Some manuscripts do not include and is greater than anyone else. 4:1 Some manuscripts read The Lord. 4:9 Some manuscripts do not include this sentence.

<sup>11</sup>“But sir, you don’t have a rope or a bucket,” she said, “and this well is very deep. Where would you get this living water?” <sup>12</sup>And besides, do you think you’re greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us this well? How can you offer better water than he and his sons and his animals enjoyed?”

<sup>13</sup>Jesus replied, “Anyone who drinks this water will soon become thirsty again. <sup>14</sup>But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh, bubbling spring within them, giving them eternal life.”

<sup>15</sup>“Please, sir,” the woman said, “give me this water! Then I’ll never be thirsty again, and I won’t have to come here to get water.”

Jesus said, “You’re right! You don’t have a husband—<sup>18</sup>for you have had five husbands, and you aren’t even married to the man you’re living with now. You certainly spoke the truth!”

<sup>19</sup>“Sir,” the woman said, “you must be a prophet. <sup>20</sup>So tell me, why is it that you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place of worship, while we Samaritans claim it is here at Mount Gerizim,* where our ancestors worshiped?”

<sup>21</sup>Jesus replied, “Believe me, dear woman, the time is coming when it will no longer matter whether you worship the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup>You Samaritans know very little about the one you worship, while we Jews know all about him, for salvation comes through the Jews. <sup>23</sup>But the time is coming—indeed it’s here now—when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for those who will worship him that way. <sup>24</sup>For God is Spirit, so those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.”

<sup>25</sup>The woman said, “I know the Messiah is coming—the one who is called Christ. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

<sup>26</sup>Then Jesus told her, “I AM the Messiah!”*

<sup>27</sup>Just then his disciples came back. They were shocked to find him talking to a woman, but none of them had the nerve to ask, “What do you want with her?” or “Why are you talking to her?” <sup>28</sup>The woman left her water jar beside the well and ran back to the village, telling everyone, <sup>29</sup>“Come and see a man who told me everything I ever did! Could he possibly be the Messiah?” <sup>30</sup>So the people came streaming from the village to see him.

<sup>33</sup>“Did someone bring him food while we were gone?” the disciples asked each other.

<sup>34</sup>Then Jesus explained: “My nourishment comes from doing the will of God, who sent me, and from finishing his work. <sup>35</sup>You know the saying, ‘Four months between planting and harvest.’

SHARING THE GOOD NEWS

John 4:27–38

ROBERT MORRIS

In John 4, Jesus is traveling to Galilee when He stops to rest at a well in a Samaritan village. A Samaritan woman comes to the well, and Jesus shares the good news of His “living water” (v. 10) with her. When the disciples return from buying food, they encourage Jesus to eat, but He replies, “I have a kind of food you know nothing about” (v. 32). The disciples wonder if their Master received food from someone else. They are also silently bewildered as to why Jesus (a Jewish man) would speak to a Samaritan woman—“for Jews refuse to have anything to do with Samaritans” (v. 9). Jesus’ answer addresses both questions: “My nourishment comes from doing the will of God, who sent me, and from finishing his work” (v. 34).

Sharing the gospel nourishes us. There is a spiritual refreshing and replenishing that happens when we follow God’s command to share the Good News.

But I say, wake up and look around. The fields are already ripe* for harvest. <sup>36</sup>The harvesters are paid good wages, and the fruit they harvest is people brought to eternal life. What joy awaits both the planter and the harvester alike! <sup>37</sup>You know the saying, ‘One plants’ and another harvests.’ And it’s true. <sup>38</sup>I sent you to harvest where you didn’t plant; others had already done the work, and now you will get to gather the harvest.”

MANY SAMARITANS BELIEVE

<sup>39</sup>Many Samaritans from the village believed in Jesus because the woman had said, “He told me everything I ever did!” <sup>40</sup>When they came out to see him, they begged him to stay in their village. So he stayed for two days, <sup>41</sup>long enough for many more to hear his message and believe. <sup>42</sup>Then they said to the woman, “Now we believe, not just because of what you told us, but because we have heard him ourselves. Now we know that he is indeed the Savior of the world.”

JESUS HEALS AN OFFICIAL’S SON

<sup>43</sup>At the end of the two days, Jesus went on to Galilee. <sup>44</sup>He himself had said that a prophet is not honored in his own hometown. <sup>45</sup>Yet the Galileans welcomed him, for they had been in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration and had seen everything he did there.

<sup>46</sup>As he traveled through Galilee, he came to Cana, where he had turned the water into wine. There was a government official in nearby

<sup>42</sup> Greek on this mountain. <sup>4:26</sup> Or “The ‘I AM’ is here”; or “I am the LORD”; Greek reads “I am, the one speaking to you.” See Exod 3:14. <sup>4:35</sup> Greek white.

Capernaum whose son was very sick.<sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged Jesus to come to Capernaum to heal his son, who was about to die.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus asked, “Will you never believe in me unless you see miraculous signs and wonders?”

<sup>50</sup> Then Jesus told him, “Go back home. Your son will live!” And the man believed what Jesus said and started home.

<sup>51</sup> While the man was on his way, some of his servants met him with the news that his son was alive and well.<sup>52</sup> He asked them when the boy had begun to get better, and they replied, “Yesterday afternoon at one o’clock his fever suddenly disappeared!”<sup>53</sup> Then the father realized that that was the very time Jesus had told him, “Your son will live.” And he and his entire household believed in Jesus.<sup>54</sup> This was the second miraculous sign Jesus did in Galilee after coming from Judea.

JESUS HEALS A LAME MAN

5 Afterward Jesus returned to Jerusalem for one of the Jewish holy days.<sup>2</sup> Inside the city, near the Sheep Gate, was the pool of Bethesda,* with five covered porches.<sup>3</sup> Crowds of sick people—blind, lame, or paralyzed—lay on the porches.<sup>4</sup> One of the men lying there had been sick for thirty-eight years.<sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him and knew he had been ill for a long time, he asked him, “Would you like to get well?”

<sup>7</sup> “I can’t, sir,” the sick man said, “for I have no one to put me into the pool when the water bubbles up. Someone else always gets there ahead of me.”

<sup>9</sup> Instantly, the man was healed! He rolled up his sleeping mat and began walking! But this miracle happened on the Sabbath,<sup>10</sup> so the Jewish leaders objected. They said to the man who was cured, “You can’t work on the Sabbath! The law doesn’t allow you to carry that sleeping mat!”

<sup>11</sup> But he replied, “The man who healed me told me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’”

<sup>12</sup> “Who said such a thing as that?” they demanded.

<sup>13</sup> The man didn’t know, for Jesus had disappeared into the crowd.<sup>14</sup> But afterward Jesus found him in the Temple and told him, “Now you are well; so stop sinning, or something even worse may happen to you.”<sup>15</sup> Then the man went and told the Jewish leaders that it was Jesus who had healed him.

JESUS CLAIMS TO BE THE SON OF GOD

<sup>16</sup> So the Jewish leaders began harassing* Jesus for breaking the Sabbath rules.<sup>17</sup> But Jesus replied, “My Father is always working, and so am I.”<sup>18</sup> So the Jewish leaders tried all the harder to find a way to kill him. For he not only broke

THE LAME MAN’S STORY

John 5:1–30

ROBERT MORRIS

In John 5, we read the story of the lame man’s encounter with Jesus at the pool of Bethesda. Jesus asks, “Would you like to get well?” (v. 6). Surprisingly, the man does not respond, “Yes!” But why wouldn’t he want to be healed? And why do we often respond to God the same way?

1. Excuses

We often make excuses to explain why we’re “different” and why God’s healing won’t work for us. The lame man said there was no one to help him into the pool (v. 7), which is the same as saying, “It’s not my fault.” This is the number one excuse in society for our problems—someone else did something to me. It is also one of the top lies of the enemy. No one can stop God’s plans for us except us. People often tell me, “Pastor, you just don’t understand my situation.” I may not understand all the details, but I understand Jesus. He is the same yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8), and no situation is beyond His power to redeem and overcome.

2. Effort

Jesus didn’t tell the lame man, “Be healed!” Instead, He said, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk!” (v. 8). After being sick for 38 years, the man had to put some effort into his healing. It’s easy for us to become comfortable in our weakness, so when Jesus says, “Would you like to get well?” He is really asking, “Are you willing to change your thinking and actions?” Are you willing to give up whatever is holding you down, such as bitterness, rejection, or self-pity?

3. Experience

Sometimes we miss God’s healing because it looks different from our previous experiences. The lame man expected an angel to come down and stir the water, so he didn’t recognize that Jesus was God. Jesus also told him to carry his bed on the Sabbath, which went against the man’s religious upbringing. It is possible that for you to be healed, you will have to step out of your comfort zone. God may not come in the way you expect, so ask the Holy Spirit to show you what He wants you to do to pursue healing. Then obey whatever He asks you to do.

the Sabbath, he called God his Father, thereby making himself equal with God.

<sup>5:3</sup> Some manuscripts add an expanded conclusion to verse 3 and all of verse 4: waiting for a certain movement of the water, for an angel of the Lord came from time to time and stirred up the water. And the first person to step in after the water was stirred was healed of whatever disease he had. <sup>5:16</sup> Or persecuting.

<sup>19</sup> So Jesus explained, “I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself. He does only what he sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son also does. <sup>20</sup> For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he is doing. In fact, the Father will show him how to do even greater works than healing this man. Then you will truly be astonished. <sup>21</sup> For just as the Father gives life to those he raises from the dead, so the Son gives life to anyone he wants. <sup>22</sup> In addition, the Father judges no one. Instead, he has given the Son absolute authority to judge, <sup>23</sup> so that everyone will honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son is certainly not honoring the Father who sent him.

<sup>24</sup> “I tell you the truth, those who listen to my message and believe in God who sent me have eternal life. They will never be condemned for their sins, but they have already passed from death into life.

<sup>25</sup> “And I assure you that the time is coming, indeed it’s here now, when the dead will hear my voice—the voice of the Son of God. And those who listen will live. <sup>26</sup> The Father has life in himself, and he has granted that same life-giving power to his Son. <sup>27</sup> And he has given him authority to judge everyone because he is the Son of Man.* <sup>28</sup> Don’t be so surprised! Indeed, the time is coming when all the dead in their graves will hear the voice of God’s Son, <sup>29</sup> and they will rise again. Those who have done good will rise to experience eternal life, and those who have continued in evil will rise to experience judgment. <sup>30</sup> I can do nothing on my own. I judge as God tells me. Therefore, my judgment is just, because I carry out the will of the one who sent me, not my own will.

WITNESSES TO JESUS

<sup>31</sup> “If I were to testify on my own behalf, my testimony would not be valid. <sup>32</sup> But someone else is also testifying about me, and I assure you that everything he says about me is true. <sup>33</sup> In fact, you sent investigators to listen to John the Baptist, and his testimony about me was true. <sup>34</sup> Of course, I have no need of human witnesses, but I say these things so you might be saved. <sup>35</sup> John was like a burning and shining lamp, and you were excited for a while about his message. <sup>36</sup> But I have a greater witness than John—my teachings and my miracles. The Father gave me these works to accomplish, and they prove that he sent me. <sup>37</sup> And the Father who sent me has testified about me himself. You have never heard his voice or seen him face to face, <sup>38</sup> and you do not have his message in your hearts, because you do not believe me—the one he sent to you.

<sup>39</sup> “You search the Scriptures because you think they give you eternal life. But the Scriptures point to me! <sup>40</sup> Yet you refuse to come to me to receive this life.

<sup>41</sup> “Your approval means nothing to me, <sup>42</sup> because I know you don’t have God’s love within you. <sup>43</sup> For I have come to you in my Father’s name, and you have rejected me. Yet if others come in their own name, you gladly welcome them. <sup>44</sup> No wonder you can’t believe! For you gladly honor each other, but you don’t care about the honor that comes from the one who alone is God.*

<sup>45</sup> “Yet it isn’t I who will accuse you before the Father. Moses will accuse you! Yes, Moses, in whom you put your hopes. <sup>46</sup> If you really believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me. <sup>47</sup> But since you don’t believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?”

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

6 After this, Jesus crossed over to the far side of the Sea of Galilee, also known as the Sea of Tiberias. <sup>2</sup> A huge crowd kept following him wherever he went, because they saw his miraculous signs as he healed the sick. <sup>3</sup> Then Jesus climbed a hill and sat down with his disciples around him. <sup>4</sup> (It was nearly time for the Jewish Passover celebration.) <sup>5</sup> Jesus soon saw a huge crowd of people coming to look for him. Turning to Philip, he asked, “Where can we buy bread to feed all these people?” <sup>6</sup> He was testing Philip, for he already knew what he was going to do.

<sup>7</sup> Philip replied, “Even if we worked for months, we wouldn’t have enough money* to feed them!”

<sup>10</sup> “Tell everyone to sit down,” Jesus said. So they all sat down on the grassy slopes. (The men alone numbered about 5,000.) <sup>11</sup> Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks to God, and distributed them to the people. Afterward he did the same with the fish. And they all ate as much as they wanted. <sup>12</sup> After everyone was full, Jesus told his disciples, “Now gather the leftovers, so that nothing is wasted.” <sup>13</sup> So they picked up the pieces and filled twelve baskets with scraps left by the people who had eaten from the five barley loaves.

<sup>14</sup> When the people saw him* do this miraculous sign, they exclaimed, “Surely, he is the Prophet we have been expecting!”* <sup>15</sup> When Jesus saw that they were ready to force him to be their king, he slipped away into the hills by himself.

JESUS WALKS ON WATER

<sup>16</sup> That evening Jesus’ disciples went down to the shore to wait for him. <sup>17</sup> But as darkness fell and Jesus still hadn’t come back, they got into the boat and headed across the lake toward Capernaum.<sup>18</sup> Soon a gale swept down upon them, and the sea grew very rough.<sup>19</sup> They had rowed three or four miles* when suddenly they saw Jesus walking on the water toward the boat. They were terrified,<sup>20</sup> but he called out to them, "Don't be afraid. I am here!"<sup>21</sup> Then they were eager to let him in the boat, and immediately they arrived at their destination!

JESUS, THE BREAD OF LIFE

<sup>22</sup> The next day the crowd that had stayed on the far shore saw that the disciples had taken the only boat, and they realized Jesus had not gone with them.<sup>23</sup> Several boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the Lord had blessed the bread and the people had eaten.<sup>24</sup> So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went across to Capernaum to look for him.<sup>25</sup> They found him on the other side of the lake and asked, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, you want to be with me because I fed you, not because you understood the miraculous signs.<sup>27</sup> But don't be so concerned about perishable things like food. Spend your energy seeking the eternal life that the Son of Man* can give you. For God the Father has given me the seal of his approval."

<sup>29</sup> Jesus told them, "This is the only work God wants from you: Believe in the one he has sent."

<sup>30</sup> They answered, "Show us a miraculous sign if you want us to believe in you. What can you do? <sup>31</sup>After all, our ancestors ate manna while they journeyed through the wilderness! The Scriptures say, 'Moses gave them bread from heaven to eat.'<sup>32</sup>"

<sup>32</sup> Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, Moses didn't give you bread from heaven. My Father did. And now he offers you the true bread from heaven.

<sup>33</sup> The true bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

<sup>35</sup> Jesus replied, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry again. Whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.<sup>36</sup> But you haven't believed in me even though you have seen me.<sup>37</sup> However, those the Father has given me will come to me, and I will never reject them.<sup>38</sup> For I have come down from heaven to do the will of God who sent me, not to do my own will.<sup>39</sup> And this is the will of God, that I should not lose even one of all those he has given me, but that I should raise them up at the last day.<sup>40</sup> For it is my Father's will that all who see his Son and believe in him should have eternal life. I will raise them up at the last day."

<sup>41</sup> Then the people* began to murmur in disagreement because he had said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven."<sup>42</sup> They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph? We know his father and mother. How can he say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

<sup>43</sup> But Jesus replied, "Stop complaining about what I said.<sup>44</sup> For no one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws them to me, and at the last day I will raise them up.<sup>45</sup> As it is written in the Scriptures,* 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me.<sup>46</sup> (Not that anyone has ever seen the Father; only I, who was sent from God, have seen him.)

<sup>47</sup> "I tell you the truth, anyone who believes has eternal life.<sup>48</sup> Yes, I am the bread of life!<sup>49</sup> Your ancestors ate manna in the wilderness, but they all died.<sup>50</sup> Anyone who eats the bread from heaven, however, will never die.<sup>51</sup> I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever; and this bread, which I will offer so the world may live, is my flesh."

<sup>52</sup> Then the people began arguing with each other about what he meant. "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" they asked.

<sup>53</sup> So Jesus said again, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you cannot have eternal life within you.<sup>54</sup> But anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise that person at the last day.<sup>55</sup> For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.<sup>56</sup> Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.<sup>57</sup> I live because of the living Father who sent me; in the same way, anyone who feeds on me will live because of me.<sup>58</sup> I am the true bread that came down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will not die as your ancestors did (even though they ate the manna) but will live forever."

<sup>59</sup> He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

MANY DISCIPLES DESERT JESUS

<sup>60</sup> Many of his disciples said, "This is very hard to understand. How can anyone accept it?"

<sup>61</sup> Jesus was aware that his disciples were complaining, so he said to them, "Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup>Then what will you think if you see the Son of Man ascend to heaven again? <sup>63</sup>The Spirit alone gives eternal life. Human effort accomplishes nothing. And the very words I have spoken to you are spirit and life.<sup>64</sup> But some of you do not believe me." (For Jesus knew from the beginning which ones didn't believe, and he knew who would betray him.) <sup>65</sup>Then he said, "That is why I said that people can't come to me unless the Father gives them to me."

<sup>66</sup>At this point many of his disciples turned away and deserted him. <sup>67</sup>Then Jesus turned to the Twelve and asked, “Are you also going to leave?”

<sup>68</sup>Simon Peter replied, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words that give eternal life. <sup>69</sup>We believe, and we know you are the Holy One of God.”

<sup>70</sup>Then Jesus said, “I chose the twelve of you, but one is a devil.” <sup>71</sup>He was speaking of Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, one of the Twelve, who would later betray him.

JESUS AND HIS BROTHERS

7 After this, Jesus traveled around Galilee. He wanted to stay out of Judea, where the Jewish leaders were plotting his death. <sup>2</sup>But soon it was time for the Jewish Festival of Shelters, <sup>3</sup>and Jesus’ brothers said to him, “Leave here and go to Judea, where your followers can see your miracles! <sup>4</sup>You can’t become famous if you hide like this! If you can do such wonderful things, show yourself to the world!” <sup>5</sup>For even his brothers didn’t believe in him.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus replied, “Now is not the right time for me to go, but you can go anytime. <sup>7</sup>The world can’t hate you, but it does hate me because I accuse it of doing evil. <sup>8</sup>You go on. I’m not going* to this festival, because my time has not yet come.” <sup>9</sup>After saying these things, Jesus remained in Galilee.

JESUS TEACHES OPENLY AT THE TEMPLE

<sup>14</sup>Then, midway through the festival, Jesus went up to the Temple and began to teach. <sup>15</sup>The people* were surprised when they heard him. “How does he know so much when he hasn’t been trained?” they asked.

<sup>16</sup>So Jesus told them, “My message is not my own; it comes from God who sent me. <sup>17</sup>Anyone who wants to do the will of God will know whether my teaching is from God or is merely my own. <sup>18</sup>Those who speak for themselves want glory only for themselves, but a person who seeks to honor the one who sent him speaks truth, not lies. <sup>19</sup>Moses gave you the law, but none of you obeys it! In fact, you are trying to kill me.”

the Sabbath, too, when you obey Moses’ law of circumcision. (Actually, this tradition of circumcision began with the patriarchs, long before the law of Moses.) <sup>23</sup>For if the correct time for circumcising your son falls on the Sabbath, you go ahead and do it so as not to break the law of Moses. So why should you be angry with me for healing a man on the Sabbath? <sup>24</sup>Look beneath the surface so you can judge correctly.”

IS JESUS THE MESSIAH?

<sup>25</sup>Some of the people who lived in Jerusalem started to ask each other, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill? <sup>26</sup>But here he is, speaking in public, and they say nothing to him. Could our leaders possibly believe that he is the Messiah? <sup>27</sup>But how could he be? For we know where this man comes from. When the Messiah comes, he will simply appear; no one will know where he comes from.”

<sup>28</sup>While Jesus was teaching in the Temple, he called out, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I come from. But I’m not here on my own. The one who sent me is true, and you don’t know him. <sup>29</sup>But I know him because I come from him, and he sent me to you.” <sup>30</sup>Then the leaders tried to arrest him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his time* had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup>Many among the crowds at the Temple believed in him. “After all,” they said, “would you expect the Messiah to do more miraculous signs than this man has done?”

<sup>32</sup>When the Pharisees heard that the crowds were whispering such things, they and the leading priests sent Temple guards to arrest Jesus. <sup>33</sup>But Jesus told them, “I will be with you only a little longer. Then I will return to the one who sent me. <sup>34</sup>You will search for me but not find me. And you cannot go where I am going.”

<sup>35</sup>The Jewish leaders were puzzled by this statement. “Where is he planning to go?” they asked. “Is he thinking of leaving the country and going to the Jews in other lands?” Maybe he will even teach the Greeks! <sup>36</sup>What does he mean when he says, ‘You will search for me but not find me,’ and ‘You cannot go where I am going?’”

JESUS PROMISES LIVING WATER

<sup>37</sup>On the last day, the climax of the festival, Jesus stood and shouted to the crowds, “Anyone who is thirsty may come to me! <sup>38</sup>Anyone who believes in me may come and drink! For the Scriptures declare, ‘Rivers of living water will flow from his heart.’” <sup>39</sup>(When he said “living water,” he was speaking of the Spirit, who would be given to everyone believing in him. But the Spirit had not yet been given,* because Jesus had not yet entered into his glory.)

DIVISION AND UNBELIEF

<sup>40</sup> When the crowds heard him say this, some of them declared, “Surely this man is the Prophet we’ve been expecting.”* <sup>41</sup> Others said, “He is the Messiah.” Still others said, “But he can’t be! Will the Messiah come from Galilee?” <sup>42</sup> For the Scriptures clearly state that the Messiah will be born of the royal line of David, in Bethlehem, the village where King David was born.”* <sup>43</sup> So the crowd was divided about him. <sup>44</sup> Some even wanted him arrested, but no one laid a hand on him.

<sup>45</sup> When the Temple guards returned without having arrested Jesus, the leading priests and Pharisees demanded, “Why didn’t you bring him in?”

<sup>46</sup> “We have never heard anyone speak like this!” the guards responded.

<sup>50</sup> Then Nicodemus, the leader who had met with Jesus earlier, spoke up. <sup>51</sup> “Is it legal to convict a man before he is given a hearing?” he asked.

<sup>52</sup> They replied, “Are you from Galilee, too? Search the Scriptures and see for yourself—no prophet ever comes* from Galilee!”

<sup>53</sup> Then the meeting broke up, and everybody went home.

A WOMAN CAUGHT IN ADULTERY

8 Jesus returned to the Mount of Olives, <sup>2</sup> but early the next morning he was back again at the Temple. A crowd soon gathered, and he sat down and taught them. <sup>3</sup> As he was speaking, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in the act of adultery. They put her in front of the crowd.

<sup>4</sup> “Teacher,” they said to Jesus, “this woman was caught in the act of adultery. <sup>5</sup> The law of Moses says to stone her. What do you say?”

<sup>6</sup> They were trying to trap him into saying something they could use against him, but Jesus stooped down and wrote in the dust with his finger. <sup>7</sup> They kept demanding an answer, so he stood up again and said, “All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!”* <sup>8</sup> Then he stooped down again and wrote in the dust.

<sup>9</sup> When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman. <sup>10</sup> Then Jesus stood up again and said to the woman, “Where are your accusers? Didn’t even one of them condemn you?”

And Jesus said, “Neither do I. Go and sin no more.”

JESUS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

<sup>12</sup> Jesus spoke to the people once more and said, “I am the light of the world. If you follow me, you won’t have to walk in darkness, because you will have the light that leads to life.”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus told them, “These claims are valid even though I make them about myself. For I know where I came from and where I am going, but you don’t know this about me. <sup>15</sup> You judge me by human standards, but I do not judge anyone. <sup>16</sup> And if I did, my judgment would be correct in every respect because I am not alone. The Father* who sent me is with me. <sup>17</sup> Your own law says that if two people agree about something, their witness is accepted as fact.* <sup>18</sup> I am one witness, and my Father who sent me is the other.”

<sup>19</sup> “Where is your father?” they asked.

Jesus answered, “Since you don’t know who I am, you don’t know who my Father is. If you knew me, you would also know my Father.”

<sup>20</sup> Jesus made these statements while he was teaching in the section of the Temple known as the Treasury. But he was not arrested, because his time* had not yet come.

THE UNBELIEVING PEOPLE WARNED

<sup>21</sup> Later Jesus said to them again, “I am going away. You will search for me but will die in your sin. You cannot come where I am going.”

<sup>22</sup> The people* asked, “Is he planning to commit suicide? What does he mean, ‘You cannot come where I am going?’”

<sup>24</sup> That is why I said that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I Am who I claim to be,* you will die in your sins.”

Jesus replied, “The one I have always claimed to be.* <sup>26</sup> I have much to say about you and much to condemn, but I won’t. For I say only what I have heard from the one who sent me, and he is completely truthful.”* <sup>27</sup> But they still didn’t understand that he was talking about his Father.

---

7:39 Several early manuscripts read But as yet there was no Spirit. Still others read But as yet there was no Holy Spirit. 7:40 See Deut 18:15, 18; Mal 4:5–6. 7:42 See Mic 5:2. 7:52 Some manuscripts read the prophet does not come. 8:16 Some manuscripts read The One. 8:17 See Deut 19:15. 8:20 Greek his hour. 8:22 Greek Jewish people; also in 8:31, 48, 52, 57. 8:24 Greek unless you believe that I am. See Exod 3:14. 8:25 Or Why do I speak to you at all?

<sup>28</sup>So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man on the cross, then you will understand that I AM he.* I do nothing on my own but say only what the Father taught me. <sup>29</sup>And the one who sent me is with me—he has not deserted me. For I always do what pleases him.” <sup>30</sup>Then many who heard him say these things believed in him.

JESUS AND ABRAHAM

<sup>31</sup>Jesus said to the people who believed in him, “You are truly my disciples if you remain faithful to my teachings. <sup>32</sup>And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

<sup>33</sup>“But we are descendants of Abraham,” they said. “We have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean, ‘You will be set free’?”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave of sin. <sup>35</sup>A slave is not a permanent member of the family, but a son is part of the family forever. <sup>36</sup>So if the Son sets you free, you are truly free. <sup>37</sup>Yes, I realize that you are descendants of Abraham. And yet some of you are trying to kill me because there’s no room in your hearts for my message. <sup>38</sup>I am telling you what I saw when I was with my Father. But you are following the advice of your father.”

“No,” Jesus replied, “for if you were really the children of Abraham, you would follow his example.* <sup>40</sup>Instead, you are trying to kill me because I told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham never did such a thing. <sup>41</sup>No, you are imitating your real father.”

They replied, “We aren’t illegitimate children! God himself is our true Father.”

<sup>42</sup>Jesus told them, “If God were your Father, you would love me, because I have come to you from God. I am not here on my own, but he sent me. <sup>43</sup>Why can’t you understand what I am saying? It’s because you can’t even hear me! <sup>44</sup>For you are the children of your father the devil, and you love to do the evil things he does. He was a murderer from the beginning. He has always hated the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, it is consistent with his character; for he is a liar and the father of lies. <sup>45</sup>So when I tell the truth, you just naturally don’t believe me! <sup>46</sup>Which of you can truthfully accuse me of sin? And since I am telling you the truth, why don’t you believe me? <sup>47</sup>Anyone who belongs to God listens gladly to the words of God. But you don’t listen because you don’t belong to God.”

<sup>48</sup>The people retorted, “You Samaritan devil! Didn’t we say all along that you were possessed by a demon?”

<sup>49</sup>“No,” Jesus said, “I have no demon in me. For I honor my Father—and you dishonor me. <sup>50</sup>And though I have no wish to glorify myself, God is going to glorify me. He is the true judge. <sup>51</sup>I tell you the truth, anyone who obeys my teaching will never die!”

<sup>52</sup>The people said, “Now we know you are possessed by a demon. Even Abraham and the prophets died, but you say, ‘Anyone who obeys my teaching will never die!’ <sup>53</sup>Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?”

<sup>54</sup>Jesus answered, “If I want glory for myself, it doesn’t count. But it is my Father who will glorify me. You say, ‘He is our God,’* <sup>55</sup>but you don’t even know him. I know him. If I said otherwise, I would be as great a liar as you! But I do know him and obey him. <sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham rejoiced as he looked forward to my coming. He saw it and was glad.”

SET FREE

John 8:31-36

ROBERT MORRIS

At Gateway Church, one of our core values is to see every believer set free. In John 8:31-32, Jesus says those who faithfully follow His teachings “will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” Here are three key truths about being set free:

1. It’s possible for believers to be in bondage. You may ask, What is bondage? Bondage is any impulsive or compulsive behavior that restricts us from walking in freedom and enjoying the blessings Jesus died to give us.

Jesus wasn’t talking to unbelievers in John 8—He was talking to believers! We become free from the penalty of sin when we are saved, but we still need to be set free from the power of sin. It’s possible to be saved and still have bondage in our lives.

2. It’s difficult to admit you’re in bondage. When Jesus told the Jews the truth would set them free, they argued, “We have never been slaves to anyone” (John 8:33). Apparently, these people had forgotten their own history; they had been in bondage to the Egyptians, Chaldeans, and Babylonians, not to mention their current bondage to the Romans! I encounter believers every week who say, “I’m a Christian, so I can’t be in bondage.” But if you keep struggling with sin in a certain area, you don’t have a “weakness”—you have a bondage.

3. It’s easy to be set free from bondage. Here’s the good news about being set free: it doesn’t depend on you! First John 3:8 says, “The Son of God came to destroy the works of the devil.” Satan wants believers to think freedom is impossible. Here’s the truth, though: it’s not your responsibility to get set free. It’s your responsibility to come to Jesus. If you come, He will set you free!

8:28 Greek When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am. “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself.
8:39 Some manuscripts read if you are really the children of Abraham, follow his example. 8:54 Some manuscripts read You say he is your God.

<sup>57</sup> The people said, “You aren’t even fifty years old. How can you say you have seen Abraham?”

<sup>58</sup> Jesus answered, “I tell you the truth, before Abraham was even born, I AM!” <sup>59</sup> At that point they picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus was hidden from them and left the Temple.

JESUS HEALS A MAN BORN BLIND

9 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. <sup>2</sup> “Rabbi,” his disciples asked him, “why was this man born blind? Was it because of his own sins or his parents’ sins?”

<sup>3</sup> “It was not because of his sins or his parents’ sins,” Jesus answered. “This happened so the power of God could be seen in him. <sup>4</sup> We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent us. <sup>5</sup> The night is coming, and then no one can work. <sup>6</sup> But while I am here in the world, I am the light of the world.”

<sup>6</sup> Then he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud over the blind man’s eyes. <sup>7</sup> He told him, “Go wash yourself in the pool of Siloam” (Siloam means “sent”). So the man went and washed and came back seeing!

<sup>8</sup> His neighbors and others who knew him as a blind beggar asked each other, “Isn’t this the man who used to sit and beg?” <sup>9</sup> Some said he was, and others said, “No, he just looks like him!”

But the beggar kept saying, “Yes, I am the same one!”

<sup>11</sup> He told them, “The man they call Jesus made mud and spread it over my eyes and told me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam and wash yourself.’ So I went and washed, and now I can see!”

<sup>12</sup> “Where is he now?” they asked.

“I don’t know,” he replied.

<sup>13</sup> Then they took the man who had been blind to the Pharisees, <sup>14</sup> because it was on the Sabbath that Jesus had made the mud and healed him. <sup>15</sup> The Pharisees asked the man all about it. So he told them, “He put the mud over my eyes, and when I washed it away, I could see!”

<sup>16</sup> Some of the Pharisees said, “This man Jesus is not from God, for he is working on the Sabbath.” Others said, “But how could an ordinary sinner do such miraculous signs?” So there was a deep division of opinion among them.

<sup>17</sup> Then the Pharisees again questioned the man who had been blind and demanded, “What’s your opinion about this man who healed you?”

The man replied, “I think he must be a prophet.”

<sup>18</sup> The Jewish leaders still refused to believe the man had been blind and could now see, so they called in his parents. <sup>19</sup> They asked them, “Is this your son? Was he born blind? If so, how can he now see?”

<sup>20</sup> His parents replied, “We know this is our son and that he was born blind, <sup>21</sup> but we don’t know how he can see or who healed him. Ask him. He is old enough to speak for himself.” <sup>22</sup> His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders, who had announced that anyone saying Jesus was the Messiah would be expelled from the synagogue. <sup>23</sup> That’s why they said, “He is old enough. Ask him.”

<sup>24</sup> So for the second time they called in the man who had been blind and told him, “God should get the glory for this, * because we know this man Jesus is a sinner.”

<sup>25</sup> “I don’t know whether he is a sinner,” the man replied. “But I know this: I was blind, and now I can see!”

<sup>26</sup> “But what did he do?” they asked. “How did he heal you?”

<sup>27</sup> “Look!” the man exclaimed. “I told you once. Didn’t you listen? Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?”

<sup>28</sup> Then they cursed him and said, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses! <sup>29</sup> We know God spoke to Moses, but we don’t even know where this man comes from.”

<sup>30</sup> “Why, that’s very strange!” the man replied. “He healed my eyes, and yet you don’t know where he comes from? <sup>31</sup> We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners, but he is ready to hear those who worship him and do his will. <sup>32</sup> Ever since the world began, no one has been able to open the eyes of someone born blind. <sup>33</sup> If this man were not from God, he couldn’t have done it.”

<sup>34</sup> “You were born a total sinner!” they answered. “Are you trying to teach us?” And they threw him out of the synagogue.

SPIRITUAL BLINDNESS

<sup>35</sup> When Jesus heard what had happened, he found the man and asked, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

<sup>38</sup> “Yes, Lord, I believe!” the man said. And he worshiped Jesus.

<sup>40</sup> Some Pharisees who were standing nearby heard him and asked, “Are you saying we’re blind?”

<sup>41</sup> “If you were blind, you wouldn’t be guilty,” Jesus replied. “But you remain guilty because you claim you can see.”

<sup>8:57</sup> Some manuscripts read How can you say Abraham has seen you? <sup>8:58</sup> Or before Abraham was even born, I have always been alive; Greek reads before Abraham was, I am. See Exod

<sup>3:14</sup>. <sup>9:4</sup> Other manuscripts read I must quickly carry out the tasks assigned me by the one who sent me; still others read We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent me.

<sup>9:24</sup> Or Give glory to God, not to Jesus; Greek reads Give glory to God.

<sup>9:35</sup> Some manuscripts read the Son of God? “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. <sup>9:38-39a</sup> Some manuscripts do not include “Yes, Lord, I believe!” the man said. And he worshiped Jesus. Then Jesus told him. <sup>9:39b</sup> Greek those who see.

THE GOOD SHEPHERD AND HIS SHEEP

10 “I tell you the truth, anyone who sneaks over the wall of a sheepfold, rather than going through the gate, must surely be a thief and a robber! <sup>2</sup>But the one who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep recognize his voice and come to him. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. <sup>4</sup>After he has gathered his own flock, he walks ahead of them, and they follow him because they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>They won’t follow a stranger; they will run from him because they don’t know his voice.”

<sup>6</sup>Those who heard Jesus use this illustration didn’t understand what he meant, <sup>7</sup>so he explained it to them: “I tell you the truth, I am the gate for the sheep. <sup>8</sup>All who came before me* were thieves and robbers. But the true sheep did not listen to them. <sup>9</sup>Yes, I am the gate. Those who come in through me will be saved.* They will come and go freely and will find good pastures. <sup>10</sup>The thief’s purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life.

<sup>11</sup>“I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd sacrifices his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup>A hired hand will run when he sees a wolf coming. He will abandon the sheep because they don’t belong to him and he isn’t their shepherd. And so the wolf attacks them and scatters the flock. <sup>13</sup>The hired hand runs away because he’s working only for the money and doesn’t really care about the sheep.

<sup>14</sup>“I am the good shepherd; I know my own sheep, and they know me, <sup>15</sup>just as my Father knows me and I know the Father. So I sacrifice my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>I have other sheep, too, that are not in this sheepfold. I must bring them also. They will listen to my voice, and there will be one flock with one shepherd.

<sup>17</sup>“The Father loves me because I sacrifice my life so I may take it back again. <sup>18</sup>No one can take my life from me. I sacrifice it voluntarily. For I have the authority to lay it down when I want to and also to take it up again. For this is what my Father has commanded.”

<sup>19</sup>When he said these things, the people* were again divided in their opinions about him. <sup>20</sup>Some said, “He’s demon possessed and out of his mind. Why listen to a man like that?” <sup>21</sup>Others said, “This doesn’t sound like a man possessed by a demon! Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

JESUS CLAIMS TO BE THE SON OF GOD

<sup>22</sup>It was now winter, and Jesus was in Jerusalem at the time of Hanukkah, the Festival of Dedication. <sup>23</sup>He was in the Temple, walking through the section known as Solomon’s Colonnade. <sup>24</sup>The people surrounded him and asked, “How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly.”

WHO IS OUR SHEPHERD?

John 10:1–21

ROBERT MORRIS

Jesus is our Shepherd, and we are His sheep. A shepherd never drives his sheep; instead, the sheep recognize his voice and come to him” (John 10:3). The more time we spend with Jesus, the better we will recognize His voice.

A shepherd’s job is to protect and provide for his sheep. As our Good Shepherd, Jesus destroyed the enemy we fear most—death. Through His sacrifice on the cross, He made a way for us to have a right relationship with God. Sheep sometimes get into trouble, but Jesus protects us even in “the darkest valley” (Psalm 23:4). He offers goodness, mercy, and eternal life to everyone who follows Him.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus replied, “I have already told you, and you don’t believe me. The proof is the work I do in my Father’s name. <sup>26</sup>But you don’t believe me because you are not my sheep. <sup>27</sup>My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. <sup>28</sup>I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them away from me, <sup>29</sup>for my Father has given them to me, and he is more powerful than anyone else.* No one can snatch them from the Father’s hand. <sup>30</sup>The Father and I are one.”

<sup>31</sup>Once again the people picked up stones to kill him. <sup>32</sup>Jesus said, “At my Father’s direction I have done many good works. For which one are you going to stone me?”

<sup>33</sup>They replied, “We’re stoning you not for any good work, but for blasphemy! You, a mere man, claim to be God.”

<sup>34</sup>Jesus replied, “It is written in your own Scriptures* that God said to certain leaders of the people, ‘I say, you are gods!’* <sup>35</sup>And you know that the Scriptures cannot be altered. So if those people who received God’s message were called ‘gods,’ <sup>36</sup>why do you call it blasphemy when I say, ‘I am the Son of God’? After all, the Father set me apart and sent me into the world. <sup>37</sup>Don’t believe me unless I carry out my Father’s work. <sup>38</sup>But if I do his work, believe in the evidence of the miraculous works I have done, even if you don’t believe me. Then you will know and understand that the Father is in me, and I am in the Father.”

<sup>39</sup>Once again they tried to arrest him, but he got away and left them. <sup>40</sup>He went beyond the Jordan River near the place where John was first baptizing and stayed there awhile. <sup>41</sup>And many followed him. “John didn’t perform miraculous signs,” they remarked to one another, “but everything he said about this man has come true.”

<sup>42</sup>And many who were there believed in Jesus.

THE RAISING OF LAZARUS

11 A man named Lazarus was sick. He lived in Bethany with his sisters, Mary and Martha.

<sup>2</sup>This is the Mary who later poured the expensive perfume on the Lord’s feet and wiped them with her hair.* Her brother, Lazarus, was sick. <sup>3</sup>So the two sisters sent a message to Jesus telling him, “Lord, your dear friend is very sick.”

<sup>4</sup>But when Jesus heard about it he said, “Lazarus’s sickness will not end in death. No, it happened for the glory of God so that the Son of God will receive glory from this.” <sup>5</sup>So although Jesus loved Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, <sup>6</sup>he stayed where he was for the next two days. <sup>7</sup>Finally, he said to his disciples, “Let’s go back to Judea.”

<sup>8</sup>But his disciples objected. “Rabbi,” they said, “only a few days ago the people* in Judea were trying to stone you. Are you going there again?”

<sup>9</sup>Jesus replied, “There are twelve hours of daylight every day. During the day people can walk safely. They can see because they have the light of this world. <sup>10</sup>But at night there is danger of stumbling because they have no light.” <sup>11</sup>Then he said, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but now I will go and wake him up.”

<sup>12</sup>The disciples said, “Lord, if he is sleeping, he will soon get better!” <sup>13</sup>They thought Jesus meant Lazarus was simply sleeping, but Jesus meant Lazarus had died.

<sup>14</sup>So he told them plainly, “Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup>And for your sakes, I’m glad I wasn’t there, for now you will really believe. Come, let’s go see him.”

<sup>25</sup>Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life.* Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying. <sup>26</sup>Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die. Do you believe this, Martha?”

<sup>27</sup>“Yes, Lord,” she told him. “I have always believed you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who has come into the world from God.”

BECAUSE I LOVE YOU

John 11:1–44

ROBERT MORRIS

By the time Jesus arrived in Bethany, Lazarus had been dead for four days. His body had started to deteriorate, and even his sister objected to opening the tomb—“The smell will be terrible” (v. 39). Jesus raised Lazarus from the dead, but why did He wait so long to do it?

You may wonder why God does many of the things He does. Let’s look at three tough questions people often have about God:

1. Why did God create pain?

God loves us, and He created pain to keep us from hurting ourselves. Many times when we have physical pain, we take medicine or try to ignore it and fight through it. However, pain can be a good thing—it warns us to stop what we’re doing before we hurt ourselves even more. This applies not only to our bodies but also to our souls and spirits. I believe God uses pain to get our attention and help us change direction.

2. Why did God create suffering?

Actually, He didn’t. God created a perfect world, but humans ruined it by sinning. Now we live in a fallen world dominated by sin, and sin opens the door to disease, poverty, violence, and injustice. Society’s problems are because of sin, not because of God. He doesn’t do anything evil, so we cannot blame suffering on Him.

3. Why did Jesus suffer and die?

This is the most amazing truth I know: the Creator became the creation, and He didn’t exempt Himself from suffering or pain (Matthew 16:21). Jesus subjected Himself to everything we go through, even anguish and death. Hebrews 4:15 says, “He faced all of the same testings we do.” Christians are the only people in the world who can truly say, “Our God knows how we feel.” God identifies with us and does good things for us for one reason: He loves us.

<sup>28</sup>Then she returned to Mary. She called Mary aside from the mourners and told her, “The Teacher is here and wants to see you.” <sup>29</sup>So Mary immediately went to him.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus had stayed outside the village, at the place where Martha met him. <sup>31</sup>When the people who were at the house consoling Mary saw her leave so hastily, they assumed she was going to Lazarus’s grave to weep. So they followed her there. <sup>32</sup>When Mary arrived and saw Jesus, she 11:2 This incident is recorded in chapter 12. 11:8 Greek Jewish people; also in 11:19, 31, 33, 36, 45, 54. 11:16 Greek Thomas, who was called Didymus. 11:18 Greek was about 15 stadia [about 2.8 kilometers]. 11:25 Some manuscripts do not include and the life.

fell at his feet and said, “Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

<sup>33</sup>When Jesus saw her weeping and saw the other people wailing with her, a deep anger welled up within him,* and he was deeply troubled. <sup>34</sup>“Where have you put him?” he asked them.

They told him, “Lord, come and see.” <sup>35</sup>Then Jesus wept. <sup>36</sup>The people who were standing nearby said, “See how much he loved him!” <sup>37</sup>But some said, “This man healed a blind man. Couldn’t he have kept Lazarus from dying?”

<sup>38</sup>Jesus was still angry as he arrived at the tomb, a cave with a stone rolled across its entrance. <sup>39</sup>“Roll the stone aside,” Jesus told them.

But Martha, the dead man’s sister, protested, “Lord, he has been dead for four days. The smell will be terrible.”

<sup>40</sup>Jesus responded, “Didn’t I tell you that you would see God’s glory if you believe?” <sup>41</sup>So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, thank you for hearing me. <sup>42</sup>You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so that they will believe you sent me.” <sup>43</sup>Then Jesus shouted, “Lazarus, come out!” <sup>44</sup>And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, “Unwrap him and let him go!”

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

<sup>45</sup>Many of the people who were with Mary believed in Jesus when they saw this happen. <sup>46</sup>But some went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup>Then the leading priests and Pharisees called the high council* together. “What are we going to do?” they asked each other. “This man certainly performs many miraculous signs. <sup>48</sup>If we allow him to go on like this, soon everyone will believe in him. Then the Roman army will come and destroy both our Temple* and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup>Caiaphas, who was high priest at that time,* said, “You don’t know what you’re talking about! <sup>50</sup>You don’t realize that it’s better for you that one man should die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed.”

<sup>51</sup>He did not say this on his own; as high priest at that time he was led to prophesy that Jesus would die for the entire nation. <sup>52</sup>And not only for that nation, but to bring together and unite all the children of God scattered around the world.

<sup>53</sup>So from that time on, the Jewish leaders began to plot Jesus’ death. <sup>54</sup>As a result, Jesus stopped his public ministry among the people and left Jerusalem. He went to a place near the wilderness, to the village of Ephraim, and stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>55</sup>It was now almost time for the Jewish Passover celebration, and many people from all over the country arrived in Jerusalem several days early so they could go through the purification ceremony before Passover began. <sup>56</sup>They kept looking for Jesus, but as they stood around in the Temple, they said to each other, “What do you think? He won’t come for Passover, will he?” <sup>57</sup>Meanwhile, the leading priests and Pharisees had publicly ordered that anyone seeing Jesus must report it immediately so they could arrest him.

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY

12 Six days before the Passover celebration began, Jesus arrived in Bethany, the home of Lazarus—the man he had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup>A dinner was prepared in Jesus’ honor. Martha served, and Lazarus was among those who ate* with him. <sup>3</sup>Then Mary took a twelve-ounce jar* of expensive perfume made from essence of nard, and she anointed Jesus’ feet with it, wiping his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance.

<sup>4</sup>But Judas Iscariot, the disciple who would soon betray him, said, <sup>5</sup>“That perfume was worth a year’s wages.* It should have been sold and the money given to the poor.” <sup>6</sup>Not that he cared for the poor—he was a thief, and since he was in charge of the disciples’ money, he often stole some for himself.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. She did this in preparation for my burial. <sup>8</sup>You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me.”

<sup>9</sup>When all the people* heard of Jesus’ arrival, they flocked to see him and also to see Lazarus, the man Jesus had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then the leading priests decided to kill Lazarus, too, <sup>11</sup>for it was because of him that many of the people had deserted them* and believed in Jesus.

JESUS’ TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

<sup>12</sup>The next day, the news that Jesus was on the way to Jerusalem swept through the city. A large crowd of Passover visitors <sup>13</sup>took palm branches and went down the road to meet him. They shouted,

“Praise God!*
Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!
Hail to the King of Israel!”*

<sup>14</sup>Jesus found a young donkey and rode on it, fulfilling the prophecy that said:

11:33 Or he was angry in his spirit. 11:47 Greek the Sanhedrin. 11:48 Or our position; Greek reads our place. 11:49 Greek that year; also in 11:51. 12:2 Or who reclined. 12:3 Greek took 1 litra [327 grams]. 12:5 Greek worth 300 denarii. A denarius was equivalent to a laborer’s full day’s wage. 12:9 Greek Jewish people; also in 12:11. 12:11 Or had deserted their traditions; Greek reads had deserted. 12:13a Greek Hosanna, an exclamation of praise adapted from a Hebrew expression that means “save now.” 12:13b Ps 118:25–26; Zeph 3:15.

DREAM GIVERS

John 12:1-3

JIMMY EVANS

We all have dreams, but it is important to know that God has a dream too. He doesn't need anything outside of Himself to exist, but He does want a family.

Mary, a sister of Lazarus, had a dream. Her dream was to get married and have a family. That is why she planned and saved the perfume; it was probably her dowry. So when she poured the perfume over Jesus' feet, she was pouring out her dream on Jesus. Mary gave up her dream so that God could have His dream, and that is the spirit of the gospel. The gospel can only be successfully promoted by believers who value God's dream over their own.

Greed and selfishness blind us to the gospel and the importance of God's dream. The greatest threat to God's dream of building a family through the preaching of the gospel is our un-surrendered dreams.

<sup>16</sup> His disciples didn't understand at the time that this was a fulfillment of prophecy. But after Jesus entered into his glory, they remembered what had happened and realized that these things had been written about him.

<sup>17</sup> Many in the crowd had seen Jesus call Lazarus from the tomb, raising him from the dead, and they were telling others* about it. <sup>18</sup> That was the reason so many went out to meet him—because they had heard about this miraculous sign. <sup>19</sup> Then the Pharisees said to each other, "There's nothing we can do. Look, everyone* has gone after him!"

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

<sup>20</sup> Some Greeks who had come to Jerusalem for the Passover celebration <sup>21</sup> paid a visit to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee. They said, "Sir, we want to meet Jesus." <sup>22</sup> Philip told Andrew about it, and they went together to ask Jesus.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "Now the time has come for the Son of Man* to enter into his glory. <sup>24</sup> I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat is planted in the soil and dies, it remains alone. But its death will produce many new kernels—a plentiful harvest of new lives. <sup>25</sup> Those who love their life in this world will lose it. Those who care nothing for their life in this world will keep it for eternity. <sup>26</sup> Anyone who wants to serve me must follow me, because my servants must be where I am. And the Father will honor anyone who serves me.

<sup>27</sup> "Now my soul is deeply troubled. Should I pray, 'Father, save me from this hour'? But this is the very reason I came! <sup>28</sup> Father, bring glory to your name."

Then a voice spoke from heaven, saying, "I have already brought glory to my name, and I will do so again." <sup>29</sup> When the crowd heard the voice, some thought it was thunder, while others declared an angel had spoken to him.

<sup>30</sup> Then Jesus told them, "The voice was for your benefit, not mine. <sup>31</sup> The time for judging this world has come, when Satan, the ruler of this world, will be cast out. <sup>32</sup> And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself." <sup>33</sup> He said this to indicate how he was going to die.

<sup>34</sup> The crowd responded, "We understood from Scripture* that the Messiah would live forever. How can you say the Son of Man will die? Just who is this Son of Man, anyway?"

<sup>35</sup> Jesus replied, "My light will shine for you just a little longer. Walk in the light while you can, so the darkness will not overtake you. Those who walk in the darkness cannot see where they are going. <sup>36</sup> Put your trust in the light while there is still time; then you will become children of the light."

After saying these things, Jesus went away and was hidden from them.

THE UNBELIEF OF THE PEOPLE

<sup>37</sup> But despite all the miraculous signs Jesus had done, most of the people still did not believe in him. <sup>38</sup> This is exactly what Isaiah the prophet had predicted:

"LORD, who has believed our message?
To whom has the LORD revealed his powerful arm?"*

<sup>39</sup> But the people couldn't believe, for as Isaiah also said, <sup>40</sup> "The Lord has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts—so that their eyes cannot see,

and their hearts cannot understand,
and they cannot turn to me
and have me heal them."*

<sup>41</sup> Isaiah was referring to Jesus when he said this, because he saw the future and spoke of the Messiah's glory. <sup>42</sup> Many people did believe in him, however, including some of the Jewish leaders. But they wouldn't admit it for fear that the Pharisees would expel them from the synagogue. <sup>43</sup> For they loved human praise more than the praise of God.

<sup>44</sup> Jesus shouted to the crowds, “If you trust me, you are trusting not only me, but also God who sent me. <sup>45</sup> For when you see me, you are seeing the one who sent me. <sup>46</sup> I have come as a light to shine in this dark world, so that all who put their trust in me will no longer remain in the dark. <sup>47</sup> I will not judge those who hear me but don’t obey me, for I have come to save the world and not to judge it. <sup>48</sup> But all who reject me and my message will be judged on the day of judgment by the truth I have spoken. <sup>49</sup> I don’t speak on my own authority. The Father who sent me has commanded me what to say and how to say it. <sup>50</sup> And I know his commands lead to eternal life; so I say whatever the Father tells me to say.”

JESUS WASHES HIS DISCIPLES’ FEET

13 Before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew that his hour had come to leave this world and return to his Father. He had loved his disciples during his ministry on earth, and now he loved them to the very end.* <sup>2</sup> It was time for supper, and the devil had already prompted Judas,* son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. <sup>3</sup> Jesus knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from God and would return to God. <sup>4</sup> So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, <sup>5</sup> and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples’ feet, drying them with the towel he had around him.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, “Lord, are you going to wash my feet?”

<sup>7</sup> Jesus replied, “You don’t understand now what I am doing, but someday you will.”

<sup>8</sup> “No,” Peter protested, “you will never ever wash my feet!”

Jesus replied, “Unless I wash you, you won’t belong to me.”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus replied, “A person who has bathed all over does not need to wash, except for the feet,* to be entirely clean. And you disciples are clean, but not all of you.” <sup>11</sup> For Jesus knew who would betray him. That is what he meant when he said, “Not all of you are clean.”

<sup>12</sup> After washing their feet, he put on his robe again and sat down and asked, “Do you understand what I was doing? <sup>13</sup> You call me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are right, because that’s what I am. <sup>14</sup> And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other’s feet. <sup>15</sup> I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup> I tell you the truth, slaves are not greater than their master. Nor is the messenger more important than the one who sends the message. <sup>17</sup> Now that you know these things, God will bless you for doing them.

THE WIN

John 13:1–15

THOMAS MILLER

We only have one life to live—one life to win. As believers, we win by serving people, pursuing God’s presence, knowing who we are in Christ, and focusing on unity.

To win, we must love people. Foot washing was the lowest task of a slave in ancient Jewish culture. Jesus took on the form of a servant when He washed the disciples’ feet. He even washed the feet of both Peter, who would deny Him, and Judas, who would betray Him. Jesus used His power to love and serve others. We must love and serve as Jesus did to win as a church.

To win, we must pursue God’s presence. We need the presence of God more than we need anything else. Even Moses did not want to go if God was not with Him (Exodus 33:15–16). As we come together, expect God to do great things in our lives, families, cities, and churches.

To win, we must find our significance in God. Jesus knew who He was and Whose He was. He was able to gird Himself with a towel and wash His disciples’ feet because He found His significance in His relationship with His Father.

To win, we must focus on unity. Unity and the presence of God are reciprocal in nature. The more we forgive, the more God showers us with His presence. The more we experience God’s presence, the more love we have for one another, which allows us to walk in forgiveness and unity.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS BETRAYAL

<sup>18</sup> “I am not saying these things to all of you; I know the ones I have chosen. But this fulfills the Scripture that says, ‘The one who eats my food has turned against me.’* <sup>19</sup> I tell you this beforehand, so that when it happens you will believe that I AM the Messiah.* <sup>20</sup> I tell you the truth, anyone who welcomes my messenger is welcoming me, and anyone who welcomes me is welcoming the Father who sent me.”

<sup>21</sup> Now Jesus was deeply troubled,* and he exclaimed, “I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me!”

13:1 Or he showed them the full extent of his love. 13:2 Or the devil had already intended for Judas. 13:10 Some manuscripts do not include except for the feet. 13:18 Ps 41:9. 13:19 Or that the ‘I AM’ has come; or that I am the Lord; Greek reads that I am. See Exod 3:14. 13:21 Greek was troubled in his spirit. 13:23 Greek was reclining on Jesus’ bosom. The “disciple Jesus loved” was probably John.

<sup>26</sup>Jesus responded, "It is the one to whom I give the bread I dip in the bowl." And when he had dipped it, he gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. <sup>27</sup>When Judas had eaten the bread, Satan entered into him. Then Jesus told him, "Hurry and do what you're going to do." <sup>28</sup>None of the others at the table knew what Jesus meant. <sup>29</sup>Since Judas was their treasurer, some thought Jesus was telling him to go and pay for the food or to give some money to the poor. <sup>30</sup>So Judas left at once, going out into the night.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

<sup>31</sup>As soon as Judas left the room, Jesus said, "The time has come for the Son of Man* to enter into his glory, and God will be glorified because of him. <sup>32</sup>And since God receives glory because of the Son,* he will give his own glory to the Son, and he will do so at once. <sup>33</sup>Dear children, I will be with you only a little longer. And as I told the Jewish leaders, you will search for me, but you can't come where I am going. <sup>34</sup>So now I am giving you a new commandment: Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. <sup>35</sup>Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples."

And Jesus replied, "You can't go with me now, but you will follow me later."

<sup>37</sup>"But why can't I come now, Lord?" he asked. "I'm ready to die for you."

<sup>38</sup>Jesus answered, "Die for me? I tell you the truth, Peter—before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.

JESUS, THE WAY TO THE FATHER

14 "Don't let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me. There is more than enough room in my Father's home.* If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? <sup>3</sup>When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am. <sup>4</sup>And you know the way to where I am going."

<sup>5</sup>"No, we don't know, Lord," Thomas said. "We have no idea where you are going, so how can we know the way?"

<sup>6</sup>Jesus told him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me. <sup>7</sup>If you had really known me, you would know who my Father is.* From now on, you do know him and have seen him!"

<sup>9</sup>Jesus replied, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and yet you still don't know who I am? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father! So why are you asking me to show him to you? <sup>10</sup>Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I speak are

WHO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT?

John 14:16-18

ROBERT MORRIS

The Bible never refers to the Holy Spirit as "it" because He is a person. The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Trinity, along with God the Father and God the Son. He is the Advocate Jesus promised the Father would send in John 14:16-18.

The Holy Spirit is our Helper and our Friend who enables us to live in a way that is pleasing to God. He convicts (or convinces) us of our sins, and He also convinces us that we are forgiven by grace through faith. The Holy Spirit brings many incredible benefits to believers, including power and the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23).

The Holy Spirit is also our God. He is a full and equal member of the Trinity. The Holy Spirit hears, speaks, teaches, and guides us into all truth. He is the only One who can empower us to win the world to Jesus.

not my own, but my Father who lives in me does his work through me. <sup>11</sup>Just believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me. Or at least believe because of the work you have seen me do.

<sup>12</sup>"I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will do the same works I have done, and even greater works, because I am going to be with the Father. <sup>13</sup>You can ask for anything in my name, and I will do it, so that the Son can bring glory to the Father. <sup>14</sup>Yes, ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it!

JESUS PROMISES THE HOLY SPIRIT

<sup>15</sup>"If you love me, obey* my commandments. <sup>16</sup>And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate,* who will never leave you. <sup>17</sup>He is the Holy Spirit, who leads into all truth. The world cannot receive him, because it isn't looking for him and doesn't recognize him. But you know him, because he lives with you now and later will be in you.* <sup>18</sup>No, I will not abandon you as orphans—I will come to you. <sup>19</sup>Soon the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. Since I live, you also will live. <sup>20</sup>When I am raised to life again, you will know that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. <sup>21</sup>Those who accept my commandments and obey them are the ones who love me. And because they love me, my Father will love them.

13:31 "Son of Man" is a title Jesus used for himself.

13:32 Several early manuscripts do not include And since God receives glory because of the Son. 14:2a Or There are many rooms in my Father's house. 14:2b Or If this were not so, I would have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you. Some manuscripts read If this were not so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. 14:7 Some manuscripts read If you have really known me, you will know who my Father is. 14:15 Other manuscripts read you will obey; still others read you should obey. 14:16 Or Comforter, or Encourager, or Counselor. Greek reads Paraclete; also in 14:26. 14:17 Some manuscripts read and is in you.

THE SPIRIT OF MARRIAGE

John 14:16–18

JIMMY EVANS

God created us to be filled with His Holy Spirit, and He made marriage to be filled with His Holy Spirit too. The Holy Spirit meets our deepest needs. He brings unity that is from the heart, not just the mind, and He binds us together spirit-to-spirit in the closest intimacy possible.

True love isn't something—it's Someone. Human love can fail, but God's love never fails. He loves us with an everlasting love. The Holy Spirit nurtures and comforts us, and He offers every kind of grace—spiritual, emotional, physical, and mental. The best prayer any of us can pray is “Holy Spirit, I need You.”

When God created man and breathed life into him, He gave him the Holy Spirit. When Adam and Eve sinned, they died spiritually and lost the Holy Spirit. But Jesus restored life, and if we ask, He will gladly fill us with the Holy Spirit today.

And I will love them and reveal myself to each of them.”

<sup>22</sup> Judas (not Judas Iscariot, but the other disciple with that name) said to him, “Lord, why are you going to reveal yourself only to us and not to the world at large?”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, “All who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will come and make our home with each of them. <sup>24</sup> Anyone who doesn't love me will not obey me. And remember, my words are not my own. What I am telling you is from the Father who sent me. <sup>25</sup> I am telling you these things now while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup> But when the Father sends the Advocate as my representative—that is, the Holy Spirit—he will teach you everything and will remind you of everything I have told you.

<sup>27</sup> “I am leaving you with a gift—peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid. <sup>28</sup> Remember what I told you: I am going away, but I will come back to you again. If you really loved me, you would be happy that I am going to the Father, who is greater than I am. <sup>29</sup> I have told you these things before they happen so that when they do happen, you will believe.

<sup>30</sup> “I don't have much more time to talk to you, because the ruler of this world approaches. He has no power over me, <sup>31</sup> but I will do what the Father requires of me, so that the world will know that I love the Father. Come, let's be going.

JESUS, THE TRUE VINE

15 “I am the true grapevine, and my Father is the gardener. <sup>2</sup> He cuts off every branch of mine that doesn't produce fruit, and he prunes the branches that do bear fruit so they will produce even more. <sup>3</sup> You have already been pruned

ROOTS AND FRUIT

John 15:1–17

ROBERT MORRIS

What is the root cause of success in our lives? What is the root cause of failure? Every person has areas of life that seem to flourish and other areas that seem to struggle constantly. You could also call these areas good fruit and bad fruit. Matthew 7:17 says, “A good tree produces good fruit, and a bad tree produces bad fruit.” As with any tree, the fruit of our lives depends on the root. Here are three important things to know about roots and fruit in your life:

1. Jesus is the Vine.

In John 15:1, Jesus says, “I am the true grapevine.” Grapevine means ‘a vine that produces fruit.’ In verse 5, He continues, “Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing.” In other words, Jesus is the root. When we remain in Jesus by reading and obeying God's Word, He produces good fruit in us.

2. We are the branches.

John 15:4 says, “A branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine.” As a believer, I want to have good fruit, but I can't do it if I'm not connected to God. Galatians 5:22–23 says, “The Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.” When we stay close to the Root, we will have good fruit. When we disconnect from Him, our fruit instantly spoils.

3. The Father is the Gardener.

God is the owner of the vineyard, and He takes care of His property. Jesus says, “He cuts off every branch of mine that doesn't produce fruit, and he prunes the branches that do bear fruit so they will produce even more” (John 15:2). God planted His Son, Jesus, as the best vine in the vineyard (our world), and He gives us a choice every day. Will we accept Jesus and remain connected to Him? If we want to have good fruit in our lives, the answer must be yes.

and purified by the message I have given you. <sup>4</sup> Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful unless you remain in me.

<sup>5</sup> “Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup> Anyone who does not remain in me is thrown away like a useless branch and withers. Such branches are gathered into a pile to be burned. <sup>7</sup> But if you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask for anything you want, and it will be granted! <sup>8</sup> When you

GOD WANTS TO TALK TO YOU

John 15:15

ROBERT MORRIS

Did you know God wants to talk to you?

Yes, you. John 15:15 says He calls us His friends. Friends talk to each other! You may have heard that God doesn't speak anymore, but I guarantee He still does. Here are three truths about how God speaks to us today:

1. God does not speak to robots.

As humans, we communicate in two ways: mechanically to machines and personally to people. God does not want to communicate mechanically with us. He wants to communicate personally, so He created us with minds, hearts, and wills. He loves us and wants to talk with us, not just give us directions.

2. God speaks to people.

The Bible records many times when God speaks to people, both in the Old and New Testaments. God never changes (Hebrews 13:8), so why would we think He speaks less frequently now? Hearing God requires faith, and Romans 10:17 says faith comes from "hearing the Good News about Christ." No matter who you are, you can hear God today.

3. God speaks to friends.

Exodus 33:11 says God talked to Moses "as one speaks to a friend." God does not want to input information into us like a computer. He wants to walk and talk with us and be our Friend. John 15:13 says, "There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends." Jesus gave His life for you and me. He is the best Friend we will ever have, and He wants to talk to us every day.

produce much fruit, you are my true disciples. This brings great glory to my Father.

<sup>9</sup> "I have loved you even as the Father has loved me. Remain in my love. <sup>10</sup> When you obey my commandments, you remain in my love, just as I obey my Father's commandments and remain in his love. <sup>11</sup> I have told you these things so that you will be filled with my joy. Yes, your joy will overflow! <sup>12</sup> This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you. <sup>13</sup> There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends. <sup>14</sup> You are my friends if you do what I command. <sup>15</sup> I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn't confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me. <sup>16</sup> You didn't choose me. I chose you. I appointed you to go and produce lasting fruit, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask for, using my name. <sup>17</sup> This is my command: Love each other.

THE WORLD'S HATRED

own if you belonged to it, but you are no longer part of the world. I chose you to come out of the world, so it hates you. <sup>20</sup> Do you remember what I told you? 'A slave is not greater than the master.' Since they persecuted me, naturally they will persecute you. And if they had listened to me, they would listen to you. <sup>21</sup> They will do all this to you because of me, for they have rejected the one who sent me. <sup>22</sup> They would not be guilty if I had not come and spoken to them. But now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup> Anyone who hates me also hates my Father. <sup>24</sup> If I hadn't done such miraculous signs among them that no one else could do, they would not be guilty. But as it is, they have seen everything I did, yet they still hate me and my Father. <sup>25</sup> This fulfills what is written in their Scriptures: 'They hated me without cause.'

<sup>26</sup> "But I will send you the Advocate*—the Spirit of truth. He will come to you from the Father and will testify all about me. <sup>27</sup> And you must also testify about me because you have been with me from the beginning of my ministry.

16 "I have told you these things so that you won't abandon your faith. <sup>2</sup> For you will be expelled from the synagogues, and the time is coming when those who kill you will think they are doing a holy service for God. <sup>3</sup> This is because they have never known the Father or me. <sup>4</sup> Yes, I'm telling you these things now, so that when they happen, you will remember my warning. I didn't tell you earlier because I was going to be with you for a while longer.

THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

<sup>5</sup> "But now I am going away to the one who sent me, and not one of you is asking where I am going. <sup>6</sup> Instead, you grieve because of what I've told you. <sup>7</sup> But in fact, it is best for you that I go away, because if I don't, the Advocate* won't come. If I do go away, then I will send him to you. <sup>8</sup> And when he comes, he will convict the world of its sin, and of God's righteousness, and of the coming judgment. <sup>9</sup> The world's sin is that it refuses to believe in me. <sup>10</sup> Righteousness is available because I go to the Father, and you will see me no more. <sup>11</sup> Judgment will come because the ruler of this world has already been judged.

<sup>12</sup> "There is so much more I want to tell you, but you can't bear it now. <sup>13</sup> When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future. <sup>14</sup> He will bring me glory by telling you whatever he receives from me. <sup>15</sup> All that belongs to the Father is mine; this is why I said, 'The Spirit will tell you whatever he receives from me.'

IS THE HOLY SPIRIT A PERSON?

John 16:13

ROBERT MORRIS

The Holy Spirit is a person with a mind, will, and emotions. He can tell us what God thinks, desires, and feels because He is God.

The Holy Spirit is omniscient. He can guide us into all truth because He knows all truth. One of the benefits of being a Christian is that you have someone living inside of you who knows everything about everything and has committed Himself to be your Teacher.

The Holy Spirit has emotions. He feels joy when believers live godly lives, and He feels grief when we sin. The Holy Spirit loves us, and He knows that sin hurts our intimacy with God and destroys our lives.

The Holy Spirit teaches us what to pray. The Bible teaches us about God's general will for our lives, but the Holy Spirit tells us God's specific will for our lives. Because the Holy Spirit is God, He will never contradict His own written Word.

SADNESS WILL BE TURNED TO JOY

<sup>16</sup>“In a little while you won't see me anymore. But a little while after that, you will see me again.”

<sup>17</sup>Some of the disciples asked each other, “What does he mean when he says, ‘In a little while you won't see me, but then you will see me,’ and ‘I am going to the Father’?” <sup>18</sup>And what does he mean by ‘a little while’? We don't understand.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus realized they wanted to ask him about it, so he said, “Are you asking yourselves what I meant? I said in a little while you won't see me, but a little while after that you will see me again. <sup>20</sup>I tell you the truth, you will weep and mourn over what is going to happen to me, but the world will rejoice. You will grieve, but your grief will suddenly turn to wonderful joy. <sup>21</sup>It will be like a woman suffering the pains of labor. When her child is born, her anguish gives way to joy because she has brought a new baby into the world. <sup>22</sup>So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again; then you will rejoice, and no one can rob you of that joy. <sup>23</sup>At that time you won't need to ask me for anything. I tell you the truth, you will ask the Father directly, and he will grant your request because you use my name. <sup>24</sup>You haven't done this before. Ask, using my name, and you will receive, and you will have abundant joy.

<sup>25</sup>“I have spoken of these matters in figures of speech, but soon I will stop speaking figuratively and will tell you plainly all about the Father. <sup>26</sup>Then you will ask in my name. I'm not saying I will ask the Father on your behalf, <sup>27</sup>for the Father himself loves you dearly because you love me and believe that I came from God.” <sup>28</sup>Yes, I came from the Father into the world, and now I will leave the world and return to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup>Then his disciples said, “At last you are speaking plainly and not figuratively. <sup>30</sup>Now we understand that you know everything, and there's no need to question you. From this we believe that you came from God.”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus asked, “Do you finally believe?” <sup>32</sup>But the time is coming—indeed it's here now—when you will be scattered, each one going his own way, leaving me alone. Yet I am not alone because the Father is with me. <sup>33</sup>I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world.”

THE PRAYER OF JESUS

17 After saying all these things, Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so he can give glory back to you. <sup>2</sup>For you have given him authority over everyone. He gives eternal life to each one you have given him. <sup>3</sup>And this is the way to have eternal life—to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the one you sent to earth. <sup>4</sup>I brought glory to you here on earth by completing the work you gave me to do. <sup>5</sup>Now, Father, bring me into the glory we shared before the world began.

<sup>6</sup>“I have revealed you* to the ones you gave me from this world. They were always yours. You gave them to me, and they have kept your word. <sup>7</sup>Now they know that everything I have is a gift from you, <sup>8</sup>for I have passed on to them the message you gave me. They accepted it and know that I came from you, and they believe you sent me.

<sup>9</sup>“My prayer is not for the world, but for those you have given me, because they belong to you. <sup>10</sup>All who are mine belong to you, and you have given them to me, so they bring me glory. <sup>11</sup>Now I am departing from the world; they are staying in this world, but I am coming to you. Holy Father, you have given me your name;* now protect them by the power of your name so that they will be united just as we are. <sup>12</sup>During my time here, I protected them by the power of the name you gave me.* I guarded them so that not one was lost, except the one headed for destruction, as the Scriptures foretold.

<sup>13</sup>“Now I am coming to you. I told them many things while I was with them in this world so they would be filled with my joy. <sup>14</sup>I have given them your word. And the world hates them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world. <sup>15</sup>I'm not asking you to take them out of the world, but to keep them safe from the evil one. <sup>16</sup>They do not belong to this world any more than I do. <sup>17</sup>Make them holy by your truth; teach them your word, which is truth. <sup>18</sup>Just as you sent me into the world, I am sending them into the world.<sup>19</sup> And I give myself as a holy sacrifice for them so they can be made holy by your truth.

16:27 Some manuscripts read from the Father. 17:6 Greek have revealed your name; also in 17:26. 17:11 Some manuscripts read you have given me these [disciples]. 17:12 Some manuscripts read I protected those you gave me, by the power of your name.

<sup>20</sup>“I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me through their message.<sup>21</sup> I pray that they will all be one, just as you and I are one—as you are in me, Father, and I am in you. And may they be in us so that the world will believe you sent me.

<sup>22</sup>“I have given them the glory you gave me, so they may be one as we are one.<sup>23</sup> I am in them and you are in me. May they experience such perfect unity that the world will know that you sent me and that you love them as much as you love me.<sup>24</sup> Father, I want these whom you have given me to be with me where I am. Then they can see all the glory you gave me because you loved me even before the world began!

<sup>25</sup>“O righteous Father, the world doesn’t know you, but I do; and these disciples know you sent me.<sup>26</sup> I have revealed you to them, and I will continue to do so. Then your love for me will be in them, and I will be in them.”

JESUS IS BETRAYED AND ARRESTED

18 After saying these things, Jesus crossed the Kidron Valley with his disciples and entered a grove of olive trees.<sup>2</sup> Judas, the betrayer, knew this place, because Jesus had often gone there with his disciples.<sup>3</sup> The leading priests and Pharisees had given Judas a contingent of Roman soldiers and Temple guards to accompany him. Now with blazing torches, lanterns, and weapons, they arrived at the olive grove.

<sup>4</sup>Jesus fully realized all that was going to happen to him, so he stepped forward to meet them. “Who are you looking for?” he asked.

“I AM he,”* Jesus said. (Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.)<sup>6</sup> As Jesus said “I AM he,” they all drew back and fell to the ground!<sup>7</sup> Once more he asked them, “Who are you looking for?”

And again they replied, “Jesus the Nazarene.”

<sup>8</sup>“I told you that I AM he,” Jesus said. “And since I am the one you want, let these others go.”<sup>9</sup> He did this to fulfill his own statement: “I did not lose a single one of those you have given me.”*

<sup>10</sup>Then Simon Peter drew a sword and slashed off the right ear of Malchus, the high priest’s slave.<sup>11</sup> But Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword back into its sheath. Shall I not drink from the cup of suffering the Father has given me?”

JESUS AT THE HIGH PRIEST’S HOUSE

<sup>12</sup>So the soldiers, their commanding officer, and the Temple guards arrested Jesus and tied him up.<sup>13</sup> First they took him to Annas, since he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest at that time.<sup>14</sup> Caiaphas was the one who had told the other Jewish leaders, “It’s better that one man should die for the people.”

PETER’S FIRST DENIAL

<sup>15</sup>Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another of the disciples. That other disciple was acquainted with the high priest, so he was allowed to enter the high priest’s courtyard with Jesus.<sup>16</sup> Peter had to stay outside the gate. Then the disciple who knew the high priest spoke to the woman watching at the gate, and she let Peter in.<sup>17</sup> The woman asked Peter, “You’re not one of that man’s disciples, are you?”

“No,” he said, “I am not.”

<sup>18</sup>Because it was cold, the household servants and the guards had made a charcoal fire. They stood around it, warming themselves, and Peter stood with them, warming himself.

THE HIGH PRIEST QUESTIONS JESUS

<sup>19</sup>Inside, the high priest began asking Jesus about his followers and what he had been teaching them.<sup>20</sup> Jesus replied, “Everyone knows what I teach. I have preached regularly in the synagogues and the Temple, where the people* gather. I have not spoken in secret.<sup>21</sup> Why are you asking me this question? Ask those who heard me. They know what I said.”

<sup>22</sup>Then one of the Temple guards standing nearby slapped Jesus across the face. “Is that the way to answer the high priest?” he demanded.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus replied, “If I said anything wrong, you must prove it. But if I’m speaking the truth, why are you beating me?”

PETER’S SECOND AND THIRD DENIALS

<sup>25</sup>Meanwhile, as Simon Peter was standing by the fire warming himself, they asked him again, “You’re not one of his disciples, are you?”

He denied it, saying, “No, I am not.”

<sup>26</sup>But one of the household slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, “Didn’t I see you out there in the olive grove with Jesus?”<sup>27</sup> Again Peter denied it. And immediately a rooster crowed.

JESUS’ TRIAL BEFORE PILATE

<sup>28</sup>Jesus’ trial before Caiaphas ended in the early hours of the morning. Then he was taken to the headquarters of the Roman governor.* His accusers didn’t go inside because it would defile them, and they wouldn’t be allowed to celebrate the Passover.<sup>29</sup> So Pilate, the governor, went out to them and asked, “What is your charge against this man?”

<sup>30</sup>“We wouldn’t have handed him over to you if he weren’t a criminal!” they retorted.

18:5a Or Jesus of Nazareth; also in 18:7. 18:5b Or “The ‘I AM’ is here”; or “I am the LORD”; Greek reads I am; also in 18:6, 8. See Exod 3:14. 18:9 See John 6:39 and 17:12. 18:13 Greek that year. 18:20 Greek Jewish people; also in 18:38. 18:28 Greek to the Praetorium; also in 18:33.

<sup>31</sup> “Then take him away and judge him by your own law,” Pilate told them.

“Only the Romans are permitted to execute someone,” the Jewish leaders replied. <sup>32</sup> (This fulfilled Jesus’ prediction about the way he would die. *)

<sup>33</sup> Then Pilate went back into his headquarters and called for Jesus to be brought to him. “Are you the king of the Jews?” he asked him.

<sup>34</sup> Jesus replied, “Is this your own question, or did others tell you about me?”

<sup>35</sup> “Am I a Jew?” Pilate retorted. “Your own people and their leading priests brought you to me for trial. Why? What have you done?”

<sup>36</sup> Jesus answered, “My Kingdom is not an earthly kingdom. If it were, my followers would fight to keep me from being handed over to the Jewish leaders. But my Kingdom is not of this world.”

<sup>37</sup> Pilate said, “So you are a king?”

Jesus responded, “You say I am a king. Actually, I was born and came into the world to testify to the truth. All who love the truth recognize that what I say is true.”

<sup>38</sup> “What is truth?” Pilate asked. Then he went out again to the people and told them, “He is not guilty of any crime. <sup>39</sup> But you have a custom of asking me to release one prisoner each year at Passover. Would you like me to release this ‘King of the Jews’?”

<sup>40</sup> But they shouted back, “No! Not this man. We want Barabbas!” (Barabbas was a revolutionary.)

JESUS SENTENCED TO DEATH

19 Then Pilate had Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip. <sup>2</sup> The soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they put a purple robe on him. <sup>3</sup> “Hail! King of the Jews!” they mocked, as they slapped him across the face.

<sup>4</sup> Pilate went outside again and said to the people, “I am going to bring him out to you now, but understand clearly that I find him not guilty.” <sup>5</sup> Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said, “Look, here is the man!”

<sup>6</sup> When they saw him, the leading priests and Temple guards began shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

“Take him yourselves and crucify him,” Pilate said. “I find him not guilty.”

<sup>7</sup> The Jewish leaders replied, “By our law he ought to die because he called himself the Son of God.”

<sup>8</sup> When Pilate heard this, he was more frightened than ever. <sup>9</sup> He took Jesus back into the headquarters again and asked him, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave no answer. <sup>10</sup> “Why don’t you talk to me?” Pilate demanded. “Don’t you realize that I have the power to release you or crucify you?”

<sup>11</sup> Then Jesus said, “You would have no power over me at all unless it were given to you from above. So the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin.”

<sup>12</sup> Then Pilate tried to release him, but the Jewish leaders shouted, “If you release this man, you are no ‘friend of Caesar.’* Anyone who declares himself a king is a rebel against Caesar.”

<sup>13</sup> When they said this, Pilate brought Jesus out to them again. Then Pilate sat down on the judgment seat on the platform that is called the Stone Pavement (in Hebrew, Gabbatha). <sup>14</sup> It was now about noon on the day of preparation for the Passover. And Pilate said to the people, * “Look, here is your king!”

“What? Crucify your king?” Pilate asked.

“We have no king but Caesar,” the leading priests shouted back.

<sup>16</sup> Then Pilate turned Jesus over to them to be crucified.

THE CRUCIFIXION

So they took Jesus away. <sup>17</sup> Carrying the cross by himself, he went to the place called Place of the Skull (in Hebrew, Golgotha). <sup>18</sup> There they nailed him to the cross. Two others were crucified with him, one on either side, with Jesus between them. <sup>19</sup> And Pilate posted a sign on the cross that read, “Jesus of Nazareth, * the King of the Jews.” <sup>20</sup> The place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek, so that many people could read it.

<sup>21</sup> Then the leading priests objected and said to Pilate, “Change it from ‘The King of the Jews’ to ‘He said, I am King of the Jews.’”

<sup>23</sup> When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they divided his clothes among the four of them. They also took his robe, but it was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom. <sup>24</sup> So they said, “Rather than tearing it apart, let’s throw dice* for it.” This fulfilled the Scripture that says, “They divided my garments among themselves and threw dice for my clothing.” * So that is what they did.

<sup>25</sup> Standing near the cross were Jesus’ mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary (the wife of Clopas), and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup> When Jesus saw his mother standing there beside the disciple he loved, he said to her, “Dear woman, here is your son.” <sup>27</sup> And he said to this disciple, “Here is your mother.” And from then on this disciple took her into his home.

THE DEATH OF JESUS

<sup>28</sup>Jesus knew that his mission was now finished, and to fulfill Scripture he said, “I am thirsty.”* <sup>29</sup>A jar of sour wine was sitting there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put it on a hyssop branch, and held it up to his lips. <sup>30</sup>When Jesus had tasted it, he said, “It is finished!” Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

<sup>31</sup>It was the day of preparation, and the Jewish leaders didn’t want the bodies hanging there the next day, which was the Sabbath (and a very special Sabbath, because it was Passover week). So they asked Pilate to hasten their deaths by ordering that their legs be broken. Then their bodies could be taken down. <sup>32</sup>So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the two men crucified with Jesus. <sup>33</sup>But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, so they didn’t break his legs. <sup>34</sup>One of the soldiers, however, pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water flowed out. <sup>35</sup>(This report is from an eyewitness giving an accurate account. He speaks the truth so that you also may continue to believe.)* <sup>36</sup>These things happened in fulfillment of the Scriptures that say, “Not one of his bones will be broken,”* <sup>37</sup>and “They will look on the one they pierced.”*

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

<sup>38</sup>Afterward Joseph of Arimathea, who had been a secret disciple of Jesus (because he feared the Jewish leaders), asked Pilate for permission to take down Jesus’ body. When Pilate gave permission, Joseph came and took the body away. <sup>39</sup>With him came Nicodemus, the man who had come to Jesus at night. He brought about seventy-five pounds* of perfumed ointment made from myrrh and aloes. <sup>40</sup>Following Jewish burial custom, they wrapped Jesus’ body with the spices in long sheets of linen cloth. <sup>41</sup>The place of crucifixion was near a garden, where there was a new tomb, never used before. <sup>42</sup>And so, because it was the day of preparation for the Jewish Passover* and since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

THE RESURRECTION

20 Early on Sunday morning,* while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. <sup>2</sup>She ran and found Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. She said, “They have taken the Lord’s body out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put him!”

<sup>3</sup>Peter and the other disciple started out for the tomb. <sup>4</sup>They were both running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. <sup>5</sup>He stooped and looked in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he didn’t go in. <sup>6</sup>Then Simon Peter arrived and went inside. He also noticed the linen wrappings

PREPARING TO BE SENT

John 20:21

ROBERT MORRIS

What has God called you to do? Whatever it is, He wants to put His anointing and authority on you before He sends you. Even Jesus had to go through a process between the call and the send—He didn’t begin His ministry until He was 30 years old. Many great men of the Bible, such as Abraham, Moses, Joseph, and David, also waited years and years between being called and being sent.

So what do you do while you are waiting?

You work on developing a commitment to:

- Relationships—Find people who will help you go further in your walk with Christ.
- Friendships—Friendships are deeper than relationships; friendships are for life.
- Stewardship—Be a good steward with your finances, time, energy, and resources.
- Fellowship—Commit yourself to the local church by serving and tithing.
- Spiritual leadership—Submit to the leadership of the elders and spiritual authority of the church.

lying there, <sup>7</sup>while the cloth that had covered Jesus’ head was folded up and lying apart from the other wrappings. <sup>8</sup>Then the disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed—<sup>9</sup>for until then they still hadn’t understood the Scriptures that said Jesus must rise from the dead. <sup>10</sup>Then they went home.

JESUS APPEARS TO MARY MAGDALENE

<sup>11</sup>Mary was standing outside the tomb crying, and as she wept, she stooped and looked in.

<sup>12</sup>She saw two white-robed angels, one sitting at the head and the other at the foot of the place where the body of Jesus had been lying. <sup>13</sup>“Dear woman, why are you crying?” the angels asked her.

“Because they have taken away my Lord,” she replied, “and I don’t know where they have put him.”

<sup>14</sup>She turned to leave and saw someone standing there. It was Jesus, but she didn’t recognize him. <sup>15</sup>“Dear woman, why are you crying?” Jesus asked her. “Who are you looking for?”

She thought he was the gardener. “Sir,” she said, “if you have taken him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will go and get him.”

<sup>16</sup>“Mary!” Jesus said.

She turned to him and cried out, “Rabboni!” (which is Hebrew for “Teacher”).

<sup>17</sup>“Don’t cling to me,” Jesus said, “for I haven’t yet ascended to the Father. But go find my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

<sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene found the disciples and told them, “I have seen the Lord!” Then she gave them his message.

JESUS APPEARS TO HIS DISCIPLES

<sup>19</sup>That Sunday evening* the disciples were meeting behind locked doors because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Suddenly, Jesus was standing there among them! “Peace be with you,” he said. <sup>20</sup>As he spoke, he showed them the wounds in his hands and his side. They were filled with joy when they saw the Lord! <sup>21</sup>Again he said, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you.” <sup>22</sup>Then he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>23</sup>If you forgive anyone’s sins, they are forgiven. If you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”

JESUS APPEARS TO THOMAS

But he replied, “I won’t believe it unless I see the nail wounds in his hands, put my fingers into them, and place my hand into the wound in his side.”

<sup>26</sup>Eight days later the disciples were together again, and this time Thomas was with them. The doors were locked; but suddenly, as before, Jesus was standing among them. “Peace be with you,” he said. <sup>27</sup>Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and look at my hands. Put your hand into the wound in my side. Don’t be faithless any longer. Believe!”

<sup>28</sup>“My Lord and my God!” Thomas exclaimed.

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus told him, “You believe because you have seen me. Blessed are those who believe without seeing me.”

PURPOSE OF THE BOOK

<sup>30</sup>The disciples saw Jesus do many other miraculous signs in addition to the ones recorded in this book.<sup>31</sup> But these are written so that you may continue to believe* that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you will have life by the power of his name.

EPILOGUE: JESUS APPEARS TO SEVEN DISCIPLES

21 Later, Jesus appeared again to the disciples beside the Sea of Galilee.* This is how it happened.<sup>2</sup> Several of the disciples were there—Simon Peter, Thomas (nicknamed the Twin),* Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples.

THE SIN OF COMPARISON

John 21:18–23

ROBERT MORRIS

In John 21, the resurrected Jesus forgives Peter for denying Him and tells the disciple to “feed my sheep” (v. 17). But then the conversation takes an unexpected turn: Jesus tells Peter that one day he will die a terrible death. Peter looks at John, “the disciple Jesus loved,” and asks, “What about him, Lord?” (v. 21). Peter is probably thinking, Encourage me by saying John’s death will be worse than mine. Instead, Jesus replies, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?” (v. 22). In other words, Stop comparing, Peter!

Jesus has no sympathy for comparison because it blocks our ability to relate to and receive from God. Let’s look at the curse, cause, and cure for comparison.

1. The Curse

Comparison produces an attitude of inferiority or superiority in our hearts. When we see ourselves as better than others, we become prideful, and when we see ourselves as worse than others, we wonder, Why doesn’t God love me as much as He loves them? Resenting the blessings of others produces anger toward God and opens the door for Satan to work in our lives (James 3:16).

2. The Cause

Comparison comes from not accepting or understanding who God has made each of us to be. God gives different gifts to every person because He has a unique calling for every person. Together, we make up the body of Christ (1 Corinthians 12:12). Comparison is a deadly spiritual disease that stems from covetousness: wanting what others have and not appreciating what God has given us. Covetousness is really idolatry because it places someone or something in the place of God.

3. The Cure

We can overcome comparison by choosing to glorify God. Trust that He has made you perfectly and has a great plan for your life. Develop a habit of thankfulness and gratitude by reminding yourself that if it weren’t for God’s grace, you wouldn’t have anything at all. Finally, “let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think” (Romans 12:2). This transformation comes by reading and meditating on God’s Word every day. By doing so, “you will learn to know God’s will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect” (Romans 12:2).

"We'll come, too," they all said. So they went out in the boat, but they caught nothing all night.

<sup>4</sup>At dawn Jesus was standing on the beach, but the disciples couldn't see who he was. <sup>5</sup>He called out, "Fellows,* have you caught any fish?"

"No," they replied.

<sup>6</sup>Then he said, "Throw out your net on the right-hand side of the boat, and you'll get some!" So they did, and they couldn't haul in the net because there were so many fish in it.

<sup>7</sup>Then the disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his tunic (for he had stripped for work), jumped into the water, and headed to shore. <sup>8</sup>The others stayed with the boat and pulled the loaded net to the shore, for they were only about a hundred yards* from shore.

<sup>9</sup>When they got there, they found breakfast waiting for them—fish cooking over a charcoal fire, and some bread.

<sup>10</sup>"Bring some of the fish you've just caught," Jesus said. <sup>11</sup>So Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore. There were 153 large fish, and yet the net hadn't torn.

<sup>12</sup>"Now come and have some breakfast!" Jesus said. None of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Then Jesus served them the bread and the fish. <sup>14</sup>This was the third time Jesus had appeared to his disciples since he had been raised from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>After breakfast Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?"

"Yes, Lord," Peter replied, "you know I love you."

"Then feed my lambs," Jesus told him.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus repeated the question: "Simon son of John, do you love me?"

"Yes, Lord," Peter said, "you know I love you."

"Then take care of my sheep," Jesus said.

<sup>17</sup>A third time he asked him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was hurt that Jesus asked the question a third time. He said, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you."

Jesus said, "Then feed my sheep."

<sup>18</sup>"I tell you the truth, when you were young, you were able to do as you liked; you dressed yourself and went wherever you wanted to go. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and others* will dress you and take you where you don't want to go." <sup>19</sup>Jesus said this to let him know by what kind of death he would glorify God. Then Jesus told him, "Follow me."

<sup>20</sup>Peter turned around and saw behind them the disciple Jesus loved—the one who had leaned over to Jesus during supper and asked, "Lord, who will betray you?" <sup>21</sup>Peter asked Jesus, "What about him, Lord?"

<sup>22</sup>Jesus replied, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? As for you, follow me." <sup>23</sup>So the rumor spread among the community of believers* that this disciple wouldn't die. But that isn't what Jesus said at all. He only said, "If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?"

<sup>24</sup>This disciple is the one who testifies to these events and has recorded them here. And we know that his account of these things is accurate.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus also did many other things. If they were all written down, I suppose the whole world could not contain the books that would be written.

<sup>21:5</sup> Greek Children. <sup>21:8</sup> Greek 200 cubits [90 meters]. <sup>21:15</sup> Or more than these others do? <sup>21:18</sup> Some manuscripts read and another one. <sup>21:23</sup> Greek the brothers.

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The book of Acts continues the account of Jesus' ministry begun in Luke's Gospel. Just as the Gospel traces Jesus' ministry from Galilee to Jerusalem, the center of the Jewish world, Acts traces Jesus' ministry through His followers from Jerusalem to Rome, the center of the Mediterranean world. The book spans a period of about 30 years, from the time of Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection (in the year 30/33) up to the time of Paul's house arrest in Rome in the mid-60's. Luke wrote Acts along with his Gospel shortly after that time. Just as he drew upon eyewitness reports for his Gospel portrait of Jesus (Luke 1:1-4), he relied on similar testimony for Acts. Luke also supplements the account with his own firsthand experiences during his travels with the apostle Paul, which he indicates with his first person plural use of we in the passages recounting those parts of Paul's ministry (16:10-18; 20:5-17; 21:1-18; 27:1-28:16).

Luke's Gospel and Acts share a strong connection. Luke addressed both to the same recipient, Theophilus (Luke 1:3; Acts 1:1), and he created a seamless storyline between the two books. He concludes the Gospel with Jesus' ascension and the return of the disciples to Jerusalem (Luke 24:50-53). Then Luke begins the book of Acts by recounting Jesus' ascension and placing the same disciples in Jerusalem waiting for the promise of the Father (Acts 1:4-11). In addition, he continues to highlight the saving work of Jesus through the Holy Spirit in Acts that he had started in the Gospel.

The book of Acts may be called the book of sermons since it records or alludes to as many as 15 messages preached by Peter, Paul, and others, everywhere from Jerusalem to Ephesus to Athens to Rome. These early church leaders preached sermons to people as different as the Jewish Sanhedrin, an Ethiopian eunuch, a Roman centurion, a Philippian jailer, philosophers at the Greek Areopagus, and Roman governors. (See 2:14-39; 3:11-26; 4:8-12; 5:29-32; 7:1-53; 8:30-38; 10:34-43; 13:16-39; 15:12; 16:31; 17:3, 22-31; 20:25-35; 22:1-21; 23:6; 24:10-21.)

The content of these sermons is the gospel, the Good News, which makes important and specific claims about Jesus:

- Jesus was from Nazareth, which means He was a real human being who came from a real town and whose life God's prophets had predicted.
- He was anointed with the Holy Spirit and performed good works, including miracles.
- He was put to death on a cross but then raised to life on the third day after His death.
- Jesus ascended to heaven, from where He will return one day to His followers.

Aspects of this gospel message are found in all the sermons recorded in Acts, the most complete example being Peter's sermon to the Roman Cornelius and his household (Acts 10:34-43).

The book of Acts may be divided by the movement of this gospel message from Jerusalem to Rome:

- After an introduction emphasizing Jesus' instructions to the disciples and the gift of the Holy Spirit (1:1-2:41), Luke describes events in Jerusalem and the proclamation of the gospel there (2:42-7:60).
- The gospel then is proclaimed in Samaria and in Caesarea to the Gentile household of Cornelius, even as Jesus confronts Paul on the way to Damascus and tells him he will go to the Gentiles and the people of Israel with the gospel (8:1-11:18).
- Persecution follows in Jerusalem while Paul begins his first gospel mission with Barnabas to cities in Asia Minor (Cyprus, Pisidia, Iconium, and Lystra) and returns to report to the leaders in Jerusalem (13:1-15:35).
- Paul begins his second gospel mission, this time with Silas, which takes him to the cities of Philippi, Thessalonica, Corinth, and Ephesus in Europe (16:1-20:38).
- Paul returns to Jerusalem, where he proclaims the gospel to Jewish leaders as well as Roman officials before he is jailed and ultimately sent to Rome (21:1-26:38).

At the heart of the gospel message preached by Peter, Paul, and others in the book of Acts is that God's salvation comes from having a relationship with Jesus. For Luke, salvation means "forgiveness of sins and wholeness in a person's life." It includes deliverance from bondage, cleansing from impurity, healing in body, and restoration in relationships that comes through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Luke draws attention to this salvation at the beginning of the book and at its conclusion. Thus, on the Day of Pentecost, Peter preaches about salvation and says, "Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved" (2:21). He says the presence of the Holy Spirit that they have experienced in the form of tongues of fire is a sign that the days of God's salvation for all people have now arrived. Then Peter finishes his sermon by urging everyone to "save yourselves from this crooked generation" (2:40) by repenting and being baptized. Luke reports that many were saved that day, and "each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved" (2:47). The book concludes as it began with a word about salvation when Paul declares to Roman Jewish leaders that any rejection of the gospel will result in the blessing of the nations: “I want you to know that this salvation from God has also been offered to the Gentiles, and they will accept it” (28:28).

One other way Acts resembles Luke’s Gospel is the importance of prayer in the lives of Jesus’ followers, just as it was in Jesus’ own life. Luke says the disciples devoted themselves to prayer (1:14; 2:42; 6:4). They pray when making important decisions, such as when they chose a disciple to replace Judas (1:24–25) or when they needed courage (4:24–31). Luke reports that Peter received a vision from God, which prepared him for his ministry to Gentiles, while he was in prayer (10:9) even as the Gentile Cornelius heard God during prayer tell him to call for Peter to share the gospel with him and his family (10:30–33). Paul and Barnabas are sent by the church in Antioch on their mission to the Gentiles after fasting and prayer (13:2–3), and they pray and fast as they appoint leaders for the churches they start (14:23).

THE PROMISE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

1 In my first book<sup>1</sup> I told you, Theophilus, about everything Jesus began to do and teach<sup>2</sup> until the day he was taken up to heaven after giving his chosen apostles further instructions through the Holy Spirit.<sup>3</sup> During the forty days after he suffered and died, he appeared to the apostles from time to time, and he proved to them in many ways that he was actually alive. And he talked to them about the Kingdom of God.

<sup>4</sup> Once when he was eating with them, he commanded them, “Do not leave Jerusalem until the Father sends you the gift he promised, as I told you before.<sup>5</sup> John baptized with* water, but in just a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

THE ASCENSION OF JESUS

<sup>6</sup> So when the apostles were with Jesus, they kept asking him, “Lord, has the time come for you to free Israel and restore our kingdom?”

<sup>7</sup> He replied, “The Father alone has the authority to set those dates and times, and they are not for you to know.<sup>8</sup> But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

<sup>9</sup> After saying this, he was taken up into a cloud while they were watching, and they could no longer see him.<sup>10</sup> As they strained to see him rising into heaven, two white-robed men suddenly stood among them.<sup>11</sup> “Men of Galilee,” they said, “why are you standing here staring into heaven? Jesus has been taken from you into heaven, but someday he will return from heaven in the same way you saw him go!”

MATTHIAS REPLACES JUDAS

<sup>13</sup> When they arrived, they went to the upstairs room of the house where they were staying.

Here are the names of those who were present: Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon (the zealot), and Judas (son of James).

EMPOWERED

Acts 1:4–5

ROBERT MORRIS

To empower means ‘to put power into.’ God wants us to live our lives to the fullest—He wants us to be all He created us to be. Wouldn’t it be amazing to see every believer empowered and serving in his or her gift? But how can we be empowered?

1. Believe and accept Jesus.

Jesus is the Savior of the world, but He’s not your Savior until you believe and accept Him. John 1:12 says, “To all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right to become children of God.” Accepting Jesus is more than a mental agreement that He is the Son of God. It’s submitting your will to Him. When we believe and accept Jesus, we release Him to be all God intended Him to be in our lives.

2. Receive the Holy Spirit.

When you believe and accept Jesus, the Holy Spirit comes to dwell within you. However, according to Acts 1:8, the Holy Spirit also “comes upon you” to give you power to witness. Many people have difficulty witnessing because they haven’t received the person or the power of the Holy Spirit. We receive the Holy Spirit the same way we receive Jesus—by submitting ourselves to Him.

3. Receive spiritual authority.

We also receive power by submitting ourselves to the leadership of our local church. Many believers don’t understand how important this is, but here’s the truth: the only way to have spiritual authority is to submit to spiritual authority. Understanding and submitting to authority produces great faith, which is essential for winning the battle against the enemy.

<sup>14</sup> They all met together and were constantly united in prayer, along with Mary the mother

POWER TO OBEY

STEVE DULIN

My wife, Melody, and I waited at the airport counter with our two-year-old daughter Kristin. After checking in, Melody turned to me and asked, "Where's Kristin?" I looked down and realized our daughter was gone. Praying silently, I sprinted toward the gift shop, but then I heard Melody scream, "My baby has been kidnapped!" This was completely out of character for my wife. She had worked as an emergency room nurse and was trained to handle crises quickly and calmly. I knew something was very wrong.

An announcement came over the loudspeaker, asking anyone who saw Kristin to alert the nearest authority. After several minutes of frantic searching, there was a second announcement: "Steve and Melody Dulin, please come to the security area. Your daughter has been found." Kristin later told us that a woman had picked her up while my back was turned and taken her through security. They were about to board a plane, but the announcement came over the loudspeaker, and the woman put Kristin down and disappeared. If Melody had not screamed when she did, the kidnapper likely would have escaped with our daughter.

Acts 1:8 says the Holy Spirit gives us power. This power is not only for witnessing but also for obeying in a way that witnesses to others. Melody said that as she prayed, the Holy Spirit strongly impressed upon her that Kristin had been kidnapped and everyone needed to be alerted right away. Melody believed what the Holy Spirit said, so she started screaming!

The Holy Spirit empowered my wife to do something contrary to her personality and experience. Melody heard His voice, believed what He said, and obeyed His instructions. Ask the Holy Spirit to speak to you today. He will give you the power to obey.

of Jesus, several other women, and the brothers of Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> During this time, when about 120 believers* were together in one place, Peter stood up and addressed them. <sup>16</sup> "Brothers," he said, "the Scriptures had to be fulfilled concerning Judas, who guided those who arrested Jesus. This was predicted long ago by the Holy Spirit, speaking through King David. <sup>17</sup> Judas was one of us and shared in the ministry with us."

<sup>18</sup> (Judas had bought a field with the money he received for his treachery. Falling headfirst there, his body split open, spilling out all his intestines. <sup>19</sup> The news of his death spread to all the people of Jerusalem, and they gave the place the Aramaic name Akeldama, which means "Field of Blood.")

IS THE HOLY SPIRIT PENTECOSTAL?

Acts 2:1-41

ROBERT MORRIS

One of the three major feasts in ancient Jewish tradition, Pentecost celebrated the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai that took place 50 days after Passover. The word Pentecost means 'fiftieth.' Fifty days after Jesus' resurrection, the Holy Spirit was poured out on the believers in Jerusalem. They began speaking in other tongues, and people from many different nations heard about "the wonderful things God has done" (Acts 2:11). Three thousand people heard the gospel and were saved that day.

The apostle Peter said the "gift of the Holy Spirit" is for "all who have been called by the Lord our God" (Acts 2:38-39). That means us! We cannot keep God's commands by relying on our own strength. However, the Holy Spirit writes God's righteous standard on our hearts. Jesus came to give us right standing with God, and the Holy Spirit came to empower us to live righteously.

<sup>21</sup> "So now we must choose a replacement for Judas from among the men who were with us the entire time we were traveling with the Lord Jesus—<sup>22</sup> from the time he was baptized by John until the day he was taken from us. Whoever is chosen will join us as a witness of Jesus' resurrection."

<sup>23</sup> So they nominated two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. <sup>24</sup> Then they all prayed, "O Lord, you know every heart. Show us which of these men you have chosen <sup>25</sup> as an apostle to replace Judas in this ministry, for he has deserted us and gone where he belongs." <sup>26</sup> Then they cast lots, and Matthias was selected to become an apostle with the other eleven.

THE HOLY SPIRIT COMES

2 On the day of Pentecost* all the believers were meeting together in one place. <sup>2</sup> Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> Then, what looked like flames or tongues of fire appeared and settled on each of them. "And everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in other languages,* as the Holy Spirit gave them this ability.

1:15 Greek brothers. 1:20 Pss 69:25; 109:8. 2:1 The Festival of Pentecost came 50 days after Passover (when Jesus was crucified). 2:4 Or in other tongues.

<sup>5</sup>At that time there were devout Jews from every nation living in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>When they heard the loud noise, everyone came running, and they were bewildered to hear their own languages being spoken by the believers.

<sup>7</sup>They were completely amazed. "How can this be?" they exclaimed. "These people are all from Galilee, <sup>8</sup>and yet we hear them speaking in our own native languages! <sup>9</sup>Here we are—Parthians, Medes, Elamites, people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, the province of Asia, <sup>10</sup>Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, and the areas of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome <sup>11</sup>(both Jews and converts to Judaism), Cretans, and Arabs. And we all hear these people speaking in our own languages about the wonderful things God has done!" <sup>12</sup>They stood there amazed and perplexed. "What can this mean?" they asked each other.

PETER PREACHES TO THE CROWD

<sup>14</sup>Then Peter stepped forward with the eleven other apostles and shouted to the crowd, "Listen carefully, all of you, fellow Jews and residents of Jerusalem! Make no mistake about this. <sup>15</sup>These people are not drunk, as some of you are assuming. Nine o'clock in the morning is much too early for that. <sup>16</sup>No, what you see was predicted long ago by the prophet Joel:

<sup>17</sup> 'In the last days,' God says,
'I will pour out my Spirit upon all people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy,
Your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>18</sup> In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on my servants—men and women alike—
and they will prophesy.

<sup>19</sup> And I will cause wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below—blood and fire and clouds of smoke.

<sup>20</sup> The sun will become dark, and the moon will turn blood red before that great and glorious day of the LORD arrives.

<sup>21</sup> But everyone who calls on the name of the LORD
will be saved.*

<sup>22</sup>"People of Israel, listen! God publicly endorsed Jesus the Nazarene* by doing powerful miracles, wonders, and signs through him, as you well know. <sup>23</sup>But God knew what would happen, and his prearranged plan was carried out when Jesus was betrayed. With the help of lawless Gentiles, you nailed him to a cross and killed him. <sup>24</sup>But God released him from the horrors of death and raised him back to life, for death could not keep him in its grip. <sup>25</sup>King David said this about him:

'I see that the LORD is always with me.
I will not be shaken, for he is right beside me.

<sup>26</sup> No wonder my heart is glad,
and my tongue shouts his praises!
My body rests in hope.

<sup>27</sup> For you will not leave my soul among the dead*
or allow your Holy One to rot in the grave.

<sup>28</sup> You have shown me the way of life, and you will fill me with the joy of your presence.*

<sup>29</sup>"Dear brothers, think about this! You can be sure that the patriarch David wasn't referring to himself, for he died and was buried, and his tomb is still here among us. <sup>30</sup>But he was a prophet, and he knew God had promised with an oath that one of David's own descendants would sit on his throne. <sup>31</sup>David was looking into the future and speaking of the Messiah's resurrection. He was saying that God would not leave him among the dead or allow his body to rot in the grave.

<sup>32</sup>"God raised Jesus from the dead, and we are all witnesses of this. <sup>33</sup>Now he is exalted to the place of highest honor in heaven, at God's right hand. And the Father, as he had promised, gave him the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us, just as you see and hear today. <sup>34</sup>For David himself never ascended into heaven, yet he said,

'The LORD said to my Lord,
"Sit in the place of honor at my right hand

<sup>35</sup> until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet."*

<sup>36</sup>"So let everyone in Israel know for certain that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, to be both Lord and Messiah!"

<sup>37</sup>Peter's words pierced their hearts, and they said to him and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?"

<sup>38</sup>Peter replied, "Each of you must repent of your sins and turn to God, and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. Then you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup>This promise is to you, to your children, and to those far away*—all who have been called by the Lord our God." <sup>40</sup>Then Peter continued preaching for a long time, strongly urging all his listeners, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation!"

<sup>41</sup>Those who believed what Peter said were baptized and added to the church that day—about 3,000 in all.

THE PERFECT SIZE CHURCH

Acts 2:42-47

ROBERT MORRIS

Debbie and I once saw a sign that said, "The Perfect Size Church." I thought, What would be the perfect size church? And if it's a certain number of people, then what do you do when you reach that number?

Nothing in Scripture tells us what the "perfect size church" is. However, I realize that many people believe "big churches" are just too big. They have the misconception that big churches are impersonal and difficult places in which to meet people. They believe this until they come, get involved, and build relationships.

Over the years, I've heard so many stories about people who've been through tough circumstances. Again and again, they say, "The way the Gateway Church family rallied around me and helped me through that time was phenomenal!" This is just one of the many reasons why I think being big gives us more opportunities to serve and help others. We may not be perfect, but we try very hard to follow the model of the early church in Acts 2.

THE BELIEVERS FORM A COMMUNITY

<sup>42</sup>All the believers devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching, and to fellowship, and to sharing in meals (including the Lord's Supper*), and to prayer.

<sup>43</sup>A deep sense of awe came over them all, and the apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders. <sup>44</sup>And all the believers met together in one place and shared everything they had. <sup>45</sup>They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those in need. <sup>46</sup>They worshiped together at the Temple each day, met in homes for the Lord's Supper, and shared their meals with great joy and generosity*—<sup>47</sup>all the while praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved.

PETER HEALS A CRIPPLED BEGGAR

3 Peter and John went to the Temple one afternoon to take part in the three o'clock prayer service. <sup>2</sup>As they approached the Temple, a man lame from birth was being carried in. Each day he was put beside the Temple gate, the one called the Beautiful Gate, so he could beg from the people going into the Temple. <sup>3</sup>When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for some money.

<sup>4</sup>Peter and John looked at him intently, and Peter said, "Look at us!" <sup>5</sup>The lame man looked at them eagerly, expecting some money. <sup>6</sup>But Peter said, "I don't have any silver or gold for you. But I'll give you what I have. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, *get up and* walk!"

<sup>7</sup>Then Peter took the lame man by the right hand and helped him up. And as he did, the man's feet and ankles were instantly healed and strengthened. <sup>8</sup>He jumped up, stood on his feet, and began to walk! Then, walking, leaping, and praising God, he went into the Temple with them.

<sup>9</sup>All the people saw him walking and heard him praising God. <sup>10</sup>When they realized he was the lame beggar they had seen so often at the Beautiful Gate, they were absolutely astounded! <sup>11</sup>They all rushed out in amazement to Solomon's Colonnade, where the man was holding tightly to Peter and John.

PETER PREACHES IN THE TEMPLE

<sup>12</sup>Peter saw his opportunity and addressed the crowd. "People of Israel," he said, "what is so surprising about this? And why stare at us as though we had made this man walk by our own power or godliness? <sup>13</sup>For it is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—the God of all our ancestors—who has brought glory to his servant Jesus by doing this. This is the same Jesus whom you handed over and rejected before Pilate, despite Pilate's decision to release him. <sup>14</sup>You rejected this holy, righteous one and instead demanded the release of a murderer. <sup>15</sup>You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead. And we are witnesses of this fact!

<sup>16</sup>"Through faith in the name of Jesus, this man was healed—and you know how crippled he was before. Faith in Jesus' name has healed him before your very eyes.

<sup>17</sup>"Friends,* I realize that what you and your leaders did to Jesus was done in ignorance. <sup>18</sup>But God was fulfilling what all the prophets had foretold about the Messiah—that he must suffer these things. <sup>19</sup>Now repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away. <sup>20</sup>Then times of refreshment will come from the presence of the Lord, and he will again send you Jesus, your appointed Messiah. <sup>21</sup>For he must remain in heaven until the time for the final restoration of all things, as God promised long ago through his holy prophets. <sup>22</sup>Moses said, 'The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your own people. Listen carefully to everything he tells you.'* <sup>23</sup>Then Moses said, 'Anyone who will not listen to that Prophet will be completely cut off from God's people.'*

<sup>24</sup>"Starting with Samuel, every prophet spoke about what is happening today. <sup>25</sup>You are the children of those prophets, and you are included in the covenant God promised to your ancestors. For God said to Abraham, 'Through your descendants* all the families on earth will be blessed.'

PETER AND JOHN BEFORE THE COUNCIL

4 While Peter and John were speaking to the people, they were confronted by the priests, the captain of the Temple guard, and some of the Sadducees. <sup>2</sup>These leaders were very disturbed that Peter and John were teaching the people that through Jesus there is a resurrection of the dead. <sup>3</sup>They arrested them and, since it was already evening, put them in jail until morning. <sup>4</sup>But many of the people who heard their message believed it, so the number of men who believed now totaled about 5,000.

<sup>8</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers and elders of our people, <sup>9</sup>are we being questioned today because we’ve done a good deed for a crippled man? Do you want to know how he was healed? <sup>10</sup>Let me clearly state to all of you and to all the people of Israel that he was healed by the powerful name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, * the man you crucified but whom God raised from the dead. <sup>11</sup>For Jesus is the one referred to in the Scriptures, where it says,

“The stone that you builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.”*

<sup>12</sup>There is salvation in no one else! God has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved.”

<sup>13</sup>The members of the council were amazed when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, for they could see that they were ordinary men with no special training in the Scriptures. They also recognized them as men who had been with Jesus. <sup>14</sup>But since they could see the man who had been healed standing right there among them, there was nothing the council could say. <sup>15</sup>So they ordered Peter and John out of the council chamber* and conferred among themselves.

<sup>16</sup>“What should we do with these men?” they asked each other. “We can’t deny that they have performed a miraculous sign, and everybody in Jerusalem knows about it. <sup>17</sup>But to keep them from spreading their propaganda any further, we must warn them not to speak to anyone in Jesus’ name again.” <sup>18</sup>So they called the apostles back in and commanded them never again to speak or teach in the name of Jesus.

<sup>19</sup>But Peter and John replied, “Do you think God wants us to obey you rather than him?” <sup>20</sup>We

HOW TO TELL OTHERS ABOUT JESUS

Acts 4:20

ROBERT MORRIS

Does telling others about Jesus feel intimidating? Are you worried you will say the wrong thing or sound too “religious”? Here are three practical steps you can take to tell others about Jesus:

1. Just talk to people.

Maybe you’re not ready to talk about theology, ecclesiology, eschatology, or any other “ology.” Maybe you don’t know how to explain the Bible, and you’re too nervous to invite someone to church. It’s okay! Just start by saying, “Hi!” Look for opportunities to interact with people. Open doors for them. Smile. I can talk to anyone, anywhere, anytime. Why? Because I know every person’s favorite subject: themselves! Ask people questions about their work, children, grandchildren, hobbies, etc. Everywhere Jesus went, He talked to people.

2. Just invite people.

Jesus not only talked to people, but He also invited them. When two of John the Baptist’s disciples asked Jesus where He was staying, Jesus replied, “Come and see” (John 1:39). Someone may ask you questions such as “Where do you go to church?” or “What’s your pastor like?” Here’s an easy response you can use every time: “Come and see!”

3. Just witness to people.

I want to take the religiosity out of witnessing; in other words, you can act normal. You don’t have to speak in King James English, use religious terms, or wave your hands and raise your voice. Remember, a witness is simply someone who shares what they have seen and heard. Just tell your story! I learned to tell my story in one sentence: “Growing up, I went to church, but I was really messed up until I gave God control of my life.” It’s that simple!

cannot stop telling about everything we have seen and heard.”

<sup>21</sup>The council then threatened them further, but they finally let them go because they didn’t know how to punish them without starting a riot. For everyone was praising God <sup>22</sup>for this miraculous sign—the healing of a man who had been lame for more than forty years.

THE BELIEVERS PRAY FOR COURAGE

<sup>23</sup>As soon as they were freed, Peter and John returned to the other believers and told them what the leading priests and elders had said.

<sup>24</sup>When they heard the report, all the believers lifted their voices together in prayer to God: “O Sovereign Lord, Creator of heaven and earth, 4:10 Or Jesus Christ of Nazareth. 4:11 Ps 118:22. 4:15 Greek the Sanhedrin.

GATHERED FOR POWER

Acts 4:24-31

JACK HAYFORD

One of the most prominent characteristics of the early church was their spiritual power. The disciples fasted and prayed often, and their faith released the miracle-working power of God. There were physical and spiritual demonstrations of the Holy Spirit's presence and power, which were experienced by all. Some people were filled with the Holy Spirit while others experienced a fresh energizing of the Spirit's power to proclaim and witness boldly.

Both the public ministry of Jesus in the Gospels and the public ministry of the early church in Acts began with a life-changing encounter with the Holy Spirit. In the Old Testament, only those who were uniquely called or anointed by God received the Holy Spirit. Under the New Covenant, every believer is offered the promise of the Father, the seal of Christ, and the active presence of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit's fullness in the life of every believer continues today.

the sea, and everything in them—<sup>25</sup>you spoke long ago by the Holy Spirit through our ancestor David, your servant, saying,

'Why were the nations so angry?

Why did they waste their time with futile plans?

<sup>27</sup>"In fact, this has happened here in this very city! For Herod Antipas, Pontius Pilate the governor, the Gentiles, and the people of Israel were all united against Jesus, your holy servant, whom you anointed. <sup>28</sup>But everything they did was determined beforehand according to your will. <sup>29</sup>And now, O Lord, hear their threats, and give us, your servants, great boldness in preaching your word. <sup>30</sup>Stretch out your hand with healing power; may miraculous signs and wonders be done through the name of your holy servant Jesus."

<sup>31</sup>After this prayer, the meeting place shook, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. Then they preached the word of God with boldness.

THE BELIEVERS SHARE THEIR POSSESSIONS

<sup>32</sup>All the believers were united in heart and mind. And they felt that what they owned was not their own, so they shared everything they had. <sup>33</sup>The apostles testified powerfully to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and God's great blessing was upon them all. <sup>34</sup>There were no needy people among them, because those who owned land or houses would sell them <sup>35</sup>and bring the money to the apostles to give to those in need.

<sup>36</sup>For instance, there was Joseph, the one the apostles nicknamed Barnabas (which means "Son of Encouragement"). He was from the tribe of Levi and came from the island of Cyprus. <sup>37</sup>He sold a field he owned and brought the money to the apostles.

ANANIAS AND SAPPHIRA

5 But there was a certain man named Ananias who, with his wife, Sapphira, sold some property. <sup>2</sup>He brought part of the money to the apostles, claiming it was the full amount. With his wife's consent, he kept the rest.

<sup>3</sup>Then Peter said, "Ananias, why have you let Satan fill your heart? You lied to the Holy Spirit, and you kept some of the money for yourself. <sup>4</sup>The property was yours to sell or not sell, as you wished. And after selling it, the money was also yours to give away. How could you do a thing like this? You weren't lying to us but to God!"

<sup>5</sup>As soon as Ananias heard these words, he fell to the floor and died. Everyone who heard about it was terrified. <sup>6</sup>Then some young men got up, wrapped him in a sheet, and took him out and buried him.

<sup>7</sup>About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. <sup>8</sup>Peter asked her, "Was this the price you and your husband received for your land?"

"Yes," she replied, "that was the price."

<sup>9</sup>And Peter said, "How could the two of you even think of conspiring to test the Spirit of the Lord like this? The young men who buried your husband are just outside the door, and they will carry you out, too."

<sup>10</sup>Instantly, she fell to the floor and died. When the young men came in and saw that she was dead, they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. <sup>11</sup>Great fear gripped the entire church and everyone else who heard what had happened.

THE APOSTLES HEAL MANY

<sup>12</sup>The apostles were performing many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. And all the believers were meeting regularly at the Temple in the area known as Solomon's Colonnade. <sup>13</sup>But no one else dared to join them, even though all the people had high regard for them. <sup>14</sup>Yet more and more people believed and were brought to the Lord—crowds of both men and women. <sup>15</sup>As a result of the apostles' work, sick people were brought out into the streets on beds and mats so that Peter's shadow might fall across some of them as he went by. <sup>16</sup>Crowds came from the villages around Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those possessed by evil* spirits, and they were all healed.

4:25-26 Or his anointed one; or his Christ. Ps 2:1-2. 5:16 Greek unclean.

THE APOSTLES MEET OPPOSITION

<sup>21</sup>So at daybreak the apostles entered the Temple, as they were told, and immediately began teaching.

When the high priest and his officials arrived, they convened the high council*—the full assembly of the elders of Israel. Then they sent for the apostles to be brought from the jail for trial. <sup>22</sup>But when the Temple guards went to the jail, the men were gone. So they returned to the council and reported, <sup>23</sup>“The jail was securely locked, with the guards standing outside, but when we opened the gates, no one was there!”

<sup>24</sup>When the captain of the Temple guard and the leading priests heard this, they were perplexed, wondering where it would all end. <sup>25</sup>Then someone arrived with startling news: “The men you put in jail are standing in the Temple, teaching the people!”

<sup>26</sup>The captain went with his Temple guards and arrested the apostles, but without violence, for they were afraid the people would stone them.

<sup>27</sup>Then they brought the apostles before the high council, where the high priest confronted them. <sup>28</sup>“We gave you strict orders never again to teach in this man’s name!” he said. “Instead, you have filled all Jerusalem with your teaching about him, and you want to make us responsible for his death!”

<sup>29</sup>But Peter and the apostles replied, “We must obey God rather than any human authority. <sup>30</sup>The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from the dead after you killed him by hanging him on a cross.* <sup>31</sup>Then God put him in the place of honor at his right hand as Prince and Savior. He did this so the people of Israel would repent of their sins and be forgiven. <sup>32</sup>We are witnesses of these things and so is the Holy Spirit, who is given by God to those who obey him.”

<sup>33</sup>When they heard this, the high council was furious and decided to kill them. <sup>34</sup>But one member, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, who was an expert in religious law and respected by all the people, stood up and ordered that the men be sent outside the council chamber for a while. <sup>35</sup>Then he said to his colleagues, “Men of Israel, take care what you are planning to do to these men! <sup>36</sup>Some time ago there was that fellow Theudas, who pretended to be someone great. About 400 others joined him, but he was killed, and all his followers went their various ways. The whole movement came to nothing. <sup>37</sup>After him, at the time of the census, there was Judas of Galilee. He got people to follow him, but he was killed, too, and all his followers were scattered.

<sup>38</sup>“So my advice is, leave these men alone. Let them go. If they are planning and doing these things merely on their own, it will soon be overthrown. <sup>39</sup>But if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God!”

<sup>40</sup>The others accepted his advice. They called in the apostles and had them flogged. Then they ordered them never again to speak in the name of Jesus, and they let them go.

<sup>41</sup>The apostles left the high council rejoicing that God had counted them worthy to suffer disgrace for the name of Jesus.* <sup>42</sup>And every day, in the Temple and from house to house, they continued to teach and preach this message: “Jesus is the Messiah.”

SEVEN MEN CHOSEN TO SERVE

6 But as the believers* rapidly multiplied, there were rumblings of discontent. The Greek-speaking believers complained about the Hebrew-speaking believers, saying that their widows were being discriminated against in the daily distribution of food.

<sup>2</sup>So the Twelve called a meeting of all the believers. They said, “We apostles should spend our time teaching the word of God, not running a food program. <sup>3</sup>And so, brothers, select seven men who are well respected and are full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will give them this

AUTHENTIC WITNESSES

Acts 5:32

ROBERT MORRIS

Imagine that you and I are coworkers. One day I tell you about a new medicine that helped me recover from an incurable disease. Would you think I was trying to shove my beliefs down your throat? Of course not! It would not be offensive because I was merely sharing my story with you.

Witnessing to people is much the same. You don’t need to persuade or argue with people; you just need to share your story. Witnesses are people who accurately communicate their experiences—what they have personally seen and heard. And every Christian should be a witness. In fact, every Christian is a witness. There’s just one question: are you a good witness or a bad one?

The disciples’ testimonies were so powerful because they were personal. These men walked with Jesus and watched Him change lives everywhere He went. If you’re a Christian, Jesus has changed your life too. Whom will you share your story with today?

5:21 Greek Sanhedrin; also in 5:27, 41. 5:30 Greek on a tree. 5:41 Greek for the name. 6:1 Greek disciples; also in 6:2, 7.

responsibility. <sup>4</sup>Then we apostles can spend our time in prayer and teaching the word.”

<sup>5</sup>Everyone liked this idea, and they chose the following: Stephen (a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit), Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas of Antioch (an earlier convert to the Jewish faith). <sup>6</sup>These seven were presented to the apostles, who prayed for them as they laid their hands on them.

<sup>7</sup>So God’s message continued to spread. The number of believers greatly increased in Jerusalem, and many of the Jewish priests were converted, too.

STEPHEN IS ARRESTED

<sup>8</sup>Stephen, a man full of God’s grace and power, performed amazing miracles and signs among the people. <sup>9</sup>But one day some men from the Synagogue of Freed Slaves, as it was called, started to debate with him. They were Jews from Cyrene, Alexandria, Cilicia, and the province of Asia. <sup>10</sup>None of them could stand against the wisdom and the Spirit with which Stephen spoke.

<sup>11</sup>So they persuaded some men to lie about Stephen, saying, “We heard him blaspheme Moses, and even God.” <sup>12</sup>This roused the people, the elders, and the teachers of religious law. So they arrested Stephen and brought him before the high council.*

<sup>13</sup>The lying witnesses said, “This man is always speaking against the holy Temple and against the law of Moses. <sup>14</sup>We have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth* will destroy the Temple and change the customs Moses handed down to us.”

<sup>15</sup>At this point everyone in the high council stared at Stephen, because his face became as bright as an angel’s.

STEPHEN ADDRESSES THE COUNCIL

7 Then the high priest asked Stephen, “Are these accusations true?”

<sup>2</sup>This was Stephen’s reply: “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. Our glorious God appeared to our ancestor Abraham in Mesopotamia before he settled in Haran.* <sup>3</sup>God told him, ‘Leave your native land and your relatives, and come into the land that I will show you.’* <sup>4</sup>So Abraham left the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran until his father died. Then God brought him here to the land where you now live.

<sup>5</sup>“But God gave him no inheritance here, not even one square foot of land. God did promise, however, that eventually the whole land would belong to Abraham and his descendants—even though he had no children yet. <sup>6</sup>God also told him that his descendants would live in a foreign land, where they would be oppressed as slaves for 400 years. <sup>7</sup>‘But I will punish the nation that enslaves them,’ God said, ‘and in the end they will come out and worship me here in this place.’*

<sup>8</sup>“God also gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision at that time. So when Abraham became the father of Isaac, he circumcised him on the eighth day. And the practice was continued when Isaac became the father of Jacob, and when Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs of the Israelite nation.

<sup>9</sup>“These patriarchs were jealous of their brother Joseph, and they sold him to be a slave in Egypt. But God was with him <sup>10</sup>and rescued him from all his troubles. And God gave him favor before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. God also gave Joseph unusual wisdom, so that Pharaoh appointed him governor over all of Egypt and put him in charge of the palace.

<sup>11</sup>“But a famine came upon Egypt and Canaan. There was great misery, and our ancestors ran out of food. <sup>12</sup>Jacob heard that there was still grain in Egypt, so he sent his sons—our ancestors—to buy some. <sup>13</sup>The second time they went, Joseph revealed his identity to his brothers,* and they were introduced to Pharaoh. <sup>14</sup>Then Joseph sent for his father, Jacob, and all his relatives to come to Egypt, seventy-five persons in all. <sup>15</sup>So Jacob went to Egypt. He died there, as did our ancestors. <sup>16</sup>Their bodies were taken to Shechem and buried in the tomb Abraham had bought for a certain price from Hamor’s sons in Shechem.

<sup>17</sup>“As the time drew near when God would fulfill his promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased. <sup>18</sup>But then a new king came to the throne of Egypt who knew nothing about Joseph. <sup>19</sup>This king exploited our people and oppressed them, forcing parents to abandon their newborn babies so they would die.

<sup>20</sup>“At that time Moses was born—a beautiful child in God’s eyes. His parents cared for him at home for three months. <sup>21</sup>When they had to abandon him, Pharaoh’s daughter adopted him and raised him as her own son. <sup>22</sup>Moses was taught all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was powerful in both speech and action.

<sup>23</sup>“One day when Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his relatives, the people of Israel. <sup>24</sup>He saw an Egyptian mistreating an Israelite. So Moses came to the man’s defense and avenged him, killing the Egyptian. <sup>25</sup>Moses assumed his fellow Israelites would realize that God had sent him to rescue them, but they didn’t.

<sup>26</sup>“The next day he visited them again and saw two men of Israel fighting. He tried to be a peacemaker. ‘Men,’ he said, ‘you are brothers. Why are you fighting each other?’

<sup>27</sup>“But the man in the wrong pushed Moses aside. ‘Who made you a ruler and judge over us?’ he asked. <sup>28</sup>‘Are you going to kill me as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?’ <sup>29</sup>When Moses heard that, he fled the country and lived as a foreigner in the land of Midian. There his two sons were born.

<sup>33</sup> “Then the LORD said to him, ‘Take off your sandals, for you are standing on holy ground. <sup>34</sup> I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groans and have come down to rescue them. Now go, for I am sending you back to Egypt.’*

<sup>35</sup> “So God sent back the same man his people had previously rejected when they demanded, ‘Who made you a ruler and judge over us?’ Through the angel who appeared to him in the burning bush, God sent Moses to be their ruler and savior. <sup>36</sup> And by means of many wonders and miraculous signs, he led them out of Egypt, through the Red Sea, and through the wilderness for forty years.

<sup>37</sup> “Moses himself told the people of Israel, ‘God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your own people.’* <sup>38</sup> Moses was with our ancestors, the assembly of God’s people in the wilderness, when the angel spoke to him at Mount Sinai. And there Moses received life-giving words to pass on to us.*

<sup>39</sup> “But our ancestors refused to listen to Moses. They rejected him and wanted to return to Egypt. <sup>40</sup> They told Aaron, ‘Make us some gods who can lead us, for we don’t know what has become of this Moses, who brought us out of Egypt.’ <sup>41</sup> So they made an idol shaped like a calf, and they sacrificed to it and celebrated over this thing they had made. <sup>42</sup> Then God turned away from them and abandoned them to serve the stars of heaven as their gods! In the book of the prophets it is written,

‘Was it to me you were bringing sacrifices and offerings during those forty years in the wilderness, Israel?

<sup>43</sup> No, you carried your pagan gods—the shrine of Molech, the star of your god Rephan, and the images you made to worship them.
So I will send you into exile
as far away as Babylon.’*

<sup>44</sup> “Our ancestors carried the Tabernacle* with them through the wilderness. It was constructed according to the plan God had shown to Moses. <sup>45</sup> Years later, when Joshua led our ancestors in battle against the nations that God drove out of this land, the Tabernacle was taken with them into their new territory. And it stayed there until the time of King David.

<sup>46</sup> “David found favor with God and asked for the privilege of building a permanent Temple for the God of Jacob.* <sup>47</sup> But it was Solomon who actually built it. <sup>48</sup> However, the Most High doesn’t live in temples made by human hands. As the prophet says, <sup>49</sup> ‘Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool.

Could you build me a temple as good as that?’
asks the LORD.
‘Could you build me such a resting place?’
<sup>50</sup> Didn’t my hands make both heaven and earth?*

<sup>51</sup> “You stubborn people! You are heathen* at heart and deaf to the truth. Must you forever resist the Holy Spirit? That’s what your ancestors did, and so do you! <sup>52</sup> Name one prophet your ancestors didn’t persecute! They even killed the ones who predicted the coming of the Righteous One—the Messiah whom you betrayed and murdered. <sup>53</sup> You deliberately disobeyed God’s law, even though you received it from the hands of angels.*

<sup>54</sup> The Jewish leaders were infuriated by Stephen’s accusation, and they shook their fists at him in rage.* <sup>55</sup> But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed steadily into heaven and saw the glory of God, and he saw Jesus standing in the place of honor at God’s right hand. <sup>56</sup> And he told them, “Look, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing in the place of honor at God’s right hand!”

8 Saul was one of the witnesses, and he agreed completely with the killing of Stephen.

PERSECUTION SCATTERS THE BELIEVERS

A great wave of persecution began that day, sweeping over the church in Jerusalem; and all the believers except the apostles were scattered through the regions of Judea and Samaria. <sup>2</sup> (Some devout men came and buried Stephen

ENJOYING LIFE

Acts 8:9–24

ROBERT MORRIS

God wants you to enjoy life. According to Galatians 5:22–23, joy is part of the fruit of the Spirit. If you're a believer and you don't have joy, there is likely a blockage in your life. Let's identify three main blockages so they can be removed and you can enjoy life as God intended.

1. Actions

In Acts 8, a new believer named Simon tries to buy and manipulate the gift of the Holy Spirit. Peter responds, "You can have no part in this, for your heart is not right with God. . . . I can see that you are full of bitter jealousy and are held captive by sin" (v. 21). I'm not saying you must be perfect; we all make mistakes. However, if you have recurring sin in your life, it will rob you of your joy. Sin grieves the Holy Spirit and causes you to feel dirty, condemned, and ashamed. The only way to restore joy is to repent and turn to God.

2. Attitudes

Our attitudes are formed by our thoughts. Good attitudes come from good thoughts, and bad attitudes come from bad thoughts. Instead of being happy that other people were getting blessed, Simon was jealous and bitter. Bitterness is a poison that steals your joy and holds you in bondage. In 2 Corinthians 10:5, Paul says we must "capture [our] rebellious thoughts and teach them to obey Christ."

3. Attacks

Our actions and attitudes can leave an open door for the enemy to enter and attack us. Is it possible to be a Christian and still be in bondage? Yes. When Peter pointed out this problem, Simon didn't argue; instead, he begged Peter to pray for him (Acts 8:24). This should be our first response too. The best way to defeat the enemy's attacks is to come into the presence of God.

with great mourning.)<sup>3</sup> But Saul was going everywhere to destroy the church. He went from house to house, dragging out both men and women to throw them into prison.

PHILIP PREACHES IN SAMARIA

<sup>4</sup>But the believers who were scattered preached the Good News about Jesus wherever they went. <sup>5</sup>Philip, for example, went to the city of Samaria and told the people there about the Messiah. <sup>6</sup>Crowds listened intently to Philip because they were eager to hear his message and see the miraculous signs he did. <sup>7</sup>Many evil* spirits were cast out, screaming as they left their victims. And many who had been paralyzed or lame were healed. <sup>8</sup>So there was great joy in that city.

<sup>9</sup>A man named Simon had been a sorcerer there for many years, amazing the people of Samaria and claiming to be someone great. <sup>10</sup>Everyone, from the least to the greatest, often spoke of him as "the Great One—the Power of God." <sup>11</sup>They listened closely to him because for a long time he had astounded them with his magic.

<sup>12</sup>But now the people believed Philip's message of Good News concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ. As a result, many men and women were baptized. <sup>13</sup>Then Simon himself believed and was baptized. He began following Philip wherever he went, and he was amazed by the signs and great miracles Philip performed.

<sup>14</sup>When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that the people of Samaria had accepted God's message, they sent Peter and John there. <sup>15</sup>As soon as they arrived, they prayed for these new believers to receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup>The Holy Spirit had not yet come upon any of them, for they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>17</sup>Then Peter and John laid their hands upon these believers, and they received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>When Simon saw that the Spirit was given when the apostles laid their hands on people, he offered them money to buy this power. <sup>19</sup>"Let me have this power, too," he exclaimed, "so that when I lay my hands on people, they will receive the Holy Spirit!"

<sup>24</sup>"Pray to the Lord for me," Simon exclaimed, "that these terrible things you've said won't happen to me!"

<sup>25</sup>After testifying and preaching the word of the Lord in Samaria, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem. And they stopped in many Samaritan villages along the way to preach the Good News.

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN EUNUCH

<sup>26</sup>As for Philip, an angel of the Lord said to him, "Go south* down the desert road that runs from Jerusalem to Gaza." <sup>27</sup>So he started out, and he met the treasurer of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under the Kandake, the queen of Ethiopia. The eunuch had gone to Jerusalem to worship, <sup>28</sup>and he was now returning. Seated in his carriage, he was reading aloud from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

<sup>29</sup>The Holy Spirit said to Philip, "Go over and walk along beside the carriage."

*8:7 Greek unclean. 8:26 Or Go at noon.

<sup>30</sup> Philip ran over and heard the man reading from the prophet Isaiah. Philip asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

<sup>31</sup> The man replied, “How can I, unless someone instructs me?” And he urged Philip to come up into the carriage and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup> The passage of Scripture he had been reading was this:

“He was led like a sheep to the slaughter.
And as a lamb is silent before the shearers,
he did not open his mouth.

<sup>33</sup> He was humiliated and received no justice.
Who can speak of his descendants?
For his life was taken from the earth.”<sup>34</sup>

<sup>34</sup> The eunuch asked Philip, “Tell me, was the prophet talking about himself or someone else?”

<sup>36</sup> As they rode along, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “Look! There’s some water! Why can’t I be baptized?”<sup>37</sup> <sup>38</sup> He ordered the carriage to stop, and they went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

<sup>39</sup> When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away. The eunuch never saw him again but went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup> Meanwhile, Philip found himself farther north at the town of Azotus. He preached the Good News there and in every town along the way until he came to Caesarea.

SAUL’S CONVERSION

9 Meanwhile, Saul was uttering threats with every breath and was eager to kill the Lord’s followers.* So he went to the high priest. <sup>2</sup> He requested letters addressed to the synagogues in Damascus, asking for their cooperation in the arrest of any followers of the Way he found there. He wanted to bring them—both men and women—back to Jerusalem in chains.

<sup>3</sup> As he was approaching Damascus on this mission, a light from heaven suddenly shone down around him. <sup>4</sup> He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?”

And the voice replied, “I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting! <sup>6</sup> Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

<sup>7</sup> The men with Saul stood speechless, for they heard the sound of someone’s voice but saw no one! <sup>8</sup> Saul picked himself up off the ground, but when he opened his eyes he was blind. So his companions led him by the hand to Damascus. <sup>9</sup> He remained there blind for three days and did not eat or drink.

<sup>10</sup> Now there was a believer* in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, calling, “Ananias!”

ANANIAS: THE HIDDEN HERO

Acts 9:10–19

TIM ROSS

After Saul (also called Paul) met Jesus on the road to Damascus, God sent a believer named Ananias to pray for him. Scripture mentions nothing about Ananias before or after his encounter with Paul in Acts 9:10–18, but this believer made three heroic decisions:

1. He followed the voice of God into an uncertain and uncomfortable situation.
2. He chose obedience and fellowshiped with Paul, a former enemy.
3. He allowed God’s power to flow through him to do God’s work.

Ananias chose to be obedient and embrace someone with a dark past. He humbly chose to do what God asked of him, never seeking personal recognition. Like many Christians, Ananias was not a prominent leader. He was simply a person who was filled with the Holy Spirit and responded to God’s voice.

At any given moment, God may call on you to be a hero to your spouse, your children, your coworkers, your friends, or even your enemies. You too can be one of God’s hidden heroes.

“Yes, Lord!” he replied.

<sup>11</sup> The Lord said, “Go over to Straight Street, to the house of Judas. When you get there, ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul. He is praying to me right now. <sup>12</sup> I have shown him a vision of a man named Ananias coming in and laying hands on him so he can see again.”

<sup>13</sup> “But Lord,” exclaimed Ananias, “I’ve heard many people talk about the terrible things this man has done to the believers* in Jerusalem! <sup>14</sup> And he is authorized by the leading priests to arrest everyone who calls upon your name.”

<sup>15</sup> But the Lord said, “Go, for Saul is my chosen instrument to take my message to the Gentiles and to kings, as well as to the people of Israel. <sup>16</sup> And I will show him how much he must suffer for my name’s sake.”

<sup>17</sup> So Ananias went and found Saul. He laid his hands on him and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road, has sent me so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” <sup>18</sup> Instantly something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized. <sup>19</sup> Afterward he ate some food and regained his strength.

8:32–33 Isa 53:7–8 (Greek version). 8:36 Some manuscripts add verse 37, “You can,” Philip answered, “if you believe with all your heart.” And the eunuch replied, “I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.” 9:1 Greek disciples. 9:10 Greek disciple; also in 9:26, 36. 9:13 Greek God’s holy people; also in 9:32, 41.

SAUL IN DAMASCUS AND JERUSALEM

Saul stayed with the believers* in Damascus for a few days.<sup>20</sup> And immediately he began preaching about Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is indeed the Son of God!”

<sup>21</sup>All who heard him were amazed. “Isn’t this the same man who caused such devastation among Jesus’ followers in Jerusalem?” they asked. “And didn’t he come here to arrest them and take them in chains to the leading priests?”

<sup>22</sup>Saul’s preaching became more and more powerful, and the Jews in Damascus couldn’t refute his proofs that Jesus was indeed the Messiah.<sup>23</sup> After a while some of the Jews plotted together to kill him.<sup>24</sup> They were watching for him day and night at the city gate so they could murder him, but Saul was told about their plot.<sup>25</sup> So during the night, some of the other believers* lowered him in a large basket through an opening in the city wall.

<sup>26</sup>When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to meet with the believers, but they were all afraid of him. They did not believe he had truly become a believer!<sup>27</sup> Then Barnabas brought him to the apostles and told them how Saul had seen the Lord on the way to Damascus and how the Lord had spoken to Saul. He also told them that Saul had preached boldly in the name of Jesus in Damascus.

<sup>28</sup>So Saul stayed with the apostles and went all around Jerusalem with them, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord.<sup>29</sup> He debated with some Greek-speaking Jews, but they tried to murder him.<sup>30</sup> When the believers* heard about this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus, his hometown.

<sup>31</sup>The church then had peace throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria, and it became stronger as the believers lived in the fear of the Lord. And with the encouragement of the Holy Spirit, it also grew in numbers.

PETER HEALS AENEAS AND RAISES DORCAS

<sup>32</sup>Meanwhile, Peter traveled from place to place, and he came down to visit the believers in the town of Lydda.<sup>33</sup> There he met a man named Aeneas, who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years.<sup>34</sup> Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you! Get up, and roll up your sleeping mat!” And he was healed instantly.<sup>35</sup> Then the whole population of Lydda and Sharon saw Aeneas walking around, and they turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup>There was a believer in Joppa named Tabitha (which in Greek is Dorcas*). She was always doing kind things for others and helping the poor.<sup>37</sup> About this time she became ill and died. Her body was washed for burial and laid in an upstairs room.<sup>38</sup> But the believers had heard that Peter was nearby at Lydda, so they sent two men to beg him, “Please come as soon as possible!”

<sup>39</sup>So Peter returned with them; and as soon as he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room.

The room was filled with widows who were weeping and showing him the coats and other clothes Dorcas had made for them.<sup>40</sup> But Peter asked them all to leave the room; then he knelt and prayed. Turning to the body he said, “Get up, Tabitha.” And she opened her eyes! When she saw Peter, she sat up!<sup>41</sup> He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then he called in the widows and all the believers, and he presented her to them alive.

<sup>42</sup>The news spread through the whole town, and many believed in the Lord.<sup>43</sup> And Peter stayed a long time in Joppa, living with Simon, a tanner of hides.

CORNELIUS CALLS FOR PETER

10 In Caesarea there lived a Roman army officer* named Cornelius, who was a captain of the Italian Regiment.<sup>2</sup> He was a devout, God-fearing man, as was everyone in his household. He gave generously to the poor and prayed regularly to God.<sup>3</sup> One afternoon about three o’clock, he had a vision in which he saw an angel of God coming toward him. “Cornelius!” the angel said.

<sup>4</sup>Cornelius stared at him in terror. “What is it, sir?” he asked the angel.

And the angel replied, “Your prayers and gifts to the poor have been received by God as an offering!<sup>5</sup> Now send some men to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter.<sup>6</sup> He is staying with Simon, a tanner who lives near the seashore.”

<sup>7</sup>As soon as the angel was gone, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier, one of his personal attendants.<sup>8</sup> He told them what had happened and sent them off to Joppa.

PETER VISITS CORNELIUS

<sup>9</sup>The next day as Cornelius’s messengers were nearing the town, Peter went up on the flat roof to pray. It was about noon,<sup>10</sup> and he was hungry. But while a meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance.<sup>11</sup> He saw the sky open, and something like a large sheet was let down by its four corners.<sup>12</sup> In the sheet were all sorts of animals, reptiles, and birds.<sup>13</sup> Then a voice said to him, “Get up, Peter; kill and eat them.”

<sup>15</sup>But the voice spoke again: “Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean.”<sup>16</sup> The same vision was repeated three times. Then the sheet was suddenly pulled up to heaven.

<sup>17</sup>Peter was very perplexed. What could the vision mean? Just then the men sent by Cornelius found Simon’s house. Standing outside the gate,<sup>18</sup> they asked if a man named Simon Peter was staying there.

<sup>19</sup>Meanwhile, as Peter was puzzling over the vision, the Holy Spirit said to him, “Three men have come looking for you.”<sup>20</sup> Get up, go downstairs, and go with them without hesitation. Don’t worry, for I have sent them.”

<sup>21</sup>So Peter went down and said, “I’m the man you are looking for. Why have you come?”

<sup>22</sup>They said, “We were sent by Cornelius, a Roman officer. He is a devout and God-fearing man, well respected by all the Jews. A holy angel instructed him to summon you to his house so that he can hear your message.”<sup>23</sup> So Peter invited the men to stay for the night. The next day he went with them, accompanied by some of the brothers from Joppa.

<sup>28</sup>Peter told them, “You know it is against our laws for a Jewish man to enter a Gentile home like this or to associate with you. But God has shown me that I should no longer think of anyone as impure or unclean.”<sup>29</sup> So I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. Now tell me why you sent for me.”

<sup>30</sup>Cornelius replied, “Four days ago I was praying in my house about this same time, three o’clock in the afternoon. Suddenly, a man in dazzling clothes was standing in front of me.”<sup>31</sup> He told me, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor have been noticed by God!’<sup>32</sup> Now send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. He is staying in the home of Simon, a tanner who lives near the seashore.’<sup>33</sup> So I sent for you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here, waiting before God to hear the message the Lord has given you.”

THE GENTILES HEAR THE GOOD NEWS

<sup>34</sup>Then Peter replied, “I see very clearly that God shows no favoritism.”<sup>35</sup> In every nation he accepts those who fear him and do what is right.<sup>36</sup> This is the message of Good News for the people of Israel—that there is peace with God through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.<sup>37</sup> You know what happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee, after John began preaching his message of baptism.<sup>38</sup> And you know that God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Then Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

<sup>39</sup>“And we apostles are witnesses of all he did throughout Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a cross,*<sup>40</sup> but God raised him to life on the third day. Then God allowed him to appear,<sup>41</sup> not to the general public,* but to us whom God had chosen in advance to be his witnesses. We were those who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.<sup>42</sup> And he ordered us to preach everywhere and to testify that Jesus is the one appointed by God to be the judge of all—the living and the dead.<sup>43</sup> He is the one all the prophets testified about, saying that everyone who believes in him will have their sins forgiven through his name.”

THE GENTILES RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

<sup>44</sup>Even as Peter was saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the message.<sup>45</sup> The Jewish believers* who came with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles, too.<sup>46</sup> For they heard them speaking in other tongues* and praising God.

Then Peter asked,<sup>47</sup> “Can anyone object to their being baptized, now that they have received the Holy Spirit just as we did?”<sup>48</sup> So he gave orders for them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Afterward Cornelius asked him to stay with them for several days.

PETER EXPLAINS HIS ACTIONS

11 Soon the news reached the apostles and other believers* in Judea that the Gentiles had received the word of God.<sup>2</sup> But when Peter arrived back in Jerusalem, the Jewish believers* criticized him.<sup>3</sup> “You entered the home of Gentiles* and even ate with them!” they said.

“Then Peter told them exactly what had happened.”<sup>5</sup> “I was in the town of Joppa,” he said, “and while I was praying, I went into a trance and saw a vision. Something like a large sheet was let down by its four corners from the sky. And it came right down to me.”<sup>6</sup> When I looked inside the sheet, I saw all sorts of tame and wild animals, reptiles, and birds.<sup>7</sup> And I heard a voice say, ‘Get up, Peter; kill and eat them.’

<sup>8</sup>“No, Lord,” I replied. ‘I have never eaten anything that our Jewish laws have declared impure or unclean.’<sup>9</sup>

<sup>9</sup>“But the voice from heaven spoke again: ‘Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean.’”<sup>10</sup> This happened three times before the sheet and all it contained was pulled back up to heaven.

<sup>11</sup>“Just then three men who had been sent from Caesarea arrived at the house where we were staying.<sup>12</sup> The Holy Spirit told me to go with them and not to worry that they were Gentiles. These six brothers here accompanied me, and we soon entered the home of the man who had sent for us.

<sup>13</sup> He told us how an angel had appeared to him in his home and had told him, ‘Send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. <sup>14</sup> He will tell you how you and everyone in your household can be saved!’

<sup>15</sup> “As I began to speak,” Peter continued, “the Holy Spirit fell on them, just as he fell on us at the beginning. <sup>16</sup> Then I thought of the Lord’s words when he said, ‘John baptized with* water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’

<sup>17</sup> And since God gave these Gentiles the same gift he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to stand in God’s way?”

<sup>18</sup> When the others heard this, they stopped objecting and began praising God. They said, “We can see that God has also given the Gentiles the privilege of repenting of their sins and receiving eternal life.”

THE CHURCH IN ANTIOCH OF SYRIA

<sup>19</sup> Meanwhile, the believers who had been scattered during the persecution after Stephen’s death traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch of Syria. They preached the word of God, but only to Jews. <sup>20</sup> However, some of the believers who went to Antioch from Cyprus and Cyrene began preaching to the Gentiles* about the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup> The power of the Lord was with them, and a large number of these Gentiles believed and turned to the Lord.

<sup>23</sup> When he arrived and saw this evidence of God’s blessing, he was filled with joy, and he encouraged the believers to stay true to the Lord. <sup>24</sup> Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and strong in faith. And many people were brought to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup> Then Barnabas went on to Tarsus to look for Saul. <sup>26</sup> When he found him, he brought him back to Antioch. Both of them stayed there with the church for a full year, teaching large crowds of people. (It was at Antioch that the believers* were first called Christians.)

JAMES IS KILLED AND PETER IS IMPRISONED

12 About that time King Herod Agrippa* began to persecute some believers in the church. <sup>2</sup> He had the apostle James (John’s brother) killed with a sword. <sup>3</sup> When Herod saw how much this pleased the Jewish people, he also arrested Peter. (This took place during the Passover celebration.*) <sup>4</sup> Then he imprisoned him, placing him under the guard of four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring Peter out for public trial after the Passover. <sup>5</sup> But while Peter was in prison, the church prayed very earnestly for him.

PETER’S MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM PRISON

<sup>6</sup> The night before Peter was to be placed on trial, he was asleep, fastened with two chains between two soldiers. Others stood guard at the prison gate. <sup>7</sup> Suddenly, there was a bright light in the cell, and an angel of the Lord stood before Peter. The angel struck him on the side to awaken him and said, “Quick! Get up!” And the chains fell off his wrists. <sup>8</sup> Then the angel told him, “Get dressed and put on your sandals.” And he did. “Now put on your coat and follow me,” the angel ordered.

<sup>9</sup> So Peter left the cell, following the angel. But all the time he thought it was a vision. He didn’t realize it was actually happening. <sup>10</sup> They passed the first and second guard posts and came to the iron gate leading to the city, and this opened for them all by itself. So they passed through and started walking down the street, and then the angel suddenly left him.

<sup>11</sup> Peter finally came to his senses. “It’s really true!” he said. “The Lord has sent his angel and saved me from Herod and from what the Jewish leaders* had planned to do to me!”

<sup>12</sup> When he realized this, he went to the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where many were gathered for prayer. <sup>13</sup> He knocked at the door in the gate, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to open it. <sup>14</sup> When she recognized Peter’s voice, she was so overjoyed that, instead of opening the door, she ran back inside and told everyone, “Peter is standing at the door!”

<sup>16</sup> Meanwhile, Peter continued knocking. When they finally opened the door and saw him, they were amazed. <sup>17</sup> He motioned for them to quiet down and told them how the Lord had led him out of prison. “Tell James and the other brothers what happened,” he said. And then he went to another place.

<sup>18</sup> At dawn there was a great commotion among the soldiers about what had happened to Peter. <sup>19</sup> Herod Agrippa ordered a thorough search for him. When he couldn’t be found, Herod interrogated the guards and sentenced them to death. Afterward Herod left Judea to stay in Caesarea for a while.

THE DEATH OF HEROD AGRIPPA

<sup>20</sup>Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they sent a delegation to make peace with him because their cities were dependent upon Herod's country for food. The delegates won the support of Blastus, Herod's personal assistant, <sup>21</sup>and an appointment with Herod was granted. When the day arrived, Herod put on his royal robes, sat on his throne, and made a speech to them. <sup>22</sup>The people gave him a great ovation, shouting, "It's the voice of a god, not of a man!"

<sup>23</sup>Instantly, an angel of the Lord struck Herod with a sickness, because he accepted the people's worship instead of giving the glory to God. So he was consumed with worms and died.

<sup>24</sup>Meanwhile, the word of God continued to spread, and there were many new believers.

BARNABAS AND SAUL ARE COMMISSIONED

13 Among the prophets and teachers of the church at Antioch of Syria were Barnabas, Simeon (called "the black man"*), Lucius (from Cyrene), Manaen (the childhood companion of King Herod Antipas*), and Saul. <sup>2</sup>One day as these men were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Appoint Barnabas and Saul for the special work to which I have called them."

<sup>3</sup>So after more fasting and prayer, the men laid their hands on them and sent them on their way.

PAUL'S FIRST MISSIONARY JOURNEY

<sup>4</sup>So Barnabas and Saul were sent out by the Holy Spirit. They went down to the seaport of Seleucia and then sailed for the island of Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>There, in the town of Salamis, they went to the Jewish synagogues and preached the word of God. John Mark went with them as their assistant.

<sup>6</sup>Afterward they traveled from town to town across the entire island until finally they reached Paphos, where they met a Jewish sorcerer, a false prophet named Bar-Jesus. <sup>7</sup>He had attached himself to the governor, Sergius Paulus, who was an intelligent man. The governor invited Barnabas and Saul to visit him, for he wanted to hear the word of God. <sup>8</sup>But Elymas, the sorcerer (as his name means in Greek), interfered and urged the governor to pay no attention to what Barnabas and Saul said. He was trying to keep the governor from believing.

<sup>9</sup>Saul, also known as Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and he looked the sorcerer in the eye. <sup>10</sup>Then he said, "You son of the devil, full of every sort of deceit and fraud, and enemy of all that is good! Will you never stop perverting the true ways of the Lord? <sup>11</sup>Watch now, for the Lord has laid his hand of punishment upon you, and you will be struck blind. You will not see the sunlight for some time." Instantly mist and darkness came over the man's eyes, and he began groping around begging for someone to take his hand and lead him.

<sup>12</sup>When the governor saw what had happened, he became a believer, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

PAUL PREACHES IN ANTIOCH OF PISIDIA

On the Sabbath they went to the synagogue for the services. <sup>15</sup>After the usual readings from the books of Moses* and the prophets, those in charge of the service sent them this message: "Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, come and give it."

<sup>16</sup>So Paul stood, lifted his hand to quiet them, and started speaking. "Men of Israel," he said, "and you God-fearing Gentiles, listen to me.

<sup>17</sup>"The God of this nation of Israel chose our ancestors and made them multiply and grow strong during their stay in Egypt. Then with a powerful arm he led them out of their slavery. <sup>18</sup>He put up with them* through forty years of wandering in the wilderness. <sup>19</sup>Then he destroyed seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to Israel as an inheritance. <sup>20</sup>All this took about 450 years.

"After that, God gave them judges to rule until the time of Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup>Then the people begged for a king; and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who reigned for forty years. <sup>22</sup>But God removed Saul and replaced him with David, a man about whom God said, 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do.'*

<sup>23</sup>"And it is one of King David's descendants, Jesus, who is God's promised Savior of Israel! <sup>24</sup>Before he came, John the Baptist preached that all the people of Israel needed to repent of their sins and turn to God and be baptized. <sup>25</sup>As John was finishing his ministry he asked, 'Do you think I am the Messiah? No, I am not! But he is coming soon—and I'm not even worthy to be his slave and untie the sandals on his feet.'

<sup>26</sup>"Brothers—you sons of Abraham, and also you God-fearing Gentiles—this message of salvation has been sent to us! <sup>27</sup>The people in Jerusalem and their leaders did not recognize Jesus as the one the prophets had spoken about. Instead, they condemned him, and in doing this they fulfilled the prophets' words that are read every Sabbath.<sup>28</sup> They found no legal reason to execute him, but they asked Pilate to have him killed anyway.

<sup>29</sup>“When they had done all that the prophecies said about him, they took him down from the cross* and placed him in a tomb.<sup>30</sup> But God raised him from the dead!<sup>31</sup> And over a period of many days he appeared to those who had gone with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now his witnesses to the people of Israel.

<sup>32</sup>“And now we are here to bring you this Good News. The promise was made to our ancestors,<sup>33</sup> and God has now fulfilled it for us, their descendants, by raising Jesus. This is what the second psalm says about Jesus:

‘You are my Son.
Today I have become your Father.’<sup>34</sup>

<sup>34</sup>For God had promised to raise him from the dead, not leaving him to rot in the grave. He said, ‘I will give you the sacred blessings I promised to David.’<sup>35</sup> Another psalm explains it more fully: ‘You will not allow your Holy One to rot in the grave.’<sup>36</sup> This is not a reference to David, for after David had done the will of God in his own generation, he died and was buried with his ancestors, and his body decayed.<sup>37</sup> No, it was a reference to someone else—someone whom God raised and whose body did not decay.

<sup>38</sup>“Brothers, listen! We are here to proclaim that through this man Jesus there is forgiveness for your sins.<sup>39</sup> Everyone who believes in him is made right in God’s sight—something the law of Moses could never do.<sup>40</sup> Be careful! Don’t let the prophets’ words apply to you. For they said,

be amazed and die!
For I am doing something in your own day,
something you wouldn’t believe even if someone told you about it.’<sup>42</sup>”

<sup>42</sup>As Paul and Barnabas left the synagogue that day, the people begged them to speak about these things again the next week.<sup>43</sup> Many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, and the two men urged them to continue to rely on the grace of God.

PAUL TURNS TO THE GENTILES

<sup>44</sup>The following week almost the entire city turned out to hear them preach the word of the Lord.<sup>45</sup> But when some of the Jews saw the crowds, they were jealous; so they slandered Paul and argued against whatever he said.

<sup>46</sup>Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and declared, “It was necessary that we first preach the word of God to you Jews. But since you have rejected it and judged yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we will offer it to the Gentiles.<sup>47</sup> For the Lord gave us this command when he said,

‘I have made you a light to the Gentiles, to bring salvation to the farthest corners of the earth.’<sup>48</sup>”

<sup>48</sup>When the Gentiles heard this, they were very glad and thanked the Lord for his message; and all who were chosen for eternal life became believers.<sup>49</sup> So the Lord’s message spread throughout that region.

<sup>50</sup>Then the Jews stirred up the influential religious women and the leaders of the city, and they incited a mob against Paul and Barnabas and ran them out of town.<sup>51</sup> So they shook the dust from their feet as a sign of rejection and went to the town of Iconium.<sup>52</sup> And the believers* were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

PAUL AND BARNABAS IN ICONIUM

14 The same thing happened in Iconium.* Paul and Barnabas went to the Jewish synagogue and preached with such power that a great number of both Jews and Greeks became believers.<sup>2</sup> Some of the Jews, however, spurned God’s message and poisoned the minds of the Gentiles against Paul and Barnabas.<sup>3</sup> But the apostles stayed there a long time, preaching boldly about the grace of the Lord. And the Lord proved their message was true by giving them power to do miraculous signs and wonders.<sup>4</sup> But the people of the town were divided in their opinion about them. Some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

<sup>5</sup>Then a mob of Gentiles and Jews, along with their leaders, decided to attack and stone them.<sup>6</sup> When the apostles learned of it, they fled to the region of Lycaonia—to the towns of Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding area.<sup>7</sup> And there they preached the Good News.

PAUL AND BARNABAS IN LYSTRA AND DERBE

<sup>8</sup>While they were at Lystra, Paul and Barnabas came upon a man with crippled feet. He had been that way from birth, so he had never walked. He was sitting<sup>9</sup> and listening as Paul preached. Looking straight at him, Paul realized he had faith to be healed.<sup>10</sup> So Paul called to him in a loud voice, “Stand up!” And the man jumped to his feet and started walking.

<sup>11</sup>When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in their local dialect, “These men are gods in human form!”<sup>12</sup> They decided that Barnabas was the Greek god Zeus and that Paul was Hermes, since he was the chief speaker.<sup>13</sup> Now the temple of Zeus was located just outside the town. So the priest of the temple and the crowd brought bulls and wreaths of flowers to the town gates, and they prepared to offer sacrifices to the apostles.

<sup>14</sup> But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard what was happening, they tore their clothing in dismay and ran out among the people, shouting, <sup>15</sup> “Friends,* why are you doing this? We are merely human beings—just like you! We have come to bring you the Good News that you should turn from these worthless things and turn to the living God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them. <sup>16</sup> In the past he permitted all the nations to go their own ways, <sup>17</sup> but he never left them without evidence of himself and his goodness. For instance, he sends you rain and good crops and gives you food and joyful hearts.” <sup>18</sup> But even with these words, Paul and Barnabas could scarcely restrain the people from sacrificing to them.

<sup>19</sup> Then some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowds to their side. They stoned Paul and dragged him out of town, thinking he was dead. <sup>20</sup> But as the believers* gathered around him, he got up and went back into the town. The next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

PAUL AND BARNABAS RETURN TO ANTIOCH OF SYRIA

<sup>21</sup> After preaching the Good News in Derbe and making many disciples, Paul and Barnabas returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch of Pisidia, <sup>22</sup> where they strengthened the believers. They encouraged them to continue in the faith, reminding them that we must suffer many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God. <sup>23</sup> Paul and Barnabas also appointed elders in every church. With prayer and fasting, they turned the elders over to the care of the Lord, in whom they had put their trust. <sup>24</sup> Then they traveled back through Pisidia to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup> They preached the word in Perga, then went down to Attalia.

<sup>26</sup> Finally, they returned by ship to Antioch of Syria, where their journey had begun. The believers there had entrusted them to the grace of God to do the work they had now completed. <sup>27</sup> Upon arriving in Antioch, they called the church together and reported everything God had done through them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles, too. <sup>28</sup> And they stayed there with the believers for a long time.

THE COUNCIL AT JERUSALEM

15 While Paul and Barnabas were at Antioch of Syria, some men from Judea arrived and began to teach the believers*: “Unless you are circumcised as required by the law of Moses, you cannot be saved.” <sup>2</sup> Paul and Barnabas disagreed with them, arguing vehemently. Finally, the church decided to send Paul and Barnabas to Jerusalem, accompanied by some local believers, to talk to the apostles and elders about this question. <sup>3</sup> The church sent the delegates to Jerusalem, and they stopped along the way in Phoenicia and Samaria to visit the believers. They told them—much to everyone’s joy—that the Gentiles, too, were being converted.

<sup>4</sup> When they arrived in Jerusalem, Barnabas and Paul were welcomed by the whole church, including the apostles and elders. They reported everything God had done through them. <sup>5</sup> But then some of the believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees stood up and insisted, “The Gentile converts must be circumcised and required to follow the law of Moses.”

<sup>6</sup> So the apostles and elders met together to resolve this issue. <sup>7</sup> At the meeting, after a long discussion, Peter stood and addressed them as follows: “Brothers, you all know that God chose me from among you some time ago to preach to the Gentiles so that they could hear the Good News and believe. <sup>8</sup> God knows people’s hearts, and he confirmed that he accepts Gentiles by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us. <sup>9</sup> He made no distinction between us and them, for he cleansed their hearts through faith. <sup>10</sup> So why are you now challenging God by burdening the Gentile believers* with a yoke that neither we nor our ancestors were able to bear? <sup>11</sup> We believe that we are all saved the same way, by the undeserved grace of the Lord Jesus.”

<sup>12</sup> Everyone listened quietly as Barnabas and Paul told about the miraculous signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

<sup>13</sup> When they had finished, James stood and said, “Brothers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup> Peter* has told you about the time God first visited the Gentiles to take from them a people for himself. <sup>15</sup> And this conversion of Gentiles is exactly what the prophets predicted. As it is written:

- <sup>16</sup> “Afterward I will return and restore the fallen house* of David.
I will rebuild its ruins and restore it,
<sup>17</sup> so that the rest of humanity might seek the LORD,
including the Gentiles—
all those I have called to be mine.
The LORD has spoken—
<sup>18</sup> he who made these things known so long ago.”*

<sup>19</sup> “And so my judgment is that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. <sup>20</sup> Instead, we should write and tell them to abstain from eating food offered to idols, from sexual immorality, from eating the meat of

ISRAEL AND THE JEWS THROUGH GOD'S EYES

Acts 15:6–31

JACK HAYFORD

Many people in the early church thought Gentiles needed to become Jews to be saved. Today, many people believe Jews need to become Christians (in the cultural sense) to be saved. However, doctrine is not what determines a person's salvation.

Early Gentile believers faced pressure to be circumcised in order to be considered truly saved. Modern Christian traditions also tend to promote cultural requirements for acceptance. However, the apostle Peter argued, "God knows people's hearts. . . . We believe that we are all saved the same way, by the undeserved grace of the Lord Jesus" (Acts 15:8, 11).

The term Christian is not essential to acknowledging Jesus as Messiah. We must be sensitive to what the Holy Spirit is doing in the Jewish culture and not become fixated on doctrine. Just as the early church decided that Gentiles didn't need to become Jews to follow Christ, we must decide that Jews don't need to become "Christians" to follow the Messiah.

strangled animals, and from consuming blood.

<sup>21</sup>For these laws of Moses have been preached in Jewish synagogues in every city on every Sabbath for many generations."

THE LETTER FOR GENTILE BELIEVERS

<sup>22</sup>Then the apostles and elders together with the whole church in Jerusalem chose delegates, and they sent them to Antioch of Syria with Paul and Barnabas to report on this decision. The men chosen were two of the church leaders*—Judas (also called Barsabbas) and Silas. <sup>23</sup>This is the letter they took with them:

"This letter is from the apostles and elders, your brothers in Jerusalem. It is written to the Gentile believers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. Greetings!

<sup>24</sup>"We understand that some men from here have troubled you and upset you with their teaching, but we did not send them! <sup>25</sup>So we decided, having come to complete agreement, to send you official representatives, along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup>who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>We are sending Judas and Silas to confirm what we have decided concerning your question.

<sup>28</sup>"For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay no greater burden on you than these few requirements: <sup>29</sup>You must abstain from eating food offered to idols, from consuming blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. If you do this, you will do well. Farewell."

<sup>30</sup>The messengers went at once to Antioch, where they called a general meeting of the believers and delivered the letter. <sup>31</sup>And there was great joy throughout the church that day as they read this encouraging message.

<sup>32</sup>Then Judas and Silas, both being prophets, spoke at length to the believers, encouraging and strengthening their faith. <sup>33</sup>They stayed for a while, and then the believers sent them back to the church in Jerusalem with a blessing of peace.* <sup>35</sup>Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch. They and many others taught and preached the word of the Lord there.

PAUL AND BARNABAS SEPARATE

<sup>36</sup>After some time Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's go back and visit each city where we previously preached the word of the Lord, to see how the new believers are doing." <sup>37</sup>Barnabas agreed and wanted to take along John Mark. <sup>38</sup>But Paul disagreed strongly, since John Mark had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in their work. <sup>39</sup>Their disagreement was so sharp that they separated. Barnabas took John Mark with him and sailed for Cyprus. <sup>40</sup>Paul chose Silas, and as he left, the believers entrusted him to the Lord's gracious care. <sup>41</sup>Then he traveled throughout Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches there.

PAUL'S SECOND MISSIONARY JOURNEY

16 Paul went first to Derbe and then to Lystra, where there was a young disciple named Timothy. His mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was a Greek. <sup>2</sup>Timothy was well thought of by the believers* in Lystra and Iconium, <sup>3</sup>so Paul wanted him to join them on their journey. In deference to the Jews of the area, he arranged for Timothy to be circumcised before they left, for everyone knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>4</sup>Then they went from town to town, instructing the believers to follow the decisions made by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>So the churches were strengthened in their faith and grew larger every day.

A CALL FROM MACEDONIA

<sup>6</sup>Next Paul and Silas traveled through the area of Phrygia and Galatia, because the Holy Spirit had prevented them from preaching the word in the province of Asia at that time. <sup>7</sup>Then coming to the borders of Mysia, they headed north for 15:22 Greek were leaders among the brothers. 15:33 Some manuscripts add verse 34, But Silas decided to stay there.

THE GIFTS OF GRACE

Acts 16:22–40

ROBERT MORRIS

Many people feel they have to earn salvation or somehow pay it back later. But that's impossible! Salvation is completely, totally, 100 percent free! It comes only by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. It can't be earned, and there are no additional conditions to receive it. In other words, there's no fine print! Romans 11:6 calls God's grace "free and undeserved," and with salvation, we receive three incredible gifts:

1. Justification (Romans 3:24)

Justification means "true justice has been served and a wrong situation has been made right." We're all sinners who deserve death and hell, but Jesus died in our place. He paid the full price for our sins. When we put our faith in Jesus, we are justified in God's sight. He declares us not guilty!

2. Eternal Life (1 John 2:25; 5:13; Romans 6:23)

If you have received Jesus, you have received the gift of eternal life. A gift, by definition, is something you don't pay for, but many believers still think God's grace is a gift for which He expects to be paid back. They work hard to try to please Him and earn His grace. Here's the truth: you will never be able to earn God's grace. That's why it's a gift!

3. Redemption (1 Corinthians 6:19–20)

To redeem something means to "buy it back." God created us, but sin separated us from Him. So God sent Jesus to redeem us—to purchase us with His precious blood. If you're a believer, you don't belong to yourself anymore. You belong to God! I've heard some believers say, "What I do on my own time is my business." They're mistaken, though. If you're saved, everything in your life—including your time—belongs to God.

DETOUR TO YOUR DREAM

Acts 16:9–26

MARK JOBE

Have you ever felt as if you were in a spiritual or emotional prison? Maybe you didn't do anything wrong, but your life isn't going the way you planned, and you wonder, Why is God mad at me?

Even God-given dreams get detoured sometimes. Paul and Silas knew God had called them to minister in Macedonia, but shortly after arriving, they were beaten, imprisoned, and put in chains. While most of us would focus solely on getting out of such an uncomfortable situation, God focuses on changing us in it. He confronts our selfishness and challenges our shallow, "religious" living. He forces us to examine our character and discover what really matters.

At midnight, Paul and Silas began to pray and worship. A sudden earthquake shook the prison, and "the chains of every prisoner fell off" (Acts 16:26). During the darkest times of our lives, we need to pray and worship because the presence of God is the only thing that will set us free.

the province of Bithynia,* but again the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them to go there.<sup>8</sup> So instead, they went on through Mysia to the seaport of Troas.

<sup>9</sup>That night Paul had a vision: A man from Macedonia in northern Greece was standing there, pleading with him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us!"<sup>10</sup> So we<sup>11</sup> decided to leave for Macedonia at once, having concluded that God was calling us to preach the Good News there.

LYDIA OF PHILIPPI BELIEVES IN JESUS

<sup>11</sup>We boarded a boat at Troas and sailed straight across to the island of Samothrace, and the next day we landed at Neapolis.<sup>12</sup> From there we reached Philippi, a major city of that district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. And we stayed there several days.

On the Sabbath we went a little way outside the city to a riverbank, where we thought people would be meeting for prayer, and we sat down to speak with some women who had gathered there.<sup>14</sup> One of them was Lydia from Thyatira, a merchant of expensive purple cloth, who worshiped God. As she listened to us, the Lord opened her heart, and she accepted what Paul was saying.<sup>15</sup> She and her household were baptized, and she asked us to be her guests. "If you agree that I am a true believer in the Lord," she said, "come and stay at my home." And she urged us until we agreed.

PAUL AND SILAS IN PRISON

<sup>16</sup>One day as we were going down to the place of prayer, we met a slave girl who had a spirit that enabled her to tell the future. She earned a lot of money for her masters by telling fortunes.<sup>17</sup> She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, and they have come to tell you how to be saved."

<sup>18</sup>This went on day after day until Paul got so exasperated that he turned and said to the demon within her, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And instantly it left her.

<sup>19</sup>Her masters' hopes of wealth were now shattered, so they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them before the authorities at the marketplace.<sup>20</sup> “The whole city is in an uproar because of these Jews!” they shouted to the city officials.<sup>21</sup> “They are teaching customs that are illegal for us Romans to practice.”

<sup>22</sup>A mob quickly formed against Paul and Silas, and the city officials ordered them stripped and beaten with wooden rods.<sup>23</sup> They were severely beaten, and then they were thrown into prison. The jailer was ordered to make sure they didn’t escape.<sup>24</sup> So the jailer put them into the inner dungeon and clamped their feet in the stocks.

<sup>25</sup>Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening.<sup>26</sup> Suddenly, there was a massive earthquake, and the prison was shaken to its foundations. All the doors immediately flew open, and the chains of every prisoner fell off!<sup>27</sup> The jailer woke up to see the prison doors wide open. He assumed the prisoners had escaped, so he drew his sword to kill himself.<sup>28</sup> But Paul shouted to him, “Stop! Don’t kill yourself! We are all here!”

<sup>29</sup>The jailer called for lights and ran to the dungeon and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas.<sup>30</sup> Then he brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

<sup>31</sup>They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, along with everyone in your household.”<sup>32</sup> And they shared the word of the Lord with him and with all who lived in his household.<sup>33</sup> Even at that hour of the night, the jailer cared for them and washed their wounds. Then he and everyone in his household were immediately baptized.<sup>34</sup> He brought them into his house and set a meal before them, and he and his entire household rejoiced because they all believed in God.

<sup>35</sup>The next morning the city officials sent the police to tell the jailer, “Let those men go!”<sup>36</sup> So the jailer told Paul, “The city officials have said you and Silas are free to leave. Go in peace.”

<sup>37</sup>But Paul replied, “They have publicly beaten us without a trial and put us in prison—and we are Roman citizens. So now they want us to leave secretly? Certainly not! Let them come themselves to release us!”

<sup>38</sup>When the police reported this, the city officials were alarmed to learn that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens.<sup>39</sup> So they came to the jail and apologized to them. Then they brought them out and begged them to leave the city.<sup>40</sup> When Paul and Silas left the prison, they returned to the home of Lydia. There they met with the believers and encouraged them once more. Then they left town.

PAUL PREACHES IN THESSALONICA

17 Paul and Silas then traveled through the towns of Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue.<sup>2</sup> As was Paul’s custom, he went to the synagogue service, and for three Sabbaths in a row he used the Scriptures to reason with the people.<sup>3</sup> He explained the prophecies and proved that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead. He said, “This Jesus I’m telling you about is the Messiah.”<sup>4</sup> Some of the Jews who listened were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with many God-fearing Greek men and quite a few prominent women.*

<sup>5</sup>But some of the Jews were jealous, so they gathered some troublemakers from the marketplace to form a mob and start a riot. They attacked the home of Jason, searching for Paul and Silas so they could drag them out to the crowd.<sup>6</sup> Not finding them there, they dragged out Jason and some of the other believers* instead and took them before the city council. “Paul and Silas have caused trouble all over the world,” they shouted, “and now they are here disturbing our city, too.”<sup>7</sup> And Jason has welcomed them into his home. They are all guilty of treason against Caesar, for they profess allegiance to another king, named Jesus.”

<sup>8</sup>The people of the city, as well as the city council, were thrown into turmoil by these reports.<sup>9</sup> So the officials forced Jason and the other believers to post bond, and then they released them.

PAUL AND SILAS IN BEREA

<sup>10</sup>That very night the believers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. When they arrived there, they went to the Jewish synagogue.<sup>11</sup> And the people of Berea were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, and they listened eagerly to Paul’s message. They searched the Scriptures day after day to see if Paul and Silas were teaching the truth.<sup>12</sup> As a result, many Jews believed, as did many of the prominent Greek women and men.

<sup>13</sup>But when some Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God in Berea, they went there and stirred up trouble.<sup>14</sup> The believers acted at once, sending Paul on to the coast, while Silas and Timothy remained behind.<sup>15</sup> Those escorting Paul went with him all the way to Athens; then they returned to Berea with instructions for Silas and Timothy to hurry and join him.

PAUL PREACHES IN ATHENS

<sup>16</sup>While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply troubled by all the idols he saw everywhere in the city.<sup>17</sup> He went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and he spoke daily in the public square to all who happened to be there.

<sup>18</sup>He also had a debate with some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers. When he told them about Jesus and his resurrection, they said, “What’s this babbler trying to say with these strange ideas he’s picked up?” Others said, “He seems to be preaching about some foreign gods.”

<sup>17:4</sup> Some manuscripts read quite a few of the wives of the leading men. <sup>17:5</sup> Or the city council. <sup>17:6</sup> Greek brothers; also in 17:10, 14.

What Does the Bible Say About . . .

RACISM?

ROBERT MORRIS

Racism and prejudice have no place in the Kingdom of God. Every single person, no matter their skin color, is made in His image. You may ask, "Does the Bible really talk about racism?" It absolutely does.

1. Racism is pure evil (Romans 12:9).

The apostle Paul writes, "Don't just pretend to love others. Really love them. Hate what is wrong. Hold tightly to what is good." You can't love some people and not love others. This is hypocritical love, and it's evil.

2. Racism is pure self-righteousness (Luke 18:11).

Jesus tells a story about a Pharisee who prayed, "I thank you, God, that I am not like other people." In other words, Thank You for making me better than them! However, Jesus said, "Those who exalt themselves will be humbled" (Luke 18:14). It's pride and self-righteousness for one race to think of itself as superior to others.

3. Racism violates the Great Commission (Matthew 28:19).

Jesus says to "make disciples of all the nations." The word nations is a translation of the Greek word ethnos, from which we get the English word ethnicity. We are supposed to make disciples of all ethnicities, not just a few.

4. Racism violates the Great Commandment (John 13:34-35).

Jesus says, "Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples." People should know we're believers because we love everyone.

5. Racism questions God's creation (Acts 17:26).

Luke writes, "From one man he created all the nations throughout the whole earth." God made every nation—every ethnos or ethnic group—from one blood. No matter what color you are on the outside, all of us are red on the inside because we all come from one blood.

6. Racism questions God's plan (Revelation 5:9).

Jesus' blood is not meant to save only a few. It is for those "from every tribe and language and people and nation." God's plan is to redeem people from every ethnic group.

7. Racism questions God (John 3:16).

Racism defies God's Word: "For this is how God loved the world: He gave His one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life" (emphasis added). God doesn't love just one race. He loves the entire world!

GOD NEEDS YOU

Acts 17:25

ROBERT MORRIS

God is completely self-existent, self-sufficient, and self-sustaining. He doesn't need anything, but He has chosen to need us. God chose to partner with Adam to name the animals of His new creation (Genesis 2:19), and He chose to partner with David to kill the Philistine giant Goliath (1 Samuel 17:32–49). God wants to partner with us today, and our responsibility is to step out in faith.

Many times we ask God to do things that He has given us the responsibility and the ability to do. We need to understand that God will never do our part for us, nor will He ever ask us to do His. God's responsibility is the supernatural part, which He did when He sent Jesus to reconcile the world back to Himself. Our responsibility is the natural part: we must decide to need Jesus and partner with God in every area of our lives.

<sup>19</sup> Then they took him to the high council of the city.* “Come and tell us about this new teaching,” they said. <sup>20</sup> “You are saying some rather strange things, and we want to know what it's all about.”

<sup>21</sup> (It should be explained that all the Athenians as well as the foreigners in Athens seemed to spend all their time discussing the latest ideas.)

<sup>22</sup> So Paul, standing before the council,* addressed them as follows: “Men of Athens, I notice that you are very religious in every way, <sup>23</sup> for as I was walking along I saw your many shrines. And one of your altars had this inscription on it: ‘To an Unknown God.’ This God, whom you worship without knowing, is the one I'm telling you about.

<sup>24</sup> “He is the God who made the world and everything in it. Since he is Lord of heaven and earth, he doesn't live in man-made temples, <sup>25</sup> and human hands can't serve his needs—for he has no needs. He himself gives life and breath to everything, and he satisfies every need. <sup>26</sup> From one man* he created all the nations throughout the whole earth. He decided beforehand when they should rise and fall, and he determined their boundaries.

<sup>27</sup> “His purpose was for the nations to seek after God and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him—though he is not far from any one of us. <sup>28</sup> For in him we live and move and exist. As some of your* own poets have said, ‘We are his offspring.’ <sup>29</sup> And since this is true, we shouldn't think of God as an idol designed by craftsmen from gold or silver or stone.

<sup>30</sup> “God overlooked people's ignorance about these things in earlier times, but now he commands everyone everywhere to repent of their sins and turn to him. <sup>31</sup> For he has set a day for judging the world with justice by the man he has appointed, and he proved to everyone who this is by raising him from the dead.”

<sup>32</sup> When they heard Paul speak about the resurrection of the dead, some laughed in contempt, but others said, “We want to hear more about this later.” <sup>33</sup> That ended Paul's discussion with them, <sup>34</sup> but some joined him and became believers. Among them were Dionysius, a member of the council,* a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

PAUL MEETS PRISCILLA AND AQUILA IN CORINTH

18 Then Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.* <sup>2</sup> There he became acquainted with a Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently arrived from Italy with his wife, Priscilla. They had left Italy when Claudius Caesar deported all Jews from Rome. <sup>3</sup> Paul lived and worked with them, for they were tentmakers* just as he was.

<sup>7</sup> Then he left and went to the home of Titius Justus, a Gentile who worshiped God and lived next door to the synagogue. <sup>8</sup> Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, and everyone in his household believed in the Lord. Many others in Corinth also heard Paul, became believers, and were baptized.

<sup>9</sup> One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision and told him, “Don't be afraid! Speak out! Don't be silent! <sup>10</sup> For I am with you, and no one will attack and harm you, for many people in this city belong to me.” <sup>11</sup> So Paul stayed there for the next year and a half, teaching the word of God.

<sup>12</sup> But when Gallio became governor of Achaia, some Jews rose up together against Paul and brought him before the governor for judgment.

<sup>14</sup> But just as Paul started to make his defense, Gallio turned to Paul's accusers and said, “Listen, you Jews, if this were a case involving some wrongdoing or a serious crime, I would have a reason to accept your case. <sup>15</sup> But since it is merely a question of words and names and your Jewish law, take care of it yourselves. I refuse to judge such matters.” <sup>16</sup> And he threw them out of the courtroom.

PAUL RETURNS TO ANTIOCH OF SYRIA

<sup>18</sup>Paul stayed in Corinth for some time after that, then said good-bye to the brothers and sisters* and went to nearby Cenchrea. There he shaved his head according to Jewish custom, marking the end of a vow. Then he set sail for Syria, taking Priscilla and Aquila with him.

<sup>19</sup>They stopped first at the port of Ephesus, where Paul left the others behind. While he was there, he went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews. <sup>20</sup>They asked him to stay longer, but he declined. <sup>21</sup>As he left, however, he said, “I will come back later,* God willing.” Then he set sail from Ephesus. <sup>22</sup>The next stop was at the port of Caesarea. From there he went up and visited the church at Jerusalem* and then went back to Antioch.

APOLLOS INSTRUCTED AT EPHESUS

<sup>24</sup>Meanwhile, a Jew named Apollos, an eloquent speaker who knew the Scriptures well, had arrived in Ephesus from Alexandria in Egypt. <sup>25</sup>He had been taught the way of the Lord, and he taught others about Jesus with an enthusiastic spirit* and with accuracy. However, he knew only about John’s baptism. <sup>26</sup>When Priscilla and Aquila heard him preaching boldly in the synagogue, they took him aside and explained the way of God even more accurately.

<sup>27</sup>Apollos had been thinking about going to Achaia, and the brothers and sisters in Ephesus encouraged him to go. They wrote to the believers in Achaia, asking them to welcome him. When he arrived there, he proved to be of great benefit to those who, by God’s grace, had believed. <sup>28</sup>He refuted the Jews with powerful arguments in public debate. Using the Scriptures, he explained to them that Jesus was the Messiah.

PAUL’S THIRD MISSIONARY JOURNEY

19 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior regions until he reached Ephesus, on the coast, where he found several believers.* <sup>2</sup>“Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” he asked them.

“No,” they replied, “we haven’t even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

<sup>3</sup>“Then what baptism did you experience?” he asked.

And they replied, “The baptism of John.”

<sup>4</sup>Paul said, “John’s baptism called for repentance from sin. But John himself told the people to believe in the one who would come later, meaning Jesus.”

<sup>5</sup>As soon as they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>Then when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in other tongues* and prophesied. <sup>7</sup>There were about twelve men in all.

PAUL MINISTERS IN EPHESUS

<sup>8</sup>Then Paul went to the synagogue and preached boldly for the next three months, arguing persuasively about the Kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup>But some became stubborn, rejecting his message and publicly speaking against the Way. So Paul left the synagogue and took the believers with him. Then he held daily discussions at the lecture hall of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup>This went on for the next two years, so that people throughout the province of Asia—both Jews and Greeks—heard the word of the Lord.

<sup>11</sup>God gave Paul the power to perform unusual miracles. <sup>12</sup>When handkerchiefs or aprons that had merely touched his skin were placed on sick people, they were healed of their diseases, and evil spirits were expelled.

<sup>13</sup>A group of Jews was traveling from town to town casting out evil spirits. They tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus in their incantation, saying, “I command you in the name of Jesus, whom Paul preaches, to come out!” <sup>14</sup>Seven sons of Sceva, a leading priest, were doing this. <sup>15</sup>But one time when they tried it, the evil spirit replied, “I know Jesus, and I know Paul, but who are you?” <sup>16</sup>Then the man with the evil spirit leaped on them, overpowered them, and attacked them with such violence that they fled from the house, naked and battered.

<sup>17</sup>The story of what happened spread quickly all through Ephesus, to Jews and Greeks alike. A solemn fear descended on the city, and the name of the Lord Jesus was greatly honored. <sup>18</sup>Many who became believers confessed their sinful practices. <sup>19</sup>A number of them who had been practicing sorcery brought their incantation books and burned them at a public bonfire. The value of the books was several million dollars.* <sup>20</sup>So the message about the Lord spread widely and had a powerful effect.

<sup>21</sup>Afterward Paul felt compelled by the Spirit* to go over to Macedonia and Achaia before going to Jerusalem. “And after that,” he said, “I must go on to Rome!” <sup>22</sup>He sent his two assistants, Timothy and Erastus, ahead to Macedonia while he stayed awhile longer in the province of Asia.

THE RIOT IN EPHESUS

18:17 Greek Everyone; other manuscripts read All the Greeks.

18:18 Greek brothers; also in 18:27. 18:21 Some manuscripts read “I must by all means be at Jerusalem for the upcoming festival, but I will come back later.” 18:22 Greek the church. 18:23 Greek disciples; also in 18:27. 18:25 Or with enthusiasm in the Spirit. 19:1 Greek disciples; also in 19:9, 30. 19:6 Or in other languages. 19:19 Greek 50,000 pieces of silver, each of which was the equivalent of a day’s wage. 19:21 Or decided in his spirit.

Demetrius, a silversmith who had a large business manufacturing silver shrines of the Greek goddess Artemis.* He kept many craftsmen busy.<sup>25</sup> He called them together, along with others employed in similar trades, and addressed them as follows:

“Gentlemen, you know that our wealth comes from this business.<sup>26</sup> But as you have seen and heard, this man Paul has persuaded many people that handmade gods aren’t really gods at all. And he’s done this not only here in Ephesus but throughout the entire province!<sup>27</sup> Of course, I’m not just talking about the loss of public respect for our business. I’m also concerned that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will lose its influence and that Artemis—this magnificent goddess worshiped throughout the province of Asia and all around the world—will be robbed of her great prestige!”

<sup>29</sup> Soon the whole city was filled with confusion. Everyone rushed to the amphitheater, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, who were Paul’s traveling companions from Macedonia.<sup>30</sup> Paul wanted to go in, too, but the believers wouldn’t let him.<sup>31</sup> Some of the officials of the province, friends of Paul, also sent a message to him, begging him not to risk his life by entering the amphitheater.

<sup>32</sup> Inside, the people were all shouting, some one thing and some another. Everything was in confusion. In fact, most of them didn’t even know why they were there.<sup>33</sup> The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander forward and told him to explain the situation. He motioned for silence and tried to speak.<sup>34</sup> But when the crowd realized he was a Jew, they started shouting again and kept it up for about two hours: “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians! Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>35</sup> At last the mayor was able to quiet them down enough to speak. “Citizens of Ephesus,” he said. “Everyone knows that Ephesus is the official guardian of the temple of the great Artemis, whose image fell down to us from heaven.<sup>36</sup> Since this is an undeniable fact, you should stay calm and not do anything rash.<sup>37</sup> You have brought these men here, but they have stolen nothing from the temple and have not spoken against our goddess.

<sup>38</sup> “If Demetrius and the craftsmen have a case against them, the courts are in session and the officials can hear the case at once. Let them make formal charges.<sup>39</sup> And if there are complaints about other matters, they can be settled in a legal assembly.<sup>40</sup> I am afraid we are in danger of being charged with rioting by the Roman government, since there is no cause for all this commotion. And if Rome demands an explanation, we won’t know what to say.”<sup>41*</sup> Then he dismissed them, and they dispersed.

PAUL GOES TO MACEDONIA AND GREECE

20 When the uproar was over, Paul sent for the believers* and encouraged them. Then he said good-bye and left for Macedonia.<sup>2</sup> While there, he encouraged the believers in all the towns he passed through. Then he traveled down to Greece,<sup>3</sup> where he stayed for three months. He was preparing to sail back to Syria when he discovered a plot by some Jews against his life, so he decided to return through Macedonia.

<sup>4</sup> Several men were traveling with him. They were Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica; Gaius from Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia.<sup>5</sup> They went on ahead and waited for us at Troas.<sup>6</sup> After the Passover* ended, we boarded a ship at Philippi in Macedonia and five days later joined them in Troas, where we stayed a week.

PAUL’S FINAL VISIT TO TROAS

<sup>7</sup> On the first day of the week, we gathered with the local believers to share in the Lord’s Supper.* Paul was preaching to them, and since he was leaving the next day, he kept talking until midnight.<sup>8</sup> The upstairs room where we met was lighted with many flickering lamps.<sup>9</sup> As Paul spoke on and on, a young man named Eutychus, sitting on the windowsill, became very drowsy. Finally, he fell sound asleep and dropped three stories to his death below.<sup>10</sup> Paul went down, bent over him, and took him into his arms. “Don’t worry,” he said, “he’s alive!”<sup>11</sup> Then they all went back upstairs, shared in the Lord’s Supper,* and ate together. Paul continued talking to them until dawn, and then he left.<sup>12</sup> Meanwhile, the young man was taken home alive and well, and everyone was greatly relieved.

PAUL MEETS THE EPHESIAN ELDERS

<sup>13</sup> Paul went by land to Assos, where he had arranged for us to join him, while we traveled by ship.<sup>14</sup> He joined us there, and we sailed together to Mitylene.<sup>15</sup> The next day we sailed past the island of Kios. The following day we crossed to the island of Samos, and* a day later we arrived at Miletus.

<sup>16</sup> Paul had decided to sail on past Ephesus, for he didn’t want to spend any more time in the province of Asia. He was hurrying to get to Jerusalem, if possible, in time for the Festival of Pentecost.<sup>17</sup> But when we landed at Miletus, he sent a message to the elders of the church at Ephesus, asking them to come and meet him.

<sup>18</sup> When they arrived he declared, “You know that from the day I set foot in the province of Asia until now<sup>19</sup> I have done the Lord’s work humbly and with many tears. I have endured the trials that came to me from the plots of the Jews.<sup>20</sup> I never shrank back from telling you what you needed to hear, either publicly or in your homes.<sup>21</sup> I have had one message for Jews and Greeks alike—the necessity of repenting from sin and turning to God, and of having faith in our Lord Jesus.

<sup>22</sup>“And now I am bound by the Spirit* to go to Jerusalem. I don’t know what awaits me,<sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit tells me in city after city that jail and suffering lie ahead.<sup>24</sup> But my life is worth nothing to me unless I use it for finishing the work assigned me by the Lord Jesus—the work of telling others the Good News about the wonderful grace of God.

<sup>25</sup>“And now I know that none of you to whom I have preached the Kingdom will ever see me again.<sup>26</sup> I declare today that I have been faithful. If anyone suffers eternal death, it’s not my fault,<sup>27</sup> for I didn’t shrink from declaring all that God wants you to know.

<sup>28</sup>“So guard yourselves and God’s people. Feed and shepherd God’s flock—his church, purchased with his own blood*—over which the Holy Spirit has appointed you as leaders.*<sup>29</sup> I know that false teachers, like vicious wolves, will come in among you after I leave, not sparing the flock.<sup>30</sup> Even some men from your own group will rise up and distort the truth in order to draw a following.<sup>31</sup> Watch out! Remember the three years I was with you—my constant watch and care over you night and day, and my many tears for you.

<sup>32</sup>“And now I entrust you to God and the message of his grace that is able to build you up and give you an inheritance with all those he has set apart for himself.

<sup>33</sup>“I have never coveted anyone’s silver or gold or fine clothes.<sup>34</sup> You know that these hands of mine have worked to supply my own needs and even the needs of those who were with me.<sup>35</sup> And I have been a constant example of how you can help those in need by working hard. You should remember the words of the Lord Jesus: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

<sup>36</sup>When he had finished speaking, he knelt and prayed with them.<sup>37</sup> They all cried as they embraced and kissed him good-bye.<sup>38</sup> They were sad most of all because he had said that they would never see him again. Then they escorted him down to the ship.

PAUL’S JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM

21 After saying farewell to the Ephesian elders, we sailed straight to the island of Cos. The next day we reached Rhodes and then went to Patara.<sup>2</sup> There we boarded a ship sailing for Phoenicia.<sup>3</sup> We sighted the island of Cyprus, passed it on our left, and landed at the harbor of Tyre, in Syria, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

<sup>4</sup>We went ashore, found the local believers,* and stayed with them a week. These believers prophesied through the Holy Spirit that Paul should not go on to Jerusalem.<sup>5</sup> When we returned to the ship at the end of the week, the entire congregation, including women* and children, left the city and came down to the shore with us. There we knelt, prayed,<sup>6</sup> and said our farewells. Then we went aboard, and they returned home.

<sup>7</sup>The next stop after leaving Tyre was Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and sisters* and stayed for one day.<sup>8</sup> The next day we went on to Caesarea and stayed at the home of Philip the Evangelist, one of the seven men who had been chosen to distribute food.<sup>9</sup> He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophecy.

<sup>10</sup>Several days later a man named Agabus, who also had the gift of prophecy, arrived from Judea.<sup>11</sup> He came over, took Paul’s belt, and bound his own feet and hands with it. Then he said, “The Holy Spirit declares, ‘So shall the owner of this belt be bound by the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem and turned over to the Gentiles.’”<sup>12</sup> When we heard this, we and the local believers all begged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup>But he said, “Why all this weeping? You are breaking my heart! I am ready not only to be jailed at Jerusalem but even to die for the sake of the Lord Jesus.”<sup>14</sup> When it was clear that we couldn’t persuade him, we gave up and said, “The Lord’s will be done.”

PAUL ARRIVES AT JERUSALEM

<sup>18</sup>The next day Paul went with us to meet with James, and all the elders of the Jerusalem church were present.<sup>19</sup> After greeting them, Paul gave a detailed account of the things God had accomplished among the Gentiles through his ministry.

<sup>20</sup>After hearing this, they praised God. And then they said, “You know, dear brother, how many thousands of Jews have also believed, and they all follow the law of Moses very seriously.<sup>21</sup> But the Jewish believers here in Jerusalem have been told that you are teaching all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn their backs on the laws of Moses. They’ve heard that you teach them not to circumcise their children or follow other Jewish customs.<sup>22</sup> What should we do? They will certainly hear that you have come.

<sup>23</sup> “Here’s what we want you to do. We have four men here who have completed their vow. <sup>24</sup> Go with them to the Temple and join them in the purification ceremony, paying for them to have their heads ritually shaved. Then everyone will know that the rumors are all false and that you yourself observe the Jewish laws.

<sup>25</sup> “As for the Gentile believers, they should do what we already told them in a letter: They should abstain from eating food offered to idols, from consuming blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality.”

PAUL IS ARRESTED

<sup>26</sup> So Paul went to the Temple the next day with the other men. They had already started the purification ritual, so he publicly announced the date when their vows would end and sacrifices would be offered for each of them.

<sup>27</sup> The seven days were almost ended when some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the Temple and roused a mob against him. They grabbed him, <sup>28</sup> yelling, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who preaches against our people everywhere and tells everybody to disobey the Jewish laws. He speaks against the Temple—and even defiles this holy place by bringing in Gentiles.” <sup>29</sup> (For earlier that day they had seen him in the city with Trophimus, a Gentile from Ephesus,* and they assumed Paul had taken him into the Temple.)

<sup>30</sup> The whole city was rocked by these accusations, and a great riot followed. Paul was grabbed and dragged out of the Temple, and immediately the gates were closed behind him. <sup>31</sup> As they were trying to kill him, word reached the commander of the Roman regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. <sup>32</sup> He immediately called out his soldiers and officers* and ran down among the crowd. When the mob saw the commander and the troops coming, they stopped beating Paul.

<sup>33</sup> Then the commander arrested him and ordered him bound with two chains. He asked the crowd who he was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup> Some shouted one thing and some another. Since he couldn’t find out the truth in all the uproar and confusion, he ordered that Paul be taken to the fortress. <sup>35</sup> As Paul reached the stairs, the mob grew so violent the soldiers had to lift him to their shoulders to protect him. <sup>36</sup> And the crowd followed behind, shouting, “Kill him, kill him!”

PAUL SPEAKS TO THE CROWD

<sup>37</sup> As Paul was about to be taken inside, he said to the commander, “May I have a word with you?”

“Do you know Greek?” the commander asked, surprised. <sup>38</sup> “Aren’t you the Egyptian who led a rebellion some time ago and took 4,000 members of the Assassins out into the desert?”

Please, let me talk to these people.” <sup>40</sup> The commander agreed, so Paul stood on the stairs and motioned to the people to be quiet. Soon a deep silence enveloped the crowd, and he addressed them in their own language, Aramaic.*

22 “Brothers and esteemed fathers,” Paul said, “listen to me as I offer my defense.” <sup>2</sup> When they heard him speaking in their own language,* the silence was even greater.

<sup>3</sup> Then Paul said, “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, and I was brought up and educated here in Jerusalem under Gamaliel. As his student, I was carefully trained in our Jewish laws and customs. I became very zealous to honor God in everything I did, just like all of you today. <sup>4</sup> And I persecuted the followers of the Way, hounding some to death, arresting both men and women and throwing them in prison. <sup>5</sup> The high priest and the whole council of elders can testify that this is so. For I received letters from them to our Jewish brothers in Damascus, authorizing me to bring the followers of the Way from there to Jerusalem, in chains, to be punished.

<sup>6</sup> “As I was on the road, approaching Damascus about noon, a very bright light from heaven suddenly shone down around me. <sup>7</sup> I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’

<sup>8</sup> “‘Who are you, lord?’ I asked.

“And the voice replied, ‘I am Jesus the Nazarene,* the one you are persecuting.’ <sup>9</sup> The people with me saw the light but didn’t understand the voice speaking to me.

<sup>10</sup> “I asked, ‘What should I do, Lord?’

“And the Lord told me, ‘Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told everything you are to do.’

<sup>11</sup> “I was blinded by the intense light and had to be led by the hand to Damascus by my companions. <sup>12</sup> A man named Ananias lived there. He was a godly man, deeply devoted to the law, and well regarded by all the Jews of Damascus. <sup>13</sup> He came and stood beside me and said, ‘Brother Saul, regain your sight.’ And that very moment I could see him!

<sup>14</sup> “Then he told me, ‘The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and hear him speak. <sup>15</sup> For you are to be his witness, telling everyone what you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup> What are you waiting for? Get up and be baptized. Have your sins washed away by calling on the name of the Lord.’

<sup>17</sup> “After I returned to Jerusalem, I was praying in the Temple and fell into a trance. <sup>18</sup> I saw a vision of Jesus* saying to me, ‘Hurry! Leave Jerusalem, for the people here won’t accept your testimony about me.’

21:28 Greek Greeks. 21:29 Greek Trophimus, the Ephesian.

21:32 Greek centurions. 21:40 Or Hebrew. 22:2 Greek in Aramaic, or in Hebrew. 22:8 Or Jesus of Nazareth. 22:18 Greek him.

<sup>19</sup>“But Lord,” I argued, “they certainly know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you. <sup>20</sup>And I was in complete agreement when your witness Stephen was killed. I stood by and kept the coats they took off when they stoned him.”

<sup>21</sup>“But the Lord said to me, ‘Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles!’”

<sup>22</sup>The crowd listened until Paul said that word. Then they all began to shout, “Away with such a fellow! He isn’t fit to live!” <sup>23</sup>They yelled, threw off their coats, and tossed handfuls of dust into the air.

PAUL REVEALS HIS ROMAN CITIZENSHIP

<sup>24</sup>The commander brought Paul inside and ordered him lashed with whips to make him confess his crime. He wanted to find out why the crowd had become so furious. <sup>25</sup>When they tied Paul down to lash him, Paul said to the officer* standing there, “Is it legal for you to whip a Roman citizen who hasn’t even been tried?”

<sup>26</sup>When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and asked, “What are you doing? This man is a Roman citizen!”

<sup>27</sup>So the commander went over and asked Paul, “Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?”

“Yes, I certainly am,” Paul replied.

<sup>28</sup>“I am, too,” the commander muttered, “and it cost me plenty!”

Paul answered, “But I am a citizen by birth!”

<sup>29</sup>The soldiers who were about to interrogate Paul quickly withdrew when they heard he was a Roman citizen, and the commander was frightened because he had ordered him bound and whipped.

PAUL BEFORE THE HIGH COUNCIL

<sup>30</sup>The next day the commander ordered the leading priests into session with the Jewish high council.* He wanted to find out what the trouble was all about, so he released Paul to have him stand before them.

23 Gazing intently at the high council, Paul began: “Brothers, I have always lived before God with a clear conscience!”

<sup>2</sup>Instantly Ananias the high priest commanded those close to Paul to slap him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup>But Paul said to him, “God will slap you, you corrupt hypocrite! What kind of judge are you to break the law yourself by ordering me struck like that?”

<sup>4</sup>Those standing near Paul said to him, “Do you dare to insult God’s high priest?”

<sup>5</sup>“I’m sorry, brothers. I didn’t realize he was the high priest,” Paul replied, “for the Scriptures say, ‘You must not speak evil of any of your rulers.’”

<sup>6</sup>Paul realized that some members of the high council were Sadducees and some were Pharisees, so he shouted, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, as were my ancestors! And I am on trial because my hope is in the resurrection of the dead!”

<sup>7</sup>This divided the council—the Pharisees against the Sadducees—<sup>8</sup>for the Sadducees say there is no resurrection or angels or spirits, but the Pharisees believe in all of these. <sup>9</sup>So there was a great uproar. Some of the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees jumped up and began to argue forcefully. “We see nothing wrong with him,” they shouted. “Perhaps a spirit or an angel spoke to him.” <sup>10</sup>As the conflict grew more violent, the commander was afraid they would tear Paul apart. So he ordered his soldiers to go and rescue him by force and take him back to the fortress.

<sup>11</sup>That night the Lord appeared to Paul and said, “Be encouraged, Paul. Just as you have been a witness to me here in Jerusalem, you must preach the Good News in Rome as well.”

THE PLAN TO KILL PAUL

<sup>12</sup>The next morning a group of Jews* got together and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>13</sup>There were more than forty of them in the conspiracy. <sup>14</sup>They went to the leading priests and elders and told them, “We have bound ourselves with an oath to eat nothing until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup>So you and the high council should ask the commander to bring Paul back to the council again. Pretend you want to examine his case more fully. We will kill him on the way.”

<sup>16</sup>But Paul’s nephew—his sister’s son—heard of their plan and went to the fortress and told Paul. <sup>17</sup>Paul called for one of the Roman officers* and said, “Take this young man to the commander. He has something important to tell him.”

<sup>18</sup>So the officer did, explaining, “Paul, the prisoner, called me over and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”

<sup>19</sup>The commander took his hand, led him aside, and asked, “What is it you want to tell me?”

<sup>20</sup>Paul’s nephew told him, “Some Jews are going to ask you to bring Paul before the high council tomorrow, pretending they want to get some more information. <sup>21</sup>But don’t do it! There are more than forty men hiding along the way ready to ambush him. They have vowed not to eat or drink anything until they have killed him. They are ready now, just waiting for your consent.”

<sup>22</sup>“Don’t let anyone know you told me this,” the commander warned the young man.

PAUL IS SENT TO CAESAREA

22:25 Greek the centurion; also in 22:26. 22:30 Greek Sanhedrin.

horses for Paul to ride, and get him safely to Governor Felix.”<sup>25</sup> Then he wrote this letter to the governor:

<sup>27</sup> “This man was seized by some Jews, and they were about to kill him when I arrived with the troops. When I learned that he was a Roman citizen, I removed him to safety.<sup>28</sup> Then I took him to their high council to try to learn the basis of the accusations against him.<sup>29</sup> I soon discovered the charge was something regarding their religious law—certainly nothing worthy of imprisonment or death.<sup>30</sup> But when I was informed of a plot to kill him, I immediately sent him on to you. I have told his accusers to bring their charges before you.”

<sup>31</sup> So that night, as ordered, the soldiers took Paul as far as Antipatris.<sup>32</sup> They returned to the fortress the next morning, while the mounted troops took him on to Caesarea.<sup>33</sup> When they arrived in Caesarea, they presented Paul and the letter to Governor Felix.<sup>34</sup> He read it and then asked Paul what province he was from. “Cilicia,” Paul answered.

<sup>35</sup> “I will hear your case myself when your accusers arrive,” the governor told him. Then the governor ordered him kept in the prison at Herod’s headquarters.*

PAUL APPEARS BEFORE FELIX

24 Five days later Ananias, the high priest, arrived with some of the Jewish elders and the lawyer<sup>a</sup> Tertullus, to present their case against Paul to the governor.<sup>2</sup> When Paul was called in, Tertullus presented the charges against Paul in the following address to the governor:

“You have provided a long period of peace for us Jews and with foresight have enacted reforms for us.<sup>3</sup> For all of this, Your Excellency, we are very grateful to you.<sup>4</sup> But I don’t want to bore you, so please give me your attention for only a moment.<sup>5</sup> We have found this man to be a troublemaker who is constantly stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the cult known as the Nazarenes.<sup>6</sup> Furthermore, he was trying to desecrate the Temple when we arrested him.*<sup>8</sup> You can find out the truth of our accusations by examining him yourself.”<sup>9</sup> Then the other Jews chimed in, declaring that everything Tertullus said was true.

<sup>10</sup> The governor then motioned for Paul to speak. Paul said, “I know, sir, that you have been a judge of Jewish affairs for many years, so I gladly present my defense before you.”<sup>11</sup> You can quickly discover that I arrived in Jerusalem no more than twelve days ago to worship at the Temple.<sup>12</sup> My accusers never found me arguing with anyone in the Temple, nor stirring up a riot in any synagogue or on the streets of the city.<sup>13</sup> These men cannot prove the things they accuse me of doing.

<sup>14</sup> “But I admit that I follow the Way, which they call a cult. I worship the God of our ancestors, and I firmly believe the Jewish law and everything written in the prophets.<sup>15</sup> I have the same hope in God that these men have, that he will raise both the righteous and the unrighteous.<sup>16</sup> Because of this, I always try to maintain a clear conscience before God and all people.

<sup>17</sup> “After several years away, I returned to Jerusalem with money to aid my people and to offer sacrifices to God.<sup>18</sup> My accusers saw me in the Temple as I was completing a purification ceremony. There was no crowd around me and no rioting.<sup>19</sup> But some Jews from the province of Asia were there—and they ought to be here to bring charges if they have anything against me!<sup>20</sup> Ask these men here what crime the Jewish high council<sup>a</sup> found me guilty of,<sup>21</sup> except for the one time I shouted out, ‘I am on trial before you today because I believe in the resurrection of the dead!’”

<sup>22</sup> At that point Felix, who was quite familiar with the Way, adjourned the hearing and said, “Wait until Lysias, the garrison commander, arrives. Then I will decide the case.”<sup>23</sup> He ordered an officer<sup>b</sup> to keep Paul in custody but to give him some freedom and allow his friends to visit him and take care of his needs.

<sup>24</sup> A few days later Felix came back with his wife, Drusilla, who was Jewish. Sending for Paul, they listened as he told them about faith in Christ Jesus.<sup>25</sup> As he reasoned with them about righteousness and self-control and the coming day of judgment, Felix became frightened. “Go away for now,” he replied. “When it is more convenient, I’ll call for you again.”<sup>26</sup> He also hoped that Paul would bribe him, so he sent for him quite often and talked with him.

<sup>27</sup> After two years went by in this way, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus. And because Felix wanted to gain favor with the Jewish people, he left Paul in prison.

PAUL APPEARS BEFORE FESTUS

25 Three days after Festus arrived in Caesarea to take over his new responsibilities, he left for Jerusalem,<sup>2</sup> where the leading priests and other Jewish leaders met with him and made their accusations against Paul.<sup>3</sup> They asked Festus as a favor to transfer Paul to Jerusalem (planning to ambush and kill him on the way).<sup>4</sup> But Festus replied that Paul was at Caesarea and he himself would be returning there soon.

<sup>23:35</sup> Greek Herod’s Praetorium. <sup>24:1</sup> Greek some elders and an orator. <sup>24:6</sup> Some manuscripts add an expanded conclusion to verse 6, all of verse 7, and an additional phrase in verse 8: We would have judged him by our law, but Lysias, the commander of the garrison, came and violently took him away from us, commanding his accusers to come before you. <sup>24:20</sup> Greek Sanhedrin. <sup>24:23</sup> Greek a centurion.

<sup>5</sup>So he said, “Those of you in authority can return with me. If Paul has done anything wrong, you can make your accusations.”

<sup>6</sup>About eight or ten days later Festus returned to Caesarea, and on the following day he took his seat in court and ordered that Paul be brought in. <sup>7</sup>When Paul arrived, the Jewish leaders from Jerusalem gathered around and made many serious accusations they couldn’t prove.

<sup>8</sup>Paul denied the charges. “I am not guilty of any crime against the Jewish laws or the Temple or the Roman government,” he said.

<sup>9</sup>Then Festus, wanting to please the Jews, asked him, “Are you willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there?”

<sup>10</sup>But Paul replied, “No! This is the official Roman court, so I ought to be tried right here. You know very well I am not guilty of harming the Jews. <sup>11</sup>If I have done something worthy of death, I don’t refuse to die. But if I am innocent, no one has a right to turn me over to these men to kill me. I appeal to Caesar!”

<sup>12</sup>Festus conferred with his advisers and then replied, “Very well! You have appealed to Caesar, and to Caesar you will go!”

<sup>17</sup>“When his accusers came here for the trial, I didn’t delay. I called the case the very next day and ordered Paul brought in. <sup>18</sup>But the accusations made against him weren’t any of the crimes I expected. <sup>19</sup>Instead, it was something about their religion and a dead man named Jesus, who Paul insists is alive. <sup>20</sup>I was at a loss to know how to investigate these things, so I asked him whether he would be willing to stand trial on these charges in Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>But Paul appealed to have his case decided by the emperor. So I ordered that he be held in custody until I could arrange to send him to Caesar.”

And Festus replied, “You will—tomorrow!”

PAUL SPEAKS TO AGRIPPA

<sup>23</sup>So the next day Agrippa and Bernice arrived at the auditorium with great pomp, accompanied by military officers and prominent men of the city. Festus ordered that Paul be brought in.

<sup>24</sup>Then Festus said, “King Agrippa and all who are here, this is the man whose death is demanded by all the Jews, both here and in Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup>But in my opinion he has done nothing deserving death. However, since he appealed his case to the emperor, I have decided to send him to Rome.

<sup>26</sup>“But what shall I write the emperor? For there is no clear charge against him. So I have brought him before all of you, and especially you, King Agrippa, so that after we examine him, I might have something to write. <sup>27</sup>For it makes no sense to send a prisoner to the emperor without specifying the charges against him!”

26 Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You may speak in your defense.”

So Paul, gesturing with his hand, started his defense: <sup>28</sup>“I am fortunate, King Agrippa, that you are the one hearing my defense today against all these accusations made by the Jewish leaders, <sup>29</sup>for I know you are an expert on all Jewish customs and controversies. Now please listen to me patiently!

<sup>30</sup>“As the Jewish leaders are well aware, I was given a thorough Jewish training from my earliest childhood among my own people and in Jerusalem. <sup>31</sup>If they would admit it, they know that I have been a member of the Pharisees, the strictest sect of our religion. <sup>32</sup>Now I am on trial because of my hope in the fulfillment of God’s promise made to our ancestors. <sup>33</sup>In fact, that is why the twelve tribes of Israel zealously worship God night and day, and they share the same hope I have. Yet, Your Majesty, they accuse me for having this hope! <sup>34</sup>Why does it seem incredible to any of you that God can raise the dead?

<sup>35</sup>“I used to believe that I ought to do everything I could to oppose the very name of Jesus the Nazarene. <sup>36</sup><sup>10</sup> Indeed, I did just that in Jerusalem. Authorized by the leading priests, I caused many believers<sup>8</sup> there to be sent to prison. And I cast my vote against them when they were condemned to death. <sup>37</sup>Many times I had them punished in the synagogues to get them to curse Jesus.* I was so violently opposed to them that I even chased them down in foreign cities.

<sup>38</sup>“One day I was on such a mission to Damascus, armed with the authority and commission of the leading priests. <sup>39</sup>About noon, Your Majesty, as I was on the road, a light from heaven brighter than the sun shone down on me and my companions. <sup>40</sup>We all fell down, and I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic,* ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is useless for you to fight against my will.’<sup>9</sup>

“And the Lord replied, ‘I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting. <sup>42</sup>Now get to your feet! For I have appeared to you to appoint you as my servant and witness. Tell people that you have seen me, and tell them what I will show you in the future.

25:13 Greek Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived. 26:9 Or Jesus of Nazareth. 26:10 Greek many of God’s holy people. 26:11 Greek to blaspheme. 26:14a Or Hebrew. 26:14b Greek It is hard for you to hick against the oxgoads.

<sup>17</sup>And I will rescue you from both your own people and the Gentiles. Yes, I am sending you to the Gentiles <sup>18</sup>to open their eyes, so they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God. Then they will receive forgiveness for their sins and be given a place among God's people, who are set apart by faith in me.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>19</sup>"And so, King Agrippa, I obeyed that vision from heaven. <sup>20</sup>I preached first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that all must repent of their sins and turn to God—and prove they have changed by the good things they do. <sup>21</sup>Some Jews arrested me in the Temple for preaching this, and they tried to kill me. <sup>22</sup>But God has protected me right up to this present time so I can testify to everyone, from the least to the greatest. I teach nothing except what the prophets and Moses said should happen—<sup>23</sup>that the Messiah would suffer and be the first to rise from the dead, and in this way announce God's light to Jews and Gentiles alike."

<sup>24</sup>Suddenly, Festus shouted, "Paul, you are insane. Too much study has made you crazy!"

<sup>25</sup>But Paul replied, "I am not insane, Most Excellent Festus. What I am saying is the sober truth. <sup>26</sup>And King Agrippa knows about these things. I speak boldly, for I am sure these events are all familiar to him, for they were not done in a corner! <sup>27</sup>King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do—"

<sup>28</sup>Agrippa interrupted him. "Do you think you can persuade me to become a Christian so quickly?"*

<sup>29</sup>Paul replied, "Whether quickly or not, I pray to God that both you and everyone here in this audience might become the same as I am, except for these chains."

<sup>32</sup>And Agrippa said to Festus, "He could have been set free if he hadn't appealed to Caesar."

PAUL SAILS FOR ROME

27 When the time came, we set sail for Italy. Paul and several other prisoners were placed in the custody of a Roman officer* named Julius, a captain of the Imperial Regiment. <sup>2</sup>Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was also with us. We left on a ship whose home port was Adramyttium on the northwest coast of the province of Asia;* it was scheduled to make several stops at ports along the coast of the province.

<sup>3</sup>The next day when we docked at Sidon, Julius was very kind to Paul and let him go ashore to visit with friends so they could provide for his needs. <sup>4</sup>Putting out to sea from there, we encountered strong headwinds that made it difficult to keep the ship on course, so we sailed north of Cyprus between the island and the mainland. <sup>5</sup>Keeping to the open sea, we passed along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, landing at Myra, in the province of Lycia. <sup>6</sup>There the commanding officer found an Egyptian ship from Alexandria that was bound for Italy, and he put us on board.

<sup>7</sup>We had several days of slow sailing, and after great difficulty we finally neared Cnidus. But the wind was against us, so we sailed across to Crete and along the sheltered coast of the island, past the cape of Salmone. <sup>8</sup>We struggled along the coast with great difficulty and finally arrived at Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea. <sup>9</sup>We had lost a lot of time. The weather was becoming dangerous for sea travel because it was so late in the fall,* and Paul spoke to the ship's officers about it.

<sup>10</sup>"Men," he said, "I believe there is trouble ahead if we go on—shipwreck, loss of cargo, and danger to our lives as well." <sup>11</sup>But the officer in charge of the prisoners listened more to the ship's captain and the owner than to Paul. <sup>12</sup>And since Fair Havens was an exposed harbor—a poor place to spend the winter—most of the crew wanted to go on to Phoenix, farther up the coast of Crete, and spend the winter there. Phoenix was a good harbor with only a southwest and northwest exposure.

THE STORM AT SEA

<sup>13</sup>When a light wind began blowing from the south, the sailors thought they could make it. So they pulled up anchor and sailed close to the shore of Crete. <sup>14</sup>But the weather changed abruptly, and a wind of typhoon strength (called a "northeaster") burst across the island and blew us out to sea. <sup>15</sup>The sailors couldn't turn the ship into the wind, so they gave up and let it run before the gale.

<sup>16</sup>We sailed along the sheltered side of a small island named Cauda,* where with great difficulty we hoisted aboard the lifeboat being towed behind us. <sup>17</sup>Then the sailors bound ropes around the hull of the ship to strengthen it. They were afraid of being driven across to the sandbars of Syrtis off the African coast, so they lowered the sea anchor to slow the ship and were driven before the wind.

26:28 Or "A little more, and your arguments would make me a Christian." 27:1 Greek centurion; similarly in 27:6, 11, 31, 43. 27:2 Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey. 27:9 Greek because the fast was now already gone by. This fast was associated with the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur), which occurred in late September or early October. 27:16 Some manuscripts read Clauda.

<sup>21</sup> No one had eaten for a long time. Finally, Paul called the crew together and said, “Men, you should have listened to me in the first place and not left Crete. You would have avoided all this damage and loss.” <sup>22</sup> But take courage! None of you will lose your lives, even though the ship will go down. <sup>23</sup> For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me, <sup>24</sup> and he said, ‘Don’t be afraid, Paul, for you will surely stand trial before Caesar! What’s more, God in his goodness has granted safety to everyone sailing with you.’ <sup>25</sup> So take courage! For I believe God. It will be just as he said. <sup>26</sup> But we will be shipwrecked on an island.”

THE SHIPWRECK

<sup>27</sup> About midnight on the fourteenth night of the storm, as we were being driven across the Sea of Adria,* the sailors sensed land was near. <sup>28</sup> They dropped a weighted line and found that the water was 120 feet deep. But a little later they measured again and found it was only 90 feet deep.* <sup>29</sup> At this rate they were afraid we would soon be driven against the rocks along the shore, so they threw out four anchors from the back of the ship and prayed for daylight.

<sup>30</sup> Then the sailors tried to abandon the ship; they lowered the lifeboat as though they were going to put out anchors from the front of the ship. <sup>31</sup> But Paul said to the commanding officer and the soldiers, “You will all die unless the sailors stay aboard.” <sup>32</sup> So the soldiers cut the ropes to the lifeboat and let it drift away.

<sup>33</sup> Just as day was dawning, Paul urged everyone to eat. “You have been so worried that you haven’t touched food for two weeks,” he said. <sup>34</sup> “Please eat something now for your own good. For not a hair of your heads will perish.” <sup>35</sup> Then he took some bread, gave thanks to God before them all, and broke off a piece and ate it. <sup>36</sup> Then everyone was encouraged and began to eat—<sup>37</sup> all 276 of us who were on board. <sup>38</sup> After eating, the crew lightened the ship further by throwing the cargo of wheat overboard.

<sup>39</sup> When morning dawned, they didn’t recognize the coastline, but they saw a bay with a beach and wondered if they could get to shore by running the ship aground. <sup>40</sup> So they cut off the anchors and left them in the sea. Then they lowered the rudders, raised the foresail, and headed toward shore. <sup>41</sup> But they hit a shoal and ran the ship aground too soon. The bow of the ship stuck fast, while the stern was repeatedly smashed by the force of the waves and began to break apart.

<sup>43</sup> But the commanding officer wanted to spare Paul, so he didn’t let them carry out their plan. Then he ordered all who could swim to jump overboard first and make for land. <sup>44</sup> The others held on to planks or debris from the broken ship.* So everyone escaped safely to shore.

PAUL ON THE ISLAND OF MALTA

28 Once we were safe on shore, we learned that we were on the island of Malta. <sup>2</sup> The people of the island were very kind to us. It was cold and rainy, so they built a fire on the shore to welcome us.

<sup>3</sup> As Paul gathered an armful of sticks and was laying them on the fire, a poisonous snake, driven out by the heat, bit him on the hand. <sup>4</sup> The people of the island saw it hanging from his hand and said to each other, “A murderer, no doubt! Though he escaped the sea, justice will not permit him to live.” <sup>5</sup> But Paul shook off the snake into the fire and was unharmed. <sup>6</sup> The people waited for him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But when they had waited a long time and saw that he wasn’t harmed, they changed their minds and decided he was a god.

<sup>7</sup> Near the shore where we landed was an estate belonging to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us and treated us kindly for three days. <sup>8</sup> As it happened, Publius’s father was ill with fever and dysentery. Paul went in and prayed for him, and laying his hands on him, he healed him. <sup>9</sup> Then all the other sick people on the island came and were healed. <sup>10</sup> As a result we were showered with honors, and when the time came to sail, people supplied us with everything we would need for the trip.

PAUL ARRIVES AT ROME

<sup>11</sup> It was three months after the shipwreck that we set sail on another ship that had wintered at the island—an Alexandrian ship with the twin gods* as its figurehead. <sup>12</sup> Our first stop was Syracuse,* where we stayed three days. <sup>13</sup> From there we sailed across to Rhegium.* A day later a south wind began blowing, so the following day we sailed up the coast to Puteoli. <sup>14</sup> There we found some believers,* who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome.

<sup>15</sup> The brothers and sisters* in Rome had heard we were coming, and they came to meet us at the Forum* on the Appian Way. Others joined us at The Three Taverns.* When Paul saw them, he was encouraged and thanked God.

<sup>16</sup> When we arrived in Rome, Paul was permitted to have his own private lodging, though he was guarded by a soldier.

PAUL PREACHES AT ROME UNDER GUARD

<sup>17</sup> Three days after Paul’s arrival, he called together the local Jewish leaders. He said to them, “Brothers, I was arrested in Jerusalem

27:27 The Sea of Adria includes the central portion of the Mediterranean. 27:28 Greek 20 fathoms . . . 15 fathoms [37 meters . . . 27 meters]. 27:44 Or or were helped by members of the ship’s crew. 28:11 The twin gods were the Roman gods Castor and Pollux. 28:12 Syracuse was on the island of Sicily. 28:13 Rhegium was on the southern tip of Italy. 28:14 Greek brothers. 28:15a Greek brothers. 28:15b The Forum was about 43 miles (70 kilometers) from Rome. 28:15c The Three Taverns was about 35 miles (57 kilometers) from Rome.

and handed over to the Roman government, even though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors.<sup>18</sup> The Romans tried me and wanted to release me, because they found no cause for the death sentence.<sup>19</sup> But when the Jewish leaders protested the decision, I felt it necessary to appeal to Caesar, even though I had no desire to press charges against my own people.<sup>20</sup> I asked you to come here today so we could get acquainted and so I could explain to you that I am bound with this chain because I believe that the hope of Israel—the Messiah—has already come.”

<sup>21</sup>They replied, “We have had no letters from Judea or reports against you from anyone who has come here.<sup>22</sup> But we want to hear what you believe, for the only thing we know about this movement is that it is denounced everywhere.”

<sup>23</sup>So a time was set, and on that day a large number of people came to Paul’s lodging. He explained and testified about the Kingdom of God and tried to persuade them about Jesus from the Scriptures. Using the law of Moses and the books of the prophets, he spoke to them from morning until evening.<sup>24</sup> Some were persuaded by the things he said, but others did not believe.<sup>25</sup> And after they had argued back and forth among themselves, they left with this final word from Paul: “The Holy Spirit was right when he said to your ancestors through Isaiah the prophet, <sup>26</sup> ‘Go and say to this people:

When you hear what I say,
you will not understand.
When you see what I do,
you will not comprehend.

<sup>27</sup> For the hearts of these people are hardened, and their ears cannot hear,
and they have closed their eyes—
so their eyes cannot see,
and their ears cannot hear,
and their hearts cannot understand,
and they cannot turn to me and let me heal them.’<sup>28</sup>

<sup>28</sup> So I want you to know that this salvation from God has also been offered to the Gentiles, and they will accept it.”<sup>29</sup>

<sup>30</sup>For the next two years, Paul lived in Rome at his own expense.<sup>31</sup> He welcomed all who visited him, <sup>31</sup>boldly proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ. And no one tried to stop him.

<sup>28:26-27</sup> Isa 6:9-10 (Greek version). <sup>28:28</sup> Some manuscripts add verse 29, And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, greatly disagreeing with each other. <sup>28:30</sup> Or in his own rented quarters.

AN INTRODUCTION TO PAUL

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

A WORLD IN NEED OF THE GOSPEL

This gospel message about Jesus, which is preserved in the four Gospels, goes out to a Roman world that stretched from Mesopotamia to Scotland. This was a world ruled by Caesar (Augustus). He created an autocracy (one-man rule) that had the appearance of a republic. Caesar controlled the army and navy, oversaw all foreign and domestic policy, and appointed administrators who represented the government before the people. His face was on all the coins of the empire, his name on all public buildings, and there were temples dedicated to his genius or spirit in all major cities. He was called the princeps or "First Citizen." Not all citizens were equal, and freedom of speech and political freedom did not exist. Yet there was more social and economic freedom than ever before.

The Roman Family

The head of every family was the paterfamilias or 'the father of the family.' The oldest male family member served this role. He was the undisputed master, with the power of life and death over all other members. For example, he determined whether a newborn child would live or die. He arranged marriages when a child reached adulthood. He was also the sole owner of the family property.

Childhood was short-lived, meaning even pre-adolescents sometimes had adult responsibilities. There was no public education, but private instruction was available when a teacher established a school and charged a fee to those who could afford it. Wax tablets were used for writing and doing calculations. Male tutors accompanied boys to school while nurses attended to the girls. Secondary education continued to the age of about 13 and emphasized grammar, syntax, rhetoric, and literature in both Latin and Greek, including Homer, Aeschylus, Sophocles, Euripides, Menander, Virgil, and Horace.

Girls typically married at 12–15 years old, and boys married when they were slightly older. Marriage was a serious legal bond among the Romans. Still, men and women often lived together without a formal ceremony. A dowry was an important part of Roman marriage since it represented the girl or woman's insurance. Rings were exchanged and worn on the index finger because the people believed a nerve connected the finger with the heart, hands were held, and the couple would say, "Where you go, I go."

In the first century, childbirth was in decline, so Augustus granted special privileges to women who had children, such as acting with legal authority for themselves. He imposed penalties on bachelors and childless couples, preventing them from being named in wills. Unwanted children were abandoned and left to exposure, and people would search the city dumps to find and raise such children as slaves.

Slavery in the Roman Empire

Slavery was practiced throughout the ancient world. Instead of killing the people of a conquered territory or city, the victorious armies would take them as slaves to serve as maids, cooks, gardeners, and house servants. The Greeks expanded slavery and established their entire economy upon it. Slaves worked in mines, fields, shops, and offices; they worked in both low-skilled and high-skilled positions. Often, business owners relied upon slaves to run their operations. Slaves also worked for the government. When slaves performed their work well, they were sometimes given their freedom, which led to citizenship. They would then continue in their work as freedmen.

Some ex-slaves succeeded in business and government and moved into Rome's middle class. During the reign of Claudius, for example, a freedman named Pallas served as the emperor's Secretary of the Treasury and became wealthy. His brother was Felix, the governor of Judea who threw Paul into prison (Acts 23:23–24:27).

Slavery was not based on race. Instead, its practice in the ancient world was based on power. People defeated in war were put into servitude rather than put to death. The victors became the masters. People who fell into debt were forced into slavery to repay their creditors. Debt bondage reinforced the privileges of those with money over those without. (Several passages in the Bible, such as Exodus 21, Leviticus 25, and Deuteronomy 15, show how the Hebrews put laws in place to protect those who fell into debt.)

So common was slavery in the ancient world that the Israelites also practiced it. In fact, slaves built Solomon's Temple (1 Kings 9:20–22; 2 Chronicles 8:10–18).

The New Testament identifies several slaves, including the Ethiopian eunuch (Acts 8), the maid Rhoda (Acts 12), the clairvoyant slave girl (Acts 16), and the Roman centurion's slave (Luke 7). In addition, the high priest Caiaphas owned slaves, and Jesus even included slaves in the parables He told, recognizing the reality of the institution.

The Roman Army

Military service lasted 20–25 years and offered decent pay, promotion, and the promise of freedom to slaves upon the completion of their duty. The imperial army consisted of 300,000 men, half of whom belonged to the famous Roman legions. They were made up of Roman citizens who carried standards embossed with images of eagles. Their army included 28–30 legions or divisions. In addition to these, the army contained auxiliaries made up of recruits from different people throughout the empire. The Praetorian Guard was the emperor's personal legion stationed in Rome.

A recruit had to be at least 5'8" tall (1.73 meters) and able to hike 15 miles (24 km) in 5 hours with a full pack. Often, the army worked on public projects when not engaged in training or warfare. The army did not allow soldiers to marry, but many lived with women from local areas where they were stationed since they were not frequently transferred.

Religion in the Roman Empire

Rome encouraged many gods from different areas. Over time, gods with similar characteristics were considered as one god. Two of the most popular were Isis and Cybele.

Isis was an Egyptian goddess who was especially popular with women. Priests dressed in linen, had shaved heads, offered prayers twice a day to the sound of a rattle, and sprinkled water from the Nile during ceremonies. They took a vow not to have physical relations with another person, drink wine, or eat pork or fish. Priests opened a veil so worshippers could see her image holding her infant son Horus.

Cybele was a goddess of Asia Minor. Her image was carried in a carriage while her devotees danced to drums, cymbals, and pipes. Her priests would periodically fast for a week and sometimes cut themselves. By the second century, followers of Cybele practiced baptism in blood. The worshippers would stand in a pit under a grating over which a bull was sacrificed so that its blood would fall upon their heads and renew them forever. Only wealthy followers could afford this practice.

Entertainment in the Roman Empire

Public baths were built in every Roman city and included courts for games, wrestling, and track and field. Most major festivals were marked by athletic games, which sometimes lasted numerous days and were paid for by the government. Romans also enjoyed the theatre and the circus, but horseracing was their favorite, which included both bareback and chariot races.

The Roman government operated gladiatorial fighting, a fearsome form of entertainment. When the Colosseum opened in AD 80, the occasion was marked by 100 days of fighting. The state acquired gladiators in a variety of ways: some slaves were purchased from slave markets, masters sold others to get rid of them, and free men signed up to pay off debts. Gladiatorial schools trained three types of fighters: men who fought with armor; men who fought with light armor; and men who fought in a tunic with a dagger and a net. The word arena means 'sand' and was the name given to the places where the gladiatorial contests took place because sand was used to cover the blood shed during fights. Not all matches ended in death; the crowd would wave handkerchiefs or place their thumbs against their chest to vote whether a fighter should live or die.

AN OVERVIEW OF PAUL'S LIFE

Other than the apostles Peter and John, no man stands out more than the apostle Paul in the proclamation of the gospel throughout the Roman world. Jesus charged each of the 12 disciples to take the Good News of salvation to the ends of the earth (Acts 1:8), along with the 70 He chose to go throughout Galilee. He also gave this responsibility to His other followers. Yet it remained for a man who was not Jesus' follower during His earthly ministry to take the gospel to the height of human power by going before Caesar in Rome. The apostle Paul is the man whom Jesus confronted on his way to Damascus and then re-directed to Rome with the Good News of God's salvation. Who was this man before Jesus apprehended him?

Paul was born in Tarsus in the Roman province of Cilicia, a city with a long history dating back to the eighth century BC. Prior to Roman rule, the Seleucids governed, and Antiochus Epiphanes made it a free city in 170 BC. Tarsus retained that designation under the Romans in 64 BC. It was a university city and renowned for Stoic philosophy and rhetoric (Acts 21:39). Paul was a Roman citizen by birth (Acts 22:28), though the New Testament doesn't record how his family obtained their citizenship. One popular theory is that his family made tents and supplied them to the Roman army. Thus, the army could have awarded them citizenship when it was camped in the region at that time.

Every Roman citizen had three names: a praenomen (first name), a nomen (family name), and a cognomen (surname). The New Testament only records Paul's cognomen, which was Paulus. If records existed for his nomen, then we would have some knowledge of how he obtained his citizenship. For example, if Paul's father had received his citizenship from Antony, his name would have been Marcus Antonius Paulus.

Since Paul was a Roman citizen by birth, his father or a family representative would have registered his birth within 30 days at the city record office, which would have entered Paul's name in the city's official register. His father then received a certified copy in the form of a hinged tablet. This certificate stood as legal evidence a person had Roman citizenship. Paul would have needed this tablet as evidence to back up his claims of citizenship because it is unlikely others would simply take his word for it (Acts 16:35-40; 22:22-29).

Paul's Jewish name was Saul, and likely he was called this in honor of Israel's first king, who came from the tribe of Benjamin, just as Paul did (Romans 11:1; Philippians 3:5). This fact raises the questions: How did Paul's family end up in Tarsus, and how did he eventually settle in Jerusalem? Jerome, a Patristic church father, says Paul's family originated in Gischala in Galilee and then immigrated to Tarsus at the time of the Roman conquest in the first century BC. Since Paul identifies his family as Hebrew, it means they spoke Aramaic and Hebrew in addition to Greek. They did not simply blend into the culture, as did some other Jewish people in Asia Minor. When Paul appeared before the Sanhedrin (Acts 23:6), his family is identified as Pharisaic, which explains why he was sent to Jerusalem to study under Gamaliel, the most distinguished disciple of the famous rabbi, Hillel.

Paul's family likely sent him to Jerusalem at an early age, and he was only later influenced by the city of Tarsus. Luke gives this information in Acts 22:3. Paul says he is a Jew, born at Tarsus in Cilicia, brought up "here" (in Jerusalem), and educated at the feet of Gamaliel. Paul learned his lessons well. He writes that he was an advanced student in the traditions of his people (Galatians 1:14), meaning he had mastered written and oral law, observed it in detail, and had not intentionally or consciously violated any part of it (Philippians 3:6).

The Jewish Talmud may refer to Paul when it remarks that an unnamed pupil had exhibited "impudence in matters of learning" (Shabbat 30b). If this reference is to Paul, then it views him as possessing an inadequate understanding of the law (as evident in his gospel teaching) despite his early studies. Such a reference also points to Paul's broad influence. Likely, he was ordained as a rabbi prior to his ministry of the gospel since he received authority to extradite Jewish followers of Jesus in Damascus back to Jerusalem. To qualify for such a position, Paul would have had to show a comprehensive knowledge of the written and oral law, understand the "disciples of the wise," and be at least 40 years old (Acts 7:58).

Paul's experience on the road to Damascus is critical for understanding his letters. This event was so important that Luke retells it three times in Acts: once in his own third-person description of Paul's encounter with the risen and glorified Jesus (9:1-19); once in Paul's first person account when confronted by the crowd in Jerusalem (22:2-16); and once in Paul's first person account during his legal proceeding before King Agrippa (26:1-24).

Jesus had died by crucifixion and, thus, was under the curse of God (Deuteronomy 21:23). To Paul prior to his conversion, this meant Jesus could not be the Messiah upon whom God's blessing rested. Therefore, to say that Jesus was Messiah was blasphemous. Yet Jesus, the Crucified One, had appeared to him. How then could he be both cursed and raised from the dead?

After Paul's experience on the road to Damascus, he went to Arabia (Galatians 1:17). Possibly, this means Paul went to Mount Sinai, the place where God made His great revelation to Moses and the Israelites. Though tradition places the location of Mount Sinai in Egypt, some scholars believe it could be in Arabia. When Paul returned from Mount Sinai, he hid from the Arabian King Aretas in Damascus and later escaped by climbing over the wall of the city (2 Corinthians 11:32-33). Paul had become a fugitive because he began to preach that Jesus was the "Son of God" who was crucified and raised to life (Acts 9:20-22). He then traveled to Jerusalem to meet with Peter and eventually returned to Tarsus. For the next several years, the Bible does not record Paul's activities, but it would be a mistake to think he was inactive. He continued to preach the gospel (Galatians 1:22-24), and it was during this time that Paul had a vision of the "third heaven" (2 Corinthians 12:1-10). Apparently, some of his hardships occurred during this period (2 Corinthians 11:23-27), probably resulting from his confrontation with Hellenistic culture and, in particular, Stoicism.

Paul was not only a traveler but also a letter writer. During this time period, private letters averaged less than 100 words, and literary letters like those written by Cicero and Seneca averaged 200 words. Papyrus (ancient paper) sheets were 9½ by 11½ inches (approximately 24 by 29 cm) in size and provided space for about 150-200 words. Thus, most letters were about one page long. The average length of Paul's letters, however, is 1,300 words, which represented a new literary form: they were longer than most letters, theological in content with an emphasis on the gospel, and addressed to communities rather than individuals. To say Paul was a letter writer, however, is not to say that he wrote every word of every letter. Usually, letters were dictated to a person called an amanuensis or "secretary" who used shorthand to capture the contents of the letters. This would have been true for Paul. For example, he names Tertius as a personal scribe for his letter to the Romans (16:22) and concludes most letters with final greetings in his own hand, indicating assistants wrote the remainder of the letters (1 Corinthians 16:21; Galatians 6:11; Colossians 4:18; 2 Thessalonians 3:17). This practice accounts for Paul's distinctive but varied vocabulary and style. It also explains some incomplete sentences and sudden breaks in thought, both of which indicate that his dictation was sometimes rapid and not easy to follow, and he would sometimes break off his dictation for reasons unknown to us.

Paul's letters reveal a flexible use of language in the service of the gospel. Several things can be said about the language of Paul's letters:

— His language is figurative and creative.

For example, he describes the church as a family (Ephesians 1:3-6), body (1 Corinthians 12:12-26), temple (1 Corinthians 3:16-17; Ephesians 2:20-21), and soldier (Ephesians 6:10-20). Not only does he use metaphor, but he also uses allegory (Galatians 4).

— His language is biblical.

Paul makes numerous biblical allusions and references throughout his letters, especially to the stories of Adam and the Exodus.

— His language is personal.

He writes out of his own experience and knowledge (2 Corinthians 13; Romans 7).

— His language is forceful.

He writes with emotion and declares at different times, "Of course not!" (Romans 7:7). To the Galatians, he writes, "I just wish that those troublemakers . . . would mutilate themselves" (Galatians 5:12).

PAUL THE APOSTLE

Ten perspectives on the “least of all the apostles,” Paul’s own self-description (1 Corinthians 15:9), may be drawn from autobiographical comments he makes in his letters and in those made by Luke in the book of Acts.

A Pupil of Scripture

Paul quoted from Scripture, interpreted Scripture, and applied Scripture to the real-life situations of the churches he founded based on his education (Acts 22).

A Proper Hebrew

Paul was blameless toward the law and its traditions. He followed the traditions of his ancestors and remained orthodox in his Jewish faith (Galatians 1:14; Philippians 3:4–6).

He Peered into Heaven

Paul saw God’s glory and the glorified Jesus (Acts 9; 18:9–10; 22; 26:19) as well as the glories of heaven (2 Corinthians 12:1–10). He also received divine direction (Acts 16:6–10). Paul’s visions of Jesus, a beckoning man, and the third heaven link him with biblical figures like Isaiah, Ezekiel, Zechariah, and Daniel.

A Proud Apostle

Paul’s pride was not in his own accomplishments. He boasted only in the Lord Jesus (2 Corinthians 11:16–12:10) and preached “Christ was crucified” throughout his ministry (1 Corinthians 1:18–25).

He Planted God’s Word

Paul planted the Word of God in the middle of God’s field (1 Corinthians 3:5–9), and the Holy Spirit validated the Good News he proclaimed (Romans 8).

A Man of Prayer

Paul persistently prayed for God’s people (2 Timothy 1:3; 1 Thessalonians 1:2; Colossians 1:3, 9; Philippians 1:4; Ephesians 1:16; 1 Corinthians 1:4; Romans 1:10), and he encouraged them to pray as well (1 Timothy 2; 1 Thessalonians 5:17; Colossians 4:2; Ephesians 6:18).

A Persecuted Apostle

Paul encountered opposition to the gospel in the same way he opposed it before his encounter with the glorified Jesus on the Road to Damascus (Galatians 1:13; Philippians 3:6; Acts 9:1; 2 Corinthians 6:3-13; 11:16-29; 2 Timothy 4:6).

A Prisoner of Christ

Paul was placed in chains for preaching the Good News of Jesus (Philemon; Philippians 1:7, 12-14; Ephesians 3:1, 13; 4:1).

He Pressed Towards the Prize

Paul did not give up despite the hardships he experienced (Philippians 3:12-16; 2 Timothy 4:7).

A Man Content with God's Provision

Paul trusted God to provide for his life (2 Corinthians 12:7-10; Philippians 4:11-13).

BOTH PERSECUTOR AND PERSECUTED

The initial words the glorified Jesus spoke to Paul concerned persecution: "Why are you persecuting me?" (Acts 9:4-5). The Greek word diōkhō is the same word Paul uses to identify himself as one who persecuted the church and thereby Jesus in several of his letters. In four different letters, he describes himself as a persecutor of the church. It was a primary way Paul viewed his former life (Galatians 1:13; Philippians 3:6; 1 Timothy 1:13; 1 Corinthians 15:9).

Paul understood Jesus to say that any actions against the Church represent actions against Jesus Himself. Jesus personally and directly identified with His persecuted followers. As the Son of Man, Jesus identified with men and women in the same manner as Ezekiel, who lived among the Judean exiles in Babylon. Ezekiel identified with them as "son of man." Jesus anticipated this eventuality when He exhorted the disciples to rejoice in suffering for the sake of His name (Matthew 5:10-11). How are the disciples blessed, according to Jesus' Beatitudes? They are blessed because they are in unity with Jesus. Persecution is part of the disciples' experience (Matthew 10:23).

Jesus' followers will experience persecution just as Paul does. They will receive the same rejection as the prophets. Prophets such as Jeremiah and Amos were persecuted because they proclaimed the message of God to people who did not want to hear it. Jeremiah announced God's judgment against Judah, and Amos did so earlier against Israel. Often, persecution takes the form of a negative response by people to the word God speaks to them.

Paul experienced persecution as a disciple of Jesus even as Jesus experienced persecution (Galatians 5:11; 2 Timothy 3:11), but to experience persecution also means to experience Jesus' strength and power (2 Corinthians 4:7-18; 12:10; Romans 8:35-39). For Paul, persecution often resulted in imprisonment. The Greek word for prison is desmos, and a prisoner is a desmios. These words refer to chains. To be in prison was to be bound with chains, and to be a prisoner meant to wear chains. Paul repeatedly used these terms in his letter to Philemon, as well as to the Philippians, Ephesians (3:1, 13; 4:1), and Timothy. During much of his ministry, Paul lived with chains on his body. Yet he never referred to himself as a prisoner of Rome but always as a prisoner of the Lord Jesus. The gospel, not Rome, chained Paul.

THE GOSPEL IN PAUL'S WRITINGS

JOHN HUNTZINGER, PHD

Paul's gospel, or his theology of the Good News, flows through all his letters. It is deeply rooted in both the soil of Scripture and Paul's own experience. He emphasizes the love of God, fulfillment by the Spirit of God, and the ultimate goal of the new creation through Jesus, the Son of God.

THE LOVE OF GOD

Jesus says the first commandment is to love God with all of your heart, soul, and mind. The second commandment, which completes the first, is to love your neighbor as yourself. In Jesus' estimation, loving God and loving your neighbor represent the totality of God's law. When a Temple scribe publicly agreed with Jesus' teaching that loving God and neighbor is better than whole burnt offerings and sacrifices, Jesus said the scribe was wise. He said the man was not far from the Kingdom of God (Mark 12:28-34).

Jesus' response to the scribe draws upon two passages in the Old Testament. The first, to love God with all of yourself, is found in Deuteronomy 6. This portion of Scripture is known as the Shema, which means 'listen,' and is the first Hebrew word in this passage. It also represents the foundation statement of Israel's religious faith. Because God is One, His people must respond to Him with one purpose and one focus. They must love Him with all of their beings, even as He has loved them. The second passage, to love your neighbor, is found in Leviticus 19. This chapter lists a series of moral laws and for the most part, repeats the Ten Commandments. Not only are people required to love their neighbors, but they also must love the stranger who comes into the community (Leviticus 19:18, 34).

Paul's writings reaffirm Jesus' understanding of the law. In Galatians 5, Paul upholds the relationship of law and love. Concerned that the Galatians are giving in to others' teaching on circumcision, Paul admonishes them to live in the freedom of the cross. This freedom comes as a result of Jesus' death and resurrection. Jesus gave it to them so they may serve and love one another. This is the gospel, and it represents the very essence of the law (Galatians 5:14). Paul continues by saying that the "law of Christ" is fulfilled when people bear one another's burdens (6:2). Paul's comment helps us see Jesus through Paul's own eyes. Jesus' life of obedience and sacrifice on behalf of others represents the embodiment of the law. This law, according to Paul, can be fulfilled only as believers share the burdens of others, which is another way of showing love for them.

Paul's first letter to the Corinthians contains his most extensive remarks on love (1 Corinthians 13). Paul notes that love must be the attitude believers have in their speech, understanding, and actions (13:1-3). He then defines love as being directed to the other person and not toward yourself (13:4-5). It anticipates the continuing work of God among His people (13:6-7). At the end of all things, only love will remain. Thus, love is just as necessary to the ministry gifts of the Spirit as it is vital to the life found in God's law.

THE SPIRIT

Paul is not only a man of Scripture, but he also is a man of the Spirit. He was first filled with the Holy Spirit when Ananias prayed for him: "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road, has sent me so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit" (Acts 9:17). Because of the Spirit's presence, what appear to be scales fall from Paul's eyes, and he sees again, though truly for the first time. His renewed sight represents a transformation in Paul's understanding of God's purpose and ways. With the help of the Spirit, Paul will now be able to understand the mystery of God—joining Jews and Gentiles in relationship to one another as one new man (Ephesians 2:11-13:13).

While Paul is filled with the Spirit, the Roman centurion Cornelius experiences the falling of the Spirit (Acts 10:45). Being filled with the Spirit and experiencing the fall of the Spirit are equivalent events. The filling and falling of the Spirit has to do with the power of the gospel. For Paul, to be filled with the Spirit means God has enabled him to go to Jews and Gentiles in the knowledge and power of the gospel, despite the suffering that it will bring (Acts 9:16). For Cornelius, to have the Spirit fall means he experiences the power of the gospel to worship God with understanding (Acts 10:1-2).

Paul's instruction on "spiritual matters" in 1 Corinthians 12 relates the Holy Spirit to Jesus:—First, the Spirit is linked to the Lord and to God. Paul identifies the Holy Spirit with Jesus (the Son) and God (the Father).—Second, the Holy Spirit declares Jesus. A primary responsibility of the Spirit is to make Jesus known.

— Third, Paul uses the image of a human body for describing God's people as the present manifestation of Jesus in the power of the Spirit. Charismata or spiritual gifts are given for the common good of the whole body (12:7).

Whenever Paul describes the Church as the body of Christ, he also describes the gifts the body possesses (Ephesians 4; Romans 12; 1 Corinthians 12). The Spirit energizes the body to serve in the same way Jesus served when He ministered among His disciples. For Paul, this means that the Spirit is given to proclaim the Good News of the Kingdom of God and to serve others. This is a common theme in Paul's writing. In Philippians, for example, the people are to look to the interests of others by having the mind of Christ in the Holy Spirit. The mind of Christ is one of service, and such a mind and life gives glory to God (Philippians 2). The ministry of members of the body of Christ represents the ministry of Jesus Himself and is done for the benefit of other people.

THE NEW CREATION

Paul's gospel begins and ends with the death and resurrection of Jesus. It also places Jesus at the beginning of all things and looks forward to His work at the end. In several of his letters, Paul places Jesus and His ministry against the background of the Creation story of Genesis 1-3. Paul insists that Jesus was in the beginning and was involved in creation as God's Word (Colossians 1:15-20). For this reason, Jesus brings about the new creation by reconciling people to God (2 Corinthians 5:11-21). He is able to do this because He was obedient to God and through such obedience, He was able to take His place over the creation. He fulfilled what Adam did not (Philippians 2:5-11).

Paul writes that the problem of sin is age-old, and people today are faced with the same temptation as Adam. The antidote is the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus. Life in harmony with this law enables people to reveal the new man for which all creation longs (Romans 7:6-8:30). Jesus is the Second Adam, who provides hope through His resurrection from the dead. When we are "in" Him, we share in His death to the old man and in His resurrection of the new (1 Corinthians 15:20-28).

The Scripture passages listed above speak of reconciliation and transformation. The work of new creation brings people into relationship with God as they were in the beginning, as well as in relationship with one another and with all of creation. This creation includes the angelic beings who serve God. All creation cries out for Adam to be restored to his original place so that God's original intention may be completed. What is God's intention? He desires the unification of all things under the benevolent rule of the Second Adam (Jesus) to the glory and majesty of God Himself (Psalm 8).

ROMANS

ION HUNTZINGER, PHD

Those who study Paul's letter to the Romans have seen it as Paul's sermon on righteousness by faith. However, a better description might be Paul's sermon on the gospel because he emphasizes God's love, life in God's Spirit, and the new creation ministry of Jesus. Paul wrote the letter about AD 56 from Corinth to introduce himself and his message of Good News to the church at Rome. Meanwhile, he collected funds for the church in Jerusalem in anticipation of a trip there afterward.

Paul's letter to the Romans includes the following sections:

- An introduction and a summary of his gospel as God's righteousness or means of relationship with Him (1:1-17)
- A discussion of the gospel as righteousness that comes through faith (1:18-4:25)
- A discussion of the gospel as power that results in salvation (5:1-8:39)
- A discussion of the gospel and Israel (9:1-11:36)
- Practical advice on how to show the gospel in one's life (12:1-15:14)
- A brief description of his own plans, personal greetings, and a benediction or closing prayer for his readers (15:16-16:27)

NOT ASHAMED OF THE GOSPEL

In Paul's introduction (1:1-17), he recalls several key elements of the gospel's message, including the fact that Jesus was descended from David in the flesh (emphasizing Jesus' humanity), that Jesus was resurrected from the dead by God, and that the prophets foretold this saving work of God through Jesus. At the conclusion of these verses, Paul says he is not ashamed of the gospel because it is God's power to save (1:16). When he says this, he alludes to Jesus' crucifixion, which would have been a difficult teaching for Jewish and Gentile Romans, for whom crucifixion was a sign of shame and criminality. Paul then adds, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life" (1:17). He takes this phrase from the book of Habakkuk, where God tells His prophet to trust in His ways, even though those ways are often difficult to understand. Specifically, the prophet refers to God's choice of the Babylonians, an idolatrous and hard people, to bring judgment to Israel. This word from Habakkuk was as inconceivable to the Judeans at that time as the use of the cross to bring salvation was to the Romans during Paul's time. Nonetheless, Paul says the Romans must hold on to this truth because the cross is at the heart of the gospel.

GOSPEL AND LAW

The Roman people were a people of laws. They were proud of the roads, aqueducts, and public buildings they had built throughout the empire, which gave physical shape to their environment and served their material needs. However, they were also proud of the society they had built upon a system of laws that gave order to their lives and met their intellectual, emotional, and social needs. Paul understood this pride, so he expounds upon the gospel by focusing on the law (nomos)—the commandments God gave to Moses for the people to live in relationship with Him. He also addresses the disruptive nature of sin and Jesus, who has made a way to God possible through His death. In all, the letter to the Romans represents a brief outline of the history of gospel and law from Adam to Abraham to Moses to the present.

In tracing this history, Paul writes about the law of faith (3:27), the law of the mind (7:23), the law of sin (7:23), and the law of the Spirit of life (8:2). By using the vocabulary of law, Paul gripped the imagination of the Romans, for whom law was the definitive way they understood their culture. It was a reality for them and governed all aspects of their lives. To describe faith as a law was a way for Paul to help Roman readers (Jewish and Gentile) see faith as not merely conceptual or subjective but also as a spiritual reality. For Paul to write about the law of the mind is to show that the mind is real and operates in specific ways. When he writes about the law of sin, he asserts that it, too, is real and operates according to patterns. And to write about the law of the Spirit is to declare that the Spirit of God is real and moves and ministers in specific ways related to who He is.

NO CONDEMNATION

Early in his letter, Paul describes the need for the gospel. Though God has revealed Himself in creation to people created in His image, they have turned away from His revelation to pursue their own desires (1:18-32). Nonetheless, Paul later says, "there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus" (8:1). The removal of condemnation is the central blessing of the gospel. People do not need to live in fear of death and God's judgment due to the power of sin in their lives—condemnation—because Jesus has delivered them. "Who will free me from this life that is dominated by sin and death?" Paul asks. Then he answers, "Thank God! The answer is in Jesus Christ our Lord" (7:24–25). By submitting to death and being raised to life, Jesus has secured victory for those who join themselves to Him.

THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT

Even though Paul affirms the positive place of the law in the life of God's people throughout the letter, he observes that sin seized an opportunity when the law was given to "arouse all kinds of covetous desires within me!" (7:8). He says, "Sin took advantage of those commands and deceived me; it used the commands to kill me" (7:11). Paul recalls the story of Eve when the serpent enticed her to eat the fruit of the tree of knowledge. God's commandment to Adam and Eve was that they not eat the fruit of that tree. To do so would result in death. The serpent encouraged a desire in Eve to eat from the tree, which she later describes as deception. She was deceived into eating from the tree and thus experienced death. By referring to sin in a way that alludes to the serpent of the garden, Paul indicates that he views sin more as a personified power than an abstract concept.

Paul says that sin (a personified power) took what was good (the commandment meant for Adam's welfare) and used it to bring death into the life of Adam and his descendants. Paul then says that as a descendant, he has been "a slave to sin," meaning he lives under the rule of a power to which he has submitted. He has become a slave, and his only hope is deliverance by a stronger power. This stronger power is the Spirit who raised Jesus from the dead and gives life in place of death to His followers (8:1–11). The Spirit pours God's love into their hearts and fills them with joy, peace, and hope by His power (5:5; 14:17; 15:13, 30), even as He purifies them and makes them holy (2:29; 7:6; 8:2, 13; 15:13, 16).

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, chosen by God to be an apostle and sent out to preach his Good News. <sup>2</sup> God promised this Good News long ago through his prophets in the holy Scriptures. <sup>3</sup> The Good News is about his Son. In his earthly life he was born into King David's family line, <sup>4</sup> and he was shown to be* the Son of God when he was raised from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>5</sup> He is Jesus Christ our Lord. <sup>6</sup> Through Christ, God has given us the privilege* and authority as apostles to tell Gentiles everywhere what God has done for them, so that they will believe and obey him, bringing glory to his name.

<sup>6</sup> And you are included among those Gentiles who have been called to belong to Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup> I am writing to all of you in Rome who are loved by God and are called to be his own holy people.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

GOD'S GOOD NEWS

<sup>8</sup> Let me say first that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith in him is being talked about all over the world. <sup>9</sup> God knows how often I pray for you. Day and night I bring you and your needs in prayer to God, whom I serve with all my heart* by spreading the Good News about his Son.

<sup>10</sup> One of the things I always pray for is the opportunity, God willing, to come at last to see you. <sup>11</sup> For I long to visit you so I can bring you some spiritual gift that will help you grow strong in the Lord. <sup>12</sup> When we get together, I want to encourage you in your faith, but I also want to be encouraged by yours.

<sup>13</sup> I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters,* that I planned many times to visit you, but I was prevented until now. I want to work among you and see spiritual fruit, just as I have seen among other Gentiles. <sup>14</sup> For I have a great sense of obligation to people in both the civilized world and the rest of the world,* to the educated and uneducated alike. <sup>15</sup> So I am eager to come to you in Rome, too, to preach the Good News.

<sup>16</sup> For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.* <sup>17</sup> This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life."*

GOD'S ANGER AT SIN

<sup>18</sup> But God shows his anger from heaven against all sinful, wicked people who suppress the truth by their wickedness.* <sup>19</sup> They know the truth about God because he has made it obvious to them.

<sup>20</sup> For ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse for not knowing God.

<sup>21</sup> Yes, they knew God, but they wouldn't worship him as God or even give him thanks. And they began to think up foolish ideas of what God

TO THE JEW FIRST

Romans 1:16

ROBERT MORRIS

God's heart is for world evangelism. He wants to see the whole world saved. At Gateway Church, we take the gospel to the world by taking it to the Jew first. Even in our first year as a church, we began sowing very heavily into Jewish evangelism. And by God's grace, we have been able to take the gospel all over the world.

Our Shabbat Service is the first service we have every month, even before our weekend services. Paul writes, "For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile" (Romans 1:16, emphasis added). This is a principle on which Gateway Church is built.

Even Jesus made it a priority to take the gospel to the Jew first (Matthew 15:24). Everywhere Paul traveled, he always took the gospel to the Jew first. He spent the first three months in Ephesus preaching in the synagogue before he went to the rest of the city (Acts 19:8). All throughout the book of Acts, Paul never stopped going to the Jews. He knew that this was God's order. God wants the whole world saved, and He has a specific way to do it—by taking the gospel to the Jew first.

was like. As a result, their minds became dark and confused.<sup>22</sup> Claiming to be wise, they instead became utter fools.<sup>23</sup> And instead of worshipping the glorious, ever-living God, they worshiped idols made to look like mere people and birds and animals and reptiles.

<sup>24</sup>So God abandoned them to do whatever shameful things their hearts desired. As a result, they did vile and degrading things with each other's bodies.<sup>25</sup> They traded the truth about God for a lie. So they worshiped and served the things God created instead of the Creator himself, who is worthy of eternal praise! Amen.<sup>26</sup> That is why God abandoned them to their shameful desires. Even the women turned against the natural way to have sex and instead indulged in sex with each other.<sup>27</sup> And the men, instead of having normal sexual relations with women, burned with lust for each other. Men did shameful things with other men, and as a result of this sin, they suffered within themselves the penalty they deserved.

<sup>28</sup>Since they thought it foolish to acknowledge God, he abandoned them to their foolish thinking and let them do things that should never be done.<sup>29</sup> Their lives became full of every kind of wickedness, sin, greed, hate, envy, murder, quarreling, deception, malicious behavior, and gossip.<sup>30</sup> They are backstabbers, haters of God, insolent, proud, and boastful. They invent new ways of

A TOUGH QUESTION

Romans 1:18–20

ROBERT MORRIS

People often ask, "How could a loving God send a person to hell?" Some ask this in an accusatory way, but other people simply want to understand. To answer this tough question, we must first understand two aspects of God's character:

1. He is always just.

There will never be any injustice in God or any of His judgments. Since the beginning of time, God has revealed Himself to every person, both internally and externally (Romans 1:19–20). Every person is born with a God-given conscience, which gives them guidance about right and wrong. Scripture says creation itself is proof of God's existence. No one can ever say, "Well, no one told me about God" because God will say, "I told you." Every person who makes an effort to seek God will find Him (Proverbs 8:17; Jeremiah 29:13; Matthew 7:7–8).

2. He is always loving.

God did not create hell for people. Hell was created for Satan and the fallen angels who rebelled with him (Matthew 25:41). However, like Satan, Adam and Eve rebelled against God. This rebellion was an inexcusable rejection of a perfect, loving God, and sadly, this rebellion has affected all humanity! God sent Jesus to pay for our sins so no one else would have to go to hell, but He still gives us a free will. We can choose to love God and spend eternity with Him, or we can choose to reject God and spend eternity away from Him. The real question isn't "Why would a loving God send a person to hell?" Instead, it's "Why would anyone reject a loving God?"

sinning, and they disobey their parents.<sup>31</sup> They refuse to understand, break their promises, are heartless, and have no mercy.<sup>32</sup> They know God's justice requires that those who do these things deserve to die, yet they do them anyway. Worse yet, they encourage others to do them, too.

GOD'S JUDGMENT OF SIN

2 You may think you can condemn such people, but you are just as bad, and you have no excuse! When you say they are wicked and should be punished, you are condemning yourself, for you who judge others do these very same things.<sup>2</sup> And we know that God, in his justice, will punish anyone who does such things.<sup>3</sup> Since you judge others for doing these things, why do you think you can avoid God's judgment when you do the same things? <sup>4</sup>Don't you see how wonderfully kind, tolerant, and patient God is with you? Does this mean nothing to you? Can't you see that his kindness is intended to turn you from your sin?

<sup>5</sup> But because you are stubborn and refuse to turn from your sin, you are storing up terrible punishment for yourself. For a day of anger is coming, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. <sup>6</sup> He will judge everyone according to what they have done. <sup>7</sup> He will give eternal life to those who keep on doing good, seeking after the glory and honor and immortality that God offers. <sup>8</sup> But he will pour out his anger and wrath on those who live for themselves, who refuse to obey the truth and instead live lives of wickedness. <sup>9</sup> There will be trouble and calamity for everyone who keeps on doing what is evil—for the Jew first and also for the Gentile.* <sup>10</sup> But there will be glory and honor and peace from God for all who do good—for the Jew first and also for the Gentile. <sup>11</sup> For God does not show favoritism.

<sup>12</sup> When the Gentiles sin, they will be destroyed, even though they never had God's written law. And the Jews, who do have God's law, will be judged by that law when they fail to obey it. <sup>13</sup> For merely listening to the law doesn't make us right with God. It is obeying the law that makes us right in his sight. <sup>14</sup> Even Gentiles, who do not have God's written law, show that they know his law when they instinctively obey it, even without having heard it. <sup>15</sup> They demonstrate that God's law is written in their hearts, for their own conscience and thoughts either accuse them or tell them they are doing right. <sup>16</sup> And this is the message I proclaim—that the day is coming when God, through Christ Jesus, will judge everyone's secret life.

THE JEWS AND THE LAW

<sup>17</sup> You who call yourselves Jews are relying on God's law, and you boast about your special relationship with him. <sup>18</sup> You know what he wants; you know what is right because you have been taught his law. <sup>19</sup> You are convinced that you are a guide for the blind and a light for people who are lost in darkness. <sup>20</sup> You think you can instruct the ignorant and teach children the ways of God. For you are certain that God's law gives you complete knowledge and truth.

<sup>21</sup> Well then, if you teach others, why don't you teach yourself? You tell others not to steal, but do you steal? <sup>22</sup> You say it is wrong to commit adultery, but do you commit adultery? You condemn idolatry, but do you use items stolen from pagan temples? <sup>23</sup> You are so proud of knowing the law, but you dishonor God by breaking it. <sup>24</sup> No wonder the Scriptures say, "The Gentiles blaspheme the name of God because of you."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>25</sup> The Jewish ceremony of circumcision has value only if you obey God's law. But if you don't obey God's law, you are no better off than an uncircumcised Gentile. <sup>26</sup> And if the Gentiles obey God's law, won't God declare them to be his own people? <sup>27</sup> In fact, uncircumcised Gentiles who keep God's law will condemn you Jews who are circumcised and possess God's law but don't obey it.

<sup>28</sup> For you are not a true Jew just because you were born of Jewish parents or because you have gone through the ceremony of circumcision. <sup>29</sup> No, a true Jew is one whose heart is right with God. And true circumcision is not merely obeying the letter of the law; rather, it is a change of heart produced by the Spirit. And a person with a changed heart seeks praise* from God, not from people.

GOD REMAINS FAITHFUL

3 Then what's the advantage of being a Jew? Is there any value in the ceremony of circumcision? <sup>2</sup> Yes, there are great benefits! First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the whole revelation of God.*

<sup>3</sup> True, some of them were unfaithful; but just because they were unfaithful, does that mean God will be unfaithful? <sup>4</sup> Of course not! Even if everyone else is a liar, God is true. As the Scriptures say about him,

"You will be proved right in what you say, and you will win your case in court."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>5</sup> "But," some might say, "our sinfulness serves a good purpose, for it helps people see how righteous God is. Isn't it unfair, then, for him to punish us?" (This is merely a human point of view.) <sup>6</sup> Of course not! If God were not entirely fair, how would he be qualified to judge the world? <sup>7</sup> "But," someone might still argue, "how can God condemn me as a sinner if my dishonesty highlights his truthfulness and brings him more glory?" <sup>8</sup> And some people even slander us by claiming that we say, "The more we sin, the better it is!" Those who say such things deserve to be condemned.

ALL PEOPLE ARE SINNERS

<sup>9</sup> Well then, should we conclude that we Jews are better than others? No, not at all, for we have already shown that all people, whether Jews or Gentiles,* are under the power of sin. <sup>10</sup> As the Scriptures say,

"No one is righteous—not even one.

<sup>11</sup> No one is truly wise;
no one is seeking God.

<sup>12</sup> All have turned away;
all have become useless.

No one does good,
not a single one."<sup>a</sup>

Their tongues are filled with lies."

"Snake venom drips from their lips."<sup>9</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Obviously, the law applies to those to whom it was given, for its purpose is to keep people from having excuses, and to show that the entire world is guilty before God. <sup>20</sup>For no one can ever be made right with God by doing what the law commands. The law simply shows us how sinful we are.

CHRIST TOOK OUR PUNISHMENT

<sup>21</sup>But now God has shown us a way to be made right with him without keeping the requirements of the law, as was promised in the writings of Moses* and the prophets long ago. <sup>22</sup>We are made right with God by placing our faith in Jesus Christ. And this is true for everyone who believes, no matter who we are.

<sup>23</sup>For everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard. <sup>24</sup>Yet God, in his grace, freely makes us right in his sight. He did this through Christ Jesus when he freed us from the penalty for our sins. <sup>25</sup>For God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin. People are made right with God when they believe that Jesus sacrificed his life, shedding his blood. This sacrifice shows that God was being fair when he held back and did not punish those who sinned in times past, <sup>26</sup>for he was looking ahead and including them in what he would do in this present time. God did this to demonstrate his righteousness, for he himself is fair and just, and he makes sinners right in his sight when they believe in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>Can we boast, then, that we have done anything to be accepted by God? No, because our acquittal is not based on obeying the law. It is based on faith. <sup>28</sup>So we are made right with God through faith and not by obeying the law.

<sup>29</sup>After all, is God the God of the Jews only? Isn't he also the God of the Gentiles? Of course he is. <sup>30</sup>There is only one God, and he makes people right with himself only by faith, whether they are Jews or Gentiles.* <sup>31</sup>Well then, if we emphasize faith, does this mean that we can forget about the law? Of course not! In fact, only when we have faith do we truly fulfill the law.

THE FAITH OF ABRAHAM

4 Abraham was, humanly speaking, the founder of our Jewish nation. What did he discover about being made right with God? <sup>2</sup>If his good deeds had made him acceptable to God, he would have had something to boast about. But that was not God's way. <sup>3</sup>For the Scriptures tell us, "Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith."<sup>4</sup>

THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF GRACE

Romans 4:1-5

ROBERT MORRIS

Many believers fall prey to legalism, which puts our focus on what we do, how we perform, and how those around us perform. However, God's grace is not just for salvation. It's for each and every day of our lives.

In Romans 4, the apostle Paul shares Abraham's secret to being made right with God: "Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith" (v. 3).

1. What is righteousness?

Is a man righteous because he does righteous things, or does he do righteous things because he is righteous? Righteousness is "right standing with God." Romans 5:17 calls righteousness a "gift" from God, and "all who receive it will live in triumph over sin and death." I can never do enough "right" things to be righteous; it's just impossible. However, I do have right standing with God because I believe in Jesus. He alone is righteous.

2. Did Abraham earn it?

Romans 4:5 says, "People are counted as righteous, not because of their work, but because of their faith in God who forgives sinners." Abraham didn't earn righteousness, and neither can we. Romans 3:10 clearly says, "No one is righteous." The only way to receive the gift of righteousness is to believe and accept Jesus. When we do, God deposits His righteousness into our account.

3. What did Abraham have to do?

Abraham only had to do one thing: believe. Jesus told His followers, "This is the only work God wants from you: Believe in the one he has sent" (John 6:29). Abraham did not come from a "Christian" background when God called him, but he believed God. No matter what has happened in your life, you can believe God too.

<sup>4</sup>When people work, their wages are not a gift, but something they have earned. <sup>5</sup>But people are counted as righteous, not because of their work, but because of their faith in God who forgives sinners. <sup>6</sup>David also spoke of this when he described the happiness of those who are declared righteous without working for it:

<sup>8</sup> Yes, what joy for those whose record the LORD has cleared of sin."<sup>9</sup>

3:13 Pss 5:9 (Greek version); 140:3. 3:14 Ps 10:7 (Greek version).

3:15-17 Isa 59:7-8. 3:18 Ps 36:1. 3:21 Greek in the law.

3:30 Greek whether they are circumcised or uncircumcised.

4:3 Gen 15:6. 4:7-8 Ps 32:1-2 (Greek version).

<sup>9</sup>Now, is this blessing only for the Jews, or is it also for uncircumcised Gentiles?* Well, we have been saying that Abraham was counted as righteous by God because of his faith. <sup>10</sup>But how did this happen? Was he counted as righteous only after he was circumcised, or was it before he was circumcised? Clearly, God accepted Abraham before he was circumcised!

<sup>11</sup>Circumcision was a sign that Abraham already had faith and that God had already accepted him and declared him to be righteous—even before he was circumcised. So Abraham is the spiritual father of those who have faith but have not been circumcised. They are counted as righteous because of their faith. <sup>12</sup>And Abraham is also the spiritual father of those who have been circumcised, but only if they have the same kind of faith Abraham had before he was circumcised.

<sup>13</sup>Clearly, God's promise to give the whole earth to Abraham and his descendants was based not on his obedience to God's law, but on a right relationship with God that comes by faith. <sup>14</sup>If God's promise is only for those who obey the law, then faith is not necessary and the promise is pointless. <sup>15</sup>For the law always brings punishment on those who try to obey it. (The only way to avoid breaking the law is to have no law to break!)

<sup>16</sup>So the promise is received by faith. It is given as a free gift. And we are all certain to receive it, whether or not we live according to the law of Moses, if we have faith like Abraham's. For Abraham is the father of all who believe. <sup>17</sup>That is what the Scriptures mean when God told him, "I have made you the father of many nations."<sup>a</sup> This happened because Abraham believed in the God who brings the dead back to life and who creates new things out of nothing.

<sup>18</sup>Even when there was no reason for hope, Abraham kept hoping—believing that he would become the father of many nations. For God had said to him, "That's how many descendants you will have!"<sup>b</sup> <sup>19</sup>And Abraham's faith did not weaken, even though, at about 100 years of age, he figured his body was as good as dead—and so was Sarah's womb.

<sup>20</sup>Abraham never wavered in believing God's promise. In fact, his faith grew stronger, and in this he brought glory to God. <sup>21</sup>He was fully convinced that God is able to do whatever he promises. <sup>22</sup>And because of Abraham's faith, God counted him as righteous. <sup>23</sup>And when God counted him as righteous, it wasn't just for Abraham's benefit. It was recorded <sup>24</sup>for our benefit, too, assuring us that God will also count us as righteous if we believe in him, the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. <sup>25</sup>He was handed over to die because of our sins, and he was raised to life to make us right with God.

FAITH BRINGS JOY

5 Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace<sup>c</sup> with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us. <sup>2</sup>Because of our faith, Christ has brought us into this place of undeserved privilege where we now stand, and we confidently and joyfully look forward to sharing God's glory.

<sup>3</sup>We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance. <sup>4</sup>And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation. <sup>5</sup>And this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because he has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love.

<sup>6</sup>When we were utterly helpless, Christ came at just the right time and died for us sinners. <sup>7</sup>Now, most people would not be willing to die for an upright person, though someone might perhaps be willing to die for a person who is especially good. <sup>8</sup>But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners. <sup>9</sup>And since we have been made right in God's sight by the blood of Christ, he will certainly save us from God's condemnation. <sup>10</sup>For since our friendship with God was restored by the death of his Son while we were still his enemies, we will certainly be saved through the life of his Son. <sup>11</sup>So now we can rejoice in our wonderful new relationship with God because our Lord Jesus Christ has made us friends of God.

ADAM AND CHRIST CONTRASTED

<sup>12</sup>When Adam sinned, sin entered the world. Adam's sin brought death, so death spread to everyone, for everyone sinned. <sup>13</sup>Yes, people sinned even before the law was given. But it was not counted as sin because there was not yet any law to break. <sup>14</sup>Still, everyone died—from the time of Adam to the time of Moses—even those who did not disobey an explicit commandment of God, as Adam did. Now Adam is a symbol, a representation of Christ, who was yet to come. <sup>15</sup>But there is a great difference between Adam's sin and God's gracious gift. For the sin of this one man, Adam, brought death to many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of forgiveness to many through this other man, Jesus Christ. <sup>16</sup>And the result of God's gracious gift is very different from the result of that one man's sin. For Adam's sin led to condemnation, but God's free gift leads to our being made right with God, even though we are guilty of many sins. <sup>17</sup>For the sin of this one man, Adam, caused death to rule over many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of righteousness, for all who receive it will live in triumph over sin and death through this one man, Jesus Christ.

4:9 Greek is this blessing only for the circumcised, or is it also for the uncircumcised? 4:17 Gen 17:5. 4:18 Gen 15:5. 5:1 Some manuscripts read let us have peace.

<sup>18</sup> Yes, Adam's one sin brings condemnation for everyone, but Christ's one act of righteousness brings a right relationship with God and new life for everyone. <sup>19</sup> Because one person disobeyed God, many became sinners. But because one other person obeyed God, many will be made righteous.

<sup>20</sup> God's law was given so that all people could see how sinful they were. But as people sinned more and more, God's wonderful grace became more abundant. <sup>21</sup> So just as sin ruled over all people and brought them to death, now God's wonderful grace rules instead, giving us right standing with God and resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

SIN'S POWER IS BROKEN

6 Well then, should we keep on sinning so that God can show us more and more of his wonderful grace? <sup>2</sup> Of course not! Since we have died to sin, how can we continue to live in it? <sup>3</sup> Or have you forgotten that when we were joined with Christ Jesus in baptism, we joined him in his death? <sup>4</sup> For we died and were buried with Christ by baptism. And just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, now we also may live new lives.

<sup>5</sup> Since we have been united with him in his death, we will also be raised to life as he was. <sup>6</sup> We know that our old sinful selves were crucified with Christ so that sin might lose its power in our lives. We are no longer slaves to sin. <sup>7</sup> For when we died with Christ we were set free from the power of sin. <sup>8</sup> And since we died with Christ, we know we will also live with him. <sup>9</sup> We are sure of this because Christ was raised from the dead, and he will never die again. Death no longer has any power over him. <sup>10</sup> When he died, he died once to break the power of sin. But now that he lives, he lives for the glory of God. <sup>11</sup> So you also should consider yourselves to be dead to the power of sin and alive to God through Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup> Do not let sin control the way you live;* do not give in to sinful desires. <sup>13</sup> Do not let any part of your body become an instrument of evil to serve sin. Instead, give yourselves completely to God, for you were dead, but now you have new life. So use your whole body as an instrument to do what is right for the glory of God. <sup>14</sup> Sin is no longer your master, for you no longer live under the requirements of the law. Instead, you live under the freedom of God's grace.

<sup>15</sup> Well then, since God's grace has set us free from the law, does that mean we can go on sinning? Of course not! <sup>16</sup> Don't you realize that you become the slave of whatever you choose to obey? You can be a slave to sin, which leads to death, or you can choose to obey God, which leads to righteous living. <sup>17</sup> Thank God! Once you were slaves of sin, but now you wholeheartedly obey this teaching we have given you. <sup>18</sup> Now you are free from your slavery to sin, and you have become slaves to righteous living.

<sup>19</sup> Because of the weakness of your human nature, I am using the illustration of slavery to help you understand all this. Previously, you let yourselves be slaves to impurity and lawlessness, which led ever deeper into sin. Now you must give yourselves to be slaves to righteous living so that you will become holy.

<sup>20</sup> When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the obligation to do right. <sup>21</sup> And what was the result? You are now ashamed of the things you used to do, things that end in eternal doom. <sup>22</sup> But now you are free from the power of sin and have become slaves of God. Now you do those things that lead to holiness and result in eternal life. <sup>23</sup> For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord.

DELIVERANCE

JACK HAYFORD

Romans 6:23 says, "The wages of sin is death." Sin is the reason we need deliverance. Because all have sinned and come short of God's standard, there is no hope for humanity outside of Jesus. The name Jesus means 'Savior and Deliverer.' The whole message of the cross is that He delivered us from the penalty of sin.

In our world, sin manifests in the works of the flesh ("self"), the works of Satan, and sickness. You cannot cast your "self" out, but you can "put to death the sinful, earthly things lurking within you" (Colossians 3:5) and be crucified with Christ (Galatians 2:20). Though certainly not always the case, some sickness is the manifestation of a demonic presence. In every situation, we must ask the Holy Spirit for wisdom. We need to move with compassion as we diligently open God's Word and allow Jesus to be our final authority.

NO LONGER BOUND TO THE LAW

7 Now, dear brothers and sisters*—you who are familiar with the law—don't you know that the law applies only while a person is living? <sup>2</sup> For example, when a woman marries, the law binds her to her husband as long as he is alive. But if he dies, the laws of marriage no longer apply to her. <sup>3</sup> So while her husband is alive, she would be committing adultery if she married another man. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law and does not commit adultery when she remarries.

<sup>4</sup> So, my dear brothers and sisters, this is the point: You died to the power of the law when you died with Christ. And now you are united with the one who was raised from the dead. As a result, we can produce a harvest of good deeds for God. <sup>5</sup>When we were controlled by our old nature,* sinful desires were at work within us, and the law aroused these evil desires that produced a harvest of sinful deeds, resulting in death. <sup>6</sup>But now we have been released from the law, for we died to it and are no longer captive to its power. Now we can serve God, not in the old way of obeying the letter of the law, but in the new way of living in the Spirit.

GOD'S LAW REVEALS OUR SIN

<sup>7</sup>Well then, am I suggesting that the law of God is sinful? Of course not! In fact, it was the law that showed me my sin. I would never have known that coveting is wrong if the law had not said, "You must not covet."* <sup>8</sup>But sin used this command to arouse all kinds of covetous desires within me! If there were no law, sin would not have that power. <sup>9</sup>At one time I lived without understanding the law. But when I learned the command not to covet, for instance, the power of sin came to life, <sup>10</sup>and I died. So I discovered that the law's commands, which were supposed to bring life, brought spiritual death instead. <sup>11</sup>Sin took advantage of those commands and deceived me; it used the commands to kill me. <sup>12</sup>But still, the law itself is holy, and its commands are holy and right and good.

<sup>13</sup>But how can that be? Did the law, which is good, cause my death? Of course not! Sin used what was good to bring about my condemnation to death. So we can see how terrible sin really is. It uses God's good commands for its own evil purposes.

STRUGGLING WITH SIN

<sup>14</sup>So the trouble is not with the law, for it is spiritual and good. The trouble is with me, for I am all too human, a slave to sin. <sup>15</sup>I don't really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don't do it. Instead, I do what I hate. <sup>16</sup>But if I know that what I am doing is wrong, this shows that I agree that the law is good. <sup>17</sup>So I am not the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>18</sup>And I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature.* I want to do what is right, but I can't. <sup>19</sup>I want to do what is good, but I don't. I don't want to do what is wrong, but I do it anyway. <sup>20</sup>But if I do what I don't want to do, I am not really the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>21</sup>I have discovered this principle of life—that when I want to do what is right, I inevitably do what is wrong. <sup>22</sup>I love God's law with all my heart. <sup>23</sup>But there is another power* within me that is at war with my mind. This power makes me a slave to the sin that is still within me. <sup>24</sup>Oh, what a miserable person I am! Who will free me from this life that is dominated by sin and death?

<sup>25</sup>Thank God! The answer is in Jesus Christ our Lord. So you see how it is: In my mind I really want to obey God's law, but because of my sinful nature I am a slave to sin.

LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

8 So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>And because you belong to him, the power* of the life-giving Spirit has freed you* from the power of sin that leads to death. <sup>3</sup>The law of Moses was unable to save us because of the weakness of our sinful nature.* So God did what the law could not do. He sent his own Son in a body like the bodies we sinners have. And in that body God declared an end to sin's control over us by giving his Son as a sacrifice for our sins. <sup>4</sup>He did this so that the just requirement of the law would be fully satisfied for us, who no longer follow our sinful nature but instead follow the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup>Those who are dominated by the sinful nature think about sinful things, but those who are controlled by the Holy Spirit think about things that please the Spirit. <sup>6</sup>So letting your sinful nature control your mind leads to death. But letting the Spirit control your mind leads to life and peace. <sup>7</sup>For the sinful nature is always hostile to God. It never did obey God's laws, and it never will. <sup>8</sup>That's why those who are still under the control of their sinful nature can never please God.

<sup>9</sup>But you are not controlled by your sinful nature. You are controlled by the Spirit if you have the Spirit of God living in you. (And remember that those who do not have the Spirit of Christ living in them do not belong to him at all.) <sup>10</sup>And Christ lives within you, so even though your body will die because of sin, the Spirit gives you life* because you have been made right with God. <sup>11</sup>The Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from the dead, lives in you. And just as God raised Christ Jesus from the dead, he will give life to your mortal bodies by this same Spirit living within you.

<sup>12</sup>Therefore, dear brothers and sisters,* you have no obligation to do what your sinful nature urges you to do. <sup>13</sup>For if you live by its dictates, you will die. But if through the power of the Spirit you put to death the deeds of your sinful nature,* you will live. <sup>14</sup>For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children* of God.

<sup>15</sup>So you have not received a spirit that makes you fearful slaves. Instead, you received God's Spirit when he adopted you as his own children.* Now we call him, "Abba, Father."* <sup>16</sup>For his Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's

WHAT DOES “NO” MEAN?

Romans 8:1–3, 38–39

ROBERT MORRIS

When we say “no,” we don’t always mean it. I might say, “No dessert for me,” but if someone mentions ice cream, my answer quickly changes to “Yes, I’ll take two scoops!” Words are often relative to us, but when God says “no,” He really means no!

In Romans 8, the apostle Paul makes two bold “no” statements. First, he says, “There is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus” (v. 1). Then he concludes the chapter by saying, “Nothing can ever separate us from God’s love” (v. 38). No condemnation. No separation. Do you realize how different our lives would be if we actually believed this deep down in our hearts?

I’ve talked to many believers who respond to these verses with “Yeah, but . . .” They think they are somehow an exception to God’s incredible, unending grace. If we’re going to overcome the hurts, fears, and doubts that try to control our lives, we must decide we are going to believe God’s Word. So how much condemnation and separation? None! When the devil lies to you, stand firm and declare, No condemnation. No separation.

children.<sup>17</sup> And since we are his children, we are his heirs. In fact, together with Christ we are heirs of God’s glory. But if we are to share his glory, we must also share his suffering.

THE FUTURE GLORY

<sup>18</sup> Yet what we suffer now is nothing compared to the glory he will reveal to us later. <sup>19</sup> For all creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who his children really are.

<sup>20</sup> Against its will, all creation was subjected to God’s curse. But with eager hope, <sup>21</sup> the creation looks forward to the day when it will join God’s children in glorious freedom from death and decay. <sup>22</sup> For we know that all creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. <sup>23</sup> And we believers also groan, even though we have the Holy Spirit within us as a foretaste of future glory, for we long for our bodies to be released from sin and suffering. We, too, wait with eager hope for the day when God will give us our full rights as his adopted children,* including the new bodies he has promised us. <sup>24</sup> We were given this hope when we were saved. (If we already have something, we don’t need to hope* for it. <sup>25</sup> But if we look forward to something we don’t yet have, we must wait patiently and confidently.)

<sup>26</sup> And the Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness. For example, we don’t know what God wants us to pray for. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed in words.

FUELED BY HEAVEN

Romans 8:18–28

MARCUS BRECHEEN

To hope is “to anticipate (with pleasure) something better.” Hope is not based on conjecture or fantasy but upon the knowledge of the truth. In Romans 8:18–28, Paul encourages believers to live on earth with the hope of heaven clearly in focus. The Bible has a lot to say about heaven—not to threaten us with missing it but to deepen the hopeful excitement God intends for it to produce within us.

Glory is “the honor that results from a good opinion.” In heaven, God’s glory and who we are in Christ will be fully revealed. Misery, suffering, and sickness will be swallowed up in victory, and the people of God will live in the glorious freedom of Christ. God wants us to live each day on earth focused on this hope, understanding that He currently sees us as the beautiful, sanctified children whom we will fully become in heaven.

<sup>27</sup> And the Father who knows all hearts knows what the Spirit is saying, for the Spirit pleads for us believers* in harmony with God’s own will.

<sup>28</sup> And we know that God causes everything to work together* for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them.

<sup>29</sup> For God knew his people in advance, and he chose them to become like his Son, so that his Son would be the firstborn* among many brothers and sisters. <sup>30</sup> And having chosen them, he called them to come to him. And having called them, he gave them right standing with himself. And having given them right standing, he gave them his glory.

NOTHING CAN SEPARATE US FROM GOD’S LOVE

<sup>31</sup> What shall we say about such wonderful things as these? If God is for us, who can ever be against us? <sup>32</sup> Since he did not spare even his own Son but gave him up for us all, won’t he also give us everything else? <sup>33</sup> Who dares accuse us whom God has chosen for his own? No one—for God himself has given us right standing with himself. <sup>34</sup> Who then will condemn us? No one—for Christ Jesus died for us and was raised to life for us, and he is sitting in the place of honor at God’s right hand, pleading for us.

<sup>35</sup> Can anything ever separate us from Christ’s love? Does it mean he no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death? <sup>36</sup> (As the Scriptures say, “For your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep.”*) <sup>37</sup> No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us.

8:23 Greek wait anxiously for sonship. 8:24 Some manuscripts read wait. 8:27 Greek for God’s holy people. 8:28 Some manuscripts read And we know that everything works together. 8:29 Or would be supreme. 8:36 Ps 44:22.

<sup>38</sup> And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons,* neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love.<sup>39</sup> No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

GOD'S SELECTION OF ISRAEL

9 With Christ as my witness, I speak with utter truthfulness. My conscience and the Holy Spirit confirm it.<sup>2</sup> My heart is filled with bitter sorrow and unending grief<sup>3</sup> for my people, my Jewish brothers and sisters.* I would be willing to be forever cursed—cut off from Christ!—if that would save them.<sup>4</sup> They are the people of Israel, chosen to be God's adopted children.* God revealed his glory to them. He made covenants with them and gave them his law. He gave them the privilege of worshiping him and receiving his wonderful promises.<sup>5</sup> Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are their ancestors, and Christ himself was an Israelite as far as his human nature is concerned. And he is God, the one who rules over everything and is worthy of eternal praise! Amen.*

<sup>6</sup> Well then, has God failed to fulfill his promise to Israel? No, for not all who are born into the nation of Israel are truly members of God's people!<sup>7</sup> Being descendants of Abraham doesn't make them truly Abraham's children. For the Scriptures say, "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted,"<sup>8</sup> though Abraham had other children, too.<sup>9</sup> This means that Abraham's physical descendants are not necessarily children of God. Only the children of the promise are considered to be Abraham's children.<sup>9</sup> For God had promised, "I will return about this time next year, and Sarah will have a son."<sup>10</sup>

<sup>10</sup> This son was our ancestor Isaac. When he married Rebekah, she gave birth to twins.*<sup>11</sup> But before they were born, before they had done anything good or bad, she received a message from God. (This message shows that God chooses people according to his own purposes;<sup>12</sup> he calls people, but not according to their good or bad works.) She was told, "Your older son will serve your younger son."<sup>13</sup> In the words of the Scriptures, "I loved Jacob, but I rejected Esau."<sup>14</sup>

<sup>14</sup> Are we saying, then, that God was unfair? Of course not!<sup>15</sup> For God said to Moses,

"I will show mercy to anyone I choose, and I will show compassion to anyone
I choose."<sup>16</sup>

<sup>16</sup> So it is God who decides to show mercy. We can neither choose it nor work for it.

THE JEWS: GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE

Romans 9:1-5

JACK HAYFORD

When we come to Jesus, we are called to renounce sin and selfishness, not our nationality. Jews are often afraid they must relinquish their heritage to become Christians, but their heritage is important to our faith.

The reason for much unwarranted hate for the Jews is Satanic. The Jewish people are God's chosen people, though this role was neither sought nor earned. God made the sovereign choice. They are the people through whom He would reveal Himself to all humanity.

— Israel was to demonstrate being a blessed nation.

— The Jews were to preserve and multiply the nation.

— They had an awareness that God had something for them.

— They were awaiting a visitation.

— They were expectant that God had something more for them.

— They were to show the power of God to bring deliverance.

God has covenanted with Noah, Abraham, Moses, and Israel. He still loves the Jews today and has not forgotten His promises.

<sup>17</sup> For the Scriptures say that God told Pharaoh, "I have appointed you for the very purpose of displaying my power in you and to spread my fame throughout the earth."<sup>18</sup> So you see, God chooses to show mercy to some, and he chooses to harden the hearts of others so they refuse to listen.

<sup>19</sup> Well then, you might say, "Why does God blame people for not responding? Haven't they simply done what he makes them do?"

<sup>20</sup> No, don't say that. Who are you, a mere human being, to argue with God? Should the thing that was created say to the one who created it, "Why have you made me like this?"<sup>21</sup> When a potter makes jars out of clay, doesn't he have a right to use the same lump of clay to make one jar for decoration and another to throw garbage into?<sup>22</sup> In the same way, even though God has the right to show his anger and his power, he is very patient with those on whom his anger falls, who are destined for destruction.<sup>23</sup> He does this to make the riches of his glory shine even brighter on those to whom he shows mercy, who were prepared in advance for glory.<sup>24</sup> And we are among those whom he selected, both from the Jews and from the Gentiles.

8:38 Greek nor rulers. 9:3 Greek my brothers. 9:4 Greek chosen for sonship. 9:5 Or May God, the one who rules over everything, be praised forever, Amen. 9:7 Gen 21:12. 9:9 Gen 18:10, 14. 9:10 Greek she conceived children through this one man. 9:12 Gen 25:23. 9:13 Mal 1:2-3. 9:15 Exod 33:19. 9:17 Exod 9:16 (Greek version).

“Those who were not my people,
I will now call my people.
And I will love those whom I did not love before.”*

<sup>26</sup>And,

“Then, at the place where they were told,
‘You are not my people,’ there they will be called ‘children of the living God.’”*

<sup>27</sup>And concerning Israel, Isaiah the prophet cried out, “Though the people of Israel are as numerous as the sand of the seashore, only a remnant will be saved.

<sup>28</sup>For the LORD will carry out his sentence upon the earth quickly and with finality.”*

<sup>29</sup>And Isaiah said the same thing in another place:

“If the LORD of Heaven’s Armies had not spared a few of our children, we would have been wiped out like Sodom, destroyed like Gomorrah.”*

ISRAEL’S UNBELIEF

<sup>30</sup>What does all this mean? Even though the Gentiles were not trying to follow God’s standards, they were made right with God. And it was by faith that this took place. <sup>31</sup>But the people of Israel, who tried so hard to get right with God by keeping the law, never succeeded. <sup>32</sup>Why not? Because they were trying to get right with God by keeping the law instead of by trusting in him. They stumbled over the great rock in their path. <sup>33</sup>God warned them of this in the Scriptures when he said,

“I am placing a stone in Jerusalem* that makes people stumble, a rock that makes them fall.
But anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced.”*

10 Dear brothers and sisters,* the longing of my heart and my prayer to God is for the people of Israel to be saved. <sup>1</sup>I know what enthusiasm they have for God, but it is misdirected zeal. <sup>2</sup>For they don’t understand God’s way of making people right with himself. Refusing to accept God’s way, they cling to their own way of getting right with God by trying to keep the law. <sup>3</sup>For Christ has already accomplished the purpose for which the law was given.* As a result, all who believe in him are made right with God.

WHY STAND WITH ISRAEL TODAY?

Romans 9–11

JACK HAYFORD

In Romans 9–11, the apostle Paul addresses the question of the Jews in God’s providence and purpose. The Jews were the firstfruit—the first people, through Abraham, to understand a covenant God. They then relayed the riches of that truth to the world, and through them, the Messiah came. Scripture calls Jews the “root” and Gentiles the “branches.”

We are living in a sobering moment in history that calls us, as believers in Jesus Christ, to take a stand with Israel. We could be the people of the world’s last hour. God calls us to pray with passion, to intercede, and to minister according to the words of the Savior, who said it is not our task to speculate when the end will come. However, it is our responsibility to do Kingdom business until He comes (Luke 19:13). This is not about politics; this is about the Word of God.

SALVATION IS FOR EVERYONE

<sup>5</sup>For Moses writes that the law’s way of making a person right with God requires obedience to all of its commands.* <sup>6</sup>But faith’s way of getting right with God says, “Don’t say in your heart, ‘Who will go up to heaven?’ (to bring Christ down to earth).” <sup>7</sup>And don’t say, ‘Who will go down to the place of the dead?’ (to bring Christ back to life again).” <sup>8</sup>In fact, it says,

“The message is very close at hand; it is on your lips and in your heart.”*

And that message is the very message about faith that we preach: <sup>9</sup>If you openly declare that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup>For it is by believing in your heart that you are made right with God, and it is by openly declaring your faith that you are saved. <sup>11</sup>As the Scriptures tell us, “Anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced.”* <sup>12</sup>Jew and Gentile* are the same in this respect. They have the same Lord, who gives generously to all who call on him. <sup>13</sup>For “Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved.”*

<sup>14</sup>But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? <sup>15</sup>And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the Scriptures say, “How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!”*

<sup>16</sup> But not everyone welcomes the Good News, for Isaiah the prophet said, “LORD, who has believed our message?”* <sup>17</sup> So faith comes from hearing, that is, hearing the Good News about Christ. <sup>18</sup> But I ask, have the people of Israel actually heard the message? Yes, they have:

“The message has gone throughout the earth, and the words to all the world.”*

<sup>19</sup> But I ask, did the people of Israel really understand? Yes, they did, for even in the time of Moses, God said,

“I will rouse your jealousy through people who are not even a nation.
I will provoke your anger through the foolish Gentiles.”*

<sup>20</sup> And later Isaiah spoke boldly for God, saying,

“I was found by people who were not looking for me.
I showed myself to those who were not asking for me.”*

<sup>21</sup> But regarding Israel, God said,

“All day long I opened my arms to them, but they were disobedient and rebellious.”*

GOD’S MERCY ON ISRAEL

11 I ask, then, has God rejected his own people, the nation of Israel? Of course not! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham and a member of the tribe of Benjamin.

<sup>2</sup> No, God has not rejected his own people, whom he chose from the very beginning. Do you realize what the Scriptures say about this? Elijah the prophet complained to God about the people of Israel and said, <sup>3</sup> “LORD, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me, too.”*

<sup>4</sup> And do you remember God’s reply? He said, “No, I have 7,000 others who have never bowed down to Baal!”*

<sup>5</sup> It is the same today, for a few of the people of Israel* have remained faithful because of God’s grace—his undeserved kindness in choosing them. <sup>6</sup> And since it is through God’s kindness, then it is not by their good works. For in that case, God’s grace would not be what it really is—free and undeserved.

<sup>7</sup> So this is the situation: Most of the people of Israel have not found the favor of God they are looking for so earnestly. A few have—the ones God has chosen—but the hearts of the rest were hardened. <sup>8</sup> As the Scriptures say, “God has put them into a deep sleep.

To this day he has shut their eyes so they do not see,
and closed their ears so they do not hear.”*

<sup>9</sup> Likewise, David said,

“Let their bountiful table become a snare,
a trap that makes them think all is well.
Let their blessings cause them to stumble, and let them get what they deserve.

<sup>10</sup> Let their eyes go blind so they cannot see, and let their backs be bent forever.”*

<sup>11</sup> Did God’s people stumble and fall beyond recovery? Of course not! They were disobedient, so God made salvation available to the Gentiles. But he wanted his own people to become jealous and claim it for themselves. <sup>12</sup> Now if the Gentiles were enriched because the people of Israel turned down God’s offer of salvation, think how much greater a blessing the world will share when they finally accept it.

<sup>13</sup> I am saying all this especially for you Gentiles. God has appointed me as the apostle to the Gentiles. I stress this, <sup>14</sup> for I want somehow to make the people of Israel jealous of what you Gentiles have, so I might save some of them. <sup>15</sup> For since their rejection meant that God offered salvation to the rest of the world, their acceptance will be even more wonderful. It will be life for those who were dead! <sup>16</sup> And since Abraham and the other patriarchs were holy, their descendants will also be holy—just as the entire batch of dough is holy because the portion given as an offering is holy. For if the roots of the tree are holy, the branches will be, too.

<sup>17</sup> But some of these branches from Abraham’s tree—some of the people of Israel—have been broken off. And you Gentiles, who were branches from a wild olive tree, have been grafted in. So now you also receive the blessing God has promised Abraham and his children, sharing in the rich nourishment from the root of God’s special olive tree. <sup>18</sup> But you must not brag about being grafted in to replace the branches that were broken off. You are just a branch, not the root.

<sup>19</sup> “Well,” you may say, “those branches were broken off to make room for me.” <sup>20</sup> Yes, but remember—those branches were broken off because they didn’t believe in Christ, and you are there because you do believe. So don’t think highly of yourself, but fear what could happen. <sup>21</sup> For if God did not spare the original branches, he won’t* spare you either.

<sup>22</sup> Notice how God is both kind and severe. He is severe toward those who disobeyed, but kind to

MORE THAN MONEY

Romans 11:16

ROBERT MORRIS

When most people hear the word tithe, they think of money. For God, however, tithing is actually a heart issue. Tithing is giving God the first in faith. Many people say they're putting God first, but it takes a lot of faith to pay God before we pay our rent, utilities, and taxes.

There was much more at stake than money when God told Abraham to sacrifice his son Isaac (Genesis 22). God had promised to make a great nation through Isaac, so it took great faith for Abraham to obey. This kind of faith is precisely what tithing requires.

Tithing is also one of the ways God blesses and protects us. When Satan comes against you with fear and doubt, you can firmly reply, "No! I'm a tither. I've trusted God with my firstfruits, and He is going to redeem and protect everything else in my life!"

you if you continue to trust in his kindness. But if you stop trusting, you also will be cut off.<sup>23</sup> And if the people of Israel turn from their unbelief, they will be grafted in again, for God has the power to graft them back into the tree.<sup>24</sup> You, by nature, were a branch cut from a wild olive tree. So if God was willing to do something contrary to nature by grafting you into his cultivated tree, he will be far more eager to graft the original branches back into the tree where they belong.

GOD'S MERCY IS FOR EVERYONE

<sup>25</sup>I want you to understand this mystery, dear brothers and sisters,* so that you will not feel proud about yourselves. Some of the people of Israel have hard hearts, but this will last only until the full number of Gentiles comes to Christ.

<sup>26</sup>And so all Israel will be saved. As the Scriptures say,

"The one who rescues will come from Jerusalem,* and he will turn Israel* away from ungodliness.

<sup>27</sup>And this is my covenant with them,
that I will take away their sins."<sup>28</sup>

<sup>29</sup>Many of the people of Israel are now enemies of the Good News, and this benefits you Gentiles. Yet they are still the people he loves because he chose their ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

<sup>29</sup>For God's gifts and his call can never be withdrawn.<sup>30</sup> Once, you Gentiles were rebels against God, but when the people of Israel rebelled against him, God was merciful to you instead.

<sup>31</sup>Now they are the rebels, and God's mercy has come to you so that they, too, will share* in God's mercy.<sup>32</sup> For God has imprisoned everyone in disobedience so he could have mercy on everyone.

THE WAY WE WORSHIP

Romans 12:1-2

JACK HAYFORD

We worship because of two foundational truths: God deserves it, and we need it. Romans 12 tells us how to worship and what we can expect to happen in response to worshipping God's way. The apostle Paul writes, "Give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice . . . This is truly the way to worship him" (vv. 1-2).

Worship sets us apart from the world and unlocks the discovery of God's purpose in our lives. We give our total selves as spiritual sacrifices to the Lord. We worship Him with our words, our bodies, our hearts, and our spirits (Psalm 51:17; Hebrew 13:15; 1 Peter 2:5).

Worship conquers the human will and prevents it from asserting its false authority. When we enter the presence of the King with worship, we create a place for His glory to dwell with us.

<sup>33</sup>Oh, how great are God's riches and wisdom and knowledge! How impossible it is for us to understand his decisions and his ways!

<sup>34</sup>For who can know the LORD's thoughts?
Who knows enough to give him advice?*

<sup>35</sup>And who has given him so much that he needs to pay it back?*

<sup>36</sup>For everything comes from him and exists by his power and is intended for his glory. All glory to him forever! Amen.

A LIVING SACRIFICE TO GOD

12 And so, dear brothers and sisters,* I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him.*<sup>2</sup> Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.

<sup>3</sup>Because of the privilege and authority* God has given me, I give each of you this warning: Don't think you are better than you really are. Be honest in your evaluation of yourselves, measuring yourselves by the faith God has given us.*<sup>4</sup> Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function,<sup>6</sup> so it is with Christ's body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

11:25 Greek brothers. 11:26a Greek from Zion. 11:26b Greek Jacob. 11:26-27 Isa 59:20-21; 27:9 (Greek version). 11:31 Other manuscripts read will now share; still others read will someday share. 11:34 Isa 40:13 (Greek version). 11:35 See Job 41:11. 12:1a Greek brothers. 12:1b Or This is your spiritual worship; or This is your reasonable service. 12:3a Or Because of the grace; compare 1:5. 12:3b Or by the faith God has given you; or by the standard of our God-given faith.

<sup>6</sup>In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. <sup>7</sup>If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. <sup>8</sup>If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

<sup>14</sup>Bless those who persecute you. Don't curse them; pray that God will bless them. <sup>15</sup>Be happy with those who are happy, and weep with those who weep. <sup>16</sup>Live in harmony with each other. Don't be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all!

<sup>17</sup>Never pay back evil with more evil. Do things in such a way that everyone can see you are honorable. <sup>18</sup>Do all that you can to live in peace with everyone.

<sup>19</sup>Dear friends, never take revenge. Leave that to the righteous anger of God. For the Scriptures say,

"I will take revenge;
I will pay them back,"*
says the LORD.

<sup>20</sup>Instead,

"If your enemies are hungry, feed them.
If they are thirsty, give them something to drink.
In doing this, you will heap burning coals of shame on their heads."*

<sup>21</sup>Don't let evil conquer you, but conquer evil by doing good.

RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY

13 Everyone must submit to governing authorities. For all authority comes from God, and those in positions of authority have been placed there by God. <sup>2</sup>So anyone who rebels against authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and they will be punished. <sup>3</sup>For the authorities do not strike fear in people who are doing right, but in those who are doing wrong. Would you like to live without fear of the authorities? Do what is right, and they will honor you. <sup>4</sup>The authorities are God's servants, sent for your good. But if you are doing wrong, of course you should be afraid, for they have the power to punish you. They are God's servants, sent for the very purpose of punishing those who do what is wrong. <sup>5</sup>So you must submit to them, not only to avoid punishment, but also to keep a clear conscience.

<sup>6</sup>Pay your taxes, too, for these same reasons. For government workers need to be paid. They are serving God in what they do. <sup>7</sup>Give to everyone what you owe them: Pay your taxes and government fees to those who collect them, and give respect and honor to those who are in authority.

LOVE FULFILLS GOD'S REQUIREMENTS

<sup>8</sup>Owe nothing to anyone—except for your obligation to love one another. If you love your neighbor, you will fulfill the requirements of God's law. <sup>9</sup>For the commandments say, "You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not covet."* These—and other such commandments—are summed up in this one commandment: "Love your neighbor as yourself."* <sup>10</sup>Love does no wrong to others, so love fulfills the requirements of God's law.

<sup>11</sup>This is all the more urgent, for you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. <sup>12</sup>The night is almost gone; the day of salvation will soon be here. So remove your dark deeds like dirty clothes, and put on the shining armor of right living. <sup>13</sup>Because we belong to the day, we must live decent lives for all to see. Don't participate in the darkness of wild parties and drunkenness, or in sexual promiscuity and immoral living, or in quarreling and jealousy. <sup>14</sup>Instead, clothe yourself with the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. And don't let yourself think about ways to indulge your evil desires.

THE DANGER OF CRITICISM

14 Accept other believers who are weak in faith, and don't argue with them about what they think is right or wrong. <sup>2</sup>For instance, one person believes it's all right to eat anything. But another believer with a sensitive conscience will eat only vegetables. <sup>3</sup>Those who feel free to eat anything must not look down on those who don't. And those who don't eat certain foods must not condemn those who do, for God has accepted them. <sup>4</sup>Who are you to condemn someone else's servants? Their own master will judge whether they stand or fall. And with the Lord's help, they will stand and receive his approval.

<sup>5</sup>In the same way, some think one day is more holy than another day, while others think every day is alike. You should each be fully convinced

MAMMON HAS FRIENDS

Romans 14:22

ROBERT MORRIS

Just as the spirit of mammon will keep you from experiencing the fullness of God's blessings, so will the spirits of poverty and pride.

The spirit of poverty causes you to be ashamed of the blessings of God. It makes you feel uncomfortable when receiving blessings from others or owning nice things.

The spirit of pride causes you to be overly proud of the blessings you have received. While seemingly opposite from the spirit of poverty, the two share a common root—they are both things-focused rather than God-focused.

The keys to staying God-focused with your finances are tithing and being a good steward of what God has given you. Don't worry about explaining your blessings to others. Once the spirits of pride and poverty no longer influence your life, you will be free to recognize and enjoy the blessings God has given you.

that whichever day you choose is acceptable.

<sup>6</sup> Those who worship the Lord on a special day do it to honor him. Those who eat any kind of food do so to honor the Lord, since they give thanks to God before eating. And those who refuse to eat certain foods also want to please the Lord and give thanks to God. <sup>7</sup> For we don't live for ourselves or die for ourselves. <sup>8</sup> If we live, it's to honor the Lord. And if we die, it's to honor the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. <sup>9</sup> Christ died and rose again for this very purpose—to be Lord both of the living and of the dead.

<sup>10</sup> So why do you condemn another believer? Why do you look down on another believer? Remember, we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. <sup>11</sup> For the Scriptures say,

“As surely as I live,” says the LORD, “every knee will bend to me, and every tongue will declare allegiance to God.”<sup>12</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Yes, each of us will give a personal account to God. <sup>13</sup> So let's stop condemning each other. Decide instead to live in such a way that you will not cause another believer to stumble and fall.

<sup>14</sup> I know and am convinced on the authority of the Lord Jesus that no food, in and of itself, is wrong to eat. But if someone believes it is wrong, then for that person it is wrong. <sup>15</sup> And if another believer is distressed by what you eat, you are not acting in love if you eat it. Don't let your eating ruin someone for whom Christ died. <sup>16</sup> Then you will not be criticized for doing something you believe is good. <sup>17</sup> For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of what we eat or drink, but of living a life of goodness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup> If you serve Christ with this attitude, you will please God, and others will approve of you, too. <sup>19</sup> So then, let us aim for harmony in the church and try to build each other up.

<sup>20</sup> Don't tear apart the work of God over what you eat. Remember, all foods are acceptable, but it is wrong to eat something if it makes another person stumble. <sup>21</sup> It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything else if it might cause another believer to stumble.* <sup>22</sup> You may believe there's nothing wrong with what you are doing, but keep it between yourself and God. Blessed are those who don't feel guilty for doing something they have decided is right. <sup>23</sup> But if you have doubts about whether or not you should eat something, you are sinning if you go ahead and do it. For you are not following your convictions. If you do anything you believe is not right, you are sinning.*

LIVING TO PLEASE OTHERS

15 We who are strong must be considerate of those who are sensitive about things like this. We must not just please ourselves. <sup>2</sup> We should help others do what is right and build them up in the Lord. <sup>3</sup> For even Christ didn't live to please himself. As the Scriptures say, “The insults of those who insult you, O God, have fallen on me.”* <sup>4</sup> Such things were written in the Scriptures long ago to teach us. And the Scriptures give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises to be fulfilled.

<sup>5</sup> May God, who gives this patience and encouragement, help you live in complete harmony with each other, as is fitting for followers of Christ Jesus. <sup>6</sup> Then all of you can join together with one voice, giving praise and glory to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you so that God will be given glory.

<sup>8</sup> Remember that Christ came as a servant to the Jews* to show that God is true to the promises he made to their ancestors. <sup>9</sup> He also came so that the Gentiles might give glory to God for his mercies to them. That is what the psalmist meant when he wrote:

“For this, I will praise you among the Gentiles;
I will sing praises to your name.”*

<sup>10</sup> And in another place it is written,

“Rejoice with his people, you Gentiles.”*

<sup>14:10</sup> Greek your brother; also in 14:10b, 13, 15, 21. <sup>14:11</sup> Or declare praise for God. Isa 49:18; 45:23 (Greek version). <sup>14:21</sup> Some manuscripts read to stumble or be offended or be weakened.

“Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles.
Praise him, all you people of the earth.”*

<sup>12</sup>And in another place Isaiah said,

“The heir to David’s throne* will come,
and he will rule over the Gentiles.
They will place their hope on him.”*

<sup>13</sup>I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit.

PAUL’S REASON FOR WRITING

<sup>14</sup>I am fully convinced, my dear brothers and sisters,* that you are full of goodness. You know these things so well you can teach each other all about them. <sup>15</sup>Even so, I have been bold enough to write about some of these points, knowing that all you need is this reminder. For by God’s grace, <sup>16</sup>I am a special messenger from Christ Jesus to you Gentiles. I bring you the Good News so that I might present you as an acceptable offering to God, made holy by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup>So I have reason to be enthusiastic about all Christ Jesus has done through me in my service to God. <sup>18</sup>Yet I dare not boast about anything except what Christ has done through me, bringing the Gentiles to God by my message and by the way I worked among them. <sup>19</sup>They were convinced by the power of miraculous signs and wonders and by the power of God’s Spirit.* In this way, I have fully presented the Good News of Christ from Jerusalem all the way to Illyricum.*

<sup>20</sup>My ambition has always been to preach the Good News where the name of Christ has never been heard, rather than where a church has already been started by someone else. <sup>21</sup>I have been following the plan spoken of in the Scriptures, where it says,

“Those who have never been told about him will see,
and those who have never heard of him will understand.”*

<sup>22</sup>In fact, my visit to you has been delayed so long because I have been preaching in these places.

PAUL’S TRAVEL PLANS

<sup>23</sup>But now I have finished my work in these regions, and after all these long years of waiting, I am eager to visit you. <sup>24</sup>I am planning to go to Spain, and when I do, I will stop off in Rome. And after I have enjoyed your fellowship for a little while, you can provide for my journey.

<sup>25</sup>But before I come, I must go to Jerusalem to take a gift to the believers* there. <sup>26</sup>For you see, the believers in Macedonia and Achaia* have eagerly taken up an offering for the poor among the believers in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>They were glad to do this because they feel they owe a real debt to them. Since the Gentiles received the spiritual blessings of the Good News from the believers in Jerusalem, they feel the least they can do in return is to help them financially. <sup>28</sup>As soon as I have delivered this money and completed this good deed of theirs, I will come to see you on my way to Spain. <sup>29</sup>And I am sure that when I come, Christ will richly bless our time together.

<sup>30</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, I urge you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to join in my struggle by praying to God for me. Do this because of your love for me, given to you by the Holy Spirit. <sup>31</sup>Pray that I will be rescued from those in Judea who refuse to obey God. Pray also that the believers there will be willing to accept the donation* I am taking to Jerusalem. <sup>32</sup>Then, by the will of God, I will be able to come to you with a joyful heart, and we will be an encouragement to each other.

<sup>33</sup>And now may God, who gives us his peace, be with you all. Amen.*

PAUL GREETIS HIS FRIENDS

16 I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a deacon in the church in Cenchrea. <sup>2</sup>Welcome her in the Lord as one who is worthy of honor among God’s people. Help her in whatever she needs, for she has been helpful to many, and especially to me.

<sup>3</sup>Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, my co-workers in the ministry of Christ Jesus. <sup>4</sup>In fact, they once risked their lives for me. I am thankful to them, and so are all the Gentile churches. <sup>5</sup>Also give my greetings to the church that meets in their home.

Greet my dear friend Epenetus. He was the first person from the province of Asia to become a follower of Christ. <sup>6</sup>Give my greetings to Mary, who has worked so hard for your benefit. <sup>7</sup>Greet Andronicus and Junia,* my fellow Jews,* who were in prison with me. They are highly respected among the apostles and became followers of Christ before I did. <sup>8</sup>Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

<sup>14</sup> Give my greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters* who meet with them.<sup>15</sup> Give my greetings to Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and to Olympas and all the believers* who meet with them.<sup>16</sup> Greet each other with a sacred kiss. All the churches of Christ send you their greetings.

PAUL'S FINAL INSTRUCTIONS

<sup>17</sup> And now I make one more appeal, my dear brothers and sisters. Watch out for people who cause divisions and upset people's faith by teaching things contrary to what you have been taught. Stay away from them.<sup>18</sup> Such people are not serving Christ our Lord; they are serving their own personal interests. By smooth talk and glowing words they deceive innocent people.<sup>19</sup> But everyone knows that you are obedient to the Lord. This makes me very happy. I want you to be wise in doing right and to stay innocent of any wrong.<sup>20</sup> The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Jesus* be with you.

<sup>21</sup> Timothy, my fellow worker, sends you his greetings, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my fellow Jews.

<sup>23</sup> Gaius says hello to you. He is my host and also serves as host to the whole church. Erastus, the city treasurer, sends you his greetings, and so does our brother Quartus.*

<sup>25</sup> Now all glory to God, who is able to make you strong, just as my Good News says. This message about Jesus Christ has revealed his plan for you Gentiles, a plan kept secret from the beginning of time.<sup>26</sup> But now as the prophets* foretold and as the eternal God has commanded, this message is made known to all Gentiles everywhere, so that they too might believe and obey him.<sup>27</sup> All glory to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, forever. Amen.*

Amen. Still others add this sentence after verse 27. 16:26 Greek the prophetic writings. 16:25-27 Various manuscripts place the doxology (shown here as 16:25-27) after 14:23 or after 15:33 or after 16:23.

PAUL'S MINISTRY AND LETTERS FROM CORINTH

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The following list outlines Paul's ministry in Corinth and the letters that he writes to the church there:

- After a difficult time of ministry (Acts 16–17), “in weakness—timid and trembling” (1 Corinthians 2:3), Paul founds the church in Corinth and lives there for 18 months in AD 50–51 (Acts 18:1–17).
- He leaves Corinth with Priscilla and Aquila and goes to Ephesus. He later leaves Ephesus and travels to Jerusalem for Passover and Pentecost (Acts 18:21–22).
- Paul leaves Jerusalem, travels to Antioch, and then returns to Ephesus, where he ministers for more than two years (AD 52–55) (Acts 18:22; 19:1–20).
- He hears of immorality in the Corinthian church and writes a letter to them that is now lost (1 Corinthians 5:9–11).
- Paul later hears from members of Chloe's household about divisions that have formed in the church (1 Corinthians 1:11) and writes 1 Corinthians in response.
- He plans to visit churches in Macedonia and afterward spend some time in Corinth (1 Corinthians 16:5–8).
- The situation in Corinth is worse than Paul imagined, so he changes his plans and visits the Corinthians on his way to Macedonia (2 Corinthians 1:15–16). The book of Acts does not record this visit.
- He describes his visit as “painful” (2 Corinthians 2:1; 13:2) because it results in a difficult confrontation (2 Corinthians 2:5–10; 7:12).
- Paul returns to Ephesus, where he writes a harsh letter that Titus then delivers. This letter has been lost.
- Titus takes the letter while Paul goes to Troas after a riot erupts in Ephesus (Acts 19:23–30) to wait for a report (2 Corinthians 2:12–13).
- Paul later meets Titus in Macedonia and rejoices at the news he brings (2 Corinthians 7:6–7).
- Paul writes 2 Corinthians from Macedonia around AD 56, where he (1) expresses relief to their response, (2) discusses the collection for Jerusalem believers, and (3) defends his authority to those who are holdouts.
- He continues to Corinth for a final visit (Acts 20), where he writes his letter to the Romans.

1 AND 2 CORINTHIANS

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Of the two existing letters from Paul to the church he founded in Corinth, he wrote the one designated 1 Corinthians from Ephesus around AD 55 in response to problems he had received in a report.

The church in Corinth was splitting apart over a host of issues:

- Members divided over their loyalties to individual leaders and likely gave preference to whatever individual baptized them into the faith (1:10–17).
- They divided over their response to immoral behavior, with some tolerating the behavior and others finding it scandalous (5:1–13; 6:12–20).
- They divided because of lawsuits, with some members suing others in civil court rather than settling matters amicably within the church (6:1–8).
- They divided over meat offered to idols, with some willing to eat such meat and others finding the practice offensive (8:1–13).
- They divided over the proper approach to the Lord’s Table (11:20–34).
- They also experienced some confusion about the exercise of spiritual matters (pneumatika) and the appropriate form of worship when they gathered together (chapters 12–14).

What is Paul’s answer to these problems? How does he address the division present in the church? The opening passage of the letter contains his answer. In this prologue, Paul makes reference to Jesus (Christ Jesus, Lord Jesus Christ, Jesus Christ our Lord, Christ) ten times in the first 10 verses.

These references show that before Paul addressed the various issues brought to him by members of the church, he wanted to establish the basic fact that Jesus is the foundation for their fellowship. Jesus called Paul to be an apostle (1:1); Jesus called the Corinthians into relationship with God (1:2; 1:9); Jesus drew the people into relationship with one another and gave them grace (1:3–4); and Jesus will be revealed on a future day (1:7–8). Paul’s conviction is that Jesus is the essence of their existence, and their division is due to their failure to remember this important fact. Jesus is the unity of the Church, and the fractures in their fellowship are happening because they are not building upon Him. Since the gospel features Jesus—His life, death, and resurrection—the division of the church shows that they have lost sight of the gospel.

The importance of the gospel is apparent as Paul begins and ends his letter with extended discussions of the two primary elements of the gospel: Jesus’ crucifixion and His resurrection. After he reminds the Corinthians of their foundation in Jesus (1:1–10), Paul asserts that the gospel he preached to them when he first visited them featured the cross (1:18–2:5) and was delivered through the power of the Spirit (2:5–16). He then addresses the various forms of division in the Corinthian church (chapters 3–11) and concludes his letter with an extended discussion on the Resurrection (chapter 15). In doing this, he frames the issues tearing at the church with the two essential elements of the gospel and draws their attention to what binds them together and upon which they must be in full agreement. There is only one gospel, and it features the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

VERSE	TITLE	MEANING TO THE CORINTHIANS
1	Christ Jesus	The one for whom Paul is an apostle
2	Christ Jesus	The one who has sanctified them
2	Lord Jesus Christ	The name that binds them together
3	Lord Jesus Christ	The one who gives them grace and peace
4	Christ Jesus	The one who gives them the grace of God
6	Christ	Jesus should be the subject of their testimony
7	Lord Jesus Christ	The one who will be revealed
8	Lord Jesus Christ	The one who will return on “that day”
9	Jesus Christ our Lord	The one who gives them fellowship
10	Lord Jesus Christ	The name by which Paul appeals to them

The letter known as 2 Corinthians represents Paul's response to the continuing situation in the Corinthian church in AD 56. Even as Paul's focus in 1 Corinthians is Jesus as the foundation for the people's faith and the gospel as the answer to their division, his focus in 2 Corinthians is on his ministry among them. This letter is one of his most personal.

- This letter contains three major sections:
- In chapters 1–7, Paul defends his actions and his ministry.
  - In chapters 8–9, he discusses an offering he is collecting for poor believers in Jerusalem.
  - In chapters 10–13, he responds to critics of his ministry.

After discussing his plans and recommending forgiveness for someone who has opposed him (2:3–11), Paul expounds upon the ministry he has among them by the Holy Spirit. He writes, “It is not that we think we are qualified to do anything on our own. Our qualification comes from God.

He has enabled us to be ministers of his new covenant. This is a covenant not of written laws, but of the Spirit” (3:5–6). He continues by saying this ministry of the gospel is one of glory, even though some have had a veil pulled over their eyes to keep them from seeing its truth (4:3–4). Jesus is the subject of the gospel that Paul preaches out of love: “Christ’s love controls us. Since we believe that Christ died for all, we also believe that we have all died to our old life” (5:14). In sum, Paul’s ministry of the gospel concerning Jesus’ death and resurrection is one of reconciliation with God (5:18–21) and fellowship with one another.

Paul’s collection for the poor believers in Jerusalem is an example of what unity and reconciliation look like in a practical way. The Corinthian believers (most of whom are Gentiles) can show unity with their Jewish brothers and sisters in Judea by contributing to the gift that Paul is raising for them. Generosity toward others is a tangible manifestation of the gospel (9:1–14).

The gospel Paul preached has demanded much from him. It has involved affliction (1:3–11) and personal opposition from some inside the church (2:3–11). It has involved personal sacrifice as he has provided for his own needs so as not to burden others (12:14–18). It has involved spiritual struggle and warfare (10:1–6). It has involved everything from scouring to hunger to a thorn in the flesh (11:23–27; 12:7–10). Paul has willingly endured much because the gospel offers much. It offers unity with God through the Spirit on account of Jesus’ death, resurrection, and present ministry.

1 CORINTHIANS

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Sosthenes.

<sup>2</sup>I am writing to God’s church in Corinth,* to you who have been called by God to be his own holy people. He made you holy by means of Christ Jesus,* just as he did for all people everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

<sup>3</sup>May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

PAUL GIVES THANKS TO GOD

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God for you and for the gracious gifts he has given you, now that you belong to Christ Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Through him, God has enriched your church in every way—with all of your eloquent words and all of your knowledge. <sup>6</sup>This confirms that what I told you about Christ is true. <sup>7</sup>Now you have every spiritual gift you need as you eagerly wait for the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>8</sup>He will keep you strong to the end so that you will be free from all blame on the day when our Lord Jesus Christ returns. <sup>9</sup>God will do this, for he is faithful to do what he says, and he has invited you into partnership with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

DIVISIONS IN THE CHURCH

<sup>10</sup>I appeal to you, dear brothers and sisters,* by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, to live in harmony with each other. Let there be no divisions in the church. Rather, be of one mind, united in thought and purpose. <sup>11</sup>For some members of Chloe’s household have told me about your quarrels, my dear brothers and sisters. <sup>12</sup>Some of you are saying, “I am a follower of Paul.” Others are saying, “I follow Apollos,” or “I follow Peter,”<sup>a</sup> or “I follow only Christ.”

<sup>13</sup>Has Christ been divided into factions? Was I, Paul, crucified for you? Were any of you baptized in the name of Paul? Of course not! <sup>14</sup> I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup> for now no one can say they were baptized in my name. <sup>16</sup> (Oh yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas, but I don't remember baptizing anyone else.) <sup>17</sup> For Christ didn't send me to baptize, but to preach the Good News—and not with clever speech, for fear that the cross of Christ would lose its power.

THE WISDOM OF GOD

<sup>18</sup> The message of the cross is foolish to those who are headed for destruction! But we who are being saved know it is the very power of God. <sup>19</sup> As the Scriptures say,

“I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and discard the intelligence of the intelligent.”*

<sup>20</sup> So where does this leave the philosophers, the scholars, and the world's brilliant debaters? God has made the wisdom of this world look foolish. <sup>21</sup> Since God in his wisdom saw to it that the world would never know him through human wisdom, he has used our foolish preaching to save those who believe. <sup>22</sup> It is foolish to the Jews, who ask for signs from heaven. And it is foolish to the Greeks, who seek human wisdom. <sup>23</sup> So when we preach that Christ was crucified, the Jews are offended and the Gentiles say it's all nonsense.

<sup>24</sup> But to those called by God to salvation, both Jews and Gentiles,* Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup> This foolish plan of God is wiser than the wisest of human plans, and God's weakness is stronger than the greatest of human strength.

<sup>26</sup> Remember, dear brothers and sisters, that few of you were wise in the world's eyes or powerful or wealthy* when God called you. <sup>27</sup> Instead, God chose things the world considers foolish in order to shame those who think they are wise. And he chose things that are powerless to shame those who are powerful. <sup>28</sup> God chose things despised by the world,* things counted as nothing at all, and used them to bring to nothing what the world considers important. <sup>29</sup> As a result, no one can ever boast in the presence of God.

<sup>30</sup> God has united you with Christ Jesus. For our benefit God made him to be wisdom itself. Christ made us right with God; he made us pure and holy, and he freed us from sin. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, as the Scriptures say, “If you want to boast, boast only about the LORD.”*

PAUL'S MESSAGE OF WISDOM

2 When I first came to you, dear brothers and sisters,* I didn't use lofty words and impressive wisdom to tell you God's secret plan.* <sup>2</sup> For I decided that while I was with you I would forget everything except Jesus Christ, the one who was crucified. <sup>3</sup> I came to you in weakness—timid and trembling. <sup>4</sup> And my message and my preaching were very plain. Rather than using clever and persuasive speeches, I relied only on the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>5</sup> I did this so you would trust not in human wisdom but in the power of God.

<sup>6</sup> Yet when I am among mature believers, I do speak with words of wisdom, but not the kind of wisdom that belongs to this world or to the rulers of this world, who are soon forgotten. <sup>7</sup> No, the wisdom we speak of is the mystery of God*—his plan that was previously hidden, even though he made it for our ultimate glory before the world began. <sup>8</sup> But the rulers of this world have not understood it; if they had, they would not have crucified our glorious Lord. <sup>9</sup> That is what the Scriptures mean when they say,

“No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him.”*

<sup>10</sup> But* it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For his Spirit searches out everything and shows us God's deep secrets. <sup>11</sup> No one can know a person's thoughts except that person's own spirit, and no one can know God's thoughts except God's own Spirit. <sup>12</sup> And we have received God's Spirit (not the world's spirit), so we can know the wonderful things God has freely given us.

<sup>13</sup> When we tell you these things, we do not use words that come from human wisdom. Instead, we speak words given to us by the Spirit, using the Spirit's words to explain spiritual truths.* <sup>14</sup> But people who aren't spiritual* can't receive these truths from God's Spirit. It all sounds foolish to them and they can't understand it, for only those who are spiritual can understand what the Spirit means. <sup>15</sup> Those who are spiritual can evaluate all things, but they themselves cannot be evaluated by others. <sup>16</sup> For,

“Who can know the LORD's thoughts? Who knows enough to teach him?”*

But we understand these things, for we have the mind of Christ.

PAUL AND APOLLOS, SERVANTS OF CHRIST

3 Dear brothers and sisters,* when I was with you I couldn't talk to you as I would to spiritual people.* I had to talk as though you belonged to this world or as though you were infants in

read God's testimony. <sup>2:7</sup> Greek But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery. <sup>2:9</sup> Isa 64:4. <sup>2:10</sup> Some manuscripts read For.

spiritual truths to spiritual people. <sup>2:14</sup> Or who don't have the Spirit; or who have only physical life. <sup>2:16</sup> Isa 40:13 (Greek version).

Christ.<sup>2</sup> I had to feed you with milk, not with solid food, because you weren't ready for anything stronger. And you still aren't ready,<sup>3</sup> for you are still controlled by your sinful nature. You are jealous of one another and quarrel with each other. Doesn't that prove you are controlled by your sinful nature? Aren't you living like people of the world?<sup>4</sup> When one of you says, "I am a follower of Paul," and another says, "I follow Apollos," aren't you acting just like people of the world?

<sup>5</sup>After all, who is Apollos? Who is Paul? We are only God's servants through whom you believed the Good News. Each of us did the work the Lord gave us. <sup>6</sup>I planted the seed in your hearts, and Apollos watered it, but it was God who made it grow. <sup>7</sup>It's not important who does the planting, or who does the watering. What's important is that God makes the seed grow. <sup>8</sup>The one who plants and the one who waters work together with the same purpose. And both will be rewarded for their own hard work. <sup>9</sup>For we are both God's workers. And you are God's field. You are God's building.

<sup>10</sup>Because of God's grace to me, I have laid the foundation like an expert builder. Now others are building on it. But whoever is building on this foundation must be very careful. <sup>11</sup>For no one can lay any foundation other than the one we already have—Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup>Anyone who builds on that foundation may use a variety of materials—gold, silver, jewels, wood, hay, or straw. <sup>13</sup>But on the judgment day, fire will reveal what kind of work each builder has done. The fire will show if a person's work has any value. <sup>14</sup>If the work survives, that builder will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup>But if the work is burned up, the builder will suffer great loss. The builder will be saved, but like someone barely escaping through a wall of flames.

<sup>16</sup>Don't you realize that all of you together are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God lives in* you?<sup>17</sup> God will destroy anyone who destroys this temple. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

<sup>18</sup>Stop deceiving yourselves. If you think you are wise by this world's standards, you need to become a fool to be truly wise. <sup>19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. As the Scriptures say,

"He traps the wise in the snare of their own cleverness."<sup>20</sup>

<sup>20</sup>And again,

"The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise;
he knows they are worthless."<sup>21</sup>

<sup>21</sup>So don't boast about following a particular human leader. For everything belongs to you—<sup>22</sup>whether Paul or Apollos or Peter,* or the world, or life and death, or the present and the future.

Everything belongs to you,<sup>23</sup> and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

PAUL'S RELATIONSHIP WITH THE CORINTHIANS

4 So look at Apollos and me as mere servants of Christ who have been put in charge of explaining God's mysteries.<sup>2</sup> Now, a person who is put in charge as a manager must be faithful.<sup>3</sup> As for me, it matters very little how I might be evaluated by you or by any human authority. I don't even trust my own judgment on this point.<sup>4</sup> My conscience is clear, but that doesn't prove I'm right. It is the Lord himself who will examine me and decide.

<sup>5</sup>So don't make judgments about anyone ahead of time—before the Lord returns. For he will bring our darkest secrets to light and will reveal our private motives. Then God will give to each one whatever praise is due.

<sup>8</sup>You think you already have everything you need. You think you are already rich. You have begun to reign in God's kingdom without us! I wish you really were reigning already, for then we would be reigning with you. <sup>9</sup>Instead, I sometimes think God has put us apostles on display, like prisoners of war at the end of a victor's parade, condemned to die. We have become a spectacle to the entire world—to people and angels alike.

<sup>10</sup>Our dedication to Christ makes us look like fools, but you claim to be so wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are so powerful! You are honored, but we are ridiculed. <sup>11</sup>Even now we go hungry and thirsty, and we don't have enough clothes to keep warm. We are often beaten and have no home. <sup>12</sup>We work wearily with our own hands to earn our living. We bless those who curse us. We are patient with those who abuse us. <sup>13</sup>We appeal gently when evil things are said about us. Yet we are treated like the world's garbage, like everybody's trash—right up to the present moment.

<sup>14</sup>I am not writing these things to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved children. <sup>15</sup>For even if you had ten thousand others to teach you about Christ, you have only one spiritual father. For I became your father in Christ Jesus when I preached the Good News to you. <sup>16</sup>So I urge you to imitate me.

3:16 Or among. 3:19 Job 5:13. 3:20 Ps 94:11. 3:22 Greek Cephas. 4:6a Greek Brothers. 4:6b Or if you learn not to go beyond "what is written."

<sup>17</sup>That's why I have sent Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of how I follow Christ Jesus, just as I teach in all the churches wherever I go.

<sup>18</sup>Some of you have become arrogant, thinking I will not visit you again. <sup>19</sup>But I will come—and soon—if the Lord lets me, and then I'll find out whether these arrogant people just give pretentious speeches or whether they really have God's power. <sup>20</sup>For the Kingdom of God is not just a lot of talk; it is living by God's power. <sup>21</sup>Which do you choose? Should I come with a rod to punish you, or should I come with love and a gentle spirit?

PAUL CONDEMNS SPIRITUAL PRIDE

5 I can hardly believe the report about the sexual immorality going on among you—something that even pagans don't do. I am told that a man in your church is living in sin with his stepmother.* <sup>2</sup>You are so proud of yourselves, but you should be mourning in sorrow and shame. And you should remove this man from your fellowship.

<sup>3</sup>Even though I am not with you in person, I am with you in the Spirit.* And as though I were there, I have already passed judgment on this man <sup>4</sup>in the name of the Lord Jesus. You must call a meeting of the church.* I will be present with you in spirit, and so will the power of our Lord Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then you must throw this man out and hand him over to Satan so that his sinful nature will be destroyed* and he himself* will be saved on the day the Lord* returns.

<sup>6</sup>Your boasting about this is terrible. Don't you realize that this sin is like a little yeast that spreads through the whole batch of dough? <sup>7</sup>Get rid of the old "yeast" by removing this wicked person from among you. Then you will be like a fresh batch of dough made without yeast, which is what you really are. Christ, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed for us.* <sup>8</sup>So let us celebrate the festival, not with the old bread* of wickedness and evil, but with the new bread* of sincerity and truth.

<sup>9</sup>When I wrote to you before, I told you not to associate with people who indulge in sexual sin. <sup>10</sup>But I wasn't talking about unbelievers who indulge in sexual sin, or are greedy, or cheat people, or worship idols. You would have to leave this world to avoid people like that. <sup>11</sup>I meant that you are not to associate with anyone who claims to be a believer* yet indulges in sexual sin, or is greedy, or worships idols, or is abusive, or is a drunkard, or cheats people. Don't even eat with such people.

<sup>12</sup>It isn't my responsibility to judge outsiders, but it certainly is your responsibility to judge those inside the church who are sinning. <sup>13</sup>God will judge those on the outside; but as the Scriptures say, "You must remove the evil person from among you."*

AVOIDING LAWSUITS WITH CHRISTIANS

6 When one of you has a dispute with another believer, how dare you file a lawsuit and ask a secular court to decide the matter instead of taking it to other believers*! <sup>2</sup>Don't you realize that someday we believers will judge the world? And since you are going to judge the world, can't you decide even these little things among yourselves? <sup>3</sup>Don't you realize that we will judge angels? So you should surely be able to resolve ordinary disputes in this life. <sup>4</sup>If you have legal disputes about such matters, why go to outside judges who are not respected by the church? <sup>5</sup>I am saying this to shame you. Isn't there anyone in all the church who is wise enough to decide these issues? <sup>6</sup>But instead, one believer* sues another—right in front of unbelievers!

<sup>7</sup>Even to have such lawsuits with one another is a defeat for you. Why not just accept the injustice and leave it at that? Why not let yourselves be cheated? <sup>8</sup>Instead, you yourselves are the ones who do wrong and cheat even your fellow believers.*

<sup>9</sup>Don't you realize that those who do wrong will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't fool yourselves. Those who indulge in sexual sin, or who worship idols, or commit adultery, or are male prostitutes, or practice homosexuality, <sup>10</sup>or

RESISTING THE WORLD'S SPIRIT

1 Corinthians 5:1-8

JACK HAYFORD

In 1 Corinthians 5, Paul establishes that sin is serious and must be addressed. The Corinthians have a misguided sense of mercy, and the form of sexual immorality permitted in their church is one that even the surrounding pagan culture rejects. Grace is available to deliver us, but it is not intended to enable careless living and sinful accommodation to the spirit of the world.

Paul's point is clear: every believer is to engage in holy living. Rooting out the spirit of this world from our hearts, homes, jobs, and other relationships is necessary for disciples of Jesus Christ. The world's spirit confuses us with compromised choices and destroys authentic spiritual living.

Salvation is not just "fire insurance" to save us from hell. Instead, it's an invitation to sanctification—to purify our lives. Jesus died to grant us a rich and abundant life, and now we must contend for it.

5:1 Greek his father's wife. 5:3 Or in spirit. 5:4 Or In the name of the Lord Jesus, you must call a meeting of the church. 5:5a Or so that his body will be destroyed; Greek reads for the destruction of the flesh. 5:5b Greek and the spirit. 5:5c Other manuscripts read the Lord Jesus; still others read our Lord Jesus Christ. 5:7 Greek has been sacrificed. 5:8a Greek not with old leaven. 5:8b Greek but with unleavened [bread]. 5:11 Greek a brother. 5:13 Deut 17:7. 6:1 Greek God's holy people; also in 6:2. 6:6 Greek one brother. 6:8 Greek even the brothers.

GLORIFY GOD IN YOUR BODY

1 Corinthians 6:12–20

ROBERT MORRIS

The way you care for your body is similar to the way you manage your bank account. When you steward your finances well and tithe regularly, you glorify God. You also glorify Him when you honor your body as the temple of the Holy Spirit through healthy eating and regular exercise.

The Bible says gluttony is a sin (Ezekiel 16:49). Contrary to what you may think, however, gluttony is not a weight issue. It's a thought issue—it's the way we think about food. We should not allow food or anything else in this world to have power over us. Self-control is part of the fruit of the Spirit that should be evident in every believer's life (Galatians 5:22–23). God wants the appetites of our flesh to be under the control of His Spirit. He asks each of us to make a conscious choice to give Him our bodies and to care for them well.

are thieves, or greedy people, or drunkards, or are abusive, or cheat people—none of these will inherit the Kingdom of God.<sup>11</sup> Some of you were once like that. But you were cleansed; you were made holy; you were made right with God by calling on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

AVOIDING SEXUAL SIN

<sup>12</sup>You say, “I am allowed to do anything”—but not everything is good for you. And even though “I am allowed to do anything,” I must not become a slave to anything. <sup>13</sup>You say, “Food was made for the stomach, and the stomach for food.” (This is true, though someday God will do away with both of them.) But you can't say that our bodies were made for sexual immorality. They were made for the Lord, and the Lord cares about our bodies. <sup>14</sup>And God will raise us from the dead by his power, just as he raised our Lord from the dead.

<sup>15</sup>Don't you realize that your bodies are actually parts of Christ? Should a man take his body, which is part of Christ, and join it to a prostitute? Never! <sup>16</sup>And don't you realize that if a man joins himself to a prostitute, he becomes one body with her? For the Scriptures say, “The two are united into one.”<sup>17</sup> But the person who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

<sup>18</sup>Run from sexual sin! No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body. <sup>19</sup>Don't you realize that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and was given to you by God? You do not belong to yourself,<sup>20</sup> for God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body.

TAKING CARE OF THE TEMPLE

1 Corinthians 6:18–20

ROBERT MORRIS

Are there things you don't like about your body? I think almost every person has something they'd like to change. Growing up, I was ashamed of my body because I was very skinny, and I really wanted to be big and strong. Even after I became a believer (and wasn't quite so skinny anymore), I still didn't appreciate my body. I knew it was “the temple of the Holy Spirit” (1 Corinthians 6:19), but it took a near-death experience in 2013 for me to realize that my negative thoughts about my body had opened a door for the enemy to attack me.

Are you taking care of your temple “as Christ cares for the church” (Ephesians 5:29)? If you aren't, the Holy Spirit's expression through you will be limited, and you won't be able to accomplish all God wants you to accomplish. There were several times in my life when I could have died because I wasn't taking care of my body. However, I don't want to leave this earth prematurely and miss fulfilling God's purpose for me. I know He has a purpose for you too. No matter how you've felt about your body in the past, decide today to take care of your temple and begin thanking God as King David did:

“Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex!

Your workmanship is marvelous—how well I know it” (Psalm 139:14).

INSTRUCTION ON MARRIAGE

7 Now regarding the questions you asked in your letter. Yes, it is good to abstain from sexual relations.* <sup>2</sup>But because there is so much sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.

<sup>5</sup>Do not deprive each other of sexual relations, unless you both agree to refrain from sexual intimacy for a limited time so you can give yourselves more completely to prayer. Afterward, you should come together again so that Satan won't be able to tempt you because of your lack of self-control. <sup>6</sup>I say this as a concession, not as a command. <sup>7</sup>But I wish everyone were single, just as I am. Yet each person has a special gift from God, of one kind or another.

6:16 Gen 2:24. 7:1 Or to live a celibate life; Greek reads It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

<sup>8</sup> So I say to those who aren't married and to widows—it's better to stay unmarried, just as I am. <sup>9</sup> But if they can't control themselves, they should go ahead and marry. It's better to marry than to burn with lust.

<sup>10</sup> But for those who are married, I have a command that comes not from me, but from the Lord.* A wife must not leave her husband. <sup>11</sup> But if she does leave him, let her remain single or else be reconciled to him. And the husband must not leave his wife.

<sup>12</sup> Now, I will speak to the rest of you, though I do not have a direct command from the Lord. If a fellow believer* has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to continue living with him, he must not leave her. <sup>13</sup> And if a believing woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to continue living with her, she must not leave him. <sup>14</sup> For the believing wife brings holiness to her marriage, and the believing husband* brings holiness to his marriage. Otherwise, your children would not be holy, but now they are holy. <sup>15</sup> (But if the husband or wife who isn't a believer insists on leaving, let them go. In such cases the believing husband or wife* is no longer bound to the other, for God has called you* to live in peace.) <sup>16</sup> Don't you wives realize that your husbands might be saved because of you? And don't you husbands realize that your wives might be saved because of you?

<sup>17</sup> Each of you should continue to live in whatever situation the Lord has placed you, and remain as you were when God first called you. This is my rule for all the churches. <sup>18</sup> For instance, a man who was circumcised before he became a believer should not try to reverse it. And the man who was uncircumcised when he became a believer should not be circumcised now. <sup>19</sup> For it makes no difference whether or not a man has been circumcised. The important thing is to keep God's commandments.

<sup>20</sup> Yes, each of you should remain as you were when God called you. <sup>21</sup> Are you a slave? Don't let that worry you—but if you get a chance to be free, take it. <sup>22</sup> And remember, if you were a slave when the Lord called you, you are now free in the Lord. And if you were free when the Lord called you, you are now a slave of Christ. <sup>23</sup> God paid a high price for you, so don't be enslaved by the world.* <sup>24</sup> Each of you, dear brothers and sisters,* should remain as you were when God first called you.

<sup>25</sup> Now regarding your question about the young women who are not yet married. I do not have a command from the Lord for them. But the Lord in his mercy has given me wisdom that can be trusted, and I will share it with you. <sup>26</sup> Because of the present crisis,* I think it is best to remain as you are. <sup>27</sup> If you have a wife, do not seek to end the marriage. If you do not have a wife, do not seek to get married. <sup>28</sup> But if you do get married, it is not a sin. And if a young woman gets married, it is not a sin. However, those who get married at this time will have troubles, and I am trying to spare you those problems.

<sup>29</sup> But let me say this, dear brothers and sisters: The time that remains is very short. So from now on, those with wives should not focus only on their marriage. <sup>30</sup> Those who weep or who rejoice or who buy things should not be absorbed by their weeping or their joy or their possessions. <sup>31</sup> Those who use the things of the world should not become attached to them. For this world as we know it will soon pass away.

<sup>32</sup> I want you to be free from the concerns of this life. An unmarried man can spend his time doing the Lord's work and thinking how to please him. <sup>33</sup> But a married man has to think about his earthly responsibilities and how to please his wife. <sup>34</sup> His interests are divided. In the same way, a woman who is no longer married or has never been married can be devoted to the Lord and holy in body and in spirit. But a married woman has to think about her earthly responsibilities and how to please her husband. <sup>35</sup> I am saying this for your benefit, not to place restrictions on you. I want you to do whatever will help you serve the Lord best, with as few distractions as possible.

<sup>36</sup> But if a man thinks that he's treating his fiancée improperly and will inevitably give in to his passion, let him marry her as he wishes. It is not a sin. <sup>37</sup> But if he has decided firmly not to marry and there is no urgency and he can control his passion, he does well not to marry. <sup>38</sup> So the person who marries his fiancée does well, and the person who doesn't marry does even better.

<sup>39</sup> A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives. If her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone she wishes, but only if he loves the Lord.* <sup>40</sup> But in my opinion it would be better for her to stay single, and I think I am giving you counsel from God's Spirit when I say this.

FOOD SACRIFICED TO IDOLS

8 Now regarding your question about food that has been offered to idols. Yes, we know that "we all have knowledge" about this issue. But while knowledge makes us feel important, it is love that strengthens the church. <sup>2</sup> Anyone who claims to know all the answers doesn't really know very much. <sup>3</sup> But the person who loves God is the one whom God recognizes.*

<sup>4</sup> So, what about eating meat that has been offered to idols? Well, we all know that an idol is not really a god and that there is only one God. <sup>5</sup> There may be so-called gods both in heaven and on earth, and some people actually worship many gods and many lords. <sup>6</sup> But for us,

There is one God, the Father, by whom all things were created,
and for whom we live.
And there is one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things were created,
and through whom we live.

<sup>7</sup>However, not all believers know this. Some are accustomed to thinking of idols as being real, so when they eat food that has been offered to idols, they think of it as the worship of real gods, and their weak consciences are violated. <sup>8</sup>It's true that we can't win God's approval by what we eat. We don't lose anything if we don't eat it, and we don't gain anything if we do.

<sup>9</sup>But you must be careful so that your freedom does not cause others with a weaker conscience to stumble. <sup>10</sup>For if others see you—with your “superior knowledge”—eating in the temple of an idol, won't they be encouraged to violate their conscience by eating food that has been offered to an idol? <sup>11</sup>So because of your superior knowledge, a weak believer* for whom Christ died will be destroyed. <sup>12</sup>And when you sin against other believers* by encouraging them to do something they believe is wrong, you are sinning against Christ. <sup>13</sup>So if what I eat causes another believer to sin, I will never eat meat again as long as I live—for I don't want to cause another believer to stumble.

PAUL GIVES UP HIS RIGHTS

9 Am I not as free as anyone else? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus our Lord with my own eyes? Isn't it because of my work that you belong to the Lord? <sup>2</sup>Even if others think I am not an apostle, I certainly am to you. You yourselves are proof that I am the Lord's apostle.

<sup>3</sup>This is my answer to those who question my authority.* <sup>4</sup>Don't we have the right to live in your homes and share your meals? <sup>5</sup>Don't we have the right to bring a believing wife* with us as the other apostles and the Lord's brothers do, and as Peter* does? <sup>6</sup>Or is it only Barnabas and I who have to work to support ourselves?

<sup>7</sup>What soldier has to pay his own expenses? What farmer plants a vineyard and doesn't have the right to eat some of its fruit? What shepherd cares for a flock of sheep and isn't allowed to drink some of the milk? <sup>8</sup>Am I expressing merely a human opinion, or does the law say the same thing? <sup>9</sup>For the law of Moses says, “You must not muzzle an ox to keep it from eating as it treads out the grain.”* Was God thinking only about oxen when he said this? <sup>10</sup>Wasn't he actually speaking to us? Yes, it was written for us, so that the one who plows and the one who threshes the grain might both expect a share of the harvest.

<sup>11</sup>Since we have planted spiritual seed among you, aren't we entitled to a harvest of physical food and drink? <sup>12</sup>If you support others who preach to you, shouldn't we have an even greater right to be supported? But we have never used this right. We would rather put up with anything than be an obstacle to the Good News about Christ.

<sup>13</sup>Don't you realize that those who work in the temple get their meals from the offerings brought to the temple? And those who serve at the altar get a share of the sacrificial offerings.

<sup>14</sup>In the same way, the Lord ordered that those who preach the Good News should be supported by those who benefit from it. <sup>15</sup>Yet I have never used any of these rights. And I am not writing this to suggest that I want to start now. In fact, I would rather die than lose my right to boast about preaching without charge. <sup>16</sup>Yet preaching the Good News is not something I can boast about. I am compelled by God to do it. How terrible for me if I didn't preach the Good News!

<sup>17</sup>If I were doing this on my own initiative, I would deserve payment. But I have no choice, for God has given me this sacred trust. <sup>18</sup>What then is my pay? It is the opportunity to preach the Good News without charging anyone. That's why I never demand my rights when I preach the Good News.

<sup>19</sup>Even though I am a free man with no master, I have become a slave to all people to bring many to Christ. <sup>20</sup>When I was with the Jews, I lived like a Jew to bring the Jews to Christ. When I was with those who follow the Jewish law, I too lived under that law. Even though I am not subject to the law, I did this so I could bring to Christ those who are under the law. <sup>21</sup>When I am with the Gentiles who do not follow the Jewish law,* I too live apart from that law so I can bring them to Christ. But I do not ignore the law of God; I obey the law of Christ.

<sup>22</sup>When I am with those who are weak, I share their weakness, for I want to bring the weak to Christ. Yes, I try to find common ground with everyone, doing everything I can to save some. <sup>23</sup>I do everything to spread the Good News and share in its blessings.

<sup>24</sup>Don't you realize that in a race everyone runs, but only one person gets the prize? So run to win! <sup>25</sup>All athletes are disciplined in their training. They do it to win a prize that will fade away, but we do it for an eternal prize. <sup>26</sup>So I run with purpose in every step. I am not just shadow-boxing. <sup>27</sup>I discipline my body like an athlete, training it to do what it should. Otherwise, I fear that after preaching to others I myself might be disqualified.

HYDRATE YOUR SPIRIT

1 Corinthians 10:3-4

ROBERT MORRIS

In addition to the bread of heaven, the Word of God is also the water of life. Writing about the people of Israel, the apostle Paul says, "All of them drank the same spiritual water. For they drank from the spiritual rock that traveled with them, and that rock was Christ" (1 Corinthians 10:4).

Jesus is the rock, and the water is God's Word. There is something about reading Scripture that hydrates your spirit. Psalm 1:2-3 says that people who constantly meditate on God's Word are like fruit-bearing trees. Think about the fruit of the Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control (Galatians 5:22-23). Meditating on the Word of God will bring forth this spiritual fruit in your life and cause you to prosper.

What are some habits you can change in order to make reading God's Word a part of your daily life?

TEMPTATION

1 Corinthians 10:6-14

MARCUS BRECHEN

A temptation is a promise that doesn't come from God and is, therefore, a lie. Temptations stem from idolatry in our lives—any areas of our hearts in which we love something else more than we love God (James 1:13-15).

There are several common temptations every person faces. Any type of sexual immorality is idolatry because we're placing our desires above what God says is best for us. We are also tempted to "put Christ to the test" when we believe what God has done for us is not good enough (1 Corinthians 10:9). And when we see someone else receive what we want, we are tempted to complain as we disregard the promises of God.

When temptation comes, our flesh wants to indulge in the pleasure of sin. Our only way to escape is to choose, through a conscious act of our wills, to believe what God has for us is better than sin and its consequences.

by a cloud that moved ahead of them, and all of them walked through the sea on dry ground.<sup>2</sup> In the cloud and in the sea, all of them were baptized as followers of Moses.<sup>3</sup> All of them ate the same spiritual food,<sup>4</sup> and all of them drank the same spiritual water. For they drank from the spiritual rock that traveled with them, and that rock was Christ.<sup>5</sup> Yet God was not pleased with most of them, and their bodies were scattered in the wilderness.

<sup>6</sup> These things happened as a warning to us, so that we would not crave evil things as they did,<sup>7</sup> or worship idols as some of them did. As the Scriptures say, "The people celebrated with feasting and drinking, and they indulged in pagan revelry."<sup>8</sup> And we must not engage in sexual immorality as some of them did, causing 23,000 of them to die in one day.

<sup>9</sup> Nor should we put Christ* to the test, as some of them did and then died from snakebites.<sup>10</sup> And don't grumble as some of them did, and then were destroyed by the angel of death.<sup>11</sup> These things happened to them as examples for us. They were written down to warn us who live at the end of the age.

<sup>12</sup> If you think you are standing strong, be careful not to fall.<sup>13</sup> The temptations in your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure.

<sup>14</sup> So, my dear friends, flee from the worship of idols.<sup>15</sup> You are reasonable people. Decide for yourselves if what I am saying is true.<sup>16</sup> When we bless the cup at the Lord's Table, aren't we sharing in the blood of Christ? And when we break the bread, aren't we sharing in the body of Christ?<sup>17</sup> And though we are many, we all eat from one loaf of bread, showing that we are one body.<sup>18</sup> Think about the people of Israel. Weren't they united by eating the sacrifices at the altar?

<sup>19</sup> What am I trying to say? Am I saying that food offered to idols has some significance, or that idols are real gods?<sup>20</sup> No, not at all. I am saying that these sacrifices are offered to demons, not to God. And I don't want you to participate with demons.<sup>21</sup> You cannot drink from the cup of the Lord and from the cup of demons, too. You cannot eat at the Lord's Table and at the table of demons, too.<sup>22</sup> What? Do we dare to rouse the Lord's jealousy? Do you think we are stronger than he is?

<sup>25</sup> So you may eat any meat that is sold in the marketplace without raising questions of conscience.<sup>26</sup> For "the earth is the Lord's, and everything in it."*

<sup>27</sup> If someone who isn't a believer asks you home for dinner, accept the invitation if you want to. Eat whatever is offered to you without raising questions of conscience.<sup>28</sup> (But suppose someone tells you, "This meat was offered to an idol." Don't eat it, out of consideration for the conscience of the one who told you.<sup>29</sup> It might not be a matter of conscience for you, but it is for the other person.) For why should my freedom be limited by what someone else thinks? <sup>30</sup> If I can thank God for the food and enjoy it, why should I be condemned for eating it?

10:7 Exod 32:6. 10:9 Some manuscripts read the Lord.
10:23 Greek All things are lawful; also in 10:23b. 10:26 Ps 24:1.

<sup>31</sup> So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God. <sup>32</sup> Don't give offense to Jews or Gentiles* or the church of God. <sup>33</sup> I, too, try to please everyone in everything I do. I don't just do what is best for me; I do what is best for others so that many may be saved. <sup>34</sup> And you should imitate me, just as I imitate Christ.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PUBLIC WORSHIP

11 <sup>1</sup> I am so glad that you always keep me in your thoughts, and that you are following the teachings I passed on to you. <sup>2</sup> But there is one thing I want you to know: The head of every man is Christ, the head of woman is man, and the head of Christ is God.* <sup>3</sup> A man dishonors his head* if he covers his head while praying or prophesying. <sup>4</sup> But a woman dishonors her head* if she prays or prophesies without a covering on her head, for this is the same as shaving her head. <sup>5</sup> Yes, if she refuses to wear a head covering, she should cut off all her hair! But since it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or her head shaved, she should wear a covering.*

<sup>6</sup> A man should not wear anything on his head when worshiping, for man is made in God's image and reflects God's glory. And woman reflects man's glory. <sup>7</sup> For the first man didn't come from woman, but the first woman came from man. <sup>8</sup> And man was not made for woman, but woman was made for man. <sup>9</sup> For this reason, and because the angels are watching, a woman should wear a covering on her head to show she is under authority.*

<sup>11</sup> But among the Lord's people, women are not independent of men, and men are not independent of women. <sup>12</sup> For although the first woman came from man, every other man was born from a woman, and everything comes from God.

<sup>13</sup> Judge for yourselves. Is it right for a woman to pray to God in public without covering her head? <sup>14</sup> Isn't it obvious that it's disgraceful for a man to have long hair? <sup>15</sup> And isn't long hair a woman's pride and joy? For it has been given to her as a covering. <sup>16</sup> But if anyone wants to argue about this, I simply say that we have no other custom than this, and neither do God's other churches.

ORDER AT THE LORD'S SUPPER

<sup>17</sup> But in the following instructions, I cannot praise you. For it sounds as if more harm than good is done when you meet together. <sup>18</sup> First, I hear that there are divisions among you when you meet as a church, and to some extent I believe it. <sup>19</sup> But, of course, there must be divisions among you so that you who have God's approval will be recognized!

<sup>23</sup> For I pass on to you what I received from the Lord himself. On the night when he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread <sup>24</sup> and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and said, "This is my body, which is given for you.* Do this in remembrance of me."<sup>25</sup> In the same way, he took the cup of wine after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant between God and his people—an agreement confirmed with my blood. Do this in remembrance of me as often as you drink it."<sup>26</sup> For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are announcing the Lord's death until he comes again.

<sup>27</sup> So anyone who eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord unworthily is guilty of sinning against* the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup> That is why you should examine yourself before eating the bread and drinking the cup. <sup>29</sup> For if you eat the bread or drink the cup without honoring the body of Christ,* you are eating and drinking God's judgment upon yourself. <sup>30</sup> That is why many of you are weak and sick and some have even died.

<sup>31</sup> But if we would examine ourselves, we would not be judged by God in this way. <sup>32</sup> Yet when we are judged by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be condemned along with the world.

<sup>33</sup> So, my dear brothers and sisters,* when you gather for the Lord's Supper, wait for each other.

<sup>34</sup> If you are really hungry, eat at home so you won't bring judgment upon yourselves when you meet together. I'll give you instructions about the other matters after I arrive.

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

12 Now, dear brothers and sisters,* regarding your question about the special abilities the Spirit gives us. I don't want you to misunderstand this. <sup>2</sup> You know that when you were still pagans, you were led astray and swept along in worshiping speechless idols. <sup>3</sup> So I want you to know that no one speaking by the Spirit of God will curse Jesus, and no one can say Jesus is Lord, except by the Holy Spirit.

THE FATHER IS OMNI

1 Corinthians 10:12-13

ROBERT MORRIS

Understanding who God is will change your life. The word omni means ‘all,’ and the only person this word truly applies to is God. He isn’t just powerful—He has all power. He isn’t just wise—He has all knowledge. And He isn’t just present with a few special pastors or teachers—He’s present with all people.

1. The Father is omnipotent.

Potent means ‘powerful,’ and omnipotent means ‘all-powerful.’ God has all power and all ability to perform all of His decrees. Yes, God is good, but if He weren’t also all-powerful, then He couldn’t effectively act on His goodness. God has supreme and absolute power, which means He has the right and the ability to act. Because God is omnipotent, we can have peace even when there is chaos around us. We can overcome sin (1 Corinthians 10:13), sickness (Romans 8:11), and Satan (1 John 4:4).

2. The Father is omniscient.

The suffix of this word has the same root as science—meaning “knowledge.” God is all-knowing. He knows everything actual and everything possible, including all events and creatures, past, present, and future. Nothing has ever “occurred” to God. He can’t learn anything because He already knows everything and He cannot change—He is immutable. God is never bewildered or confused; He never has to figure something out. Nothing can ever happen to you that God did not already know, plan, or provide. Our knowledge can never compare to His (see Job 38).

3. The Father is omnipresent.

God is all-present; He is in all places at all times. If there were any place that He could not go, then He would have limits. However, God has no limits because He is infinite (Psalm 139:7-12). He doesn’t travel because He is already everywhere. No matter where you go or what you walk through, God is with you at all times.

<sup>4</sup>There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit is the source of them all. <sup>5</sup>There are different kinds of service, but we serve the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>God works in different ways, but it is the same God who does the work in all of us.

<sup>7</sup>A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other. <sup>8</sup>To one person the Spirit gives the ability to give wise advice*; to another the same Spirit gives a message of special knowledge.* <sup>9</sup>The same Spirit gives great faith to another, and to someone else the one Spirit gives the gift of healing. <sup>10</sup>He gives one person the power to perform miracles, and another the ability to prophesy. He gives someone else the ability to discern whether a message is from the

MY COMMITTED CALLING

1 Corinthians 12:1-31

ROBERT MORRIS

Every believer is called to ministry. Now I’m not saying every person is meant to be a pastor or missionary—those are vocational ministry callings. But every believer has been given a gift to use for the Kingdom of God.

As a pastor, I can’t win everyone to Jesus, but together, we can. Most of the great people in the Bible were not in vocational ministry. Instead, they were farmers, shepherds, fishermen, government employees, etc. They had ordinary jobs, but they still did great things for God. You can do great things for God too. Here are three steps to find your committed calling:

1. Draw near to God (Psalm 73:28).

Sometimes we don’t feel like “drawing near,” especially if we’ve had a bad day or even a bad life. However, we can draw near because we come by grace (Hebrews 7:19; 10:22). You may think, I just can’t seem to stop this particular sin. In Mark 5, a man was full of demons, but they couldn’t stop him from running to Jesus. Whether you’re in bondage, depression, or have been away from God for a long time, it’s always a good time to draw near to God. You’re never going to discover and minister in the calling God has for you without drawing near to Him.

2. Discover and develop your gifts

(1 Corinthians 12).

We’re all members of the body of Christ, and every member is important. You may see another believer and think, I wish I had his gift, but 1 Corinthians 12:18 says, “God has put each part just where he wants it.” God has given every person specific gifts. It’s our responsibility to discover and develop our gifts and use them for the Kingdom of God (Romans 12:4-6).

3. Just do something.

You might not start off doing what you think you’re called to do, and you may not start at the top. Just start somewhere. I knew I was called to preach, but I spent years developing my gift before Gateway Church ever existed. Whatever you hear God telling you to do, start developing your gift today.

Spirit of God or from another spirit. Still another person is given the ability to speak in unknown languages,* while another is given the ability to interpret what is being said. <sup>11</sup>It is the one and only Spirit who distributes all these gifts. He alone decides which gift each person should have.

12:8a Or gives a word of wisdom. 12:8b Or gives a word of knowledge. 12:10 Or in various tongues; also in 12:28, 30.

IS THE HOLY SPIRIT CHARISMATIC?

1 Corinthians 12:7–11

ROBERT MORRIS

The word charismatic comes from the Greek word charisma, which means ‘grace gift.’ Charisma is the instantaneous enablement of the Holy Spirit in the life of any believer to exercise a gift for the edification of others. According to Scripture, if you have a gift given to you by God’s grace, you are charismatic.

The apostle Paul writes about nine manifestational gifts in 1 Corinthians 12:7–11. These gifts are divided into three categories. The discerning gifts include a word of knowledge, a word of wisdom, and discerning of spirits. The declarative gifts include prophecy, tongues, and interpretation of tongues. The dynamic gifts include faith, gifts of healings, and working of miracles.

No one “has” any of these gifts. Instead, they are given to each person as the Holy Spirit desires. Any believer can minister in any of these gifts as the Holy Spirit empowers them to do so.

ONE BODY WITH MANY PARTS

<sup>12</sup>The human body has many parts, but the many parts make up one whole body. So it is with the body of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Some of us are Jews, some are Gentiles,* some are slaves, and some are free. But we have all been baptized into one body by one Spirit, and we all share the same Spirit.*

<sup>14</sup>Yes, the body has many different parts, not just one part. <sup>15</sup>If the foot says, “I am not a part of the body because I am not a hand,” that does not make it any less a part of the body. <sup>16</sup>And if the ear says, “I am not part of the body because I am not an eye,” would that make it any less a part of the body? <sup>17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, how would you hear? Or if your whole body were an ear, how would you smell anything?

<sup>18</sup>But our bodies have many parts, and God has put each part just where he wants it. <sup>19</sup>How strange a body would be if it had only one part!

<sup>20</sup>Yes, there are many parts, but only one body.

<sup>21</sup>The eye can never say to the hand, “I don’t need you.” The head can’t say to the feet, “I don’t need you.”

<sup>22</sup>In fact, some parts of the body that seem weakest and least important are actually the most necessary. <sup>23</sup>And the parts we regard as less honorable are those we clothe with the greatest care. So we carefully protect those parts that should not be seen, <sup>24</sup>while the more honorable parts do not require this special care. So God has put the body together such that extra honor and care are given to those parts that have less dignity.

<sup>25</sup>This makes for harmony among the members, so that all the members care for each other. <sup>26</sup>If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it, and if one part is honored, all the parts are glad.

DOES THE HOLY SPIRIT BAPTIZE?

1 Corinthians 12:13

ROBERT MORRIS

Just as the Trinity is one God in three persons, there are also three distinct forms of baptism:

1. The Holy Spirit baptizes us in Jesus when we receive salvation.

The Holy Spirit comes to live inside us, and we become part of the body of Christ.

2. A fellow believer (disciple) baptizes us in water.

Water baptism is when our old, sinful selves are cut off.

3. Jesus baptizes us in the Holy Spirit.

When we receive this baptism, we are empowered to walk in our new lives in Christ.

Many believers live defeated lives because they only experience the first two baptisms, but all three steps are essential to living a victorious Christian life.

<sup>27</sup>All of you together are Christ’s body, and each of you is a part of it. <sup>28</sup>Here are some of the parts God has appointed for the church:

first are apostles,
second are prophets,
third are teachers,
then those who do miracles,
those who have the gift of healing,
those who can help others,
those who have the gift of leadership,
those who speak in unknown languages.

<sup>29</sup>Are we all apostles? Are we all prophets? Are we all teachers? Do we all have the power to do miracles? <sup>30</sup>Do we all have the gift of healing? Do we all have the ability to speak in unknown languages? Do we all have the ability to interpret unknown languages? Of course not! <sup>31</sup>So you should earnestly desire the most helpful gifts.

But now let me show you a way of life that is best of all.

LOVE IS THE GREATEST

13 If I could speak all the languages of earth and of angels, but didn’t love others, I would only be a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup>If I had the gift of prophecy, and if I understood all of God’s secret plans and possessed all knowledge, and if I had such faith that I could move mountains, but didn’t love others, I would be nothing. <sup>3</sup>If I gave everything I have to the poor and even sacrificed my body, I could boast about it;* but if I didn’t love others, I would have gained nothing.

12:13a Greek some are Greeks. 12:13b Greek we were all given one Spirit to drink. 13:3 Some manuscripts read sacrificed my body to be burned.

<sup>8</sup> Prophecy and speaking in unknown languages* and special knowledge will become useless. But love will last forever! <sup>9</sup> Now our knowledge is partial and incomplete, and even the gift of prophecy reveals only part of the whole picture!<sup>10</sup> But when the time of perfection comes, these partial things will become useless.

<sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I spoke and thought and reasoned as a child. But when I grew up, I put away childish things. <sup>12</sup> Now we see things imperfectly, like puzzling reflections in a mirror, but then we will see everything with perfect clarity.* All that I know now is partial and incomplete, but then I will know everything completely, just as God now knows me completely.

<sup>13</sup> Three things will last forever—faith, hope, and love—and the greatest of these is love.

TONGUES AND PROPHECY

14 Let love be your highest goal! But you should also desire the special abilities the Spirit gives—especially the ability to prophesy. <sup>2</sup> For if you have the ability to speak in tongues,* you will be talking only to God, since people won't be able to understand you. You will be speaking by the power of the Spirit,* but it will all be mysterious. <sup>3</sup> But one who prophesies strengthens others, encourages them, and comforts them. <sup>4</sup> A person who speaks in tongues is strengthened personally, but one who speaks a word of prophecy strengthens the entire church.

<sup>5</sup> I wish you could all speak in tongues, but even more I wish you could all prophesy. For prophecy is greater than speaking in tongues, unless someone interprets what you are saying so that the whole church will be strengthened.

<sup>6</sup> Dear brothers and sisters,* if I should come to you speaking in an unknown language,* how would that help you? But if I bring you a revelation or some special knowledge or prophecy or teaching, that will be helpful. <sup>7</sup> Even lifeless instruments like the flute or the harp must play the notes clearly, or no one will recognize the melody. <sup>8</sup> And if the bugler doesn't sound a clear call, how will the soldiers know they are being called to battle?

<sup>9</sup> It's the same for you. If you speak to people in words they don't understand, how will they know what you are saying? You might as well be talking into empty space.

<sup>10</sup> There are many different languages in the world, and every language has meaning. <sup>11</sup> But if I don't understand a language, I will be a foreigner to someone who speaks it, and the one who speaks it will be a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup> And the same is true for you. Since you are so eager to have the special abilities the Spirit gives, seek those that will strengthen the whole church.

<sup>13</sup> So anyone who speaks in tongues should pray also for the ability to interpret what has been said. <sup>14</sup> For if I pray in tongues, my spirit is praying, but I don't understand what I am saying.

<sup>15</sup> Well then, what shall I do? I will pray in the spirit,* and I will also pray in words I understand. I will sing in the spirit, and I will also sing in words I understand. <sup>16</sup> For if you praise God only in the spirit, how can those who don't understand you praise God along with you? How can they join you in giving thanks when they don't understand what you are saying? <sup>17</sup> You will be giving thanks very well, but it won't strengthen the people who hear you.

<sup>18</sup> I thank God that I speak in tongues more than any of you. <sup>19</sup> But in a church meeting I would rather speak five understandable words to help others than ten thousand words in an unknown language.

<sup>20</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, don't be childish in your understanding of these things. Be innocent as babies when it comes to evil, but be mature in understanding matters of this kind.

“I will speak to my own people through strange languages and through the lips of foreigners.

DOES THE HOLY SPIRIT SPEAK IN TONGUES?

1 Corinthians 14:2

ROBERT MORRIS

Speaking in tongues is biblical. The manifestational gift of tongues is a message from God that needs to be interpreted for edification. There is also a grace gift of tongues—a prayer language not from God but to God.

Praying in tongues is a choice available to every believer. It is an act of your will that requires faith. When you pray in tongues, your spirit prays even though your mind does not understand what you're saying. The apostle Paul says it is beneficial to pray in the spirit and in words you understand (1 Corinthians 14:14–18).

Praying in the spirit is also the final piece of the armor of God (Ephesians 6:18). It will build you up and help you control the most unruly member of your body—your tongue. As believers, we need all the building up we can get!

13:8 Or in tongues. 13:12 Greek see face to face. 14:2a Or in unknown languages; also in 14:4, 5, 13, 14, 18, 22, 26, 27, 28, 39. 14:2b Or speaking in your spirit. 14:6a Greek brothers; also in 14:20, 26, 39. 14:6b Or in tongues; also in 14:19, 23. 14:15 Or in the Spirit; also in 14:15b, 16. 14:21a Greek in the law.

But even then, they will not listen to me,”* says the LORD.

<sup>22</sup>So you see that speaking in tongues is a sign, not for believers, but for unbelievers. Prophecy, however, is for the benefit of believers, not unbelievers. <sup>23</sup>Even so, if unbelievers or people who don't understand these things come into your church meeting and hear everyone speaking in an unknown language, they will think you are crazy. <sup>24</sup>But if all of you are prophesying, and unbelievers or people who don't understand these things come into your meeting, they will be convicted of sin and judged by what you say. <sup>25</sup>As they listen, their secret thoughts will be exposed, and they will fall to their knees and worship God, declaring, “God is truly here among you.”

A CALL TO ORDERLY WORSHIP

<sup>26</sup>Well, my brothers and sisters, let's summarize. When you meet together, one will sing, another will teach, another will tell some special revelation God has given, one will speak in tongues, and another will interpret what is said. But everything that is done must strengthen all of you.

<sup>27</sup>No more than two or three should speak in tongues. They must speak one at a time, and someone must interpret what they say. <sup>28</sup>But if no one is present who can interpret, they must be silent in your church meeting and speak in tongues to God privately.

<sup>29</sup>Let two or three people prophesy, and let the others evaluate what is said. <sup>30</sup>But if someone is prophesying and another person receives a revelation from the Lord, the one who is speaking must stop. <sup>31</sup>In this way, all who prophesy will have a turn to speak, one after the other, so that everyone will learn and be encouraged. <sup>32</sup>Remember that people who prophesy are in control of their spirit and can take turns. <sup>33</sup>For God is not a God of disorder but of peace, as in all the meetings of God's holy people.*

<sup>34</sup>Women should be silent during the church meetings. It is not proper for them to speak. They should be submissive, just as the law says. <sup>35</sup>If they have any questions, they should ask their husbands at home, for it is improper for women to speak in church meetings.*

<sup>36</sup>Or do you think God's word originated with you Corinthians? Are you the only ones to whom it was given? <sup>37</sup>If you claim to be a prophet or think you are spiritual, you should recognize that what I am saying is a command from the Lord himself. <sup>38</sup>But if you do not recognize this, you yourself will not be recognized.*

<sup>39</sup>So, my dear brothers and sisters, be eager to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking in tongues. <sup>40</sup>But be sure that everything is done properly and in order.

THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST

15 Let me now remind you, dear brothers and sisters,* of the Good News I preached to you before. You welcomed it then, and you still stand firm in it. <sup>2</sup>It is this Good News that saves you if you continue to believe the message I told you—unless, of course, you believed something that was never true in the first place.*

<sup>3</sup>I passed on to you what was most important and what had also been passed on to me. Christ died for our sins, just as the Scriptures said. <sup>4</sup>He was buried, and he was raised from the dead on the third day, just as the Scriptures said. <sup>5</sup>He was seen by Peter* and then by the Twelve. <sup>6</sup>After that, he was seen by more than 500 of his followers* at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. <sup>7</sup>Then he was seen by James and later by all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>Last of all, as though I had been born at the wrong time, I also saw him. <sup>9</sup>For I am the least of all the apostles. In fact, I'm not even worthy to be called an apostle after the way I persecuted God's church.

<sup>10</sup>But whatever I am now, it is all because God poured out his special favor on me—and not without results. For I have worked harder than any of the other apostles; yet it was not I but God who was working through me by his grace. <sup>11</sup>So it makes no difference whether I preach or they preach, for we all preach the same message you have already believed.

THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD

<sup>12</sup>But tell me this—since we preach that Christ rose from the dead, why are some of you saying there will be no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup>For if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised either. <sup>14</sup>And if Christ has not been raised, then all our preaching is useless, and your faith is useless. <sup>15</sup>And we apostles would all be lying about God—for we have said that God raised Christ from the grave. But that can't be true if there is no resurrection of the dead. <sup>16</sup>And if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised. <sup>17</sup>And if Christ has not been raised, then your faith is useless and you are still guilty of your sins. <sup>18</sup>In that case, all who have died believing in Christ are lost! <sup>19</sup>And if our hope in Christ is only for this life, we are more to be pitied than anyone in the world.

<sup>20</sup>But in fact, Christ has been raised from the dead. He is the first of a great harvest of all who have died.

<sup>21</sup>So you see, just as death came into the world through a man, now the resurrection from the dead has begun through another man. <sup>22</sup>Just as everyone dies because we all belong to Adam,

14:21b Isa 28:11-12. 14:33 The phrase as in all the meetings of God's holy people could instead be joined to the beginning of 14:34. 14:35 Some manuscripts place verses 34-35 after 14:40.

14:38 Some manuscripts read If you are ignorant of this, stay in your ignorance. 15:1 Greek brothers; also in 15:31, 50, 58. 15:2 Or unless you never believed it in the first place. 15:5 Greek Cephas. 15:6 Greek the brothers.

everyone who belongs to Christ will be given new life.<sup>23</sup> But there is an order to this resurrection: Christ was raised as the first of the harvest; then all who belong to Christ will be raised when he comes back.

<sup>24</sup> After that the end will come, when he will turn the Kingdom over to God the Father, having destroyed every ruler and authority and power.<sup>25</sup> For Christ must reign until he humbles all his enemies beneath his feet.<sup>26</sup> And the last enemy to be destroyed is death.<sup>27</sup> For the Scriptures say, “God has put all things under his authority.”* (Of course, when it says “all things are under his authority,” that does not include God himself, who gave Christ his authority.)<sup>28</sup> Then, when all things are under his authority, the Son will put himself under God’s authority, so that God, who gave his Son authority over all things, will be utterly supreme over everything everywhere.

<sup>29</sup> If the dead will not be raised, what point is there in people being baptized for those who are dead? Why do it unless the dead will someday rise again?

<sup>30</sup> And why should we ourselves risk our lives hour by hour? <sup>31</sup> For I swear, dear brothers and sisters, that I face death daily. This is as certain as my pride in what Christ Jesus our Lord has done in you.<sup>32</sup> And what value was there in fighting wild beasts—those people of Ephesus*—if there will be no resurrection from the dead? And if there is no resurrection, “Let’s feast and drink, for tomorrow we die!”<sup>33</sup> Don’t be fooled by those who say such things, for “bad company corrupts good character.”<sup>34</sup> Think carefully about what is right, and stop sinning. For to your shame I say that some of you don’t know God at all.

THE RESURRECTION BODY

<sup>35</sup> But someone may ask, “How will the dead be raised? What kind of bodies will they have?”

<sup>36</sup> What a foolish question! When you put a seed into the ground, it doesn’t grow into a plant unless it dies first.<sup>37</sup> And what you put in the ground is not the plant that will grow, but only a bare seed of wheat or whatever you are planting.<sup>38</sup> Then God gives it the new body he wants it to have. A different plant grows from each kind of seed.<sup>39</sup> Similarly there are different kinds of flesh—one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

<sup>40</sup> There are also bodies in the heavens and bodies on the earth. The glory of the heavenly bodies is different from the glory of the earthly bodies.

<sup>41</sup> The sun has one kind of glory, while the moon and stars each have another kind. And even the stars differ from each other in their glory.

<sup>42</sup> It is the same way with the resurrection of the dead. Our earthly bodies are planted in the ground when we die, but they will be raised to live forever.<sup>43</sup> Our bodies are buried in brokenness, but they will be raised in glory. They are buried in weakness, but they will be raised in strength.<sup>44</sup> They are buried as natural human bodies, but they will be raised as spiritual bodies. For just as there are natural bodies, there are also spiritual bodies.

<sup>45</sup> The Scriptures tell us, “The first man, Adam, became a living person.”* But the last Adam—that is, Christ—is a life-giving Spirit.<sup>46</sup> What comes first is the natural body, then the spiritual body comes later.<sup>47</sup> Adam, the first man, was made from the dust of the earth, while Christ, the second man, came from heaven.<sup>48</sup> Earthly people are like the earthly man, and heavenly people are like the heavenly man.<sup>49</sup> Just as we are now like the earthly man, we will someday be like* the heavenly man.

<sup>50</sup> What I am saying, dear brothers and sisters, is that our physical bodies cannot inherit the Kingdom of God. These dying bodies cannot inherit what will last forever.

<sup>51</sup> But let me reveal to you a wonderful secret. We will not all die, but we will all be transformed!<sup>52</sup> It will happen in a moment, in the blink of an eye, when the last trumpet is blown. For when the trumpet sounds, those who have died will be raised to live forever. And we who are living will also be transformed.<sup>53</sup> For our dying bodies must be transformed into bodies that will never die; our mortal bodies must be transformed into immortal bodies.

<sup>54</sup> Then, when our dying bodies have been transformed into bodies that will never die,* this Scripture will be fulfilled:

“Death is swallowed up in victory.*

<sup>55</sup> O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?*

<sup>56</sup> For sin is the sting that results in death, and the law gives sin its power.<sup>57</sup> But thank God! He gives us victory over sin and death through our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>58</sup> So, my dear brothers and sisters, be strong and immovable. Always work enthusiastically for the Lord, for you know that nothing you do for the Lord is ever useless.

THE COLLECTION FOR JERUSALEM

16 Now regarding your question about the money being collected for God’s people in Jerusalem. You should follow the same procedure I gave to the churches in Galatia.<sup>2</sup> On the first day of each week, you should each put aside a portion of the money you have earned. Don’t wait until I get there and then try to collect it all at once.<sup>3</sup> When I come, I will write letters of recommendation for the messengers you choose 15:27 Ps 8:6. 15:32a Greek fighting wild beasts in Ephesus. 15:32b Isa 22:13. 15:45 Gen 2:7. 15:49 Some manuscripts read let us be like. 15:54a Some manuscripts add and our mortal bodies have been transformed into immortal bodies. 15:54b Isa 25:8. 15:55 Hos 13:14 (Greek version).

to deliver your gift to Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup>And if it seems appropriate for me to go along, they can travel with me.

PAUL'S FINAL INSTRUCTIONS

<sup>5</sup>I am coming to visit you after I have been to Macedonia, *for I am planning to travel through Macedonia. <sup>6</sup>Perhaps I will stay awhile with you, possibly all winter, and then you can send me on my way to my next destination. <sup>7</sup>This time I don't want to make just a short visit and then go right on. I want to come and stay awhile, if the Lord will let me. <sup>8</sup>In the meantime, I will be staying here at Ephesus until the Festival of Pentecost. <sup>9</sup>There is a wide-open door for a great work here, although many oppose me,

<sup>10</sup>When Timothy comes, don't intimidate him. He is doing the Lord's work, just as I am. <sup>11</sup>Don't let anyone treat him with contempt. Send him on his way with your blessing when he returns to me. I expect him to come with the other believers.*

<sup>12</sup>Now about our brother Apollos—I urged him to visit you with the other believers, but he was not willing to go right now. He will see you later when he has the opportunity.

in Greece, *and they are spending their lives in service to God's people. I urge you, dear brothers and sisters, *<sup>16</sup>to submit to them and others like them who serve with such devotion. <sup>17</sup>I am very glad that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus have come here. They have been providing the help you weren't here to give me. <sup>18</sup>They have been a wonderful encouragement to me, as they have been to you. You must show your appreciation to all who serve so well.

PAUL'S FINAL GREETINGS

16:5 Macedonia was in the northern region of Greece.

2 CORINTHIANS

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy.

I am writing to God's church in Corinth and to all of his holy people throughout Greece.*

<sup>2</sup> May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

GOD OFFERS COMFORT TO ALL

<sup>3</sup> All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is our merciful Father and the source of all comfort. <sup>4</sup> He comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others. When they are troubled, we will be able to give them the same comfort God has given us. <sup>5</sup> For the more we suffer for Christ, the more God will shower us with his comfort through Christ. <sup>6</sup> Even when we are weighed down with troubles, it is for your comfort and salvation! For when we ourselves are comforted, we will certainly comfort you. Then you can patiently endure the same things we suffer. <sup>7</sup> We are confident that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in the comfort God gives us.

<sup>8</sup> We think you ought to know, dear brothers and sisters,* about the trouble we went through in the province of Asia. We were crushed and overwhelmed beyond our ability to endure, and we thought we would never live through it. <sup>9</sup> In fact, we expected to die. But as a result, we stopped relying on ourselves and learned to rely only on God, who raises the dead. <sup>10</sup> And he did rescue us from mortal danger, and he will rescue us again. We have placed our confidence in him, and he will continue to rescue us. <sup>11</sup> And you are helping us by praying for us. Then many people will give thanks because God has graciously answered so many prayers for our safety.

PAUL'S CHANGE OF PLANS

<sup>12</sup> We can say with confidence and a clear conscience that we have lived with a God-given holiness* and sincerity in all our dealings. We have depended on God's grace, not on our own human wisdom. That is how we have conducted ourselves before the world, and especially toward you. <sup>13</sup> Our letters have been straightforward, and there is nothing written between the lines and nothing you can't understand. I hope someday you will fully understand us, <sup>14</sup> even if you don't understand us now. Then on the day when the Lord Jesus* returns, you will be proud of us in the same way we are proud of you.

<sup>15</sup> Since I was so sure of your understanding and trust, I wanted to give you a double blessing by visiting you twice—<sup>16</sup> first on my way to Macedonia and again when I returned from Macedonia.* Then you could send me on my way to Judea.

<sup>17</sup> You may be asking why I changed my plan. Do you think I make my plans carelessly? Do you think I am like people of the world who say "Yes" when they really mean "No"? <sup>18</sup> As surely as God is faithful, our word to you does not waver between "Yes" and "No." <sup>19</sup> For Jesus Christ, the Son of God, does not waver between "Yes" and "No." He is the one whom Silas,* Timothy, and I preached to you, and as God's ultimate "Yes," he always does what he says. <sup>20</sup> For all of God's promises have been fulfilled in Christ with a resounding "Yes!" And through Christ, our "Amen" (which means "Yes") ascends to God for his glory.

<sup>21</sup> It is God who enables us, along with you, to stand firm for Christ. He has commissioned us, <sup>22</sup> and he has identified us as his own by placing the Holy Spirit in our hearts as the first installment that guarantees everything he has promised us.

<sup>23</sup> Now I call upon God as my witness that I am telling the truth. The reason I didn't return to Corinth was to spare you from a severe rebuke. <sup>24</sup> But that does not mean we want to dominate you by telling you how to put your faith into practice. We want to work together with you so you will be full of joy, for it is by your own faith that you stand firm.

2 So I decided that I would not bring you grief with another painful visit. <sup>2</sup> For if I cause you grief, who will make me glad? Certainly not someone I have grieved. <sup>3</sup> That is why I wrote to you as I did, so that when I do come, I won't be grieved by the very ones who ought to give me the greatest joy. Surely you all know that my joy comes from your being joyful. <sup>4</sup> I wrote that letter in great anguish, with a troubled heart and many tears. I didn't want to grieve you, but I wanted to let you know how much love I have for you.

FORGIVENESS FOR THE SINNER

<sup>5</sup> I am not overstating it when I say that the man who caused all the trouble hurt all of you more than he hurt me. <sup>6</sup> Most of you opposed him, and that was punishment enough. <sup>7</sup> Now, however, it is time to forgive and comfort him. Otherwise he may be overcome by discouragement. <sup>8</sup> So I urge you now to reaffirm your love for him.

<sup>9</sup> I wrote to you as I did to test you and see if you would fully comply with my instructions.

1:1 Greek Achaia, the southern region of the Greek peninsula.

1:8 Greek brothers. 1:12 Some manuscripts read honesty.

1:14 Some manuscripts read our Lord Jesus. 1:16 Macedonia was in the northern region of Greece. 1:19 Greek Silvanus.

<sup>10</sup>When you forgive this man, I forgive him, too. And when I forgive whatever needs to be forgiven, I do so with Christ's authority for your benefit, <sup>11</sup>so that Satan will not outsmart us. For we are familiar with his evil schemes.

<sup>12</sup>When I came to the city of Troas to preach the Good News of Christ, the Lord opened a door of opportunity for me. <sup>13</sup>But I had no peace of mind because my dear brother Titus hadn't yet arrived with a report from you. So I said good-bye and went on to Macedonia to find him.

MINISTERS OF THE NEW COVENANT

<sup>14</sup>But thank God! He has made us his captives and continues to lead us along in Christ's triumphal procession. Now he uses us to spread the knowledge of Christ everywhere, like a sweet perfume. <sup>15</sup>Our lives are a Christ-like fragrance rising up to God. But this fragrance is perceived differently by those who are being saved and by those who are perishing. <sup>16</sup>To those who are perishing, we are a dreadful smell of death and doom. But to those who are being saved, we are a life-giving perfume. And who is adequate for such a task as this?

<sup>17</sup>You see, we are not like the many hucksters* who preach for personal profit. We preach the word of God with sincerity and with Christ's authority, knowing that God is watching us.

3 Are we beginning to praise ourselves again? Are we like others, who need to bring you letters of recommendation, or who ask you to write such letters on their behalf? Surely not! <sup>2</sup>The only letter of recommendation we need is you yourselves. Your lives are a letter written in our* hearts; everyone can read it and recognize our good work among you. <sup>3</sup>Clearly, you are a letter from Christ showing the result of our ministry among you. This "letter" is written not with pen and ink, but with the Spirit of the living God. It is carved not on tablets of stone, but on human hearts.

<sup>4</sup>We are confident of all this because of our great trust in God through Christ. <sup>5</sup>It is not that we think we are qualified to do anything on our own. Our qualification comes from God. <sup>6</sup>He has enabled us to be ministers of his new covenant. This is a covenant not of written laws, but of the Spirit. The old written covenant ends in death; but under the new covenant, the Spirit gives life.

THE GLORY OF THE NEW COVENANT

<sup>7</sup>The old way,* with laws etched in stone, led to death, though it began with such glory that the people of Israel could not bear to look at Moses' face. For his face shone with the glory of God, even though the brightness was already fading away. <sup>8</sup>Shouldn't we expect far greater glory under the new way, now that the Holy Spirit is giving life? <sup>9</sup>If the old way, which brings condemnation, was glorious, how much more glorious is the new way, which makes us right with God! <sup>10</sup>In fact, that first glory was not glorious at all compared with the overwhelming glory of the new way. <sup>11</sup>So if the old way, which has been replaced, was glorious, how much more glorious is the new, which remains forever!

<sup>12</sup>Since this new way gives us such confidence, we can be very bold. <sup>13</sup>We are not like Moses, who put a veil over his face so the people of Israel would not see the glory, even though it was destined to fade away. <sup>14</sup>But the people's minds were hardened, and to this day whenever the old covenant is being read, the same veil covers their minds so they cannot understand the truth. And this veil can be removed only by believing in Christ. <sup>15</sup>Yes, even today when they read Moses' writings, their hearts are covered with that veil, and they do not understand.

<sup>16</sup>But whenever someone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. <sup>17</sup>For the Lord is the Spirit, and wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. <sup>18</sup>So all of us who have had that veil removed can see and reflect the glory of the Lord. And the Lord—who is the Spirit—makes us more and more like him as we are changed into his glorious image.

TREASURE IN FRAGILE CLAY JARS

4 Therefore, since God in his mercy has given us this new way,* we never give up. <sup>2</sup>We reject all shameful deeds and underhanded methods. We don't try to trick anyone or distort the word of God. We tell the truth before God, and all who are honest know this.

<sup>3</sup>If the Good News we preach is hidden behind a veil, it is hidden only from people who are perishing. <sup>4</sup>Satan, who is the god of this world, has blinded the minds of those who don't believe. They are unable to see the glorious light of the Good News. They don't understand this message about the glory of Christ, who is the exact likeness of God.

<sup>5</sup>You see, we don't go around preaching about ourselves. We preach that Jesus Christ is Lord, and we ourselves are your servants for Jesus' sake. <sup>6</sup>For God, who said, "Let there be light in the darkness," has made this light shine in our hearts so we could know the glory of God that is seen in the face of Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>We now have this light shining in our hearts, but we ourselves are like fragile clay jars containing this great treasure. <sup>8</sup>This makes it clear that our great power is from God, not from ourselves.

<sup>9</sup>We are pressed on every side by troubles, but we are not crushed. We are perplexed, but not driven to despair. <sup>10</sup>We are hunted down, but never abandoned by God. We get knocked down, but we are not destroyed. <sup>11</sup>Through suffering,

2:17 Some manuscripts read the rest of the hucksters. 3:2 Some manuscripts read your. 3:7 Or ministry; also in 3:8, 9, 10, 11, 12. 4:1 Or ministry. 4:7 Greek We now have this treasure in clay jars.

our bodies continue to share in the death of Jesus so that the life of Jesus may also be seen in our bodies.

<sup>11</sup> Yes, we live under constant danger of death because we serve Jesus, so that the life of Jesus will be evident in our dying bodies. <sup>12</sup> So we live in the face of death, but this has resulted in eternal life for you.

<sup>13</sup> But we continue to preach because we have the same kind of faith the psalmist had when he said, “I believed in God, so I spoke.” <sup>14</sup> We know that God, who raised the Lord Jesus,* will also raise us with Jesus and present us to himself together with you. <sup>15</sup> All of this is for your benefit. And as God’s grace reaches more and more people, there will be great thanksgiving, and God will receive more and more glory.

<sup>16</sup> That is why we never give up. Though our bodies are dying, our spirits are* being renewed every day. <sup>17</sup> For our present troubles are small and won’t last very long. Yet they produce for us a glory that vastly outweighs them and will last forever! <sup>18</sup> So we don’t look at the troubles we can see now; rather, we fix our gaze on things that cannot be seen. For the things we see now will soon be gone, but the things we cannot see will last forever.

NEW BODIES

5 For we know that when this earthly tent we live in is taken down (that is, when we die and leave this earthly body), we will have a house in heaven, an eternal body made for us by God himself and not by human hands. <sup>2</sup> We grow weary in our present bodies, and we long to put on our heavenly bodies like new clothing. <sup>3</sup> For we will put on heavenly bodies; we will not be spirits without bodies.* <sup>4</sup> While we live in these earthly bodies, we groan and sigh, but it’s not that we want to die and get rid of these bodies that clothe us. Rather, we want to put on our new bodies so that these dying bodies will be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup> God himself has prepared us for this, and as a guarantee he has given us his Holy Spirit.

<sup>6</sup> So we are always confident, even though we know that as long as we live in these bodies we are not at home with the Lord. <sup>7</sup> For we live by believing and not by seeing. <sup>8</sup> Yes, we are fully confident, and we would rather be away from these earthly bodies, for then we will be at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup> So whether we are here in this body or away from this body, our goal is to please him. <sup>10</sup> For we must all stand before Christ to be judged. We will each receive whatever we deserve for the good or evil we have done in this earthly body.

WE ARE GOD’S AMBASSADORS

<sup>11</sup> Because we understand our fearful responsibility to the Lord, we work hard to persuade others. God knows we are sincere, and I hope you know this, too. <sup>12</sup> Are we commending ourselves to you again? No, we are giving you a reason to be proud of us,* so you can answer those who brag about having a spectacular ministry rather than having a sincere heart. <sup>13</sup> If it seems we are crazy, it is to bring glory to God. And if we are in our right minds, it is for your benefit. <sup>14</sup> Either way, Christ’s love controls us.* Since we believe that Christ died for all, we also believe that we have all died to our old life.* <sup>15</sup> He died for everyone so that those who receive his new life will no longer live for themselves. Instead, they will live for Christ, who died and was raised for them.

<sup>16</sup> So we have stopped evaluating others from a human point of view. At one time we thought of Christ merely from a human point of view. How differently we know him now! <sup>17</sup> This means that anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!

<sup>18</sup> And all of this is a gift from God, who brought us back to himself through Christ. And God has given us this task of reconciling people to him. <sup>19</sup> For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people’s sins against them. And he gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation. <sup>20</sup> So we are Christ’s ambassadors; God is making his appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, “Come back to God!” <sup>21</sup> For God made Christ, who never sinned, to be the offering for our sin,* so that we could be made right with God through Christ.

4:13 Ps 116:10. 4:14 Some manuscripts read who raised Jesus.
4:16 Greek our inner being is. 5:3 Greek we will not be naked.
5:12 Some manuscripts read proud of yourselves. 5:14a Or gives us on. 5:14b Greek Since one died for all, then all died. 5:21 Or to become sin itself.

WHY CAN'T WE ALL JUST GET ALONG?

2 Corinthians 5:14–21

JACK HAYFORD

Our relationship with God dictates our relationship with other people. God brought us out of a deep pit and showed us mercy and kindness. His grace should mirror through us to the world.

You have to make the decision that you want to be reconciled to other people. You have to believe that Jesus can help you love a person for His sake. Human kindness will only get us so far, but the blood of Jesus has the power to transform us and bring new life to our relationships.

We should approach people as Jesus did, as a servant who loves and cares for them. We can’t do this by ourselves; we need His Spirit. The life of Jesus comes through us by the ministry of reconciliation. When God reconciled us to Himself, He did not label us with our failures. He welcomed and accepted us despite all our shortcomings.

6 As God's partners,* we beg you not to accept this marvelous gift of God's kindness and then ignore it.<sup>2</sup> For God says,

"At just the right time, I heard you.
On the day of salvation, I helped you."<sup>3</sup>

Indeed, the "right time" is now. Today is the day of salvation.

PAUL'S HARDSHIPS

<sup>3</sup> We live in such a way that no one will stumble because of us, and no one will find fault with our ministry.<sup>4</sup> In everything we do, we show that we are true ministers of God. We patiently endure troubles and hardships and calamities of every kind.<sup>5</sup> We have been beaten, been put in prison, faced angry mobs, worked to exhaustion, endured sleepless nights, and gone without food.<sup>6</sup> We prove ourselves by our purity, our understanding, our patience, our kindness, by the Holy Spirit within us,* and by our sincere love.<sup>7</sup> We faithfully preach the truth. God's power is working in us. We use the weapons of righteousness in the right hand for attack and the left hand for defense.<sup>8</sup> We serve God whether people honor us or despise us, whether they slander us or praise us. We are honest, but they call us impostors.<sup>9</sup> We are ignored, even though we are well known. We live close to death, but we are still alive. We have been beaten, but we have not been killed.<sup>10</sup> Our hearts ache, but we always have joy. We are poor, but we give spiritual riches to others. We own nothing, and yet we have everything.

<sup>11</sup> Oh, dear Corinthian friends! We have spoken honestly with you, and our hearts are open to you.<sup>12</sup> There is no lack of love on our part, but you have withheld your love from us.<sup>13</sup> I am asking you to respond as if you were my own children. Open your hearts to us!

THE TEMPLE OF THE LIVING GOD

<sup>14</sup> Don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How can righteousness be a partner with wickedness? How can light live with darkness?<sup>15</sup> What harmony can there be between Christ and the devil?<sup>16</sup> How can a believer be a partner with an unbeliever?<sup>16</sup> And what union can there be between God's temple and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God said:

"I will live in them and walk among them.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people."<sup>17</sup>

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, come out from among unbelievers, and separate yourselves from them, says the LORD.
Don't touch their filthy things, and I will welcome you.*

THE ESSENCE OF REPENTANCE

2 Corinthians 7:8-10

JACK HAYFORD

Repentance is the action that follows a specific moment of perception about God's purpose for our lives. There are two stages of repentance. First, there is repentance to new birth (salvation), after which there is continuous repentance to growth (spiritual life). For believers, repentance is not a quick and cheap way out of a tight spot. It is an everyday process in which we seek God's light on all areas of our lives.

In 2 Corinthians 7:10, the apostle Paul refers to repentance when he writes, "The kind of sorrow God wants us to experience leads us away from sin and results in salvation." God is constantly working to shape our lives to mold us into His likeness. Repentance is a directional choice the Lord desires in our hearts, where we open ourselves to His searchlight, readily and regularly confessing our wrongdoings and turning to embrace His ways.

<sup>18</sup> And I will be your Father, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the LORD Almighty.*"

7 Because we have these promises, dear friends, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that can defile our body or spirit. And let us work toward complete holiness because we fear God.

<sup>2</sup> Please open your hearts to us. We have not done wrong to anyone, nor led anyone astray, nor taken advantage of anyone.<sup>3</sup> I'm not saying this to condemn you. I said before that you are in our hearts, and we live or die together with you.<sup>4</sup> I have the highest confidence in you, and I take great pride in you. You have greatly encouraged me and made me happy despite all our troubles.

PAUL'S JOY AT THE CHURCH'S REPENTANCE

<sup>5</sup> When we arrived in Macedonia, there was no rest for us. We faced conflict from every direction, with battles on the outside and fear on the inside.<sup>6</sup> But God, who encourages those who are discouraged, encouraged us by the arrival of Titus.<sup>7</sup> His presence was a joy, but so was the news he brought of the encouragement he received from you. When he told us how much you long to see me, and how sorry you are for what happened, and how loyal you are to me, I was filled with joy!

<sup>8</sup> I am not sorry that I sent that severe letter to you, though I was sorry at first, for I know it was painful to you for a little while.<sup>9</sup> Now I am glad I sent it, not because it hurt you, but because the pain caused you to repent and change your ways. It was the kind of sorrow God wants his people to have, so you were not harmed by us in any way. <sup>10</sup>For the kind of sorrow God wants us to experience leads us away from sin and results in salvation. There's no regret for that kind of sorrow. But worldly sorrow, which lacks repentance, results in spiritual death.

6:1 Or As we work together. 6:2 Isa 49:8 (Greek version). 6:6 Or by our holiness of spirit. 6:15 Greek Beliar; various other manuscripts render this proper name of the devil as Belian, Beliab, or Belial. 6:16 Lev 26:12; Ezek 37:27. 6:17 Isa 52:11; Ezek 20:34 (Greek version). 6:18 2 Sam 7:14.

<sup>11</sup>Just see what this godly sorrow produced in you! Such earnestness, such concern to clear yourselves, such indignation, such alarm, such longing to see me, such zeal, and such a readiness to punish wrong. You showed that you have done everything necessary to make things right. <sup>12</sup>My purpose, then, was not to write about who did the wrong or who was wronged. I wrote to you so that in the sight of God you could see for yourselves how loyal you are to us. <sup>13</sup>We have been greatly encouraged by this.

In addition to our own encouragement, we were especially delighted to see how happy Titus was about the way all of you welcomed him and set his mind* at ease. <sup>14</sup>I had told him how proud I was of you—and you didn't disappoint me. I have always told you the truth, and now my boasting to Titus has also proved true! <sup>15</sup>Now he cares for you more than ever when he remembers the way all of you obeyed him and welcomed him with such fear and deep respect. <sup>16</sup>I am very happy now because I have complete confidence in you.

A CALL TO GENEROUS GIVING

8 Now I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters,* what God in his kindness has done through the churches in Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>They are being tested by many troubles, and they are very poor. But they are also filled with abundant joy, which has overflowed in rich generosity.

<sup>3</sup>For I can testify that they gave not only what they could afford, but far more. And they did it of their own free will. <sup>4</sup>They begged us again and again for the privilege of sharing in the gift for the believers in Jerusalem.* <sup>5</sup>They even did more than we had hoped, for their first action was to give themselves to the Lord and to us, just as God wanted them to do.

<sup>6</sup>So we have urged Titus, who encouraged your giving in the first place, to return to you and encourage you to finish this ministry of giving. <sup>7</sup>Since you excel in so many ways—in your faith, your gifted speakers, your knowledge, your enthusiasm, and your love from us*—I want you to excel also in this gracious act of giving.

<sup>8</sup>I am not commanding you to do this. But I am testing how genuine your love is by comparing it with the eagerness of the other churches.

<sup>9</sup>You know the generous grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty he could make you rich.

<sup>10</sup>Here is my advice: It would be good for you to finish what you started a year ago. Last year you were the first who wanted to give, and you were the first to begin doing it. <sup>11</sup>Now you should finish what you started. Let the eagerness you showed in the beginning be matched now by your giving. Give in proportion to what you have. <sup>12</sup>Whatever you give is acceptable if you give it eagerly. And give according to what you have, not what you don't have. <sup>13</sup>Of course, I don't mean your giving should make life easy for others and hard for yourselves. I only mean that there should be some equality. <sup>14</sup>Right now you have plenty and can help those who are in need. Later, they will have plenty and can share with you when you need it. In this way, things will be equal. <sup>15</sup>As the Scriptures say,

and those who gathered only a little had enough.”*

TITUS AND HIS COMPANIONS

<sup>16</sup>But thank God! He has given Titus the same enthusiasm for you that I have. <sup>17</sup>Titus welcomed our request that he visit you again. In fact, he himself was very eager to go and see you. <sup>18</sup>We are also sending another brother with Titus. All the churches praise him as a preacher of the Good News. <sup>19</sup>He was appointed by the churches to accompany us as we take the offering to Jerusalem*—a service that glorifies the Lord and shows our eagerness to help.

<sup>20</sup>We are traveling together to guard against any criticism for the way we are handling this generous gift. <sup>21</sup>We are careful to be honorable before the Lord, but we also want everyone else to see that we are honorable.

<sup>22</sup>We are also sending with them another of our brothers who has proven himself many times and has shown on many occasions how eager he is. He is now even more enthusiastic because of his great confidence in you. <sup>23</sup>If anyone asks about Titus, say that he is my partner who works with me to help you. And the brothers with him have been sent by the churches,* and they bring honor to Christ. <sup>24</sup>So show them your love, and prove to all the churches that our boasting about you is justified.

THE COLLECTION FOR CHRISTIANS IN JERUSALEM

9 I really don't need to write to you about this ministry of giving for the believers in Jerusalem.* <sup>2</sup>For I know how eager you are to help, and I have been boasting to the churches in Macedonia that you in Greece* were ready to

LIFE-GIVING FARMERS

2 Corinthians 9:6

ROBERT MORRIS

When a farmer plants a single kernel of corn, the kernel grows into a stalk that will produce hundreds of individual kernels. Second Corinthians 9:6 says, “A farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop.” It’s astonishing to me that some people expect to reap a huge harvest of souls when they haven’t sown the gospel.

As believers, we exist on this earth as ambassadors for Christ. We are called to plant and water seeds of the gospel, and there are people everywhere who need to hear it. We may not always win someone to Christ when we witness, but that doesn’t mean we’ve failed. Our responsibility is to sow the gospel; winning souls is God’s job. When we share our stories of God’s goodness with others, God takes care of the results.

GIVE CHEERFULLY

2 Corinthians 9:7–8

ROBERT MORRIS

In 2 Corinthians 9:7, Paul writes, “You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don’t give reluctantly or in response to pressure. For God loves a person who gives cheerfully.” God isn’t looking for tithes, offerings, and gifts that are given because we feel forced or obligated. He wants you to give from a place of love. You are the only person on earth who knows what God has called you to give.

So how do you learn to give cheerfully? There’s only one way: God must do a work in your heart. You must allow God to replace your selfish heart with generosity. When you do, “God will generously provide all you need. Then you will have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others” (v. 8).

send an offering a year ago. In fact, it was your enthusiasm that stirred up many of the Macedonian believers to begin giving.

<sup>3</sup>But I am sending these brothers to be sure you really are ready, as I have been telling them, and that your money is all collected. I don’t want to be wrong in my boasting about you. <sup>4</sup>We would be embarrassed—not to mention your own embarrassment—if some Macedonian believers came with me and found that you weren’t ready after all I had told them! <sup>5</sup>So I thought I should send these brothers ahead of me to make sure the gift you promised is ready. But I want it to be a willing gift, not one given grudgingly.

<sup>6</sup>Remember this—a farmer who plants only a few seeds will get a small crop. But the one who plants generously will get a generous crop. <sup>7</sup>You must each decide in your heart how much to give. And don’t give reluctantly or in response to pressure. “For God loves a person who gives cheerfully.”* <sup>8</sup>And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. <sup>9</sup>As the Scriptures say,

“They share freely and give generously to the poor.

Their good deeds will be remembered forever.”<sup>1</sup>

<sup>10</sup>For God is the one who provides seed for the farmer and then bread to eat. In the same way, he will provide and increase your resources and then produce a great harvest of generosity* in you.

<sup>11</sup>Yes, you will be enriched in every way so that you can always be generous. And when we take your gifts to those who need them, they will thank God. <sup>12</sup>So two good things will result from this ministry of giving—the needs of the believers in Jerusalem* will be met, and they will joyfully express their thanks to God.

<sup>13</sup>As a result of your ministry, they will give glory to God. For your generosity to them and to all believers will prove that you are obedient to the Good News of Christ. <sup>14</sup>And they will pray for you with deep affection because of the overflowing grace God has given to you. <sup>15</sup>Thank God for this gift* too wonderful for words!

PAUL DEFENDS HIS AUTHORITY

10 Now I, Paul, appeal to you with the gentleness and kindness of Christ—though I realize you think I am timid in person and bold only when I write from far away. <sup>2</sup>Well, I am begging you now so that when I come I won’t have to be bold with those who think we act from human motives.

<sup>3</sup>We are human, but we don’t wage war as humans do. <sup>4</sup>*We use God’s mighty weapons, not worldly weapons, to knock down the strongholds of human reasoning and to destroy false arguments. <sup>5</sup>We destroy every proud obstacle that keeps people from knowing God. We capture their rebellious thoughts and teach them to obey Christ. <sup>6</sup>And after you have become fully obedient, we will punish everyone who remains disobedient.

<sup>7</sup>Look at the obvious facts.* Those who say they belong to Christ must recognize that we belong to Christ as much as they do. <sup>8</sup>I may seem to be boasting too much about the authority given to

A MIND SET FREE

2 Corinthians 10:3-5

JIMMY EVANS

Satan introduces thoughts to our minds that are contrary to God's Word and uses them to hold us captive. However, we can fight the devil with truth and be free from every bondage.

Here are three keys we need to understand about freedom:

1. The mind is the main battlefield between good and evil (James 4:7).

Freedom in our minds begins with making Jesus the Lord of our thoughts.

2. God's Word is a spiritual weapon (Ephesians 6:10-17).

Every piece of spiritual armor God gives us is an application of His truth in our lives. We fight Satan with truth—God's Word.

3. Biblical meditation is spiritual warfare (Deuteronomy 6:6-9).

Biblical meditation is the practice of repeatedly reading and thinking about specific Scriptures. We reprogram our brains to think differently by replacing bondage-related thoughts with Scriptures that declare the truth of God's Word.

BREAKING STRONGHOLDS

2 Corinthians 10:3-5

MARCUS BRECHEEN

In 2 Corinthians 10:4, Paul writes, "We use God's mighty weapons, not worldly weapons, to knock down the strongholds of human reasoning and to destroy false arguments."

A stronghold is anything you know to be against the will of God that you also believe is unchangeable. Only the Word of God has the power to destroy strongholds.

One day I was teaching a class at church when a storm came blowing in from the west. My wife was at home with our children, and she quickly ushered them into the safest room in the house. After about 15 minutes, my son Seth got tired of waiting for the tornado to pass. He stood up, lifted his finger, and said, "God, I command You, in Jesus' name, to move that tornado!"

Now, we obviously had to work on Seth's understanding of who the boss is, but I think God enjoys the spunk of someone who will stand up and say, "I've had enough of this! Here's what the Word of God says!"

us by the Lord. But our authority builds you up; it doesn't tear you down. So I will not be ashamed of using my authority.

<sup>9</sup> I'm not trying to frighten you by my letters.

<sup>10</sup> For some say, "Paul's letters are demanding and forceful, but in person he is weak, and his speeches are worthless!" <sup>11</sup> Those people should realize that our actions when we arrive in person will be as forceful as what we say in our letters from far away.

<sup>12</sup> Oh, don't worry; we wouldn't dare say that we are as wonderful as these other men who tell you how important they are! But they are only comparing themselves with each other, using themselves as the standard of measurement. How ignorant!

<sup>13</sup> We will not boast about things done outside our area of authority. We will boast only about what has happened within the boundaries of the work God has given us, which includes our working with you. <sup>14</sup> We are not reaching beyond these boundaries when we claim authority over you, as if we had never visited you. For we were the first to travel all the way to Corinth with the Good News of Christ.

<sup>15</sup> Nor do we boast and claim credit for the work someone else has done. Instead, we hope that your faith will grow so that the boundaries of our work among you will be extended. <sup>16</sup> Then we will be able to go and preach the Good News in other places far beyond you, where no one else is working. Then there will be no question of our boasting about work done in someone else's territory. <sup>17</sup> As the Scriptures say, "If you want to boast, boast only about the LORD."*

<sup>18</sup> When people commend themselves, it doesn't count for much. The important thing is for the Lord to commend them.

PAUL AND THE FALSE APOSTLES

11 I hope you will put up with a little more of my foolishness. Please bear with me. <sup>2</sup> For I am jealous for you with the jealousy of God himself. I promised you as a pure bride* to one husband—Christ. <sup>3</sup> But I fear that somehow your pure and undivided devotion to Christ will be corrupted, just as Eve was deceived by the cunning ways of the serpent. <sup>4</sup> You happily put up with whatever anyone tells you, even if they preach a different Jesus than the one we preach, or a different kind of Spirit than the one you received, or a different kind of gospel than the one you believed.

<sup>5</sup> But I don't consider myself inferior in any way to these "super apostles" who teach such things. <sup>6</sup> I may be unskilled as a speaker, but I'm not lacking in knowledge. We have made this clear to you in every possible way.

<sup>7</sup> Was I wrong when I humbled myself and honored you by preaching God's Good News to you without expecting anything in return? <sup>8</sup> I "robbed" other churches by accepting their contributions so I could serve you at no cost. <sup>9</sup> And when I was with you and didn't have enough to live on, I did not become a financial burden to anyone. For the brothers who came from

THE HURT WHISPERER

2 Corinthians 11:14

JIMMY EVANS

In our vulnerable moments, the devil pounces on us and whispers lies to separate us from God and keep us in bondage. He uses subtlety and disguises to try to make us believe his words are our own thoughts or even the voice of God.

We can destroy the devil's lies that limit our lives by:

1. Exposing our thoughts to the light.

Whatever is in the light comes before God, and the devil has no power over what's in the light.

2. Expelling any thought that doesn't agree with God's Word.

Knowing that the devil wants to torment us, we must capture and reject every negative thought.

3. Expressing our agreement with God's Word.

Scripture declares how much God loves us and what He says about us. Instead of believing the devil's lies, we must learn to say what God says. His Word will change the way we live.

Macedonia brought me all that I needed. I have never been a burden to you, and I never will be.<sup>10</sup> As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, no one in all of Greece* will ever stop me from boasting about this.<sup>11</sup> Why? Because I don't love you? God knows that I do.

<sup>12</sup> But I will continue doing what I have always done. This will undercut those who are looking for an opportunity to boast that their work is just like ours.<sup>13</sup> These people are false apostles. They are deceitful workers who disguise themselves as apostles of Christ.<sup>14</sup> But I am not surprised! Even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light.<sup>15</sup> So it is no wonder that his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. In the end they will get the punishment their wicked deeds deserve.

PAUL'S MANY TRIALS

<sup>16</sup> Again I say, don't think that I am a fool to talk like this. But even if you do, listen to me, as you would to a foolish person, while I also boast a little.<sup>17</sup> Such boasting is not from the Lord, but I am acting like a fool.<sup>18</sup> And since others boast about their human achievements, I will, too.<sup>19</sup> After all, you think you are so wise, but you enjoy putting up with fools!<sup>20</sup> You put up with it when someone enslaves you, takes everything you have, takes advantage of you, takes control of everything, and slaps you in the face.<sup>21</sup> I'm ashamed to say that we've been too "weak" to do that!

But whatever they dare to boast about—I'm talking like a fool again—I dare to boast about it, too.<sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they descendants of Abraham? So am I.<sup>23</sup> Are they servants of Christ? I know I sound like a madman, but I have served him far more! I have worked harder, been put in prison more often, been whipped times without number, and faced death again and again.<sup>24</sup> Five different times the Jewish leaders gave me thirty-nine lashes.<sup>25</sup> Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. Once I spent a whole night and a day adrift at sea.<sup>26</sup> I have traveled on many long journeys. I have faced danger from rivers and from robbers. I have faced danger from my own people, the Jews, as well as from the Gentiles. I have faced danger in the cities, in the deserts, and on the seas. And I have faced danger from men who claim to be believers but are not.*<sup>27</sup> I have worked hard and long, enduring many sleepless nights. I have been hungry and thirsty and have often gone without food. I have shivered in the cold, without enough clothing to keep me warm.

<sup>28</sup> Then, besides all this, I have the daily burden of my concern for all the churches.<sup>29</sup> Who is weak without my feeling that weakness? Who is led astray, and I do not burn with anger?

<sup>30</sup> If I must boast, I would rather boast about the things that show how weak I am.<sup>31</sup> God, the Father of our Lord Jesus, who is worthy of eternal praise, knows I am not lying.<sup>32</sup> When I was in Damascus, the governor under King Aretas kept guards at the city gates to catch me.<sup>33</sup> I had to be lowered in a basket through a window in the city wall to escape from him.

PAUL'S VISION AND HIS THORN IN THE FLESH

12 This boasting will do no good, but I must go on. I will reluctantly tell about visions and revelations from the Lord.<sup>2</sup> I* was caught up to the third heaven fourteen years ago. Whether I was in my body or out of my body, I don't know—only God knows.<sup>3</sup> Yes, only God knows whether I was in my body or outside my body. But I do know<sup>4</sup> that I was caught up* to paradise and heard things so astounding that they cannot be expressed in words, things no human is allowed to tell.

<sup>5</sup> That experience is worth boasting about, but I'm not going to do it. I will boast only about my weaknesses.<sup>6</sup> If I wanted to boast, I would be no fool in doing so, because I would be telling the truth. But I won't do it, because I don't want anyone to give me credit beyond what they can see in my life or hear in my message,<sup>7</sup> even though I have received such wonderful revelations from God. So to keep me from becoming proud, I was

WHEN THE ANSWER IS NO

2 Corinthians 12:1–12

TIM ROSS

What do we do when God's answer to us is no? In 2 Corinthians 12, Paul writes about the "thorn" in his flesh. He does not specify what his problem is, but he does admit to begging God to remove it three times. God always has the same answer, though: "My grace is all you need" (v. 9).

Hearing "no" from God does not mean something is wrong with us, nor is it a sign of His rejection or abandonment. Instead, a "no" from God gives us an opportunity to learn about who He is in a completely new way. It forces us to rely solely on His grace instead of our own strength. By surrendering to God's no, Paul allows the power of Christ to work through him and discovers, "When I am weak, then I am strong" (v. 10).

given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger from Satan to torment me and keep me from becoming proud.

<sup>8</sup>Three different times I begged the Lord to take it away. <sup>9</sup>Each time he said, "My grace is all you need. My power works best in weakness." So now I am glad to boast about my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ can work through me. <sup>10</sup>That's why I take pleasure in my weaknesses, and in the insults, hardships, persecutions, and troubles that I suffer for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

PAUL'S CONCERN FOR THE CORINTHIANS

<sup>11</sup>You have made me act like a fool. You ought to be writing commendations for me, for I am not at all inferior to these "super apostles," even though I am nothing at all. <sup>12</sup>When I was with you, I certainly gave you proof that I am an apostle. For I patiently did many signs and wonders and miracles among you. <sup>13</sup>The only thing I failed to do, which I do in the other churches, was to become a financial burden to you. Please forgive me for this wrong!

<sup>14</sup>Now I am coming to you for the third time, and I will not be a burden to you. I don't want what you have—I want you. After all, children don't provide for their parents. Rather, parents provide for their children. <sup>15</sup>I will gladly spend myself and all I have for you, even though it seems that the more I love you, the less you love me.

<sup>16</sup>Some of you admit I was not a burden to you. But others still think I was sneaky and took advantage of you by trickery. <sup>17</sup>But how? Did any of the men I sent to you take advantage of you? <sup>18</sup>When I urged Titus to visit you and sent our other brother with him, did Titus take advantage of you? No! For we have the same spirit and walk in each other's steps, doing things the same way.

<sup>19</sup>Perhaps you think we're saying these things just to defend ourselves. No, we tell you this as Christ's servants, and with God as our witness. Everything we do, dear friends, is to strengthen you. <sup>20</sup>For I am afraid that when I come I won't like what I find, and you won't like my response. I am afraid that I will find quarreling, jealousy, anger, selfishness, slander, gossip, arrogance, and disorderly behavior. <sup>21</sup>Yes, I am afraid that when I come again, God will humble me in your presence. And I will be grieved because many of you have not given up your old sins. You have not repented of your impurity, sexual immorality, and eagerness for lustful pleasure.

PAUL'S FINAL ADVICE

13 This is the third time I am coming to visit you (and as the Scriptures say, "The facts of every case must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses"). <sup>2</sup>I have already warned those who had been sinning when I was there on my second visit. Now I again warn them and all others, just as I did before, that next time I will not spare them.

<sup>3</sup>I will give you all the proof you want that Christ speaks through me. Christ is not weak when he deals with you; he is powerful among you. <sup>4</sup>Although he was crucified in weakness, he now lives by the power of God. We, too, are weak, just as Christ was, but when we deal with you we will be alive with him and will have God's power.

<sup>5</sup>Examine yourselves to see if your faith is genuine. Test yourselves. Surely you know that Jesus Christ is among you*; if not, you have failed the test of genuine faith. <sup>6</sup>As you test yourselves, I hope you will recognize that we have not failed the test of apostolic authority.

<sup>7</sup>We pray to God that you will not do what is wrong by refusing our correction. I hope we won't need to demonstrate our authority when we arrive. Do the right thing before we come—even if that makes it look like we have failed to demonstrate our authority. <sup>8</sup>For we cannot oppose the truth, but must always stand for the truth. <sup>9</sup>We are glad to seem weak if it helps show that you are actually strong. We pray that you will become mature.

<sup>10</sup>I am writing this to you before I come, hoping that I won't need to deal severely with you when I do come. For I want to use the authority the Lord has given me to strengthen you, not to tear you down.

PAUL'S FINAL GREETINGS

<sup>11</sup>Dear brothers and sisters,* I close my letter with these last words: Be joyful. Grow to maturity. Encourage each other. Live in harmony and peace. Then the God of love and peace will be with you. <sup>12</sup>Greet each other with a sacred kiss. <sup>13</sup>All of God's people here send you their greetings.

HAVE YOU BEEN BORN AGAIN?

2 Corinthians 13:5

ROBERT MORRIS

The most important, game-changing question you can ask yourself is this: “Have I been born again?” Many people think they have been born again, but they really haven’t (Matthew 7:13–14). Some people mentally believe in God while others believe growing up in church or being active in God’s work is enough (Matthew 7:21–23). However, if you have not submitted your life to God, then you have not been born again.

The Bible says you can know if you have truly been born again (1 John 5:13). You are born again when you give God control of your life. He moves in and changes your heart. You want to follow Him and do what’s right, and you no longer feel the need to try to change yourself. Some believers may not remember the exact date they were born again, but they remember the event because it was when their lives radically changed.

<sup>14*</sup> May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

13:14 Some English translations include verse 13 as part of verse 12, and then verse 14 becomes verse 13.

GALATIANS

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

A primary theme of Paul's letter to the Galatians is the freedom of the gospel. However, Paul's idea of freedom is different from that of other people. It is not only deliverance from bondage, but it is also the power to help others. The gospel leads to freedom, which leads to service and doing good for other people.

In the late AD 40s, Paul wrote this letter to churches he had founded in Galatia during his first missionary journey. The letter contains seven parts:

- It includes a greeting to the churches (1:1–5).
- Paul claims there is no other gospel or “any other Good News” (1:6–10).
- He defends his calling and the acceptance of his message by the apostles (1:11–2:10).
- Paul retells the defense of his message to Peter (2:11–14).
- He teaches about faith and the example of Abraham (2:15–4:31).
- Paul exhorts the Galatians to live in freedom (5:1–6:10).
- He offers a final blessing (6:11–18).

THE GOSPEL AND FREEDOM

In the letter, the apostle responds to what he calls “a different kind of” gospel. Some people were saying Gentile believers should follow certain Jewish practices, such as circumcision. In Paul's mind, Jewish followers of Jesus should continue to live as Jews, but Gentile followers should live in freedom from their old pagan way of life and in a new freedom that God has given them in the gospel to love others. The importance of this gospel is evident in Paul's opening words. He says there is only one gospel, and it is the one he has preached to them: “Let God's curse fall on anyone, including us or even an angel from heaven, who preaches a different kind of Good News than the one we preached to you” (1:8). Paul's strong language points to the uncompromising nature of the gospel. Though Paul does not elaborate on the gospel's content in these verses, he identifies the subject of the gospel—Jesus. “Even before I was born, God chose me and called me by his marvelous grace. Then it pleased him to reveal his Son to me so that I would proclaim the Good News about Jesus to the Gentiles” (1:15–16). He affirms his responsibility to the Gentiles when he says that the leaders in Jerusalem “saw that God had given me the responsibility of preaching the gospel to the Gentiles” (2:7).

With this in mind, Paul writes, “Christ has truly set us free” (5:1). This freedom includes release from certain practices, such as circumcision. He warns, “This false teaching is like a little yeast that spreads through the whole batch of dough!” (5:9). Likely drawing on Jesus' own teaching about the “yeast of the Pharisees” (Mark 8:15), Paul observes that to give ground on this point will lead to others, and in any case, nothing needs to be added to the gospel, which is what keeping certain dietary practices or performing circumcision would mean to the Gentiles. Christ has given them their freedom, not to build these behaviors into their lives but to build service to others into their lives. “For you have been called to live in freedom. . . . But don't use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love” (5:13). This freedom is not for self-gratification, and he cites Leviticus 19:18 to emphasize this point: “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Paul's gospel ethic is a freedom-oriented ethic focused on the welfare of others.

Paul clearly saw that people live in one of two ways. They either live by the flesh, or they live by the Spirit (5:13–24). To live by the flesh is to live focusing on oneself; to live by the Spirit is to live focusing on others. The flesh is “me-centered” while the Spirit is “us-centered.” The Spirit bears fruit in our lives so that we may nourish and strengthen one another (5:22–23) and even bear each other's burdens (6:2) in imitation of Jesus who bore our burden of sin upon Himself on the cross.

THE GOSPEL AND ABRAHAM

The believers who argued for the Gentiles to practice circumcision as part of their commitment to God, in addition to their faith in Jesus, appealed to the Galatians' desire for security. As former pagans and followers of other Greco-Roman religious cults of the time, they were accustomed to rituals, recitations, sacrifices, and other such practices. They were used to processions, shrines, and priests. By describing circumcision as a practice that Abraham, the father of faith, introduced and followed, these believers could plausibly argue that the Galatians should follow his example. It was a powerful and persuasive message.

Paul is concerned that such practice would only lead back to the old Israelite malpractice of adding to their worship of the one true God. The Israelites were never polytheists who believed in many gods. Instead, they recognized the God of Israel as the greatest but added other lesser gods to their worship. They believed their God, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and David, was the Creator of all things, but they gave recognition to other gods for various reasons. Sometimes they were attempting to make peace with other tribes, and at others, they simply wanted to “cover all the bases.” For Gentiles to practice circumcision would interfere with the singular power of the cross of Christ. Paul agreed that Abraham is an example to be followed but not with respect to circumcision. He is an example of one who left his former gods behind to live by faith in a new freedom. Likewise, the Gentile Galatians have left their old idols behind by accepting the gospel. Now they should live in new freedom by committing themselves to loving other people.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, an apostle. I was not appointed by any group of people or any human authority, but by Jesus Christ himself and by God the Father, who raised Jesus from the dead.

<sup>2</sup> All the brothers and sisters* here join me in sending this letter to the churches of Galatia.

<sup>3</sup> May God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ* give you grace and peace. <sup>4</sup> Jesus gave his life for our sins, just as God our Father planned, in order to rescue us from this evil world in which we live.

<sup>5</sup> All glory to God forever and ever! Amen.

THERE IS ONLY ONE GOOD NEWS

<sup>6</sup> I am shocked that you are turning away so soon from God, who called you to himself through the loving mercy of Christ.* You are following a different way that pretends to be the Good News <sup>7</sup> but is not the Good News at all. You are being fooled by those who deliberately twist the truth concerning Christ.

<sup>8</sup> Let God's curse fall on anyone, including us or even an angel from heaven, who preaches a different kind of Good News than the one we preached to you. <sup>9</sup> I say again what we have said before: If anyone preaches any other Good News than the one you welcomed, let that person be cursed.

<sup>10</sup> Obviously, I'm not trying to win the approval of people, but of God. If pleasing people were my goal, I would not be Christ's servant.

PAUL'S MESSAGE COMES FROM CHRIST

<sup>11</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, I want you to understand that the gospel message I preach is not based on mere human reasoning. <sup>12</sup> I received my message from no human source, and no one taught me. Instead, I received it by direct revelation from Jesus Christ.*

<sup>13</sup> You know what I was like when I followed the Jewish religion—how I violently persecuted God's church. I did my best to destroy it. <sup>14</sup> I was far ahead of my fellow Jews in my zeal for the traditions of my ancestors.

<sup>15</sup> But even before I was born, God chose me and called me by his marvelous grace. Then it pleased him <sup>16</sup> to reveal his Son to me* so that I would proclaim the Good News about Jesus to the Gentiles.

When this happened, I did not rush out to consult with any human being.* <sup>17</sup> Nor did I go up to Jerusalem to consult with those who were apostles before I was. Instead, I went away into Arabia, and later I returned to the city of Damascus.

<sup>18</sup> Then three years later I went to Jerusalem to get to know Peter,* and I stayed with him for fifteen days. <sup>19</sup> The only other apostle I met at that time was James, the Lord's brother. <sup>20</sup> I declare before God that what I am writing to you is not a lie.

<sup>21</sup> After that visit I went north into the provinces of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup> And still the churches in Christ that are in Judea didn't know me personally. <sup>23</sup> All they knew was that people were saying, “The one who used to persecute us is now preaching the very faith he tried to destroy!” <sup>24</sup> And they praised God because of me.

THE APOSTLES ACCEPT PAUL

2 Then fourteen years later I went back to Jerusalem again, this time with Barnabas; and Titus came along, too. <sup>2</sup> I went there because God revealed to me that I should go. While I was there I met privately with those considered to be leaders of the church and shared with them the message I had been preaching to the Gentiles. I wanted to make sure that we were in agreement, for fear that all my efforts had been wasted and I was running the race for nothing. <sup>3</sup> And they supported me and did not even demand that my companion Titus be circumcised, though he was a Gentile.*

<sup>4</sup> Even that question came up only because of some so-called believers there—false ones, really*—who were secretly brought in. They sneaked in to spy on us and take away the freedom we have in Christ Jesus. They wanted to enslave us and force us to follow their Jewish regulations. <sup>5</sup> But we refused to give in to them for a single moment. We wanted to preserve the truth of the gospel message for you.

<sup>6</sup> And the leaders of the church had nothing to add to what I was preaching. (By the way, their reputation as great leaders made no difference to me, for God has no favorites.)<sup>7</sup> Instead, they saw that God had given me the responsibility of preaching the gospel to the Gentiles, just as he had given Peter the responsibility of preaching to the Jews.<sup>8</sup> For the same God who worked through Peter as the apostle to the Jews also worked through me as the apostle to the Gentiles.

1:2 Greek brothers; also in 1:11. 1:3 Some manuscripts read God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 1:6 Some manuscripts read through loving mercy. 1:12 Or by the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1:16a Or in me. 1:16b Greek with flesh and blood. 1:18 Greek Cephas. 2:3 Greek a Greek. 2:4 Greek some false brothers.

<sup>9</sup>In fact, James, Peter,* and John, who were known as pillars of the church, recognized the gift God had given me, and they accepted Barnabas and me as their co-workers. They encouraged us to keep preaching to the Gentiles, while they continued their work with the Jews.<sup>10</sup> Their only suggestion was that we keep on helping the poor, which I have always been eager to do.

PAUL CONFRONTS PETER

<sup>11</sup>But when Peter came to Antioch, I had to oppose him to his face, for what he did was very wrong.<sup>12</sup> When he first arrived, he ate with the Gentile believers, who were not circumcised. But afterward, when some friends of James came, Peter wouldn't eat with the Gentiles anymore. He was afraid of criticism from these people who insisted on the necessity of circumcision.<sup>13</sup> As a result, other Jewish believers followed Peter's hypocrisy, and even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy.

<sup>14</sup>When I saw that they were not following the truth of the gospel message, I said to Peter in front of all the others, "Since you, a Jew by birth, have discarded the Jewish laws and are living like a Gentile, why are you now trying to make these Gentiles follow the Jewish traditions?"

<sup>15</sup>"You and I are Jews by birth, not 'sinners' like the Gentiles.<sup>16</sup> Yet we know that a person is made right with God by faith in Jesus Christ, not by obeying the law. And we have believed in Christ Jesus, so that we might be made right with God because of our faith in Christ, not because we have obeyed the law. For no one will ever be made right with God by obeying the law."*

<sup>17</sup>But suppose we seek to be made right with God through faith in Christ and then we are found guilty because we have abandoned the law. Would that mean Christ has led us into sin? Absolutely not!<sup>18</sup> Rather, I am a sinner if I rebuild the old system of law I already tore down.<sup>19</sup> For when I tried to keep the law, it condemned me. So I died to the law—I stopped trying to meet all its requirements—so that I might live for God.<sup>20</sup> My old self has been crucified with Christ.* It is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. So I live in this earthly body by trusting in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.<sup>21</sup> I do not treat the grace of God as meaningless. For if keeping the law could make us right with God, then there was no need for Christ to die.

THE LAW AND FAITH IN CHRIST

3 Oh, foolish Galatians! Who has cast an evil spell on you? For the meaning of Jesus Christ's death was made as clear to you as if you had seen a picture of his death on the cross.<sup>2</sup> Let me ask you this one question: Did you receive the Holy Spirit by obeying the law of Moses? Of course not! You received the Spirit because you believed the message you heard about Christ.<sup>3</sup> How foolish can you be? After starting your new lives in the Spirit, why are you now trying to become perfect by your own human effort? "Have you experienced" so much for nothing? Surely it was not in vain, was it?

<sup>5</sup>I ask you again, does God give you the Holy Spirit and work miracles among you because you obey the law? Of course not! It is because you believe the message you heard about Christ.

<sup>8</sup>What's more, the Scriptures looked forward to this time when God would make the Gentiles right in his sight because of their faith. God proclaimed this good news to Abraham long ago when he said, "All nations will be blessed through you."* So all who put their faith in Christ share the same blessing Abraham received because of his faith.

<sup>10</sup>But those who depend on the law to make them right with God are under his curse, for the Scriptures say, "Cursed is everyone who does not observe and obey all the commands that are written in God's Book of the Law."* So it is clear that no one can be made right with God by trying to keep the law. For the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life."*

<sup>12</sup>This way of faith is very different from the way of law, which says, "It is through obeying the law that a person has life."*

<sup>13</sup>But Christ has rescued us from the curse pronounced by the law. When he was hung on the cross, he took upon himself the curse for our wrongdoing. For it is written in the Scriptures, "Cursed is everyone who is hung on a tree."*

<sup>14</sup>Through Christ Jesus, God has blessed the Gentiles with the same blessing he promised to Abraham, so that we who are believers might receive the promised* Holy Spirit through faith.

THE LAW AND GOD'S PROMISE

<sup>15</sup>Dear brothers and sisters,* here's an example from everyday life. Just as no one can set aside or amend an irrevocable agreement, so it is in this case.<sup>16</sup> God gave the promises to Abraham and his child.* And notice that the Scripture doesn't say "to his children,"* as if it meant many descendants. Rather, it says "to his child"—and that, of course, means Christ.<sup>17</sup> This is what I am trying to say: The agreement God made with Abraham could not be canceled 430 years later when God gave the law to Moses. God would be breaking his promise.<sup>18</sup> For if the inheritance could be received by keeping the law, then it would not be the result of accepting God's promise. But God graciously gave it to Abraham as a promise.

2:9 Greek Cephas; also in 2:11, 14. 2:16 Some translators hold that the quotation extends through verse 14; others through verse 16; and still others through verse 21. 2:20 Some English translations put this sentence in verse 19. 3:4 Or Have you suffered. 3:6 Gen 15:6. 3:8 Gen 12:3; 18:18; 22:18. 3:10 Deut 27:26. 3:11 Hab 2:4. 3:12 Lev 18:5. 3:13 Deut 21:23 (Greek version). 3:14 Some manuscripts read the blessing of the. 3:15 Greek Brothers.

<sup>19</sup> Why, then, was the law given? It was given alongside the promise to show people their sins. But the law was designed to last only until the coming of the child who was promised. God gave his law through angels to Moses, who was the mediator between God and the people.<sup>20</sup> Now a mediator is helpful if more than one party must reach an agreement. But God, who is one, did not use a mediator when he gave his promise to Abraham.

<sup>21</sup> Is there a conflict, then, between God's law and God's promises?<sup>22</sup> Absolutely not! If the law could give us new life, we could be made right with God by obeying it.<sup>23</sup> But the Scriptures declare that we are all prisoners of sin, so we receive God's promise of freedom only by believing in Jesus Christ.

GOD'S CHILDREN THROUGH FAITH

<sup>23</sup> Before the way of faith in Christ was available to us, we were placed under guard by the law. We were kept in protective custody, so to speak, until the way of faith was revealed.

<sup>24</sup> Let me put it another way. The law was our guardian until Christ came; it protected us until we could be made right with God through faith.

<sup>25</sup> And now that the way of faith has come, we no longer need the law as our guardian.

<sup>26</sup> For you are all children* of God through faith in Christ Jesus.<sup>27</sup> And all who have been united with Christ in baptism have put on Christ, like putting on new clothes.*<sup>28</sup> There is no longer Jew or Gentile,* slave or free, male and female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus.<sup>29</sup> And now that you belong to Christ, you are the true children* of Abraham. You are his heirs, and God's promise to Abraham belongs to you.

4 Think of it this way. If a father dies and leaves an inheritance for his young children, those children are not much better off than slaves until they grow up, even though they actually own everything their father had.<sup>1</sup> They have to obey their guardians until they reach whatever age their father set.<sup>2</sup> And that's the way it was with us before Christ came. We were like children; we were slaves to the basic spiritual principles<sup>3</sup> of this world.

<sup>4</sup> But when the right time came, God sent his Son, born of a woman, subject to the law.<sup>5</sup> God sent him to buy freedom for us who were slaves to the law, so that he could adopt us as his very own children.*<sup>6</sup> And because we* are his children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, prompting us to call out, "Abba, Father."<sup>7</sup> Now you are no longer a slave but God's own child.* And since you are his child, God has made you his heir.

PAUL'S CONCERN FOR THE GALATIANS

<sup>8</sup> Before you Gentiles knew God, you were slaves to so-called gods that do not even exist.<sup>9</sup> So now that you know God (or should I say, now that God knows you), why do you want to go back again and become slaves once more to the weak and useless spiritual principles of this world?<sup>10</sup> You are trying to earn favor with God by observing certain days or months or seasons or years.<sup>11</sup> I fear for you. Perhaps all my hard work with you was for nothing.<sup>12</sup> Dear brothers and sisters,* I plead with you to live as I do in freedom from these things, for I have become like you Gentiles—free from those laws.

You did not mistreat me when I first preached to you.<sup>13</sup> Surely you remember that I was sick when I first brought you the Good News.<sup>14</sup> But even though my condition tempted you to reject me, you did not despise me or turn me away. No, you took me in and cared for me as though I were an angel from God or even Christ Jesus himself.

<sup>15</sup> Where is that joyful and grateful spirit you felt then? I am sure you would have taken out your own eyes and given them to me if it had been possible.<sup>16</sup> Have I now become your enemy because I am telling you the truth?

<sup>17</sup> Those false teachers are so eager to win your favor, but their intentions are not good. They are trying to shut you off from me so that you will pay attention only to them.<sup>18</sup> If someone is eager to do good things for you, that's all right; but let them do it all the time, not just when I'm with you.

<sup>19</sup> Oh, my dear children! I feel as if I'm going through labor pains for you again, and they will continue until Christ is fully developed in your lives.<sup>20</sup> I wish I were with you right now so I could change my tone. But at this distance I don't know how else to help you.

ABRAHAM'S TWO CHILDREN

3:16a Greek seed; also in 3:16c, 19. See notes on Gen 12:7 and 13:15. 3:16b Greek seeds. 3:21 Some manuscripts read and the promises? 3:26 Greek sons. 3:27 Greek have put on Christ. 3:28 Greek Jew or Greek. 3:29 Greek seed. 4:3 Or powers; also in 4:9. 4:5 Greek sons; also in 4:6. 4:6a Greek you. 4:6b Abba is an Aramaic term for "father." 4:7 Greek son; also in 4:7b. 4:12 Greek brothers; also in 4:28, 31. 4:22 See Gen 16:15; 21:2-3.

<sup>24</sup> These two women serve as an illustration of God's two covenants. The first woman, Hagar, represents Mount Sinai where people received the law that enslaved them. <sup>25</sup> And now Jerusalem is just like Mount Sinai in Arabia,* because she and her children live in slavery to the law. <sup>26</sup> But the other woman, Sarah, represents the heavenly Jerusalem. She is the free woman, and she is our mother. <sup>27</sup> As Isaiah said, “Rejoice, O childless woman, you who have never given birth!

Break into a joyful shout,
you who have never been in labor!
For the desolate woman now has more children than the woman who lives with her husband!”

<sup>28</sup> And you, dear brothers and sisters, are children of the promise, just like Isaac. <sup>29</sup> But you are now being persecuted by those who want you to keep the law, just as Ishmael, the child born by human effort, persecuted Isaac, the child born by the power of the Spirit.

<sup>30</sup> But what do the Scriptures say about that? “Get rid of the slave and her son, for the son of the slave woman will not share the inheritance with the free woman’s son.”* <sup>31</sup> So, dear brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman; we are children of the free woman.

FREEDOM IN CHRIST

5 So Christ has truly set us free. Now make sure that you stay free, and don’t get tied up again in slavery to the law.

<sup>2</sup> Listen! I, Paul, tell you this: If you are counting on circumcision to make you right with God, then Christ will be of no benefit to you. <sup>3</sup> I’ll say it again. If you are trying to find favor with God by being circumcised, you must obey every regulation in the whole law of Moses. <sup>4</sup> For if you are trying to make yourselves right with God by keeping the law, you have been cut off from Christ! You have fallen away from God’s grace.

<sup>5</sup> But we who live by the Spirit eagerly wait to receive by faith the righteousness God has promised to us. <sup>6</sup> For when we place our faith in Christ Jesus, there is no benefit in being circumcised or being uncircumcised. What is important is faith expressing itself in love.

<sup>7</sup> You were running the race so well. Who has held you back from following the truth? <sup>8</sup> It certainly isn’t God, for he is the one who called you to freedom. <sup>9</sup> This false teaching is like a little yeast that spreads through the whole batch of dough! <sup>10</sup> I am trusting the Lord to keep you from believing false teachings. God will judge that person, whoever he is, who has been confusing you.

<sup>11</sup> Dear brothers and sisters,* if I were still preaching that you must be circumcised—as some say I do—why am I still being persecuted? If I were no longer preaching salvation through the cross of Christ, no one would be offended. <sup>12</sup> I just wish that those troublemakers who want to mutilate you by circumcision would mutilate themselves.

<sup>13</sup> For you have been called to live in freedom, my brothers and sisters. But don’t use your freedom to satisfy your sinful nature. Instead, use your freedom to serve one another in love. <sup>14</sup> For the whole law can be summed up in this one command: “Love your neighbor as yourself.”* <sup>15</sup> But if you are always biting and devouring one another, watch out! Beware of destroying one another.

LIVING BY THE SPIRIT’S POWER

<sup>16</sup> So I say, let the Holy Spirit guide your lives. Then you won’t be doing what your sinful nature craves. <sup>17</sup> The sinful nature wants to do evil, which is just the opposite of what the Spirit wants. And the Spirit gives us desires that are the opposite of what the sinful nature desires. These two forces are constantly fighting each other, so you are not free to carry out your good intentions. <sup>18</sup> But when you are directed by the Spirit, you are not under obligation to the law of Moses.

<sup>19</sup> When you follow the desires of your sinful nature, the results are very clear: sexual immorality, impurity, lustful pleasures, <sup>20</sup> idolatry, sorcery, hostility, quarreling, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, dissension, division, <sup>21</sup> envy, drunkenness, wild parties, and other sins like these. Let me tell you again, as I have before, that anyone living that sort of life will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup> But the Holy Spirit produces this kind of fruit in our lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these things!

<sup>24</sup> Those who belong to Christ Jesus have nailed the passions and desires of their sinful nature to his cross and crucified them there. <sup>25</sup> Since we are living by the Spirit, let us follow the Spirit’s leading in every part of our lives. <sup>26</sup> Let us not become conceited, or provoke one another, or be jealous of one another.

WE HARVEST WHAT WE PLANT

6 Dear brothers and sisters, if another believer* is overcome by some sin, you who are godly* should gently and humbly help that person back onto the right path. And be careful not to fall into the same temptation yourself. <sup>2</sup> Share each other’s burdens, and in this way obey the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup> If you think you are too important to help someone, you are only fooling yourself. You are not that important.

<sup>4</sup> Pay careful attention to your own work, for then you will get the satisfaction of a job well done, and you won't need to compare yourself to anyone else. <sup>5</sup> For we are each responsible for our own conduct.

<sup>6</sup> Those who are taught the word of God should provide for their teachers, sharing all good things with them.

<sup>7</sup> Don't be misled—you cannot mock the justice of God. You will always harvest what you plant. <sup>8</sup> Those who live only to satisfy their own sinful nature will harvest decay and death from that sinful nature. But those who live to please the Spirit will harvest everlasting life from the Spirit. <sup>9</sup> So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, whenever we have the opportunity, we should do good to everyone—especially to those in the family of faith.

PAUL'S FINAL ADVICE

<sup>12</sup> Those who are trying to force you to be circumcised want to look good to others. They don't want to be persecuted for teaching that the cross of Christ alone can save. <sup>13</sup> And even those who advocate circumcision don't keep the whole law themselves. They only want you to be circumcised so they can boast about it and claim you as their disciples.

<sup>14</sup> As for me, may I never boast about anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. Because of that cross,* my interest in this world has been crucified, and the world's interest in me has also died. <sup>15</sup> It doesn't matter whether we have been circumcised or not. What counts is whether we have been transformed into a new creation. <sup>16</sup> May God's peace and mercy be upon all who live by this principle; they are the new people of God.*

<sup>17</sup> From now on, don't let anyone trouble me with these things. For I bear on my body the scars that show I belong to Jesus.

<sup>18</sup> Dear brothers and sisters,* may the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

6:14 Or Because of him. 6:16 Greek this principle, and upon the Israel of God. 6:18 Greek Brothers.

THE MINISTRY OF THE HOLY SPIRIT IN EPHESIANS

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Not only does Paul refer to the Father and Son in his letter, but he also discusses the ministry of the Holy Spirit and uses several metaphors to describe His ministry. Paul begins by saying the Spirit is a “guarantee” of all God’s future promises (1:13–14). The Ephesians were given the Spirit when they received the word of truth (the gospel) concerning Jesus. The image of the Spirit in this metaphor is of a notary who validates a word or promise and makes authentic God’s adoption of the Ephesians as His sons and daughters.

The Spirit builds God’s people into a dwelling place God can inhabit (2:21–22). The Spirit places Jews and Gentiles together in such a way that God can be present to them. He does this by fitting each together in relation to Jesus, who is the cornerstone. The image of the Spirit in the metaphor is of a contractor who builds up a people into a holy place where God can be present.

The Spirit unites God’s people as they walk as children of God (4:3–4). The people are bound together in their hope of being sons and daughters and joined in relationship to Jesus and to God the Father. The gift of the Spirit is relationship with others and with God. The image of the Spirit here is of a bond that binds one person to another.

The Spirit fills God’s people so they may walk in wisdom and worship God with all their hearts (5:15–20), know God’s will, and submit to the way of life He offers. The image of the Spirit in these verses is of inspiration that moves people in the praises of God.

The Spirit arms God’s people with His Word and enables them to pray. The Word of God and prayer is the means by which the Ephesians will fulfill their purpose as the body of Christ (6:17–18). The image of the Spirit in this passage is of an instrument of spiritual warfare.

Finally, the Spirit strengthens the inner man (2:18). Since the inner being is the place where we make decisions, the gift of the Spirit is that Jesus will dwell in our hearts and thus determine what we will and will not do. The image of the Spirit is of a trainer who makes the people strong in their resolve and commitment to God.

EPHESIANS

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

BACKGROUND

Paul's ministry in Ephesus began during his third missionary journey in AD 55. According to the book of Acts, when Paul first arrived in the city, he baptized followers of John in the name of Jesus, laid hands on them to receive the Holy Spirit, taught them about the Kingdom of God, and was "held daily discussions" in Tyrannus's hall (Acts 19:9). Miracles supported his teaching, including the deliverance of an evil spirit that had overwhelmed the seven sons of Sceva (Acts 19:13-16).

Ephesus was the third largest city in the Roman world after Rome and Alexandria, with a population of 250,000 people. It was a center for the worship of Artemis (goddess of fertility), and its temple (the Artemisian) was one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. It measured 425 feet (130 m) long, 220 feet (67 m) wide, 60 feet (18 m) high, and had 127 pillars of marble inlaid with gold. Temple priestesses were called bees, and eunuch priests were called drones. So important was the cult of Artemis in Ephesus that the city was known as the guardian (neokhoros) of Artemis. A festival celebrating the goddess was held every May when statues of her were carried along the main street with music and dancing to the theatre that seated 25,000-30,000 people. So successful was Paul's ministry of the gospel in the city that the silver-smith Demetrius stirred up massive opposition to it because of the loss of business at the temple (Acts 19:23-20:1).

Paul wrote the letter to the Ephesians during his house arrest in Rome in the early AD 60s as he waited for his hearing before Caesar. Paul had been arrested in Jerusalem for causing a disturbance at the Temple (Acts 23-25), but he had requested that Caesar hear his case, which was his right as a Roman citizen. Consequently, this letter is identified as one of Paul's "prison epistles," letters written by him while under arrest. The other prison epistles include Colossians, Philippians, and Philemon, which he wrote around the same time. This letter to the Ephesians was a sermon addressed to Jewish and Gentile believers in and around Ephesus.

Paul's letter to the Ephesians includes seven major sections:

- The people receive their election and inheritance through love (1:1-14).
- God has revealed His purposes to His people (1:15-22).
- Paul discusses human sin and divine mercy (2:1-10).

- He expounds on the formation of a people for worship (2:11-22).
- Paul explains his calling to be a minister of God's mystery (3:1-13).
- He discusses walking as the people of God (4:1-6:9).
- Paul describes God's people as a fully-equipped soldier ready to stand and conquer (6:10-20).

ELECTION IN EPHESIANS

Paul begins his letter by saying that God has elected the Ephesian church to be His sons and daughters. For the apostle, election is not simply about individual salvation but also about witness and worship, as well as testimony, proclamation, and service. Therefore, Paul's idea of election is about the privilege God gives to people to be in relationship with Him and to tell others about Him. Election is another word for calling, and such calling involves human response. In the Old Testament, God chose the Israelites to be His people because He loved them—not because He did not love others (Deuteronomy 7). The Israelites had a choice about how they would respond. It is important to remember that the biblical teaching about election does not speak of divine damnation of those who are not elected. God shows His mercy to all people through the election of one people. Israel is the means by which all people can know God.

PAUL'S MINISTRY OF THE GOSPEL OF PEACE

The Ephesian church called by God consisted of Jews and Gentiles, and the gospel Paul preached among them included the mystery that they (Jews and Gentiles) had been joined together as one people according to God (3:8-9). Paul says this reconciliation was accomplished through the blood of Jesus, which (1) brought the Gentiles near to God the Father, (2) broke down the wall of hostility with the Jews, and (3) created a unified man in place of a divided man (2:13-17). For Paul, this is the promise of the gospel and the foundation upon which the church must stand. Consequently, the gospel is ultimately a message of peace and not hostility or division, which he compares to shoes that allow people to stand firmly on their two feet (6:15). For Paul, the gospel or Good News is that Jesus intends for His Church to stand on its two feet of Jews and Gentiles in peace with one another. The gospel is ultimately a message about the reconciliation that comes through Jesus who has made peace through His cross—for all people with God and for Jews and Gentiles with one another.

FATHER, SON, CHILDREN

In the opening passage of Ephesians, Paul introduces God as a Father, Jesus as His Son, and the Ephesians as adopted children through the love of God by the Spirit. Throughout the remainder of the letter, Paul elaborates on who God is, who Jesus is, and who the Ephesian church is:

Who God Is

- God is the Father of the Lord Jesus, and He is the Father of the Ephesians who have become sons and daughters through adoption (1:3).
- He has an eternal plan for His children (1:9–10).
- God gives an inheritance to them (1:11, 18).
- He gives spiritual blessing to them by sealing them with His Spirit (1:13, 13).
- God is the Father of glory, who reveals His glory to others (1:17).
- He is rich in mercy (2:4).

Who Jesus Is

- Jesus is the Son of the Father (1:3).

- He is seated at the right hand of God in heaven far above all rule, authority, power, and dominion (1:20–21).
- Jesus' life is a fragrant offering to God since He gave His life for the Church (5:2).
- Because of His offering, Jesus is the head of the Church (1:22; 4:15; 5:23).
- Jesus' life, death, and resurrection—the essence of the gospel—cleanses the Church by His Word and makes the Church holy (5:26–27).

Who the (Ephesian) Church Is

- The Church is God's "masterpiece" (2:10).
- It has been brought near to God (2:13).
- The Church is a holy temple and dwelling place for the Holy Spirit (2:21–22).
- Members of the Church are children of the light (5:8).
- They are worshippers of God (5:19–20).
- The Church is a soldier for God (6:10–18).

Thus, Paul uses several different metaphors to describe the Church in his letter to the Ephesians. They are a family of adopted sons and daughters with the promise of an inheritance; a priceless work of art; a holy temple in which God's Spirit will dwell; the body of Christ blessed with gifts and with Jesus as the head (4:11–16); and a fully-equipped soldier called to stand in the vanguard against God's cosmic enemies.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus.

I am writing to God's holy people in Ephesus,* who are faithful followers of Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

SPIRITUAL BLESSINGS

<sup>3</sup>All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ. <sup>4</sup>Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes. <sup>5</sup>God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure. <sup>6</sup>So we praise God for the glorious grace he has poured out on us who belong to his dear Son. <sup>7</sup>He is so rich in kindness and grace that he purchased our freedom with the blood of his Son and forgave our sins. <sup>8</sup>He has showered his kindness on us, along with all wisdom and understanding.

<sup>9</sup>God has now revealed to us his mysterious will regarding Christ—which is to fulfill his own good plan. <sup>10</sup>And this is the plan: At the right time he will bring everything together under the authority of Christ—everything in heaven and on earth. <sup>11</sup>Furthermore, because we are united with Christ, we have received an inheritance from God,* for he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan.

<sup>12</sup>God's purpose was that we Jews who were the first to trust in Christ would bring praise and glory to God. <sup>13</sup>And now you Gentiles have also heard the truth, the Good News that God saves you. And when you believed in Christ, he identified you as his own* by giving you the Holy Spirit, whom he promised long ago. <sup>14</sup>The Spirit is God's guarantee that he will give us the inheritance he promised and that he has purchased us to be his own people. He did this so we would praise and glorify him.

SAVED

Ephesians 2:1-8

ROBERT MORRIS

At Gateway Church, our vision statement begins with seeing people saved. But what does saved really mean? The Greek word for saved is sozo (pronounced “sode-zo”), and it means ‘to be made whole spirit, soul, and body.’ Here are seven essential truths about being saved:

1. It's a gift.

We receive salvation by grace through faith in Jesus Christ. Salvation isn't a goal to be achieved; it's a gift to be received. A gift, by definition, is free, and the apostle Paul confirms that God's grace is “free and undeserved” (Romans 11:6).

2. It's eternal life.

Romans 6:23 says, “The wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord.”

3. It's forgiveness.

Salvation means “we receive God's forgiveness for all our sins”—past, present, and future. We are completely and totally released, and God promises never to remember them again (Psalm 103:12; Jeremiah 31:34).

4. It's justification.

Justification means “justice has been served and a wrong situation has been made right.” Jesus took the punishment we deserved for our sins, and because of His sacrifice, we are now justified in God's sight (Romans 3:24; Galatians 2:16). God declares us not guilty!

5. It's righteousness.

Righteousness means “right standing with God.” (Romans 4:3). We could never be good enough on our own, but when we get saved, God takes Jesus' righteousness and puts it into our account.

6. It's redemption.

Redeemed means “to be bought back.” God gave the ownership of the world to Adam and Eve, but through sin, they lost it to Satan. Jesus came and legally bought us back “with a high price”—His own blood (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

7. It's total commitment.

Salvation requires total commitment—the complete submission of our wills to the lordship of Christ. Many people think they are saved because they believe Jesus is God's Son and because they attend church. However, they aren't willing to give up control of their lives, so they are actually on their way to hell (Matthew 7:21; Luke 6:46). Ask yourself, Who is in control of my life? First John 5:13 says we can know that we have eternal life, and this only comes through total submission to Jesus.

WHAT'S SO AMAZING ABOUT GRACE?

Ephesians 2:8-9

ROBERT MORRIS

Salvation has nothing to do with human effort or works; it comes by grace through faith. The apostle Paul writes, “God saved you by his grace when you believed. And you can't take the credit for this; it is a gift from God” (Ephesians 2:8-9).

Grace is the unmerited, undeserved, and unearned kindness and favor of God. Nothing we could ever do or say would be enough to pay the price for our sins. So God paid it for us! In the most incredible demonstration of grace in history, He gave His own Son, Jesus, as a perfect sacrifice and “freed us from the penalty for our sins” (Romans 3:24).

When we put our faith in Jesus, His blood covers all our mistakes, problems, and failures and puts us in right standing with God forever. This kind of grace really is amazing!

you might grow in your knowledge of God.<sup>18</sup> I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope he has given to those he called—his holy people who are his rich and glorious inheritance.*

<sup>19</sup>I also pray that you will understand the incredible greatness of God's power for us who believe him. This is the same mighty power <sup>20</sup>that raised Christ from the dead and seated him in the place of honor at God's right hand in the heavenly realms. <sup>21</sup>Now he is far above any ruler or authority or power or leader or anything else—not only in this world but also in the world to come. <sup>22</sup>God has put all things under the authority of Christ and has made him head over all things for the benefit of the church. <sup>23</sup>And the church is his body; it is made full and complete by Christ, who fills all things everywhere with himself.

MADE ALIVE WITH CHRIST

2 Once you were dead because of your disobedience and your many sins. You used to live in sin, just like the rest of the world, obeying the devil—the commander of the powers in the unseen world.* He is the spirit at work in the hearts of those who refuse to obey God. <sup>3</sup>All of us used to live that way, following the passionate desires and inclinations of our sinful nature. By our very nature we were subject to God's anger, just like everyone else.

<sup>4</sup>But God is so rich in mercy, and he loved us so much, <sup>5</sup>that even though we were dead because of our sins, he gave us life when he raised Christ from the dead. (It is only by God's grace that you

LIVING TOGETHER GOD'S WAY

JACK HAYFORD

The open door for the Gentiles to receive salvation is something the Old Testament prophets did not see coming. Everyone thought the Kingdom of God would be fully in place immediately following the appearance of the Messiah. The revelation that Gentiles also had a place in this Kingdom required a significant shift in the minds of Jewish believers.

In Ephesians 3, Paul expresses deep gratitude for "the privilege of telling the Gentiles about the endless treasures available to them in Christ" (v. 8). He explains that both Jews and Gentiles are part of the body of Christ and heirs of God's promises. Together, as God's family, they are to spread the seeds of His love and plan to the entire world.

God cares more about people than cultural backgrounds or doctrines. He wants Jews and Gentiles to believe in Him, trust His purpose in them, and live together as a family in Him forever.

have been saved!) <sup>6</sup>For he raised us from the dead along with Christ and seated us with him in the heavenly realms because we are united with Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup>So God can point to us in all future ages as examples of the incredible wealth of his grace and kindness toward us, as shown in all he has done for us who are united with Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup>God saved you by his grace when you believed. And you can't take credit for this; it is a gift from God. <sup>9</sup>Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so none of us can boast about it. <sup>10</sup>For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

ONENESS AND PEACE IN CHRIST

<sup>11</sup>Don't forget that you Gentiles used to be outsiders. You were called "uncircumcised heathens" by the Jews, who were proud of their circumcision, even though it affected only their bodies and not their hearts. <sup>12</sup>In those days you were living apart from Christ. You were excluded from citizenship among the people of Israel, and you did not know the covenant promises God had made to them. You lived in this world without God and without hope. <sup>13</sup>But now you have been united with Christ Jesus. Once you were far away from God, but now you have been brought near to him through the blood of Christ.

<sup>14</sup>For Christ himself has brought peace to us. He united Jews and Gentiles into one people when, in his own body on the cross, he broke down the wall of hostility that separated us. <sup>15</sup>He did this by ending the system of law with its commandments and regulations. He made peace between Jews and Gentiles by creating in himself one new people from the two groups. <sup>16</sup>Together as one body, Christ reconciled both groups to God by means of his death on the cross, and our hostility toward each other was put to death.

<sup>17</sup>He brought this Good News of peace to you Gentiles who were far away from him, and peace to the Jews who were near. <sup>18</sup>Now all of us can come to the Father through the same Holy Spirit because of what Christ has done for us.

A TEMPLE FOR THE LORD

<sup>19</sup>So now you Gentiles are no longer strangers and foreigners. You are citizens along with all of God's holy people. You are members of God's family. <sup>20</sup>Together, we are his house, built on the foundation of the apostles and the prophets. And the cornerstone is Christ Jesus himself. <sup>21</sup>We are carefully joined together in him, becoming a holy temple for the Lord. <sup>22</sup>Through him you Gentiles are also being made part of this dwelling where God lives by his Spirit.

GOD'S MYSTERIOUS PLAN REVEALED

3 When I think of all this, I, Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus for the benefit of you Gentiles* . . . <sup>2</sup>assuming, by the way, that you know God gave me the special responsibility of extending his grace to you Gentiles. <sup>3</sup>As I briefly wrote earlier, God himself revealed his mysterious plan to me. <sup>4</sup>As you read what I have written, you will understand my insight into this plan regarding Christ. <sup>5</sup>God did not reveal it to previous generations, but now by his Spirit he has revealed it to his holy apostles and prophets.

<sup>6</sup>And this is God's plan: Both Gentiles and Jews who believe the Good News share equally in the riches inherited by God's children. Both are part of the same body, and both enjoy the promise of blessings because they belong to Christ Jesus.* <sup>7</sup>By God's grace and mighty power, I have been given the privilege of serving him by spreading this Good News.

<sup>8</sup>Though I am the least deserving of all God's people, he graciously gave me the privilege of telling the Gentiles about the endless treasures available to them in Christ. <sup>9</sup>I was chosen to explain to everyone* this mysterious plan that God, the Creator of all things, had kept secret from the beginning.

<sup>10</sup>God's purpose in all this was to use the church to display his wisdom in its rich variety to all the unseen rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. <sup>11</sup>This was his eternal plan, which he carried out through Christ Jesus our Lord.

<sup>12</sup>Because of Christ and our faith in him,* we can now come boldly and confidently into God's presence. <sup>13</sup>So please don't lose heart because of my trials here. I am suffering for you, so you should feel honored.

3:1 Paul resumes this thought in verse 14: "When I think of all this, I fall to my knees and pray to the Father." 3:6 Or because they are united with Christ Jesus. 3:9 Some manuscripts do not include to everyone. 3:12 Or Because of Christ's faithfulness.

PAUL'S PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

<sup>14</sup>When I think of all this, I fall to my knees and pray to the Father,* <sup>15</sup>the Creator of everything in heaven and on earth.* <sup>16</sup>I pray that from his glorious, unlimited resources he will empower you with inner strength through his Spirit. <sup>17</sup>Then Christ will make his home in your hearts as you trust in him. Your roots will grow down into God's love and keep you strong. <sup>18</sup>And may you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep his love is. <sup>19</sup>May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully. Then you will be made complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.

<sup>20</sup>Now all glory to God, who is able, through his mighty power at work within us, to accomplish infinitely more than we might ask or think.

<sup>21</sup>Glory to him in the church and in Christ Jesus through all generations forever and ever! Amen.

UNITY IN THE BODY

4 Therefore I, a prisoner for serving the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of your calling, for you have been called by God. <sup>2</sup>Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love. <sup>3</sup>Make every effort to keep yourselves united in the Spirit, binding yourselves together with peace. <sup>4</sup>For there is one body and one Spirit, just as you have been called to one glorious hope for the future.

<sup>6</sup> one God and Father of all,
who is over all, in all, and living through all.

<sup>7</sup>However, he has given each one of us a special gift* through the generosity of Christ. <sup>8</sup>That is why the Scriptures say,

"When he ascended to the heights, he led a crowd of captives and gave gifts to his people."<sup>9</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Notice that it says "he ascended." This clearly means that Christ also descended to our lowly world.* <sup>10</sup>And the same one who descended is the one who ascended higher than all the heavens, so that he might fill the entire universe with himself.

<sup>11</sup>Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers. <sup>12</sup>Their responsibility is to equip God's people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ.

<sup>13</sup>This will continue until we all come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son

EQUIPPED

Ephesians 4:11-12

ROBERT MORRIS

One of my favorite things about our church is the way people do the work of the ministry by loving, caring, and reaching out to others. You may be thinking, Isn't ministry the pastor's job? However, Ephesians 4:12 says a pastor's job is to "equip God's people to do his work and build up the church." In other words, a pastor's purpose is to equip you for the work of the ministry.

No matter what your job title is, if you're a believer, God calls you to ministry. Here are three keys to being equipped to do God's work:

1. Be available.

God doesn't need people with ability; after all, He has all the ability in the universe. Instead, He looks for people with availability. Paul instructs Timothy to teach the truths of God's Word "to other trustworthy people who will be able to pass them on to others" (2 Timothy 2:2). Notice the order: you have to be trustworthy before God will make you able.

2. Be a servant.

The world measures success by how many people serve you. In the Kingdom of God, however, success is measured by how many people you serve. Jesus told His disciples, "Whoever wants to be first must take last place and be the servant of everyone else" (Mark 9:35). You may start by serving somewhere that's not your ultimate place of gifting, but as you faithfully serve, God will open the door for you to use your gifts.

3. Be a minister.

Some people are called to vocational ministry; being a pastor, evangelist, or missionary is their profession. However, every believer is called to full-time ministry. No one gets to be a part-time Christian. First Peter 3:15 says, "If someone asks about your hope as a believer, always be ready to explain it." No matter where we work, we should always be ready and available to minister to others.

that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ.

<sup>14</sup>Then we will no longer be immature like children. We won't be tossed and blown about by every wind of new teaching. We will not be influenced when people try to trick us with lies so clever they sound like the truth. <sup>15</sup>Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church. <sup>16</sup>He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its

BREAKING OLD MOLDS, BUILDING NEW PATTERNS

Ephesians 4:22–32

JACK HAYFORD

Today, the average believer thinks human nature can be reshaped and improved, but it really cannot. Human nature is corrupt and can only be transformed by the power of God's Word and the Holy Spirit. Ephesians 4 explains how God is calling us to come away from the world, the flesh, and the devil:

- “Stop telling lies” (v. 25).
God desires us to live completely free of deceit, dishonesty, and compromising speech.
- “Don't sin by letting anger control you” (v. 26).
We must deal with anger immediately and not allow it to become a foothold for the devil.
- “Quit stealing. Instead, use your hands for good hard work” (v. 28).
God calls us to honor our commitments to our job.
- “Don't use foul or abusive language” (v. 29).
Our words should build respect, not tear each other down.
- “Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander . . . Instead, be kind to each other” (vv. 31–32).
All of these things flow out of bitterness. Bitterness infects our souls. When it pours out, it spreads infection to others.

CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Ephesians 4:25–27

TOM LANE

Conflict is a normal part of relationships. It is unrealistic to expect godly relationships not to have conflict. The absence of conflict does not necessarily determine or reflect the quality or depth of a relationship. However, godly relationships should not have violent interactions, stonewalling, withdrawal, rages, and unrighteous verbal assaults.

Ephesians 4:26 tells us not to “let the sun go down while you are still angry.” We need to address conflict while it is fresh, or else it can become a root of bitterness and hurt that will damage our relationships. Some situations are easy to forgive while others are more complicated. Here is a simple but important question to ask in times of anger: God, how should I respond? Ask Him to come to your defense and bring the situation to a resolution. God's wisdom is greater than any human mediation, and He can bring peace to even the most troubled relationships.

own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.

LIVING AS CHILDREN OF LIGHT

<sup>17</sup>With the Lord's authority I say this: Live no longer as the Gentiles do, for they are hopelessly confused. <sup>18</sup>Their minds are full of darkness; they wander far from the life God gives because they have closed their minds and hardened their hearts against him. <sup>19</sup>They have no sense of shame. They live for lustful pleasure and eagerly practice every kind of impurity.

<sup>20</sup>But that isn't what you learned about Christ. <sup>21</sup>Since you have heard about Jesus and have learned the truth that comes from him, <sup>22</sup>throw off your old sinful nature and your former way of life, which is corrupted by lust and deception. <sup>23</sup>Instead, let the Spirit renew your thoughts and attitudes. <sup>24</sup>Put on your new nature, created to be like God—truly righteous and holy.

<sup>25</sup>So stop telling lies. Let us tell our neighbors the truth, for we are all parts of the same body. <sup>26</sup>And “don't sin by letting anger control you.”* Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry, <sup>27</sup>for anger gives a foothold to the devil.

<sup>28</sup>If you are a thief, quit stealing. Instead, use your hands for good hard work, and then give generously to others in need. <sup>29</sup>Don't use foul or abusive language. Let everything you say be good and helpful, so that your words will be an encouragement to those who hear them.

<sup>30</sup>And do not bring sorrow to God's Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, he has identified you as his own,* guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption.

<sup>31</sup>Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, harsh words, and slander, as well as all types of evil behavior. <sup>32</sup>Instead, be kind to each other, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God through Christ has forgiven you.

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

5 Imitate God, therefore, in everything you do, because you are his dear children. <sup>2</sup>Live a life filled with love, following the example of Christ. He loved us* and offered himself as a sacrifice for us, a pleasing aroma to God.

<sup>3</sup>Let there be no sexual immorality, impurity, or greed among you. Such sins have no place among God's people. <sup>4</sup>Obscene stories, foolish talk, and coarse jokes—these are not for you. Instead, let there be thankfulness to God. <sup>5</sup>You can be sure that no immoral, impure, or greedy person will inherit the Kingdom of Christ and of God. For a greedy person is an idolater, worshipping the things of this world.

<sup>6</sup>Don't be fooled by those who try to excuse these sins, for the anger of God will fall on all 4:26 Ps 4:4. 4:30 Or has put his seal on you. 5:2 Some manuscripts read loved you.

HAPPY HUSBAND, HAPPY HOME

Ephesians 5:21–31

ROBERT MORRIS

In Ephesians 5:21, the apostle Paul tells us to “submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.” Many people don’t like the word submit, but as believers, we are called to live in submission to God and each other. If you’re married, submission simply means taking your mission (i.e., your desires and dreams) in life and putting it under the Lord and under your spouse’s mission.

God designed marriage to be a reflection of His image on earth, and a great marriage is one in which each spouse’s needs are recognized and met by the other in a biblical way. Here are three of the greatest needs of every husband:

1. Companionship

God made Eve because Adam needed a helper—a companion (Genesis 2:18). I would even use the word “friend” or “playmate.” Adam wanted someone with whom he could do things. Men love to have fun with their wives; it’s the reason they fell in love in the first place!

2. Sex

Sex is not a dirty word. God created it for men and women to enjoy within the confines of marriage. Men connect with their emotions through sex. Sex is a valid need; however, it can only truly be met within the confines of marriage. When it’s met in an impure way or outside of marriage, it will always bring destruction and death (James 1:14–15).

3. Honor

Honor is the number one need in a man’s life—it’s the key to his heart. A husband will never open up emotionally if his wife doesn’t honor him. Men are much more sensitive to words than we often realize. The key to connecting to a man’s heart is not what you say but how you say it.

who disobey him. <sup>7</sup>Don’t participate in the things these people do. <sup>8</sup>For once you were full of darkness, but now you have light from the Lord. So live as people of light! <sup>9</sup>For this light within you produces only what is good and right and true.

<sup>10</sup>Carefully determine what pleases the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Take no part in the worthless deeds of evil and darkness; instead, expose them. <sup>12</sup>It is shameful even to talk about the things that ungodly people do in secret. <sup>13</sup>But their evil intentions will be exposed when the light shines on them, <sup>14</sup>for the light makes everything visible. This is why it is said, “Awake, O sleeper, rise up from the dead,

and Christ will give you light.”

WASHED BY THE WORD

Ephesians 5:25–26

ROBERT MORRIS

Do you take a bath every day? This question isn’t about your body. It’s about your soul—your mind, will, and emotions. Your soul is in a battle with Satan, who constantly tries to flood your thoughts, desires, and feelings with lies. Many Christians are losing this battle, and the reason is simple—they are not being washed by the Word (Ephesians 5:25–26). Simply put, they’re not bathing in God’s Word every day.

When you accept God’s salvation through Jesus, your spirit is justified and completely cleansed. However, your soul is still being saved, which in the Greek means ‘made whole.’ For example, some believers continue to have impure and immoral thoughts because they are still copying the world’s behavior. Romans 12:2 says, “Let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think.” Allow God’s Word to wash you every day, and I guarantee your life will be transformed!

LIVING BY THE SPIRIT’S POWER

<sup>15</sup>So be careful how you live. Don’t live like fools, but like those who are wise. <sup>16</sup>Make the most of every opportunity in these evil days. <sup>17</sup>Don’t act thoughtlessly, but understand what the Lord wants you to do. <sup>18</sup>Don’t be drunk with wine, because that will ruin your life. Instead, be filled with the Holy Spirit, <sup>19</sup>singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, and making music to the Lord in your hearts. <sup>20</sup>And give thanks for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

SPIRIT-GUIDED RELATIONSHIPS:
WIVES AND HUSBANDS

<sup>21</sup>And further, submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

For wives, this means submit to your husbands as to the Lord. <sup>23</sup>For a husband is the head of his wife as Christ is the head of the church. He is the Savior of his body, the church. <sup>24</sup>As the church submits to Christ, so you wives should submit to your husbands in everything.

For husbands, this means love your wives, just as Christ loved the church. He gave up his life for her <sup>26</sup>to make her holy and clean, washed by the cleansing of God’s word. <sup>27</sup>He did this to present her to himself as a glorious church without a spot or wrinkle or any other blemish. Instead, she will be holy and without fault. <sup>28</sup>In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as they love their own bodies. For a man who loves his wife actually shows love for himself.

5:26 Greek washed by water with the word.

HAPPY WIFE, HAPPY LIFE

Ephesians 5:25-30

ROBERT MORRIS

Ephesians 5:25 tells husbands to love their wives as Jesus loves the Church: "He gave up his life for her." Giving up your life for your spouse means recognizing and honoring his or her needs and desires, especially when they are different than yours. Here are three needs wives have that their husbands are designed to meet:

1. Communication

Women don't want the headlines or bottom lines—they want the full story with all the details. For wives, communication isn't simply talking; it's connecting on a heart-to-heart level.

2. Leadership

The number one complaint I've encountered from women in marriage counseling is "My husband won't lead." Wives don't want to be dominated, but they do want their husbands to take initiative, especially when it comes to spiritual matters, children, and romance. By the way, romance for a woman isn't just sex; it's thinking about her and meeting a need before it's spoken.

3. Security

Security is a woman's most important need.

The number one thing that makes a woman feel secure is a selfless, sacrificial man. A wife wants to know her husband will do whatever it takes to take care of her for the rest of her life. When this need is met in a woman's life, it changes everything!

<sup>29</sup> No one hates his own body but feeds and cares for it, just as Christ cares for the church. <sup>30</sup> And we are members of his body.

<sup>31</sup> As the Scriptures say, "A man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one."<sup>32</sup> This is a great mystery, but it is an illustration of the way Christ and the church are one. <sup>33</sup> So again I say, each man must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

CHILDREN AND PARENTS

6 Children, obey your parents because you belong to the Lord,* for this is the right thing to do. <sup>2</sup> "Honor your father and mother." This is the first commandment with a promise: <sup>3</sup> If you honor your father and mother, "things will go well for you, and you will have a long life on the earth."<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Fathers,* do not provoke your children to anger by the way you treat them. Rather, bring them up with the discipline and instruction that comes from the Lord.

SLAVES AND MASTERS

<sup>5</sup> Slaves, obey your earthly masters with deep respect and fear. Serve them sincerely as you would serve Christ. <sup>6</sup> Try to please them all the time, not just when they are watching you. As slaves of Christ, do the will of God with all your heart. <sup>7</sup> Work with enthusiasm, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. <sup>8</sup> Remember that the Lord will reward each one of us for the good we do, whether we are slaves or free.

<sup>9</sup> Masters, treat your slaves in the same way. Don't threaten them; remember, you both have the same Master in heaven, and he has no favorites.

THE WHOLE ARMOR OF GOD

<sup>10</sup> A final word: Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. <sup>11</sup> Put on all of God's armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. <sup>12</sup> For we* are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, put on every piece of God's armor so you will be able to resist the enemy in the time of evil. Then after the battle you will still be standing firm. <sup>14</sup> Stand your ground, putting on the belt of truth and the body armor of God's

HONORING OUR TWO FATHERS

Ephesians 6:1-3

JIMMY EVANS

We all have two fathers—an earthly father and a heavenly Father. Fathers provide protection, provision, affection, training, and guidance. Our two fathers were designed to operate as a team and bring blessings into our lives. Even if your earthly father had shortcomings, your heavenly Father is perfect.

In Ephesians 6:2, Paul tells us to honor our fathers and mothers. This command comes with a promise: if we do this, our lives will be long and blessed. There is no qualifier in this verse that says we only honor them if they are worthy or deserving. We are to honor them in obedience to God's Word.

Honor your earthly father by remembering what he did right and thanking him for it. Give him grace for his imperfections and mistakes. Honor your heavenly Father by believing in His love and putting your faith in Him.

READY FOR BATTLEEphesians 6:17*

MARCUS BRECHEEN

Throughout Scripture, any reference to a sword could mean one of two things. The first is what we see when we think of medieval swords—weapons so huge and heavy that they require two hands just to lift. The other meaning is the one Paul uses in Ephesians 6:17: “Take the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.” The word Paul uses for sword refers to a dagger, between six and eighteen inches long and razor-sharp on both sides. Every soldier in the Roman army at that time carried one of these weapons. It was designed to do serious damage to the enemy.

The Word of God does serious damage to the enemy of your soul. To Satan, the sword of the Spirit is the most fearful weapon you can hold.

righteousness. <sup>15</sup>For shoes, put on the peace that comes from the Good News so that you will be fully prepared. * <sup>16</sup>In addition to all of these, hold up the shield of faith to stop the fiery arrows of the devil. * <sup>17</sup>Put on salvation as your helmet, and take the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

<sup>18</sup>Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere. *

<sup>19</sup>And pray for me, too. Ask God to give me the right words so I can boldly explain God’s mysterious plan that the Good News is for Jews and Gentiles alike. * <sup>20</sup>I am in chains now, still preaching this message as God’s ambassador. So pray that I will keep on speaking boldly for him, as I should.

THE HELMET OF SALVATIONEphesians 6:17*

JACK HAYFORD

Paul says to “put on salvation as your helmet” to be able to stand against the war being waged on our minds (Ephesians 6:17). In the salvation of Jesus Christ, there is full provision for our minds to be totally secure within His saving grace.

During Paul’s day, helmets were made of thick leather strips and had an imperial seal on the forehead to protect the soldier from any blows that passed the shield. The helmet of salvation believers wear also has a seal in the center of the forehead, in the shape of a cross imprinted on our minds. By the power of the cross, we bring every weapon, scheme, and strategy the enemy seeks to use against us to the feet of Jesus. Our Savior captures and defeats everything that ever dares to oppose us. Our responsibility is to put on His helmet of salvation and strap it on tightly.

He is a beloved brother and faithful helper in the Lord’s work. <sup>22</sup>I have sent him to you for this very purpose—to let you know how we are doing and to encourage you.

<sup>23</sup>Peace be with you, dear brothers and sisters, * and may God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you love with faithfulness. <sup>24</sup>May God’s grace be eternally upon all who love our Lord Jesus Christ.

PHILIPPIANS

ION HUNTZINGER, PhD

Paul wrote to the Philippians while under house arrest in Rome at the same time he wrote his other prison letters (Ephesians, Colossians, and Philemon) in the early AD 60s. He had founded the church in Philippi during his second missionary journey in AD 51 and maintained a close relationship with the people from that time. He thanks them for their continued prayers and financial support for his ministry (1:3-5; 4:15-19).

Paul's letter to the Philippians includes seven major sections:

- Paul offers thanksgiving and prayer for the Philippians (1:1-11).
- He remarks about his imprisonment because of his preaching about Jesus the Messiah (1:12-26).
- Paul exhorts the Philippians to live like Jesus (1:27-2:18).
- He tells of his plans concerning his coworkers, Timothy and Epaphroditus (2:19-30).
- Paul gives warnings against those who are "enemies of the cross" versus his own personal qualifications and example (3:1-21).
- He encourages the Philippians to rejoice and to think about what is worthy of praise (4:1-9).
- Paul leaves his final words about God's provision, thanksgiving for the Philippians' financial gift, and a farewell blessing (4:10-23).

JOY AND THE GOSPEL

A primary theme in Paul's letter is joy. The word itself (chairō) is found almost 75 times in the New Testament and describes the feeling believers have when they see God at work in particular situations (Matthew 2:10; Luke 19:37; 23:8; John 8:56; 20:20; Acts 8:39; 11:23; 15:31). This feeling is the one people have when they see God's will being done in their lives or the lives of others. As such, people can experience joy even in the midst of suffering or difficult circumstances. They are able to see that what God is doing is greater than their present hardship (John 11:15; 14:28; 1 Peter 4:13). That is why Paul, even though he is under arrest, uses the word repeatedly in his letter. In fact, he uses the verb rejoice six times and the noun joy four times. Paul views his circumstance as nothing in comparison to the work God is doing and the reward he will receive for sharing in it.

Joy also comes from living in unity with Jesus and following His example in serving others. Paul says, "Make me truly happy by agreeing wholeheartedly with each other, loving one another, and working together with one mind and purpose" (2:2). The following verses (2:5-11) are known as Paul's Christological Hymn, which means it is a song about the primary nature and work of Jesus. In it, he describes how believers are to follow Jesus' example, which stands in contrast to Adam's actions. God made Adam in His image, yet Adam gave in to the serpent's temptation (through Eve) to be like God and know good and evil (Genesis 1; 3) through eating of the tree of knowledge. Jesus did not think equality with God was something to be held onto tightly (harpagmos) but willingly. He became a servant and was born in the likeness of men. Jesus shows that to be truly human is to serve others. The word harpagmos that Paul uses also means 'rob' or 'grab' and describes what Jesus did not do. The use of this word suggests that what Adam did was rob God of what belonged to Him. The tree of knowledge was God's tree. By eating from this tree, Adam was robbing God. Jesus did not come to rob God! He came to give an example of who God created people to be and how He created them to live in joy by staying in relation with Him and His Word.

BLAMELESS PAUL

In his letter, Paul says he lived blameless under the law (3:6). The Greek word he uses is the same word used to describe Job's nature in the Greek Old Testament translation of the book of Job: "He was blameless—a man of complete integrity" (Job 1:1). In that story, God agrees with the narrator that Job is a blameless and upright man (Job 1:8; 2:3).

Both Paul and Job are blameless because they live faithfully with their God and the understanding they have of Him and His ways. Paul had not broken God's law in any way but had lived in harmony with it. He was confident in his theology. Job, too, lived in harmony with God and offered sacrifices to Him (Job 1:5). Yet he was confused and shaken to his core when he lost his property, family, and health (1:13-22; 2:7-10). In Job's understanding of God, since he is blameless, he should experience God's blessing.

God engages blameless Paul and Job in the same way—through revelation. The glorified Jesus appeared to Paul on the Damascus Road and showed Himself to be the way, truth, and life. Jesus asks, "Why are you persecuting me?" (Acts 9:4). In the case of Job, God came in a whirlwind and asked, "Who is this that questions my wisdom with such ignorant words?" (Job 38:2). Job eventually responds, "I know that you can do anything, and no one can stop you. . . . I had only heard about you before, but now I have seen you with my own eyes" (42:2, 5). Like Paul, who regains his sight after being blinded by the glory of Jesus on the road (Acts 9:3–19), Job sees and understands because of the revelation God gives. Only such revelation can increase Paul and Job's understanding of God to help them appreciate even more His mysterious and remarkable ways.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus.

I am writing to all of God's holy people in Philippi who belong to Christ Jesus, including the church leaders* and deacons.

<sup>2</sup> May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

PAUL'S THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER

<sup>3</sup> Every time I think of you, I give thanks to my God. <sup>4</sup> Whenever I pray, I make my requests for all of you with joy, <sup>5</sup> for you have been my partners in spreading the Good News about Christ from the time you first heard it until now. <sup>6</sup> And I am certain that God, who began the good work within you, will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.

<sup>7</sup> So it is right that I should feel as I do about all of you, for you have a special place in my heart. You share with me the special favor of God, both in my imprisonment and in defending and confirming the truth of the Good News. <sup>8</sup> God knows how much I love you and long for you with the tender compassion of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> I pray that your love will overflow more and more, and that you will keep on growing in knowledge and understanding. <sup>10</sup> For I want you to understand what really matters, so that you may live pure and blameless lives until the day of Christ's return. <sup>11</sup> May you always be filled with the fruit of your salvation—the righteous character produced in your life by Jesus Christ*—for this will bring much glory and praise to God.

PAUL'S JOY THAT CHRIST IS PREACHED

<sup>12</sup> And I want you to know, my dear brothers and sisters,* that everything that has happened to me here has helped to spread the Good News.

<sup>13</sup> For everyone here, including the whole palace guard,* knows that I am in chains because of Christ. <sup>14</sup> And because of my imprisonment, most of the believers* here have gained confidence and boldly speak God's message* without fear.

<sup>15</sup> It's true that some are preaching out of jealousy and rivalry. But others preach about Christ with pure motives. <sup>16</sup> They preach because they love me, for they know I have been appointed to defend the Good News. <sup>17</sup> Those others do not have pure motives as they preach about Christ. They preach with selfish ambition, not sincerely, intending to make my chains more painful to me.

<sup>18</sup> But that doesn't matter. Whether their motives are false or genuine, the message about Christ is being preached either way, so I rejoice. And I will continue to rejoice. <sup>19</sup> For I know that as you pray for me and the Spirit of Jesus Christ helps me, this will lead to my deliverance.

PAUL'S LIFE FOR CHRIST

<sup>20</sup> For I fully expect and hope that I will never be ashamed, but that I will continue to be bold for Christ, as I have been in the past. And I trust that my life will bring honor to Christ, whether I live or die. <sup>21</sup> For to me, living means living for Christ, and dying is even better. <sup>22</sup> But if I live, I can do more fruitful work for Christ. So I really don't know which is better. <sup>23</sup> I'm torn between two desires: I long to go and be with Christ, which would be far better for me. <sup>24</sup> But for your sakes, it is better that I continue to live.

<sup>25</sup> Knowing this, I am convinced that I will remain alive so I can continue to help all of you grow and experience the joy of your faith. <sup>26</sup> And when I come to you again, you will have even more reason to take pride in Christ Jesus because of what he is doing through me.

LIVE AS CITIZENS OF HEAVEN

<sup>27</sup> Above all, you must live as citizens of heaven, conducting yourselves in a manner worthy of the Good News about Christ. Then, whether I come and see you again or only hear about you, I will know that you are standing together with one spirit and one purpose, fighting together for the faith, which is the Good News. <sup>28</sup> Don't be intimidated in any way by your enemies. This will be a sign to them that they are going to be destroyed, but that you are going to be saved, even by God himself. <sup>29</sup> For you have been given not only the privilege of trusting in Christ but also the privilege of suffering for him. <sup>30</sup> We are in this struggle together. You have seen my struggle in the past, and you know that I am still in the midst of it.

HAVE THE ATTITUDE OF CHRIST

2 Is there any encouragement from belonging to Christ? Any comfort from his love? Any fellowship together in the Spirit? Are your hearts tender and compassionate? <sup>2</sup> Then make me truly happy by agreeing wholeheartedly with each other, loving one another, and working together with one mind and purpose.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Philippians 2:1-9

ROBERT MORRIS

Would you like to be successful in everything you do? In Philippians 2, the apostle Paul tells us how: "You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had" (v. 5). In other words, we need to think as Jesus thought when He was on this earth. Here are four practical ways we can think like Jesus:

1. Forget about your reputation.

Reputation is the way you appear to other people. Sometimes we become so worried about the way we appear to others that we compromise our Christian values. Jesus didn't focus on the fact that He was God; instead, He "gave up his divine privileges" and "was born as a human being" (v. 7). If you're going to succeed in marriage or any other area of life, you have to lay down your rights as Jesus did.

2. Become a slave.

Jesus "took the humble position of a slave" (v. 7). What position have you taken? Many believers like to talk about being kings and priests (Revelation 1:6), but they forget that Paul constantly referred to himself as "a slave" for Jesus (Romans 1:1; Philippians 1:1; Titus 1:1). Do you realize how many relationship problems would be solved if Christians acted with this kind of humility?

3. Take the low road.

Jesus "humbled himself in obedience to God" (v. 8). Here is the best definition of humility I know: making yourself lower than others. There are only two times when you need to take the low road. First, take the low road when you're wrong. Just admit it! Second, take the low road when you're right. Jesus was always right, and He still took the low road.

4. Die.

Jesus willingly "died a criminal's death on a cross" (v. 8). We need to live with this same attitude. The only way you'll ever be truly successful (and happy) is to die to yourself. Matthew 16:25 says, "If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it." God lifted Jesus "to the place of highest honor" (Philippians 2:9), and if you'll lower yourself, He'll lift you up too.

<sup>5</sup> You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had.

<sup>6</sup> Though he was God,*

he did not think of equality with God as something to cling to.

<sup>7</sup> Instead, he gave up his divine privileges*;
he took the humble position of a slave*
and was born as a human being.

When he appeared in human form,*

<sup>8</sup> he humbled himself in obedience to God and died a criminal's death on a cross.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, God elevated him to the place of highest honor and gave him the name above all other names,

<sup>10</sup> that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,

<sup>11</sup> and every tongue declare that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

SHINE BRIGHTLY FOR CHRIST

<sup>12</sup> Dear friends, you always followed my instructions when I was with you. And now that I am away, it is even more important. Work hard to show the results of your salvation, obeying God with deep reverence and fear. <sup>13</sup> For God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases him.

<sup>14</sup> Do everything without complaining and arguing, <sup>15</sup> so that no one can criticize you. Live clean, innocent lives as children of God, shining like bright lights in a world full of crooked and perverse people. <sup>16</sup> Hold firmly to the word of life; then, on the day of Christ's return, I will be proud that I did not run the race in vain and that my work was not useless. <sup>17</sup> But I will rejoice even if I lose my life, pouring it out like a liquid offering to God,* just like your faithful service is an offering to God. And I want all of you to share that joy. <sup>18</sup> Yes, you should rejoice, and I will share your joy.

PAUL COMMENDS TIMOTHY

<sup>19</sup> If the Lord Jesus is willing, I hope to send Timothy to you soon for a visit. Then he can cheer me up by telling me how you are getting along.

<sup>20</sup> I have no one else like Timothy, who genuinely cares about your welfare. <sup>21</sup> All the others care only for themselves and not for what matters to Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> But you know how Timothy has proved himself. Like a son with his father, he has served with me in preaching the Good News.

<sup>23</sup> I hope to send him to you just as soon as I find out what is going to happen to me here. <sup>24</sup> And I have confidence from the Lord that I myself will come to see you soon.

2:6 Or Being in the form of God. 2:7a Greek he emptied himself. 2:7b Or the form of a slave. 2:7c Some English translations put this phrase in verse 8. 2:17 Greek I will rejoice even if I am to be poured out as a liquid offering.

WORSHIP EVEN WHEN YOU DON'T FEEL LIKE IT

Philippians 4:4

ROBERT MORRIS

Do you ever not feel like worshipping? If we're being honest, we've all felt this way at some point in our lives. Let me encourage you, though: worship isn't based on feelings. We can worship even when we don't feel like it, and here are the top five reasons why:

1. He is worthy.

Our circumstances may change, but God never does (Malachi 3:6). No matter what we're going through, He's still worthy of our worship.

2. Worship is being true to who we really are.

Satan tells us that if we worship when we don't feel like it, we're being hypocrites. A hypocrite is someone who pretends to be something they're not. However, if you're a believer, then you're a worshipper. You're only a hypocrite if you come to church and don't worship.

3. Praise is a command.

The Bible tells us to shout to the Lord and to clap and lift our hands (Psalm 47:1; 134:2). These are imperatives—commands, not suggestions.

4. Feelings shouldn't dictate our actions.

Principles should!

Is God still worthy even if we get sick, have an argument with our spouse, or lose our job? Yes! Even when we don't feel like praying, we should pray. Even when we don't feel like tithing, we should tithe. And even when we don't feel like worshipping, we should worship.

5. We worship by faith.

Everything we do in the Christian life is by faith. We pray by faith, we give by faith, and we worship by faith.

THE PRICELESS VALUE OF KNOWING CHRIST

3 Whatever happens, my dear brothers and sisters, rejoice in the Lord. I never get tired of telling you these things, and I do it to safeguard your faith.

<sup>2</sup> Watch out for those dogs, those people who do evil, those mutilators who say you must be circumcised to be saved. <sup>3</sup> For we who worship by the Spirit of God* are the ones who are truly circumcised. We rely on what Christ Jesus has done for us. We put no confidence in human effort, <sup>4</sup> though I could have confidence in my own effort if anyone could. Indeed, if others have reason for confidence in their own efforts, I have even more!

<sup>5</sup> I was circumcised when I was eight days old. I am a pure-blooded citizen of Israel and a member of the tribe of Benjamin—a real Hebrew if there ever was one! I was a member of the Pharisees, who demand the strictest obedience to the Jewish law. <sup>6</sup> I was so zealous that I harshly persecuted the church. And as for righteousness, I obeyed the law without fault.

<sup>7</sup> I once thought these things were valuable, but now I consider them worthless because of what Christ has done. <sup>8</sup> Yes, everything else is worthless when compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have discarded everything else, counting it all as garbage, so that I could gain Christ <sup>9</sup> and become one with him. I no longer count on my own righteousness through obeying the law; rather, I become righteous through faith in Christ.* For God's way of making us right with himself depends on faith. <sup>10</sup> I want to know Christ and experience the mighty power that raised him from the dead. I want to suffer with him, sharing in his death, <sup>11</sup> so that one way or another I will experience the resurrection from the dead!

PRESSING TOWARD THE GOAL

<sup>12</sup> I don't mean to say that I have already achieved these things or that I have already reached perfection. But I press on to possess that perfection for which Christ Jesus first possessed me. <sup>13</sup> No, dear brothers and sisters, I have not achieved it,* but I focus on this one thing: Forgetting the past and looking forward to what lies ahead, <sup>14</sup> I press on to reach the end of the race and receive the heavenly prize for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling us.

<sup>15</sup> Let all who are spiritually mature agree on these things. If you disagree on some point, I believe God will make it plain to you. <sup>16</sup> But we must hold on to the progress we have already made.

PAUL COMMENDS EPAPHRODITUS

<sup>25</sup> Meanwhile, I thought I should send Epaphroditus back to you. He is a true brother, co-worker, and fellow soldier. And he was your messenger to help me in my need. <sup>26</sup> I am sending him because he has been longing to see you, and he was very distressed that you heard he was ill. <sup>27</sup> And he certainly was ill; in fact, he almost died. But God had mercy on him—and also on me, so that I would not have one sorrow after another.

<sup>28</sup> So I am all the more anxious to send him back to you, for I know you will be glad to see him, and then I will not be so worried about you. <sup>29</sup> Welcome him in the Lord's love* and with great joy, and give him the honor that people like him deserve. <sup>30</sup> For he risked his life for the work of Christ, and he was at the point of death while doing for me what you couldn't do from far away.

HOW TO GET A WORD

Philippians 4:6

ROBERT MORRIS

God's Word is eternal. If He spoke it 3,000 years ago, it's still true today. It's simple to hear a clear word from God by reading His Word. The first step is to enter His presence with praise (Psalm 100:4). Then you begin to pray. God invites us to make our requests known to Him: "Tell God what you need" (Philippians 4:6).

The next step is to open the Bible. If a particular story or Scripture comes to mind when you're spending time in God's presence and praying, read it. If you're going through a financial problem, read verses about finances and stewardship. If you're going through a health problem, read verses on health and healing. It helps to write down your prayers and what you hear God saying.

I encourage you to do this every day. You have a personal relationship with God, and He wants to talk to you.

JESUS IS THE WORD

Philippians 4:8

ROBERT MORRIS

Jesus is the Word, and all things were made through Him (John 1:1-4). All things in your life come from Him, and without Him, nothing happens.

When you accept Jesus, you determine how much of His life you're going to let flow through you. The more time you spend in His Word, the more you'll get to know Him and release His life in yours. That's when the supernatural happens. Why? Because we're actually meditating with Jesus when we study the Word.

Philippians 4:8 says, "Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable." All of these words can be used to describe God's Word. How incredible is that? I encourage you to dive deeper into His Word. As you continue to read and meditate on it, the Lord will continue to prosper you in everything you do.

<sup>17</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, pattern your lives after mine, and learn from those who follow our example. <sup>18</sup> For I have told you often before, and I say it again with tears in my eyes, that there are many whose conduct shows they are really enemies of the cross of Christ. <sup>19</sup> They are headed for destruction. Their god is their appetite, they brag about shameful things, and they think only about this life here on earth. <sup>20</sup> But we are citizens of heaven, where the Lord Jesus Christ lives. And we are eagerly waiting for him to return as our Savior. <sup>21</sup> He will take our weak mortal bodies and change them into glorious bodies like his own, using the same power with which he will bring everything under his control.

4 Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters,* stay true to the Lord. I love you and long to see you, dear friends, for you are my joy and the crown I receive for my work.

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

<sup>2</sup> Now I appeal to Euodia and Syntyche. Please, because you belong to the Lord, settle your disagreement. <sup>3</sup> And I ask you, my true partner,* to help these two women, for they worked hard with me in telling others the Good News. They worked along with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are written in the Book of Life.

<sup>4</sup> Always be full of joy in the Lord. I say it again—rejoice! <sup>5</sup> Let everyone see that you are considerate in all you do. Remember, the Lord is coming soon.*

thank him for all he has done. <sup>7</sup> Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> And now, dear brothers and sisters, one final thing. Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honorable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise. <sup>9</sup> Keep putting into practice all you learned and received from me—everything you heard from me and saw me doing. Then the God of peace will be with you.

PAUL'S THANKS FOR THEIR GIFTS

<sup>10</sup> How I praise the Lord that you are concerned about me again. I know you have always been concerned for me, but you didn't have the chance to help me. <sup>11</sup> Not that I was ever in need, for I have learned how to be content with whatever I have. <sup>12</sup> I know how to live on almost nothing or with everything. I have learned the secret of living in every situation, whether it is with a full stomach or empty, with plenty or little. <sup>13</sup> For I can do everything through Christ,* who gives me strength. <sup>14</sup> Even so, you have done well to share with me in my present difficulty.

<sup>15</sup> As you know, you Philippians were the only ones who gave me financial help when I first brought you the Good News and then traveled on from Macedonia. No other church did this. <sup>16</sup> Even when I was in Thessalonica you sent help more than once. <sup>17</sup> I don't say this because I want a gift from you. Rather, I want you to receive a reward for your kindness.

<sup>18</sup>At the moment I have all I need—and more! I am generously supplied with the gifts you sent me with Epaphroditus. They are a sweet-smelling sacrifice that is acceptable and pleasing to God. <sup>19</sup>And this same God who takes care of me will supply all your needs from his glorious riches, which have been given to us in Christ Jesus.

<sup>20</sup>Now all glory to God our Father forever and ever! Amen.

PAUL'S FINAL GREETINGS

<sup>21</sup>Give my greetings to each of God's holy people—all who belong to Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send you their greetings. <sup>22</sup>And all the rest of God's people send you greetings, too, especially those in Caesar's household.

4:23 Some manuscripts add Amen.

COLOSSIANS

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Paul wrote to the Colossians while under house arrest in Rome in the early AD 60s at the same time he wrote Ephesians, Philippians, and Philemon. He had not met the believers in Colossae, which was a small town about 100 miles east of Ephesus. However, he did know of them through Epaphras, one of his coworkers in ministry who likely founded the church there (1:7-8; 4:12-13). In this letter, Paul confronts false teaching that is threatening the faith of the believers by emphasizing the gospel and the supremacy of Jesus. Because the content in several passages closely resembles what Paul writes to the Ephesians (for example, Colossians 3:18-4:1 and Ephesians 5:22-33; Colossians 3:12-17 and Ephesians 6:10-20), it is likely he wrote both letters near the same time and used one as a source for the other. It is not clear in which order he wrote the letters, however.

Paul's letter includes seven major sections:

- He gives a greeting and a prayer for the Colossians' faith and continued growth in knowledge (1:1-14).
- Paul describes Jesus' supremacy over creation and the Church (1:15-2:4).
- He writes about his sufferings for Christ (1:24-2:5).
- Paul issues warnings against deceitful teaching, human traditions, angel worship, and asceticism, which includes severe self-discipline and the avoidance of all forms of physical pleasure (2:6-23).
- He exhorts the Colossians to cultivate what he describes elsewhere as the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23) and for them to live with respect for one another (Colossians 3:1-4:6).
- Paul concludes with recognition of his fellow workers and final greetings (4:7-18).

WHO JESUS IS

As much as Paul's letter to the Ephesians highlights the identity and calling of believers, his letter to the Colossians highlights the identity of Jesus and His ministry to believers (1:13-20). As in his other letters, Paul reminds his readers of the gospel and says that Jesus has delivered them from darkness, offered forgiveness for sins, and reconciled everything to Himself through His cross (1:13-14, 20). He adds that Jesus brought creation into being and is now over all creation. Specifically, He is the head of the body over the people of God as the resurrected one (1:15-18). Not only does Jesus reflect the invisible God, but also God fully dwells within Him (2:9). Since God dwells within Him—God is reconciled in Him—Jesus reconciles all things to God.

Paul commends the Colossians for their faith, love, and hope in his opening remarks (1:4-5). As he does elsewhere (Romans 5:1-5), Paul sees the previous work of God in Jesus (faith) and the anticipated future promise of God (hope) joining in the present love of God for "all of God's people."

COMPLETING CHRIST'S SUFFERINGS

Paul says he is "participating in the sufferings of Christ that continue for his body, the church" (1:24). What he means is that just as the followers of Jesus make up His body and continue His ministry in their own lives (and bodies), so also when they suffer (as Paul has suffered), Jesus suffers. When Jesus first appeared to Paul, he asked, "Why are you persecuting me?" (Acts 9:4). Jesus so closely identified with His followers that He was sharing in their experience. Now, in some way, Jesus shares in Paul's sufferings. When Paul is imprisoned, Jesus is imprisoned; when he is flogged, Jesus is flogged; when he is beaten, so is Jesus. It is a mystery how Jesus continues to experience affliction in His followers, such as Paul. Paul uses the metaphor of the body for the Church three times in this letter (Colossians 1:18; 2:19; 3:15), which speaks of Jesus' close identification with His people. Just as Jesus continues to intercede for God's people (Hebrews 7:23-25) and continues to minister salvation to all people, so also He continues to experience what His followers experience when they endure hardship and even persecution for His sake as they proclaim the gospel. Jesus' afflictions are filled up as His followers proclaim the gospel and, in the process, suffer resistance, rejection, and even persecution.

Thus, Paul's primary message in his letter is that through the death of Jesus, His followers have been reconciled to God. Paul uses the expression "in Him," which emphasizes the relation Jesus' followers have with Him. They are "in" Him, meaning they make up His body and share in His experience. To be "in" Jesus is to share in His death to sin, sickness, and death, and it is to participate with Him in new life through His resurrection.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy.

<sup>2</sup> We are writing to God's holy people in the city of Colosse, who are faithful brothers and sisters* in Christ.

May God our Father give you grace and peace.

PAUL'S THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER

<sup>3</sup> We always pray for you, and we give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> For we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and your love for all of God's people, <sup>5</sup> which come from your confident hope of what God has reserved for you in heaven. You have had this expectation ever since you first heard the truth of the Good News.

<sup>6</sup> This same Good News that came to you is going out all over the world. It is bearing fruit everywhere by changing lives, just as it changed your lives from the day you first heard and understood the truth about God's wonderful grace.

<sup>7</sup> You learned about the Good News from Epaphras, our beloved co-worker. He is Christ's faithful servant, and he is helping us on your behalf.*

<sup>8</sup> He has told us about the love for others that the Holy Spirit has given you.

<sup>9</sup> So we have not stopped praying for you since we first heard about you. We ask God to give you complete knowledge of his will and to give you spiritual wisdom and understanding. <sup>10</sup> Then the way you live will always honor and please the Lord, and your lives will produce every kind of good fruit. All the while, you will grow as you learn to know God better and better.

<sup>11</sup> We also pray that you will be strengthened with all his glorious power so you will have all the endurance and patience you need. May you be filled with joy,* <sup>12</sup> always thanking the Father. He has enabled you to share in the inheritance that belongs to his people, who live in the light. <sup>13</sup> For he has rescued us from the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the Kingdom of his dear Son, <sup>14</sup> who purchased our freedom* and forgave our sins.

CHRIST IS SUPREME

<sup>15</sup> Christ is the visible image of the invisible God.

He existed before anything was created and is supreme over all creation,*

<sup>16</sup> for through him God created everything in the heavenly realms and on earth.

He made the things we can see and the things we can't see—such as thrones, kingdoms, rulers, and authorities in the unseen world.

Everything was created through him and for him.

- <sup>18</sup> Christ is also the head of the church, which is his body. He is the beginning, supreme over all who rise from the dead.* So he is first in everything.
- <sup>19</sup> For God in all his fullness was pleased to live in Christ,
- <sup>20</sup> and through him God reconciled everything to himself. He made peace with everything in heaven and on earth by means of Christ's blood on the cross.

<sup>21</sup> This includes you who were once far away from God. You were his enemies, separated from him by your evil thoughts and actions. <sup>22</sup> Yet now he has reconciled you to himself through the death of Christ in his physical body. As a result, he has brought you into his own presence, and you are holy and blameless as you stand before him without a single fault.

<sup>23</sup> But you must continue to believe this truth and stand firmly in it. Don't drift away from the assurance you received when you heard the Good News. The Good News has been preached all over the world, and I, Paul, have been appointed as God's servant to proclaim it.

PAUL'S WORK FOR THE CHURCH

<sup>24</sup> I am glad when I suffer for you in my body, for I am participating in the sufferings of Christ that continue for his body,* the church. <sup>25</sup> God has given me the responsibility of serving his church by proclaiming his entire message to you.

<sup>26</sup> This message was kept secret for centuries and generations past, but now it has been revealed to God's people. <sup>27</sup> For God wanted them to know that the riches and glory of Christ are for you Gentiles, too. And this is the secret: Christ lives in you. This gives you assurance of sharing his glory.

<sup>28</sup> So we tell others about Christ, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all the wisdom God has given us. We want to present them to God, perfect* in their relationship to Christ. <sup>29</sup> That's why I work and struggle so hard, depending on Christ's mighty power that works within me.

2 I want you to know how much I have agonized for you and for the church at Laodicea, and for many other believers who have never met me personally. <sup>2</sup> I want them to be encouraged and knit together by strong ties of love. I want them to have complete confidence that they understand God's mysterious plan, which is Christ himself. <sup>3</sup> In him lie hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

1:2 Greek faithful brothers. 1:7 Or he is ministering on your behalf; some manuscripts read he is ministering on our behalf. 1:11 Or all the patience and endurance you need with joy. 1:14 Some manuscripts add with his blood. 1:15 Or He is the firstborn of all creation. 1:18 Or the firstborn from the dead. 1:28 Or mature.

<sup>4</sup>I am telling you this so no one will deceive you with well-crafted arguments. <sup>5</sup>For though I am far away from you, my heart is with you. And I rejoice that you are living as you should and that your faith in Christ is strong.

FREEDOM FROM RULES AND NEW LIFE IN CHRIST

<sup>6</sup>And now, just as you accepted Christ Jesus as your Lord, you must continue to follow him. <sup>7</sup>Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness.

<sup>8</sup>Don't let anyone capture you with empty philosophies and high-sounding nonsense that come from human thinking and from the spiritual powers* of this world, rather than from Christ. <sup>9</sup>For in Christ lives all the fullness of God in a human body.* <sup>10</sup>So you also are complete through your union with Christ, who is the head over every ruler and authority.

<sup>11</sup>When you came to Christ, you were "circumcised," but not by a physical procedure. Christ performed a spiritual circumcision—the cutting away of your sinful nature.* <sup>12</sup>For you were buried with Christ when you were baptized. And with him you were raised to new life because you trusted the mighty power of God, who raised Christ from the dead.

<sup>13</sup>You were dead because of your sins and because your sinful nature was not yet cut away. Then God made you alive with Christ, for he forgave all our sins. <sup>14</sup>He canceled the record of the charges against us and took it away by nailing it to the cross. <sup>15</sup>In this way, he disarmed* the spiritual rulers and authorities. He shamed them publicly by his victory over them on the cross.

<sup>16</sup>So don't let anyone condemn you for what you eat or drink, or for not celebrating certain holy days or new moon ceremonies or Sabbaths. <sup>17</sup>For these rules are only shadows of the reality yet to come. And Christ himself is that reality. <sup>18</sup>Don't let anyone condemn you by insisting on pious self-denial or the worship of angels,* saying they have had visions about these things. Their sinful minds have made them proud, <sup>19</sup>and they are not connected to Christ, the head of the body. For he holds the whole body together with its joints and ligaments, and it grows as God nourishes it.

<sup>20</sup>You have died with Christ, and he has set you free from the spiritual powers of this world. So why do you keep on following the rules of the world, such as, <sup>21</sup>"Don't handle! Don't taste! Don't touch!"? <sup>22</sup>Such rules are mere human teachings about things that deteriorate as we use them. <sup>23</sup>These rules may seem wise because they require strong devotion, pious self-denial, and severe bodily discipline. But they provide no help in conquering a person's evil desires.

LIVING THE NEW LIFE

3 Since you have been raised to new life with Christ, set your sights on the realities of heaven, where Christ sits in the place of honor at God's right hand. <sup>2</sup>Think about the things of heaven, not the things of earth. <sup>3</sup>For you died to this life, and your real life is hidden with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup>And when Christ, who is your* life, is revealed to the whole world, you will share in all his glory.

<sup>5</sup>So put to death the sinful, earthly things lurking within you. Have nothing to do with sexual immorality, impurity, lust, and evil desires. Don't be greedy, for a greedy person is an idolater, worshipping the things of this world. <sup>6</sup>Because of these sins, the anger of God is coming.* <sup>7</sup>You used to do these things when your life was still part of this world. <sup>8</sup>But now is the time to get rid of anger, rage, malicious behavior, slander, and dirty language. <sup>9</sup>Don't lie to each other, for you have stripped off your old sinful nature and all its wicked deeds.

<sup>10</sup>Put on your new nature, and be renewed as you learn to know your Creator and become like him. <sup>11</sup>In this new life, it doesn't matter if you are a Jew or a Gentile,* circumcised or uncircumcised, barbaric, uncivilized,* slave, or free. Christ is all that matters, and he lives in all of us.

<sup>12</sup>Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. <sup>13</sup>Make allowance for each other's faults, and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you, so you must forgive others. <sup>14</sup>Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. <sup>15</sup>And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful.

<sup>16</sup>Let the message about Christ, in all its richness, fill your lives. Teach and counsel each other with all the wisdom he gives. Sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs to God with thankful hearts. <sup>17</sup>And whatever you do or say, do it as a representative of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through him to God the Father.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CHRISTIAN HOUSEHOLDS

<sup>18</sup>Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting for those who belong to the Lord.

2:8 Or the spiritual principles; also in 2:20. 2:9 Or in him dwells all the completeness of the Godhead bodily. 2:11 Greek the cutting away of the body of the flesh. 2:15 Or he stripped off. 2:18 Or or worshipping with angels. 3:4 Some manuscripts read our. 3:6 Some manuscripts read is coming on all who disobey him. 3:11a Greek a Greek. 3:11b Greek Barbarian, Scythian.

<sup>22</sup>Slaves, obey your earthly masters in everything you do. Try to please them all the time, not just when they are watching you. Serve them sincerely because of your reverent fear of the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. <sup>24</sup>Remember that the Lord will give you an inheritance as your reward, and that the Master you are serving is Christ.* <sup>25</sup>But if you do what is wrong, you will be paid back for the wrong you have done. For God has no favorites.

4 Masters, be just and fair to your slaves. Remember that you also have a Master—in heaven.

AN ENCOURAGEMENT FOR PRAYER

<sup>2</sup>Devote yourselves to prayer with an alert mind and a thankful heart. <sup>3</sup>Pray for us, too, that God will give us many opportunities to speak about his mysterious plan concerning Christ. That is why I am here in chains. <sup>4</sup>Pray that I will proclaim this message as clearly as I should.

<sup>5</sup>Live wisely among those who are not believers, and make the most of every opportunity. <sup>6</sup>Let your conversation be gracious and attractive* so that you will have the right response for everyone.

PAUL'S FINAL INSTRUCTIONS AND GREETINGS

<sup>7</sup>Tychicus will give you a full report about how I am getting along. He is a beloved brother and faithful helper who serves with me in the Lord's work. <sup>8</sup>I have sent him to you for this very purpose—to let you know how we are doing and to encourage you. <sup>9</sup>I am also sending Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, one of your own people. He and Tychicus will tell you everything that's happening here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus, who is in prison with me, sends you his greetings, and so does Mark, Barnabas's cousin. As you were instructed before, make Mark welcome if he comes your way. <sup>11</sup>Jesus (the one we call Justus) also sends his greetings. These are the only Jewish believers among my co-workers; they are working with me here for the Kingdom of God. And what a comfort they have been!

<sup>12</sup>Epaphras, a member of your own fellowship and a servant of Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings. He always prays earnestly for you, asking God to make you strong and perfect, fully confident that you are following the whole will of God. <sup>13</sup>I can assure you that he prays hard for you and also for the believers in Laodicea and Hierapolis.

<sup>14</sup>Luke, the beloved doctor, sends his greetings, and so does Demas. <sup>15</sup>Please give my greetings to our brothers and sisters* at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church that meets in her house.

<sup>16</sup>After you have read this letter, pass it on to the church at Laodicea so they can read it, too. And you should read the letter I wrote to them.

<sup>17</sup>And say to Archippus, "Be sure to carry out the ministry the Lord gave you."

<sup>18</sup>HERE IS MY GREETING IN MY OWN HAND-WRITING—PAUL.

Remember my chains.

May God's grace be with you.

3:24 Or and serve Christ as your Master. 4:6 Greek and seasoned with salt. 4:15 Greek brothers.

1 AND 2 THESSALONIANS

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The city of Thessalonica was a business center in the region of Macedonia when Paul arrived there in the late AD 40s (Acts 17:1-9). His gospel stirred a strong response from some of the citizens. They threw him into jail as a result, and eventually, he had to leave the city. Paul wrote his letters of 1 and 2 Thessalonians after that time to both Jews and Gentiles who responded to his message. It seems from some of the letters' contents that the majority were Gentiles; for example, 1 Thessalonians 1:9 reports the people had turned away from idols.

The letter of 1 Thessalonians includes the following sections:

- Paul, along with his associates Silas and Timothy, greets the believers in Thessalonica (1:1-3).
- Paul gives thanks for their response to the gospel (1:4-10).
- He reviews his ministry to them and expresses his desire to see them again (2:1-3:13).
- Paul exhorts the Thessalonians to live in a way pleasing to God and teaches about the Day of the Lord and the return of the Lord Jesus (4:1-5:11).
- He offers final exhortations and a prayer that they remain blameless (5:12-28).

The letter of 2 Thessalonians includes the following sections:

- Paul greets the Thessalonians along with Silas and Timothy once again (1:1-2).
- He offers thanksgiving for their abundant faith and a word of encouragement for them to remain strong despite persecution (1:3-12).
- Paul gives additional teaching about the Day of the Lord (2:1-12).
- He exhorts them to stand firm in faith (2:13-17).
- Paul makes a request for prayer (3:1-5).
- He issues a command to do good works along with a final greeting written in his own hand (3:6-17).

The fact that Paul names Silas and Timothy in his greetings in both letters does not mean they coauthored them with him, but rather that they stood with him and supported what he wrote to the church. Moreover, the two letters contain similar vocabulary and teaching (1 Thessalonians 1:1 and 2 Thessalonians 1:1-2; 1 Thessalonians 1:2-3 and 2 Thessalonians 1:3; 1 Thessalonians 2:9 and 2 Thessalonians 3:8). Though some scholars credit different authors because they think Paul would not repeat himself when writing to the same group of people, these parallel passages speak to a common manner and purpose by the apostle. Very likely, he wrote 2 Thessalonians soon after 1 Thessalonians in response to questions his initial teaching raised (2 Thessalonians 2:1, 15).

FAITH, HOPE, LOVE

In 1 Thessalonians, Paul commends the people for their faith, hope, and love, even while they suffer afflictions (1:3, 6; 2:14). He also talks about his blameless ministry of the gospel of God among them (2:9-10) before being “separated” from them and hindered by Satan from seeing them (2:17-18). Paul encourages them to live holy lives and to live in brotherly love with each other (4:1-12). He then offers comfort over the death of loved ones by reminding them that the risen Jesus will one day return for His followers, and all will be resurrected (4:13-18). In the meantime, the Thessalonians should live in faith, hope, and love (5:8), the second time in the letter he has emphasized these three virtues. Finally, Paul tells them to devote themselves to doing good for one another (5:15) and to be joyful at all times (5:16). For Paul, faith, hope, and love represent the defining attributes of a follower of Jesus, and he writes about them in other letters, such as Romans (5:1-5) and 1 Corinthians (13:13). Faith is confidence in God’s words and promises because of what God has done in the past. Hope is confidence in those same words and promises for the future, and love is the present reality of God’s words and promises regardless of circumstances. Despite affliction because of their faith, the Thessalonians can continue to live in the present with love toward one another (4:9-10), which came through the power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit (1:5), and hope, which they have based on their faith.

HARD WORK AND GOOD WORKS

In 2 Thessalonians, Paul continues to encourage the believers who are experiencing persecution (1:4-6) by reminding them that the Lord Jesus Christ will return one day, but only after someone Paul describes as the “man of lawlessness” is revealed (2:1-12). For this reason, they should stand firm in faith (2:15), pray for Paul (3:1-2), and devote themselves to hard work on the one hand and to good works on the other (3:6-15). Paul has given an example to the Thessalonians of both hard work and good works (3:7-9). He was not a burden to the people when he was with them but supported himself. He also showed good works in his teaching and ministry among them. To Paul's mind, followers of the Lord Jesus can testify of Him to others by working hard and blessing them through the hard work they do and by doing good works that show the love of God in their own lives.

1 THESSALONIANS

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, Silas,* and Timothy. We are writing to the church in Thessalonica, to you who belong to God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

May God give you grace and peace.

THE FAITH OF THE THESSALONIAN BELIEVERS

<sup>2</sup>We always thank God for all of you and pray for you constantly.<sup>3</sup>As we pray to our God and Father about you, we think of your faithful work, your loving deeds, and the enduring hope you have because of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>We know, dear brothers and sisters,* that God loves you and has chosen you to be his own people.<sup>5</sup>For when we brought you the Good News, it was not only with words but also with power, for the Holy Spirit gave you full assurance* that what we said was true. And you know of our concern for you from the way we lived when we were with you.<sup>6</sup>So you received the message with joy from the Holy Spirit in spite of the severe suffering it brought you. In this way, you imitated both us and the Lord.<sup>7</sup>As a result, you have become an example to all the believers in Greece—throughout both Macedonia and Achaia.*

<sup>8</sup>And now the word of the Lord is ringing out from you to people everywhere, even beyond Macedonia and Achaia, for wherever we go we find people telling us about your faith in God. We don't need to tell them about it,<sup>9</sup> for they keep talking about the wonderful welcome you gave us and how you turned away from idols to serve the living and true God.<sup>10</sup>And they speak of how you are looking forward to the coming of God's Son from heaven—Jesus, whom God raised from the dead. He is the one who has rescued us from the terrors of the coming judgment.

PAUL REMEMBERS HIS VISIT

2 You yourselves know, dear brothers and sisters,* that our visit to you was not a failure.<sup>2</sup>You know how badly we had been treated at Philippi just before we came to you and how much we suffered there. Yet our God gave us the courage to declare his Good News to you boldly, in spite of great opposition.<sup>3</sup>So you can see we were not preaching with any deceit or impure motives or trickery.

<sup>4</sup>For we speak as messengers approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News. Our purpose is to please God, not people. He alone examines the motives of our hearts.<sup>5</sup>Never once did we try to win you with flattery, as you well know. And God is our witness that we were not pretending to be your friends just to get your money!<sup>6</sup>As for human praise, we have never sought it from you or anyone else.

<sup>7</sup>As apostles of Christ we certainly had a right to make some demands of you, but instead we were like children* among you. Or we were like a mother feeding and caring for her own children.

<sup>8</sup>We loved you so much that we shared with you not only God's Good News but our own lives, too.

<sup>9</sup>Don't you remember, dear brothers and sisters, how hard we worked among you? Night and day we toiled to earn a living so that we would not be a burden to any of you as we preached God's Good News to you.<sup>10</sup>You yourselves are our witnesses—and so is God—that we were devout and honest and faultless toward all of you believers.<sup>11</sup>And you know that we treated each of you as a father treats his own children.<sup>12</sup>We pleaded with you, encouraged you, and urged you to live your lives in a way that God would consider worthy. For he called you to share in his Kingdom and glory.

<sup>13</sup>Therefore, we never stop thanking God that when you received his message from us, you didn't think of our words as mere human ideas. You accepted what we said as the very word of God—which, of course, it is. And this word continues to work in you who believe.

<sup>14</sup>And then, dear brothers and sisters, you suffered persecution from your own countrymen. In this way, you imitated the believers in God's churches in Judea who, because of their belief in Christ Jesus, suffered from their own people, the Jews.<sup>15</sup>For some of the Jews killed the prophets,

1:1 Greek Silvanus, the Greek form of the name. 1:4 Greek brothers. 1:5 Or with the power of the Holy Spirit, so you can have full assurance. 1:7 Macedonia and Achaia were the northern and southern regions of Greece. 2:1 Greek brothers; also in 2:9, 14, 17. 2:7 Some manuscripts read we were gentle.

and some even killed the Lord Jesus. Now they have persecuted us, too. They fail to please God and work against all humanity<sup>16</sup> as they try to keep us from preaching the Good News of salvation to the Gentiles. By doing this, they continue to pile up their sins. But the anger of God has caught up with them at last.

TIMOTHY'S GOOD REPORT ABOUT THE CHURCH

<sup>17</sup> Dear brothers and sisters, after we were separated from you for a little while (though our hearts never left you), we tried very hard to come back because of our intense longing to see you again. <sup>18</sup> We wanted very much to come to you, and I, Paul, tried again and again, but Satan prevented us. <sup>19</sup> After all, what gives us hope and joy, and what will be our proud reward and crown as we stand before our Lord Jesus when he returns? It is you! <sup>20</sup> Yes, you are our pride and joy.

3 Finally, when we could stand it no longer, we decided to stay alone in Athens, <sup>2</sup> and we sent Timothy to visit you. He is our brother and God's co-worker* in proclaiming the Good News of Christ. We sent him to strengthen you, to encourage you in your faith,<sup>3</sup> and to keep you from being shaken by the troubles you were going through. But you know that we are destined for such troubles. <sup>4</sup> Even while we were with you, we warned you that troubles would soon come—and they did, as you well know. <sup>5</sup> That is why, when I could bear it no longer, I sent Timothy to find out whether your faith was still strong. I was afraid that the tempter had gotten the best of you and that our work had been useless.

<sup>6</sup> But now Timothy has just returned, bringing us good news about your faith and love. He reports that you always remember our visit with joy and that you want to see us as much as we want to see you. <sup>7</sup> So we have been greatly encouraged in the midst of our troubles and suffering, dear brothers and sisters,* because you have remained strong in your faith. <sup>8</sup> It gives us new life to know that you are standing firm in the Lord.

<sup>9</sup> How we thank God for you! Because of you we have great joy as we enter God's presence. <sup>10</sup> Night and day we pray earnestly for you, asking God to let us see you again to fill the gaps in your faith.

<sup>11</sup> May God our Father and our Lord Jesus bring us to you very soon. <sup>12</sup> And may the Lord make your love for one another and for all people grow and overflow, just as our love for you overflows. <sup>13</sup> May he, as a result, make your hearts strong, blameless, and holy as you stand before God our Father when our Lord Jesus comes again with all his holy people. Amen.

LIVE TO PLEASE GOD

4 Finally, dear brothers and sisters,* we urge you in the name of the Lord Jesus to live in a way that pleases God, as we have taught you.

You live this way already, and we encourage you to do so even more. <sup>2</sup> For you remember what we taught you by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>3</sup> God's will is for you to be holy, so stay away from all sexual sin. <sup>4</sup> Then each of you will control his own body* and live in holiness and honor—<sup>5</sup> not in lustful passion like the pagans who do not know God and his ways. <sup>6</sup> Never harm or cheat a fellow believer in this matter by violating his wife,* for the Lord avenges all such sins, as we have solemnly warned you before. <sup>7</sup> God has called us to live holy lives, not impure lives. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, anyone who refuses to live by these rules is not disobeying human teaching but is rejecting God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

<sup>9</sup> But we don't need to write to you about the importance of loving each other,* for God himself has taught you to love one another. <sup>10</sup> Indeed, you already show your love for all the believers* throughout Macedonia. Even so, dear brothers and sisters, we urge you to love them even more.

<sup>11</sup> Make it your goal to live a quiet life, minding your own business and working with your hands, just as we instructed you before. <sup>12</sup> Then people who are not believers will respect the way you live, and you will not need to depend on others.

THE HOPE OF THE RESURRECTION

<sup>13</sup> And now, dear brothers and sisters, we want you to know what will happen to the believers who have died* so you will not grieve like people who have no hope. <sup>14</sup> For since we believe that Jesus died and was raised to life again, we also believe that when Jesus returns, God will bring back with him the believers who have died.

<sup>15</sup> We tell you this directly from the Lord: We who are still living when the Lord returns will not meet him ahead of those who have died.*

<sup>16</sup> For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the believers who have died* will rise from their graves. <sup>17</sup> Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever. <sup>18</sup> So encourage each other with these words.

5 Now concerning how and when all this will happen, dear brothers and sisters,* we don't really need to write you. <sup>2</sup> For you know quite well that the day of the Lord's return will come unexpectedly, like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup> When people are saying, "Everything is peaceful and secure,"

3:2 Other manuscripts read and God's servant; still others read and a co-worker, or and a servant and co-worker for God, or and God's servant and our co-worker. 3:7 Greek brothers.

4:15 Greek those who have fallen asleep. 4:16 Greek the dead in Christ. 5:1 Greek brothers; also in 5:4, 12, 14, 25, 26, 27.

HOW TO PRAY WITHOUT CEASING

1 Thessalonians 5:17

JACK HAYFORD

In 1 Thessalonians 5, Paul gives 17 ways for believers to “encourage each other and build each other up” (v. 11). Most of the apostle’s list is easy to understand and implement. But how do we “never stop praying” (v. 17)?

One way is to pray and sing, either out loud or in the silence of your heart. Songs of joy express God’s strength and defeat the enemy. In 2 Chronicles 20, God’s people went into battle with the choir leading the way, “singing to the Lord and praising him for his holy splendor” (v. 21). The enemy fell, and the people returned victorious.

Our call as God’s people today is to introduce the place for God to reign. Singing songs in our mind and heart, keeping praise upon our lips and Scripture under our breath, we make a place for the ongoing entry and display of His work and power.

ALWAYS THANKFUL

1 Thessalonians 5:18

ROBERT MORRIS

An attitude of gratitude isn’t just a one-day-a-year celebration. It’s a daily lifestyle that every believer should embrace.

Jesus is the perfect example of someone who had a lifestyle of thanksgiving. Every time He ate, He gave thanks. And when the disciples asked Him to teach them how to pray, He said, “Give us today the food we need” (Matthew 6:11). Jesus was trying to impart an attitude to His followers. He was essentially saying, “Guys, this is a miracle. I want you to understand that God provided this food for us today—and every day!”

God wants us to give Him thanks. If we remind ourselves every day that He has provided us with everything we have, our attitude will change to one of thanksgiving. I encourage you to be thankful every day, and it starts with acknowledging that God is your provider.

then disaster will fall on them as suddenly as a pregnant woman’s labor pains begin. And there will be no escape.

<sup>4</sup>But you aren’t in the dark about these things, dear brothers and sisters, and you won’t be surprised when the day of the Lord comes like a thief.<sup>5</sup> For you are all children of the light and of the day; we don’t belong to darkness and night.<sup>6</sup> So be on your guard, not asleep like the others. Stay alert and be clearheaded.<sup>7</sup> Night is the time when people sleep and drinkers get drunk.<sup>8</sup> But let us who live in the light be clearheaded, protected by the armor of faith and love, and wearing as our helmet the confidence of our salvation.

<sup>9</sup>For God chose to save us through our Lord Jesus Christ, not to pour out his anger on us.<sup>10</sup> Christ died for us so that, whether we are dead or alive when he returns, we can live with him forever.<sup>11</sup> So encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing.

PAUL’S FINAL ADVICE

<sup>12</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, honor those who are your leaders in the Lord’s work. They work hard among you and give you spiritual guidance.<sup>13</sup> Show them great respect and wholehearted love because of their work. And live peacefully with each other.

<sup>14</sup>Brothers and sisters, we urge you to warn those who are lazy. Encourage those who are timid. Take tender care of those who are weak. Be patient with everyone.

<sup>15</sup>See that no one pays back evil for evil, but always try to do good to each other and to all people.

PAUL’S FINAL GREETINGS

<sup>23</sup>Now may the God of peace make you holy in every way, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless until our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. <sup>24</sup>God will make this happen, for he who calls you is faithful.

<sup>25</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, pray for us.

<sup>27</sup>I command you in the name of the Lord to read this letter to all the brothers and sisters.

<sup>28</sup>May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

5:4 Some manuscripts read comes upon you as if you were thieves.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, Silas,* and Timothy. We are writing to the church in Thessalonica, to you who belong to God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup> May God our Father* and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

ENCOURAGEMENT DURING PERSECUTION

<sup>3</sup> Dear brothers and sisters,* we can't help but thank God for you, because your faith is flourishing and your love for one another is growing. <sup>4</sup> We proudly tell God's other churches about your endurance and faithfulness in all the persecutions and hardships you are suffering. <sup>5</sup> And God will use this persecution to show his justice and to make you worthy of his Kingdom, for which you are suffering. <sup>6</sup> In his justice he will pay back those who persecute you.

<sup>7</sup> And God will provide rest for you who are being persecuted and also for us when the Lord Jesus appears from heaven. He will come with his mighty angels, <sup>8</sup> in flaming fire, bringing judgment on those who don't know God and on those who refuse to obey the Good News of our Lord Jesus. <sup>9</sup> They will be punished with eternal destruction, forever separated from the Lord and from his glorious power. <sup>10</sup> When he comes on that day, he will receive glory from his holy people—praise from all who believe. And this includes you, for you believed what we told you about him.

<sup>11</sup> So we keep on praying for you, asking our God to enable you to live a life worthy of his call. May he give you the power to accomplish all the good things your faith prompts you to do. <sup>12</sup> Then the name of our Lord Jesus will be honored because of the way you live, and you will be honored along with him. This is all made possible because of the grace of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ.*

EVENTS PRIOR TO THE LORD'S SECOND COMING

2 Now, dear brothers and sisters, let us clarify some things about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we will be gathered to meet him. <sup>2</sup> Don't be so easily shaken or alarmed by those who say that the day of the Lord has already begun. Don't believe them, even if they claim to have had a spiritual vision, a revelation, or a letter supposedly from us. <sup>3</sup> Don't be fooled by what they say. For that day will not come until there is a great rebellion against God and the man of lawlessness* is revealed—the one who brings destruction.* <sup>4</sup> He will exalt himself and defy everything that people call god and every object of worship. He will even sit in the temple of God, claiming that he himself is God.

<sup>5</sup> Don't you remember that I told you about all this when I was with you? <sup>6</sup> And you know what is holding him back, for he can be revealed only when his time comes. <sup>7</sup> For this lawlessness is already at work secretly, and it will remain secret until the one who is holding it back steps out of the way. <sup>8</sup> Then the man of lawlessness will be revealed, but the Lord Jesus will slay him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by the splendor of his coming.

<sup>9</sup> This man will come to do the work of Satan with counterfeit power and signs and miracles. <sup>10</sup> He will use every kind of evil deception to fool those on their way to destruction, because they refuse to love and accept the truth that would save them. <sup>11</sup> So God will cause them to be greatly deceived, and they will believe these lies. <sup>12</sup> Then they will be condemned for enjoying evil rather than believing the truth.

BELIEVERS SHOULD STAND FIRM

<sup>13</sup> As for us, we can't help but thank God for you, dear brothers and sisters loved by the Lord. We are always thankful that God chose you to be among the first* to experience salvation—a salvation that came through the Spirit who makes you holy and through your belief in the truth. <sup>14</sup> He called you to salvation when we told you the Good News; now you can share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>15</sup> With all these things in mind, dear brothers and sisters, stand firm and keep a strong grip on the teaching we passed on to you both in person and by letter.

<sup>16</sup> Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal comfort and a wonderful hope, <sup>17</sup> comfort you and strengthen you in every good thing you do and say.

PAUL'S REQUEST FOR PRAYER

3 Finally, dear brothers and sisters,* we ask you to pray for us. Pray that the Lord's message will spread rapidly and be honored wherever it goes, just as when it came to you. <sup>2</sup> Pray, too, that we will be rescued from wicked and evil people, for not everyone is a believer. <sup>3</sup> But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one.* <sup>4</sup> And we are confident in the Lord that you are doing and will continue to do the things we commanded you. <sup>5</sup> May the Lord

1:1 Greek Silvanus, the Greek form of the name. 1:2 Some manuscripts read God the Father. 1:3 Greek Brothers. 1:12 Or of our God and our Lord Jesus Christ. 2:1 Greek brothers; also in 2:13, 15. 2:3a Some manuscripts read the man of sin. 2:3b Greek the son of destruction. 2:13 Some manuscripts read chose you from the very beginning. 3:1 Greek brothers; also in 3:6, 13. 3:3 Or from evil.

lead your hearts into a full understanding and expression of the love of God and the patient endurance that comes from Christ.

AN EXHORTATION TO PROPER LIVING

<sup>6</sup>And now, dear brothers and sisters, we give you this command in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ: Stay away from all believers* who live idle lives and don't follow the tradition they received* from us. <sup>7</sup>For you know that you ought to imitate us. We were not idle when we were with you. <sup>8</sup>We never accepted food from anyone without paying for it. We worked hard day and night so we would not be a burden to any of you. <sup>9</sup>We certainly had the right to ask you to feed us, but we wanted to give you an example to follow. <sup>10</sup>Even while we were with you, we gave you this command: "Those unwilling to work will not get to eat."

<sup>11</sup>Yet we hear that some of you are living idle lives, refusing to work and meddling in other people's business. <sup>12</sup>We command such people and urge them in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ to settle down and work to earn their own living. <sup>13</sup>As for the rest of you, dear brothers and sisters, never get tired of doing good.

<sup>14</sup>Take note of those who refuse to obey what we say in this letter. Stay away from them so they will be ashamed. <sup>15</sup>Don't think of them as enemies, but warn them as you would a brother or sister.*

PAUL'S FINAL GREETINGS

<sup>16</sup>Now may the Lord of peace himself give you his peace at all times and in every situation. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>17</sup>HERE IS MY GREETING IN MY OWN HAND-WRITING—PAUL. I DO THIS IN ALL MY LETTERS TO PROVE THEY ARE FROM ME.

<sup>18</sup>May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 TIMOTHY

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Paul wrote the letter of 1 Timothy to his young associate Timothy in the early AD 60s to provide instruction for his pastoral leadership for the church at Ephesus, which Paul had founded about a decade earlier. Timothy likely came to faith through his mother and grandmother when they received the gospel from Paul in Asia Minor (Lystra) in the late AD 40s. In order for Timothy to serve alongside the apostle to both Jews and Gentiles, given the fact his mother was Jewish and his father a Gentile, Paul directs him to be circumcised. Jewish people would be more willing to hear the gospel from a young Jewish man who had been circumcised according to the teaching of Scripture than one who had not.

Paul's first letter to Timothy includes the following sections:

- Paul greets his “true son in the faith” and instructs him in the need to teach the goodness of the law (1:1–11).
- He gives thanks for the ministry of the gospel that God has given to him and encourages Timothy to remain faithful in that same ministry (1:12–20).
- Paul teaches about proper prayer and learning (2:1–15).
- He lists the qualifications for church leaders (3:1–13).
- Paul makes a statement on the mystery of the gospel (3:14–16).
- He gives a warning against false teaching and emphasizes the need for good doctrine (4:1–16).
- Paul gives instructions on the pastoral care of people in the church (5:1–6:10).
- He gives a final exhortation for Timothy to live a blameless life (6:11–21).

THE IMPORTANCE OF TEACHING

The word gospel or Good News only occurs one time in the letter: “We know that the law is good . . . from the glorious Good News entrusted to me by our blessed God” (1:8–11). This small amount of usage could indicate that Paul’s attention is on other matters besides the gospel in this letter. However, that assumption would be a mistake. In the letter, Paul addresses the problem of “teaching [that] is contrary to the truth” (1:3) or unorthodox teaching that threatens the sound doctrine of the church at Ephesus. In fact, the thrust of the entire letter is primarily concerned with teaching. The word for teaching (didasko) is used eight times; the verb (didasko) is used six times; and the word teacher (didaskalos) is used two times. Good or true teaching versus false teaching is the context in which the letter must be read. Good teaching is that which upholds the essential content of the gospel, and false teaching is that which would contradict it. Paul writes that he was appointed a teacher of the Gentiles (2:7) to make known the truth: “There is one God and one Mediator who can reconcile God and humanity—the man Christ Jesus. He gave his life to purchase freedom for everyone” (2:5–6). In this statement, he shows the close connection between good teaching and the gospel. Myths, genealogies, prohibitions against marriage, and abstaining from foods are all aspects of the false teaching Paul condemns. True teaching shows the practical consequences of the gospel in a person’s life in the form of devotion to family, careful speech, and the right attitude toward money.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus, appointed by the command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus, who gives us hope.

<sup>2</sup>I am writing to Timothy, my true son in the faith.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy, and peace.

WARNINGS AGAINST FALSE TEACHINGS

<sup>3</sup>When I left for Macedonia, I urged you to stay there in Ephesus and stop those whose teaching is contrary to the truth. <sup>4</sup>Don't let them waste their time in endless discussion of myths and spiritual pedigrees. These things only lead to meaningless speculations,* which don't help people live a life of faith in God.*

<sup>5</sup>The purpose of my instruction is that all believers would be filled with love that comes from a pure heart, a clear conscience, and genuine faith. <sup>6</sup>But some people have missed this whole point. They have turned away from these things and spend their time in meaningless discussions. <sup>7</sup>They want to be known as teachers of the law of Moses, but they don't know what they are talking about, even though they speak so confidently.

<sup>8</sup>We know that the law is good when used correctly. <sup>9</sup>For the law was not intended for people who do what is right. It is for people who are lawless and rebellious, who are ungodly and sinful, who consider nothing sacred and defile what is holy, who kill their father or mother or commit other murders. <sup>10</sup>The law is for people who are sexually immoral, or who practice homosexuality, or are slave traders,* liars, promise breakers, or who do anything else that contradicts the wholesome teaching <sup>11</sup>that comes from the glorious Good News entrusted to me by our blessed God.

PAUL'S GRATITUDE FOR GOD'S MERCY

<sup>12</sup>I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me strength to do his work. He considered me trustworthy and appointed me to serve him, <sup>13</sup>even though I used to blaspheme the name of Christ. In my insolence, I persecuted his people. But God had mercy on me because I did it in ignorance and unbelief. <sup>14</sup>Oh, how generous and gracious our Lord was! He filled me with the faith and love that come from Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it: "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners"—and I am the worst of them all. <sup>16</sup>But God had mercy on me so that Christ Jesus could use me as a prime example of his great patience with even the worst sinners. Then others will realize that they, too, can believe in him and receive eternal life. <sup>17</sup>All honor and glory to God forever and ever! He is the eternal King, the unseen one who never dies; he alone is God. Amen.

BELIEVING YOUR PRAYERS ARE DECISIVE

1 Timothy 2:1-5

JACK HAYFORD

Some believers never learn to pray beyond personal or family needs. However, each of us has a responsibility to pray regularly for our neighborhoods and cities. We have the power to decide whether we will have a quiet and peaceful life where we live and then beyond that to our state, our nation, and the world. This is our starting place as believers if we expect to see social peace and justice (v. 2), as well as spiritual opportunities (v. 4). It is the will of God (v. 3).

Begin to pray with a passion for both personal and global needs. Because God has empowered you by His Spirit, you can have confidence that your prayers really do make a difference. If we, as the people of God, will stand in the gap, the power of God will accomplish His intended purpose in the world.

TIMOTHY'S RESPONSIBILITY

<sup>18</sup>Timothy, my son, here are my instructions for you, based on the prophetic words spoken about you earlier. May they help you fight well in the Lord's battles. <sup>19</sup>Cling to your faith in Christ, and keep your conscience clear. For some people have deliberately violated their consciences; as a result, their faith has been shipwrecked. <sup>20</sup>Hymenaeus and Alexander are two examples. I threw them out and handed them over to Satan so they might learn not to blaspheme God.

INSTRUCTIONS ABOUT WORSHIP

2 I urge you, first of all, to pray for all people. Ask God to help them; intercede on their behalf, and give thanks for them. <sup>2</sup>Pray this way for kings and all who are in authority so that we can live peaceful and quiet lives marked by godliness and dignity. <sup>3</sup>This is good and pleases God our Savior, <sup>4</sup>who wants everyone to be saved and to understand the truth. <sup>5</sup>For,

There is one God and one Mediator who can reconcile God and humanity—the man Christ Jesus. <sup>6</sup>He gave his life to purchase freedom for everyone.

This is the message God gave to the world at just the right time. <sup>7</sup>And I have been chosen as a preacher and apostle to teach the Gentiles this message about faith and truth. I'm not exaggerating—just telling the truth.

<sup>8</sup>In every place of worship, I want men to pray with holy hands lifted up to God, free from anger and controversy.

1:4a Greek in myths and endless genealogies, which cause speculation.
1:4b Greek a stewardship of God in faith. 1:10 Or kidnappers.

<sup>9</sup>And I want women to be modest in their appearance.* They should wear decent and appropriate clothing and not draw attention to themselves by the way they fix their hair or by wearing gold or pearls or expensive clothes.
<sup>10</sup>For women who claim to be devoted to God should make themselves attractive by the good things they do.

<sup>11</sup>Women should learn quietly and submissively. <sup>12</sup>I do not let women teach men or have authority over them.* Let them listen quietly.
<sup>13</sup>For God made Adam first, and afterward he made Eve. <sup>14</sup>And it was not Adam who was deceived by Satan. The woman was deceived, and sin was the result. <sup>15</sup>But women will be saved through childbearing,* assuming they continue to live in faith, love, holiness, and modesty.

LEADERS IN THE CHURCH

3 This is a trustworthy saying: “If someone aspires to be a church leader,* he desires an honorable position.” <sup>2</sup>So a church leader must be a man whose life is above reproach. He must be faithful to his wife.* He must exercise self-control, live wisely, and have a good reputation. He must enjoy having guests in his home, and he must be able to teach. <sup>3</sup>He must not be a heavy drinker* or be violent. He must be gentle, not quarrelsome, and not love money. <sup>4</sup>He must manage his own family well, having children who respect and obey him. <sup>5</sup>For if a man cannot manage his own household, how can he take care of God’s church?

<sup>6</sup>A church leader must not be a new believer, because he might become proud, and the devil would cause him to fall.* <sup>7</sup>Also, people outside the church must speak well of him so that he will not be disgraced and fall into the devil’s trap.

<sup>8</sup>In the same way, deacons must be well respected and have integrity. They must not be heavy drinkers or dishonest with money. <sup>9</sup>They must be committed to the mystery of the faith now revealed and must live with a clear conscience. <sup>10</sup>Before they are appointed as deacons, let them be closely examined. If they pass the test, then let them serve as deacons.

<sup>11</sup>In the same way, their wives* must be respected and must not slander others. They must exercise self-control and be faithful in everything they do.

<sup>12</sup>A deacon must be faithful to his wife, and he must manage his children and household well.
<sup>13</sup>Those who do well as deacons will be rewarded with respect from others and will have increased confidence in their faith in Christ Jesus.

THE TRUTHS OF OUR FAITH

<sup>14</sup>I am writing these things to you now, even though I hope to be with you soon, <sup>15</sup>so that if I am delayed, you will know how people must conduct themselves in the household of God.

This is the church of the living God, which is the pillar and foundation of the truth.

<sup>16</sup>Without question, this is the great mystery of our faith*:

Christ* was revealed in a human body and vindicated by the Spirit.*
 He was seen by angels and announced to the nations.
 He was believed in throughout the world and taken to heaven in glory.

WARNINGS AGAINST FALSE TEACHERS

4 Now the Holy Spirit tells us clearly that in the last times some will turn away from the true faith; they will follow deceptive spirits and teachings that come from demons. <sup>2</sup>These people are hypocrites and liars, and their consciences are dead.*

<sup>3</sup>They will say it is wrong to be married and wrong to eat certain foods. But God created those foods to be eaten with thanks by faithful people who know the truth. <sup>4</sup>Since everything God created is good, we should not reject any of it but receive it with thanks. <sup>5</sup>For we know it is made acceptable* by the word of God and prayer.

A GOOD SERVANT OF CHRIST JESUS

<sup>6</sup>If you explain these things to the brothers and sisters,* Timothy, you will be a worthy servant of Christ Jesus, one who is nourished by the message of faith and the good teaching you have followed. <sup>7</sup>Do not waste time arguing over godless ideas and old wives’ tales. Instead, train yourself to be godly. <sup>8</sup>“Physical training is good, but training for godliness is much better, promising benefits in this life and in the life to come.” <sup>9</sup>This is a trustworthy saying, and everyone should accept it. <sup>10</sup>This is why we work hard and continue to struggle,* for our hope is in the living God, who is the Savior of all people and particularly of all believers.

<sup>11</sup>Teach these things and insist that everyone learn them. <sup>12</sup>Don’t let anyone think less of you because you are young. Be an example to all believers in what you say, in the way you live, in your love, your faith, and your purity. <sup>13</sup>Until I get there, focus on reading the Scriptures to the church, encouraging the believers, and teaching them.

<sup>14</sup>Do not neglect the spiritual gift you received through the prophecy spoken over you when

2:9 Or to pray in modest apparel. 2:12 Or teach men or usurp their authority. 2:15 Or will be saved by accepting their role as mothers, or will be saved by the birth of the Child. 3:1 Or an overseer, or a bishop; also in 3:2, 6. 3:2 Or must have only one wife, or must be married only once; Greek reads must be the husband of one wife; also in 3:12. 3:3 Greek must not drink too much wine; similarly in 3:8. 3:6 Or he might fall into the same judgment as the devil. 3:11 Or the women deacons. The Greek word can be translated women or wives. 3:16a Or of godliness. 3:16b Greek He who; other manuscripts read God. 3:16c Or in his spirit. 4:2 Greek are seared. 4:5 Or made holy. 4:6 Greek brothers. 4:10 Some manuscripts read continue to suffer.

PRESBYTERY AND PROPHECY

1 Timothy 4:14

ROBERT MORRIS

The word presbytery comes from the Greek word presbuterion, which means 'body of elders.' At Gateway Church, we bring in a group of elders (pastors and teachers) from both inside and outside our church to speak prophetic words to individuals and couples. The purpose of prophecy is to encourage and edify people, not to embarrass them or call out their past sins.

Here are a few important things to know about presbytery and prophecy:

1. It's God speaking.

God speaks through prophecy. I've seen many people give their lives to the Lord, and I've seen others turn their lives around based on a prophetic word spoken during a presbytery service.

2. It's an impartation.<sup>1</sup>

When God wants something, He speaks. It's how He created the earth and everything in it. So when He wants you to do something, He's going to speak it. In other words, He's going to impart it to you. In 1 Timothy 4:14, Paul tells Timothy, "Do not neglect the spiritual gift you received through the prophecy spoken over you when the elders of the church laid their hands on you."

3. It's team ministry.

Paul says, "Let two or three people prophesy, and let the others evaluate what is said" (1 Corinthians 14:29). There's accountability when prophetic ministry is done as a team.

The most accurate prophetic words I've heard have come through presbytery because God is speaking to multiple people. And it's incredible to hear similar words coming from different people. It's confirmation that the message truly came from the Lord.

show godliness at home and repay their parents by taking care of them. This is something that pleases God.

<sup>5</sup> Now a true widow, a woman who is truly alone in this world, has placed her hope in God. She prays night and day, asking God for his help. <sup>6</sup> But the widow who lives only for pleasure is spiritually dead even while she lives. <sup>7</sup> Give these instructions to the church so that no one will be open to criticism.

<sup>8</sup> But those who won't care for their relatives, especially those in their own household, have denied the true faith. Such people are worse than unbelievers.

<sup>9</sup> A widow who is put on the list for support must be a woman who is at least sixty years old and was faithful to her husband. <sup>10</sup> She must be well respected by everyone because of the good she has done. Has she brought up her children well? Has she been kind to strangers and served other believers humbly? <sup>11</sup> Has she helped those who are in trouble? Has she always been ready to do good?

<sup>12</sup> The younger widows should not be on the list, because their physical desires will overpower their devotion to Christ and they will want to remarry. <sup>13</sup> Then they would be guilty of breaking their previous pledge. <sup>14</sup> And if they are on the list, they will learn to be lazy and will spend their time gossiping from house to house, meddling in other people's business and talking about things they shouldn't. <sup>15</sup> So I advise these younger widows to marry again, have children, and take care of their own homes. Then the enemy will not be able to say anything against them. <sup>16</sup> For I am afraid that some of them have already gone astray and now follow Satan.

<sup>17</sup> If a woman who is a believer has relatives who are widows, she must take care of them and not put the responsibility on the church. Then the church can care for the widows who are truly alone.

<sup>18</sup> Elders who do their work well should be respected and paid well, especially those who work hard at both preaching and teaching. <sup>19</sup> For the Scripture says, "You must not muzzle an ox to keep it from eating as it treads out the grain." And in another place, "Those who work deserve their pay!" <sup>20</sup>

<sup>21</sup> Do not listen to an accusation against an elder unless it is confirmed by two or three witnesses. <sup>22</sup> Those who sin should be reprimanded in front of the whole church; this will serve as a strong warning to others.

<sup>23</sup> I solemnly command you in the presence of God and Christ Jesus and the highest angels to obey these instructions without taking sides or showing favoritism to anyone.

the elders of the church laid their hands on you.

<sup>15</sup> Give your complete attention to these matters. Throw yourself into your tasks so that everyone will see your progress. <sup>16</sup> Keep a close watch on how you live and on your teaching. Stay true to what is right for the sake of your own salvation and the salvation of those who hear you.

ADVICE ABOUT WIDOWS, ELDERS, AND SLAVES

5 Never speak harshly to an older man,* but appeal to him respectfully as you would to your own father. Talk to younger men as you would to your own brothers. <sup>2</sup> Treat older women as you would your mother, and treat younger women with all purity as you would your own sisters.

<sup>3</sup> Take care of* any widow who has no one else to care for her. <sup>4</sup> But if she has children or grandchildren, their first responsibility is to 5:1 Or an elder. 5:3 Or Honor. 5:9 Greek was the wife of one husband. 5:10 Greek and, washed the feet of God's holy people?

5:17 Greek should be worthy of double honor. 5:18 Deut 25:4; Luke 10:7.

<sup>22</sup>Never be in a hurry about appointing a church leader.* Do not share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

<sup>23</sup>Don't drink only water. You ought to drink a little wine for the sake of your stomach because you are sick so often.

<sup>24</sup>Remember, the sins of some people are obvious, leading them to certain judgment. But there are others whose sins will not be revealed until later. <sup>25</sup>In the same way, the good deeds of some people are obvious. And the good deeds done in secret will someday come to light.

6 All slaves should show full respect for their masters so they will not bring shame on the name of God and his teaching. <sup>21</sup>If the masters are believers, that is no excuse for being disrespectful. Those slaves should work all the harder because their efforts are helping other believers* who are well loved.

FALSE TEACHING AND TRUE RICHES

Teach these things, Timothy, and encourage everyone to obey them. <sup>3</sup>Some people may contradict our teaching, but these are the whole-some teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ. These teachings promote a godly life. <sup>4</sup>Anyone who teaches something different is arrogant and lacks understanding. Such a person has an unhealthy desire to quibble over the meaning of words. This stirs up arguments ending in jealousy, division, slander, and evil suspicions. <sup>5</sup>These people always cause trouble. Their minds are corrupt, and they have turned their backs on the truth. To them, a show of godliness is just a way to become wealthy.

<sup>6</sup>Yet true godliness with contentment is itself great wealth. <sup>7</sup>After all, we brought nothing with us when we came into the world, and we can't take anything with us when we leave it. <sup>8</sup>So if we have enough food and clothing, let us be content.

<sup>9</sup>But people who long to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many foolish and harmful desires that plunge them into ruin and destruction. <sup>10</sup>For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows.

PAUL'S FINAL INSTRUCTIONS

<sup>11</sup>But you, Timothy, are a man of God; so run from all these evil things. Pursue righteousness and a godly life, along with faith, love, perseverance, and gentleness. <sup>12</sup>Fight the good fight for the true faith. Hold tightly to the eternal life to which God has called you, which you have declared so well before many witnesses. <sup>13</sup>And I charge you before God, who gives life to all, and before Christ Jesus,

THE DECEITFULNESS OF MONEY

1 Timothy 6:17

ROBERT MORRIS

In his first letter to Timothy, the apostle Paul tells us not to place our security or trust in money. Why is this so important? Because our identity and trust should only be in God. There's nothing wrong with wanting to provide for your family or have a successful career. However, if your focus is only on earthly things, the Word of God will be choked out of your life.

When you start looking to money to give you happiness and love, you will never be truly satisfied. Satan looks for moments to sneak in and whisper that your car isn't new enough or your house isn't big enough. He wants to make you forget that Jesus is your provider and security.

Remind yourself who your true Source is. When you allow Jesus to be your Supplier, you open yourself up to receive His Word and His blessings.

who gave a good testimony before Pontius Pilate, <sup>14</sup>that you obey this command without wavering. Then no one can find fault with you from now until our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. <sup>15</sup>For,

At just the right time Christ will be revealed from heaven by the blessed and only almighty God, the King of all kings and Lord of all lords. <sup>16</sup>He alone can never die, and he lives in light so brilliant that no human can approach him. No human eye has ever seen him, nor ever will. All honor and power to him forever! Amen.

<sup>17</sup>Teach those who are rich in this world not to be proud and not to trust in their money, which is so unreliable. Their trust should be in God, who richly gives us all we need for our enjoyment. <sup>18</sup>Tell them to use their money to do good. They should be rich in good works and generous to those in need, always being ready to share with others. <sup>19</sup>By doing this they will be storing up their treasure as a good foundation for the future so that they may experience true life.

<sup>20</sup>Timothy, guard what God has entrusted to you. Avoid godless, foolish discussions with those who oppose you with their so-called knowledge. <sup>21</sup>Some people have wandered from the faith by following such foolishness.

May God's grace be with you all.

2 TIMOTHY

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The circumstances of Paul's second letter to Timothy seem different from the first. It is the most personal letter we have from Paul (along with 2 Corinthians). He wrote it shortly before his execution in AD 66–67. Because the vocabulary is different from 1 Timothy and the tone of the letter emotional, some people have questioned whether Paul wrote it. This concern can be answered by the fact that Paul used secretaries to write his letters and different secretaries sometimes wrote what Paul dictated to them in different ways. Also, his situation had changed. Whereas Paul wrote 1 Timothy as a free man (likely released after his hearing before Caesar, which the book of Acts anticipates), he wrote 2 Timothy later, having been rearrested and charged with a capital offense.

Paul's letter includes the following information:

- He greets Timothy, his “dear son,” and expresses thanksgiving (1:1–5).
- Paul encourages Timothy to remain true to the gospel (1:6–18).
- He charges Timothy to be strong in faith (2:1–13).
- Paul tells him to teach the inspired Word of God (2:14–3:17).
- He also encourages Timothy to preach God's Word (4:1–5).
- Paul concludes with a final declaration that he has “fought the good fight” even though “everyone” deserted him at his defense (4:6–22).

THE GOSPEL AND PAUL'S SUFFERING

In this letter, Paul links the gospel and the power of God with his suffering. The ministry of the gospel has resulted in much hardship for Paul, so he encourages Timothy to “never be ashamed to tell others about our Lord. And don't be ashamed of me, either, even though I'm in prison for him” (1:8). Paul continues by saying that Jesus “broke the power of death and illuminated the way to life and immortality through the Good News. . . . That is why I am suffering here in prison. But I am not ashamed of it” (1:10, 12). Later, Paul says, “Always remember that Jesus Christ, a descendant of King David, was raised from the dead. This is the Good News I preach. And because I preach this Good News, I am suffering and have been chained like a criminal” (2:8–9). Paul has paid a high price for preaching the Good News about Jesus' death and resurrection because not all want to hear it nor do they want others to hear it.

THE GOSPEL AND THE RESURRECTION

Paul suffers on account of the gospel, which he calls “truth,” “the word of God,” and “the Good News” in other parts of the letter (2:18; 4:2, 17). According to Paul, there is a right way and a wrong way to understand and interpret the gospel and its message of Good News. There is no middle way. The gospel must be correctly explained (2:15), he says, and must emphasize the resurrection of Jesus. The word of truth does not claim that the resurrection of the dead has already happened and is only a past event (2:18). Such teaching upsets the faith of people and causes them to doubt. It cannot be the word of truth or the gospel because the resurrection of the dead is at the heart of the gospel.

The Scriptures support Paul's understanding of the gospel, which for him would have been the books that make up the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament. Paul exhorts Timothy to continue to study these books because they contain the very breath and life of God. He says they are “inspired” or God-breathed (3:16), meaning they are filled with God's life and to the people who read them, provide wisdom and strength to do the good things God has always wanted them to do.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus. I have been sent out to tell others about the life he has promised through faith in Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>I am writing to Timothy, my dear son.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord give you grace, mercy, and peace.

ENCOURAGEMENT TO BE FAITHFUL

<sup>3</sup>Timothy, I thank God for you—the God I serve with a clear conscience, just as my ancestors did. Night and day I constantly remember you in my prayers. <sup>4</sup>I long to see you again, for I remember your tears as we parted. And I will be filled with joy when we are together again.

<sup>5</sup>I remember your genuine faith, for you share the faith that first filled your grandmother Lois and your mother, Eunice. And I know that same faith continues strong in you. <sup>6</sup>This is why I remind you to fan into flames the spiritual gift God gave you when I laid my hands on you. <sup>7</sup>For God has not given us a spirit of fear and timidity, but of power, love, and self-discipline.

<sup>8</sup>So never be ashamed to tell others about our Lord. And don't be ashamed of me, either, even though I'm in prison for him. With the strength God gives you, be ready to suffer with me for the sake of the Good News. <sup>9</sup>For God saved us and called us to live a holy life. He did this, not because we deserved it, but because that was his plan from before the beginning of time—to show us his grace through Christ Jesus. <sup>10</sup>And now he has made all of this plain to us by the appearing of Christ Jesus, our Savior. He broke the power of death and illuminated the way to life and immortality through the Good News. <sup>11</sup>And God chose me to be a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of this Good News.

<sup>12</sup>That is why I am suffering here in prison. But I am not ashamed of it, for I know the one in whom I trust, and I am sure that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him * until the day of his return.

<sup>13</sup>Hold on to the pattern of wholesome teaching you learned from me—a pattern shaped by the faith and love that you have in Christ Jesus.

<sup>14</sup>Through the power of the Holy Spirit who lives within us, carefully guard the precious truth that has been entrusted to you.

<sup>15</sup>As you know, everyone from the province of Asia has deserted me—even Phygelus and Hermogenes.

<sup>16</sup>May the Lord show special kindness to Onesiphorus and all his family because he often visited and encouraged me. He was never ashamed of me because I was in chains. <sup>17</sup>When he came to Rome, he searched everywhere until he found me. <sup>18</sup>May the Lord show him special kindness on the day of Christ's return. And you know very well how helpful he was in Ephesus.

A GOOD SOLDIER OF CHRIST JESUS

2 Timothy, my dear son, be strong through the grace that God gives you in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>You have heard me teach things that have been confirmed by many reliable witnesses. Now teach these truths to other trustworthy people who will be able to pass them on to others.

<sup>3</sup>Endure suffering along with me, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. <sup>4</sup>Soldiers don't get tied up in the affairs of civilian life, for then they cannot please the officer who enlisted them. <sup>5</sup>And athletes cannot win the prize unless they follow the rules. <sup>6</sup>And hardworking farmers should be the first to enjoy the fruit of their labor. <sup>7</sup>Think about what I am saying. The Lord will help you understand all these things.

<sup>8</sup>Always remember that Jesus Christ, a descendant of King David, was raised from the dead. This is the Good News I preach. <sup>9</sup>And because I preach this Good News, I am suffering and have been chained like a criminal. But the word of God cannot be chained. <sup>10</sup>So I am willing to endure anything if it will bring salvation and eternal glory in Christ Jesus to those God has chosen.

If we die with him,
we will also live with him.

<sup>12</sup> If we endure hardship, we will reign with him.

If we deny him,
he will deny us.

<sup>13</sup> If we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, for he cannot deny who he is.

<sup>14</sup>Remind everyone about these things, and command them in God's presence to stop fighting over words. Such arguments are useless, and they can ruin those who hear them.

AN APPROVED WORKER

<sup>15</sup>Work hard so you can present yourself to God and receive his approval. Be a good worker, one who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly explains the word of truth. <sup>16</sup>Avoid worthless, foolish talk that only leads to more godless behavior. <sup>17</sup>This kind of talk spreads like cancer,* as in the case of Hymenaeus and Philetus. <sup>18</sup>They have left the path of truth, claiming that the resurrection of the dead has already occurred; in this way, they have turned some people away from the faith.

<sup>19</sup>But God's truth stands firm like a foundation stone with this inscription: "The LORD knows those who are his,"* and "All who belong to the LORD must turn away from evil."*

<sup>20</sup>In a wealthy home some utensils are made of gold and silver, and some are made of wood and clay. The expensive utensils are used for special occasions, and the cheap ones are for everyday use.<sup>21</sup> If you keep yourself pure, you will be a special utensil for honorable use. Your life will be clean, and you will be ready for the Master to use you for every good work.

<sup>22</sup> Run from anything that stimulates youthful lusts. Instead, pursue righteous living, faithfulness, love, and peace. Enjoy the companionship of those who call on the Lord with pure hearts.

<sup>23</sup> Again I say, don't get involved in foolish, ignorant arguments that only start fights.<sup>24</sup> A servant of the Lord must not quarrel but must be kind to everyone, be able to teach, and be patient with difficult people.<sup>25</sup> Gently instruct those who oppose the truth. Perhaps God will change those people's hearts, and they will learn the truth.<sup>26</sup> Then they will come to their senses and escape from the devil's trap. For they have been held captive by him to do whatever he wants.

THE DANGERS OF THE LAST DAYS

3 You should know this, Timothy, that in the last days there will be very difficult times.
<sup>2</sup> For people will love only themselves and their money. They will be boastful and proud, scoffing at God, disobedient to their parents, and ungrateful. They will consider nothing sacred.
<sup>3</sup> They will be unloving and unforgiving; they will slander others and have no self-control. They will be cruel and hate what is good.
<sup>4</sup> They will betray their friends, be reckless, be puffed up with pride, and love pleasure rather than God.
<sup>5</sup> They will act religious, but they will reject the power that could make them godly. Stay away from people like that!

<sup>6</sup> They are the kind who work their way into people's homes and win the confidence of vulnerable women who are burdened with the guilt of sin and controlled by various desires.
<sup>7</sup> (Such women are forever following new teachings, but they are never able to understand the truth.)
<sup>8</sup> These teachers oppose the truth just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses. They have depraved minds and a counterfeit faith.
<sup>9</sup> But they won't get away with this for long. Someday everyone will recognize what fools they are, just as with Jannes and Jambres.

PAUL'S CHARGE TO TIMOTHY

<sup>10</sup> But you, Timothy, certainly know what I teach, and how I live, and what my purpose in life is. You know my faith, my patience, my love, and my endurance.
<sup>11</sup> You know how much persecution and suffering I have endured. You know all about how I was persecuted in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra—but the Lord rescued me from all of it.
<sup>12</sup> Yes, and everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.
<sup>13</sup> But evil people and impostors will flourish. They will deceive others and will themselves be deceived.

TAKE A BREATH

2 Timothy 3:16

ROBERT MORRIS

Paul writes, "All Scripture is inspired by God" (2 Timothy 3:16). The root of the Greek word for inspiration means "breath." In other words, all Scripture is the breath of God.

In Ezekiel 37, God tells Ezekiel to prophesy to a valley of dry bones. The bones come together and are covered with muscles and flesh; however, they are still breathless. I wonder how many people feel like those bodies—alive with no breath? Many of us live in a spiritually oxygen-depleted atmosphere because we're not breathing in God's Word.

Then God tells Ezekiel to prophesy again. Breath comes into the bodies, and they "all came to life and stood up on their feet—a great army" (Ezekiel 37:10). If God's breath can cause a valley of dry bones to become an army, think about the power it can have in your life! Take a breath today and see what God does.

<sup>14</sup> But you must remain faithful to the things you have been taught. You know they are true, for you know you can trust those who taught you.
<sup>15</sup> You have been taught the holy Scriptures from childhood, and they have given you the wisdom to receive the salvation that comes by trusting in Christ Jesus.
<sup>16</sup> All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right.
<sup>17</sup> God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work.

4 I solemnly urge you in the presence of God and Christ Jesus, who will someday judge the living and the dead when he comes to set up his Kingdom:
<sup>2</sup> Preach the word of God. Be prepared, whether the time is favorable or not. Patiently correct, rebuke, and encourage your people with good teaching.

<sup>3</sup> For a time is coming when people will no longer listen to sound and wholesome teaching. They will follow their own desires and will look for teachers who will tell them whatever their itching ears want to hear.
<sup>4</sup> They will reject the truth and chase after myths.

<sup>5</sup> But you should keep a clear mind in every situation. Don't be afraid of suffering for the Lord. Work at telling others the Good News, and fully carry out the ministry God has given you.

<sup>6</sup> As for me, my life has already been poured out as an offering to God. The time of my death is near.
<sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful.
<sup>8</sup> And now the prize awaits me—the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of his return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to his appearing.

PAUL'S FINAL WORDS

<sup>9</sup>Timothy, please come as soon as you can. <sup>10</sup>Demas has deserted me because he loves the things of this life and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia, and Titus has gone to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Bring Mark with you when you come, for he will be helpful to me in my ministry. <sup>12</sup>I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup>When you come, be sure to bring the coat I left with Carpus at Troas. Also bring my books, and especially my papers.*

<sup>14</sup>Alexander the coppersmith did me much harm, but the Lord will judge him for what he has done. <sup>15</sup>Be careful of him, for he fought against everything we said.

<sup>16</sup>The first time I was brought before the judge, no one came with me. Everyone abandoned me.

May it not be counted against them. <sup>17</sup>But the Lord stood with me and gave me strength so that I might preach the Good News in its entirety for all the Gentiles to hear. And he rescued me from certain death.* <sup>18</sup>Yes, and the Lord will deliver me from every evil attack and will bring me safely into his heavenly Kingdom. All glory to God forever and ever! Amen.

PAUL'S FINAL GREETINGS

<sup>21</sup>Do your best to get here before winter. Eubulus sends you greetings, and so do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters.*

<sup>22</sup>May the Lord be with your spirit. And may his grace be with all of you.

TITUS

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Paul's letter to Titus is one of three letters in the New Testament that he wrote to individual associates advising them on matters related to pastoral ministry. For that reason, they (Titus and 1-2 Timothy) are called the "pastoral epistles." Titus was a Gentile believer who had received the gospel from Paul and traveled with him to Jerusalem (Galatians 2:1-3) and later represented him to the Corinthian church (2 Corinthians 7:6-7; 8:6, 16-24). He also went to Dalmatia on Paul's behalf (2 Timothy 4:10). The letter advises Titus on the appointment of leaders in Crete and other matters after they had conducted ministry there (which is not recorded in the book of Acts). It is one of the last letters Paul wrote, sometime in the early AD 60s.

Paul's letter includes the following information:

- Paul gives a self-description and greets Titus as his "true son in the faith that we share" (1:1-4).
- He lists the qualifications for elders (1:5-16).
- Paul outlines proper behavior for men and women, young and old (2:1-15).
- He discusses the importance of good works (3:1-11).
- Paul gives his final instructions (3:12-15).

BELIEF AND BEHAVIOR

As with Paul's letters to Timothy, the letter to Titus is full of practical information. A common theme is the relationship between belief and behavior. Leaders must show in their lives the truth of the Word that they teach to others. The qualities of leadership—hospitality, goodness, self-control, uprightness, and holiness (1:8)—recall the fruit of the Spirit Paul writes about to the Galatians (Galatians 5:22-23). This means that, according to Paul, leaders must know God's Word and be filled with God's Spirit. For his part, Titus is to give "wholesome teaching" (Titus 2:1), do "good works" (2:7), and guard his speech (2:8).

GOOD WORKS

Good works is another theme that ties the letter together. Not only are leaders to show goodness in their personal lives (1:8), but Titus must match good works with his sound teaching (2:1, 7). Leaders are to follow the example of Jesus who gave His life so that people might be purified and able to do "good deeds" (2:14). In fact, Jesus' appearance was an example of God's goodness or good works (3:4) and made possible the ministry of the Holy Spirit, which leads to good works (3:5-8). In Paul's mind, good works are the best testimony to the gospel and the best defense of it. When people do good works, the gospel cannot be criticized, and "those who oppose us will be ashamed and have nothing bad to say about us" (2:8).

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1 This letter is from Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ. I have been sent to proclaim faith to* those God has chosen and to teach them to know the truth that shows them how to live godly lives.<sup>2</sup> This truth gives them confidence that they have eternal life, which God—who does not lie—promised them before the world began.<sup>3</sup> And now at just the right time he has revealed this message, which we announce to everyone. It is by the command of God our Savior that I have been entrusted with this work for him.

<sup>4</sup> I am writing to Titus, my true son in the faith that we share.

May God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior give you grace and peace.

TITUS'S WORK IN CRETE

<sup>5</sup> I left you on the island of Crete so you could complete our work there and appoint elders in each town as I instructed you.<sup>6</sup> An elder must live a blameless life. He must be faithful to his wife,* and his children must be believers who don't have a reputation for being wild or rebellious.<sup>7</sup> A church leader* is a manager of God's household, so he must live a blameless life. He must not be arrogant or quick-tempered; he must not be a heavy drinker,* violent, or dishonest with money.

<sup>8</sup> Rather, he must enjoy having guests in his home, and he must love what is good. He must live wisely and be just. He must live a devout and disciplined life.<sup>9</sup> He must have a strong belief in the trustworthy message he was taught; then he will be able to encourage others with wholesome teaching and show those who oppose it where they are wrong.

<sup>10</sup> For there are many rebellious people who engage in useless talk and deceive others. This is especially true of those who insist on circumcision for salvation.<sup>11</sup> They must be silenced, because they are turning whole families away from the truth by their false teaching. And they do it only for money.<sup>12</sup> Even one of their own men, a prophet from Crete, has said about them, "The people of Crete are all liars, cruel animals, and lazy gluttons."*<sup>13</sup> This is true. So reprimand them sternly to make them strong in the faith.<sup>14</sup> They must stop listening to Jewish myths and the commands of people who have turned away from the truth.

<sup>15</sup> Everything is pure to those whose hearts are pure. But nothing is pure to those who are corrupt and unbelieving, because their minds and consciences are corrupted.<sup>16</sup> Such people claim they know God, but they deny him by the way they live. They are detestable and disobedient, worthless for doing anything good.

PROMOTE RIGHT TEACHING

2 As for you, Titus, promote the kind of living that reflects wholesome teaching. Teach the older men to exercise self-control, to be worthy of respect, and to live wisely. They must have sound faith and be filled with love and patience.

<sup>3</sup> Similarly, teach the older women to live in a way that honors God. They must not slander others or be heavy drinkers.* Instead, they should teach others what is good.<sup>4</sup> These older women must train the younger women to love their husbands and their children,<sup>5</sup> to live wisely and be pure, to work in their homes,* to do good, and to be submissive to their husbands. Then they will not bring shame on the word of God.

<sup>6</sup> In the same way, encourage the young men to live wisely.<sup>7</sup> And you yourself must be an example to them by doing good works of every kind. Let everything you do reflect the integrity and seriousness of your teaching.<sup>8</sup> Teach the truth so that your teaching can't be criticized. Then those who oppose us will be ashamed and have nothing bad to say about us.

<sup>9</sup> Slaves must always obey their masters and do their best to please them. They must not talk back<sup>10</sup> or steal, but must show themselves to be entirely trustworthy and good. Then they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive in every way.

<sup>11</sup> For the grace of God has been revealed, bringing salvation to all people.<sup>12</sup> And we are instructed to turn from godless living and sinful pleasures. We should live in this evil world with wisdom, righteousness, and devotion to God,<sup>13</sup> while we look forward with hope to that wonderful day when the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, will be revealed.<sup>14</sup> He gave his life to free us from every kind of sin, to cleanse us, and to make us his very own people, totally committed to doing good deeds.

<sup>15</sup> You must teach these things and encourage the believers to do them. You have the authority to correct them when necessary, so don't let anyone disregard what you say.

DO WHAT IS GOOD

3 Remind the believers to submit to the government and its officers. They should be obedient, always ready to do what is good.<sup>2</sup> They must not slander anyone and must avoid quarreling. Instead, they should be gentle and show true humility to everyone.

<sup>3</sup> Once we, too, were foolish and disobedient. We were misled and became slaves to many lusts and pleasures. Our lives were full of evil and envy, and we hated each other.<sup>4</sup> But—

When God our Savior revealed his kindness and love,<sup>5</sup> he saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit.* <sup>6</sup> He generously poured out the Spirit upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior. <sup>7</sup> Because of his grace he made us right in his sight and gave us confidence that we will inherit eternal life.

<sup>8</sup> This is a trustworthy saying, and I want you to insist on these teachings so that all who trust in God will devote themselves to doing good. These teachings are good and beneficial for everyone.

<sup>9</sup> Do not get involved in foolish discussions about spiritual pedigrees* or in quarrels and fights about obedience to Jewish laws. These things are useless and a waste of time. <sup>10</sup> If people are causing divisions among you, give a first and second warning. After that, have nothing more to do with them. <sup>11</sup> For people like that have turned away from the truth, and their own sins condemn them.

PAUL'S FINAL REMARKS AND GREETINGS

<sup>12</sup> I am planning to send either Artemas or Tychicus to you. As soon as one of them arrives, do your best to meet me at Nicopolis, for I have decided to stay there for the winter. <sup>13</sup> Do everything you can to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos with their trip. See that they are given everything they need. <sup>14</sup> Our people must learn to do good by meeting the urgent needs of others; then they will not be unproductive.

PHILEMON

ION HUNTZINGER, PHD

Paul's letter to Philemon is the only one we have from the apostle to an individual believer about a personal matter. His other letters are to churches (at Rome, Corinth, Philippi, and Thessalonica), groups of churches (in Galatia and possibly in or around Ephesus), or to individuals who are working in ministry with him (the letters to Timothy and Titus). Paul wrote this letter while he was under house arrest, waiting for a hearing before Caesar, at about the same time he wrote Ephesians, Colossians, and Philippians in the early AD 60s.

Paul makes a sincere, emotional appeal to Philemon to release his slave Onesimus from his legal servitude into Paul's care to help Paul and to serve in ministry with him. He recalls their own close relationship and expresses his personal appreciation for Philemon's good works. Thus, Paul calls Philemon his "beloved" (agapetos) fellow worker and recognizes that he has made a name for himself by showing love to others (vv. 5, 7). At the same time, Paul describes himself as a prisoner (vv. 1, 9), a soldier (v. 2), an old man (v. 9), a father (v. 10), a brother (v. 16), a partner (v. 17), and a worker (v. 24).

Moreover, as part of his appeal, Paul draws attention to his imprisonment. The first thing he says in the letter is that he is a prisoner (v. 1). He repeats this by writing that he is "a prisoner for the sake of Christ Jesus" (v. 9) and by referring to his imprisonment (vv. 10, 13). He concludes the letter by referring to his "fellow prisoner" Epaphras (v. 23). In this way, Paul juxtaposes his situation as a bound prisoner who cannot act on his own with Philemon's situation as a free man who can exercise his free will (v. 14) by releasing Onesimus to minister to Paul at that time.

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

This letter is from Paul, a prisoner for preaching the Good News about Christ Jesus, and from our brother Timothy.

I am writing to Philemon, our beloved co-worker, <sup>2</sup>and to our sister Apphia, and to our fellow soldier Archippus, and to the church that meets in your* house.

<sup>3</sup>May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

PAUL'S THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God when I pray for you, Philemon, <sup>5</sup>because I keep hearing about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people. <sup>6</sup>And I am praying that you will put into action the generosity that comes from your faith as you understand and experience all the good things we have in Christ. <sup>7</sup>Your love has given me much joy and comfort, my brother, for your kindness has often refreshed the hearts of God's people.

PAUL'S APPEAL FOR ONESIMUS

<sup>8</sup>That is why I am boldly asking a favor of you. I could demand it in the name of Christ because it is the right thing for you to do. <sup>9</sup>But because of our love, I prefer simply to ask you. Consider this as a request from me—Paul, an old man and now also a prisoner for the sake of Christ Jesus.*

<sup>10</sup>I appeal to you to show kindness to my child, Onesimus. I became his father in the faith while here in prison. <sup>11</sup>Onesimus* hasn't been of much use to you in the past, but now he is very useful to both of us. <sup>12</sup>I am sending him back to you, and with him comes my own heart.

<sup>13</sup>I wanted to keep him here with me while I am in these chains for preaching the Good News, and he would have helped me on your behalf. <sup>14</sup>But I didn't want to do anything without your consent. I wanted you to help because you were willing, not because you were forced. <sup>15</sup>It seems you lost Onesimus for a little while so that you could have him back forever. <sup>16</sup>He is no longer like a slave to you. He is more than a slave, for he is a beloved brother, especially to me. Now he will mean much more to you, both as a man and as a brother in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me. <sup>18</sup>If he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me. <sup>19</sup>I, PAUL, WRITE THIS WITH MY OWN HAND: I WILL REPAY IT. AND I WON'T MENTION THAT YOU OWE ME YOUR VERY SOUL!

<sup>20</sup>Yes, my brother, please do me this favor* for the Lord's sake. Give me this encouragement in Christ.

<sup>21</sup>I am confident as I write this letter that you will do what I ask and even more! <sup>22</sup>One more thing—please prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping that God will answer your prayers and let me return to you soon.

PAUL'S FINAL GREETINGS

<sup>23</sup>Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you his greetings. <sup>24</sup>So do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my co-workers.

<sup>11</sup> Onesimus means "useful." <sup>20</sup> Greek onaimen, a play on the name Onesimus.

HEBREWS

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The book of Hebrews is a sermon about courage, in which the author seeks to build up his readers in their faith. The author is unknown, though some people have suggested Paul while others have suggested Barnabas, Apollos, or others. Whoever he was, he wrote to Jewish believers who had experienced hardship and persecution because of their commitment to Jesus as God's Messiah. References to the Temple and its sacrifices throughout the book indicate it was written prior to its destruction in AD 70.

Though the book is often described as an epistle or a letter, it is better read as a long sermon about faith and fear, like the long multipart sermon series preached by many pastors today. The sermon addresses the fear of rejection, alienation, loss, and even imprisonment (10:32-36). The preacher of Hebrews reminds his people that Jesus is the source of their courage, and he uses numerous titles and descriptions to talk about Him and emphasize this point:

- Jesus is God's Son. Through Jesus, who reflects God's glory, all things were created (1:1-3).
- Jesus is greater than angels are. As God's Son, He is greater than any other being (1:4-14).
- Jesus is greater than Moses is (3:1-6).
- Jesus is "a perfect leader" (2:10).
- Jesus is a high priest from the order of Melchizedek (5:1-10; 7:1-28).
- Jesus is the One "who has entered heaven" (4:14).
- Jesus is seated at the right hand of majesty (8:1).
- Jesus is the perfect sacrifice (9:11-14, 28; 10:12).
- Jesus is the mediator of a new covenant (9:15).
- Jesus is the One who "initiates and perfects our faith" who endured the cross (12:2).
- Jesus is "the same yesterday, today, and forever" (13:8).
- Jesus is the "great Shepherd of the sheep" (13:20).

The writer gives all these descriptions and titles to build confidence in the people so they will be strong and have courage in the midst of difficult circumstances. They should endure as Jesus endured the cross (12:2). They should stay in their faith and continue to embrace God's will during difficult times.

All the key elements of Jesus' story found in the four Gospels and preached by the early church (see the introduction to the book of Acts) are present in Hebrews:

- The preacher says that Jesus was a man (2:14).
- He obeyed God's will and performed signs by the Spirit (10:5-7).
- Jesus suffered and was crucified (2:9; 5:7-8; 6:6).
- He was raised to life (13:20).

— Jesus has ascended to His Father in glory (1:3; 4:14).

By presenting this Good News message, the preacher shows his broad understanding of the Hebrew Scriptures by quoting from them numerous times. In fact, he quotes from the prophet Jeremiah about the new covenant (Jeremiah 31:31-34), which is the longest single-passage quotation from the Hebrew Scriptures in the New Testament (Hebrews 8:8-12).

Faith is the key theme that unifies the sermon and defines the primary characteristic of the people of God. After an introduction that describes Jesus as the last and greatest word God has spoken to His people (1:1-2), the preacher identifies the primary characteristic of Jesus Himself as faithfulness. He says Jesus showed His faithfulness by serving as a high priest and offering himself as a sacrifice (2:17-3:3). The preacher then discusses Jesus' faithfulness as high priest in chapters 7-10. He follows this description with another of what faith looked like in the lives of the biblical heroes who went before Jesus (chapter 11) and concludes with a final description of Jesus who provides the example of faith by following their example and pursuing joy. According to the preacher, even though God heard Jesus' "prayers and pleadings, with a loud cry and tears," He did not remove Jesus from those circumstances and from giving His life as a sacrifice for others (5:7-8). Jesus endured and ran the race in which God placed Him (12:1-2). Thus, the preacher declares that faith is running the race in which God has placed us and living faithfully (enduring, 10:32-39; 12:1-11, 14-28) as Jesus did. The sermon concludes with practical advice and an encouragement for the Hebrews to be faithful. They should not grow weary nor neglect hospitality to one another but continue to live sacrificially because, he suggests, these are signs of faith (13:1-19).

The preacher of Hebrews famously describes faith as "the reality of what we hope for; it is the evidence of things we cannot see" (11:1). The key to understanding this definition is in the preceding passage (10:32-39). In those verses, the preacher urges the people to recall their earlier hardship and suffering and to respond to their present circumstances with the same kind of determination and diligence as they did then. He reminds them that though they had been put in jail and even lost possessions, they did not shift from their allegiance to the Lord. He then refers to Habakkuk 2:4: "The righteous will live by their faithfulness to God."

The passage from Habakkuk teaches that although God's people may not understand God's ways—even in the most troubling and dire circumstances—they must trust in the word that He speaks to them. This truth comes to Habakkuk in Jerusalem in the sixth century BC as he watches the Babylonians prepare to overthrow the city. He confesses that the people have sinned against God and deserve His judgment, but Habakkuk cannot understand why God would use the Babylonians to bring that judgment. The prophet vows to wait for God's answer and watch for His action (Habakkuk 2:1). Against this background, God says, "Look at the proud! They trust in themselves, and their lives are crooked. But the righteous will live by their faithfulness to God" (2:4). God knows the Babylonians and says His people are to be different from such proud people and trust in His word, even though they cannot see it, and it may not seem as real to them as the Babylonians themselves. The writer of Hebrews draws on this passage to remind his readers that though their present experience may be hard to comprehend, they should trust the gospel they have received and the divine signs that came with it. They may not be able to see evidence of God's promise because of the greatness of their current needs, but they are to have faith based on what they have experienced in the past.

JESUS CHRIST IS GOD'S SON

<sup>1</sup> Long ago God spoke many times and in many ways to our ancestors through the prophets. <sup>2</sup> And now in these final days, he has spoken to us through his Son. God promised everything to the Son as an inheritance, and through the Son he created the universe. <sup>3</sup> The Son radiates God's own glory and expresses the very character of God, and he sustains everything by the mighty power of his command. When he had cleansed us from our sins, he sat down in the place of honor at the right hand of the majestic God in heaven. <sup>4</sup> This shows that the Son is far greater than the angels, just as the name God gave him is greater than their names.

THE SON IS GREATER THAN THE ANGELS

<sup>5</sup> For God never said to any angel what he said to Jesus:

"You are my Son.
Today I have become your Father."*

God also said,

"I will be his Father, and he will be my Son."*

<sup>6</sup> And when he brought his supreme* Son into the world, God said,*

"Let all of God's angels worship him."*

<sup>7</sup> Regarding the angels, he says,

"He sends his angels like the winds, his servants like flames of fire."*

<sup>8</sup> But to the Son he says,

"Your throne, O God, endures forever and ever.
You rule with a scepter of justice.

THE PERSON WE WORSHIP

Hebrews 1:1-4

JACK HAYFORD

Jesus is the essence and focus of our worship. In the opening words of Hebrews, the writer makes seven statements about our Savior:

1. He is the predestined heir of all things (v. 2).
2. He is the channel of God's operational power (v. 2).
3. He is the projection of the radiance of God's glory toward man (v. 3).
4. He is the expression of the ultimate reality, being the expressed image of the Almighty (v. 3).
5. He is the sustainer of the universe and the One who upholds all things by the Word of His power, having laid the foundation of the earth and erected all that we know of creation (v. 3).
6. He is the Redeemer of sinful humanity, for with Himself, He cleansed us of our sins. (v. 3).
7. He is the ascended Lord above all, who sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high where He reigns even now (v. 3).

<sup>9</sup> You love justice and hate evil.

Therefore, O God, your God has anointed you, pouring out the oil of joy on you more than on anyone else."*

<sup>10</sup> He also says to the Son,

"In the beginning, Lord, you laid the foundation of the earth and made the heavens with your hands.

<sup>1:5a</sup> Or Today I reveal you as my Son. Ps 2:7. <sup>1:5b</sup> 2 Sam 7:14.
<sup>1:7</sup> Ps 104:4 (Greek version). <sup>1:8-9</sup> Ps 45:6-7.

- <sup>11</sup> They will perish, but you remain forever.
They will wear out like old clothing.
<sup>12</sup> You will fold them up like a cloak and discard them like old clothing.
But you are always the same;
you will live forever.”*

<sup>13</sup> And God never said to any of the angels,

“Sit in the place of honor at my right hand until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.”*

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, angels are only servants—spirits sent to care for people who will inherit salvation.

A WARNING AGAINST DRIFTING AWAY

2 So we must listen very carefully to the truth we have heard, or we may drift away from it.
<sup>2</sup> For the message God delivered through angels has always stood firm, and every violation of the law and every act of disobedience was punished. <sup>3</sup> So what makes us think we can escape if we ignore this great salvation that was first announced by the Lord Jesus himself and then delivered to us by those who heard him speak?
<sup>4</sup> And God confirmed the message by giving signs and wonders and various miracles and gifts of the Holy Spirit whenever he chose.

JESUS, THE MAN

<sup>5</sup> And furthermore, it is not angels who will control the future world we are talking about. <sup>6</sup> For in one place the Scriptures say,

“What are mere mortals that you should think about them, or a son of man* that you should care for him?

<sup>7</sup> Yet for a little while you made them a little lower than the angels and crowned them with glory and honor.*

<sup>8</sup> You gave them authority over all things.”*

Now when it says “all things,” it means nothing is left out. But we have not yet seen all things put under their authority. <sup>9</sup> What we do see is Jesus, who for a little while was given a position “a little lower than the angels”; and because he suffered death for us, he is now “crowned with glory and honor.” Yes, by God’s grace, Jesus tasted death for everyone. <sup>10</sup> God, for whom and through whom everything was made, chose to bring many children into glory. And it was only right that he should make Jesus, through his suffering, a perfect leader, fit to bring them into their salvation.

<sup>11</sup> So now Jesus and the ones he makes holy have the same Father. That is why Jesus is not ashamed to call them his brothers and sisters.*

<sup>12</sup> For he said to God,

“I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters.
I will praise you among your assembled people.”*

<sup>13</sup> He also said,

“I will put my trust in him,” that is, “I and the children God has given me.”*

<sup>14</sup> Because God’s children are human beings—made of flesh and blood—the Son also became flesh and blood. For only as a human being could he die, and only by dying could he break the power of the devil, who had* the power of death. <sup>15</sup> Only in this way could he set free all who have lived their lives as slaves to the fear of dying.

<sup>16</sup> We also know that the Son did not come to help angels; he came to help the descendants of Abraham. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, it was necessary for him to be made in every respect like us, his brothers and sisters,* so that he could be our merciful and faithful High Priest before God. Then he could offer a sacrifice that would take away the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup> Since he himself has gone through suffering and testing, he is able to help us when we are being tested.

JESUS IS GREATER THAN MOSES

3 And so, dear brothers and sisters who belong to God and* are partners with those called to heaven, think carefully about this Jesus whom we declare to be God’s messenger* and High Priest. <sup>2</sup> For he was faithful to God, who appointed him, just as Moses served faithfully when he was entrusted with God’s entire* house.

<sup>3</sup> But Jesus deserves far more glory than Moses, just as a person who builds a house deserves more praise than the house itself. <sup>4</sup> For every house has a builder, but the one who built everything is God.

<sup>5</sup> Moses was certainly faithful in God’s house as a servant. His work was an illustration of the truths God would reveal later. <sup>6</sup> But Christ, as the Son, is in charge of God’s entire house. And we are God’s house, if we keep our courage and remain confident in our hope in Christ.*

<sup>7</sup> That is why the Holy Spirit says,

“Today when you hear his voice,
<sup>8</sup> don’t harden your hearts as Israel did when they rebelled, when they tested me in the wilderness.

JESUS THE CARPENTER

Hebrews 2:17

ROBERT MORRIS

Why did Jesus become a carpenter?

The answer is identification. Jesus didn't come to earth and merely pretend to understand us; instead, He became a real human being and was made "in every respect like us" (Hebrews 2:17). Jesus can identify with us because He knows how hard it is to live in a sinful world. Here are three things He understands especially well:

1. Relationships

Jesus understands what it's like to have a family. He had four brothers and at least two sisters (Mark 6:3) as well as aunts, uncles, and cousins. Jesus understands how it feels when your family doesn't support you or believe in you. At one point, his family even said He was "out of his mind" (Mark 3:21). Jesus also knows what it's like to have friends and to have those friends be angry with you or even betray you. Peter, James, and John were the three disciples who were closest to Jesus—they even witnessed incredible things the other disciples didn't get to see. Yet when the soldiers came to arrest Jesus, "all his disciples deserted him and ran away" (Mark 14:50, emphasis added). No matter what kind of relationship problem you may have, you can talk to Jesus, and He understands.

2. Work

Jesus was a carpenter for many more years than He was a preacher and teacher. He knows what it's like to work hard and be exhausted at the end of a long day. He understands the frustrations of dealing with delays and setbacks and working with other people in business. You can talk to Jesus about your work problems. He understands, and He cares.

3. Pain

Jesus understands emotional and physical pain (Isaiah 53:3–5, 7). He was called illegitimate because of His miraculous birth. People rejected His teaching because He was "just a carpenter" (Mark 6:3). Jesus was ridiculed, mocked, and beaten, and then He was nailed to a cross and tortured to death. If you are struggling or hurting, you have a Friend who has endured more pain than any other person in the history of the world. He understands, and He invites you to come to His throne of grace where "we will receive His mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most" (Hebrews 4:16).

<sup>9</sup> There your ancestors tested and tried my patience, even though they saw my miracles for forty years.

<sup>10</sup> So I was angry with them, and I said, 'Their hearts always turn away from me. They refuse to do what I tell them.'

<sup>11</sup> So in my anger I took an oath: 'They will never enter my place of rest.'"*

<sup>12</sup> Be careful then, dear brothers and sisters.* Make sure that your own hearts are not evil and unbelieving, turning you away from the living God. <sup>13</sup> You must warn each other every day, while it is still "today," so that none of you will be deceived by sin and hardened against God. <sup>14</sup> For if we are faithful to the end, trusting God just as firmly as when we first believed, we will share in all that belongs to Christ. <sup>15</sup> Remember what it says:

"Today when you hear his voice, don't harden your hearts as Israel did when they rebelled."*

<sup>16</sup> And who was it who rebelled against God, even though they heard his voice? Wasn't it the people Moses led out of Egypt? <sup>17</sup> And who made God angry for forty years? Wasn't it the people who sinned, whose corpses lay in the wilderness?

<sup>18</sup> And to whom was God speaking when he took an oath that they would never enter his rest?

Wasn't it the people who disobeyed him? <sup>19</sup> So we see that because of their unbelief they were not able to enter his rest.

PROMISED REST FOR GOD'S PEOPLE

4 God's promise of entering his rest still stands, so we ought to tremble with fear that some of you might fail to experience it. <sup>2</sup> For this good news—that God has prepared this rest—has been announced to us just as it was to them. But it did them no good because they didn't share the faith of those who listened to God.* <sup>3</sup> For only we who believe can enter his rest. As for the others, God said,

"In my anger I took an oath: 'They will never enter my place of rest,'"*

even though this rest has been ready since he made the world. <sup>4</sup> We know it is ready because of the place in the Scriptures where it mentions the seventh day: "On the seventh day God rested from all his work."* <sup>5</sup> But in the other passage God said, "They will never enter my place of rest."*

<sup>6</sup> So God's rest is there for people to enter, but those who first heard this good news failed to enter because they disobeyed God. <sup>7</sup> So God set another time for entering his rest, and that time

3:7–11 Ps 95:7–11. 3:12 Greek brothers. 3:15 Ps 95:7–8.

4:2 Some manuscripts read they didn't combine what they heard with faith. 4:3 Ps 95:11. 4:4 Gen 2:2. 4:5 Ps 95:11.

FINDING FREEDOM

Hebrews 4:12

MARCUS BRECHEN

Growing up, my biggest fear was that I would one day stand before God and still have some sin on my plate. It wasn't until years later that this internal battle ended, my fear defeated by the Word of God.

God created us in His own image with a spirit, soul, and body. Only one part can be in charge, though. Before sin, Adam and Eve had constant communion with God and were ruled by their spirits. After they sinned, however, they were ruled by their souls.

We too are ruled by our souls when we are born. When we receive salvation, our spirit comes alive and says, "I want God to rule in my life." The problem is that your soul is used to ruling, so a battle begins. Thankfully, the Word of God is a sharp weapon. It cuts us free from being controlled by the soul and allows us to live under the rule of the spirit.

is today. God announced this through David much later in the words already quoted:

"Today when you hear his voice, don't harden your hearts."*

*Now if Joshua had succeeded in giving them this rest, God would not have spoken about another day of rest still to come. *So there is a special rest* still waiting for the people of God.

<sup>10</sup>For all who have entered into God's rest have rested from their labors, just as God did after creating the world. <sup>11</sup>So let us do our best to enter that rest. But if we disobey God, as the people of Israel did, we will fall.

<sup>12</sup>For the word of God is alive and powerful. It is sharper than the sharpest two-edged sword, cutting between soul and spirit, between joint and marrow. It exposes our innermost thoughts and desires. <sup>13</sup>Nothing in all creation is hidden from God. Everything is naked and exposed before his eyes, and he is the one to whom we are accountable.

CHRIST IS OUR HIGH PRIEST

<sup>14</sup>So then, since we have a great High Priest who has entered heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to what we believe. <sup>15</sup>This High Priest of ours understands our weaknesses, for he faced all of the same testings we do, yet he did not sin. <sup>16</sup>So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive his mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it most.

5 Every high priest is a man chosen to represent other people in their dealings with God. He presents their gifts to God and offers sacrifices for their sins. <sup>2</sup>And he is able to deal gently with ignorant and wayward people because he himself is subject to the same weaknesses. <sup>7</sup>That is why he must offer sacrifices for his own sins as well as theirs.

<sup>4</sup>And no one can become a high priest simply because he wants such an honor. He must be called by God for this work, just as Aaron was. <sup>5</sup>That is why Christ did not honor himself by assuming he could become High Priest. No, he was chosen by God, who said to him,

"You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father."*

<sup>6</sup>And in another passage God said to him,

"You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek."*

<sup>7</sup>While Jesus was here on earth, he offered prayers and pleadings, with a loud cry and tears, to the one who could rescue him from death. And God heard his prayers because of his deep reverence for God. <sup>8</sup>Even though Jesus was God's Son, he learned obedience from the things he suffered. <sup>9</sup>In this way, God qualified him as a perfect High Priest, and he became the source of eternal salvation for all those who obey him. <sup>10</sup>And God designated him to be a High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

A CALL TO SPIRITUAL GROWTH

<sup>11</sup>There is much more we would like to say about this, but it is difficult to explain, especially since you are spiritually dull and don't seem to listen.

<sup>12</sup>You have been believers so long now that you ought to be teaching others. Instead, you need someone to teach you again the basic things about God's word. *You are like babies who need milk and cannot eat solid food. <sup>13</sup>For someone who lives on milk is still an infant and doesn't know how to do what is right. <sup>14</sup>Solid food is for those who are mature, who through training have the skill to recognize the difference between right and wrong.

6 So let us stop going over the basic teachings about Christ again and again. Let us go on instead and become mature in our understanding. Surely we don't need to start again with the fundamental importance of repenting from evil deeds* and placing our faith in God. <sup>2</sup>You don't need further instruction about baptisms, the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup>And so, God willing, we will move forward to further understanding.

<sup>4</sup>For it is impossible to bring back to repentance those who were once enlightened—those who have experienced the good things of heaven and shared in the Holy Spirit,<sup>5</sup> who have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the power of the age to come—<sup>6</sup> and who then turn away from God. It is impossible to bring such people back to repentance; by rejecting the Son of God, they themselves are nailing him to the cross once again and holding him up to public shame.

4:7 Ps 95:7-8. 4:9 Or a Sabbath rest. 5:5 Or Today I reveal you as my Son. Ps 2:7. 5:6 Ps 110:4. 5:12 Or about the oracles of God. 6:1 Greek from dead works.

<sup>7</sup> When the ground soaks up the falling rain and bears a good crop for the farmer, it has God's blessing.<sup>8</sup> But if a field bears thorns and thistles, it is useless. The farmer will soon condemn that field and burn it.

<sup>9</sup> Dear friends, even though we are talking this way, we really don't believe it applies to you. We are confident that you are meant for better things, things that come with salvation.<sup>10</sup> For God is not unjust. He will not forget how hard you have worked for him and how you have shown your love to him by caring for other believers,* as you still do.<sup>11</sup> Our great desire is that you will keep on loving others as long as life lasts, in order to make certain that what you hope for will come true.<sup>12</sup> Then you will not become spiritually dull and indifferent. Instead, you will follow the example of those who are going to inherit God's promises because of their faith and endurance.

GOD'S PROMISES BRING HOPE

<sup>13</sup> For example, there was God's promise to Abraham. Since there was no one greater to swear by, God took an oath in his own name, saying:

<sup>14</sup> "I will certainly bless you, and I will multiply your descendants beyond number."*

<sup>15</sup> Then Abraham waited patiently, and he received what God had promised.

<sup>16</sup> Now when people take an oath, they call on someone greater than themselves to hold them to it. And without any question that oath is binding.<sup>17</sup> God also bound himself with an oath, so that those who received the promise could be perfectly sure that he would never change his mind.<sup>18</sup> So God has given both his promise and his oath. These two things are unchangeable because it is impossible for God to lie. Therefore, we who have fled to him for refuge can have great confidence as we hold to the hope that lies before us.<sup>19</sup> This hope is a strong and trustworthy anchor for our souls. It leads us through the curtain into God's inner sanctuary.<sup>20</sup> Jesus has already gone in there for us. He has become our eternal High Priest in the order of Melchizedek.

MELCHIZEDEK IS GREATER THAN ABRAHAM

7 This Melchizedek was king of the city of Salem and also a priest of God Most High. When Abraham was returning home after winning a great battle against the kings, Melchizedek met him and blessed him.<sup>2</sup> Then Abraham took a tenth of all he had captured in battle and gave it to Melchizedek. The name Melchizedek means "king of justice," and king of Salem means "king of peace."<sup>3</sup> There is no record of his father or mother or any of his ancestors—no beginning or end to his life. He remains a priest forever, resembling the Son of God.

<sup>4</sup> Consider then how great this Melchizedek was. Even Abraham, the great patriarch of Israel, recognized this by giving him a tenth of what he had taken in battle.<sup>5</sup> Now the law of Moses required that the priests, who are descendants of Levi, must collect a tithe from the rest of the people of Israel,<sup>6</sup> who are also descendants of Abraham.<sup>7</sup> But Melchizedek, who was not a descendant of Levi, collected a tenth from Abraham. And Melchizedek placed a blessing upon Abraham, the one who had already received the promises of God.<sup>8</sup> And without question, the person who has the power to give a blessing is greater than the one who is blessed.

<sup>9</sup> The priests who collect tithes are men who die, so Melchizedek is greater than they are, because we are told that he lives on.<sup>9</sup> In addition, we might even say that these Levites—the ones who collect the tithe—paid a tithe to Melchizedek when their ancestor Abraham paid a tithe to him.<sup>10</sup> For although Levi wasn't born yet, the seed from which he came was in Abraham's body when Melchizedek collected the tithe from him.

<sup>11</sup> So if the priesthood of Levi, on which the law was based, could have achieved the perfection God intended, why did God need to establish a different priesthood, with a priest in the order of Melchizedek instead of the order of Levi and Aaron?*

<sup>12</sup> And if the priesthood is changed, the law must also be changed to permit it.<sup>13</sup> For the priest we are talking about belongs to a different tribe, whose members have never served at the altar as priests.<sup>14</sup> What I mean is, our Lord came from the tribe of Judah, and Moses never mentioned priests coming from that tribe.

JESUS IS LIKE MELCHIZEDEK

<sup>15</sup> This change has been made very clear since a different priest, who is like Melchizedek, has appeared.<sup>16</sup> Jesus became a priest, not by meeting the physical requirement of belonging to the tribe of Levi, but by the power of a life that cannot be destroyed.<sup>17</sup> And the psalmist pointed this out when he prophesied,

"You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek."*

<sup>18</sup> Yes, the old requirement about the priesthood was set aside because it was weak and useless.<sup>19</sup> For the law never made anything perfect.

But now we have confidence in a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

<sup>20</sup>This new system was established with a solemn oath. Aaron's descendants became priests without such an oath, <sup>21</sup>but there was an oath regarding Jesus. For God said to him,

"The LORD has taken an oath and will not break his vow:

"You are a priest forever."*"

<sup>22</sup>Because of this oath, Jesus is the one who guarantees this better covenant with God.

<sup>23</sup>There were many priests under the old system, for death prevented them from remaining in office. <sup>24</sup>But because Jesus lives forever, his priesthood lasts forever. <sup>25</sup>Therefore he is able, once and forever, to save* those who come to God through him. He lives forever to intercede with God on their behalf.

<sup>26</sup>He is the kind of high priest we need because he is holy and blameless, unstained by sin. He has been set apart from sinners and has been given the highest place of honor in heaven.*

<sup>27</sup>Unlike those other high priests, he does not need to offer sacrifices every day. They did this for their own sins first and then for the sins of the people. But Jesus did this once for all when he offered himself as the sacrifice for the people's sins. <sup>28</sup>The law appointed high priests who were limited by human weakness. But after the law was given, God appointed his Son with an oath, and his Son has been made the perfect High Priest forever.

CHRIST IS OUR HIGH PRIEST

8 Here is the main point: We have a High Priest who sat down in the place of honor beside the throne of the majestic God in heaven. <sup>2</sup>There he ministers in the heavenly Tabernacle,* the true place of worship that was built by the Lord and not by human hands.

<sup>3</sup>And since every high priest is required to offer gifts and sacrifices, our High Priest must make an offering, too. <sup>4</sup>If he were here on earth, he would not even be a priest, since there already are priests who offer the gifts required by the law. <sup>5</sup>They serve in a system of worship that is only a copy, a shadow of the real one in heaven. For when Moses was getting ready to build the Tabernacle, God gave him this warning: "Be sure that you make everything according to the pattern I have shown you here on the mountain."*

<sup>6</sup>But now Jesus, our High Priest, has been given a ministry that is far superior to the old priesthood, for he is the one who mediates for us a far better covenant with God, based on better promises.

<sup>7</sup>If the first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need for a second covenant to replace it. <sup>8</sup>But when God found fault with the people, he said:

"The day is coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah.

<sup>9</sup>This covenant will not be like the one I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and led them out of the land of Egypt. They did not remain faithful to my covenant, so I turned my back on them, says the LORD.

<sup>10</sup>But this is the new covenant I will make with the people of Israel on that day,* says the LORD:

I will put my laws in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts.

I will be their God, and they will be my people.

<sup>11</sup>And they will not need to teach their neighbors, nor will they need to teach their relatives,* saying, 'You should know the LORD.' For everyone, from the least to the greatest, will know me already.

<sup>12</sup>And I will forgive their wickedness, and I will never again remember their sins."*

<sup>13</sup>When God speaks of a "new" covenant, it means he has made the first one obsolete. It is now out of date and will soon disappear.

OLD RULES ABOUT WORSHIP

9 That first covenant between God and Israel had regulations for worship and a place of worship here on earth. <sup>2</sup>There were two rooms in that Tabernacle.* In the first room were a lampstand, a table, and sacred loaves of bread on the table. This room was called the Holy Place. <sup>3</sup>Then there was a curtain, and behind the curtain was the second room* called the Most Holy Place. <sup>4</sup>In that room were a gold incense altar and a wooden chest called the Ark of the Covenant, which was covered with gold on all sides. Inside the Ark were a gold jar containing manna, Aaron's staff that sprouted leaves, and the stone tablets of the covenant. <sup>5</sup>Above the Ark were the cherubim of divine glory, whose wings stretched out over the Ark's cover, the place of atonement. But we cannot explain these things in detail now.

<sup>6</sup>When these things were all in place, the priests regularly entered the first room* as they performed their religious duties. <sup>7</sup>But only the high priest ever entered the Most Holy Place, and only once a year. And he always offered blood

7:21 Ps 110:4. 7:25 Or is able to save completely. 7:26 Or has been exalted higher than the heavens. 8:2 Or tent; also in 8:5. 8:5 Exod 25:40; 26:30. 8:10 Greek after those days. 8:11 Greek their brother. 8:8-12 Jer 31:31-34. 9:2 Or tent; also in 9:11, 21. 9:3 Greek second tent. 9:6 Greek first tent.

for his own sins and for the sins the people had committed in ignorance.<sup>8</sup> By these regulations the Holy Spirit revealed that the entrance to the Most Holy Place was not freely open as long as the Tabernacle* and the system it represented were still in use.

<sup>9</sup> This is an illustration pointing to the present time. For the gifts and sacrifices that the priests offer are not able to cleanse the consciences of the people who bring them.<sup>10</sup> For that old system deals only with food and drink and various cleansing ceremonies—physical regulations that were in effect only until a better system could be established.

CHRIST IS THE PERFECT SACRIFICE

<sup>11</sup> So Christ has now become the High Priest over all the good things that have come.* He has entered that greater, more perfect Tabernacle in heaven, which was not made by human hands and is not part of this created world.<sup>12</sup> With his own blood—not the blood of goats and calves—he entered the Most Holy Place once for all time and secured our redemption forever.

<sup>13</sup> Under the old system, the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer could cleanse people's bodies from ceremonial impurity.<sup>14</sup> Just think how much more the blood of Christ will purify our consciences from sinful deeds* so that we can worship the living God. For by the power of the eternal Spirit, Christ offered himself to God as a perfect sacrifice for our sins.<sup>15</sup> That is why he is the one who mediates a new covenant between God and people, so that all who are called can receive the eternal inheritance God has promised them. For Christ died to set them free from the penalty of the sins they had committed under that first covenant.

<sup>16</sup> Now when someone leaves a will,* it is necessary to prove that the person who made it is dead.*<sup>17</sup> The will goes into effect only after the person's death. While the person who made it is still alive, the will cannot be put into effect.

<sup>18</sup> That is why even the first covenant was put into effect with the blood of an animal.<sup>19</sup> For after Moses had read each of God's commandments to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats,* along with water, and sprinkled both the book of God's law and all the people, using hyssop branches and scarlet wool.<sup>20</sup> Then he said, "This blood confirms the covenant God has made with you."<sup>21</sup> And in the same way, he sprinkled blood on the Tabernacle and on everything used for worship.<sup>22</sup> In fact, according to the law of Moses, nearly everything was purified with blood. For without the shedding of blood, there is no forgiveness.

<sup>23</sup> That is why the Tabernacle and everything in it, which were copies of things in heaven, had to be purified by the blood of animals. But the real things in heaven had to be purified with far better sacrifices than the blood of animals.

<sup>24</sup> For Christ did not enter into a holy place made with human hands, which was only a copy of the true one in heaven. He entered into heaven itself to appear now before God on our behalf.

<sup>25</sup> And he did not enter heaven to offer himself again and again, like the high priest here on earth who enters the Most Holy Place year after year with the blood of an animal.<sup>26</sup> If that had been necessary, Christ would have had to die again and again, ever since the world began. But now, once for all time, he has appeared at the end of the age* to remove sin by his own death as a sacrifice.

<sup>27</sup> And just as each person is destined to die once and after that comes judgment,<sup>28</sup> so also Christ was offered once for all time as a sacrifice to take away the sins of many people. He will come again, not to deal with our sins, but to bring salvation to all who are eagerly waiting for him.

CHRIST'S SACRIFICE ONCE FOR ALL

10 The old system under the law of Moses was only a shadow, a dim preview of the good things to come, not the good things themselves. The sacrifices under that system were repeated again and again, year after year, but they were never able to provide perfect cleansing for those who came to worship.<sup>2</sup> If they could have provided perfect cleansing, the sacrifices would have stopped, for the worshipers would have been purified once for all time, and their feelings of guilt would have disappeared.

<sup>3</sup> But instead, those sacrifices actually reminded them of their sins year after year.<sup>4</sup> For it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.<sup>5</sup> That is why, when Christ* came into the world, he said to God,

"You did not want animal sacrifices or sin offerings.

But you have given me a body to offer.

<sup>6</sup> You were not pleased with burnt offerings or other offerings for sin.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said, 'Look, I have come to do your will, O God—as is written about me in the Scriptures.'<sup>7a</sup>

<sup>8</sup> First, Christ said, "You did not want animal sacrifices or sin offerings or burnt offerings or other offerings for sin, nor were you pleased with them" (though they are required by the law of Moses).<sup>9</sup> Then he said, "Look, I have come to do your will." He cancels the first covenant in order to put the second into effect.<sup>10</sup> For God's will was 9:8 Or the first room; Greek reads the first tent. 9:11 Some manuscripts read that are about to come. 9:14 Greek from dead works. 9:16a Or covenant; also in 9:17. 9:16b Or Now when someone makes a covenant, it is necessary to ratify it with the death of a sacrifice. 9:19 Some manuscripts do not include and goats. 9:20 Exod 24:8. 9:26 Greek the ages. 10:5 Greek he; also in 10:8. 10:5-7 Ps 40:6-8 (Greek version).

for us to be made holy by the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ, once for all time.

<sup>11</sup>Under the old covenant, the priest stands and ministers before the altar day after day, offering the same sacrifices again and again, which can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup>But our High Priest offered himself to God as a single sacrifice for sins, good for all time. Then he sat down in the place of honor at God's right hand. <sup>13</sup>There he waits until his enemies are humbled and made a footstool under his feet. <sup>14</sup>For by that one offering he forever made perfect those who are being made holy.

<sup>15</sup>And the Holy Spirit also testifies that this is so. For he says, <sup>16</sup> "This is the new covenant I will make with my people on that day,*

says the LORD:
I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds."*

<sup>17</sup>Then he says,

"I will never again remember their sins and lawless deeds."*

<sup>18</sup>And when sins have been forgiven, there is no need to offer any more sacrifices.

A CALL TO PERSEVERE

<sup>19</sup>And so, dear brothers and sisters,* we can boldly enter heaven's Most Holy Place because of the blood of Jesus. <sup>20</sup>By his death,* Jesus opened a new and life-giving way through the curtain into the Most Holy Place. <sup>21</sup>And since we have a great High Priest who rules over God's house, <sup>22</sup>let us go right into the presence of God with sincere hearts fully trusting him. For our guilty consciences have been sprinkled with Christ's blood to make us clean, and our bodies have been washed with pure water.

<sup>23</sup>Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep his promise. <sup>24</sup>Let us think of ways to motivate one another to acts of love and good works. <sup>25</sup>And let us not neglect our meeting together, as some people do, but encourage one another, especially now that the day of his return is drawing near.

<sup>26</sup>Dear friends, if we deliberately continue sinning after we have received knowledge of the truth, there is no longer any sacrifice that will cover these sins. <sup>27</sup>There is only the terrible expectation of God's judgment and the raging fire that will consume his enemies. <sup>28</sup>For anyone who refused to obey the law of Moses was put to death without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup>Just think how much worse the punishment will be for those who have trampled on the Son of God, and have treated the blood of the covenant, which made us holy, as if it were common and unholy, and have insulted and disdained the Holy Spirit who brings God's mercy to us. <sup>30</sup>For we know the one who said,

"I will take revenge.
I will pay them back."*

He also said,

"The LORD will judge his own people."*

<sup>31</sup>It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>32</sup>Think back on those early days when you first learned about Christ.* Remember how you remained faithful even though it meant terrible suffering. <sup>33</sup>Sometimes you were exposed to public ridicule and were beaten, and sometimes you helped others who were suffering the same things. <sup>34</sup>You suffered along with those who were thrown into jail, and when all you owned was taken from you, you accepted it with joy. You knew there were better things waiting for you that will last forever.

<sup>35</sup>So do not throw away this confident trust in the Lord. Remember the great reward it brings you! <sup>36</sup>Patient endurance is what you need now, so that you will continue to do God's will. Then you will receive all that he has promised.

<sup>37</sup> "For in just a little while, the Coming One will come and not delay.

<sup>38</sup> And my righteous ones will live by faith.*
But I will take no pleasure in anyone who turns away."*

<sup>39</sup>But we are not like those who turn away from God to their own destruction. We are the faithful ones, whose souls will be saved.

GREAT EXAMPLES OF FAITH

11 Faith shows the reality of what we hope for; it is the evidence of things we cannot see. <sup>2</sup>Through their faith, the people in days of old earned a good reputation.

<sup>3</sup>By faith we understand that the entire universe was formed at God's command, that what we now see did not come from anything that can be seen.

<sup>4</sup>It was by faith that Abel brought a more acceptable offering to God than Cain did. Abel's offering gave evidence that he was a righteous man, and God showed his approval of his gifts. Although Abel is long dead, he still speaks to us by his example of faith.

<sup>10:16a</sup> Greek after those days. <sup>10:16b</sup> Jer 31:33a. <sup>10:17</sup> Jer 31:34b. <sup>10:19</sup> Greek brothers. <sup>10:20</sup> Greek Through his flesh. <sup>10:30a</sup> Deut 32:35. <sup>10:30b</sup> Deut 32:36. <sup>10:32</sup> Greek when you were first enlightened. <sup>10:38</sup> Or my righteous ones will live by their faithfulness; Greek reads my righteous one will live by faith. <sup>10:37-38</sup> Hab 2:3-4.

HEAR. BELIEVE. OBEY.

Hebrews 11:6

STEVE DULIN

If you grew up going to church, you've probably heard the phrase "Hear and obey." This instruction is important for believers; we should all want to hear God's voice, and we should obey whatever He says. However, I believe there is an often overlooked but critical step between hearing and obey: believing.

Why is believing so important? Because you can hear God and not obey, as Jonah did when God told him to warn the people of Nineveh of their impending destruction (Jonah 1:2-3). You can also obey God but not hear Him. The Pharisees carefully followed all the Jewish religious laws and traditions, but they wouldn't listen to Jesus. They refused to believe He was the Son of God (Matthew 12:22-24). Their "obedience" (i.e., rule-following) lacked faith, which comes from "hearing the Good News about Christ" (Romans 10:17) and believing it.

So who are some biblical examples of people who heard, believed, and obeyed? Hebrews 11 has a great list. Noah heard and believed God's warning about the coming flood, so he obediently built a large boat that saved his family and many animals (v. 7). Moses heard God tell him to "lead my people Israel out of Egypt" (Exodus 3:10). Even though he did not think himself capable of the task, Moses believed and obeyed, ending Israel's centuries of captivity. Joshua heard God's command to march around Jericho and then shout. While this advice would seem strange to anyone leading a battle, Joshua believed and led the Israelites to obey God. Soon the city's walls crumbled.

I think many modern believers want to hear God. And they want to do the right thing. But we won't have the ability to obey God fully until we start believing what He says. Obeying God requires faith, so start building your faith today by meditating on "the Good News about Christ." Hear. Believe. Obey. It will change your life!

SAVING YOUR HOUSE

Hebrews 11:7

JACK HAYFORD

Noah had never seen rain, but when God warned him of the impending flood, he believed and built a large boat (or ark) as God instructed. Noah's respect for God's nature and reverence for God's Word allowed him to save his house (his family) from total destruction.

God gave Noah precise instructions on how to build the boat. Today, God seeks a people who will live according to His perfect order. This order requires us to be like Noah and build our lives according to God's blueprints. We allow the Holy Spirit to work in and through us, and we remain faithful even in the face of adversity.

Jesus says that people who hear His Word and obey are like a man who built his house on a rock. No matter how fiercely the storms of life rage, the house "won't collapse because it is built on bedrock" (Matthew 7:25).

<sup>5</sup>It was by faith that Enoch was taken up to heaven without dying—"he disappeared, because God took him."* For before he was taken up, he was known as a person who pleased God. <sup>6</sup>And it is impossible to please God without faith. Anyone who wants to come to him must believe that God exists and that he rewards those who sincerely seek him.

<sup>7</sup>It was by faith that Noah built a large boat to save his family from the flood. He obeyed God, who warned him about things that had never happened before. By his faith Noah condemned the rest of the world, and he received the righteousness that comes by faith.

<sup>8</sup>It was by faith that Abraham obeyed when God called him to leave home and go to another land that God would give him as his inheritance. He went without knowing where he was going. <sup>9</sup>And even when he reached the land God promised him, he lived there by faith—for he was like a foreigner, living in tents. And so did Isaac and Jacob, who inherited the same promise. <sup>10</sup>Abraham was confidently looking forward to a city with eternal foundations, a city designed and built by God.

<sup>11</sup>It was by faith that even Sarah was able to have a child, though she was barren and was too old. She believed<sup>11</sup> that God would keep his promise. <sup>12</sup>And so a whole nation came from this one man who was as good as dead—a nation with so many people that, like the stars in the sky and the sand on the seashore, there is no way to count them.

<sup>13</sup>All these people died still believing what God had promised them. They did not receive what was promised, but they saw it all from a distance and welcomed it. They agreed that they were foreigners and nomads here on earth. <sup>14</sup>Obviously people who say such things are looking forward to a country they can call their own. <sup>15</sup>If they had longed for the country they came from, they could have gone back. <sup>16</sup>But they were looking for a better place, a heavenly homeland. That is why God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

<sup>11:5</sup> Gen 5:24. <sup>11:11</sup> Or It was by faith that he [Abraham] was able to have a child, even though Sarah was barren and he was too old. He believed.

<sup>17</sup> It was by faith that Abraham offered Isaac as a sacrifice when God was testing him. Abraham, who had received God's promises, was ready to sacrifice his only son, Isaac, <sup>18</sup> even though God had told him, "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted." <sup>19</sup> Abraham reasoned that if Isaac died, God was able to bring him back to life again. And in a sense, Abraham did receive his son back from the dead.

<sup>20</sup> It was by faith that Isaac promised blessings for the future to his sons, Jacob and Esau.

<sup>21</sup> It was by faith that Jacob, when he was old and dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and bowed in worship as he leaned on his staff.

<sup>22</sup> It was by faith that Joseph, when he was about to die, said confidently that the people of Israel would leave Egypt. He even commanded them to take his bones with them when they left.

<sup>23</sup> It was by faith that Moses' parents hid him for three months when he was born. They saw that God had given them an unusual child, and they were not afraid to disobey the king's command.

<sup>24</sup> It was by faith that Moses, when he grew up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. <sup>25</sup> He chose to share the oppression of God's people instead of enjoying the fleeting pleasures of sin. <sup>26</sup> He thought it was better to suffer for the sake of Christ than to own the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking ahead to his great reward. <sup>27</sup> It was by faith that Moses left the land of Egypt, not fearing the king's anger. He kept right on going because he kept his eyes on the one who is invisible. <sup>28</sup> It was by faith that Moses commanded the people of Israel to keep the Passover and to sprinkle blood on the doorposts so that the angel of death would not kill their firstborn sons.

<sup>29</sup> It was by faith that the people of Israel went right through the Red Sea as though they were on dry ground. But when the Egyptians tried to follow, they were all drowned.

<sup>30</sup> It was by faith that the people of Israel marched around Jericho for seven days, and the walls came crashing down.

<sup>31</sup> It was by faith that Rahab the prostitute was not destroyed with the people in her city who refused to obey God. For she had given a friendly welcome to the spies.

<sup>32</sup> How much more do I need to say? It would take too long to recount the stories of the faith of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and all the prophets. <sup>33</sup> By faith these people overthrew kingdoms, ruled with justice, and received what God had promised them. They shut the mouths of lions, <sup>34</sup> quenched the flames of fire, and escaped death by the edge of the sword. Their weakness was turned to strength. They became strong in battle and put whole armies to flight. <sup>35</sup> Women received their loved ones back again from death.

But others were tortured, refusing to turn from God in order to be set free. They placed their hope in a better life after the resurrection. <sup>36</sup> Some were jeered at, and their backs were cut open with whips. Others were chained in prisons. <sup>37</sup> Some died by stoning, some were sawed in half,* and others were killed with the sword. Some went about wearing skins of sheep and goats, destitute and oppressed and mistreated. <sup>38</sup> They were too good for this world, wandering over deserts and mountains, hiding in caves and holes in the ground.

<sup>39</sup> All these people earned a good reputation because of their faith, yet none of them received all that God had promised. <sup>40</sup> For God had something better in mind for us, so that they would not reach perfection without us.

GOD'S DISCIPLINE PROVES HIS LOVE

12 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a huge crowd of witnesses to the life of faith, let us strip off every weight that slows us down, especially the sin that so easily trips us up. And let us run with endurance the race God has set before us. <sup>2</sup> We do this by keeping our eyes on Jesus, the champion who initiates and perfects our faith.* Because of the joy* awaiting him, he endured the cross, disregarding its shame. Now he is seated in the place of honor beside God's throne. <sup>3</sup> Think of all the hostility he endured from sinful people;* then you won't become weary and give up. <sup>4</sup> After all, you have not yet given your lives in your struggle against sin.

<sup>5</sup> And have you forgotten the encouraging words God spoke to you as his children?* He said,

"My child,* don't make light of the LORD's discipline, and don't give up when he corrects you.

<sup>6</sup> For the LORD disciplines those he loves, and he punishes each one he accepts as his child."

<sup>7</sup> As you endure this divine discipline, remember that God is treating you as his own children. Who ever heard of a child who is never disciplined by its father? <sup>8</sup> If God doesn't discipline you as he does all of his children, it means that you are illegitimate and are not really his children at all. <sup>9</sup> Since we respected our earthly fathers who disciplined us, shouldn't we submit even more to the discipline of the Father of our spirits, and live forever*?

<sup>10</sup> For our earthly fathers disciplined us for a few years, doing the best they knew how. But God's discipline is always good for us, so that

BITTER ROOTS

Hebrews 12:14–17

ROBERT MORRIS

When we've been hurt by another person or believe God has wronged us in some way, we can become angry and bitter. However, Hebrews 12:15 warns us against the "poisonous root of bitterness." Bitterness is a poison that will ruin our lives if we let it go unchecked.

1. Bitter roots deceive.

A bitter root always has a little bit of truth in it. Satan told Eve she would know "both good and evil" if she ate the forbidden fruit (Genesis 3:5). Adam and Eve already knew good—they walked and talked with God every day. But Satan convinced them that God was holding something back. The root of bitterness tells us there's something better than what God has already given us.

2. Bitter roots corrupt.

When bad things happen in our lives, they can change the way we see everything around us, even God. Most of us can trace any anger we have toward God to a root of bitterness. Bad things happen not because God doesn't love us or care about us, but because we live in a fallen world. God allows us to make our own choices, and the enemy always tries to corrupt our choices with sin.

3. Bitter roots depress.

The root of bitterness is envy, and the root of envy is hate. We can become angry with God when something good happens for someone but doesn't happen for us. Bitterness is a poison that produces deception, defilement, and depression. We all have difficult, even painful experiences, but we cannot afford to become bitter. We must choose to let Jesus heal these areas of our lives and remove any bitter roots in our hearts.

we might share in his holiness. <sup>11</sup>No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening—it's painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way.

<sup>12</sup>So take a new grip with your tired hands and strengthen your weak knees. <sup>13</sup>Mark out a straight path for your feet so that those who are weak and lame will not fall but become strong.

A CALL TO LISTEN TO GOD

<sup>14</sup>Work at living in peace with everyone, and work at living a holy life, for those who are not holy will not see the Lord. <sup>15</sup>Look after each other so that none of you fails to receive the grace of God. Watch out that no poisonous root of bitterness grows up to trouble you, corrupting many. <sup>16</sup>Make sure that no one is immoral or godless like Esau, who traded his birthright as the firstborn son for a single meal. <sup>17</sup>You know that afterward, when he wanted his father's blessing, he was rejected. It was too late for repentance, even though he begged with bitter tears.

<sup>18</sup>You have not come to a physical mountain,* to a place of flaming fire, darkness, gloom, and whirlwind, as the Israelites did at Mount Sinai. <sup>19</sup>For they heard an awesome trumpet blast and a voice so terrible that they begged God to stop speaking. <sup>20</sup>They staggered back under God's command: "If even an animal touches the mountain, it must be stoned to death."<sup>21</sup>Moses himself was so frightened at the sight that he said, "I am terrified and trembling."<sup>22</sup>

<sup>23</sup>No, you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to countless thousands of angels in a joyful gathering. <sup>24</sup>You have come to the assembly of God's firstborn children, whose names are written in heaven. You have come to God himself, who is the judge over all things. You have come to the spirits of the righteous ones in heaven who have now been made perfect. <sup>25</sup>You have come to Jesus, the one who mediates the new covenant between God and people, and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks of forgiveness instead of crying out for vengeance like the blood of Abel.

<sup>26</sup>Be careful that you do not refuse to listen to the One who is speaking. For if the people of Israel did not escape when they refused to listen to Moses, the earthly messenger, we will certainly not escape if we reject the One who speaks to us from heaven! <sup>27</sup>When God spoke from Mount Sinai his voice shook the earth, but now he makes another promise: "Once again I will shake not only the earth but the heavens also."<sup>28</sup> <sup>29</sup>This means that all of creation will be shaken and removed, so that only unshakable things will remain.

<sup>30</sup>Since we are receiving a Kingdom that is unshakable, let us be thankful and please God by worshipping him with holy fear and awe. <sup>31</sup>For our God is a devouring fire.

CONCLUDING WORDS

13 Keep on loving each other as brothers and sisters.* <sup>2</sup>Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for some who have done this have entertained angels without realizing it! <sup>3</sup>Remember those in prison, as if you were there yourself. Remember also those being mistreated, as if you felt their pain in your own bodies.

<sup>4</sup>Give honor to marriage, and remain faithful to one another in marriage. God will surely judge people who are immoral and those who commit adultery.

<sup>5</sup>Don't love money; be satisfied with what you have. For God has said,

"I will never fail you.

I will never abandon you."*

<sup>12:18</sup> Greek to something that can be touched. <sup>12:20</sup> Exod 19:13. <sup>12:21</sup> Deut 9:19. <sup>12:26</sup> Hag 2:6. <sup>13:1</sup> Greek Continue in brotherly love. <sup>13:5</sup> Deut 31:6, 8.

<sup>6</sup> So we can say with confidence,

“The LORD is my helper,
so I will have no fear.
What can mere people do to me?”*

<sup>7</sup> Remember your leaders who taught you the word of God. Think of all the good that has come from their lives, and follow the example of their faith.

<sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. <sup>9</sup> So do not be attracted by strange, new ideas. Your strength comes from God’s grace, not from rules about food, which don’t help those who follow them.

<sup>10</sup> We have an altar from which the priests in the Tabernacle* have no right to eat. <sup>11</sup> Under the old system, the high priest brought the blood of animals into the Holy Place as a sacrifice for sin, and the bodies of the animals were burned outside the camp. <sup>12</sup> So also Jesus suffered and died outside the city gates to make his people holy by means of his own blood. <sup>13</sup> So let us go out to him, outside the camp, and bear the disgrace he bore. <sup>14</sup> For this world is not our permanent home; we are looking forward to a home yet to come.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, let us offer through Jesus a continual sacrifice of praise to God, proclaiming our allegiance to his name. <sup>16</sup> And don’t forget to do good and to share with those in need. These are the sacrifices that please God.

<sup>17</sup> Obey your spiritual leaders, and do what they say. Their work is to watch over your souls, and they are accountable to God. Give them reason to do this with joy and not with sorrow. That would certainly not be for your benefit.

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us, for our conscience is clear and we want to live honorably in everything we do. <sup>19</sup> And especially pray that I will be able to come back to you soon.

<sup>20</sup> Now may the God of peace—who brought up from the dead
our Lord Jesus, the great Shepherd of the sheep,

THE BUILDER

Hebrews 13:8

ROBERT MORRIS

Jesus is a builder, and everything He creates fits together perfectly. He expertly developed, framed, and constructed the foundation of our world. And He’s still building today.

Jesus began building you in your mother’s womb the moment you were conceived. When you accepted His free gift of salvation, you joined the body of Christ and became one of the “living stones that God is building into his spiritual temple” (1 Peter 2:4–6). Jesus is still building His Church, but if we don’t obey His direction in our lives, the building process will come to a halt.

God is faithful. He always has been, and He always will be. Your past may include painful memories, but God has the power to redeem your past and bless your future. He can build or rebuild any area of your life, and His plans for you are good!

JAMES

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

The letter of James is a New Testament example of Hebrew wisdom literature in the tradition of the book of Proverbs. It begins, “If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you” (1:5). Hebrew wisdom should not be thought of as mere learning or the accumulation of information. It was knowledge of God’s Word and a commitment to living by that Word. The writers expressed such wisdom in short sayings, which were easy to remember. They encouraged people to act and live in specific ways before God and with others. This means that wisdom revealed itself in ethics or moral living.

A sampling of the proverbial sayings in James includes the following:

- “A person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind” (1:6).
- “Just as the body is dead without breath, so also faith is dead without good works” (2:26).
- “Does a fig tree produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? No, and you can’t draw fresh water from a salty spring” (3:12).
- “Don’t you realize that friendship with the world makes you an enemy of God?” (4:4).
- “Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Come close to God, and God will come close to you” (4:7–8).
- “Your life is like the morning fog—it’s here a little while, then it’s gone” (4:14).
- “Never take an oath, by heaven or earth or anything else. Just say a simple yes or no” (5:12).

The book that contains these proverbs was written by the brother of Jesus who was a leader of the Jerusalem church (Galatians 1:19; Acts 12:17; 15:13; 21:18). Because of the emphasis he gives to such proverbial wisdom, it is likely that he wrote for Jewish believers.

James gives attention to the words people speak. Words reflect the heart of the speaker and influence how they act toward others. People should be “slow to speak” (1:19), and they should live out the word that God gives to them (1:22–25). They should be careful about what they say (1:26; 3:1–12), and they should never speak “evil” against one another (4:11). Instead, their words should be trustworthy and their “yes” be “yes” and their “no” be “no” (5:12). They should confess their sins to one another with words and also pray for one another (5:16). According to James, wisdom shows itself in the words people speak and the actions performed in connection with those words.

Throughout the letter, James emphasizes the works a person does and the ethics of the gospel. For him, wisdom is the appropriate expression of the gospel in a person’s life, which shows itself in how a person lives with others. People should perform God’s Word and not only think about it: “Don’t just listen to God’s word. You must do what it says” (1:22). Wisdom is the engagement of the gospel in our lives.

James continues, “If you are wise and understand God’s ways, prove it by living an honorable life, doing good works with the humility that comes from wisdom” (3:13). What will such “good works” look like? James gives the following picture: “The wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and the fruit of good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere” (3:17). This view of wisdom recalls the fruit of the Spirit described by Paul (“love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control”) in Galatians 5:22–23 and Peter’s description of the divine nature (“Supplement your faith with a generous provision of moral excellence, and moral excellence with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with patient endurance, and patient endurance with godliness, and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love for everyone”) in 2 Peter 1:5–7. Wisdom, the fruit of the Spirit, and the divine nature all represent different ways by which James, Paul, and Peter talk about the same thing. They use different metaphors to describe what God does in a person’s life in relation to Him: He gives wisdom; He grows fruit; He shares His nature. He does all these for the benefit of other people. Family, friends, coworkers, and others are blessed by the wisdom in a person’s life, or the fruit of the Spirit that grows in them (to be eaten by others), or the nature of God being exhibited through them.

GREETINGS FROM JAMES

1 This letter is from James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am writing to the “twelve tribes”—Jewish believers scattered abroad.

Greetings!

FAITH AND ENDURANCE

<sup>2</sup>Dear brothers and sisters,* when troubles of any kind come your way, consider it an opportunity for great joy. <sup>3</sup>For you know that when your faith is tested, your endurance has a chance to grow. <sup>4</sup>So let it grow, for when your endurance is fully developed, you will be perfect and complete, needing nothing.

<sup>5</sup>If you need wisdom, ask our generous God, and he will give it to you. He will not rebuke you for asking. <sup>6</sup>But when you ask him, be sure that your faith is in God alone. Do not waver, for a person with divided loyalty is as unsettled as a wave of the sea that is blown and tossed by the wind. <sup>7</sup>Such people should not expect to receive anything from the Lord. <sup>8</sup>Their loyalty is divided between God and the world, and they are unstable in everything they do.

<sup>9</sup>Believers who are* poor have something to boast about, for God has honored them. <sup>10</sup>And those who are rich should boast that God has humbled them. They will fade away like a little flower in the field. <sup>11</sup>The hot sun rises and the grass withers; the little flower droops and falls, and its beauty fades away. In the same way, the rich will fade away with all of their achievements.

<sup>12</sup>God blesses those who patiently endure testing and temptation. Afterward they will receive the crown of life that God has promised to those who love him. <sup>13</sup>And remember, when you are being tempted, do not say, “God is tempting me.” God is never tempted to do wrong,* and he never tempts anyone else. <sup>14</sup>Temptation comes from our own desires, which entice us and drag us away. <sup>15</sup>These desires give birth to sinful actions. And when sin is allowed to grow, it gives birth to death.

<sup>16</sup>So don’t be misled, my dear brothers and sisters. <sup>17</sup>Whatever is good and perfect is a gift coming down to us from God our Father, who created all the lights in the heavens.* He never changes or casts a shifting shadow.* <sup>18</sup>He chose to give birth to us by giving us his true word. And we, out of all creation, became his prized possession.*

LISTENING AND DOING

<sup>19</sup>Understand this, my dear brothers and sisters: You must all be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to get angry. <sup>20</sup>Human anger* does not produce the righteousness* God desires. <sup>21</sup>So get rid of all the filth and evil in your lives, and humbly accept the word God has planted in your hearts, for it has the power to save your souls.

THE FATHER IS GOOD

James 1:17–18

ROBERT MORRIS

Some people have the misconception that God the Father is mean. They think of Him as a cruel parent who can’t wait to punish us for any mistakes we make. Let me tell you something: you may have had an earthly father like that, but our heavenly Father is different. He is good. Understanding God’s goodness makes a huge difference in our relationship with Him.

1. The Father is completely good.

When Moses asked to see God’s glory in Exodus 33:18, he was really asking to see the best thing about God. God responded, “I will make all my goodness pass before you” (v. 19). God’s goodness cannot be measured; it has no limits. God doesn’t just have goodness, though; He is goodness! God cannot get “better” because He is already completely, perfectly, and infinitely good! There has never been and never will be a time when God isn’t good.

2. We were created because the Father is good.

James 1:17 says every good and perfect gift comes from God. But why were we created? Did we somehow deserve it? No, the only reason we were created is because God is good. And the only reason why we aren’t immediately destroyed the first (or hundredth) time we sin is because God is good. God sent Jesus to save us because He loves us. He created us in His image (Genesis 1:26), and His image is good.

3. We must choose the Father’s goodness.

In Romans 11:22, Paul says God is “severe toward those who disobeyed, but kind to you if you continue to trust in his kindness.” God gives us a choice: will we trust Him or not? Satan doesn’t want us to believe God is good, so he points to every problem in the world and accuses God. Don’t let him confuse you, though. God is good, and He has a good plan for your life.

1:2 Greek brothers; also in 1:16, 19. 1:9 Greek The brother who is. 1:13 Or God should not be put to a test by evil people. 1:17a Greek from above, from the Father of lights. 1:17b Some manuscripts read He never changes, as a shifting shadow does. 1:18 Greek we became a kind of firstfruit of his creatures. 1:20a Greek A man’s anger. 1:20b Or the justice.

<sup>26</sup> If you claim to be religious but don't control your tongue, you are fooling yourself, and your religion is worthless.<sup>27</sup> Pure and genuine religion in the sight of God the Father means caring for orphans and widows in their distress and refusing to let the world corrupt you.

A WARNING AGAINST PREJUDICE

2 My dear brothers and sisters,* how can you claim to have faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ if you favor some people over others?

<sup>2</sup> For example, suppose someone comes into your meeting* dressed in fancy clothes and expensive jewelry, and another comes in who is poor and dressed in dirty clothes.<sup>3</sup> If you give special attention and a good seat to the rich person, but you say to the poor one, "You can stand over there, or else sit on the floor"—well, <sup>4</sup> doesn't this discrimination show that your judgments are guided by evil motives?

<sup>5</sup> Listen to me, dear brothers and sisters. Hasn't God chosen the poor in this world to be rich in faith? Aren't they the ones who will inherit the Kingdom he promised to those who love him? <sup>6</sup> But you dishonor the poor! Isn't it the rich who oppress you and drag you into court? <sup>7</sup> Aren't they the ones who slander Jesus Christ, whose noble name* you bear?

<sup>8</sup> Yes indeed, it is good when you obey the royal law as found in the Scriptures: "Love your neighbor as yourself."<sup>9</sup> But if you favor some people over others, you are committing a sin. You are guilty of breaking the law.

<sup>10</sup> For the person who keeps all of the laws except one is as guilty as a person who has broken all of God's laws. <sup>11</sup> For the same God who said, "You must not commit adultery," also said, "You must not murder."<sup>12</sup> So if you murder someone but do not commit adultery, you have still broken the law.

<sup>12</sup> So whatever you say or whatever you do, remember that you will be judged by the law that sets you free. <sup>13</sup> There will be no mercy for those who have not shown mercy to others. But if you have been merciful, God will be merciful when he judges you.

FAITH WITHOUT GOOD DEEDS IS DEAD

<sup>14</sup> What good is it, dear brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but don't show it by your actions? Can that kind of faith save anyone?

<sup>15</sup> Suppose you see a brother or sister who has no food or clothing, <sup>16</sup> and you say, "Good-bye and have a good day; stay warm and eat well!"—but then you don't give that person any food or clothing. What good does that do?

<sup>17</sup> So you see, faith by itself isn't enough. Unless it produces good deeds, it is dead and useless.

<sup>18</sup> Now someone may argue, "Some people have faith; others have good deeds." But I say, "How can you show me your faith if you don't have good deeds? I will show you my faith by my good deeds."

<sup>19</sup> You say you have faith, for you believe that there is one God.* Good for you! Even the demons believe this, and they tremble in terror. <sup>20</sup> How foolish! Can't you see that faith without good deeds is useless?

<sup>21</sup> Don't you remember that our ancestor Abraham was shown to be right with God by his actions when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? <sup>22</sup> You see, his faith and his actions worked together. His actions made his faith complete. <sup>23</sup> And so it happened just as the Scriptures say: "Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith."<sup>24</sup> He was even called the friend of God.* <sup>24</sup> So you see, we are shown to be right with God by what we do, not by faith alone.

<sup>25</sup> Rahab the prostitute is another example. She was shown to be right with God by her actions when she hid those messengers and sent them safely away by a different road. <sup>26</sup> Just as the body is dead without breath,* so also faith is dead without good works.

CONTROLLING THE TONGUE

3 Dear brothers and sisters,* not many of you should become teachers in the church, for we who teach will be judged more strictly. <sup>2</sup> Indeed, we all make many mistakes. For if we could control our tongues, we would be perfect and could also control ourselves in every other way.

<sup>3</sup> We can make a large horse go wherever we want by means of a small bit in its mouth. <sup>4</sup> And a small rudder makes a huge ship turn wherever the pilot chooses to go, even though the winds are strong. <sup>5</sup> In the same way, the tongue is a small thing that makes grand speeches.

But a tiny spark can set a great forest on fire. <sup>6</sup> And among all the parts of the body, the tongue is a flame of fire. It is a whole world of wickedness, corrupting your entire body. It can set your whole life on fire, for it is set on fire by hell itself.*

<sup>7</sup> People can tame all kinds of animals, birds, reptiles, and fish, <sup>8</sup> but no one can tame the tongue. It is restless and evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup> Sometimes it praises our Lord and Father, and sometimes it curses those who have been made in the image of God. <sup>10</sup> And so blessing and cursing come pouring out of the same mouth. Surely, my brothers and sisters, this is not right! <sup>11</sup> Does a spring of water bubble out with both fresh water and bitter water? <sup>12</sup> Does a fig tree produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? No, and you can't draw fresh water from a salty spring.*

AMAZING FACTS ABOUT THE TONGUE

James 3:1-12

ROBERT MORRIS

Did you know you produce life or death every time you speak? It's true. Your tongue is the most powerful part of your body. James 3:2 says, "If we could control our tongues, we would be perfect and could also control ourselves in every other way." Here are four amazing facts about the tongue:

1. It's disproportionately powerful (vv. 3-5). I could just say the tongue is powerful, but that's not the amazing fact. It's disproportionately powerful, meaning it's very small but its effect is very large. James compares the tongue to a bit in a horse's mouth; it controls the strength and direction of our whole life. Like the rudder of a ship, the tongue determines whether we remain on course during both the storms and the calm times of life. And like a small spark that starts a large forest fire, our tongue can speak careless words that destroy ourselves and others.
2. It's inherently evil (vv. 6, 8). Every person is born with an evil tongue, and I can prove it. Do you have to teach children to be rude or say mean things? No, we have to teach them to say nice things. The default setting on the tongue is to destroy, and unless we change this setting, we will always do more damage than good.

3. It's humanly untamable (vv. 7-8).

No person can tame the tongue—it's humanly untamable. That's the bad news. The good news is the tongue is divinely tamable. The One who made it can tame it. The first thing the Holy Spirit did for the believers on the Day of Pentecost was to change their tongues (Acts 2). The only way you can change your tongue is to submit it to the Holy Spirit.

4. It's contrastingly productive (vv. 9-12).

The tongue is contrastingly productive. It can produce life and death, good and bad. Why do we think it's okay to use our words to praise God but then curse other people? God certainly doesn't agree. The good news is that our tongue can produce good fruit. You can use it to bless your job, your finances, and your family.

works with the humility that comes from wisdom. <sup>14</sup> But if you are bitterly jealous and there is selfish ambition in your heart, don't cover up the truth with boasting and lying. <sup>15</sup> For jealousy and selfishness are not God's kind of wisdom. Such things are earthly, unspiritual, and demonic. <sup>16</sup> For wherever there is jealousy and selfish ambition, there you will find disorder and evil of every kind.

<sup>17</sup> But the wisdom from above is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and the fruit of good deeds. It shows no favoritism and is always sincere. <sup>18</sup> And those who are peacemakers will plant seeds of peace and reap a harvest of righteousness.*

DRAWING CLOSE TO GOD

4 What is causing the quarrels and fights among you? Don't they come from the evil desires at war within you? <sup>2</sup> You want what you don't have, so you scheme and kill to get it. You are jealous of what others have, but you can't get it, so you fight and wage war to take it away from them. Yet you don't have what you want because you don't ask God for it. <sup>3</sup> And even when you ask, you don't get it because your motives are all wrong—you want only what will give you pleasure.

<sup>4</sup> You adulterers!* Don't you realize that friendship with the world makes you an enemy of God? I say it again: If you want to be a friend of the world, you make yourself an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup> Do you think the Scriptures have no meaning? They say that God is passionate that the spirit

THE MOTIVE OF GENEROSITY

James 4:3

ROBERT MORRIS

Are you proud of your children when they're unselfish? Are you blessed when they're generous without being bribed or threatened? Of course, we're pleased when our children help and prefer one another in love. And what's true for us as earthly parents is infinitely true for our heavenly Father.

James 4:3 explains why some believers don't receive what they pray for: "You don't get it because your motives are all wrong—you want only what will give you pleasure." God is the ultimate giver, but He doesn't bless us simply to satisfy our selfish desires. Blessings come when we allow Him to do a work inside us and realign our motives to match His. A properly focused heart is always more excited about giving than receiving. God gives to us so we can have the joy of imitating Him and giving to others.

he has placed within us should be faithful to him.* <sup>6</sup> And he gives grace generously. As the Scriptures say,

"God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."<sup>4</sup>

3:18 Or of good things, or of justice. 4:4 Greek You adulteresses! 4:5 Or They say that the spirit God has placed within us is filled with envy; or They say that the Holy Spirit, whom God has placed within us, opposes our envy. 4:6 Prov 3:34 (Greek version).

<sup>7</sup>So humble yourselves before God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>8</sup>Come close to God, and God will come close to you. Wash your hands, you sinners; purify your hearts, for your loyalty is divided between God and the world. <sup>9</sup>Let there be tears for what you have done. Let there be sorrow and deep grief. Let there be sadness instead of laughter, and gloom instead of joy. <sup>10</sup>Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up in honor.

WARNING AGAINST JUDGING OTHERS

<sup>11</sup>Don't speak evil against each other, dear brothers and sisters. * If you criticize and judge each other, then you are criticizing and judging God's law. But your job is to obey the law, not to judge whether it applies to you. <sup>12</sup>God alone, who gave the law, is the Judge. He alone has the power to save or to destroy. So what right do you have to judge your neighbor?

WARNING ABOUT SELF-CONFIDENCE

<sup>13</sup>Look here, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we are going to a certain town and will stay there a year. We will do business there and make a profit." <sup>14</sup>How do you know what your life will be like tomorrow? Your life is like the morning fog—it's here a little while, then it's gone. <sup>15</sup>What you ought to say is, "If the Lord wants us to, we will live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup>Otherwise you are boasting about your own pretentious plans, and all such boasting is evil.

<sup>17</sup>Remember, it is sin to know what you ought to do and then not do it.

WARNING TO THE RICH

5 Look here, you rich people: Weep and groan with anguish because of all the terrible troubles ahead of you. <sup>2</sup>Your wealth is rotting away, and your fine clothes are moth-eaten rags. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver are corroded. The very wealth you were counting on will eat away your flesh like fire. This corroded treasure you have hoarded will testify against you on the day of judgment. <sup>4</sup>For listen! Hear the cries of the field workers whom you have cheated of their pay. The cries of those who harvest your fields have reached the ears of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

<sup>5</sup>You have spent your years on earth in luxury, satisfying your every desire. You have fattened yourselves for the day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup>You have condemned and killed innocent people, * who do not resist you.*

PATIENCE AND ENDURANCE

<sup>7</sup>Dear brothers and sisters, * be patient as you wait for the Lord's return. Consider the farmers who patiently wait for the rains in the fall and in the spring. They eagerly look for the valuable harvest to ripen. <sup>8</sup>You, too, must be patient. Take courage, for the coming of the Lord is near.

<sup>9</sup>Don't grumble about each other, brothers and sisters, or you will be judged. For look—the Judge is standing at the door!

<sup>10</sup>For examples of patience in suffering, dear brothers and sisters, look at the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. <sup>11</sup>We give great honor to those who endure under suffering. For instance, you know about Job, a man of great endurance. You can see how the Lord was kind to him at the end, for the Lord is full of tenderness and mercy.

<sup>12</sup>But most of all, my brothers and sisters, never take an oath, by heaven or earth or anything else. Just say a simple yes or no, so that you will not sin and be condemned.

THE POWER OF PRAYER

<sup>13</sup>Are any of you suffering hardships? You should pray. Are any of you happy? You should sing praises. <sup>14</sup>Are any of you sick? You should call for the elders of the church to come and pray over you, anointing you with oil in the name of the Lord. <sup>15</sup>Such a prayer offered in faith will heal the sick, and the Lord will make you well. And if you have committed any sins, you will be forgiven.

<sup>16</sup>Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results. <sup>17</sup>Elijah was as human as we are, and yet when he prayed earnestly that no rain would fall, none fell for three and a half years! <sup>18</sup>Then, when he prayed again, the sky sent down rain and the earth began to yield its crops.

RESTORE WANDERING BELIEVERS

<sup>19</sup>My dear brothers and sisters, if someone among you wanders away from the truth and is brought back, <sup>20</sup>you can be sure that whoever brings the sinner back from wandering will save that person from death and bring about the forgiveness of many sins.

4:11 Greek brothers. 5:6a Or killed the Righteous One. 5:6b Or Don't they resist you? or Doesn't God oppose you? or Aren't they now accusing you before God? 5:7 Greek brothers; also in 5:9, 10, 12, 19.

1 PETER

ION HUNTZINGER, PhD

The apostle Peter's influence in the New Testament is comparable to that of John (who wrote the Gospel of John, the letters of John, and Revelation), Paul (who wrote 13 letters), and Luke (who wrote the Gospel of Luke and the book of Acts). As discussed in the introduction to Mark's Gospel, many Bible scholars think Peter's preaching provided the basis and outline for that book. Two letters (1 and 2 Peter) are attributed to him, according to early church tradition. Though some people question his authorship of the letters (especially 2 Peter) based on their analysis of the theology, vocabulary, or style they contain, such opinions are subjective and cannot be supported since Peter, like Paul and other writers at that time, used secretaries to assist him in writing to his readers. Early church documents say he was put to death during the reign of the Roman emperor Nero, who himself died in AD 68. Consequently, Peter would have written his letters before then in the AD 60s.

Peter refers to the readers of his first letter as "God's chosen people who are living as foreigners" and, in this way, identifies them with the Israelites who had experienced hardship because of their calling to be God's people (1:1). Because they "had no identity as a people" (2:10) at one time and lived a life of idolatry (4:3), it is likely that the first intended audience were Gentiles who had come to proclaim Jesus as God's Messiah. Peter writes to encourage them and says that a life of righteousness and wholeness is possible because Jesus "personally carried our sins in his body on the cross so that we can be dead to sin and live for what is right. By his wounds you are healed" (2:24). He reminds them that they have been born again and have hope despite their circumstances because "God raised Jesus Christ from the dead" (1:3). Their hope is based in the fact they have been "ransom[ed]" through "the precious blood of Christ" who was raised by God from the dead and sits in glory (1:17-21) and even now exercises power at God's right hand (3:18-22).

Despite their circumstances, Peter exhorts these believers to serve one another in love. In a passage similar to Paul's message to the Galatians (Galatians 5:13-14), Peter says "you are free, yet you are God's slaves" (1 Peter 2:16). Just as Paul exhorted the Galatians to use their freedom to love one another rather than gratify their flesh, Peter encourages his readers to do the same. He then says they should "continue to show deep love for each other, for love covers a multitude of sins. . . . God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another" (4:8-10). Here, again, Peter recalls Paul who tells the Galatians they should allow the Spirit to cultivate fruit in their lives for the purpose of giving strength and nourishment to one another (Galatians 5:22-23). Hospitality means to provide for the needs of others. Whether this is through the fruit the Spirit grows, according to Paul, or the gifts the Spirit gives, according to Peter, both apostles look to the Spirit to provide what the Church needs to be strong and healthy. Such a life is a witness to the world (1 Peter 2:12, 15; 3:1, 15-16; 4:4).

Peter was one of the twelve disciples and one of three who are depicted in the Gospels as particularly close to Jesus (Matthew 17:1; 26:36-37; Mark 5:37; 9:2; 14:32-33; Luke 8:51). It is not surprising that Peter leans heavily on the words of Jesus to write his first letter:

- He refers to God as "Father" (1:2, 3, 17) in the same way Jesus spoke of God as His Father (John 14-17).
- Peter tells his readers that they must be holy even as God is holy (1:15), just as Jesus taught His disciples to be perfect as God their Father is perfect (Matthew 5:48).
- He says God judges impartially, based on the deeds a person performs (1:17), recalling Jesus' words to Nicodemus that God's Son did not enter the world to judge it but to provide an opportunity for people to believe. The judgment is that people will show their belief through their deeds (John 3:16-21).
- Peter exhorts the believers to love one another from a pure heart (1:22), recalling Jesus' final command to the disciples to love one another "as I have loved you" (John 13:34-35; 15:17).
- He says the believers "have had a taste of the Lord's kindness" (2:3), which alludes to Jesus' remarks that His body and blood are food and drink for His disciples (John 6:53-58).
- When Peter says Jesus is the cornerstone of God's temple (2:6-8), he is repeating what Jesus said about himself being the cornerstone (Matthew 21:42-43).
- He urges the believers to do good works (2:15-17), much like Jesus told His disciples that their good works should shine before people (Matthew 5:16; Luke 6:27-33).
- Peter says the believers should be prepared to give a defense for the hope that resides in them (3:15), even as Jesus promised the disciples that the Holy Spirit would help them speak when they were brought before leaders (Mark 13:11).
- He says the believers should rejoice when they are insulted on account of Jesus because this means they are blessed (4:13-14), just as Jesus promised the disciples they would experience rejection because of His name and should rejoice nevertheless (Matthew 5:11-12).

- Peter says elders should not be overbearing to God's flock (5:3), which recalls Jesus' remarks to the disciples that they should seek to serve rather than be served (Matthew 20:24-28).

Even as Peter relies upon the words of Jesus for his remarks to his readers, he draws on the words of the prophet Isaiah too. By referring to his readers as "foreigners" (1:1), Peter connects them to the time of the Exile addressed by Isaiah in chapters 40-66:

- He quotes from Isaiah 40:6-8 and says they have been born again by the "eternal, living word of God" (1 Peter 1:23-25). The verses he quotes are from a passage in which the prophet speaks comfort to the exiles and concludes by describing God as shepherd and creator (Isaiah 40:1-31). Peter wants his readers to be comforted by God's Word to them.
- Peter also says his readers are "living stones" (2:5), being built into a holy house for God with Jesus as its cornerstone and quotes from Isaiah 28:16-17 and 8:14 where the prophet speaks of a cornerstone that is the basis for justice and revokes the "bargain . . . made to cheat death." Peter wants his readers to know that they have been delivered from death due to the work of Jesus the cornerstone.

- He continues, saying his readers have been called out of darkness into the light of God (2:9), recalling the prophet's words: "The people who walk in darkness will see a great light. For those who live in a land of deep darkness, a light will shine" (Isaiah 9:2). Peter wants to confirm to his readers that God has given them knowledge through His Son and His Word.
- Peter recalls Jesus' suffering (2:21-25) and exhorts his readers to endure sorrow and suffering for good (4:12-19). He recalls those passages in Isaiah that describe the servant of the Lord, who suffers in this way (Isaiah 40; 42; 49; 52-53). Peter wants his readers to continue in faith, though it may be difficult for them to do so.

GREETINGS FROM PETER

- 1 This letter is from Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ.

I am writing to God's chosen people who are living as foreigners in the provinces of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia.<sup>2</sup> God the Father knew you and chose you long ago, and his Spirit has made you holy. As a result, you have obeyed him and have been cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ.

May God give you more and more grace and peace.

THE HOPE OF ETERNAL LIFE

- 3 All praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is by his great mercy that we have been born again, because God raised Jesus Christ from the dead. Now we live with great expectation,<sup>4</sup> and we have a priceless inheritance—an inheritance that is kept in heaven for you, pure and undefiled, beyond the reach of change and decay.<sup>5</sup> And through your faith, God is protecting you by his power until you receive this salvation, which is ready to be revealed on the last day for all to see.

<sup>6</sup> So be truly glad.* There is wonderful joy ahead, even though you must endure many trials for a little while.<sup>7</sup> These trials will show that your faith is genuine. It is being tested as fire tests and purifies gold—though your faith is far more precious than mere gold. So when your faith remains strong through many trials, it will bring you much praise and glory and honor on the day when Jesus Christ is revealed to the whole world.

<sup>8</sup> You love him even though you have never seen him. Though you do not see him now, you trust him; and you rejoice with a glorious, inexpressible joy.<sup>9</sup> The reward for trusting him will be the salvation of your souls.

<sup>10</sup> This salvation was something even the prophets wanted to know more about when they prophesied about this gracious salvation prepared for you.<sup>11</sup> They wondered what time or situation the Spirit of Christ within them was talking about when he told them in advance about Christ's suffering and his great glory afterward.

<sup>12</sup> They were told that their messages were not for themselves, but for you. And now this Good News has been announced to you by those who preached in the power of the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. It is all so wonderful that even the angels are eagerly watching these things happen.

A CALL TO HOLY LIVING

- 13 So prepare your minds for action and exercise self-control. Put all your hope in the gracious salvation that will come to you when Jesus Christ is revealed to the world.<sup>14</sup> So you must live as God's obedient children. Don't slip back into your old ways of living to satisfy your own desires. You didn't know any better then.<sup>15</sup> But now you must be holy in everything you do, just as God who chose you is holy.<sup>16</sup> For the Scriptures say, "You must be holy because I am holy."*

<sup>1:1</sup> Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia were Roman provinces in what is now Turkey. <sup>1:6</sup> Or So you are truly glad.

PLANTING THE SEED

1 Peter 1:23

ROBERT MORRIS

When you open a package of seeds, do they look anything like the pretty picture on the package? Of course not; they're just seeds. But if you put them in the ground, they have the potential to produce what's in the picture. It's the same way with God's Word. When I read God's Word and meditate on it, I'm actually putting a seed in my heart that's going to produce fruit.

We all meditate on things. When we're in bondage to something, it's easier to meditate on the lie that holds us captive than the truth that sets us free. If you spend your time meditating on lust, pride, or bitterness, you'll soon have a depressed and discouraged heart.

Instead, we need to plant the seed of God's Word in our lives. We may not see results right away, but we can know for sure that it will produce good fruit in us.

<sup>17</sup>And remember that the heavenly Father to whom you pray has no favorites. He will judge or reward you according to what you do. So you must live in reverent fear of him during your time here as "temporary residents." <sup>18</sup>For you know that God paid a ransom to save you from the empty life you inherited from your ancestors. And it was not paid with mere gold or silver, which lose their value. <sup>19</sup>It was the precious blood of Christ, the sinless, spotless Lamb of God. <sup>20</sup>God chose him as your ransom long before the world began, but now in these last days he has been revealed for your sake.

<sup>21</sup>Through Christ you have come to trust in God. And you have placed your faith and hope in God because he raised Christ from the dead and gave him great glory.

<sup>22</sup>You were delivered from your sins when you obeyed the truth, so now you must show sincere love to each other as brothers and sisters. * Love each other deeply with all your heart. *

<sup>23</sup>For you have been born again, but not to a life that will quickly end. Your new life will last forever because it comes from the eternal, living word of God. <sup>24</sup>As the Scriptures say,

"People are like grass;
their beauty is like a flower in the field.

The grass withers and the flower fades.

<sup>25</sup> But the word of the Lord remains forever." *

And that word is the Good News that was preached to you.

2 So get rid of all evil behavior. Be done with all deceit, hypocrisy, jealousy, and all unkind speech. <sup>2</sup>Like newborn babies, you must crave pure spiritual milk so that you will grow into

BELIEVERS' BASICS: WORSHIP

1 Peter 2:1-10

JACK HAYFORD

As a holy priesthood, God calls us to offer up spiritual sacrifices—worship (1 Peter 2:5). Worship is an intimate time with the Lord in which we recognize our unholiness compared to His holiness. We realize that we will never be whole without God's power.

We grow through an ongoing desire for the "pure spiritual milk" of God's Word (1 Peter 2:2). God's promise to believers who stay in the Word is that they can become what the Word teaches. Jesus said, "Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear" (Luke 21:33).

Having received God's mercy, we are also able to minister to others (1 Peter 2:10). The ministry and power are in God, not us. We simply apply it as His people. We know God's mercy in our lives, and we now have the privilege of sharing it with those who have not yet started their lives with Jesus Christ.

a full experience of salvation. Cry out for this nourishment, <sup>3</sup>now that you have had a taste of the Lord's kindness.

LIVING STONES FOR GOD'S HOUSE

<sup>4</sup>You are coming to Christ, who is the living cornerstone of God's temple. He was rejected by people, but he was chosen by God for great honor.

<sup>5</sup>And you are living stones that God is building into his spiritual temple. What's more, you are his holy priests. *Through the mediation of Jesus Christ, you offer spiritual sacrifices that please God. <sup>6</sup>As the Scriptures say, "I am placing a cornerstone in Jerusalem, * chosen for great honor, and anyone who trusts in him

will never be disgraced." *

<sup>7</sup>Yes, you who trust him recognize the honor God has given him. * But for those who reject him,

"The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone." *

<sup>8</sup>And,

"He is the stone that makes people stumble, the rock that makes them fall." *

A STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE

1 Peter 2:12

TOM LANE

We should be standard-bearers for the glory of God in our personal and professional lives. We should constantly strive for the very best in every area—family, work, finances, and ministry.

Perfectionism is an impossible standard to achieve. It is never satisfied until everything is absolutely perfect, which is not possible in this fallen world. Instead, we should pursue excellence. Excellence is a spirit we carry in any area of responsibility in which we do our very best with what God has given to us. We acknowledge our need for God's grace and direction as we constantly seek to improve and learn for His glory. Even when things are imperfect, they can still be excellent

They stumble because they do not obey God's word, and so they meet the fate that was planned for them.

But you are not like that, for you are a chosen people. You are royal priests,<sup>2</sup> a holy nation, God's very own possession. As a result, you can show others the goodness of God, for he called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light.

"Once you had no identity as a people;
now you are God's people.
Once you received no mercy;
now you have received God's mercy."

Dear friends, I warn you as "temporary residents and foreigners" to keep away from worldly desires that wage war against your very souls.<sup>12</sup> Be careful to live properly among your unbelieving neighbors. Then even if they accuse you of doing wrong, they will see your honorable behavior, and they will give honor to God when he judges the world.

RESPECTING PEOPLE IN AUTHORITY

<sup>13</sup> For the Lord's sake, submit to all human authority—whether the king as head of state,<sup>14</sup> or the officials he has appointed. For the king has sent them to punish those who do wrong and to honor those who do right.

<sup>15</sup> It is God's will that your honorable lives should silence those ignorant people who make foolish accusations against you.<sup>16</sup> For you are free, yet you are God's slaves, so don't use your freedom as an excuse to do evil.<sup>17</sup> Respect everyone, and love the family of believers.<sup>18</sup> Fear God, and respect the king.

SLAVES

You who are slaves must submit to your masters with all respect.<sup>2</sup> Do what they tell you—not only if they are kind and reasonable, but even if they are cruel.<sup>19</sup> For God is pleased when, conscious of his will, you patiently endure unjust treatment.

Of course, you get no credit for being patient if you are beaten for doing wrong. But if you suffer for doing good and endure it patiently, God is pleased with you.

For God called you to do good, even if it means suffering, just as Christ suffered<sup>20</sup> for you. He is your example, and you must follow in his steps.

He never sinned,
nor ever deceived anyone.<sup>21</sup>

He did not retaliate when he was insulted, nor threaten revenge when he suffered.

He left his case in the hands of God, who always judges fairly.
He personally carried our sins in his body on the cross so that we can be dead to sin and live for what is right.

By his wounds
you are healed.

Once you were like sheep
who wandered away.

But now you have turned to your Shepherd, the Guardian of your souls.

WIVES

3 In the same way, you wives must accept the authority of your husbands. Then, even if some refuse to obey the Good News, your godly lives will speak to them without any words. They will be won over<sup>2</sup> by observing your pure and reverent lives.

Don't be concerned about the outward beauty of fancy hairstyles, expensive jewelry, or beautiful clothes.<sup>4</sup> You should clothe yourselves instead with the beauty that comes from within, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is so precious to God.<sup>5</sup> This is how the holy women of old made themselves beautiful. They put their trust in God and accepted the authority of their husbands.<sup>6</sup> For instance, Sarah obeyed her husband, Abraham, and called him her master. You are her daughters when you do what is right without fear of what your husbands might do.

HUSBANDS

In the same way, you husbands must give honor to your wives. Treat your wife with understanding as you live together. She may be weaker than you are, but she is your equal partner in God's gift of new life. Treat her as you should so your prayers will not be hindered.

<sup>2:9</sup> Greek a royal priesthood. <sup>2:10</sup> Hos 1:6, 9; 2:23. <sup>2:12</sup> Or on the day of visitation. <sup>2:17</sup> Greek love the brotherhood. <sup>2:18</sup> Or because you fear God; Greek reads in all fear. <sup>2:21</sup> Some manuscripts read died. <sup>2:22</sup> Isa 53:9.

ALL CHRISTIANS

<sup>8</sup> Finally, all of you should be of one mind. Sympathize with each other. Love each other as brothers and sisters.* Be tenderhearted, and keep a humble attitude. <sup>9</sup> Don't repay evil for evil. Don't retaliate with insults when people insult you. Instead, pay them back with a blessing. That is what God has called you to do, and he will grant you his blessing. <sup>10</sup> For the Scriptures say,

"If you want to enjoy life and see many happy days, keep your tongue from speaking evil and your lips from telling lies.

<sup>11</sup> Turn away from evil and do good.

Search for peace, and work to maintain it.

<sup>12</sup> The eyes of the LORD watch over those who do right, and his ears are open to their prayers.

But the LORD turns his face against those who do evil."<sup>13</sup>

SUFFERING FOR DOING GOOD

<sup>13</sup> Now, who will want to harm you if you are eager to do good? <sup>14</sup> But even if you suffer for doing what is right, God will reward you for it. So don't worry or be afraid of their threats. <sup>15</sup> Instead, you must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your hope as a believer, always be ready to explain it. <sup>16</sup> But do this in a gentle and respectful way.<sup>17</sup> Keep your conscience clear. Then if people speak against you, they will be ashamed when they see what a good life you live because you belong to Christ. <sup>17</sup> Remember, it is better to suffer for doing good, if that is what God wants, than to suffer for doing wrong!

<sup>18</sup> Christ suffered<sup>19</sup> for our sins once for all time. He never sinned, but he died for sinners to bring you safely home to God. He suffered physical death, but he was raised to life in the Spirit.<sup>20</sup>

<sup>21</sup> So he went and preached to the spirits in prison—<sup>20</sup> those who disobeyed God long ago when God waited patiently while Noah was building his boat. Only eight people were saved from drowning in that terrible flood.<sup>22</sup> And that water is a picture of baptism, which now saves you, not by removing dirt from your body, but as a response to God from<sup>23</sup> a clean conscience. It is effective because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

<sup>22</sup> Now Christ has gone to heaven. He is seated in the place of honor next to God, and all the angels and authorities and powers accept his authority.

LIVING FOR GOD

<sup>4</sup> So then, since Christ suffered physical pain, you must arm yourselves with the same attitude he had, and be ready to suffer, too. For if you have suffered physically for Christ, you have finished with sin.<sup>2</sup> You won't spend the rest of your lives chasing your own desires, but you will be anxious to do the will of God. You have had enough in the past of the evil things that godless people enjoy—their immorality and lust, their feasting and drunkenness and wild parties, and their terrible worship of idols.

Of course, your former friends are surprised when you no longer plunge into the flood of wild and destructive things they do. So they slander you. But remember that they will have to face God, who stands ready to judge everyone, both the living and the dead. That is why the Good News was preached to those who are now dead<sup>3</sup>—so although they were destined to die like all people, they now live forever with God in the Spirit.<sup>4</sup>

The end of the world is coming soon. Therefore, be earnest and disciplined in your prayers. Most important of all, continue to show deep love for each other, for love covers a multitude of sins.<sup>5</sup> Cheerfully share your home with those who need a meal or a place to stay.

<sup>6</sup> God has given each of you a gift from his great variety of spiritual gifts. Use them well to serve one another. <sup>7</sup> Do you have the gift of speaking? Then speak as though God himself were speaking through you. Do you have the gift of helping others? Do it with all the strength and energy that God supplies. Then everything you do will bring glory to God through Jesus Christ. All glory and power to him forever and ever! Amen.

SUFFERING FOR BEING A CHRISTIAN

Dear friends, don't be surprised at the fiery trials you are going through, as if something strange were happening to you. <sup>11</sup> Instead, be very glad—for these trials make you partners with Christ in his suffering, so that you will have the wonderful joy of seeing his glory when it is revealed to all the world.

If you are insulted because you bear the name of Christ, you will be blessed, for the glorious Spirit of God<sup>12</sup> rests upon you.<sup>13</sup> If you suffer, however, it must not be for murder, stealing, making trouble, or prying into other people's affairs. <sup>14</sup> But it is no shame to suffer for being a Christian. Praise God for the privilege of being called by his name! <sup>15</sup> For the time has come for judgment, and it must begin with God's household. And if judgment begins with us, what terrible fate awaits those who have never obeyed God's Good News? <sup>16</sup> And also,

"If the righteous are barely saved, what will happen to godless sinners?"

3:8 Greek Show brotherly love. 3:10-12 Ps 34:12-16. 3:16 Some English translations put this sentence in verse 15. 3:18a Some manuscripts read died. 3:18b Or in spirit. 3:20 Greek saved through water. 3:21 Or as an appeal to God for. 4:1 Or For the one [or One] who has suffered physically has finished with sin. 4:6a Greek preached even to the dead. 4:6b Or so although people had judged them worthy of death. 4:6c Or in spirit. 4:14a Or for the glory of God, which is his Spirit. 4:14b Some manuscripts add On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified. 4:18 Prov 11:31 (Greek version).

<sup>19</sup> So if you are suffering in a manner that pleases God, keep on doing what is right, and trust your lives to the God who created you, for he will never fail you.

ADVICE FOR ELDERS AND YOUNG MEN

5 And now, a word to you who are elders in the churches. I, too, am an elder and a witness to the sufferings of Christ. And I, too, will share in his glory when he is revealed to the whole world. As a fellow elder, I appeal to you: <sup>2</sup> Care for the flock that God has entrusted to you. Watch over it willingly, not grudgingly—not for what you will get out of it, but because you are eager to serve God. <sup>3</sup> Don't lord it over the people assigned to your care, but lead them by your own good example. <sup>4</sup> And when the Great Shepherd appears, you will receive a crown of never-ending glory and honor.

<sup>5</sup> In the same way, you who are younger must accept the authority of the elders. And all of you, dress yourselves in humility as you relate to one another, for

“God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”<sup>6</sup>

<sup>6</sup> So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor. <sup>7</sup> Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about you.

<sup>8</sup> Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. <sup>9</sup> Stand firm against him, and be strong in your faith. Remember that your family of believers* all over the world is going through the same kind of suffering you are.

<sup>10</sup> In his kindness God called you to share in his eternal glory by means of Christ Jesus. So after you have suffered a little while, he will restore, support, and strengthen you, and he will place you on a firm foundation. <sup>11</sup> All power to him forever! Amen.

PETER'S FINAL GREETINGS

<sup>12</sup> I have written and sent this short letter to you with the help of Silas,* whom I commend to you as a faithful brother. My purpose in writing is to encourage you and assure you that what you are experiencing is truly part of God's grace for you. Stand firm in this grace.

<sup>13</sup> Your sister church here in Babylon* sends you greetings, and so does my son Mark. <sup>14</sup> Greet each other with a kiss of love.

Peace be with all of you who are in Christ.

BELIEVERS' BASICS: INTERCESSION

1 Peter 5:6–9

JACK HAYFORD

Intercessory prayer is a resistance movement, which opposes the flow of hell and the works of darkness. Intercessors are vigilant in recognizing God-ordained situations where a need intersects their paths. They understand that our adversary, the devil, “prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour” (1 Peter 5:8).

Intercessors step into situations and stand firm against the devil (1 Peter 5:9). The key to standing against the enemy is knowing where you stand—on holy ground. Our authority is found through the cross and the blood of Jesus Christ.

Because of what Jesus has already accomplished, God has given authority and victory to all believers. However, driving the enemy into the ground does not usually come easily or quickly. Instead, we must cry out to God, wrestle with the enemy, and pray in the Spirit until we see our divinely appointed victory come to pass.

GIVING ALL YOUR CARES

1 Peter 5:7

ROBERT MORRIS

Has worry ever caused your mind to wander while you're worshipping or reading the Word? Perhaps you just had a fight with your spouse. Or maybe you're having trouble with a friend, or you're worried about your finances.

First Peter 5:7 says, “Give all your worries and cares to God, for he cares about you.” I've heard so many people say they give their cares to God over and over again. But how can you keep giving something to another person unless you're taking it back each time? When we do this, we're not actually giving our cares to God at all.

The cares of this world can choke out the Word of God in your life if you keep hanging on to them. No matter how strong you are, you are not meant to carry worry. God wants you to have peace, and He is ready to take all your cares right now. Just give them to Him.

5:5 Prov 3:34 (Greek version). 5:9 Greek your brotherhood.

5:12 Greek Silvanus. 5:13 Greek The elect one in Babylon. Babylon was probably symbolic for Rome.

2 PETER

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Second Peter teaches that behavior and lifestyle matter for followers of Jesus. The apostle writes to those who have received the Holy Spirit and will “share his divine nature” now that they have escaped from the corruption of the world and its sinful desires (1:4). At the same time, he warns them about false prophets who deny Jesus (“the Master,” meaning “teacher”), gratify their own desires, and by doing this, blaspheme the way of truth (2:1–2). Peter says God will judge them for their “twisted sexual desires” and rejection of authority (2:10), and for tempting others to join them in their desires of the flesh (2:18). What Peter writes about false teachers and their message of self-gratification is very similar to what Jude writes, which means they both shared a common concern for the negative impact such teaching and behavior could have on the moral life of God’s people. The Greek word for desire (epithumia), which Peter uses in these passages, indicates he is addressing false teaching that emphasizes a person’s own individual gratification without regard for others or for God’s design for people made in His image. In his second letter, Peter confronts the false teaching that claims such gratification is acceptable and appropriate.

In addition to confronting false teaching, Peter reminds his readers that he did not make up “clever stories” when he proclaimed Jesus to them (1:16). Rather, he reported what he himself had experienced and seen. More important than the stories taught by false teachers is God’s word through His prophets, which shines like a lamp and rises like the morning star (Psalm 119:105). God’s people can know how to live and what He desires because it has been revealed in the Word of Scripture (logos). The word of the prophets in Scripture came from the Spirit of God and not people’s imaginations, even as Peter’s own testimony is true and not made up.

Not only does God’s Word provide understanding for God’s people, but it is also the foundation for their faith. Scoffers might dismiss God’s prophetic words (rhēmata) about Jesus’ return from men like Peter, but he urges his readers to trust his words and testimony because they are comparable to the words that brought heaven and earth into existence and continues to sustain all creation (3:1–7). God’s Word conveys His will and desire, and it is that desire the people should seek to fulfill as they live as His children and wait for Jesus’ return.

GREETINGS FROM PETER

1 This letter is from Simon* Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ.

I am writing to you who share the same precious faith we have. This faith was given to you because of the justice and fairness* of Jesus Christ, our God and Savior.

<sup>2</sup> May God give you more and more grace and peace as you grow in your knowledge of God and Jesus our Lord.

GROWING IN FAITH

<sup>3</sup> By his divine power, God has given us everything we need for living a godly life. We have received all of this by coming to know him, the one who called us to himself by means of his marvelous glory and excellence. <sup>4</sup> And because of his glory and excellence, he has given us great and precious promises. These are the promises that enable you to share his divine nature and escape the world's corruption caused by human desires.

<sup>8</sup> The more you grow like this, the more productive and useful you will be in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> But those who fail to develop in this way are shortsighted or blind, forgetting that they have been cleansed from their old sins.

<sup>10</sup> So, dear brothers and sisters,* work hard to prove that you really are among those God has called and chosen. Do these things, and you will never fall away. <sup>11</sup> Then God will give you a grand entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

PAYING ATTENTION TO SCRIPTURE

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, I will always remind you about these things—even though you already know them and are standing firm in the truth you have been taught. <sup>13</sup> And it is only right that I should keep on reminding you as long as I live. <sup>14</sup> For our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me that I must soon leave this earthly life,* <sup>15</sup> so I will work hard to make sure you always remember these things after I am gone.

<sup>16</sup> For we were not making up clever stories when we told you about the powerful coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. We saw his majestic splendor with our own eyes <sup>17</sup> when he received honor and glory from God the Father. The voice from the majestic glory of God said to him, "This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy."<sup>18</sup>

<sup>19</sup> We ourselves heard that voice from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

<sup>19</sup> Because of that experience, we have even greater confidence in the message proclaimed by the prophets. You must pay close attention to what they wrote, for their words are like a lamp shining in a dark place—until the Day dawns, and Christ the Morning Star shines* in your hearts. <sup>20</sup> Above all, you must realize that no prophecy in Scripture ever came from the prophet's own understanding,* <sup>21</sup> or from human initiative. No, those prophets were moved by the Holy Spirit, and they spoke from God.

THE DANGER OF FALSE TEACHERS

2 But there were also false prophets in Israel, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will cleverly teach destructive heresies and even deny the Master who bought them. In this way, they will bring sudden destruction on themselves. <sup>2</sup> Many will follow their evil teaching and shameful immorality. And because of these teachers, the way of truth will be slandered. <sup>3</sup> In their greed they will make up clever lies to get hold of your money. But God condemned them long ago, and their destruction will not be delayed.

<sup>4</sup> For God did not spare even the angels who sinned. He threw them into hell,* in gloomy pits of darkness,* where they are being held until the day of judgment. <sup>5</sup> And God did not spare the ancient world—except for Noah and the seven others in his family. Noah warned the world of God's righteous judgment. So God protected Noah when he destroyed the world of ungodly people with a vast flood. <sup>6</sup> Later, God condemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and turned them into heaps of ashes. He made them an example of what will happen to ungodly people. <sup>7</sup> But God also rescued Lot out of Sodom because he was a righteous man who was sick of the shameful immorality of the wicked people around him. <sup>8</sup> Yes, Lot was a righteous man who was tormented in his soul by the wickedness he saw and heard day after day. <sup>9</sup> So you see, the Lord knows how to rescue godly people from their trials, even while keeping the wicked under punishment until the day of final judgment. <sup>10</sup> He is especially hard on those who follow their own twisted sexual desire, and who despise authority.

These people are proud and arrogant, daring even to scoff at supernatural beings* without so much as trembling. <sup>11</sup> But the angels, who are far greater in power and strength, do not dare to bring from the Lord* a charge of blasphemy against those supernatural beings.

1:1a Greek Simeon. 1:1b Or to you in the righteousness. 1:10 Greek brothers. 1:13 Greek as long as I am in this tent [or tabernacle].

1:14 Greek I must soon put off my tent [or tabernacle]. 1:17 Matt 17:5; Mark 9:7; Luke 9:35. 1:19 Or risen. 1:20 Or is a master of one's own interpretation. 2:4a Greek Tartarus. 2:4b Some manuscripts read in chains of gloom. 2:10 Greek at glorious ones, which are probably evil angels. 2:11 Other manuscripts read to the Lord; still others do not include this phrase at all.

<sup>12</sup> These false teachers are like unthinking animals, creatures of instinct, born to be caught and destroyed. They scoff at things they do not understand, and like animals, they will be destroyed. <sup>13</sup> Their destruction is their reward for the harm they have done. They love to indulge in evil pleasures in broad daylight. They are a disgrace and a stain among you. They delight in deception* even as they eat with you in your fellowship meals. <sup>14</sup> They commit adultery with their eyes, and their desire for sin is never satisfied. They lure unstable people into sin, and they are well trained in greed. They live under God's curse. <sup>15</sup> They have wandered off the right road and followed the footsteps of Balaam son of Beor,* who loved to earn money by doing wrong. <sup>16</sup> But Balaam was stopped from his mad course when his donkey rebuked him with a human voice.

<sup>17</sup> These people are as useless as dried-up springs or as mist blown away by the wind. They are doomed to blackest darkness. <sup>18</sup> They brag about themselves with empty, foolish boasting. With an appeal to twisted sexual desires, they lure back into sin those who have barely escaped from a lifestyle of deception. <sup>19</sup> They promise freedom, but they themselves are slaves of sin and corruption. For you are a slave to whatever controls you. <sup>20</sup> And when people escape from the wickedness of the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and then get tangled up and enslaved by sin again, they are worse off than before. <sup>21</sup> It would be better if they had never known the way to righteousness than to know it and then reject the command they were given to live a holy life. <sup>22</sup> They prove the truth of this proverb: "A dog returns to its vomit."* And another says, "A washed pig returns to the mud."

THE DAY OF THE LORD IS COMING

3 This is my second letter to you, dear friends, and in both of them I have tried to stimulate your wholesome thinking and refresh your memory. <sup>2</sup> I want you to remember what the holy prophets said long ago and what our Lord and Savior commanded through your apostles.

<sup>3</sup> Most importantly, I want to remind you that in the last days scoffers will come, mocking the truth and following their own desires. <sup>4</sup> They will say, "What happened to the promise that Jesus is coming again? From before the times of our ancestors, everything has remained the same since the world was first created."

<sup>5</sup> They deliberately forget that God made the heavens long ago by the word of his command, and he brought the earth out from the water and surrounded it with water. <sup>6</sup> Then he used the water to destroy the ancient world with a mighty flood. <sup>7</sup> And by the same word, the present heavens and earth have been stored up for fire. They are being kept for the day of judgment, when ungodly people will be destroyed.

<sup>8</sup> But you must not forget this one thing, dear friends: A day is like a thousand years to the Lord, and a thousand years is like a day. <sup>9</sup> The Lord isn't really being slow about his promise, as some people think. No, he is being patient for your sake. He does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent. <sup>10</sup> But the day of the Lord will come as unexpectedly as a thief. Then the heavens will pass away with a terrible noise, and the very elements themselves will disappear in fire, and the earth and everything on it will be found to deserve judgment.*

<sup>11</sup> Since everything around us is going to be destroyed like this, what holy and godly lives you should live, <sup>12</sup> looking forward to the day of God and hurrying it along. On that day, he will set the heavens on fire, and the elements will melt away in the flames. <sup>13</sup> But we are looking forward to the new heavens and new earth he has promised, a world filled with God's righteousness.

<sup>14</sup> And so, dear friends, while you are waiting for these things to happen, make every effort to be found living peaceful lives that are pure and blameless in his sight.

<sup>15</sup> And remember, our Lord's patience gives people time to be saved. This is what our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you with the wisdom God gave him—<sup>16</sup> speaking of these things in all of his letters. Some of his comments are hard to understand, and those who are ignorant and unstable have twisted his letters to mean something quite different, just as they do with other parts of Scripture. And this will result in their destruction.

PETER'S FINAL WORDS

<sup>17</sup> You already know these things, dear friends. So be on guard; then you will not be carried away by the errors of these wicked people and lose your own secure footing. <sup>18</sup> Rather, you must grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

All glory to him, both now and forever! Amen.

2:13 Some manuscripts read in fellowship meals. 2:15 Some manuscripts read Bosor. 2:22 Prov 26:11. 3:10 Other manuscripts read will be burned up; one early manuscript reads will be found destroyed.

THE LETTERS OF JOHN

JON HUNTZINGER, PhD

Early church tradition consistently identifies John, the disciple of Jesus and son of Zebedee, as the author of the three letters attributed to him in the New Testament. Given the connections between these letters and the Gospel of John, which he likely wrote, it is probable that he composed them about the same time as his Gospel in the years after the destruction of the Temple. The affection he has for his readers is apparent from his description of them as “dear children” (1 John 2:1, 18, 28; 3:7; 4:4; 5:21) and “dear friends” (1 John 2:7; 3:2, 21; 4:1, 7, 11; 3 John 2, 5, 11). John’s designation of his readers as dear friends is especially significant since it recalls how he referred to himself in his Gospel as the disciple loved by Jesus. The words are the same in the Greek language in which the books were originally written. This designation shows that he sees them as he saw himself—as recipients of God’s great love through His Son.

Though 2 and 3 John are letters addressed to specific people, 1 John is not addressed as a letter to anyone and is thought by some people to be a sermon John delivered to all of those under his spiritual care. Whether written originally as a letter or a sermon, the book shows a strong relationship with the Gospel of John:

- In both, Jesus is identified as the “Word” who came in physical form (1 John 1:1; John 1:1–2, 14).
- God gives His people “eternal life” through His Son (1 John 1:2; 5:11–13; John 3:16).
- Jesus laid down His life for them (1 John 3:16; John 10:11–18).
- God sent His son to save the world (1 John 4:14; John 3:17).
- People who believe in the Son are born of God and are His children (1 John 2:29; 3:9; 5:4; John 1:13).
- Life with God and life apart from Him are depicted through the imagery of light and darkness (1 John 1:5–7; 2:9–11; John 1:4–9; 8:12).
- Those who do not confess Jesus as the Son or show love in their life belong to the world (1 John 2:16; 4:2–5; John 8:23).
- Those kinds of people live in darkness (1 John 1:6, 2:11; John 8:12; 12:35).

John has been described as the “apostle of love” because of the emphasis he gives to love in the Gospel of John and in 1 John. If 1 John is a sermon, it is a message that is unified by the theme of love. John says God is love (4:8), and the first thing his people learned when they came to faith is the commandment to “love one another” (2:7–10; 3:11, 23–24; 4:7–12). Such love is defined as laying down one’s life for others (3:16) and is based in the love God demonstrated by sending His Son to forgive people of their sins (4:9–10). To live a life of devotion to others is to live or to abide in God and is confirmation of the life they have with Him (3:23–24). Anyone who does not love in this way does not know God and does not live in relationship with Him (2:9–11; 4:20). Thus, John exhorts the people to walk in the light of understanding who God is by loving as He loves. When they love in this way, they will be free from fear and condemnation (3:19–24; 4:18).

Not only is God love, but John writes God is light (1:5), which means God helps His people know how to live by giving them commandments by which they should live and follow. The new commandment John writes about is the old commandment to love one another, which they “have had from the very beginning” (2:7), meaning from the time they came to faith. This commandment goes back to Jesus’ teaching the night before His crucifixion when He urged His disciples to keep His commandments, to love one another, and to abide in Him with the help of the Spirit (John 13–17). Thus, when John writes, “And this is his commandment: We must believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as he commanded us. Those who obey God’s commandments remain in fellowship with him, and he with them. And we know he lives in us because the Spirit he gave us lives in us” (1 John 3:23–24), he is recalling Jesus’ last teaching, which John recorded in his Gospel. Jesus’ “last words” have become the beginning and definitive words that speak to John’s followers.

The same connection exists between the short letters of 2 and 3 John and the Gospel of John. The letter of 2 John is addressed to “the chosen lady and to her children” (v. 1), a different congregation from that of 1 John. He urges them to walk in the commandment they have had from the beginning to love one another (vv. 5–6) and to remain in Jesus’ teaching to love one another (vv. 9–10). John says to know the truth is to know that Jesus came in the flesh as a real human being (v. 7). As in 1 John, life with God is lived out in love for other people. Any other way of life, John says, is false and not the truth Jesus showed.

The letter of 3 John is written to an individual believer, Gaius, who is walking in the truth and showing love in his life (vv. 3–4). The help he shows to others (vv. 5–6) is an example of the commandment John writes about in his Gospel and in 1 and 2 John. The commandment to love one another that John emphasizes in those books is being challenged by a member, Diotrephes, who “loves to be the leader" (v. 9). He apparently is more interested in his own welfare than in that of others. This way of leading is the antithesis of the love for one another that John emphasizes in his writings and something he will confront when he meets with them the next time.

1 JOHN

INTRODUCTION

1 We proclaim to you the one who existed from the beginning,* whom we have heard and seen. We saw him with our own eyes and touched him with our own hands. He is the Word of life.<sup>2</sup> This one who is life itself was revealed to us, and we have seen him. And now we testify and proclaim to you that he is the one who is eternal life. He was with the Father, and then he was revealed to us.<sup>3</sup> We proclaim to you what we ourselves have actually seen and heard so that you may have fellowship with us. And our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ.<sup>4</sup> We are writing these things so that you may fully share our joy.*

LIVING IN THE LIGHT

<sup>5</sup> This is the message we heard from Jesus* and now declare to you: God is light, and there is no darkness in him at all.<sup>6</sup> So we are lying if we say we have fellowship with God but go on living in spiritual darkness; we are not practicing the truth.<sup>7</sup> But if we are living in the light, as God is in the light, then we have fellowship with each other, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, cleanses us from all sin.

<sup>8</sup> If we claim we have no sin, we are only fooling ourselves and not living in the truth.<sup>9</sup> But if we confess our sins to him, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all wickedness.<sup>10</sup> If we claim we have not sinned, we are calling God a liar and showing that his word has no place in our hearts.

2 My dear children, I am writing this to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate who pleads our case before the Father. He is Jesus Christ, the one who is truly righteous.<sup>2</sup> He himself is the sacrifice that atones for our sins—and not only our sins but the sins of all the world.

<sup>3</sup> And we can be sure that we know him if we obey his commandments.<sup>4</sup> If someone claims, "I know God," but doesn't obey God's commandments, that person is a liar and is not living in the truth.<sup>5</sup> But those who obey God's word truly show how completely they love him. That is how we know we are living in him.<sup>6</sup> Those who say they live in God should live their lives as Jesus did.

LIGHT DISPELS DARKNESS

1 John 1:5–7

ROBERT MORRIS

When you're in sin or running from God, the last thing you want to do is read the Bible. However, reading the Bible is actually the first thing you need to do. Why? Because light dispels darkness. First John 1:5–7 says,

God is light, and there is no darkness in him at all. So we are lying if we say we have fellowship with God but go on living in spiritual darkness . . . But if we are living in the light, as God is in the light, then we have fellowship with each other, and the blood of Jesus, his Son, cleanses us from all sin.

When you turn a light switch on, there's no argument between light and darkness. The light comes, and the darkness instantly leaves. If you want to get out of a dark place in your life, the best thing you can do is read God's Word.

A NEW COMMANDMENT

<sup>7</sup> Dear friends, I am not writing a new commandment for you; rather it is an old one you have had from the very beginning. This old commandment—to love one another—is the same message you heard before.<sup>8</sup> Yet it is also new. Jesus lived the truth of this commandment, and you also are living it. For the darkness is disappearing, and the true light is already shining.

<sup>9</sup> If anyone claims, "I am living in the light," but hates a fellow believer,* that person is still living in darkness.<sup>10</sup> Anyone who loves a fellow believer<sup>11</sup> is living in the light and does not cause others to stumble.<sup>12</sup> But anyone who hates a fellow believer is still living and walking in darkness. Such a person does not know the way to go, having been blinded by the darkness.

1:1 Greek What was from the beginning. 1:4 Or so that our joy may be complete; some manuscripts read your joy. 1:5 Greek from him. 2:9 Greek hates his brother; also in 2:11. 2:10 Greek loves his brother.

<sup>12</sup> I am writing to you who are God's children because your sins have been forgiven through Jesus.*

<sup>13</sup> I am writing to you who are mature in the faith* because you know Christ, who existed from the beginning.

I am writing to you who are young in the faith because you have won your battle with the evil one.

<sup>14</sup> I have written to you who are God's children because you know the Father.

I have written to you who are mature in the faith because you know Christ, who existed from the beginning.

I have written to you who are young in the faith because you are strong.

God's word lives in your hearts, and you have won your battle with the evil one.

DO NOT LOVE THIS WORLD

<sup>15</sup> Do not love this world nor the things it offers you, for when you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. <sup>16</sup> For the world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father, but are from this world. <sup>17</sup> And this world is fading away, along with everything that people crave. But anyone who does what pleases God will live forever.

WARNING ABOUT ANTICHRISTS

<sup>18</sup> Dear children, the last hour is here. You have heard that the Antichrist is coming, and already many such antichrists have appeared. From this we know that the last hour has come. <sup>19</sup> These people left our churches, but they never really belonged with us; otherwise they would have stayed with us. When they left, it proved that they did not belong with us.

<sup>20</sup> But you are not like that, for the Holy One has given you his Spirit,* and all of you know the truth. <sup>21</sup> So I am writing to you not because you don't know the truth but because you know the difference between truth and lies. <sup>22</sup> And who is a liar? Anyone who says that Jesus is not the Christ.* Anyone who denies the Father and the Son is an antichrist.* <sup>23</sup> Anyone who denies the Son doesn't have the Father, either. But anyone who acknowledges the Son has the Father also.

<sup>24</sup> So you must remain faithful to what you have been taught from the beginning. If you do, you will remain in fellowship with the Son and with the Father. <sup>25</sup> And in this fellowship we enjoy the eternal life he promised us.

CREATED FOR PASSION

1 John 2:16

ROBERT MORRIS

When I was in my 20s, I fell in love with God. I still had a lot of junk to deal with, though, because I had been a very immoral person before I got saved. I shared my struggles with my pastor, Olen Griffing, and asked for help. He looked at me, put his hands on my head, and prayed, "Father, I pray that You will cause Robert to fall passionately in love with You. In Jesus' name, Amen." Then he just walked away. That prayer changed my life.

The enemy often tries to choke us and keep us from the Word of God by giving us a desire for other things. However, the only thing that can satisfy the human soul is God. First John 2:16 says, "The world offers only a craving for physical pleasure, a craving for everything we see, and pride in our achievements and possessions. These are not from the Father, but are from the world." The word craving can also be translated as lust, which comes from the Greek word epithumia. This word actually means 'passion.' God created you with passion, but Satan twists it into lust. We're supposed to be passionate about God and people. Satan turns it to lust for the wrong people in the wrong way and for the wrong things.

The morning after Pastor Olen prayed for me, the Lord spoke to me and said, "Son, it's a passion for Me that drives out lust for others." It's that simple. Pursue the Lord—not so you can check it off your list, but so you can fall passionately in love with the One who is passionate for you.

<sup>26</sup> I am writing these things to warn you about those who want to lead you astray. <sup>27</sup> But you have received the Holy Spirit,* and he lives within you, so you don't need anyone to teach you what is true. For the Spirit* teaches you everything you need to know, and what he teaches is true—it is not a lie. So just as he has taught you, remain in fellowship with Christ.

LIVING AS CHILDREN OF GOD

<sup>28</sup> And now, dear children, remain in fellowship with Christ so that when he returns, you will be full of courage and not shrink back from him in shame.

<sup>29</sup> Since we know that Christ is righteous, we also know that all who do what is right are God's children.

3 See how very much our Father loves us, for he calls us his children, and that is what we are! But the people who belong to this world don't recognize that we are God's children because they don't know him. <sup>2</sup>Dear friends, we are already God's children, but he has not yet shown us what we will be like when Christ appears. But we do know that we will be like him, for we will see him as he really is. <sup>3</sup>And all who have this eager expectation will keep themselves pure, just as he is pure.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone who sins is breaking God's law, for all sin is contrary to the law of God. <sup>5</sup>And you know that Jesus came to take away our sins, and there is no sin in him. <sup>6</sup>Anyone who continues to live in him will not sin. But anyone who keeps on sinning does not know him or understand who he is.

<sup>7</sup>Dear children, don't let anyone deceive you about this: When people do what is right, it shows that they are righteous, even as Christ is righteous. <sup>8</sup>But when people keep on sinning, it shows that they belong to the devil, who has been sinning since the beginning. But the Son of God came to destroy the works of the devil. <sup>9</sup>Those who have been born into God's family do not make a practice of sinning, because God's life* is in them. So they can't keep on sinning, because they are children of God. <sup>10</sup>So now we can tell who are children of God and who are children of the devil. Anyone who does not live righteously and does not love other believers* does not belong to God.

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

<sup>11</sup>This is the message you have heard from the beginning: We should love one another. <sup>12</sup>We must not be like Cain, who belonged to the evil one and killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because Cain had been doing what was evil, and his brother had been doing what was righteous. <sup>13</sup>So don't be surprised, dear brothers and sisters,* if the world hates you.

<sup>14</sup>If we love our brothers and sisters who are believers,* it proves that we have passed from death to life. But a person who has no love is still dead. <sup>15</sup>Anyone who hates another brother or sister* is really a murderer at heart. And you know that murderers don't have eternal life within them.

<sup>16</sup>We know what real love is because Jesus gave up his life for us. So we also ought to give up our lives for our brothers and sisters. <sup>17</sup>If someone has enough money to live well and sees a brother or sister* in need but shows no compassion—how can God's love be in that person?

<sup>18</sup>Dear children, let's not merely say that we love each other; let us show the truth by our actions. <sup>19</sup>Our actions will show that we belong to the truth, so we will be confident when we stand before God. <sup>20</sup>Even if we feel guilty, God is greater than our feelings, and he knows everything.

<sup>21</sup>Dear friends, if we don't feel guilty, we can come to God with bold confidence. <sup>22</sup>And we will receive from him whatever we ask because we obey him and do the things that please him.

<sup>23</sup>And this is his commandment: We must believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as he commanded us. <sup>24</sup>Those who obey God's commandments remain in fellowship with him, and he with them. And we know he lives in us because the Spirit he gave us lives in us.

DISCERNING FALSE PROPHETS

4 Dear friends, do not believe everyone who claims to speak by the Spirit. You must test them to see if the spirit they have comes from God. For there are many false prophets in the world. <sup>2</sup>This is how we know if they have the Spirit of God: If a person claiming to be a prophet* acknowledges that Jesus Christ came in a real body, that person has the Spirit of God. <sup>3</sup>But if someone claims to be a prophet and does not acknowledge the truth about Jesus, that person is not from God. Such a person has the spirit of the Antichrist, which you heard is coming into the world and indeed is already here.

<sup>4</sup>But you belong to God, my dear children. You have already won a victory over those people, because the Spirit who lives in you is greater than the spirit who lives in the world. <sup>5</sup>Those people belong to this world, so they speak from the world's viewpoint, and the world listens to them. <sup>6</sup>But we belong to God, and those who know God listen to us. If they do not belong to God, they do not listen to us. That is how we know if someone has the Spirit of truth or the spirit of deception.

LOVING ONE ANOTHER

<sup>7</sup>Dear friends, let us continue to love one another, for love comes from God. Anyone who loves is a child of God and knows God. <sup>8</sup>But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

<sup>9</sup>God showed how much he loved us by sending his one and only Son into the world so that we might have eternal life through him. <sup>10</sup>This is real love—not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a sacrifice to take away our sins.

<sup>11</sup>Dear friends, since God loved us that much, we surely ought to love each other. <sup>12</sup>No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is brought to full expression in us.

<sup>13</sup>And God has given us his Spirit as proof that we live in him and he in us. <sup>14</sup>Furthermore, we have seen with our own eyes and now testify that the Father sent his Son to be the Savior of 3:9 Greek because his seed. 3:10 Greek does not love his brother.

3:13 Greek brothers. 3:14 Greek the brothers; similarly in 3:16. 3:15 Greek hates his brother. 3:17 Greek sees his brother.

4:2 Greek If a spirit; similarly in 4:3.

the world. <sup>15</sup>All who declare that Jesus is the Son of God have God living in them, and they live in God. <sup>16</sup>We know how much God loves us, and we have put our trust in his love.

God is love, and all who live in love live in God, and God lives in them. <sup>17</sup>And as we live in God, our love grows more perfect. So we will not be afraid on the day of judgment, but we can face him with confidence because we live like Jesus here in this world.

<sup>18</sup>Such love has no fear, because perfect love expels all fear. If we are afraid, it is for fear of punishment, and this shows that we have not fully experienced his perfect love. <sup>19</sup>We love each other* because he loved us first.

<sup>20</sup>If someone says, "I love God," but hates a fellow believer,* that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we cannot see? <sup>21</sup>And he has given us this command: Those who love God must also love their fellow believers.*

FAITH IN THE SON OF GOD

5 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ* has become a child of God. And everyone who loves the Father loves his children, too. <sup>2</sup>We know we love God's children if we love God and obey his commandments. <sup>3</sup>Loving God means keeping his commandments, and his commandments are not burdensome. <sup>4</sup>For every child of God defeats this evil world, and we achieve this victory through our faith. <sup>5</sup>And who can win this battle against the world? Only those who believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

<sup>6</sup>And Jesus Christ was revealed as God's Son by his baptism in water and by shedding his blood on the cross*—not by water only, but by water and blood. And the Spirit, who is truth, confirms it with his testimony. <sup>7</sup>So we have these three witnesses*—<sup>8</sup>the Spirit, the water, and the blood—and all three agree. <sup>9</sup>Since we believe human testimony, surely we can believe the greater testimony that comes from God. And God has testified about his Son. <sup>10</sup>All who believe in the Son of God know in their hearts that this testimony is true. Those who don't believe this are actually calling God a liar because they don't believe what God has testified about his Son.

<sup>11</sup>And this is what God has testified: He has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup>Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have God's Son does not have life.

CONCLUSION

<sup>13</sup>I have written this to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, so that you may know you have eternal life. <sup>14</sup>And we are confident that he hears us whenever we ask for anything that pleases him. <sup>15</sup>And since we know he hears us when we make our requests, we also know that he will give us what we ask for.

<sup>16</sup>If you see a fellow believer* sinning in a way that does not lead to death, you should pray, and God will give that person life. But there is a sin that leads to death, and I am not saying you should pray for those who commit it. <sup>17</sup>All wicked actions are sin, but not every sin leads to death.

<sup>18</sup>We know that God's children do not make a practice of sinning, for God's Son holds them securely, and the evil one cannot touch them. <sup>19</sup>We know that we are children of God and that the world around us is under the control of the evil one.

<sup>20</sup>And we know that the Son of God has come, and he has given us understanding so that we can know the true God.* And now we live in fellowship with the true God because we live in fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ. He is the only true God, and he is eternal life.

<sup>21</sup>Dear children, keep away from anything that might take God's place in your hearts.*

4:19 Greek We love. Other manuscripts read We love God; still others read We love him. 4:20 Greek hates his brother.

4:21 Greek The one who loves God must also love his brother.

5:1 Or the Messiah. 5:6 Greek This is he who came by water and blood.

5:7 A few very late manuscripts add in heaven—the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one. And we have three witnesses on earth. 5:16 Greek a brother. 5:20 Greek the one who is true. 5:21 Greek keep yourselves from idols.

2 JOHN

GREETINGS

This letter is from John, the elder.*

I am writing to the chosen lady and to her children,* whom I love in the truth—as does everyone else who knows the truth—<sup>2</sup>because the truth lives in us and will be with us forever.

<sup>3</sup>Grace, mercy, and peace, which come from God the Father and from Jesus Christ—the Son of the Father—will continue to be with us who live in truth and love.

LIVE IN THE TRUTH

<sup>4</sup>How happy I was to meet some of your children and find them living according to the truth, just as the Father commanded.

<sup>5</sup>I am writing to remind you, dear friends,* that we should love one another. This is not a new commandment, but one we have had from the beginning. <sup>6</sup>Love means doing what God has commanded us, and he has commanded us to love one another, just as you heard from the beginning.

<sup>7</sup>I say this because many deceivers have gone out into the world. They deny that Jesus Christ came* in a real body. Such a person is a deceiver and an antichrist. <sup>8</sup>Watch out that you do not lose what we* have worked so hard to achieve. Be diligent so that you receive your full reward. <sup>9</sup>Anyone who wanders away from this teaching has no relationship with God. But anyone who remains in the teaching of Christ has a relationship with both the Father and the Son.

<sup>10</sup>If anyone comes to your meeting and does not teach the truth about Christ, don't invite that person into your home or give any kind of encouragement. <sup>11</sup>Anyone who encourages such people becomes a partner in their evil work.

CONCLUSION

<sup>12</sup>I have much more to say to you, but I don't want to do it with paper and ink. For I hope to visit you soon and talk with you face to face. Then our joy will be complete.

<sup>13</sup>Greetings from the children of your sister,* chosen by God.

3 JOHN

GREETINGS

This letter is from John, the elder.*

I am writing to Gaius, my dear friend, whom I love in the truth.

<sup>2</sup>Dear friend, I hope all is well with you and that you are as healthy in body as you are strong in spirit. <sup>3</sup>Some of the traveling teachers* recently returned and made me very happy by telling me about your faithfulness and that you are living according to the truth. <sup>4</sup>I could have no greater joy than to hear that my children are following the truth.

CARING FOR THE LORD'S WORKERS

<sup>5</sup>Dear friend, you are being faithful to God when you care for the traveling teachers who pass through, even though they are strangers to you.

<sup>6</sup>They have told the church here of your loving friendship. Please continue providing for such teachers in a manner that pleases God. <sup>7</sup>For they are traveling for the Lord,* and they accept nothing from people who are not believers. * <sup>8</sup>So we ourselves should support them so that we can be their partners as they teach the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to the church about this, but Diotrephes, who loves to be the leader, refuses to have anything to do with us. <sup>10</sup>When I come, I will report some of the things he is doing and the evil accusations he is making against us. Not only does he refuse to welcome the traveling teachers, he also tells others not to help them. And when they do help, he puts them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup>Dear friend, don't let this bad example influence you. Follow only what is good. Remember that those who do good prove that they are God's children, and those who do evil prove that they do not know God.*

<sup>12</sup>Everyone speaks highly of Demetrius, as does the truth itself. We ourselves can say the same for him, and you know we speak the truth.

CONCLUSION

<sup>13</sup>I have much more to say to you, but I don't want to write it with pen and ink. <sup>14</sup>For I hope to see you soon, and then we will talk face to face.

<sup>15*</sup>Peace be with you.

Your friends here send you their greetings. Please give my personal greetings to each of our friends there.

JUDE

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

Though Jude is one of the shortest books in the New Testament, it is also one of the most fascinating with its references to angels bound by chains, its allusion to the fight over Moses' body by the archangel Michael and the devil, and its use of the book of Enoch to underscore the judgment of God through His Son, Jesus. Jude, a brother of James and Jesus, wrote the book. He does not identify himself as a brother of Jesus, but as "a slave of Jesus Christ and a brother of James" (v. 1) out of respect to his half-brother, who is also his Lord. The name Jude is an English version of 'Judas.' Most English translations use the name Jude to differentiate the writer of the letter from the other Judases in the New Testament, including the two disciples of Jesus named Judas.

Jude's brief letter is dense with biblical allusions as he warns his readers against teachers who argue God's grace means freedom from sexual restraint and fidelity. He refers to the story of the Exodus, the time before the great Flood (Genesis 6:1-8), and the story of Sodom and Gomorrah (Genesis 19:23-29). Jude says that God's grace did not spare the Israelites from judgment in the wilderness when they disbelieved His promise to give them a new land; nor did His grace keep Him from judging angels who abused their place of authority or the people of Sodom and Gomorrah for their sexual immorality. He reminds his readers that God expects His people to live by the standards He has given them, and He will judge them when they do not live by those standards.

Such teachers actually blaspheme, Jude says, which means they show disregard for God and the holy way He has given His people to live. The example he provides for this important point is taken from a Jewish writing not found in the Bible, which describes a fight between the devil and God's angel over Moses' body after he died on Mount Nebo (Deuteronomy 34:7). In Jude's mind, it was blasphemous for the devil to try to take Moses' body after he died, and it is blasphemous for teachers to misrepresent God's grace as freedom to do anything they want.

The story of Moses' body alluded to by Jude reveals he believed it to be true. Many Jewish books written during the biblical period were not included in the Bible. However, that does not mean they were unimportant; rather, the people at that time did not think they were specially inspired by God in the same way as the Torah, the Psalms, or prophets like Isaiah were. The fact that Jude knows of this book and the book of Enoch that he quotes later in the letter means he found them important, even if he did not think they were inspired Scripture. Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, Jude was able to discern what was useful and what was not for teaching his people from books such as these. The Holy Spirit knows what is true and what is false, and He helped Jude determine this when he wrote his letter.

Jude continues to draw on various biblical stories to support his points when he recalls Cain and the later story of Korah. Both of these men acted against God's Word, which was directly given in Cain's case (Genesis 4:1-16) and given through Moses in Korah's case (Numbers 16). Jude warns his readers that the blasphemous behavior he has described rejects the holy standard God gave to them, and it will lead to judgment (vv. 14-15).

Jude concludes his book with an exhilarating doxology or prayer of praise that speaks to the greatness of Jesus' ministry and the glory and power of God as eternal, "before all time, and in the present, and beyond all time" (vv. 24-25).

GREETINGS FROM JUDE

This letter is from Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ and a brother of James.

I am writing to all who have been called by God the Father, who loves you and keeps you safe in the care of Jesus Christ.*

<sup>2</sup>May God give you more and more mercy, peace, and love.

THE DANGER OF FALSE TEACHERS

<sup>3</sup>Dear friends, I had been eagerly planning to write to you about the salvation we all share. But now I find that I must write about something else, urging you to defend the faith that God has entrusted once for all time to his holy people. <sup>4</sup>I say this because some ungodly people have wormed their way into your churches, saying that God's marvelous grace allows us to live immoral lives. The condemnation of such people was recorded long ago, for they have denied our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

<sup>5</sup>So I want to remind you, though you already know these things, that Jesus* first rescued the nation of Israel from Egypt, but later he destroyed those who did not remain faithful. <sup>6</sup>And I remind you of the angels who did not stay within the limits of authority God gave them but left the place where they belonged. God has kept them securely chained in prisons of darkness, waiting for the great day of judgment. <sup>7</sup>And don't forget Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring towns, which were filled with immorality and every kind of sexual perversion. Those cities were destroyed by fire and serve as a warning of the eternal fire of God's judgment.

<sup>8</sup>In the same way, these people—who claim authority from their dreams—live immoral lives, defy authority, and scoff at supernatural beings.* <sup>9</sup>But even Michael, one of the mightiest of the angels,* did not dare accuse the devil of blasphemy, but simply said, "The Lord rebuke you!" (This took place when Michael was arguing with the devil about Moses' body.) <sup>10</sup>But these people scoff at things they do not understand. Like unthinking animals, they do whatever their instincts tell them, and so they bring about their own destruction. <sup>11</sup>What sorrow awaits them! For they follow in the footsteps of Cain, who killed his brother. Like Balaam, they deceive people for money. And like Korah, they perish in their rebellion.

<sup>12</sup>When these people eat with you in your fellowship meals commemorating the Lord's love, they are like dangerous reefs that can shipwreck you.* They are like shameless shepherds who care only for themselves. They are like clouds blowing over the land without giving any rain. They are like trees in autumn that are doubly dead, for they bear no fruit and have been pulled up by the roots. <sup>13</sup>They are like wild waves of the sea, churning up the foam of their shameful deeds. They are like wandering stars, doomed forever to blackest darkness.

<sup>14</sup>Enoch, who lived in the seventh generation after Adam, prophesied about these people. He said, "Listen! The Lord is coming with countless thousands of his holy ones <sup>15</sup>to execute judgment on the people of the world. He will convict every person of all the ungodly things they have done and for all the insults that ungodly sinners have spoken against him."*

<sup>16</sup>These people are grumblers and complainers, living only to satisfy their desires. They brag loudly about themselves, and they flatter others to get what they want.

A CALL TO REMAIN FAITHFUL

<sup>17</sup>But you, my dear friends, must remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ predicted. <sup>18</sup>They told you that in the last times there would be scoffers whose purpose in life is to satisfy their ungodly desires. <sup>19</sup>These people are the ones who are creating divisions among you. They follow their natural instincts because they do not have God's Spirit in them.

<sup>20</sup>But you, dear friends, must build each other up in your most holy faith, pray in the power of the Holy Spirit,* <sup>21</sup>and await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will bring you eternal life. In this way, you will keep yourselves safe in God's love.

<sup>22</sup>And you must show mercy to* those whose faith is wavering. <sup>23</sup>Rescue others by snatching them from the flames of judgment. Show mercy to still others,* but do so with great caution, hating the sins that contaminate their lives.*

A PRAYER OF PRAISE

<sup>24</sup>Now all glory to God, who is able to keep you from falling away and will bring you with great joy into his glorious presence without a single fault. <sup>25</sup>All glory to him who alone is God, our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord. All glory, majesty, power, and authority are his before all time, and in the present, and beyond all time! Amen.

1 Or keeps you for Jesus Christ. 5 Other manuscripts read [the] Lord, or God, or God Christ. 8 Greek at glorious ones, which are probably evil angels. 9 Greek Michael, the archangel. 12 Or they are contaminants among you; or they are stains. 14-15 The quotation comes from intertestamental literature: 1 Enoch 1:9. 20 Greek pray in the Holy Spirit. 22 Some manuscripts read must reprove. 22-23a Some manuscripts have only two categories of people: (1) those whose faith is wavering and therefore need to be snatched from the flames of judgment, and (2) those who need to be shown mercy. 23b Greek with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

REVELATION

JON HUNTZINGER, PHD

From the time it was written in the late first century, Christians have attributed the book of Revelation to the apostle John. Revelation contains thematic similarities to John's Gospel:

- In the New Testament, only Revelation and John's Gospel refer to Jesus as "the Word" (John 1:14; Revelation 19:13). They also describe Him as "the Lamb" (John 1:29, 36; Revelation 5:6 and 28 times in other passages).
- Both Revelation and John's Gospel give an unusual number of titles to Jesus in addition to that of "Word" and "Lamb." In Revelation, Jesus is the Alpha and Omega (1:8; 22:13), the Almighty (1:8), the Lion of the tribe of Judah (5:5), the source of David (22:16), the King of all kings and Lord of all lords (19:16), and the bright morning star (22:16). In the Gospel of John, Jesus is the I Am (meaning He is the Bread of Life, the Light of the World, the Good Shepherd, the Resurrection and the Life, the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and the True Grapevine of the branches) (chapters 6; 8; 10; 11; 14; 15).
- Moreover, both Revelation and John describe Jesus as the One who quenches thirst by giving "living water" and who satisfies hunger by giving His own life (John 4:10; 6:35; Revelation 7:16-17).
- Both books predict the persecution of the Church (John 15:18-16:4; Revelation 3:10; 13:7) and the ultimate union of the Church with God (John 17:11, 20-26; Revelation 21:3; 22:3-5).

According to Revelation, John is not only an apostle, which means 'one who is sent,' but also a prophet (1:3; 22:9-10). He is conscious of his responsibility to speak God's message (22:18-19) and does so as someone who shares in the suffering of fellow believers as he writes from the island of Patmos in the Aegean Sea, where he lives in exile (1:9). John is familiar with the distinctive situations in each of the seven churches of Asia he addresses (2:1-3:22) and writes as one who exercises authority among them. He also possesses a broad knowledge of the Hebrew Scriptures, making more than 400 allusions to the Torah, Prophets, and Psalms. Thus, he reports the vision Jesus gave him as one who knows the people with whom he shares it. He sees his vision supported by the words of Scripture that God has given in the past.

The Greek word for revelation is apokalypsis, which means 'disclosure.' The vision the book preserves discloses what God is doing and will do in the life of His people and in the world. God knows His own plans and is bringing those plans to fulfillment. John's vision can be difficult to understand because of the fantastic imagery and many numbers John uses to report what he sees. What is the meaning of seals, trumpets, and bowls? Who are the dragon, the beast, and the woman dressed in purple and red? Why are there 144,000 people with the name of the Lamb on their foreheads? What is the meaning of 12 gates in the New Jerusalem? All of this may seem confusing, but the book is not intended to confuse or upset anyone who hears or reads it. It is not John's intention to cause misgiving or apprehension through this revelation from Jesus. It is his intention, however, for readers to interact thoughtfully with the vision he gives, which is why he reports that Jesus pronounces a blessing upon everyone who reads and hears its message (1:3; 22:7). This statement recalls what Jesus told His disciples when He taught them the parable of the farmer scattering seed: "Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand" (Mark 4:9). In other words, those who heard His parables were responsible for thinking about their meaning. Revelation is like a parable in that it requires those who read or hear it to do so carefully and humbly.

Jesus is the subject of the book of Revelation. John sees Jesus walking in the midst of seven lampstands (1:12-16); he sees Jesus standing by the throne of God opening the seals of a scroll (5:6-14); and he sees Jesus riding a white horse (19:11-16). From beginning to end, Jesus is depicted as holy, powerful, and victorious. John hears Jesus say that He is "the Alpha and the Omega" (1:8; 22:13); he hears Jesus say to His churches, "I know . . ." (nine times in 2:1-3:22); and he hears Jesus say that He will soon return to His followers on earth (22:7, 12, 20). Jesus knows who He is, who His people are, and what He is doing. In addition to this, Jesus' appearance is mesmerizing. He radiates glory (1:14-16), wears a robe "dipped in blood" (19:13) with the name "King of all kings and Lord of all lords" on it (19:16), and even appears as a sacrificed lamb (5:6). When Jesus speaks, John sees a sword come out of His mouth (1:16; 19:15; also 2:16), and he hears a voice that sounds like "mighty ocean waves" (1:15). It is an appearance that reveals holiness, humility, and awesome authority. Finally, Jesus receives the worship of angels, elders, saints, and all creatures (5:6-14). He is worthy because He has ransomed people for God and made them a kingdom of priests for Him (5:10).

Bible scholars have outlined Revelation in many ways. The most helpful outline is based on the three times John sees he was “in the Spirit” (1:10; 4:2; 21:10). For John to be “in the Spirit” means God’s Spirit was with him in a special way to give knowledge and understanding (1 Corinthians 2:6–13).

- The first time he is in the Spirit (1:10), he sees the seven churches of Asia and delivers a message to each one on behalf of the glorified Jesus.
- The second time he is in the Spirit (4:2), he has a long, sweeping vision of the activity of heaven filled with seals, trumpets, bowls, angels, “beasts,” plagues, natural upheavals, and even a marriage feast.
- The third time he is in the Spirit (21:10), John sees the new Jerusalem, the tree of life, and the worship of God by the nations.

Thus, the Spirit of God enables John to see what God sees among His churches, what He is doing in heaven and the significance of these things for the earth and its people, and what God’s goal for creation and His people ultimately is.

Within this broad outline, John uses the number seven (a number in Hebrew that stands for completeness) to describe ultimate reality from God’s point of view. In fact, the entirety of Revelation is organized according to the number seven with six series of seven listed in the book:

- John begins by writing to the seven churches on behalf of Jesus (2:1–3:22). God knows His people and what is happening in their midst.

- John sees seven seals of a scroll opened by Jesus the Lamb (4:1–8:5). The removal of the seals prepares for God’s final word (as represented by the scroll) to be spoken.
- John hears seven trumpets blown by angels (8:6–11:19), which marks a time of judgment on the earth.
- John beholds seven signs in heaven (12:1–15:8), which depicts the warfare of angelic beings and the effects of a powerful beast on the earth (12:1; 13:1, 11; 14:1, 6, 14; 15:1).
- John looks on as seven bowls of wrath are poured on the earth (16:1–21), not unlike the plagues that afflicted Egypt when God delivered His people from slavery (Exodus 7–12).
- Finally, John sees a series of visions (17:1–18; 18:1–19:10; 19:11–21; 20:1–10; 20:11–15; 21:1–22:17) related to God’s final goal of having a “home” among His people (21:3).

Taken together, these “sevens” reveal God’s knowledge of all things in heaven and earth and of past, present, and future. What is done on earth matters in heaven, and the decisions made in heaven impact life on earth. The realms of heaven and earth are not as distant from each other as people think. In John’s vision, they interact and are interconnected. The reason there is not a “seventh” series is because it will occur after everything else when God lives among His people and receives their worship in the new heaven and new earth.

PROLOGUE

1 This is a revelation from Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants the events that must soon* take place. He sent an angel to present this revelation to his servant John,<sup>2</sup> who faithfully reported everything he saw. This is his report of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> God blesses the one who reads the words of this prophecy to the church, and he blesses all who listen to its message and obey what it says, for the time is near.

JOHN’S GREETING TO THE SEVEN CHURCHES

<sup>4</sup> This letter is from John to the seven churches in the province of Asia.*

Grace and peace to you from the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come; from the sevenfold Spirit<sup>5</sup> before his throne; <sup>6</sup> and from Jesus Christ. He is the faithful witness to these things, the first to rise from the dead, and the ruler of all the kings of the world.

All glory to him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by shedding his blood for us.

<sup>6</sup> He has made us a Kingdom of priests for God his Father. All glory and power to him forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>7</sup> Look! He comes with the clouds of heaven.

And everyone will see him—even those who pierced him. And all the nations of the world will mourn for him.

Yes! Amen!

<sup>8</sup> “I am the Alpha and the Omega—the beginning and the end,”* says the Lord God. “I am the one who is, who always was, and who is still to come—the Almighty One.”

VISION OF THE SON OF MAN

<sup>9</sup> I, John, am your brother and your partner in suffering and in God’s Kingdom and in the patient endurance to which Jesus calls us. I was exiled to the island of Patmos for preaching the word of God and for my testimony about Jesus.

1:1a Or of. 1:1b Or suddenly, or quickly. 1:4a Asia was a Roman province in what is now western Turkey. 1:4b Greek the seven spirits. 1:8 Greek I am the Alpha and the Omega, referring to the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet.

HE HOLDS THE KEYS

Revelation 1:17

ROBERT MORRIS

Have you ever lost your keys? Have you ever thought, I know they'll be in the last place I look! Unlike us, Jesus has never lost His keys. He gave the keys of this earth to Adam and Eve, but they lost them to Satan. Through His death and resurrection, Jesus reclaimed the master key to life. Let's look at several important "keys" in Scripture:

1. The Key of Death

Years after the Resurrection, the risen Jesus appeared to the apostle John and told him, "I hold the keys of death and the grave" (Revelation 1:18). The grave, or Hades in Greek, was the place of waiting for the people who died before Jesus came. When Jesus died on the cross, He went to Hades and took the keys away from Satan. He then led every Old Testament saint to heaven, though He stopped by the earth for a few moments to give Mary Magdalene a message for the disciples (John 20:17). Why is this key important? Because Jesus doesn't lock people up in hell. He leads them out to freedom!

2. The Key of David

Revelation 3:7 says Jesus has "the key of David." This is a quote from Isaiah 22:15–25, in which Isaiah tells a prophetic story about Shebna (a type of Satan), who sought to exalt himself by using the resources that were meant to build the kingdom for the people of Israel. Isaiah prophesied that Eliakim (a type of Jesus) would pull him down. In other words, Satan would be thrown down, and Jesus would be raised up. The key of David is the master key to the Kingdom of God. With it, Jesus can close and lock every door of fear, sin, and shame, and He can open every good door to freedom in our lives.

3. The Gate to Everlasting Life

Jesus not only has the keys to the gate, but He also is the Gate. In John 10:9, He says, "I am the gate. Those who come in through me will be saved." There is only one way to heaven and one gate to everlasting life: His name is Jesus.

<sup>10</sup> It was the Lord's Day, and I was worshiping in the Spirit.* Suddenly, I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet blast. <sup>11</sup> It said, "Write in a book" everything you see, and send it to the seven churches in the cities of Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

<sup>12</sup> When I turned to see who was speaking to me, I saw seven gold lampstands. <sup>13</sup> And standing in the middle of the lampstands was someone like the Son of Man.* He was wearing a long robe with a gold sash across his chest. <sup>14</sup> His head and his hair were white like wool, as white as snow. And his eyes were like flames of fire. <sup>15</sup> His feet were like polished bronze refined in a furnace, and his voice thundered like mighty ocean waves. <sup>16</sup> He held seven stars in his right hand, and a sharp two-edged sword came from his mouth. And his face was like the sun in all its brilliance.

<sup>17</sup> When I saw him, I fell at his feet as if I were dead. But he laid his right hand on me and said, "Don't be afraid! I am the First and the Last. <sup>18</sup> I am the living one. I died, but look—I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and the grave.*"

<sup>19</sup> "Write down what you have seen—both the things that are now happening and the things that will happen.* <sup>20</sup> This is the meaning of the mystery of the seven stars you saw in my right hand and the seven gold lampstands: The seven stars are the angels* of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

THE MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH IN EPHEBUS

2 "Write this letter to the angel* of the church in Ephesus. This is the message from the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand, the one who walks among the seven gold lampstands:

<sup>2</sup> "I know all the things you do. I have seen your hard work and your patient endurance. I know you don't tolerate evil people. You have examined the claims of those who say they are apostles but are not. You have discovered they are liars. <sup>3</sup> You have patiently suffered for me without quitting.

<sup>4</sup> "But I have this complaint against you. You don't love me or each other as you did at first! <sup>5</sup> Look how far you have fallen! Turn back to me and do the works you did at first. If you don't repent, I will come and remove your lampstand from its place among the churches. <sup>6</sup> But this is in your favor: You hate the evil deeds of the Nicolaitans, just as I do.

<sup>7</sup> "Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. To everyone who is victorious I will give fruit from the tree of life in the paradise of God.

THE MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH IN SMYRNA

<sup>8</sup> "Write this letter to the angel of the church in Smyrna. This is the message from the one who is the First and the Last, who was dead but is now alive:

<sup>9</sup>“I know about your suffering and your poverty—but you are rich! I know the blasphemy of those opposing you. They say they are Jews, but they are not, because their synagogue belongs to Satan. <sup>10</sup>Don’t be afraid of what you are about to suffer. The devil will throw some of you into prison to test you. You will suffer for ten days. But if you remain faithful even when facing death, I will give you the crown of life.

<sup>11</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. Whoever is victorious will not be harmed by the second death.

THE MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH IN PERGAMUM

<sup>12</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Pergamum. This is the message from the one with the sharp two-edged sword:

<sup>13</sup>“I know that you live in the city where Satan has his throne, yet you have remained loyal to me. You refused to deny me even when Antipas, my faithful witness, was martyred among you there in Satan’s city.

<sup>14</sup>“But I have a few complaints against you. You tolerate some among you whose teaching is like that of Balaam, who showed Balak how to trip up the people of Israel. He taught them to sin by eating food offered to idols and by committing sexual sin. <sup>15</sup>In a similar way, you have some Nicolaitans among you who follow the same teaching. <sup>16</sup>Repent of your sin, or I will come to you suddenly and fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

<sup>17</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches. To everyone who is victorious I will give some of the manna that has been hidden away in heaven. And I will give to each one a white stone, and on the stone will be engraved a new name that no one understands except the one who receives it.

THE MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH IN THYATIRA

<sup>18</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Thyatira. This is the message from the Son of God, whose eyes are like flames of fire, whose feet are like polished bronze:

<sup>19</sup>“I know all the things you do. I have seen your love, your faith, your service, and your patient endurance. And I can see your constant improvement in all these things.

<sup>20</sup>“But I have this complaint against you. You are permitting that woman—that Jezebel who calls herself a prophet—to lead my servants astray. She teaches them to commit sexual sin and to eat food offered to idols.

<sup>21</sup>I gave her time to repent, but she does not want to turn away from her immorality.

<sup>22</sup>“Therefore, I will throw her on a bed of suffering,* and those who commit adultery with her will suffer greatly unless they repent and turn away from her evil deeds.

<sup>23</sup>I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am the one who searches out the thoughts and intentions of every person. And I will give to each of you whatever you deserve.

<sup>24</sup>“But I also have a message for the rest of you in Thyatira who have not followed this false teaching (‘deeper truths,’ as they call them—depths of Satan, actually). I will ask nothing more of you <sup>25</sup>except that you hold tightly to what you have until I come. <sup>26</sup>To all who are victorious, who obey me to the very end,

To them I will give authority over all the nations.

<sup>27</sup> They will rule the nations with an iron rod and smash them like clay pots.*

<sup>28</sup>They will have the same authority I received from my Father, and I will also give them the morning star!

<sup>29</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

THE MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH IN SARDIS

3 “Write this letter to the angel* of the church in Sardis. This is the message from the one who has the sevenfold Spirit* of God and the seven stars:

“I know all the things you do, and that you have a reputation for being alive—but you are dead. <sup>2</sup>Wake up! Strengthen what little remains, for even what is left is almost dead. I find that your actions do not meet the requirements of my God. <sup>3</sup>Go back to what you heard and believed at first; hold to it firmly. Repent and turn to me again. If you don’t wake up, I will come to you suddenly, as unexpected as a thief.

<sup>4</sup>“Yet there are some in the church in Sardis who have not soiled their clothes with evil. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. <sup>5</sup>All who are victorious will be clothed in white. I will never erase their names from the Book of Life, but I will announce before my Father and his angels that they are mine.

<sup>6</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

2:22 Greek a bed. 2:26-27 Ps 2:8-9 (Greek version). 3:1a Or the messenger; also in 3:7, 14. 3:1b Greek the seven spirits.

THE MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH IN PHILADELPHIA

<sup>7</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Philadelphia.

This is the message from the one who is holy and true,
the one who has the key of David.
What he opens, no one can close;
and what he closes, no one can open:*

<sup>8</sup>“I know all the things you do, and I have opened a door for you that no one can close. You have little strength, yet you obeyed my word and did not deny me. <sup>9</sup>Look, I will force those who belong to Satan’s synagogue—those liars who say they are Jews but are not—to come and bow down at your feet. They will acknowledge that you are the ones I love.

<sup>10</sup>“Because you have obeyed my command to persevere, I will protect you from the great time of testing that will come upon the whole world to test those who belong to this world. <sup>11</sup>I am coming soon.* Hold on to what you have, so that no one will take away your crown. <sup>12</sup>All who are victorious will become pillars in the Temple of my God, and they will never have to leave it. And I will write on them the name of my God, and they will be citizens in the city of my God—the new Jerusalem that comes down from heaven from my God. And I will also write on them my new name.

<sup>13</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.

THE MESSAGE TO THE CHURCH IN LAODICEA

<sup>14</sup>“Write this letter to the angel of the church in Laodicea. This is the message from the one who is the Amen—the faithful and true witness, the beginning* of God’s new creation:

<sup>15</sup>“I know all the things you do, that you are neither hot nor cold. I wish that you were one or the other! <sup>16</sup>But since you are like lukewarm water, neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth! <sup>17</sup>You say, ‘I am rich. I have everything I want. I don’t need a thing!’ And you don’t realize that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked. <sup>18</sup>So I advise you to buy gold from me—gold that has been purified by fire. Then you will be rich. Also buy white garments from me so you will not be shamed by your nakedness, and ointment for your eyes so you will be able to see. <sup>19</sup>I correct and discipline everyone I love. So be diligent and turn from your indifference.

<sup>20</sup>“Look! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in, and we will share a meal together as friends. <sup>21</sup>Those who are victorious will sit with me on my throne, just as I was victorious and sat with my Father on his throne.

<sup>22</sup>“Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches.”

WORSHIP IN HEAVEN

4 Then as I looked, I saw a door standing open in heaven, and the same voice I had heard before spoke to me like a trumpet blast. The voice said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this.” <sup>2</sup>And instantly I was in the Spirit,* and I saw a throne in heaven and someone sitting on it. <sup>3</sup>The one sitting on the throne was as brilliant as gemstones—like jasper and carnelian. And the glow of an emerald circled his throne like a rainbow. <sup>4</sup>Twenty-four thrones surrounded him, and twenty-four elders sat on them. They were all clothed in white and had gold crowns on their heads. <sup>5</sup>From the throne came flashes of lightning and the rumble of thunder. And in front of the throne were seven torches with burning flames. This is the sevenfold Spirit* of God. <sup>6</sup>In front of the throne was a shiny sea of glass, sparkling like crystal.

In the center and around the throne were four living beings, each covered with eyes, front and back. <sup>7</sup>The first of these living beings was like a lion; the second was like an ox; the third had a human face; and the fourth was like an eagle in flight. <sup>8</sup>Each of these living beings had six wings, and their wings were covered all over with eyes, inside and out. Day after day and night after night they keep on saying,

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty—the one who always was, who is, and who is still to come.”

<sup>9</sup>Whenever the living beings give glory and honor and thanks to the one sitting on the throne (the one who lives forever and ever), <sup>10</sup>the twenty-four elders fall down and worship the one sitting on the throne (the one who lives forever and ever). And they lay their crowns before the throne and say,

<sup>11</sup> “You are worthy, O Lord our God,
to receive glory and honor and power.
For you created all things, and they exist because you created what you pleased.”

<sup>3:7</sup> Isa 22:22. <sup>3:11</sup> Or suddenly, or quickly. <sup>3:14</sup> Or the ruler, or the source. <sup>4:2</sup> Or in spirit. <sup>4:5</sup> Greek They are the seven spirits.

What Does the Bible Say About . . .

HEAVEN?

ROBERT MORRIS

Do you ever wonder about heaven? Many people do. Some answers will only come when we are face-to-face with God, but addressed here are 10 of the most common questions about heaven:

1. Will we have bodies in heaven?

Jesus had an earthly body that suffered and died, but after the Resurrection, He had a heavenly body. When Jesus returns, we too will have heavenly bodies. In 1 Corinthians 15:42, the apostle Paul writes, "Our earthly bodies are planted in the ground when we die, but they will be raised to live forever."

2. Will we go to heaven immediately?

Jesus told the thief on the cross next to Him, "Today you will be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:43). When we leave our earthly bodies, we will immediately be with the Lord in heaven. Paul writes, "We would rather be away from these earthly bodies, for then we will be at home with the Lord" (2 Corinthians 5:8).

3. Will we be able to communicate?

Revelation 6:10 says the martyrs in heaven "shouted to the Lord." They can communicate, and we will be able to as well.

4. Will we have emotions?

The martyrs care deeply about what is happening on earth (Revelation 6:9–11). Your emotions are part of your soul, which is going to heaven. Luke 15:7 speaks about joy in heaven "over one lost sinner who repents." This joy is far beyond anything we can experience on this earth.

5. Will we know everything?

No, we will not know everything. The martyrs don't know the future, so they ask God when He will avenge their deaths. However, we will have an eternal, heavenly perspective and will be constantly learning and discovering new things.

6. Will we know what's happening on earth?

Yes, we will. The martyrs know what's happening on earth—they know the people who killed them are still alive. According to Hebrews 12:1, people in heaven are able to witness the events on earth. This means you have people in heaven who are cheering you on right now!

7. Will we remember our lives on earth?

The martyrs in heaven remember they were murdered, and they remember their lives on earth. We too will remember our earthly lives when we are in heaven. These memories will make us grateful for God's incredible grace and mercy.

8. Will we know people?

In Matthew 8:11, Jesus says many people in heaven will sit down and talk with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. We will know and genuinely understand people for the first time in our lives.

9. Will it be boring?

Heaven is going to be the most spectacular place ever! It will be beautiful, pain-free, and completely satisfying (Revelation 21:1–7). The greatest thing about heaven is going to be our fellowship with God and other believers for all eternity.

10. Who will be there?

Jesus and His Bride (the Church) will be in heaven (Revelation 21:6; 22:17). Anyone who confesses Jesus as Lord and calls on His name will be there (Romans 10:9, 13).

THE LAMB OPENS THE SCROLL

5 Then I saw a scroll* in the right hand of the one who was sitting on the throne. There was writing on the inside and the outside of the scroll, and it was sealed with seven seals.<sup>2</sup> And I saw a strong angel, who shouted with a loud voice: "Who is worthy to break the seals on this scroll and open it?"<sup>3</sup> But no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll and read it.

<sup>4</sup> Then I began to weep bitterly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll and read it.<sup>5</sup> But one of the twenty-four elders said to me, "Stop weeping! Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the heir to David's throne,* has won the victory. He is worthy to open the scroll and its seven seals."

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw a Lamb that looked as if it had been slaughtered, but it was now standing between the throne and the four living beings and among the twenty-four elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which represent the seven-fold Spirit* of God that is sent out into every part of the earth.<sup>7</sup> He stepped forward and took the scroll from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne.<sup>8</sup> And when he took the scroll, the four living beings and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb. Each one had a harp, and they held gold bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of God's people.<sup>9</sup> And they sang a new song with these words:

"You are worthy to take the scroll and break its seals and open it.
For you were slaughtered, and your blood has ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation.

<sup>10</sup> And you have caused them to become a Kingdom of priests for our God.
And they will reign* on the earth."

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked again, and I heard the voices of thousands and millions of angels around the throne and of the living beings and the elders.

<sup>12</sup> And they sang in a mighty chorus:

"Worthy is the Lamb who was slaughtered—to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing."

<sup>13</sup> And then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea. They sang:

"Blessing and honor and glory and power belong to the one sitting on the throne and to the Lamb forever and ever."

<sup>14</sup> And the four living beings said, "Amen!" And the twenty-four elders fell down and worshiped the Lamb.

THE LAMB BREAKS THE FIRST SIX SEALS

6 As I watched, the Lamb broke the first of the seven seals on the scroll.* Then I heard one of the four living beings say with a voice like thunder, "Come!"<sup>2</sup> I looked up and saw a white horse standing there. Its rider carried a bow, and a crown was placed on his head. He rode out to win many battles and gain the victory.

<sup>3</sup> When the Lamb broke the second seal, I heard the second living being say, "Come!"<sup>4</sup> Then another horse appeared, a red one. Its rider was given a mighty sword and the authority to take peace from the earth. And there was war and slaughter everywhere.

<sup>5</sup> When the Lamb broke the third seal, I heard the third living being say, "Come!" I looked up and saw a black horse, and its rider was holding a pair of scales in his hand.<sup>6</sup> And I heard a voice from among the four living beings say, "A loaf of wheat bread or three loaves of barley will cost a day's pay.* And don't waste* the olive oil and wine."

<sup>7</sup> When the Lamb broke the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living being say, "Come!" I looked up and saw a horse whose color was pale green. Its rider was named Death, and his companion was the Grave.* These two were given authority over one-fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword and famine and disease* and wild animals.

<sup>9</sup> When the Lamb broke the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of all who had been martyred for the word of God and for being faithful in their testimony.<sup>10</sup> They shouted to the Lord and said, "O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before you judge the people who belong to this world and avenge our blood for what they have done to us?"<sup>11</sup> Then a white robe was given to each of them. And they were told to rest a little longer until the full number of their brothers and sisters*—their fellow servants of Jesus who were to be martyred—had joined them.

<sup>12</sup> I watched as the Lamb broke the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became as dark as black cloth, and the moon became as red as blood.<sup>13</sup> Then the stars of the sky fell to the earth like green figs falling from a tree shaken by a strong wind.<sup>14</sup> The sky was rolled up like a scroll, and all of the mountains and islands were moved from their places.

<sup>15</sup> Then everyone—the kings of the earth, the rulers, the generals, the wealthy, the powerful, and every slave and free person—all hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains.<sup>16</sup> And they cried to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the

GOD'S PEOPLE WILL BE PRESERVED

7 Then I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds so they did not blow on the earth or the sea, or even on any tree.<sup>2</sup> And I saw another angel coming up from the east, carrying the seal of the living God. And he shouted to those four angels, who had been given power to harm land and sea,<sup>3</sup> "Wait! Don't harm the land or the sea or the trees until we have placed the seal of God on the foreheads of his servants."

<sup>4</sup>And I heard how many were marked with the seal of God—144,000 were sealed from all the tribes of Israel:

<sup>5</sup> from Judah . . . . .	12,000
from Reuben . . . . .	12,000
from Gad . . . . .	12,000

PRAISE FROM THE GREAT CROWD

<sup>9</sup>After this I saw a vast crowd, too great to count, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white robes and held palm branches in their hands.<sup>10</sup> And they were shouting with a great roar,

"Salvation comes from our God who sits on the throne and from the Lamb!"

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living beings. And they fell before the throne with their faces to the ground and worshiped God.<sup>12</sup> They sang,

"Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and strength belong to our God forever and ever! Amen."

<sup>13</sup>Then one of the twenty-four elders asked me, "Who are these who are clothed in white? Where did they come from?"

<sup>14</sup>And I said to him, "Sir, you are the one who knows."

Then he said to me, "These are the ones who died in* the great tribulation.* They have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb and made them white.

<sup>15</sup> "That is why they stand in front of God's throne and serve him day and night in his Temple. And he who sits on the throne will give them shelter.

<sup>16</sup> They will never again be hungry or thirsty; they will never be scorched by the heat of the sun.

<sup>17</sup> For the Lamb on the throne* will be their Shepherd. He will lead them to springs of life-giving water. And God will wipe every tear from their eyes."

THE LAMB BREAKS THE SEVENTH SEAL

8 When the Lamb broke the seventh seal on the scroll,* there was silence throughout heaven for about half an hour.<sup>2</sup> I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and they were given seven trumpets.

<sup>3</sup>Then another angel with a gold incense burner came and stood at the altar. And a great amount of incense was given to him to mix with the prayers of God's people as an offering on the gold altar before the throne.<sup>4</sup> The smoke of the incense, mixed with the prayers of God's holy people, ascended up to God from the altar where the angel had poured them out.<sup>5</sup> Then the angel filled the incense burner with fire from the altar and threw it down upon the earth; and thunder crashed, lightning flashed, and there was a terrible earthquake.

THE FIRST FOUR TRUMPETS

<sup>6</sup>Then the seven angels with the seven trumpets prepared to blow their mighty blasts.

<sup>7</sup>The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire mixed with blood were thrown down on the earth. One-third of the earth was set on fire, one-third of the trees were burned, and all the green grass was burned.

<sup>8</sup>Then the second angel blew his trumpet, and a great mountain of fire was thrown into the sea. One-third of the water in the sea became blood,<sup>9</sup> one-third of all things living in the sea died, and one-third of all the ships on the sea were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>Then the third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch. It fell on one-third of the rivers and on the springs of water.<sup>11</sup> The name of the star was Bitterness.* It made one-third of the water bitter, and many people died from drinking the bitter water.

<sup>12</sup> Then the fourth angel blew his trumpet, and one-third of the sun was struck, and one-third of the moon, and one-third of the stars, and they became dark. And one-third of the day was dark, and also one-third of the night.

<sup>13</sup> Then I looked, and I heard a single eagle crying loudly as it flew through the air, "Terror, terror, terror to all who belong to this world because of what will happen when the last three angels blow their trumpets."

THE FIFTH TRUMPET BRINGS THE FIRST TERROR

9 Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star that had fallen to earth from the sky, and he was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup> When he opened it, smoke poured out as though from a huge furnace, and the sunlight and air turned dark from the smoke.

<sup>3</sup> Then locusts came from the smoke and descended on the earth, and they were given power to sting like scorpions. <sup>4</sup> They were told not to harm the grass or plants or trees, but only the people who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> They were told not to kill them but to torture them for five months with pain like the pain of a scorpion sting. <sup>6</sup> In those days people will seek death but will not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them!

<sup>12</sup> The first terror is past, but look, two more terrors are coming!

THE SIXTH TRUMPET BRINGS THE SECOND TERROR

<sup>13</sup> Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice speaking from the four horns of the gold altar that stands in the presence of God. <sup>14</sup> And the voice said to the sixth angel who held the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great Euphrates River." <sup>15</sup> Then the four angels who had been prepared for this hour and day and month and year were turned loose to kill one-third of all the people on earth. <sup>16</sup> I heard the size of their army, which was 200 million mounted troops.

<sup>17</sup> And in my vision, I saw the horses and the riders sitting on them. The riders wore armor that was fiery red and dark blue and yellow. The horses had heads like lions, and fire and smoke and burning sulfur billowed from their mouths.

<sup>18</sup> One-third of all the people on earth were killed by these three plagues—by the fire and smoke and burning sulfur that came from the mouths of the horses. <sup>19</sup> Their power was in their mouths and in their tails. For their tails had heads like snakes, with the power to injure people.

<sup>20</sup> But the people who did not die in these plagues still refused to repent of their evil deeds and turn to God. They continued to worship demons and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood—idols that can neither see nor hear nor walk! <sup>21</sup> And they did not repent of their murders or their witchcraft or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

THE ANGEL AND THE SMALL SCROLL

10 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, surrounded by a cloud, with a rainbow over his head. His face shone like the sun, and his feet were like pillars of fire. <sup>2</sup> And in his hand was a small scroll* that had been opened. He stood with his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land. <sup>3</sup> And he gave a great shout like the roar of a lion. And when he shouted, the seven thunders answered.

<sup>4</sup> When the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write. But I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Keep secret* what the seven thunders said, and do not write it down."

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand toward heaven. <sup>6</sup> He swore an oath in the name of the one who lives forever and ever, who created the heavens and everything in them, the earth and everything in it, and the sea and everything in it. He said, "There will be no more delay. <sup>7</sup> When the seventh angel blows his trumpet, God's mysterious plan will be fulfilled. It will happen just as he announced it to his servants the prophets."

<sup>8</sup> Then the voice from heaven spoke to me again: "Go and take the open scroll from the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

<sup>9</sup> So I went to the angel and told him to give me the small scroll. "Yes, take it and eat it," he said. "It will be sweet as honey in your mouth, but it will turn sour in your stomach!" <sup>10</sup> So I took the small scroll from the hand of the angel, and I ate it! It was sweet in my mouth, but when I swallowed it, it turned sour in my stomach.

<sup>11</sup> Then I was told, "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

THE TWO WITNESSES

11 Then I was given a measuring stick, and I was told, "Go and measure the Temple of God and the altar, and count the number of worshippers. <sup>2</sup> But do not measure the outer courtyard, <sup>9:1</sup> Or the abyss, or the underworld; also in 9:11. <sup>10:2</sup> Or book; also in 10:8, 9, 10. <sup>10:4</sup> Greek Seal up.

for it has been turned over to the nations. They will trample the holy city for 42 months.<sup>3</sup> And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will be clothed in burlap and will prophesy during those 1,260 days.”

<sup>4</sup>These two prophets are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of all the earth. <sup>5</sup>If anyone tries to harm them, fire flashes from their mouths and consumes their enemies. This is how anyone who tries to harm them must die. <sup>6</sup>They have power to shut the sky so that no rain will fall for as long as they prophesy. And they have the power to turn the rivers and oceans into blood, and to strike the earth with every kind of plague as often as they wish.

<sup>7</sup>When they complete their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the bottomless pit* will declare war against them, and he will conquer them and kill them. <sup>8</sup>And their bodies will lie in the main street of Jerusalem,* the city that is figuratively called “Sodom” and “Egypt,” the city where their Lord was crucified. <sup>9</sup>And for three and a half days, all peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will stare at their bodies. No one will be allowed to bury them. <sup>10</sup>All the people who belong to this world will gloat over them and give presents to each other to celebrate the death of the two prophets who had tormented them.

<sup>11</sup>But after three and a half days, God breathed life into them, and they stood up! Terror struck all who were staring at them. <sup>12</sup>Then a loud voice from heaven called to the two prophets, “Come up here!” And they rose to heaven in a cloud as their enemies watched.

<sup>13</sup>At the same time there was a terrible earthquake that destroyed a tenth of the city. Seven thousand people died in that earthquake, and everyone else was terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

<sup>14</sup>The second terror is past, but look, the third terror is coming quickly.

THE SEVENTH TRUMPET BRINGS THE THIRD TERROR

<sup>15</sup>Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices shouting in heaven:

“The world has now become the Kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ,* and he will reign forever and ever.”

<sup>16</sup>The twenty-four elders sitting on their thrones before God fell with their faces to the ground and worshiped him. <sup>17</sup>And they said,

“We give thanks to you, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who always was, for now you have assumed your great power and have begun to reign.

<sup>18</sup> The nations were filled with wrath, but now the time of your wrath has come.

It is time to judge the dead and reward your servants the prophets, as well as your holy people, and all who fear your name, from the least to the greatest.

It is time to destroy all who have caused destruction on the earth.”

<sup>19</sup>Then, in heaven, the Temple of God was opened and the Ark of his covenant could be seen inside the Temple. Lightning flashed, thunder crashed and roared, and there was an earthquake and a terrible hailstorm.

THE WOMAN AND THE DRAGON

12 Then I witnessed in heaven an event of great significance. I saw a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon beneath her feet, and a crown of twelve stars on her head. <sup>2</sup>She was pregnant, and she cried out because of her labor pains and the agony of giving birth.

<sup>3</sup>Then I witnessed in heaven another significant event. I saw a large red dragon with seven heads and ten horns, with seven crowns on his heads. <sup>4</sup>His tail swept away one-third of the stars in the sky, and he threw them to the earth. He stood in front of the woman as she was about to give birth, ready to devour her baby as soon as it was born.

<sup>5</sup>She gave birth to a son who was to rule all nations with an iron rod. And her child was snatched away from the dragon and was caught up to God and to his throne. <sup>6</sup>And the woman fled into the wilderness, where God had prepared a place to care for her for 1,260 days.

<sup>7</sup>Then there was war in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon and his angels. <sup>8</sup>And the dragon lost the battle, and he and his angels were forced out of heaven. <sup>9</sup>This great dragon—the ancient serpent called the devil, or Satan, the one deceiving the whole world—was thrown down to the earth with all his angels.

<sup>10</sup>Then I heard a loud voice shouting across the heavens,

“It has come at last—salvation and power
and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.*
For the accuser of our brothers and sisters* has been thrown down to earth—the one who accuses them before our God day and night.

<sup>11</sup> And they have defeated him by the blood of the Lamb and by their testimony. And they did not love their lives so much that they were afraid to die.
<sup>12</sup> Therefore, rejoice, O heavens! And you who live in the heavens, rejoice! But terror will come on the earth and the sea, for the devil has come down to you in great anger, knowing that he has little time.*

<sup>13</sup> When the dragon realized that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male child.
<sup>14</sup> But she was given two wings like those of a great eagle so she could fly to the place prepared for her in the wilderness. There she would be cared for and protected from the dragon* for a time, times, and half a time.

<sup>15</sup> Then the dragon tried to drown the woman with a flood of water that flowed from his mouth.
<sup>16</sup> But the earth helped her by opening its mouth and swallowing the river that gushed out from the mouth of the dragon. <sup>17</sup> And the dragon was angry at the woman and declared war against the rest of her children—all who keep God's commandments and maintain their testimony for Jesus.

THE BEAST OUT OF THE SEA

13 Then I saw a beast rising up out of the sea. It had seven heads and ten horns, with ten crowns on its horns. And written on each head were names that blasphemed God. <sup>2</sup> This beast looked like a leopard, but it had the feet of a bear and the mouth of a lion! And the dragon gave the beast his own power and throne and great authority.

<sup>3</sup> I saw that one of the heads of the beast seemed wounded beyond recovery—but the fatal wound was healed! The whole world marveled at this miracle and gave allegiance to the beast.
<sup>4</sup> They worshiped the dragon for giving the beast such power, and they also worshiped the beast. "Who is as great as the beast?" they exclaimed. "Who is able to fight against him?"

<sup>5</sup> Then the beast was allowed to speak great blasphemies against God. And he was given authority to do whatever he wanted for forty-two months. <sup>6</sup> And he spoke terrible words of blasphemy against God, slandering his name and his dwelling—that is, those who dwell in heaven.*
<sup>7</sup> And the beast was allowed to wage war against God's holy people and to conquer them. And he was given authority to rule over every tribe and people and language and nation. <sup>8</sup> And all the people who belong to this world worshiped the beast. They are the ones whose names were not written in the Book of Life that belongs to the Lamb who was slaughtered before the world was made.*

<sup>9</sup> Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.

<sup>10</sup> Anyone who is destined for prison will be taken to prison.

Anyone destined to die by the sword will die by the sword.

This means that God's holy people must endure persecution patiently and remain faithful.

THE BEAST OUT OF THE EARTH

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw another beast come up out of the earth. He had two horns like those of a lamb, but he spoke with the voice of a dragon. <sup>12</sup> He exercised all the authority of the first beast. And he required all the earth and its people to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed. <sup>13</sup> He did astounding miracles, even making fire flash down to earth from the sky while everyone was watching. <sup>14</sup> And with all the miracles he was allowed to perform on behalf of the first beast, he deceived all the people who belong to this world. He ordered the people to make a great statue of the first beast, who was fatally wounded and then came back to life. <sup>15</sup> He was then permitted to give life to this statue so that it could speak. Then the statue of the beast commanded that anyone refusing to worship it must die.

<sup>16</sup> He required everyone—small and great, rich and poor, free and slave—to be given a mark on the right hand or on the forehead. <sup>17</sup> And no one could buy or sell anything without that mark, which was either the name of the beast or the number representing his name. <sup>18</sup> Wisdom is needed here. Let the one with understanding solve the meaning of the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man.* His number is 666.*

THE LAMB AND THE 144,000

14 Then I saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him were 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup> And I heard a sound from heaven like the roar of mighty ocean waves or the rolling of loud thunder. It was like the sound of many harpists playing together.

<sup>3</sup> This great choir sang a wonderful new song in front of the throne of God and before the four living beings and the twenty-four elders. No one could learn this song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. <sup>4</sup> They have kept

Some translations put this entire sentence into 13:1. 13:6 Some manuscripts read and his dwelling and all who dwell in heaven. 13:8 Or Not written in the Book of Life before the world was made—the Book that belongs to the Lamb who was slaughtered. 13:18a Or of humanity. 13:18b Some manuscripts read 616.

themselves as pure as virgins,* following the Lamb wherever he goes. They have been purchased from among the people on the earth as a special offering* to God and to the Lamb.<sup>5</sup> They have told no lies; they are without blame.

THE THREE ANGELS

<sup>6</sup>And I saw another angel flying through the sky, carrying the eternal Good News to proclaim to the people who belong to this world—to every nation, tribe, language, and people.<sup>7</sup> “Fear God,” he shouted. “Give glory to him. For the time has come when he will sit as judge. Worship him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all the springs of water.”

<sup>8</sup>Then another angel followed him through the sky, shouting, “Babylon is fallen—that great city is fallen—because she made all the nations of the world drink the wine of her passionate immorality.”

<sup>9</sup>Then a third angel followed them, shouting, “Anyone who worships the beast and his statue or who accepts his mark on the forehead or on the hand<sup>10</sup> must drink the wine of God’s anger. It has been poured full strength into God’s cup of wrath. And they will be tormented with fire and burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and the Lamb.<sup>11</sup> The smoke of their torment will rise forever and ever, and they will have no relief day or night, for they have worshiped the beast and his statue and have accepted the mark of his name.”

<sup>12</sup>This means that God’s holy people must endure persecution patiently, obeying his commands and maintaining their faith in Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>And I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write this down: Blessed are those who die in the Lord from now on. Yes, says the Spirit, they are blessed indeed, for they will rest from their hard work; for their good deeds follow them!”

THE HARVEST OF THE EARTH

<sup>14</sup>Then I saw a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was someone like the Son of Man.* He had a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

<sup>15</sup>Then another angel came from the Temple and shouted to the one sitting on the cloud, “Swing the sickle, for the time of harvest has come; the crop on earth is ripe.”<sup>16</sup> So the one sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth, and the whole earth was harvested.

<sup>17</sup>After that, another angel came from the Temple in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.<sup>18</sup> Then another angel, who had power to destroy with fire, came from the altar. He shouted to the angel with the sharp sickle, “Swing your sickle now to gather the clusters of grapes from the vines of the earth, for they are ripe for judgment.”<sup>19</sup> So the angel swung his sickle over the earth and loaded the grapes into the great winepress of God’s wrath.<sup>20</sup> The grapes were trampled in the winepress outside the city, and blood flowed from the winepress in a stream about 180 miles* long and as high as a horse’s bridle.

THE SONG OF MOSES AND OF THE LAMB

15 Then I saw in heaven another marvelous event of great significance. Seven angels were holding the seven last plagues, which would bring God’s wrath to completion.<sup>2</sup> I saw before me what seemed to be a glass sea mixed with fire. And on it stood all the people who had been victorious over the beast and his statue and the number representing his name. They were all holding harps that God had given them.<sup>3</sup> And they were singing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb:

“Great and marvelous are your works,
O Lord God, the Almighty.

Just and true are your ways,
O King of the nations.*

<sup>4</sup> Who will not fear you, Lord, and glorify your name?

For you alone are holy.

All nations will come and worship before you, for your righteous deeds have been revealed.”

THE SEVEN BOWLS OF THE SEVEN PLAGUES

<sup>5</sup>Then I looked and saw that the Temple in heaven, God’s Tabernacle, was thrown wide open.<sup>6</sup> The seven angels who were holding the seven plagues came out of the Temple. They were clothed in spotless white linen* with gold sashes across their chests.<sup>7</sup> Then one of the four living beings handed each of the seven angels a gold bowl filled with the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.<sup>8</sup> The Temple was filled with smoke from God’s glory and power. No one could enter the Temple until the seven angels had completed pouring out the seven plagues.

16 Then I heard a mighty voice from the Temple say to the seven angels, “Go your ways and pour out on the earth the seven bowls containing God’s wrath.”

<sup>2</sup> So the first angel left the Temple and poured out his bowl on the earth, and horrible, malignant sores broke out on everyone who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his statue.

<sup>3</sup> Then the second angel poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became like the blood of a corpse. And everything in the sea died.

14:4a Greek They are virgins who have not defiled themselves with women. 14:4b Greek as firstfruits. 14:14 Or like a son of man. See Dan 7:13. “Son of Man” is a title Jesus used for himself. 14:20 Greek 1,600 stadia [300 kilometers]. 15:3 Some manuscripts read King of the ages. 15:6 Other manuscripts read white stone; still others read white [garments] made of linen.

<sup>4</sup>Then the third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and springs, and they became blood. <sup>5</sup>And I heard the angel who had authority over all water saying,

“You are just, O Holy One, who is and who always was, because you have sent these judgments.
<sup>6</sup>Since they shed the blood of your holy people and your prophets, you have given them blood to drink.
It is their just reward.”

<sup>7</sup>And I heard a voice from the altar, * saying,

“Yes, O Lord God, the Almighty, your judgments are true and just.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun, causing it to scorch everyone with its fire. <sup>9</sup>Everyone was burned by this blast of heat, and they cursed the name of God, who had control over all these plagues. They did not repent of their sins and turn to God and give him glory.

<sup>10</sup>Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was plunged into darkness. His subjects ground their teeth* in anguish, <sup>11</sup>and they cursed the God of heaven for their pains and sores. But they did not repent of their evil deeds and turn to God.

<sup>12</sup>Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great Euphrates River, and it dried up so that the kings from the east could march their armies toward the west without hindrance. <sup>13</sup>And I saw three evil* spirits that looked like frogs leap from the mouths of the dragon, the beast, and the false prophet. <sup>14</sup>They are demonic spirits who work miracles and go out to all the rulers of the world to gather them for battle against the Lord on that great judgment day of God the Almighty.

<sup>15</sup>“Look, I will come as unexpectedly as a thief! Blessed are all who are watching for me, who keep their clothing ready so they will not have to walk around naked and ashamed.”

<sup>16</sup>And the demonic spirits gathered all the rulers and their armies to a place with the Hebrew name Armageddon.*

<sup>17</sup>Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. And a mighty shout came from the throne in the Temple, saying, “It is finished!”

<sup>18</sup>Then the thunder crashed and rolled, and lightning flashed. And a great earthquake struck—the worst since people were placed on the earth.

<sup>19</sup>The great city of Babylon split into three sections, and the cities of many nations fell into heaps of rubble. So God remembered all of Babylon’s sins, and he made her drink the cup that was filled with the wine of his fierce wrath. <sup>20</sup>And every island disappeared, and all the mountains were leveled. <sup>21</sup>There was a terrible hailstorm, and hailstones weighing as much as seventy-five pounds* fell from the sky onto the people below. They cursed God because of the terrible plague of the hailstorm.

THE GREAT PROSTITUTE

17 One of the seven angels who had poured out the seven bowls came over and spoke to me. “Come with me,” he said, “and I will show you the judgment that is going to come on the great prostitute, who rules over many waters. <sup>2</sup>The kings of the world have committed adultery with her, and the people who belong to this world have been made drunk by the wine of her immorality.”

<sup>3</sup>So the angel took me in the Spirit* into the wilderness. There I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that had seven heads and ten horns, and blasphemies against God were written all over it. <sup>4</sup>The woman wore purple and scarlet clothing and beautiful jewelry made of gold and precious gems and pearls. In her hand she held a gold goblet full of obscenities and the impurities of her immorality. <sup>5</sup>A mysterious name was written on her forehead: “Babylon the Great, Mother of All Prostitutes and Obscenities in the World.”

<sup>6</sup>I could see that she was drunk—drunk with the blood of God’s holy people who were witnesses for Jesus. I stared at her in complete amazement.

<sup>7</sup>“Why are you so amazed?” the angel asked. “I will tell you the mystery of this woman and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns on which she sits. <sup>8</sup>The beast you saw was once alive but isn’t now. And yet he will soon come up out of the bottomless pit* and go to eternal destruction. And the people who belong to this world, whose names were not written in the Book of Life before the world was made, will be amazed at the reappearance of this beast who had died.

<sup>9</sup>“This calls for a mind with understanding: The seven heads of the beast represent the seven hills where the woman rules. They also represent seven kings. <sup>10</sup>Five kings have already fallen, the sixth now reigns, and the seventh is yet to come, but his reign will be brief.

<sup>11</sup>“The scarlet beast that was, but is no longer, is the eighth king. He is like the other seven, and he, too, is headed for destruction. <sup>12</sup>The ten horns of the beast are ten kings who have not yet risen to power. They will be appointed to their kingdoms for one brief moment to reign with the beast. <sup>13</sup>They will all agree to give him their power and authority. <sup>14</sup>Together they will go to war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will defeat them because he is Lord of all lords and King of all kings. And his called and chosen and faithful ones will be with him.”

16:7 Greek I heard the altar. 16:10 Greek gnawed their tongues.

16:13 Greek unclean. 16:16 Or Harmagedon. 16:21 Greek 1 talent [34 kilograms]. 17:3 Or in spirit. 17:8 Or the abyss, or the underworld.

<sup>15</sup> Then the angel said to me, “The waters where the prostitute is ruling represent masses of people of every nation and language. <sup>16</sup> The scarlet beast and his ten horns all hate the prostitute. They will strip her naked, eat her flesh, and burn her remains with fire. <sup>17</sup> For God has put a plan into their minds, a plan that will carry out his purposes. They will agree to give their authority to the scarlet beast, and so the words of God will be fulfilled. <sup>18</sup> And this woman you saw in your vision represents the great city that rules over the kings of the world.”

THE FALL OF BABYLON

18 After all this I saw another angel come down from heaven with great authority, and the earth grew bright with his splendor. <sup>2</sup> He gave a mighty shout:

“Babylon is fallen—that great city is fallen!
She has become a home for demons.

She is a hideout for every foul* spirit, a hideout for every foul vulture and every foul and dreadful animal.*

<sup>3</sup> For all the nations have fallen* because of the wine of her passionate immorality.

The kings of the world have committed adultery with her.

Because of her desires for extravagant luxury, the merchants of the world have grown rich.”

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard another voice calling from heaven, “Come away from her, my people.

Do not take part in her sins, or you will be punished with her.

<sup>5</sup> For her sins are piled as high as heaven, and God remembers her evil deeds.

<sup>6</sup> Do to her as she has done to others.
Double her penalty* for all her evil deeds.
She brewed a cup of terror for others,
so brew twice as much* for her.

<sup>7</sup> She glorified herself and lived in luxury, so match it now with torment and sorrow.
She boasted in her heart,
‘I am queen on my throne.
I am no helpless widow, and I have no reason to mourn.’

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, these plagues will overtake her in a single day—
death and mourning and famine.
She will be completely consumed by fire, for the Lord God who judges her is mighty.”

<sup>9</sup> And the kings of the world who committed adultery with her and enjoyed her great luxury will mourn for her as they see the smoke rising from her charred remains. <sup>10</sup> They will stand at a distance, terrified by her great torment. They will cry out,

“How terrible, how terrible for you,
O Babylon, you great city!
In a single moment
God’s judgment came on you.”

<sup>14</sup> “The fancy things you loved so much are gone,” they cry.

“All your luxuries and splendor are gone forever, never to be yours again.”

<sup>15</sup> The merchants who became wealthy by selling her these things will stand at a distance, terrified by her great torment. They will weep and cry out,

<sup>16</sup> “How terrible, how terrible for that great city!
She was clothed in finest purple and scarlet linens, decked out with gold and precious stones and pearls!

<sup>17</sup> In a single moment
all the wealth of the city is gone!”

And all the captains of the merchant ships and their passengers and sailors and crews will stand at a distance. <sup>18</sup> They will cry out as they watch the smoke ascend, and they will say, “Where is there another city as great as this?” <sup>19</sup> And they will weep and throw dust on their heads to show their grief. And they will cry out,

“How terrible, how terrible for that great city!
The shipowners became wealthy by transporting her great wealth on the seas.
In a single moment it is all gone.”

<sup>20</sup> Rejoice over her fate, O heaven and people of God and apostles and prophets!
For at last God has judged her for your sakes.

18:2a Greek unclean; also in each of the two following phrases.

18:2b Some manuscripts condense the last two lines to read a hideout for every foul [unclean] and dreadful vulture.

18:3 Some manuscripts read have drunk. 18:6a Or Give her an equal penalty. 18:6b Or brew just as much.

<sup>21</sup> Then a mighty angel picked up a boulder the size of a huge millstone. He threw it into the ocean and shouted, “Just like this, the great city Babylon will be thrown down with violence and will never be found again.

<sup>22</sup> The sound of harps, singers, flutes, and trumpets will never be heard in you again. No craftsmen and no trades will ever be found in you again. The sound of the mill will never be heard in you again.

<sup>23</sup> The light of a lamp will never shine in you again. The happy voices of brides and grooms will never be heard in you again. For your merchants were the greatest in the world, and you deceived the nations with your sorceries.

<sup>24</sup> In your* streets flowed the blood of the prophets and of God’s holy people and the blood of people slaughtered all over the world.”

SONGS OF VICTORY IN HEAVEN

19 After this, I heard what sounded like a vast crowd in heaven shouting,

“Praise the LORD!
Salvation and glory and power belong to our God.

<sup>2</sup> His judgments are true and just. He has punished the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality. He has avenged the murder of his servants.”

<sup>3</sup> And again their voices rang out:

“Praise the LORD!
The smoke from that city ascends forever and ever!”

<sup>4</sup> Then the twenty-four elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God, who was sitting on the throne. They cried out, “Amen! Praise the LORD!”

<sup>5</sup> And from the throne came a voice that said, “Praise our God,

all his servants,
all who fear him,
from the least to the greatest.”

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard again what sounded like the shout of a vast crowd or the roar of mighty ocean waves or the crash of loud thunder:

“Praise the LORD!
For the Lord our God,* the Almighty, reigns.

<sup>7</sup> Let us be glad and rejoice, and let us give honor to him.
For the time has come for the wedding feast of the Lamb, and his bride has prepared herself.

<sup>8</sup> She has been given the finest of pure white linen to wear.”
For the fine linen represents the good deeds of God’s holy people.

<sup>9</sup> And the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding feast of the Lamb.” And he added, “These are true words that come from God.”

<sup>10</sup> Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said, “No, don’t worship me. I am a servant of God, just like you and your brothers and sisters* who testify about their faith in Jesus. Worship only God. For the essence of prophecy is to give a clear witness for Jesus.”

THE RIDER ON THE WHITE HORSE

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw heaven opened, and a white horse was standing there. Its rider was named Faithful and True, for he judges fairly and wages a righteous war.<sup>12</sup> His eyes were like flames of fire, and on his head were many crowns. A name was written on him that no one understood except himself.<sup>13</sup> He wore a robe dipped in blood, and his title was the Word of God.<sup>14</sup> The armies of heaven, dressed in the finest of pure white linen, followed him on white horses.<sup>15</sup> From his mouth came a sharp sword to strike down the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod. He will release the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty, like juice flowing from a winepress.<sup>16</sup> On his robe at his thigh* was written this title: King of all kings and Lord of all lords.

<sup>17</sup> Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, shouting to the vultures flying high in the sky: “Come! Gather together for the great banquet God has prepared.”<sup>18</sup> Come and eat the flesh of kings, generals, and strong warriors; of horses and their riders; and of all humanity, both free and slave, small and great.”

<sup>19</sup> Then I saw the beast and the kings of the world and their armies gathered together to fight against the one sitting on the horse and his army.<sup>20</sup> And the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet who did mighty miracles on behalf of the beast—miracles that deceived all who had accepted the mark of the beast and who worshiped his statue. Both the beast and his false prophet were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulfur.<sup>21</sup> Their entire army was killed by the sharp sword that came from the mouth of the one riding the white horse.

18:24 Greek her. 19:1 Greek Hallelujah; also in 19:3, 4, 6. Hallelujah is the transliteration of a Hebrew term that means “Praise the LORD.” 19:6 Some manuscripts read the Lord God. 19:10a Greek brothers. 19:10b Or is the message confirmed by Jesus. 19:16 Or On his robe and thigh.

And the vultures all gorged themselves on the dead bodies.

THE THOUSAND YEARS

20 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven with the key to the bottomless pit* and a heavy chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>He seized the dragon—that old serpent, who is the devil, Satan—and bound him in chains for a thousand years. <sup>3</sup>The angel threw him into the bottomless pit, which he then shut and locked so Satan could not deceive the nations anymore until the thousand years were finished. Afterward he must be released for a little while.

<sup>4</sup>Then I saw thrones, and the people sitting on them had been given the authority to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for their testimony about Jesus and for proclaiming the word of God. They had not worshiped the beast or his statue, nor accepted his mark on their foreheads or their hands. They all came to life again, and they reigned with Christ for a thousand years.

<sup>5</sup>This is the first resurrection. (The rest of the dead did not come back to life until the thousand years had ended.) <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy are those who share in the first resurrection. For them the second death holds no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with him a thousand years.

THE DEFEAT OF SATAN

<sup>7</sup>When the thousand years come to an end, Satan will be let out of his prison. <sup>8</sup>He will go out to deceive the nations—called Gog and Magog—in every corner of the earth. He will gather them together for battle—a mighty army, as numberless as sand along the seashore. <sup>9</sup>And I saw them as they went up on the broad plain of the earth and surrounded God's people and the beloved city. But fire from heaven came down on the attacking armies and consumed them.

<sup>10</sup>Then the devil, who had deceived them, was thrown into the fiery lake of burning sulfur, joining the beast and the false prophet. There they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

THE FINAL JUDGMENT

<sup>11</sup>And I saw a great white throne and the one sitting on it. The earth and sky fled from his presence, but they found no place to hide. <sup>12</sup>I saw the dead, both great and small, standing before God's throne. And the books were opened, including the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to what they had done, as recorded in the books. <sup>13</sup>The sea gave up its dead, and death and the grave* gave up their dead. And all were judged according to their deeds. <sup>14</sup>Then death and the grave were thrown into the lake of fire. This lake of fire is the second death. <sup>15</sup>And anyone whose name was not found recorded in the Book of Life was thrown into the lake of fire.

THE NEW JERUSALEM

21 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the old heaven and the old earth had disappeared. And the sea was also gone. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven like a bride beautifully dressed for her husband.

<sup>3</sup>I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, "Look, God's home is now among his people! He will live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them." <sup>4</sup>He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever."

<sup>5</sup>And the one sitting on the throne said, "Look, I am making everything new!" And then he said to me, "Write this down, for what I tell you is trustworthy and true." <sup>6</sup>And he also said, "It is finished! I am the Alpha and the Omega—the Beginning and the End. To all who are thirsty I will give freely from the springs of the water of life. <sup>7</sup>All who are victorious will inherit all these blessings, and I will be their God, and they will be my children.

<sup>8</sup>"But cowards, unbelievers, the corrupt, murderers, the immoral, those who practice witchcraft, idol worshipers, and all liars—their fate is in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death."

<sup>9</sup>Then one of the seven angels who held the seven bowls containing the seven last plagues came and said to me, "Come with me! I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

<sup>10</sup>So he took me in the Spirit* to a great, high mountain, and he showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God. <sup>11</sup>It shone with the glory of God and sparkled like a precious stone—like jasper as clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup>The city wall was broad and high, with twelve gates guarded by twelve angels. And the names of the twelve tribes of Israel were written on the gates. <sup>13</sup>There were three gates on each side—east, north, south, and west. <sup>14</sup>The wall of the city had twelve foundation stones, and on them were written the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>The angel who talked to me held in his hand a gold measuring stick to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. <sup>16</sup>When he measured it, he found it was a square, as wide as it was long. In fact, its length and width and height were each 1,400 miles.* <sup>17</sup>Then he measured the walls and found them to be 216 feet thick* (according to the human standard used by the angel).

<sup>18</sup>The wall was made of jasper, and the city was pure gold, as clear as glass. <sup>19</sup>The wall of the city was built on foundation stones inlaid with twelve precious stones: *the first was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth

20:1 Or the abyss, or the underworld; also in 20:3. 20:13 Greek and Hades; also in 20:14. 21:3 Some manuscripts read God himself will be with them, their God. 21:10 Or in spirit. 21:16 Greek 12,000 stadia [2,220 kilometers]. 21:17 Greek 144 cubits [65 meters]. 21:19 The identification of some of these gemstones is uncertain.

JESUS WANTS TO FILL US

Revelation 22:1

ROBERT MORRIS

In John 4, Jesus meets a Samaritan woman at a well and asks her for a drink. Then He speaks to her about living water. Jesus describes this living water as “a fresh, bubbling spring” that gives eternal life to whoever drinks it (v. 14).

Are you thirsty for living water? Maybe you have been feeling spiritually dehydrated. Wouldn't you like to have a fresh, bubbling spring of eternal life inside you every day? God wants to quench your thirst. He wants to fill you up and speak to you. All you have to do is meditate on His Word. Revelation 22:1 says a river “with the water of life, clear as crystal” flows from the throne of God. And verse 17 says, “Let anyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who desires drink freely from the water of life.”

emerald, <sup>20</sup>the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

<sup>21</sup>The twelve gates were made of pearls—each gate from a single pearl! And the main street was pure gold, as clear as glass.

<sup>22</sup>I saw no temple in the city, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. <sup>23</sup>And the city has no need of sun or moon, for the glory of God illuminates the city, and the Lamb is its light. <sup>24</sup>The nations will walk in its light, and the kings of the world will enter the city in all their glory. <sup>25</sup>Its gates will never be closed at the end of day because there is no night there. <sup>26</sup>And all the nations will bring their glory and honor into the city. <sup>27</sup>Nothing evil* will be allowed to enter, nor anyone who practices shameful idolatry and dishonesty—but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

22 Then the angel showed me a river with the water of life, clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb. <sup>2</sup>It flowed down the center of the main street. On each side of the river grew a tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit,* with a fresh crop each month. The leaves were used for medicine to heal the nations.

<sup>3</sup>No longer will there be a curse upon anything. For the throne of God and of the Lamb will be there, and his servants will worship him. <sup>4</sup>And they will see his face, and his name will be written on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>And there will be no night there—no need for lamps or sun—for the Lord God will shine on them. And they will reign forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>Then the angel said to me, “Everything you have heard and seen is trustworthy and true. The Lord God, who inspires his prophets,* has sent his angel to tell his servants what will happen soon.”

JESUS IS COMING

<sup>7</sup>“Look, I am coming soon! Blessed are those who obey the words of prophecy written in this book.*”

<sup>8</sup>I, John, am the one who heard and saw all these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me. <sup>9</sup>But he said, “No, don't worship me. I am a servant of God, just like you and your brothers the prophets, as well as all who obey what is written in this book. Worship only God!”

<sup>10</sup>Then he instructed me, “Do not seal up the prophetic words in this book, for the time is near. <sup>11</sup>Let the one who is doing harm continue to do harm; let the one who is vile continue to be vile; let the one who is righteous continue to live righteously; let the one who is holy continue to be holy.”

<sup>12</sup>“Look, I am coming soon, bringing my reward with me to repay all people according to their deeds. <sup>13</sup>I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.”

<sup>14</sup>Blessed are those who wash their robes. They will be permitted to enter through the gates of the city and eat the fruit from the tree of life. <sup>15</sup>Outside the city are the dogs—the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idol worshippers, and all who love to live a lie.

<sup>16</sup>“I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this message for the churches. I am both the source of David and the heir to his throne.* I am the bright morning star.”

<sup>17</sup>The Spirit and the bride say, “Come.” Let anyone who hears this say, “Come.” Let anyone who is thirsty come. Let anyone who desires drink freely from the water of life. <sup>18</sup>And I solemnly declare to everyone who hears the words of prophecy written in this book: If anyone adds anything to what is written here, God will add to that person the plagues described in this book. <sup>19</sup>And if anyone removes any of the words from this book of prophecy, God will remove that person's share in the tree of life and in the holy city that are described in this book.

<sup>20</sup>He who is the faithful witness to all these things says, “Yes, I am coming soon!” Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

21:27 Or ceremonially unclean. 22:2 Or twelve kinds of fruit. 22:6a Or The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets. 22:6b Or suddenly, or quickly; also in 22:7, 12, 20. 22:7 Or scroll; also in 22:9, 10, 18, 19. 22:16 Greek I am the root and offspring of David. 22:21 Other manuscripts read be with all; still others read be with all of God's holy people. Some manuscripts add Amen.

1 THE GOOD CREATOR

The Story of Creation

GENESIS 1-2

The Bible begins with these words: “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth” (Genesis 1:1). These words lay the foundation for everything that follows and introduce the Bible’s most important character:

God.

God is the source of every created thing. He made the planet on which we live. He also created everything else. Before Him, there was nothing.

God is.

If God did not exist, then nothing would exist. Nothing and no one can compare to Him. Everything God created has a beginning, but He is without beginning or end. He created the world with order and is not the source of confusion. Just as He brought order to the chaotic universe, He can also restructure our disordered lives. When we trust Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work freely within us, God takes away our confusion and chaos and restores order to our lives.

God created the world in six days and rested on the seventh (Genesis 2:2). This fact does not mean He grew tired from making the world; rather, God rested to show us there is a time for activity and a time for rest and reflection. Both of these are part of His order for us. Though we live in a busy world, God has given us an opportunity to rest from work, although we often ignore this gift to our own detriment.

God is holy.

No part of God’s creation can be called “God.” He is separate and distinct from everything else. One way to express this truth is to say He is holy. Although God is different from creation, He is not disconnected from it. Instead, He is very involved. He cares about all He created, and He cares especially for people like you.

God is good.

As God was in the process of creating, He said everything He made was “good” (Genesis 1:10, 12, 18, 21, 25). Then, as He finished His creation, He said it was “very good” (Genesis 1:31). The reason everything was good is God is good. A good God made good things.

God is love.

Although everything God made was good, He only created people in His image. He cared so much about us that He created us to be like Him. We are not God, but because He made us in His image, we can relate to Him and others in ways nothing else in creation can. The Bible says, “God is love” (1 John 4:8). He created us because He loves us. And God created us in His image so we could freely choose to love Him in return. Because of His love, we also have the ability to love others.

1. Why do you think there is evil in the world?
2. How does your belief about the world’s origins affect the way you view God? How does it influence the way you see yourself?
3. Why do some people find it difficult to believe a good and loving God created the world?
4. How would you tell someone what it means to be created in the image of God?

Although God is holy, loving, and good, the world is not the same as when He first created it. Something very bad happened to change it, and every human has been affected as a result.

2 A BLAMELESS MAN

Job

The Bible opens with the creation of the world and the rest of the universe, but this is actually not the oldest event recorded in the Bible. Before He created the world, God created heavenly creatures called angels. The word angel means ‘messenger’ or ‘agent.’ God created angels to carry out His work (Psalm 103:20). These spiritual beings witnessed the creation of the world (Job 38:4-7), and although they are not visible to humans most of the time, angels are always working on God’s behalf and protecting God’s people (Psalm 91:11). Angels constantly surround God’s throne, praising and communicating with Him.

Why would a being who has seen God and heard the secrets of heaven ever turn against Him? We will probably never understand in this life, but one of the angels did just that. Of all the beings God created, Lucifer once had the most intimate relationship with Him in heaven. Lucifer means ‘shining one.’ He directly reflected God’s glory, similar to the way the moon reflects the sun.

The most beautiful of all the angels, Lucifer became filled with pride. He attempted a mutiny to take over heaven and rule in God’s place. He then led one-third of the angels to join in his rebellion (Revelation 12:4). So God kicked Lucifer and all the angels who followed him out of heaven.

The Bible often refers to Lucifer by a different name: Satan, which means ‘the adversary,’ ‘the enemy,’ or ‘the one who resists.’ Ezekiel compared the king of Tyre to Lucifer, and in this comparison, he explained what happened to Satan before the world began (Ezekiel 28:13–15). Isaiah also wrote about Satan’s fall from heaven (Isaiah 14:12), and the apostle John seemed to have known about this story as well (Revelation 12:9). Jesus said, “I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning!” (Luke 10:18). The enemy is very active in this world, but he will ultimately be condemned to eternal fire, separated from God (Matthew 25:41).

Satan stood in opposition to God, which was bad enough news. But the story only gets worse. Satan hated God so much he tried to destroy what God loves most—people. Satan focused all his attention on trying to put an end to humanity. The story of Job shows just how much Satan wants to do us harm.

JOB 1; 42

No one really knows when the story of Job was composed or who the writer was. However, it is a very ancient story, possibly written even before the book of Genesis. Job was a blameless man who “feared God and stayed away from evil” (Job 1:1). God blessed Job and made him very rich and happy, giving him thousands of animals and many servants. Job was a man of integrity, but he lost everything he had, even his children and his health. How could this happen?

Job’s success caught Satan’s attention. One day, Satan decided to challenge God regarding Job. Satan told God that Job only served Him because Job was so wealthy. If God did not protect and bless this man with so much wealth, then he would curse God. God responded by allowing Satan to take away everything Job had. In one day, Job lost his animals, his servants, and his 10 children. When Job learned of this tragedy, he still worshipped God rather than blaming Him.

Then Satan told God that Job would curse Him if God allowed Satan to take Job’s health. Job contracted terrible boils, which covered his entire body. Rather than comforting him, Job’s wife told him to curse God and die. Even so, Job refused to turn against God.

Job’s three friends came to comfort him. However, when they saw Job’s physical condition, they didn’t even recognize him. Job’s friends believed he must have done something very sinful for God to allow such tragedy. They reasoned that God would not permit a righteous person to suffer as Job did. The friends argued back and forth. They accused Job while he consistently justified himself and proclaimed his innocence.

Finally, Job asked God to explain his suffering. God responded by asking Job questions, such as where he was when God created the world and all of its complexities. Then Job realized the greatness of God and the foolishness of his questions. God also corrected Job’s friends about the way they treated him. After this, God restored Job and “gave him twice as much as before!” (Job 42:10), including seven more sons and three more daughters. Job lived a long and full life before he died.

The story of Job provides two important lessons for us today:

It is dangerous to hold uninformed opinions about God and others.

— God is not the author of death and sickness; Satan is. God allowed Satan to inflict Job, but He did not initiate it. God returned to Job double what he had lost, showing that God can be trusted even when things appear to be unfair. Job’s friends made assumptions about him. They thought he had done something to deserve what he experienced. Job was not a perfect person, but God described him as being “blameless.” Job was foolish for complaining to God about what had happened to him, but his friends were wrong to accuse him of sin and deserving sin’s consequences.

This world is a battleground between good and evil.

— Satan always tries to attack the true nature and character of God. He is the destroyer, but God is the restorer. Satan wants you to blame God for the sorrow and difficulty in the world. He wants you to believe God is not just, trustworthy, or good. Satan hopes you will look at the evil and tragedy in the world and curse God rather than worship Him. Satan was created to worship God, but he wanted to be worshipped instead. He will always try to convince us to believe lies about God.

God does good; Satan does evil. God is never the source of evil in the world. We also cannot assume those who have trouble are wicked or sinful and those who don’t are righteous. Yes, we live in a world that experiences the effects of sin and Satan, but God is good and can be trusted. By His goodness, He will right all wrongs. Job said,

“But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives, and he will stand upon the earth at last.
And after my body has decayed, yet in my body I will see God!
I will see him for myself.

Yes, I will see him with my own eyes.
I am overwhelmed at the thought!” (Job 19:25–27).

1. What tragedy did Job experience in Job 1:18–19? Do you know anyone who has had this experience in their own life? Why is this kind of heart-break so difficult for people to bear?

2. What can you learn about Satan from the story of Job? What can you learn about God?
3. Did Job sin as Satan predicted? What did Job do?
4. How can you respond to tragedies and difficulties in a way that pleases God?

3 THE FIRST PEOPLE

Adam and Eve

Satan could not get Job to disobey God, but this failed attempt did not stop him. Like a lion, the “great enemy” is always on the prowl, looking for people to destroy (1 Peter 5:8). Sadly, he has found many willing victims. The first two were Adam and Eve.

GENESIS 3

People are very special to God. Of all the things He made, humans were the last—the crown of His creation. The first two humans were Adam and Eve. God formed Adam from the dust of the earth and breathed life into him. Then He placed Adam in the beautiful Garden of Eden to tend and care for it. God decided it was not good for Adam to be alone; the man needed a companion. God caused Adam to fall into a deep sleep and then formed a woman from the man’s rib (Genesis 2:21–22). Adam named this woman Eve (Genesis 3:20).

Of all God’s creation, only Adam and Eve were made in His image. They were able to relate to God and each other on a higher level than any other created being. God placed the man and woman in a perfect environment. The Garden of Eden had no pain, sickness, or suffering. It was very different from our present world.

One day, Adam and Eve made a choice that changed everything—for the worse. God had placed many trees in the Garden of Eden and told Adam and Eve they could eat from all of them, with one important exception. God specifically told them not to eat from a single tree in the middle of Eden: the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. He said if they ate from it, they would die. Sadly, both the man and the woman disobeyed God and ate from the tree. This decision changed the course of all creation, including the entire human race.

Those first two humans made a terrible choice because they believed something false—the serpent’s lie. Later revealed to be Satan (Revelation 12:9; 20:2), the serpent had approached Eve and caused her to question God. Then he deceived her and convinced her that God was not good and could not be trusted. Adam also believed this lie. Next, the serpent persuaded the couple that if they ate from the forbidden tree, they could become Satan was unsuccessful in getting Job to turn away from God. Job is an example of a person who follows God and stays away from evil. However, not all people have been able to follow Job’s model. In fact, the very first humans did not. They disobeyed God, and we have paid for their mistakes ever since.

like God. If they could be like God, then why would they need Him? Adam and Eve believed they would become wise enough to make their own choices apart from God.

Those two lies have been the root causes of sin ever since. We don’t trust God or believe He is good, so we take matters into our own hands. We try to be the gods of our own lives and the lives of others.

Long ago, Satan rebelled against God. Then he convinced Adam and Eve to do the same. Although God created Satan as a special angel to serve and worship Him, Satan decided he wanted to be God. Pride entered his heart, and he no longer wanted to do things God’s way (Ezekiel 28:14–15). This pride and rebellion against God cost Satan everything. No wonder he tempted Adam and Eve to oppose God as well. He deceived them into believing God was not good and that doing things their own way would be better than following God’s way. However, they quickly found out how tragic it is to ignore God’s way.

The saddest part of this story is that people have been turning from God’s way ever since. We still have much to learn, and God wants to teach us these truths:

God is good.

- We know about His goodness from the very beginning of Genesis—a good God created good things. He does not try to keep anything good from us. God is always working for our best interests.

God’s commands are good.

- God gives us instructions for living because He wants to help us. Sometimes children view their parents’ instructions as unnecessary roadblocks, but good parents simply want to protect their children. God gives commands for the same reason. Sometimes we think we know better than God does. But we do not. When God’s children fail to do things God’s way, they get hurt and soon realize how wrong they were.

God loves us.

- God wants us to have a loving relationship with Him. But love cannot be forced—it always involves a choice. Adam and Eve made theirs.

They could eat from all the trees except one. They could choose to love and obey God or decide to disobey. Sadly, they chose disobedience. God could have forced them to obey, but that is not the way God works. We cannot really love Him without obeying Him. And most of us will not obey God if we do not believe He is good. Satan knew this from his own experience, so he persuaded Adam and Eve to disobey God, just as he had done. He will try to tempt you to do the same. Believe God is good. Believe God is love.

Pride is the disease. Humility is the cure.

— Pride is dangerous. It was for Adam and Eve, and it is for you too. It can destroy you (Proverbs 16:18). It will lead you to believe that your way is better than God's way. When we follow our way, we act as if we are gods. But we are not God. Unlike pride, humility will lift you up (1 Peter 5:6). When you love God and obey Him, you humble yourself by saying His way is better than your own. When you love and obey God, blessings follow.

1. The story of Adam and Eve's sin is also every person's story. How has it been your story?
2. What have been the results of Adam and Eve's sin? How can you see those results in the world today?
3. What other examples can you think of that show the dangers of pride?
4. Do you know someone whom you consider to be humble? How does that person show humility? How could you follow that person's example?
5. How did Jesus do things differently than Adam and Eve?

Bad choices did not end with Adam and Eve. God removed them from the perfect garden, and soon they had children. They named their first two children Cain and Abel. Before long, these sons followed in their parents' footsteps.

4 THE FIRST MURDER

Cain and Abel

Adam and Eve disobeyed God, so He made them leave the perfect garden He had given them to manage. Not long after, Adam and Eve began having children.

GENESIS 4:1-16

Adam and Eve's first son was Cain, and the second was Abel. As the brothers grew, they selected separate professions; Cain became a farmer while Abel chose to be a shepherd. Because Adam and Eve had sinned against God, they could not come into His presence. Therefore, God established a way for people to give sacrifices and offerings to honor Him and make payment for their sins. Cain and Abel both offered some of the product of their work to God. Cain brought some of his crops, and Abel brought the best parts of the firstborn (or firstfruits) of his animals.

God accepted Abel's offering, but He did not accept Cain's. The writer of Hebrews says Abel's offering was "more acceptable" (Hebrews 11:4). Cain became very angry when his offering was rejected, and of course, God saw this anger. When He asked Cain about it, though, Cain did not reply. Then God told Cain to beware of sin because it was so close—"crouching at the door, eager to control you" (Genesis 4:7). If Cain would follow the Lord and do what was right, God would bless him. But if Cain refused, sin would take over his life and bring destruction.

Cain made his choice. He was the first human born in the world, but he also became the first human to kill. One day in the field, while he thought God was not watching, Cain murdered his brother. Later, God asked him where Abel was. Cain tried to deflect God's question with another question: "Am I my brother's guardian?" (Genesis 4:9). However, God already knew the answer; He knew Cain had his brother's blood on his hands. As a result, God cursed Cain and banished him from the land, making Cain a wanderer for the rest of his life.

Humans had a very sad and tragic beginning, but it did not have to be that way. God gave Cain a choice: do what is right, or sin will take over your life. Cain thought God was unfair, so he took matters into his own hands and killed his brother. Jesus may have had Abel's murder in mind when He told His followers to be reconciled to each other before offering sacrifices (Matthew 5:23-24).

As a believer, you will sometimes feel as if life is unfair. Occasionally, you may think it is God's fault. Even if you believe you are right, ask God to show you if there is any sin in your life. Remember, no matter the situation, you can choose God's way to live, or you can choose your own path. Your own way will ultimately lead to destruction. Still, God is always good, and He wants to forgive you and bring you back to Him. Even though God punished Cain, He also protected him with a special mark so others would not kill him. God shows mercy and grace even when we don't deserve it.

The Bible does not remember Cain in a positive way. In three other verses, it reminds us not to act like him (Hebrews 11:4; 1 John 3:12; Jude 1). Even when life seems unfair or when your disobedience has made a mess of things, God wants the best for you. He always wants to give you mercy and grace.

1. Think of a time when you thought life was unfair. How did you respond? What could you have done differently?
2. Why did God accept Abel's offering but not Cain's? What was the difference between the two?
3. We should still honor God with our firstfruits and our offerings, but God made another way for us to deal with the problem of sin. What has He done? How would you tell someone else about it?

4. Can you remember a time when God showed grace and mercy to you, even though you did not deserve it?
5. If you have something in your life that is keeping you from following God's way, ask the Holy Spirit to show you what you need to change.

The death of Abel was a very high cost to pay for the disobedience of Adam, Eve, and Cain. Sadly, humans continued to turn from God's way to follow their own. Sin corrupted people's hearts so thoroughly that God decided to start over. Only one man "found favor with the LORD" (Genesis 6:8). His name was Noah.

5 THE GREAT RESCUE

Noah and the Flood

When left untended, weeds will soon overtake a beautiful garden. During times of drought and intense heat, many plants will die, but weeds seem to grow anyway. When they fully take over a garden, the only solution is to remove all the plants, till the soil, and begin again.

After Cain killed Abel, Adam and Eve had other children. People began to increase in number and inhabit the earth. However, they continued to disobey God. People became so bad that "everything they thought or imagined was consistently and totally evil" (Genesis 6:5). The effects of sin that began with Adam and Eve had spread to everyone. The world was so corrupt that God decided to make a fresh start.

GENESIS 6-8

Humanity's disobedience broke God's heart, but He did not become bitter. God is always good. He is full of mercy and grace, and He was unwilling to give up on the human race entirely. In such an evil world, one man "found favor with the LORD" (Genesis 6:8). His name was Noah. As God prepared to start over, He laid out a plan to rescue Noah and his family.

God told Noah He was going to send a flood that would destroy every living thing on the earth. He instructed Noah to make a large boat (or ark) to shelter Noah and his family from the water to come. The flood would cover the whole earth, but by His grace, God would protect Noah. So God's rescue operation began.

It took many years for God to build the boat, but He obeyed everything God told him to do. The Lord brought Noah one pair (male and female) of every kind of animal and seven pairs of every kind of bird to fill the earth after the flood. God also told Noah to bring seven pairs of the animals the Bible calls "clean" (Genesis 7:2-3) for food and sacrifices. As the rain was about to begin, God told Noah and his family to get inside the boat. When they were all safely inside, God closed the boat's door with His own hand and released the flood.

For 40 days and 40 nights, rain fell upon the earth, and water came up from the ground until the earth was completely under water. Even after the floodwaters began to recede, it took many months for the earth to become dry again. Noah, his family, and the animals finally left the boat over a year after the flood first began. Because Noah was faithful and obedient to God's commands, he and his family were saved, and through them, the human race was rescued as well.

Even in the very worst of situations, God is always working for our good. The Bible contains many stories of God using just one man or woman to make a fresh start. Although you are only one person, God can make that kind of fresh start for you as well.

As you think about your past experiences, do you wonder if God can change your life? Perhaps you have done many things you know are wrong. You may have experienced some terrible situations. Nevertheless, God alone is able to give you a fresh start. The rescue begins when you put your faith in Him. The apostle Paul says, "Anyone who belongs to Christ has become a new person. The old life is gone; a new life has begun!" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Baptism is a necessary picture of this fresh start for us. Just as the world was covered with water, we are placed under water as a sign that our old life is over. Much like the fresh start God made through Noah, we declare the new life we have in Jesus as we come out of the water. Paul says when we place our faith in Christ, it is as if we died with Him. Just as God rescued Jesus from death through the Resurrection, we also receive new life by the work of the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1–11).

God told Noah He would never again destroy the earth with a flood, and as a reminder of this promise, He put a rainbow in the sky (Genesis 9:13–16). God has given us a promise as well: whoever believes in Jesus will not perish but have eternal life (John 3:16). If Noah ever feared that the world would again be flooded, he could look to the rainbow and remember God's promise. Likewise, if you ever doubt God's love and forgiveness, remember He rescued you through the blood of Jesus. It is the promise of your salvation—your rescue.

God made a fresh start when He rescued Noah, and He will do the same for you. Regardless of your past, God has never given up on you. When you change your heart and mind and put your faith in Jesus, your old life comes to an end, and your new life begins in Him. Through Jesus, you can have a fresh start too.

1. Have you ever thought God had given up on you? What was that experience like?
2. How can you know what God really thinks about you?
3. Has God ever rescued you from destruction? How has He helped you remember that experience?
4. What is one thing God needs to rescue you from today? Ask Him for His help right now.
5. If someone told you, "God has given up on me," what would you say?

The human race had a fresh start, but it didn't last long. People soon fell back into old habits. They even built the Tower of Babel as a monument to their disobedience and pride.

6 A MONUMENT TO PRIDE

The Tower of Babel

During the days of Noah, people had become so wicked and cruel that God allowed a flood to cover the whole earth. Only Noah, his family, and the animals on the boat were saved. After this fresh start, you might think people would have learned to obey God. Sadly, they did not.

Adam and Eve sinned because they believed Satan's lies that God could not be trusted and they could be like God. Every time we sin against God, these two ideas are at the root of our disobedience. They were certainly the reasons the people of Babel rebelled against God. As a demonstration of their pride and disobedience, they built a tower in an attempt to reach heaven.

GENESIS 11:1–9

Some years after the great flood, there lived a man named Nimrod. He was "the greatest hunter in the world" (Genesis 10:9), and he founded the city of Babylonia. At that time, the people spoke one language. They decided to build a tower that reached into the sky, believing it would make them famous (Genesis 11:4). Rather than serving God, they wanted to lift up themselves.

God saw what they were doing and recognized what they could accomplish if the people worked together in pride. So He confused them by causing the people to speak in many different languages. As a result, they could no longer communicate with each other. God stopped their prideful plan and scattered them throughout the world.

Humanity was so evil in Noah's day that God saved only eight people from death. At the Tower of Babel, human wickedness showed itself again. Just two generations after Noah, these rebellious and prideful people tried to build a tower to reach heaven. The tower showed they did not want God to rule them. Instead, they wanted to rise to the place they believed God lived.

The people of Babel had the same pride that led Satan to try to be like God. Satan said,

"I will climb to the highest heavens and be like the Most High" (Isaiah 14:14).

Adam and Eve followed Satan's example, and so did the people of Babel. They tried to build the tower because they were motivated by the same rebellion as Satan, the originator of the sin of pride.

When Jesus does not control people's lives, they tend toward the sins of pride and self-will. Rather than submitting to God, they try to be like God so they can control their own destinies. They want to make their own decisions apart from God. People who continue to live in pride and rebellion against God suffer disastrous consequences for their decisions—their "tower" will ultimately fall.

Unlike the people at Babel, who wanted to exalt themselves, God came down to us! Jesus, the Son of God, was willing to humble Himself and become a man (Philippians 2:6–7). He lived in obedient submission to His Father. Jesus said He came to serve, not to be served (Matthew 20:28). He demonstrated His humility when He was even willing to wash His disciples' feet (John 13:1–17).

Pride, rebellion, and self-promotion may lead to temporary fame and fortune on earth, but they will not lift a person up in the Kingdom of God. Jesus taught that the way to greatness is through serving others. When His disciples argued about who would be the greatest among them, Jesus said, “Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant” (Matthew 20:26). There is no higher place than under the lordship of Jesus Christ.

“God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”

So humble yourselves under the mighty power of God, and at the right time he will lift you up in honor (1 Peter 5:5-6).

1. Have you ever let pride control your actions? What were the results?
2. In what ways can you practice humility as you follow Jesus?

3. Ask God what He wants to say to you about submission to His authority and to the authority of those He has placed over you.

The people of Babel did not trust God’s character. They did not believe in His goodness, nor would they submit to His authority. Instead, they tried to become like God, and the sin of pride took over the whole city. In the end, their pride caused their destruction. The story of Babel ends badly. The whole world is in confusion, and people have become enemies of each other and God. There is hope, though, because God still loves people. And through one special person, He will once again launch His rescue plan for humanity. This person is Abraham.

7 THE FATHER OF FAITH Abraham

The Bible begins with some tragic stories: Adam and Eve’s sin, Cain’s murder of Abel, and Noah and the great Flood. Although there are terrible parts to each of these stories, God was always working for the good of humanity. Adam and Eve disobeyed God and were punished, but God also gave them protection, food, and children. Cain killed his brother, but God put a special mark of protection on Cain. The world was evil, and God chose to destroy it with a flood, but He rescued Noah and his family, thereby saving humanity. Yes, even in the bad times, God was always working for good.

GENESIS 12; 15-16; 18:1-15; 21:1-7; 22

The story of the Tower of Babel seems to disrupt this pattern. Because of their pride, the people built a great tower to lift themselves up to the level of God. God then brought judgment, confusing their language and scattering them all over the earth. It might look like this story ends without God doing anything good. But that interpretation would be a mistake. God answered the story of Babel in a most wonderful way: He chose Abraham.

Through Abraham, God also chose a people—a nation—through whom He would show His true self to the whole world. God told Abraham to leave his home and travel to a place God would show him. Then God promised, “I will make you into a great nation. I will bless you and make you famous, and you will be a blessing to others” (Genesis 12:2). From this one man, God would build a special and blessed nation that would then bless all other nations.

Abraham obeyed God and left his home. However, Abraham knew he would need more than land to become a great nation—he would need a son. One day, God made another promise to him. He told Abraham, “Look up into the sky and count the stars if you can. That’s how many descendants you will have!” (Genesis 15:5). At the time, Abraham had no children, but he believed God would do as He promised.

Many years passed, but Abraham and his wife, Sarah, still had no children. So Sarah told Abraham to have a baby with her servant, Hagar. Hagar became pregnant and gave birth to a son named Ishmael. Abraham and Sarah thought God would keep His promises through Ishmael, but that was never God’s plan. Abraham and Sarah grew older still and were past the age for most people to have children. God spoke to Abraham again and reminded him of the promise that he and Sarah would have a son. This time, Abraham laughed, and when Sarah heard about God’s promise, she laughed too.

Not long after, a miracle happened: Sarah gave birth to the promised son. They named him Isaac, which means ‘laughter.’ Abraham and Sarah had laughed when they heard they would have a son in their old age, but when Isaac was born, God had the last laugh! He promised to bless Abraham, and He also said many nations would be blessed through him.

This blessing began with Isaac. One day, however, it looked as if God had changed His mind. As a test of faith, God told Abraham to sacrifice Isaac as a burnt offering. Abraham obeyed God and took his son to the mountain where God had instructed him to go. When they arrived, Abraham built an altar and placed Isaac on it. Just as the father was about to kill his son, God’s angel called out to him, saying, “Do not hurt him in any way, for now I know that you truly fear God” (Genesis 22:12).

At that moment, Abraham saw a ram caught by his horns in a bush. He offered the ram to God in place of his son. God, and not Abraham, had provided a sacrifice. Sometimes people read this story through modern eyes and forget that the nations surrounding Abraham often killed their children as offerings to their gods. Abraham's God had the power and right to demand the life of his son, but God only wanted to test the father's faith. Abraham served a good God.

This event paints the picture of God's willingness to sacrifice Jesus in our place. Like the ram He provided for Abraham, God the Father sent His own Son into the world to die for our sins. What may be the most famous verse in the Bible tells us:

"For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

1. Have you ever felt like God had forgotten you or forgotten His promises to you? What did you do during that time? What will you do differently if it happens again?
2. Abraham obeyed God's directions and traveled to a land he had never seen before. He also made some mistakes, such as having a child with Hagar. Still, God blessed him. How has God blessed you even when you have not obeyed Him as you should?

3. How would you explain to someone that Jesus is our sacrifice?
4. How has God blessed all the nations of the world through Abraham?
5. God still loves the nation of Israel, although Gentile believers have been brought into that family as well. Take a moment now to pray for peace and salvation for God's people, Israel.

---

Abraham became the father of Isaac and, eventually, of the nation of Israel. Through this nation, God sent Jesus into the world. When John the Baptist saw Jesus, he exclaimed, "Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" (John 1:29). Through Abraham and then through Jesus, all the nations of the earth were blessed.

8 THE PROMISED SON

Isaac

Although Abraham and Sarah doubted God's promise, God fulfilled it by giving them a son named Isaac. Isaac means 'laughter.' Abraham and Sarah laughed for two reasons. They first laughed because they did not believe they would have a son in their old age, and then they laughed for joy at God's gift of Isaac. God made the same promises to Isaac that He made to his father, Abraham.

GENESIS 21:1-7; 22; 24; 26:25

When Abraham was very old, he received the fulfillment of the Lord's promise: his son Isaac. When Isaac was still a child, God tested Abraham's faith by telling the father to sacrifice his son as a burnt offering. Abraham was willing to obey, but just as he was about to kill Isaac, the Lord told him to stop. Abraham had proven he was willing to obey God, no matter the cost. God provided a ram, which Abraham offered as a sacrifice in Isaac's place.

When Isaac became a man, he married a woman named Rebekah. He loved her very much (Genesis 24:67). After Abraham's death, God made the same promises to Isaac that He made to Isaac's father: "I will give all these lands to you and your descendants. . . . I will cause your descendants to be as numerous as the stars of the sky" (Genesis 26:3-4). The Lord said this would happen not because of anything Isaac had done but because of Abraham's obedience.

Isaac was God's promised son to Abraham. His birth was nothing short of miraculous. All the promises God made to Abraham continued through Isaac and his descendants. Isaac had two sons, Esau and Jacob. Jacob eventually had 12 sons of his own, and from these sons came the 12 tribes of Israel.

- In many ways, Isaac's life points to Jesus:
- Both came through a miraculous birth.
  - Many people received the promises of God because of them (2 Corinthians 1:20).
  - Both were willing to lay down their lives: Isaac submitted to Abraham, and Jesus submitted to His Father's will by dying on the cross for us.

Isaac's life also demonstrates the blessings of sonship. He received the promises God made to his father, Abraham, and he enjoyed a blessed life. All of this happened because of whose son he was. In the same way, we share in the blessings of the Father because He has called us His sons. We were once separated from God, but now through faith in Jesus Christ, we have become His adopted children. God is now our Father (Romans 8:15-16). Like Isaac, every Christian has experienced a miraculous birth (John 3:3-5). As a result, we also have become heirs of God (Romans 8:17). And we receive all the promises God made to Abraham (Galatians 3:29).

Have you had a difficult past? Perhaps your family was broken. No matter what, God wants to adopt you and give you a fresh start. When you put your faith in Christ, you become God's child. The apostle John wrote, "See how very much our Father loves us, for he calls us his children, and that is what we are!" (1 John 3:1). As Isaac was, you too are a blessed child of your Father!

1. What does it mean to you to know you are God's child?
2. What inheritance have you received from other believers who have gone before you?
3. Have you ever had difficulty believing God loves you and wants you to be His child? Why or why not?

4. What does it mean to you when you hear that Abraham is also your father?

Isaac's wife, Rebecca, gave birth to twin boys. God stated that the older son, Esau, would serve the younger. In time, the younger son would have 12 sons of his own who would then become the 12 tribes of Israel. The younger son's name was Jacob.

9 A CHANGED MAN

Jacob/Israel

God gave Isaac two sons. They both became the fathers of great nations. A conflict developed between the two sons while they were still in their mother's womb, and it has lasted even until today.

GENESIS 25:19–34; 27–33; 35:1–15

When Isaac and Rebekah's twin sons were born, the younger son, Jacob, was holding onto the heel of his older brother, Esau. As they grew, Esau loved being outdoors and became a skilled hunter. Jacob had a quieter temperament and preferred staying at home (Genesis 25:27). Isaac favored Esau, but Rebekah preferred Jacob.

One day, Esau returned from hunting while Jacob was cooking some stew. Esau was very hungry and asked his brother for some of the food. Jacob told Esau he would give him some stew in exchange for Esau's rights as the firstborn son. In his great hunger, Esau agreed to do what Jacob wanted.

Nearing the end of his life, Isaac told Esau he wanted to bless him before dying. Rebekah overheard this conversation and came up with a plan to have her husband bless Jacob instead. Due to his old age, Isaac could not see well. He could only distinguish his sons by touch—Esau was very hairy while Jacob had smooth skin. Rebekah covered Jacob's arms and neck with goat skin so he would feel like Esau when Isaac touched him.

Rebekah's plan worked. Isaac mistook Jacob for Esau and gave him the blessing that belonged to the firstborn son. When Esau discovered what happened, he was furious; he plotted to kill Jacob after their father's death. When Rebekah learned of Esau's plan, she sent Jacob away.

On the run, Jacob went to Haran, where his uncle Laban lived. Upon arrival, Jacob fell in love with Laban's younger daughter, Rachel. Jacob agreed to work seven years for Laban to gain the privilege of marrying her. After the seven years, however, Laban tricked Jacob into marrying Rachel's older sister, Leah. Jacob was angry with his uncle but agreed to work another seven years for Laban in exchange for marrying Rachel.

God blessed and multiplied everything Jacob owned. This blessing angered his uncle, however. Aware of this jealousy, Jacob began to feel it was time to get away from Laban and return to his homeland. On the journey back, Jacob worried about what his brother, Esau, might do to him. The night before he was to reunite with Esau, Jacob was alone in his camp when "a man came and wrestled with him until the dawn began to break" (Genesis 32:24). This "man" gave Jacob a new name—Israel. To Israel's great surprise, the reunion with his brother was peaceful, and Esau forgave him.

During his lifetime, Jacob had 12 sons who became the founders of the 12 tribes of Israel. God promised him the same blessings He had promised to Jacob's father, Isaac, and his grandfather Abraham (Genesis 28:12–14). Jacob blessed all his sons before he died at an old age.

Jacob received God's blessings and promises by grace, not through his own efforts. Before the twin brothers were even born, the Lord had said the older (Esau) would serve the younger (Jacob). In spite of this promise, Jacob chose to take things into his own hands. He took his brother's firstborn rights in exchange for stew, and with the help of Rebekah, deceived Isaac and stole Esau's blessing. Jacob's trickery outraged Esau, forcing the younger brother to flee to his uncle's home. There Jacob met his match. Laban not only tricked Jacob into marrying Leah before giving him Rachel, but he also changed Jacob's wages 10 times (Genesis 31:41).

Jacob was humbled as he finally learned God was the source of his provision and blessing. While wrestling with the "man," Jacob had his hip pulled out of its socket, but his heart was corrected. His faith was strengthened too. His name was changed from Jacob, which means 'to take the place of another through force, scheming, or strategy,' to Israel, which means 'he struggles with God, and God prevails.'

God has called us to a life of faith and obedience. This does not include looking to gain an advantage over others for selfish reasons. As Jacob encountered God, he learned of God's plan to bless him. However, God had to humble him before he could fully experience those blessings. God has a plan for your life. He may have to humble you to reveal it, but He will give it to you by grace.

1. What blessings has God promised you? Have you done things that help or prevent you from receiving them?
2. Have you experienced “wrestling” with God? If so, what was that experience like?
3. Have you ever felt God was slow in keeping His promises to you? How can someone hold onto faith during these times?

Jacob had 12 sons. He loved them all, but he had a special relationship with one of them—Joseph. Joseph was the first son of Jacob’s wife Rachel. Jacob had a special love for Rachel (Genesis 29:18, 30), which may have influenced his special love for Joseph. Jacob’s other sons noticed the attention and affection their father had for Joseph. Ultimately, jealousy grew in their hearts, and they wanted to destroy him.

10 THE FAITHFUL DREAMER

Joseph the Patriarch

The story goes that a man got lost trying to travel to a place he had never been. Then he noticed another man who might be able to help him with directions. The lost traveler asked how to get to where he was going, and the other man replied, “If that’s where I was going, I sure wouldn’t start from here!”

The story of Joseph is very much like the one of the lost traveler. By the end of Genesis, Joseph is a powerful ruler in Egypt, but his story starts in a dramatically different way. At different points in his life, Joseph is kidnapped, sold into slavery, and eventually imprisoned. Through all these trials, God remains faithful to him, and in the same way, God will remain faithful to you.

GENESIS 37; 39–47; 50

As a young man, Joseph had two dreams. Both revealed that God would one day place him in a position of high authority, and even his family would bow down to him. Joseph’s brothers found these dreams offensive, not only because Joseph was their brother, but also because he was the second youngest of Jacob’s sons. Who did Joseph think he was to tell his brothers they would bow to him? Their father had always favored Joseph, and these dreams only made the brothers more jealous and angry. So they plotted to get rid of the dreamer. At first, they planned to kill Joseph and blame his death on a wild animal attack. Then they decided it would be easier to sell him to slave traders. To cover up their actions, the brothers led Jacob to believe that a wild animal had killed his favorite son.

The slave traders took Joseph to Egypt and sold him to a powerful man named Potiphar. God blessed Joseph in all he did, and the young man’s hard work and success caught Potiphar’s attention. However, Joseph also caught the attention of his master’s wife. She was very attracted to Joseph and repeatedly propositioned him. Joseph refused her advances, saying, “How could I do such a wicked thing? It would be a great sin against God” (Genesis 39:9). Potiphar’s wife became angry, so she accused Joseph of trying to take advantage of her. Potiphar believed this lie and had Joseph thrown into prison.

Even while in prison, Joseph continued to experience God’s blessings. The prison warden was fond of Joseph and soon put him in charge of the other prisoners. One night, two of the prisoners had dreams. With God’s help, Joseph told these men what their dreams meant. One would be released from prison and allowed to resume his position working for Pharaoh (Egypt’s ruler). The other man, however, would be killed. Before the first man was released, Joseph asked him to speak to Pharaoh on his behalf. He asked him to tell the ruler that Joseph did not deserve to be in prison. However, the man “forgot all about Joseph, never giving him another thought” (Genesis 40:23).

Two years passed, and Joseph remained in prison. Then Pharaoh had two dreams that greatly disturbed him. He was desperate for someone to interpret the dreams, but no one could do so. Finally, the man who had been in prison with Joseph remembered that Joseph could interpret dreams. Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and God immediately gave him the interpretation of the dreams. Egypt would experience seven years of great harvests followed seven years of extreme famine. The famine would be so terrible that no one would remember the good years. Joseph recommended that Pharaoh should assign someone to begin storing food so the people of Egypt would not starve.

When the ruler heard Joseph’s words, he replied, “Clearly no one else is as intelligent or wise as you are. . . . I hereby put you in charge of the entire land of Egypt” (Genesis 41:39, 41). In an instant, Joseph went from being a lowly prisoner to the second in command over a nation. Only Pharaoh had more power than Joseph had.

Joseph’s predictions came true. After seven bountiful years, a famine hit Egypt and all the surrounding countries. Even Joseph’s family in Canaan suffered. The famine became so bad that Jacob sent his sons to Egypt to buy food. When they arrived, Joseph recognized them right away, but the brothers did not recognize him. As they bowed before him, Joseph remembered the dreams he had as a young man. God was fulfilling them at last!

The brothers took the food home, but when it ran out, they returned to Egypt once again. This time, Joseph revealed his identity to his brothers. They couldn't believe it! Joseph quickly reassured them, "Don't be angry with yourselves for selling me to this place. . . . God has sent me ahead of you to keep you and your families alive and to preserve many survivors" (Genesis 45:5, 7). The brothers returned home to tell their father the wonderful news that his son was alive. Jacob, his sons, and their entire family moved to Egypt, where Joseph took care of them.

After Jacob died at the old age of 147, the brothers feared Joseph might finally seek revenge. However, he continued to show them kindness:

"Don't be afraid of me. Am I God, that I can punish you? You intended to harm me, but God intended it all for good. He brought me to this position so I could save the lives of many people" (Genesis 50:19-20).

Joseph could have been angry and bitter with his brothers. He could have scolded them and said, "I told you so!" Instead, he showed them honor and love. Because Joseph maintained a humble heart, God was able to use him in a miraculous way to save his family, the nation of Egypt, and every person who bought food from Egypt during the famine.

The story of Joseph is about an amazingly good God who keeps His promises and rescues His people. God will bring about His plans in ways no one expects. You may have been placed in a humbling position, but God will have His way. Joseph did not become a ruler through traditional methods, but it was God's way, and it saved God's people.

You cannot control everything, but you can be faithful. Like Joseph, you can trust God and obey His commands in every situation. God did not make Joseph a ruler so he could shame his family. God lifted Joseph up so he could save his family.

God will give you dreams and promises to hold onto when life gets hard. Be faithful in everything you do and trust Him to bring it to pass. While Joseph was interpreting the dreams of others, God was working to fulfill the dream He gave Joseph! Be willing to serve others, and God will put you in places you never dreamed possible.

1. What would you have thought if Joseph told you about his dreams? How can you have confidence in God's promises even when others don't understand?
2. Have you ever experienced rejection or persecution even when you knew you were doing the right thing? If so, how did you respond?
3. How would you tell someone who is going through a difficult time that God has a plan and is in control?
4. When we experience difficult times, we often cannot see the bigger picture. Thinking about your own life, in what ways can you see that God has been working all along?

When Joseph died, things changed over time. Several centuries years later, Egypt had a new ruler who did not know anything about Joseph or how he had saved everyone from starvation. This ruler was afraid of the people of Israel, so he forced them to be slaves.

Through Joseph, God saved the lives of Jacob and his sons. Now through Moses, God was about to bring their descendants—the Israelites—together as His chosen nation, free them from bondage, and lead them to the Promised Land.

11 THE GREAT LIBERATOR

Moses

Several centuries after his death, no one in Egypt seemed to remember who Joseph was anymore (Exodus 1:8). Even worse, the people of Israel had become slaves. However, God used their years in bondage to grow their numbers (Exodus 1:11-14). The time came when the Israelites grew tired of their oppression, and they cried out to God to save them. God heard their plea and sent a man to deliver them. This man was a unique individual—Hebrew by birth but raised as an Egyptian. His name was Moses.

ordered the midwives to kill every Hebrew baby boy at birth. However, two brave Hebrew midwives refused to obey this evil command (Exodus 1:15-17). When one Hebrew woman, Jochebed, had a baby boy, she hid him from the Egyptians for as long as she could. After three months, hiding was no longer an option. Jochebed waterproofed a basket of papyrus leaves, placed her baby boy inside, and set him afloat on the Nile River.

Pharaoh's daughter often came to the river to bathe, and she soon found the basket. When she saw the crying baby boy inside, she had compassion on him. The princess knew this was a Hebrew baby, but she decided to adopt him as her own son. However, she needed someone to care for

EXODUS 2-4; 14:15-31; NUMBERS 12:6-8

Pharaoh became concerned with the growing number of Israelites (also called Hebrews), so he him until he could eat solid food. The baby's older sister had been watching from a distance, and she offered to help the princess find a nursing Hebrew mother. The princess agreed, and the sister knew just the right person: Jochebed! This remarkable Hebrew mother not only saved her son from imminent death, but she also had the blessing of rearing and teaching him for several years. Then she took her son to the palace, where the princess officially adopted him and named him Moses (Exodus 2:1-10).

While visiting his people many years later, Moses noticed an Egyptian beating a Hebrew slave. Enraged, Moses killed the Egyptian and hid the body. He thought he could keep his actions a secret. The next day, Moses saw two Hebrews fighting with each other, and he tried to break up the fight. He was very alarmed when one man retorted, "Are you going to kill me as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?" (Exodus 2:14). Even Pharaoh knew about the murder. Fearing for his life, Moses fled to the land of Midian and became a shepherd there (Exodus 2:11-15).

As he was herding sheep one day, Moses saw a bush on fire. This alone would have been a strange sight, but it became even stranger when he realized the bush wasn't burning up. How was this possible? As Moses came toward the bush for a closer inspection, God suddenly spoke to him from it. God told Moses to return to Egypt and to tell Pharaoh to set the Hebrew people free so they could worship God at the mountain. After many objections and excuses, Moses decided to obey God (Exodus 3:1-4:17).

Moses approached Pharaoh, but Egypt's ruler refused to free the Hebrews. He said, "I don't know the LORD, and I will not let Israel go" (Exodus 5:2). As a result, God sent nine terrible signs of His power to the land of Egypt. The Nile River turned into blood. Swarming animals, disease, and hail plagued the land. For three days, there was total darkness. God showed His favor to the Hebrews, though, and protected their community from these horrors. Still, Pharaoh refused to obey God. Then God delivered the tenth and final sign: the death of the firstborn son. Every Egyptian family felt this terrible loss, but God passed over the sons of the Hebrews, once again proving that Israel was His chosen people. With his land and his people devastated, Pharaoh relented and set the people of God free (Exodus 5-13).

Shortly after the Hebrews left, Pharaoh hardened his heart once again. He said, "What have we done, letting all those Israelite slaves get away?" (Exodus 14:5). Gathering his mighty army, Pharaoh chased after the people and soon caught up with them, trapping them against the Red Sea. Then God proved His power yet again by splitting the water and creating a dry path for the Hebrews to walk on to the other side. Pharaoh and his army tried to follow them, but God brought the water crashing down, and all the Egyptians drowned. God saved the Israelites, just as He promised (Exodus 14:5-15:20).

So God led Moses, Moses led the people, and God provided for their needs. God took them to Mount Sinai, where He gave Moses the Law for the people to follow. Once again, however, sin entered the picture. The people did not trust God to keep His promises, and they often tried to take matters into their own hands. They angered and disappointed Moses with their constant complaining and disobedience. While the people were at Kadesh, Moses became so frustrated that he disobeyed God's command. God wanted to give the people water to drink, so He told Moses to speak to a large rock, and water would come out of it. Instead, though, Moses hit the rock twice with his walking stick. God still provided water for the people, but because of his disobedience, Moses was not allowed to enter the Promised Land (Numbers 20:8-12).

God called Moses to deliver His people from slavery. However, they constantly tried to do things their own way, and even Moses failed to obey God on at least one occasion. The Israelites spent 40 years wandering in the wilderness until a new generation was ready to enter the Promised Land. Only two of the original Hebrews who came out of Egypt were allowed to enter as well.

Moses' life can teach us many lessons as we answer God's call:

Let God prepare you.

- Like Moses, you may sense God is calling you to do great things for Him. However, you must be ready to do them His way. God wants to do a work in you before He works through you. Let Him work.

God's timing may be different from yours.

- Moses was 40 years old when he ran away from Egypt, and then he spent 40 more years herding sheep. When he returned to Egypt, Moses was 80 years old. You are never too old to follow God's plan.

The more you receive, the more God expects your obedience.

- Moses was a great man of God, but he never entered the Promised Land because he disobeyed God's direct command. Moses knew God intimately, and he had a unique calling. God has also given you a special calling, but He requires your obedience.

Trust that God will provide.

- Moses learned that God would protect and care for His people, just as He had spared Moses from death as a baby. Moses saw the Israelites' suffering and liberated them from slavery by the power of God. In the wilderness, God miraculously provided food, water, and daily guidance.

God is present.

- God met Moses at the burning bush and on Mount Sinai. His glory was even seen on Moses' face (Exodus 34:35). God was with His people in a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. His presence was with them in the Tabernacle. God wants to be with us.

God wants to protect, provide for, and be present with you. He will if you let Him. Moses didn't want to go anywhere unless God went with him, and truly, that is the only way to live.

1. Do you believe God is calling you to some type of service or ministry? If so, what is it? What are you doing now to prepare for it?
2. How do you remain patient while you wait on God to work in an area of your life?
3. What is one way you know God has provided for you in the past? How do you need Him to provide for you in the present?

4. How do you know God is present in your life?
5. How would you encourage others to believe God is present in their lives?

When God delivered the people of Israel from Egypt, it was a rescue mission. He freed them from captivity like a rescuer frees hostages. However, God did not simply want to free them; He wanted to make them His own. But for the Israelites to be God's people, they would have to follow His ways, obey His commands, and listen to His voice. And God spoke very clearly. He told them exactly how they were to live and obey Him. On Mount Sinai, God even wrote down the Law with His own finger and gave it to Moses.

12 THE LAWGIVER

The Ten Commandments

When God freed the Israelites from slavery and delivered them from Pharaoh's rule, He became their King. God didn't simply call His people out of Egypt; He called them to Himself (Exodus 19:4). He was their God, and they were His people. However, this would require Israel to walk in His ways, not in those of Egypt or any other nation.

EXODUS 20:1-17

At Mount Sinai, God gave Moses all the laws He wanted His people to follow. This covenant would separate the Israelites from every other nation and clearly mark them as the people of God. Foundational to these laws were the Ten Commandments, which God Himself wrote on two stone tablets (Exodus 31:18).

God gave laws by which His people could enjoy His provision and protection. He did not give them rules simply to make their lives difficult. God is good, and He wants His people to experience His goodness. Moses said, "Listen closely, Israel, and be careful to obey. Then all will go well with you" (Deuteronomy 6:3). God always wanted everything to go well with His people.

The Ten Commandments showed Israel how to respect God and treat others. The first four addressed the people's relationship with God. They were to serve and honor only Him. This mindset was very different from that of the Egyptians, who worshipped thousands of different gods. The Israelites had lived in Egypt for centuries, so it was imperative to begin their new life by establishing faithfulness to the one true God.

The last six commandments spoke about how the people were to treat others. They were to honor their parents. They were not to murder, commit adultery, steal, lie, or selfishly desire what others had. If Israel obeyed God's laws, they would know God's blessings.

Many times, the people of Israel failed to keep their covenant with God. Instead, they followed the practices of other nations, even though this disobedience often resulted in suffering. After God sent many warnings to His people through men called prophets, He removed the Israelites from the Promised Land, just as He had removed the nations that were there before them. Some of God's people were taken to Assyria. Later, others were taken to Babylon. Eventually, God brought the Israelites back to the land He had promised their ancestors, but their lives would have been much better if they had simply kept God's laws from the beginning.

God gave His people the Ten Commandments to teach them about His goodness. He had no desire to make their lives miserable. God loves us and really does know what is best for us. His desire is for you to be close to Him and to live in harmony with others.

Jesus said all of God's commandments could be summed up in two actions: love God and love others. When asked which commandment was the most important, Jesus answered, "You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind" (Matthew 22:37). He went on to say that a second commandment was just as important as the first: "Love your neighbor as yourself" (Matthew 22:39). The apostle John understood:

If someone says, "I love God," but hates a fellow believer, that person is a liar; for if we don't love people we can see, how can we love God, whom we cannot see? (1 John 4:20).

When we fail to obey God's commandments, we prevent ourselves from experiencing all His blessings. God freed His people from bondage in Egypt, but they continuously disobeyed His laws and found themselves yet again under the control of other nations. God has also called us to obey Him, and like the Israelites, we often fail to live according to His standards. James says if we violate one commandment, we are guilty of breaking them all (James 2:10).

When Adam and Eve disobeyed God, sin entered the world and made it impossible for anyone to keep all God's laws all the time. Our only hope is in God's Son, Jesus Christ. On the cross, Jesus paid the price for all our disobedience. When you accept His sacrifice, God gives you a fresh start. He offers you a new nature—one that not only desires to but is also able to obey Him. This does not mean you will lead a perfect life. Rather, you will have the Holy Spirit to help you, and when you fail, you can turn away from your disobedience and receive God's forgiveness (1 John 1:9). God has all the resources you need to love Him and others, and He offers them to you today.

1. Before giving the Ten Commandments, God said, "I am the LORD your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt, the place of your slavery" (Exodus 20:2). How are the Ten Commandments still applicable to God's people today?

2. Read Exodus 20:3-17. How is the tenth commandment different from the first nine?
3. Which commandment do people have the most difficulty obeying today? Why do you think this is?
4. How do you think the commands to love God and love your neighbor relate to the Ten Commandments? Why did Jesus say the whole Law relates to these two commands?

Moses said to the people of Israel:

"Be careful to obey all the commands I am giving you today. Then you will live and multiply, and you will enter and occupy the land the LORD swore to give your ancestors. Remember how the LORD your God led you through the wilderness for these forty years, humbling you and testing you to prove your character, and to find out whether or not you would obey his commands" (Deuteronomy 8:1-2).

Sadly, the Israelites were not always careful to obey God's commands. However, they did prove their character—and it was not godly! Consequently, God did not allow the first generation out of Egypt to enter the Promised Land.

13 THE WILDERNESS GENERATION

The People of Israel

God has always loved His people, Israel. He loved them when they were slaves, so He delivered them. He loved them when the Egyptians pursued them, so He rescued them. He loved them when they wandered in the wilderness, so He led them. However, the children of Israel did not always appreciate God's deliverance, rescue, or leading. They didn't always love Him in return.

EXODUS 16; 32; NUMBERS 10-14

In the wilderness, the Israelites were free from Egyptian oppression. However, the wilderness did not bear fruit in the same way Egypt had. It was a barren, dry, and uninviting place. Nevertheless, God was with His people the entire way, always meeting their needs. He led them with a cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night. He miraculously provided food and water for them and even kept their shoes and clothing from wearing out!

After leaving Egypt, the people of Israel wandered in the wilderness for 40 years. This wandering was not because they did not know how to read a map, but rather because they continuously rebelled and complained against God. Normally, it would only take a few weeks to cross the Sinai desert on foot. The shortest route is only about 250 miles (400 km). But the people were ungrateful for God's divine provision, so they grumbled. They complained to Moses when they were thirsty. They complained about the manna, a special type of bread God provided, and asked for meat instead. They even claimed to miss their lives in Egypt—where they had been slaves!

While Moses was on the mountain receiving God's Law, the people became impatient. They rejected God and formed a golden calf to worship. Moses pleaded with the Lord to forgive the people, and thus began the pattern of the Israelites rebelling and Moses interceding for them. However, when the Israelites refused to enter the Promised Land because they feared the current inhabitants, God declared:

"They have all seen my glorious presence and the miraculous signs I performed both in Egypt and in the wilderness, but again and again they have tested me by refusing to listen to my voice. They will never even see the land I swore to give their ancestors" (Numbers 14:22-23).

God forced the Israelites to wander in the wilderness for 40 years until an entire generation died.

They were not allowed to enter the Promised Land. One whole generation experienced a false start.

After being slaves for over 400 years, why did the children of Israel act so unfaithfully once they were set free? After they saw the great signs in Egypt, the parting of the Red Sea, and the miraculous presence and provision of God, how could they have been so foolish and unthankful? With a land of blessings ahead of them, how could they have thought about going back to Egypt? Because of their disobedience, God did not let His people make a direct journey to the Promised Land. He knew they would need to be tested to see if their hearts were turned toward Him or not (Deuteronomy 8:2). Sadly, almost every person proved to be unfaithful and therefore did not get to experience God's blessings.

What lessons can we learn from the Israelites who fled Egypt?

Guard your heart.

— When times are tough, it is easy to forget the goodness of God and how He has blessed you. However, you always have a choice—either you can be thankful for all God has done or complain about what you do not yet have. Like the Israelites in the wilderness, your attitude will affect your future.

Draw close to the Lord.

— Rather than grumble, you can actually grow in your relationship with the Lord when you face difficulties. When everything is fine, you may be tempted to spend less time with Him. God warned His people not to forget about Him when they came into the Promised Land. He knew they could easily get caught up in all the blessings and forget the One who blesses (Deuteronomy 6:10-12). The apostle Paul instructs us to learn from the example of the people of Israel in the wilderness (1 Corinthians 10:1-11). When things aren't going as we would like, we must remember that we were slaves to sin and darkness before Jesus saved us. When you find yourself feeling spiritually dry and thirsty, draw near to God rather than complain. You can trust Him to meet your needs during difficult times. God has promised, "I will never fail you. I will never abandon you" (Hebrews 13:5).

Trust God with your future.

— When you get discouraged, don't fall into the same trap the children of Israel did. In the wilderness, they wanted the food from Egypt while forgetting they had been slaves. Satan wants to convince you not to trust God. He wants you to take your future into your own hands. But remember the pain and emptiness in your life before Jesus saved you. In the wilderness, an entire generation experienced a false start. God set them free, but they failed to receive the blessings He had in store for them. Trust God. He has a "Promised Land" of blessings in store for you.

1. Have you ever turned away from God when bad things happened to you? If so, how did God bring you back to Himself?
2. Have you ever forgotten God when things went well for you? If so, how did God get your attention?
3. What are some ways you can guard your heart and keep yourself from disobeying God?
4. Do you know someone who has turned away from God, either because things were going badly or well? If so, take time to pray for that person right now.

Not every Israelite rebelled against God. Two men remained faithful: Joshua and Caleb. God blessed Caleb with the land he and his descendants would possess (Number 13-14). And God chose Joshua to be the next leader of the people. Joshua would take them into the Promised Land.

14 GOD'S STEADFAST WARRIOR

Joshua

Born into slavery in Egypt, Joshua was nearly 40 years old when he and the people of Israel followed Moses to freedom. Joshua witnessed God's mighty power firsthand as the Red Sea parted for the Israelites and then came crashing back into place, destroying Pharaoh and the Egyptian army. While the people struggled to obey God during the wilderness years, Joshua remained steadfast in his faith and proved himself worthy of his calling as the next leader of Israel.

JOSHUA 1; 3; 6; 23-24

When an enemy force confronted the Israelites for the first time, Moses chose Joshua to lead the battle. As they faced off against the Amalekites, Joshua obeyed God and defeated the enemy with the Lord's power. Then God gave a message to Moses and a promise to Joshua: "I will erase the memory of Amalek from under heaven" (Exodus 17:14).

Not long after, Moses climbed Mount Sinai to receive God's laws on stone tablets. Joshua accompanied him part of the way but then camped in place for 40 days. Meanwhile, at the foot of the mountain, the people of Israel became impatient and wavered in their faith. Thinking their leader had met with some terrible fate, they fashioned a golden calf to worship—in clear disobedience to God’s commandment not to worship other gods or make any idols. Still, Joshua continued to wait, standing strong in his loyalty to God and Moses, God’s chosen leader.

Years later, after wandering through the desert, the people finally arrived at the edge of Canaan, the Promised Land. God told Moses to send 12 spies, one from each tribe, to scout out the land. Joshua was the chosen representative from his tribe. Ten spies brought back a discouraging and even frightening report. They said the enemy was far too powerful to be defeated. Only Joshua and Caleb spoke with confidence: “If the LORD is pleased with us, he will bring us safely into that land and give it to us” (Numbers 14:8). The people of Israel did not believe God would be faithful to His promise, and this angered the Lord. He had repeatedly shown them His power—the miraculous signs in Egypt, the parting of the Red Sea, and the provision of food and water on their journey—but they continued to doubt Him. As a result of their unbelief and disobedience, God declared that none of that generation of Israelites would enter the Promised Land. Only Joshua and Caleb would be exceptions because they put their trust in the Lord.

For over 40 years, Joshua served as Moses’ assistant and helped guide the people as they wandered in the wilderness. When Moses died, Joshua was appointed as the next leader of Israel. Then he received a second promise from God: “No one will be able to stand against you as long as you live. For I will be with you as I was with Moses. I will not fail you or abandon you. Be strong and courageous” (Joshua 1:5–6).

At 84 years old, Joshua led the new generation of Israelites across the Jordan River and into the land of their inheritance. They faced intense opposition from the people in the land—pagan nations who worshipped many false gods—but as Israel stayed faithful to the one true God, God proved Himself faithful to His promise. Over and over, He displayed His miraculous power, such as when the impenetrable walls of Jericho collapsed into dust (Joshua 6:20) and when the sun stood still during the battle with the Amorites (Joshua 10:12). By the time of Joshua’s death at the age of 110, he had led the Israelites to victory over 31 kings and their territories (Joshua 12:24).

Though originally called “Hoshea,” this famous warrior is remembered by the name Moses gave him: Joshua, which means ‘God is salvation.’ Though Moses led the people out of slavery in Egypt, it was Joshua who led them into the Promised Land. Centuries later, a young virgin gave this same name to her newborn Son, the fulfillment of another divine promise. Jesus (the English form of the translated name) is God’s promised Savior, not just to the people of Israel but to all people everywhere (Romans 1:16).

1. When have you acted in boldness and faith when other people doubted? How did it make you feel at the time?
2. What calling has God put on your life that gives you confidence?
3. God often wants us to wait and submit to other leaders before He puts us in positions of authority. What should someone do to remain patient while waiting?
4. How would you encourage someone to remain strong and courageous in following God, even when others around them do not obey the Lord?

God led His people to the land He had promised to give their ancestor Abraham. The land was not empty, though. The Israelites would have to take it from the current inhabitants by force. As they set out to conquer the city of Jericho, they found help from an unlikely source: a prostitute named Rahab.

15 JERICO’S HEROINE

Rahab

God delivered His people and brought them through the wilderness. Before they entered the Promised Land, Joshua sent out spies to learn about the enemies they would face. When they came to Jericho, they met a woman of the city who would help them. Her name was Rahab.

JOSHUA 2; 6:22–23

Rahab was an unexpected choice to help God’s people. She was a prostitute. However, when she heard how the God of the Israelites had delivered His people from Egypt, she knew His favor was with these spies. So Rahab agreed to hide the spies from the men in the city who wanted to harm them. At first, she hid the spies on the roof of her home. Then she helped them escape the city.

In return for Rahab’s help, the spies promised to protect her and her family when the Israelites returned to capture the city. They told her to tie a scarlet rope in the window to identify her home. Not long after, an Israelite army, led by the priests, returned to Jericho. By the Lord’s miraculous power, the walls fell when the people shouted, and the Israelites took the city. When they came to Rahab's home, they saw the scarlet rope and spared the lives of all who were inside.

Rahab had heard about how God had delivered the Israelites from Egypt. She recognized that God was with these people and would give her city into their hands. Rahab did not grow up among the Israelites and was not exposed to all the knowledge they had about the Lord. Still, she stepped out in faith on what she did know. The writer of Hebrews says, "It was by faith that Rahab the prostitute was not destroyed with the people in her city who refused to obey God. For she had given a friendly welcome to the spies" (Hebrews 11:31).

God's grace is deep and wide. The story of Rahab is a picture of that grace. She and her family may have been the least likely people in Jericho for God to spare. Rahab would not have been considered righteous or holy; she did not know the Law of Moses. The Lord spared her because of her faith. She believed God was with the Israelites. In the same way, when we place our faith in what Jesus did on the cross, we are saved! Like Rahab, we are not saved by our own knowledge or holiness but by the blood of Jesus. Maybe you would not expect God to spare a prostitute and destroy the rest of the city, but God doesn't always act as we would suppose. Many people criticized Jesus because He chose to spend time with people who were not holy. However, Jesus' response to those critics was, "I tell you the truth, corrupt tax collectors and sinners will get into the Kingdom of God before you do" (Matthew 21:31). It's also interesting to note that although He came to earth many centuries later, Jesus was a descendant of Rahab (Matthew 1:5).

No matter what you've done, Jesus can save you. No matter where you've been, Jesus can save you. No matter what other people think of you or how unworthy you feel about yourself, Jesus can and will save you if you put your faith in Him. His blood will cleanse you from all your sins, and He will give you a fresh start.

One more interesting fact about Rahab: she was the mother of Boaz, and she became Ruth's second mother-in-law (the first being Naomi). No wonder Boaz showed such compassion to Ruth. He learned it from his mother.

1. Have you ever felt unworthy? How does the story of Rahab speak to you about your value to God?
2. What could you say to people who believe they can never be saved because of their past?
3. The writer of Hebrews says Rahab was saved by her faith. How are people saved by faith today?
4. Rahab was part of God's plan to bring us Jesus. Why do you think God used a person like Rahab as part of His plan?

God told the Israelites to destroy all the inhabitants of Jericho, except for Rahab and her family. He also told them not to take anything of value. Everyone obeyed God, except for one man. His name was Achan, and his greed cost him everything.

16 DESTRUCTIVE GREED

Achan

After God freed the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, He guided them through the wilderness and brought them into the Promised Land. However, the land was not empty. Other people lived there, but God had promised to remove them. The first city God's people encountered was the walled fortress of Jericho. Miraculously, God broke down those walls and allowed Israel to take the city. However, He commanded the Israelites not to take any of the property from the city. All the people followed God's command, except for one man—Achan.

JOSHUA 7:1-26

Greed destroys. It often causes people to make terrible decisions. God was very serious about His command, and Achan's disobedience came at a high cost—the price tag was his life and the lives of his entire family. He also brought pain to all the Israelites. Because Achan disobeyed God, the Israelites could not defeat the next city. Then God revealed to Joshua the reason for the army's failure: one of the Israelites had disobeyed His command at Jericho. The next day, God showed Joshua the person who was guilty of not following His instructions: Achan. When asked why, Achan replied, "I saw a beautiful robe from Babylon, 200 silver coins, and a bar of gold weighing more than a pound. I wanted them so much that I took them" (Joshua 7:21).

When children are young, they do not yet know it is right to share their toys. No matter how many toys they have, they always want the toy in another child's hand. When they see it, they quickly express their dissatisfaction with the toy they have. Then they will fight over that one toy, no matter how many other toys are in the room. Greed has the same effect on us. It prevents us from enjoying what we have and makes us want more and more, even when it hurts others and us. Greed can cause us to do many harmful things.

Greed grows when we take our eyes off God's ways and all He has given us and focus on what we do not have. The writer of Proverbs tells us,

Guard your heart above all else, for it determines the course of your life
(Proverbs 4:23).

In Genesis, God gave Adam and Eve every tree in the Garden of Eden for food, except for one (Genesis 2:16–17). Then the serpent tempted them to see only that tree. They began to desire it, and then they ate from it. Because of their disobedience, Adam and Eve had to leave Eden. Their desire for what God hadn't given them created horrible results for the entire world. God also promised many blessings to the people of Israel in the Promised Land, but they would have to obey Him. He told them to offer everything in Jericho to Him (Joshua 6:17). Obeying God's command would honor Him and help them remember He was the source of their blessings.

Achan could have enjoyed God's blessings, but instead, he took for himself what was to be offered to God. He entered the Promised Land but lost everything. Achan's greed led to a false start. He was like those whom Jesus spoke about who hear the Word of God but allow the lure of wealth to prevent them from living a blessed and fruitful life (Matthew 13:22).

God wants to bless us, but we must never desire the blessings more than the One who gives them. Jesus said, "Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need" (Matthew 6:33). We don't have to live with constant worry. God has promised to provide for us. He knows what we need, and we can trust Him (Matthew 6:25).

Contentment and thankfulness will help you avoid the dangers of greed. Contentment will help you show gratitude for what God has given you rather than concerning yourself with what others have. Thankfulness will keep your eyes on God, the One who blesses you with all you need.

Greed brings misery because it is never satisfied. It brought great misery to Achan and his family. You can always dream of a bigger house, a better car, or more money. However, true joy comes from trusting God to provide for your needs, recognizing all He has already given you, and thanking Him for all His blessings.

1. Have you ever wanted something that was not yours? Maybe you even took something that did not belong to you. How did that experience make you feel?
2. How does generosity protect us from greed?
3. When you think about everything God has given you, how often do you thank Him for it? What can you do to remind yourself to tell God how grateful you are for what He has done?
4. Right now, take a few minutes to think about the good things you have. You may even want to make a list. Then tell God how thankful you are for His blessings to you.

Joshua and the Israelites continued to defeat their enemies and settle in the land of Canaan. Then they divided the land among the 12 tribes of Israel, and the people lived in peace. However, this time of peace did not last long.

17 A FEARLESS TRIO

Deborah, Barak, and Jael

Near the end of his life, Joshua called the people of Israel together and reminded them to follow all God's laws. He also warned them that disobedience would make life very difficult. However, the people did not remain faithful to God, and before long, their struggles with the nations around them resumed. Thus began an ongoing cycle:

- Israel serves the Lord.
- Israel falls into sin and idolatry.
- God allows Israel's enemies to oppress the people.
- The people cry out to the Lord for help.
- God raises up a military leader.
- The people are delivered.

The military leaders God raised up at that time were similar to local tribal chieftains or warlords. They would free the Israelites from oppression at the hands of the surrounding enemies. These leaders were called judges.

JUDGES 4–5

Because of their disobedience to God, the people of Israel suffered under the oppression of the Canaanites for 20 years. Finally, they cried out to God, and He sent Deborah to deliver them. She then sent for a man named Barak to gather an army for battle.

Deborah assured Barak that God would give the Israelite army victory over the enemy. Barak was willing to obey the Lord but under one condition—he would only go into battle if Deborah went with him. Deborah agreed to do so, but she told Barak he would receive none of the glory for the victory. Instead, it would go to a woman (Judges 4:9). At the time, Barak did not know that the woman Deborah spoke of was not herself. Rather, it was a woman named Jael.

With the Lord's help, Israel fought and defeated the armies of the Canaanites. Sisera, the commander of the Canaanite army, escaped and fled until he came upon Jael's tent. Jael went out to meet him and invited him inside. Sisera told Jael not to let anyone know he was there. Exhausted from his escape, he asked for a drink and then fell asleep. While Sisera slept, Jael took a tent peg and drove it through his head, killing him (Judges 4:21). Barak may have led the army of Israel into battle, but Jael was the one who killed the Canaanite commander. She received the credit for defeating Israel's enemy. Deborah and Barak wrote a song celebrating the victory and honoring Jael.

The story of Deborah, Barak, and Jael has valuable lessons for us:

Serve humbly.

— Deborah and Jael stand out as the heroines of this story, and Barak emerges as a man who humbled himself before the Lord and others. Barak knew he would not receive glory for the victory, even before the battle began. President Harry Truman once said, "It is amazing what you can accomplish if you do not care who gets the credit." As believers, we know God deserves the glory for our victories, and we willingly give honor to others for their good works.

God uses both men and women.

— Although the Bible contains numerous stories of great men like Abraham, Moses, and the apostle Paul, it also has many accounts of women doing great things for God. Deborah and Jael had more influence than Barak on Israel's victory. These characters are just two of the examples of God working through women to accomplish His will. God will continue working through women of faith, just as He works through men of faith.

Trust others to strengthen your faith.

— Barak had faith, but he was also a bit hesitant. He set conditions for his obedience: "I will go, but only if you go with me" (Judges 4:8). However, Deborah didn't give up on Barak. She went with him and gave him strength and support. God will often pair us with someone who will encourage us when our faith is weak. Many of God's people have hesitated. Even Moses was slow to obey the Lord's command to go to Egypt and deliver the Israelites. As a result, God sent Moses' brother, Aaron, with him. God will send people to help you follow Him. Pray for godly friends who will strengthen your faith.

1. Have you ever been willing to do a task and allow someone else to have the credit? Ask God to give you the humility to lift up other believers.
2. Who are some of the great women of faith you know about? What great things did they do for God?
3. What women in your life have had great faith? Thank God for their desire to follow Him.
4. Has someone in your life had faith for you even when yours was weak? Thank God for bringing that person into your life. If possible, tell that person how much their faith encouraged you.
5. Do you have godly friends who encourage you? If not, ask God to send the right people into your life.

After Deborah's service as a judge, the Israelites once again turned to sin. As a result, God allowed their enemies to harass, defeat, and oppress them. The Midianites devastated their land, destroyed their crops, and killed their cattle for many years. God did not forget about His people, though. He raised up another military leader to guide the Israelites during this time of conflict. His name was Gideon.

18 A WARRIOR FOR GOD

Gideon

The people of Israel once again turned away from God and suffered for their actions. When they changed their hearts and minds and came back to God, He raised up Gideon to lead and deliver them.

JUDGES 6–8

One day, the angel of the Lord appeared to Gideon, saying, "Mighty hero, the LORD is with you!" (Judges 6:12). Gideon asked how God could be with the Israelites when their enemies were oppressing them so badly. The angel replied that God was calling Gideon to deliver the people of Israel from their enemies.

Gideon was unsure, though, so he asked God to give him a sign as proof. Gideon wanted the fleece of a sheep to be wet with morning dew while the ground all around it was dry. The next morning, Gideon found exactly that. However, this sign still was not enough to convince him. Gideon then asked God to make the ground wet with dew but keep the fleece dry. Again, God did as Gideon had asked Him to do.

With this assurance from the Lord, Gideon gathered his army of 32,000 men. However, God told him there were too many soldiers. If all of those men went into battle, they would take the credit for God's victory over their enemies. So the Lord told Gideon to let anyone who felt afraid go home. Only 10,000 men remained.

God told Gideon 10,000 were still too many. So Gideon instructed the men to drink water from a spring. Only those who remained upright and alert, cupping water with their hands, were allowed to stay and fight. The army of 10,000 quickly dwindled to a mere 300. Gideon would now face an army of thousands with only 300 men!

That night, Gideon's small but fierce group blew rams' horns, held torches, and shouted, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!" (Judges 7:20). At this sight and sound, the enemies of Israel turned in terror and killed each other. Gideon's little army pursued those who fled from the battle and defeated them as well. God gave them the victory.

We can learn three important lessons from the story of Gideon:

We are often the cause of our own difficulties.

— Israel kept disobeying God, and bad things kept happening. Nevertheless, God is good. He will forgive us and reveal how to change our bad situations if we will reject sin and turn to Him. Through Gideon, the Lord miraculously delivered His people from harm, and He will do the same for us when we turn to Him for help.

God can handle any situation we face, no matter how difficult or impossible it may seem.

— God did not need a huge army to deliver the Israelites from their enemies. You do not need an entire battalion for God to rescue you either. God may not "need" us, but He wants to involve us. Like Gideon, the Lord requires you to do what He asks you to do. Obey Him, even if what He is asking you to do seems insignificant. If you are faithful to do your part, God will do what only He can do.

God can and will do amazing things through ordinary people who are willing to do what He calls them to do.

— There was nothing special about Gideon. He was hiding from his enemies when the angel of the Lord called him a hero! Gideon changed when the Spirit of the Lord came upon him (Judges 6:34). He became bold enough to confront a massive army with only 300 men. Before Gideon went into battle, the Lord encouraged him by allowing him to hear about a dream that one of his enemies had. The dream put fear into the hearts of his enemies, but it encouraged Gideon.

God will never ask you to do something without Him. He will lead you all along the way. If you want to see miracles in your life, do what God tells you to do and let Him do what only He can do. Then give God credit for the victory.

1. Have you ever suffered because you did not obey God? Did you realize at the time why you were experiencing such difficulties? What did you do in response?
2. Think of a time when God asked you to do something specific. Did you obey Him? What was the result?
3. Has God called you to do something special with your life? What has He called you to do?

After Gideon, eight more judges served Israel in the book of Judges. The cycle of sin and deliverance continued. The final judge in the book was Samson. This man was flawed in many ways, yet God still used him.

19 THE FLAWED HERO

Samson

A people called the Philistines had a long history with the Israelites. The two peoples were often in conflict with each other. The Bible first mentions the Philistines in a list of the nations that descended from Noah (Genesis 10:14). They were in contact with both Abraham and Isaac (Genesis 21:32; 26:1, 8). The Philistines were vicious warriors, and when the people of Israel left Egypt, God directed them away from the Philistines' land, even though traveling through it would have made the journey to the Promised Land much shorter (Exodus 13:17). By the time of the judges, the Philistines had built five cities close to the Israelites. They were deadly enemies to the people of Israel and sometimes defeated them. However, God raised up a judge who could hold back and even overpower the Philistines. His name was Samson.

JUDGES 13–16

God had a special plan for Samson. Before his mother became pregnant, an angel told her that she was going to have a son who would deliver the Israelites from their worst enemies, the Philistines (Judges 13:5). From the moment of his birth, he would belong to God. The son would be a Nazirite—he must never cut his hair, drink alcohol, or eat certain foods. When the son was born, his mother named him Samson.

God gave Samson great strength. He could defeat entire armies and kill wild animals with his bare hands. Even though he had been set apart for God since birth, Samson had many flaws. One was a wrong desire for ungodly, foreign women. Samson pursued and married a foreign woman who was a Philistine. He also spent time with other immoral women. In spite of these flaws, the Spirit of the Lord gave Samson supernatural strength to fight against the Philistines. Samson's bad decisions continually got him into trouble, but time after time, God graciously delivered him and punished Israel's enemies.

One day, though, Samson's actions went too far. He became involved with a Philistine woman named Delilah. The Philistines wanted to use Delilah as a spy to discover the source of Samson's great strength. At first, Samson refused to tell her. However, Delilah persistently asked him, and after much persuasion, Samson foolishly revealed the secret of his strength: God had told him not to cut his hair as a sign of his special dedication (Judges 13:5).

With Delilah's help, the Philistines cut Samson's hair while he slept. When he woke up, his strength was gone. Then the Philistines gouged out his eyes and took him away. The very people whom God had called Samson to defeat carried him away as a defeated prisoner. This could have been the end of Samson's story; however, God did not forget about him.

During a festival the Philistines held to praise their false gods for giving them victory over Samson, they allowed him to lean between the two main pillars in their temple. They wanted to publicly ridicule their captive. Just then, Samson asked the Lord to give him strength one last time. God heard his prayer, and as Samson pushed on the pillars, they gave way. The temple came crashing down, killing all the Philistines inside as well as Samson. At his death, Samson killed more of Israel's enemies than at any other time in his life.

God chooses imperfect people to accomplish His will. Since no one is perfect, He works through people with flaws. Though God graciously does this, it is no excuse for people to live carelessly or take God's grace lightly. Samson is a fitting illustration of God working through an imperfect person. He is also an example of someone who didn't value his calling the way he should have. Samson's poor moral choices often got him in trouble with Israel's enemies; however, God continued to fulfill His purposes through Samson.

At one terrible point in his life, Samson's carelessness finally caught up with him. He lost his sight, his freedom, and most importantly, God's special anointing on his life. Samson's foolishness brought him great harm. But God still loved Samson.

We do not have to be perfect people for God to work through us. His grace is greater than any of our flaws. However, we may forfeit God's anointing if we are careless with His calling or casual about His grace. Without God, we cannot do anything of eternal value. Thankfully, our God is good, and He gives us second, third, and fourth chances. In his weakened state, Samson called out to God and asked for His anointing one more time. God answered his prayer and gave Samson the power to defeat the Philistines for the final time.

When you fail to obey, God will give you an opportunity to change your heart and mind and return to Him. He wants to forgive you and give you a fresh start. Even so, do not be careless with God's calling or casual with your commitment. God will pick you up when you fall, but the fall itself can still be quite painful.

Yes, God calls imperfect people. In your weakness, He remains strong. In your failures, He remains faithful. God knows your heart and your shortcomings. If you fall and humbly return to Him, He will come to your rescue and lift you up again. God strengthened Samson one last time, and He will strengthen you as well. When you get off course, call out to Him. He will give you a fresh start.

1. Have you ever thought God could not use you because of mistakes in your past? How does the story of Samson relate to your life?
2. Have you had times of failure in your walk with God? How did God restore you? Even if you feel far from God, God wants to bring you back to Himself. Right now, ask God to show you what He wants you to do.
3. Do you know someone who has walked away from God? Pray for that person right now and ask God to send people who will help restore them. He may even send you!
4. Samson often got into trouble because he spent time with the wrong people. Are there people in your life who cause you to turn away from God? If so, ask the Lord to give you godly relationships. If you must continue those relationships, for whatever reason, ask God for wisdom and protection.

The period of the judges was a time of moral failure for the people of Israel. Because of their disobedience, God caused them to have conflicts with each other and wars with their enemies. Occasionally, however, the Israelites experienced relative peace with the people around them. The book of Ruth reflects one of those peaceful times. It tells the story of a woman from Moab and her connection to an Israelite family. The woman's name was Ruth.

20 THE LOYAL GENTILE WOMAN

Ruth

During the period of the judges, Israel had several times of prosperity and numerous times of hardship. There were also many times of war and some of peace. The story of Ruth happened during a time of peace, but it was also a time when the people suffered through a famine.

RUTH 1-4

The book of Ruth opens in the country of Moab (now part of modern-day Jordan). A Jewish woman named Naomi and her family fled there from Bethlehem because the famine in Judah was severe. While living in Moab, Naomi's sons married Moabite women. Then both sons, as well as Naomi's husband, died. With no blood relatives in Moab and news that food was once again available in Judah, Naomi decided to return to her home country. She advised her two widowed daughters-in-law, Orpah and Ruth, to stay in Moab. At first, they both told her they would follow her to Judah. Orpah changed her mind, but Ruth went back with Naomi.

When they arrived in Bethlehem, Ruth went into the fields to gather grain left behind by the harvesters. It just so happened that she picked a field owned by one of Naomi's relatives. His name was Boaz. Ruth caught the attention of Boaz, and he made sure she went home with plenty of grain. When Naomi learned about Boaz's kindness, she encouraged Ruth to continue working for him. Later, Naomi instructed her daughter-in-law to approach Boaz after he finished working at the threshing floor. As a relative of Naomi, and by extension Ruth, Boaz was a family redeemer; he had the right to rescue a relative who was in trouble, danger, or need. He could marry Ruth, and since he was a wealthy man, Naomi and Ruth would be redeemed from lives of poverty and given prosperity and blessing.

That night, Ruth obeyed Naomi's instructions and slept at Boaz's feet. When he saw her lying there, Boaz praised Ruth for being so loyal. He readily agreed to marry her if they could first resolve one issue—there was actually a closer relative who had the first right to marry Ruth. The next morning, Boaz spoke to that relative, but the man did not want to make Ruth his wife. Boaz then married Ruth, and together, they had a son.

At first glance, the book of Ruth may appear to be a simple, heartwarming love story, with a tragic beginning and a happy ending. However, the ending is actually the beginning of a much larger story:

Boaz and Ruth's son, Obed, was the grandfather of King David. David was a great king, and in his line of descendants is an even greater king: Jesus Christ, the Messiah (Matthew 1:1).

The story of Ruth teaches us some essential truths:

The Good News of Jesus is for everyone.

- This simple story about a Moabite woman shows God's great plan to save us. Ruth was not a Hebrew. God chose a woman from a foreign nation to be in the line of the Jewish Messiah, Jesus. God was already showing how He would call both Jews and non-Jews (Gentiles) to be part of His people. The book of Acts tells how the Good News about Jesus spread from the Jewish people to the entire world.

God loves ordinary people.

- Ruth was a common, ordinary person. She did not come from royalty or wealth. When she returned with Naomi to Bethlehem, she needed to pick up grain so they could eat. God rescued these women through a wealthy man named Boaz. This is a picture of God's love for us. The apostle Paul says that God even chooses the weak to shame the strong (1 Corinthians 1:27). God chose us to be His! Both the apostles Paul and John wrote about believers as the bride of Christ (Ephesians 5:31-32; Revelation 19:7; 21:9).

Ruth's loyalty and commitment to Naomi led to a fresh start for both of them. God will take those on the "outside" and bring them into His eternal plans and purposes. As you faithfully serve the Lord in everyday tasks and relationships, God will honor your life with eternal significance.

1. God called non-Jewish people to be part of His family. However, He never abandoned the Israelites. Begin making a habit today to pray for the people of Israel and the city of Jerusalem.
2. How have you seen God work in the lives of ordinary people? What would you say to someone who didn't feel important enough to be part of God's plan?
3. God will honor your loyalty and commitment. What can you do to show more loyalty to God and His people?
4. Have you ever lost hope and then God did something amazing to change your situation? How do you tell others about the amazing things God has done for you?

Boaz was the father of Obed.

Obed was the father of Jesse.

Jesse was the father of David (Ruth 4:21-22).

The era of the judges drew near to an end. Over time, kings would replace them. During the transition period, one man served as a bridge between the judges and Israel's first kings. His name was Samuel. He was a prophet, priest, and Israel's last judge.

21 THE LAST JUDGE

Samuel

Before Samuel's birth, his mother, Hannah, could not have any children. Just as in many other cultures, it was shameful for a married Jewish woman to be childless. The people assumed something was wrong with Hannah. This situation caused her much sorrow. While praying one day, Hannah promised God that if He gave her a son, she would dedicate the child back to Him. God heard her plea, and about a year later, Hannah's prayer was answered. She gave birth to a baby boy and named him Samuel.

1 SAMUEL 1; 3; 8-10; 12; 16

When Samuel could eat solid food, Hannah kept her promise to God; she left her son in the care of Eli, the priest. One night, God spoke to Samuel. He told the boy that He would one day remove Eli and his sons from serving as priests because Eli's sons did wicked things and their father failed to correct them. From that time on, people recognized God's special calling on Samuel to be a prophet. God's message came to pass, and Eli and his sons died. Then Samuel served as God's prophet-judge in Israel for many years.

When Samuel was an old man, the people of Israel asked him to appoint a king over them (1 Samuel 8:5). God wanted Israel to be different from all the other nations. He alone was to be their King. However, the people of Israel wanted to be like the other nations who had human kings to rule over them. Finally, Samuel told them God would grant their request, but he warned them of all the negative things a king would require. Rule by a human king would not have the benefits they thought. Even so, God's stern warning did not change their minds. Under God's leadership, Samuel anointed a man named Saul to be the first king of Israel. However, God later rejected Saul because of his disobedience. Then God told Samuel to anoint a young man named David as king.

Samuel remained God's faithful prophet throughout his life. He spoke the words God told him to speak and did whatever God commanded him to do. Before he was born, his mother had dedicated him to the Lord, and Samuel followed God until he died. The only fault the Bible mentions about this man is that he failed to raise his sons to serve the Lord as he had done (1 Samuel 8:3-5). Nevertheless, regarding his personal conduct, the Bible has nothing critical to say about Samuel. To the contrary, when Samuel challenged God's people to remember a time when he had ever cheated, stolen from, or oppressed any of them, not one person could recall a single instance. Samuel shows us it is possible to have a great start, faithful service to God, and a strong finish.

Even more, Samuel stayed faithful to the Lord in the midst of those who were not. He grew up among people who did not live godly lives. Samuel served as a prophet to people who often did not want to follow God's will. He even anointed a king who disobeyed the Lord. Still, Samuel was not negatively influenced by any of them. His life provides an example of a person who serves the Lord faithfully, even when those around him do not. In spite of your surroundings, you can both start and finish strong.

1. Hannah honored her commitment to God. What are some ways you can honor your commitments to God?
2. Eli and his sons did not follow God's ways, partly because they did not fulfill their responsibilities to each other. Even Samuel failed in the way he brought up his children. If you are a parent, how can you train your children to follow God? As a son or daughter, in what ways can you honor your parents no matter how old you are?
3. Even as we honor those who are rulers over us, how can we remind ourselves that God is our first priority and highest authority?
4. Do you know someone who has served God for a very long time? What can you learn from that person's experience that will help you follow God?

Samuel anointed two men to serve as kings of Israel: Saul and David. God chose both of them. Both of them sinned against God and others. However, one changed his heart and mind and returned to God while the other did not. King Saul is the one who did not.

22 THE FIRST KING

Saul

Many stories in the Bible do not end with “happily ever after.” That observation is certainly the case for Saul, the first king of Israel. Although he started well, Saul finished poorly. He provides an example of how not to follow God.

1 SAMUEL 9–10; 13:8–13; 15:10–23

For centuries, the people of Israel were different from any other nation—they did not have a human king because God Himself was supposed to be their king. Although they were better off without one, the Israelites eventually wanted a human king to rule over them. Although God warned them about the consequences, He finally let them have what they demanded.

God told the prophet-judge Samuel to anoint Saul as king over Israel. When the time came for Saul to be named king, he hid among some baggage. The Bible does not give a reason why he did this. Perhaps Saul was shy, fearful, or humble. No matter the reason, Saul did not show confidence in his new anointing as king. At first, it seemed as if he might be a good king who would serve the Lord and His people well. Over time, however, Saul proved otherwise. He disobeyed God and did so on more than one occasion.

During a time of war with the Philistines, the king waited seven days for Samuel to arrive and offer a burnt offering so Saul and the Israelite troops could go into battle. However, Samuel was late in arriving, and the troops began to scatter. So Saul took matters into his own hands and made the burnt offering himself. Just as he finished, Samuel arrived. The prophet told Saul that because he had disobeyed God’s command, God would remove him as king (1 Samuel 13:1–15).

Saul later disobeyed God a second time. Samuel told the king that God wanted him to destroy Israel’s enemy, the Amalekites, completely. Not a single person or animal was to be left alive. Instead, Saul altered the plan. He captured the king alive and spared some of the best animals. When Samuel confronted him about his disobedience, Saul tried to justify it by saying he was going to sacrifice the animals to the God. Samuel made it clear there was no excuse; obedience to God was more important than offering sacrifices (1 Samuel 15:22). Because of Saul’s disobedience, Samuel once again told him God had disqualified him as king.

When Saul learned of God’s decision, he could have humbly accepted it, recognizing that his actions had cost him the kingship. Instead, he allowed bitterness and envy to fill his heart. Saul became so jealous that he spent many years trying to kill David, the man God chose to replace him. There were moments when Saul came to his senses.

When he did, he repented of his wicked desires and actions. However, these times were short-lived, and he continued on a downward spiral until his death.

Saul’s story is tragic, but it can teach us these valuable lessons:

God is the One who elevates people.

— God chooses to put people in authority (Psalm 75:7). Saul became king because God chose him, not because Saul campaigned for it, fought for it, or took it by force. If you are in a position of authority, it is because God has placed you there. He can also remove you. When God places you in a position of authority, it is not up to you to protect it with your own strength. Obey God, and you will serve as long as He desires. Saul failed because he followed the will of the people, stopped serving the Lord, and believed it was up to him to hold onto his position. He started well but finished poorly.

Guard your heart against fear, bitterness, and jealousy.

— God may choose someone else to lead, or He may select someone to take your place. If either of these things happens, beware of fear, bitterness, and jealousy. You do not need to fear because God loves you and has a plan for your future. Take care in how you see and treat others. Rather than facing his own sin, Saul labeled David as his problem. Bitterness and jealousy caused Saul to follow a dangerous path, and they will lead you down one as well.

Saul started well, but his disobedience, self-will, and jealousy cost him everything. His mistakes serve as a warning for us today. If God has placed you in a position of authority, focus your attention on obeying Him rather than holding onto your position. Trust God to keep you where He’s placed you as long as He desires. Guard yourself against jealousy. As you keep your heart right, God will make sure you finish well.

Have you ever found yourself trusting more in human authority than God’s authority? Why do you think people have trouble trusting God to provide for their needs?

Think about a time when you decided to take matters into your own hands instead of waiting for God to act. What was the result?

When God places you in a position of authority, do you feel grateful, or do you feel worried that someone may try to take your place?

How do you react when you see God blessing other people? What should you do if you begin to feel bitter or jealous?

Saul was Israel's first king, but he is not remembered as their best king. He did not trust the Lord, and when confronted about his disobedience, he did not humble his heart. So God sent Samuel to anoint a new king: a young shepherd named David.

23 THE SHEPHERD SONGWRITER KING

David

Israel's first king, Saul, did not obey the Lord, so God removed him from power. God told the prophet Samuel to anoint a new king. Samuel went to the house of a man named Jesse because God had chosen one of this man's sons to rule over Israel. To everyone's surprise, God chose Jesse's youngest son, David.

1 SAMUEL 16-18; 24; 26; 2 SAMUEL 11-12;
1 KINGS 2:1-12

David was just a young shepherd when Samuel anointed him as the next king of Israel. Shepherds rarely become kings, but David was a special person. God described him as a man after His own heart (1 Samuel 13:14). Not long after, Israel once again went to war with the Philistines. A Philistine giant named Goliath challenged the entire army of Israel to a battle. No soldier was willing to fight him, though. Jesse told David to carry food to his brothers because they were encamped with Israel's army. When David saw Goliath, he believed God wanted him to fight and defeat the giant. David may have been the least likely Israelite to win against this enemy, but God gave him the victory. He killed Goliath with a single stone from a slingshot.

The people of Israel took notice of David's great victory, and they began to sing songs in his honor. King Saul became jealous and angry. Soon Saul's heart turned against David to the point that he attempted to kill him multiple times. For several years, Saul forced David to run and hide for fear of his life. Though the king wanted to kill David, David refused to harm the king, even when he had the chance to do so.

Many years passed after his anointing, but during this waiting period, God worked in David's life. Eventually, Saul died in battle, and David began to reign in Israel. God gave him the power to defeat many of Israel's enemies. God blessed Israel under David's rule.

One day, David made a terrible choice. He had a sexual relationship with Bathsheba, the wife of one of his best soldiers. She became pregnant from the encounter. Trying to cover his sin, David had Bathsheba's husband killed in battle. Many other brave soldiers also died that day because of David's order.

However, we cannot hide our sins from God. God sent the prophet Nathan to confront David. The king paid a high price for his sin: four of his sons died, including the child from the affair. David repented, but he could not escape the consequences of his actions.

David's life reveals these important truths, which encourage and challenge every believer:

God does not choose leaders based on outward appearances or accomplishments.

— God looks at the heart when He selects leaders. He looked at this young shepherd and saw someone who cared for his father's sheep in the way God wanted a king to watch over His people. David did not look the part, but he had the right heart in God's eyes. God can do great things through anyone with the right kind of heart.

We cannot cover our sins.

— David's sin and the efforts to hide his evil deed serve as a warning that no one is immune to temptation. Even God's anointed can fall. The more David tried to hide his sin, the more God revealed it. Repentance is always better than attempts to cover and hide. Only Jesus can cover our sins with His own righteousness (2 Corinthians 5:21).

God remembers His best, not our worst.

— David had sexual relations with another man's wife and then conspired to murder him. However, this king is best remembered as a "man after [God's] own heart." He fought and killed Goliath by faith. He wrote many of the psalms of the Bible out of his deep love for God. David led his people with a shepherd's heart. As a result, we do not remember this king as a womanizer; we think of him as a worshipper.

When confronted with his sin, David changed his heart and mind and returned to God. His willingness to repent gave him a fresh start. God does not call perfect people. He chooses those who have their hearts right with Him.

1. Have you ever tried to cover up your sin? What happened as a result?
2. When has God shown you mercy when you repented of sin?
3. Do you ever feel like your past prevents God from using you today? How does the life of David give you guidance for your future?

God is full of grace and mercy. After killing her husband, David married Bathsheba, the woman with whom he had sinned. Their first son died, but God chose their second son, Solomon, as Israel's next king. Before David died, he wanted to build a great temple as a place to worship God, but the Lord did not allow him to build it. However, God did not forget David, and He used his son Solomon to build the Temple.

24 THE WISE UNWISE KING

Solomon

After King David's death, one of his sons became the next king. Rather than seeking after wealth and power, the son prayed for wisdom to govern well. Because of his humble request, the Lord not only gave him wisdom but also great riches. Sadly, this king also made some very unwise decisions later in life, which hurt both himself and others. His name was Solomon.

1 KINGS 2:13-30; 3:3-28; 10:1-13; 11:1-13

King David sinned when he had sexual relations with Bathsheba, a woman who was not his wife. Then he had her husband killed to cover his sin. After that, David married Bathsheba, but the child they conceived died. Bathsheba and David later had another son named Solomon. In those days, kings had great power and could become extremely rich. At first, Solomon didn't seek power or wealth. God offered a gift to Solomon, and he chose wisdom. Because of that wisdom, Solomon grew to be the wisest and richest king on earth (1 Kings 10:23).

The Bible records an amazing event that shows Solomon's great wisdom. One day, two women in a dispute came to him with one baby. Both women claimed to be the child's mother. Only one could be telling the truth, and only these two women knew which one was. Then Solomon ordered one of his guards to cut the baby in half and give each woman a portion. One woman agreed to this compromise, but the real mother begged for the baby's life. Solomon knew this was the real mother, and he ordered the baby be given to her.

The Bible also tells how Solomon brought great wealth to himself and his kingdom. People traveled from all over the world to hear his wisdom and witness his wealth. Those who did were amazed to hear his unmatched wisdom and see all of his possessions (2 Chronicles 9:1-7).

Sadly, Solomon made some very unwise decisions later in his life. He made political alliances and married many women from foreign countries. Then he allowed his wives to bring their false gods (idols) with them. Eventually, Solomon's heart turned away from the Lord, and he worshipped the false gods as well (1 Kings 11:1-9).

King Solomon's life is an example of both a fresh start and a false start. Though David and Bathsheba's first son died, God blessed them with another. Solomon asked for wisdom, not wealth, and God gave it to him. The new king ruled well and brought both peace and prosperity to his people. However, when Solomon turned away from the Lord, his fresh start became a false start. At the end of his life, King Solomon was not the man nor the king he was at the start. The same king who recorded great pearls of wisdom in the book of Proverbs also wrote of despair and vanity in the book of Ecclesiastes.

King Solomon's example teaches us the importance of finishing well. His wisdom brought great blessing to himself and to others, but he did not heed God's warnings:

"The king must not take many wives for himself, because they will turn his heart away from the LORD. And he must not accumulate large amounts of wealth in silver and gold for himself" (Deuteronomy 17:17).

In spite of his great wisdom, Solomon became unwise as he ignored God's commands.

We should take great care to ensure our strong start does not end tragically. Those around us can influence us either positively or negatively. The apostle Paul warns, "Don't team up with those who are unbelievers" (2 Corinthians 6:14). Consequently, we must surround ourselves with other believers who will encourage us to stay faithful to the Lord. We show true wisdom by our obedience to the Word of God. We must also guard against allowing the blessings of God to become more important to us than the One who blessed us. We cannot allow our gratitude and humility to turn into pride and carelessness toward God's commands. No person or possession should ever turn our hearts away from the Lord.

1. Have you ever let someone or something turn you away from God and His Word? What happened to bring you back to God?
2. What are some of the things that pull people away from God today?
3. What would you say to a friend who has turned away from God because of success?

While God blessed King Solomon despite his disobedience, the people of Israel suffered later for his sins. When Solomon's son Rehoboam became king, 10 of the 12 tribes refused to accept his rule. Those tribes submitted to the rule of King Jeroboam while the southern two tribes remained loyal to King Rehoboam. Both the northern and southern kingdoms had several successive rulers. Some of the kings were faithful to the Lord, but most were not. In the north, King Ahab and his wife, Jezebel, were very wicked rulers. During their reign, God raised up a prophet named Elijah to speak God's words of truth and judgment to them.

25 THE COURAGEOUS PROPHET

Elijah

King Ahab and Queen Jezebel were wicked rulers of the northern kingdom of Israel. During their reign, God sent the brave prophet Elijah to confront them about their sins and the idol worship they encouraged among the people. Elijah worked miracles that let all the people know the difference between the idols they worshipped and the Living God of Israel.

1 KINGS 17-19; 2 KINGS 2:1-12

Elijah declared to King Ahab that there would be no rain in Israel for the next few years. It would only rain again after the prophet gave the word (1 Kings 17:1). During this time of drought, God miraculously provided for Elijah. The prophet drank water from a brook, and God sent ravens to bring him food twice a day.

When the brook dried up, God sent Elijah to a widow who only had enough food for one more meal for herself and her son. She expected they would die after that. Elijah told the widow to take her last bit of flour and make some bread for him first. Then she could make some for herself and her son. The woman did as the prophet commanded, and God miraculously multiplied her supply. She had enough for her and her son to eat for many days. Sometime later, the widow's son became ill and died. She asked if Elijah had come to her to point out her sin and take her son's life. When Elijah heard her say this, he laid on top of the boy and prayed for God to restore his life. The Lord heard his prayer, and the boy came back to life (1 Kings 17:22).

Ahab and Jezebel allowed and encouraged the people of Israel to worship the false god Baal. One day, Elijah challenged the prophets of Baal to meet him at Mount Carmel. He proposed that both they and he place sacrifices on two separate altars. The prophets of Baal would then call out to their god, asking him to burn up their sacrifice. Then Elijah would call out to the God of Israel, asking Him to do the same.

The followers of Baal cried out, but they received no answer. Then Elijah soaked his sacrifice in water and prayed to the Lord. Just then, fire came down from heaven and burned up not only the sacrifice but also the wood, the stones, and all the water. Elijah gave the order, and all the prophets of Baal were killed that day. Israel now knew the difference between false gods and the one true God.

When the wicked Queen Jezebel heard what happened, she threatened to kill Elijah. When he learned of her plan, the prophet fled into the wilderness. There, Elijah found a cave and cried out to the Lord. God spoke to him and told him to anoint (or choose at God's command) a man named Elisha to take his place.

Elijah's life did not end in death. God sent a chariot and horses of fire to take him to heaven as Elisha watched (2 Kings 2:11). The Lord took the great prophet from the earth in a way that was as miraculous as the life he had led. Elijah is one of only two men who ever lived and did not die. The other was Enoch (Genesis 5:21-24).

Although Elijah is one of the most unique characters in the Bible, every believer can learn valuable lessons from his example:

God provides for His people.

- During a severe drought, God miraculously met Elijah's needs—first through food delivered by ravens and water from a brook, followed by the little food a widow had in her home. God will also provide for your daily needs. Jesus told us not to worry about things like clothing and food. If you put God first in your life, He will meet your needs (Matthew 6:31-33).

Stand for God even when others don't.

- In Elijah's day, many people had turned away from God, including the king and queen. Even so, the prophet remained faithful, and God defended him. Jesus said God will also defend you and give you the words to say when others challenge you for taking a stand for God (Luke 12:11-12).

Be bold for God—you are not alone.

- Elijah was a courageous prophet, but there was a time when he ran from Queen Jezebel and became discouraged. He felt like he was the only person in the land who still served God. The Lord told him there were 7,000 others who had also remained faithful to the Lord (1 Kings 19:18). From time to time, you may feel like Elijah, wondering if anyone else wants to serve God. Be encouraged! You are never alone. No matter who may be against you, God is always with you. He will lead you to other believers who will both encourage you and stand with you.

Keep the faith.

— Elijah remained faithful to the Lord until the end. He never let the people around him turn him away from the Lord, even when they abandoned God. Not only did Elijah finish well, but he also passed on his ministry to another prophet. Like Elijah, God will help you both finish well and pass on your spiritual legacy to others.

1. How has God provided for you in the past? How do you know He will provide for you in the future?

2. When have you seen someone take a stand for God even when it was unpopular? How did the Lord protect and use that person?
3. Who is supporting you right now you as you follow God? Tell God you are thankful for that person in your life.
4. Who is an example for you as you follow the Lord? To whom do you want to leave a spiritual legacy?

Elijah lived an amazing life, full of miracles and intrigue, until God took him to heaven. Before he left, Elisha asked for a double portion of Elijah's spirit (2 Kings 2:9). God was good to Elisha and allowed him to experience the same miraculous power Elijah did and even more.

26 A MAN OF MIRACLES

Elisha

Elijah ran from Queen Jezebel because she wanted to have him killed. The prophet escaped to a cave where he cried out to the Lord. God answered Elijah and told him to choose a man by His command as his successor. When Elijah found Elisha plowing in a field, he threw his cloak on Elisha's shoulders as a sign that God had chosen him. Elisha sacrificed the animals with which he was plowing to the Lord, and then he followed Elijah.

1 KINGS 19:19–21; 2 KINGS 2; 4:1–6:23

The day came when Elisha discovered the Lord was going to take Elijah from the earth into heaven. Elijah told him to stay behind, but Elisha followed the older prophet. As they came to the Jordan River, Elisha asked Elijah for a double share of his spirit. When a fiery chariot took Elijah into heaven, Elisha took the cloak his mentor left behind and struck the waters of the Jordan River with it. The river divided, and Elisha walked across on dry land. Everyone recognized God was now with Elisha in the same way He had been with Elijah.

Miracles followed Elisha just as they had his predecessor:

- A widow who was desperately in debt came to Elisha for help. He told her to gather as many jars as she could and begin pouring into them the little oil she had remaining in a flask. The widow filled every container and sold the oil to pay her debt.
- Naaman, the army commander of one of Israel's enemies, came to Elisha because he had leprosy. Elisha told him to wash seven times in the Jordan River. At first, Naaman was angry about what the prophet told him to do, but Naaman's servant convinced him to obey Elisha's instructions. When he did, the leprosy was gone!

— One of the most amazing events in Elisha's life involved the Arameans, one of Israel's enemies. In an effort to capture Elisha, their army surrounded the city where the prophet was staying. Elisha prayed, and God blinded the eyes of every enemy soldier. Then the prophet led them before the king of Israel. God opened their eyes, and they were shocked to find themselves standing there. Rather than kill them, though, Elisha told the king to hold a great feast and then send them home. After that, the Arameans stopped attacking Israel.

— Just before Elisha's death, the king of Israel told the prophet he saw the "chariots and charioteers of Israel" (2 Kings 13:14). The king described something similar to what Elisha had seen when God took Elijah to heaven. Elisha did not leave the earth in a chariot of fire like his teacher did, but the power of God was with him so strongly that a dead man came to life when his body touched Elisha's bones (2 Kings 13:21).

We can learn two important truths from Elisha's example:

- Godly influence leads to more godly influence.
- Elisha's life testifies to the value of godly influence. He learned firsthand from the great prophet Elijah and continually saw God's faithfulness. As a result, Elisha became a great prophet as well.

God will do great things through us if His glory is our first desire.

- Elisha did not seek God's special calling for his own fame or other selfish reasons. He did not use his position as a prophet for personal gain. When Naaman was healed of leprosy, he offered a reward for what Elisha had done, but the prophet refused to take it (2 Kings 5:16). However, Elisha's servant, Gehazi, deceived Naaman into giving him silver and clothing. As a result, Gehazi became sick from leprosy. When the apostle Paul describes leadership, he clearly states that leaders should not be those who love money (1 Timothy 3:3). Jesus said a person cannot serve both God and wealth (Matthew 6:24). Elisha used his anointing to bring glory to God, not material gain for himself. There is nothing wrong with ministry leaders receiving payment for what they do, but it shouldn't be their primary motivation.

1. What miracles have you seen in your life? How have they led others to glorify God?
2. Who are the godly influences in your life? To whom can you be a godly influence?

3. What are some ways others can see God working through you on a daily basis?
4. How can you make sure you have the right motivation as you serve God? What do you think are the results of the wrong motivation?

Elisha learned from a great man of God and kept his heart right before the Lord. His life serves as an example for others to follow. However, neither Elijah nor Elisha wrote down their prophecies, or if they did, no copies remain in existence. But God did call other prophets to deliver His messages to His people. Many of these messengers wrote down the things the Lord told them to say. These prophecies have been preserved as books of the Bible.

27 THE MESSIAH'S PROPHET

Isaiah

God often spoke to His people through individuals known as prophets. These messengers delivered words of warning and calls for repentance. They also spoke words of encouragement and foretold the coming of the Messiah. God instructed some of the prophets to write down the things He told them. One such prophet was Isaiah.

ISAIAH 6; 9:1-7; 11; 53

Isaiah is one of the longest books in the Bible. It is also the most quoted book in the New Testament. One theme repeatedly emerges throughout Isaiah: God alone can save. The Jewish people thought they could save themselves, but Isaiah told them they could not, nor could any other nation rescue them. The people from the northern kingdom of Israel had already been taken into captivity. The people in the southern kingdom of Judah fell into sin and idol worship. God would soon bring judgment on them as well because He wanted a holy people. God was going to use foreign nations to discipline His people and rid them of their sin. Even more, God was going to send His Servant, the Messiah, to make His people pure. The Messiah would bring in a time of peace and prosperity such as the world had never known. Then God would take a remnant of His people and use them to rule over the nations.

The Bible only gives a small amount of information about the prophet Isaiah's personal life. His name means 'the salvation of the Lord.' He was the son of Amoz but may also have been a member of the royal family. Isaiah ministered for at least 60 years and saw the reigns of four or five kings. During his lifetime, this prophet had one mission: to lead the nation back to God.

Isaiah began his ministry about the time the Assyrian army destroyed the northern kingdom and threatened the southern kingdom. King Hezekiah survived the conflict, but he unwisely let visitors from Babylon see the palace treasures. Isaiah prophesied that this foolish act would lead to the future Babylonian Exile. The prophet did not know when the captivity would begin, so he began to prepare the people. Next, Isaiah prophesied about a time in the future when God would restore His people and the city of Jerusalem. Finally, the prophet saw a vision of the 'new heaven and new earth where the Messiah will reign over all creation. God will remove all evil from the world. The blessings of the Kingdom Jesus revealed during His ministry will come in fullness. Israel will be restored and her enemies defeated. War and suffering will be things of the past, and God will rule without opposition or interference.

Many people know about Isaiah's vision in the Temple (Isaiah 6:1-8). He saw the Holy God seated on His throne. Suddenly, Isaiah became painfully aware of his own sinfulness. Then an angel came to him and touched his lips with a purifying coal from the altar in heaven. This act served to prepare Isaiah for his ministry as a prophet. Isaiah willingly followed this call, and God showed him many wonderful and terrible things, which the prophet shared with the people.

When Isaiah prophesied about the coming Messiah, the Savior of Israel and the world, he described Him in a different way than the people expected. The Messiah would be born of a virgin (Isaiah 7:14). He would bring healing and set people free by the power of the Holy Spirit. However, the Messiah's own people would reject Him, and He would suffer greatly. The Suffering Servant would be beaten and bruised beyond recognition (Isaiah 52:13-14). Like a sacrificial lamb, the Messiah would give His life as an offering for the sin of every person. The New Testament writers clearly recognized Jesus as the Messiah about whom Isaiah wrote. When Isaiah received a vision of heaven, he also saw the coming of Jesus as God's loving response to Israel's waywardness. God would send His Son as a sacrifice for sin. Jesus would be not only the Messiah of the Jews but also the Savior of all people.

Isaiah proclaimed the heart of God. He warned the people of judgment, but he also spoke about God's great love revealed through the Messiah, Jesus Christ. In spite of the Israelites' rebellion and sin, God made a way for them to be forgiven. God doesn't warn His people about judgment because He hates them. No, He loves us and wants to remove those things in our lives that keep us from His blessings. When God convicts you of sin, He wants you to repent so you can enjoy all His blessings.

God offered Israel a fresh start, and He also offers it to you through His Son, Jesus. He wants us to see our sinfulness in light of His holiness. Jesus died in our place so we can be forgiven and experience a fresh start. Our whole world will change as a result.

1. Have you ever experienced a warning from God about sin in your life? If so, how did you respond? What were the results?
2. What do you think it means to repent so you can experience all of God's blessings?
3. How did Jesus fulfill Isaiah's prophecies about the coming Messiah?
4. Isaiah also prophesied about a new heaven and a new earth. How will this new earth differ from the one in which we currently live?

God often sent prophets to speak to the Jewish people. However, He loves everyone, and sometimes He sent messengers to people who were not Jews. Jonah was one of those prophets.

28 THE RUNAWAY PROPHET

Jonah

God often sent prophets to warn people who were living sinful lives to change their ways. Usually, He sent them to the Jewish people, but sometimes He sent them to other nations too. You might think God's prophets loved all people and wanted them to be saved. Sadly, this was not always true. Jonah knew God was loving and merciful, but he didn't want God to show that same compassion to the people of Nineveh.

JONAH 1-4

One day, God told Jonah to go to the sinful city of Nineveh to preach a message of judgment. Nineveh was the capital city of Assyria—located in modern-day Iraq. Assyria was a wicked nation that did many terrible things to the Jews.

At first, Jonah did not want to obey the Lord, so he boarded a ship heading in the opposite direction. Jonah's disobedience didn't come from his fear of the Ninevites. Instead, he knew God's character and didn't want God to forgive the people if they turned away from their sin.

Even so, God gave Jonah an opportunity to change his mind and obey. While at sea, the ship encountered a very intense storm. It was so violent that all the people on board thought they were going to die. When the sailors discovered Jonah was running from God, they became even more fearful. Seeing no other way to survive the storm, they threw Jonah into the raging sea. Suddenly, the storm stopped. As Jonah sank into the water, God sent a great fish to swallow him. For three days and three nights, the prophet lived inside the stomach of the fish (Jonah 1:17). Jonah cried out to God, changed his heart and mind, and agreed to do what God asked. Then God caused the fish to spit Jonah out onto the shore.

Jonah immediately went to Nineveh, where he spent three days telling people about God's coming judgment. Surprisingly, all the Ninevites, including the king, turned away from their wickedness. In response to their repentant hearts, God did not destroy the city.

Jonah should have been pleased that the people listened to his message, but he was not. In fact, he was furious. Jonah complained that he knew God would show mercy if the people repented, which was why he did not want to go to Nineveh in the first place (Jonah 4:1-2). The prophet wanted God to judge the Ninevites because they had treated the people of Israel so terribly.

Revenge fantasies are a common response to injustice. Has anyone ever treated you or someone you love so badly that you wanted that individual to suffer? Perhaps someone bullied you in school or made you the victim of a crime. Someone may have abused you, your family members, or your friends. If so, you may want that person to pay for what they have done. Maybe you have even imagined something terrible happening to them. Jonah certainly felt this way about the Ninevites. He did not want God to show them mercy. However, he forgot how often God had forgiven the Israelites. The Bible tells many stories of how the people of Israel frequently rebelled against God. Still, God loved them and forgave them whenever they repented.

Jonah is a story of God's love and mercy, both for us and for others. The prophet's life teaches us these two crucial lessons:

God wants us to help others find forgiveness, just as He has forgiven us.

- You may wish other people would “get what they deserve.” Take a moment to think about that desire. Do you really want what you deserve? We all deserve God's judgment, but we receive His mercy and forgiveness when we turn from sin and turn toward Him. We should want the same for others.

Jesus tells us how to think about our enemies.

- Jesus said His followers should love their enemies (Matthew 5:43–44). He told a story about a man who was unwilling to forgive a small debt even after his own master had released him from an enormous debt (Matthew 18:23–35). God wants us to forgive others because He has forgiven us. God chose Abraham and through him, Israel. God desired to bless the people of Israel and all the nations of the world through them (Genesis 22:18). As the Israelites rebelled against God, they often suffered at the hands of other nations. Their experiences caused them to hate those nations. However, Israel's hatred did not change God's desire. He called Jonah to go to Nineveh so the people would have an opportunity to repent and find freedom from judgment. Jonah wanted them to be judged and not repent! He disobeyed the Lord, but God gave him a fresh start when Jonah changed his mind.

God “does not want anyone to be destroyed, but wants everyone to repent” (2 Peter 3:9). Like Jonah, God calls you to offer people His grace and mercy available to them through Jesus Christ. Has someone done things to hurt you? Ask God to give you the grace and mercy to forgive that person. If they do not have a relationship with Jesus Christ, ask God to send the right person to talk to them. If that person is no longer alive, ask God to remove the bitterness from your heart so you can find freedom and healing. This prayer may be difficult, but it is what God calls us to do.

1. Suppose someone says to you, “That person hurt me. I cannot forgive them.” How would you respond?
2. Is it difficult to pray for your enemies? Why or why not?
3. Some people may think Jesus was unrealistic when He told His followers to forgive, show mercy, and pray for their enemies. Why are these actions necessary?
4. Have you ever refused to do something God called you to do? What were the results?

Jonah was one of the few prophets God called to warn people outside of Israel to turn away from their sins to avoid judgment. The Lord wants all people to turn from sin and toward Him, but He often spoke directly to the people of Israel because He had a special covenant relationship with them. When they violated this covenant, the people made God angry and sad. He continued to send prophets to warn them to change their ways. Hosea was one of those prophets.

29 THE PROPHET WITH GOD'S HEART

Hosea

In the days when kings ruled Israel, God spoke to His people through His chosen prophets. These messengers were rarely popular because they called the people to turn away from sin and idol worship. Through the prophet Hosea, God urged His people to stop their evil behavior and return to Him. The Lord often compared Israel's idolatry to the actions of an unfaithful wife, and it was this message God gave to Hosea to declare to His rebellious people.

HOSEA 1–2

God sometimes told His prophets to deliver His messages through unusual methods. What Hosea did was certainly unusual, and his actions caught the people's attention. God told Hosea to marry a wife who was unfaithful to him. She was even a prostitute. God told Hosea to do this as a sign of Israel's unfaithfulness. Throughout Scripture, God often speaks of His relationship with His people as that of a husband and wife. Through Hosea, however, God said, “Israel . . . is no longer my wife, and I am no longer her husband” (Hosea 2:2).

Israel regularly turned away from God and worshipped idols. They had worshipped a golden calf while waiting for Moses at Mount Sinai, and centuries later, they returned to the same kind of false god (Hosea 8:5–6). Even though God had blessed them with everything they needed, they still turned away from Him. The people of Israel experienced great hardships because of their rebellion. As a result of their worship of other nations' gods, the Lord allowed their enemies to defeat them. Then He allowed their enemies to carry the Israelites away from the Promised Land into Babylonian captivity.

Hosea reveals that even while the Israelites were unfaithful to God, God remained faithful to them! God always wanted to draw His people back to Himself. The day would come when they would once again call God their husband (Hosea 2:16).

How could a nation that experienced God's blessings ever turn away from Him? Actually, each of us has done just that—"All of us, like sheep, have strayed away. We have left God's paths to follow our own" (Isaiah 53:6). We all have wandered away and turned our backs on Him. We often make decisions that do not please Him, and our sins separate us from God. However, our unfaithfulness to God does not change His faithfulness toward us. God sent His Son into the world to bring us back to Himself: "Yet the LORD laid on him the sins of us all" (Isaiah 53:6). God did not turn His back on us. Instead, Jesus suffered for us and made it possible for us to return to the Lord.

The apostle Paul writes that the Church's relationship with Christ is like a marriage; husbands should love their wives as Christ loved the Church—all of us who are believers (Ephesians 5:25). Paul also quotes from Genesis: "A man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one" (Ephesians 5:31; Genesis 2:24). In a surprising twist, Paul then reveals that this verse actually speaks about Christ's relationship with His people (Ephesians 5:32).

In the book of Revelation, God calls His people His bride (Revelation 21:9). Jesus is the Husband of His people. God desires an intimate relationship with us, and His love for us is even greater than the love of a husband for a wife. Consequently, our unfaithfulness to Him can be compared to the betrayal of an unfaithful wife. We may not take our wrong choices seriously enough, but God does. However, even though we turn away from Him, God will never turn away from us.

1. In what ways do God's people act unfaithfully toward Him today?
2. How do you think Hosea felt when God told him to marry an unfaithful wife? How do you think God feels about our unfaithfulness?
3. What are some ways a husband or wife shows faithfulness to their spouse? What are some ways we can show our faithfulness to God?

Through the prophet Hosea, God spoke in a very dramatic way. He wanted His people to know just how much their unfaithfulness hurt Him. However, Hosea was not the only prophet God used in this way. Known as "the weeping prophet," Jeremiah shed many tears as an expression of God's great love and sorrow when His people sinned.

30 THE SORROWFUL PROPHET

Jeremiah

Prophets in Israel seldom held popular opinions or safe positions in relationship to those who held political power or religious authority. The rulers particularly hated it when the prophets spoke of God's judgment coming at the hands of their enemies. Rather than repenting, the rulers vilified and abused God's messengers. One especially persecuted prophet was Jeremiah.

JEREMIAH 1-2; 17:1-18:17

Jeremiah boldly proclaimed the coming of God's judgment from Israel's hated enemy, the Babylonians. This enemy would destroy the city of Jerusalem. Then the Babylonians would take many people captive and carry them away. Jeremiah's message was not one people wanted to hear, but God told him to proclaim it boldly.

The people of Jerusalem refused to believe Jeremiah, especially when he said they should willingly go into captivity. Instead, they did all they could to resist the Babylonians. They even turned for help to Egypt, the nation that once enslaved them. Jeremiah received harsh treatment for his prophecies. First, the king's officers threw him into a well. Later, he was placed in prison. Nevertheless, Jeremiah continued to warn God's people of the coming destruction.

In time, God did as He promised. The Babylonians destroyed Jerusalem. They captured the king of Judah and took him and many of the people to Babylon. Some of God's people fled to Egypt and took Jeremiah with them. Only a small number of poor people stayed in the city.

Jeremiah is often referred to as "the weeping prophet." The Bible says he wept over the destruction of Jerusalem, the rebellion of God's people, and their subsequent judgment. He proclaimed the word of the Lord boldly in the face of opposition, but he also had a tender heart. Some people might think a prophet with such strong words could not have a tender heart. There are even those who view God the same way. They see God only as a judge.

However, Jeremiah gives a different picture of God. The Lord told Jeremiah to deliver a message of judgment, but He also gave the prophet words of encouragement and restoration. God said to Jeremiah,

"Today I appoint you to stand up against nations and kingdoms.
Some you must uproot and tear down, destroy and overthrow.

Others you must build up and plant” (Jeremiah 1:10).

Although God said the Babylonians would destroy Jerusalem and the Jews would experience judgment, He also made this promise about His people: “I will bring them back here again. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them” (Jeremiah 24:6). The same God who brought judgment would one day give His people a fresh start. God would deliver them and bring them back to the Promised Land.

Jesus also expressed great sorrow over God’s people and the city of Jerusalem. He cried out:

“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God’s messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn’t let me” (Matthew 23:37).

God has a loving and caring heart toward His people. He does not tell of coming judgment because He enjoys punishing them. Rather, He warns them because He loves them. God could have ignored those living in Jerusalem during the days of Jeremiah. Instead, He sent a prophet. In spite of their unwillingness to listen, God warned them, giving them a chance to repent and experience His blessings instead of judgment.

God so loved the world that He sent His Son, Jesus (John 3:16). Jesus was Israel’s promised Messiah, but many rejected Him. They refused to believe His message and disregarded the miracles that confirmed the truth of His words. Like the prophets they rejected in the past, the people of Israel also rejected Jesus. However, the apostle Paul says God’s people can again find His grace and favor if they will turn from their sin and acknowledge Jesus as their Messiah (Romans 9–11).

Our sin separates us from God; it makes us worthy of His judgment. However, Jesus said He came to save the world, not to judge it (John 3:17). Through Him, God offers us a fresh start. If we believe His Word and turn from sin, we will experience eternal life rather than judgment.

1. How do you feel when you hear about a person rejecting God? How do you think God feels?
2. When you turned toward God, how did He restore your life?
3. Do you know someone who has suffered because of their bad choices? What could you tell them about God’s love?
4. How would you balance the message of God’s love and His judgment as you tell others about Him?

Both Jeremiah and Josiah were born during wicked King Manasseh’s long reign. Manasseh encouraged idol worship and led the people of Israel away from the Lord. When he died, his son Amon became king. However, Amon only reigned for two years before his own officials assassinated him. The people of Judah remembered King David and still wanted a member of his family to take the throne. But at the time, Amoz’s son Josiah, the royal heir, was only a boy. Even so, the people crowned him as king (2 Chronicles 33:21–25).

31 THE BOY WHO BECAME KING

Josiah

For many years, kings ruled Israel. Most led the people away from God, while only a few feared the Lord and ruled according to His commands. Josiah was one of the kings who ruled righteously.

2 KINGS 22–23

Crowned about 600 years before the birth of Jesus, Josiah was only eight years old when he became king. Both his father and grandfather had been wicked rulers, but Josiah “did what was pleasing in the Lord’s sight” (2 Kings 22:2). King Josiah used funds from the royal treasury to hire skilled laborers to repair the Lord’s Temple. He also had every form of idol worship removed from the Temple and destroyed.

While Hilkiah the high priest was working in the Temple, he found a book containing the Law God gave His people. However, the people had neglected this Law for many years. Hilkiah arranged to deliver the book to King Josiah. When the court secretary read the book to the king, Josiah realized he was hearing God’s Word. He humbled himself and repented both personally and on behalf of the nation for having ignored it for so long. Josiah then read the book in public so the people of God could hear. They all agreed to obey God’s Word and keep His commandments.

Josiah did more than just remove all the idols from the Temple. He also destroyed all the altars throughout the kingdom where the people had offered sacrifices to false gods. Then Josiah got rid of all the mediums, psychics, household idols, and every other form of false worship in the land (2 Kings 23:24). Even after he did all these good things, though, Huldah the prophetess declared Jerusalem would fall because of the people’s wickedness. She said this fall would not happen during King Josiah’s lifetime because the people had repented of their sins and returned to God.

King Josiah died unexpectedly in a battle with the Egyptians. Throughout his life, he had remained faithful to the Lord. No king before or after him had turned to the Lord like Josiah did (2 Kings 23:25). Josiah did not follow in the footsteps of previous generations. His father and grandfather were not good kings, but Josiah was nothing like them. It is true that ungodly parents and previous generations can negatively affect a person, but this does not mean we are doomed to repeat previous errors. Like Josiah, we can be different. We can live in a way that is pleasing to the Lord. God has given us the ability to choose what is right and make a fresh start for ourselves as well as for those who may follow us.

King Josiah's life teaches us two valuable lessons:

Obedience to God is more important than experience or age.

— Josiah's life demonstrates how a person can be influential for God at any age. He was still young when he ordered the repair of the Temple and its cleansing from idolatry. Wisdom should come with age, but this is not guaranteed. However, wisdom will come when a heart is right with God. Josiah's heart for God qualified him to change his kingdom for the better, even while he was young. At any age, we can have a positive influence on others if our hearts are submitted to the Lord.

The past does not define God's children.

— King Josiah did what was right in spite of his father and grandfather; he did not repeat their mistakes. Josiah refused to tolerate the idolatry of God's people. He took action! When he heard the Word of the Lord, the king repented and provided a godly example for the people to follow.

Josiah successfully moved the entire nation in a new direction. His life exemplifies the importance of a leader's influence. No matter how you grew up or what your past was like, you can decide today to be different. Serve the Lord with all your heart and do what is right. Then you will have a position of influence on those around you as well as those who follow you in the future.

1. Despite your past or your family's past, how do you believe God wants you to serve Him?
2. As you think about the young people you know, how should you pray for them as they try to follow the Lord?
3. How can you influence others to turn away from doing wrong things and follow the Lord with all their hearts?

One person can lead a nation to follow God, but only if the people will obey. King Josiah led a great revival in the worship of the Lord, but the people soon forgot and returned to worshipping idols. It was only a matter of time until God lost His patience with them. When He did, the people suffered a great defeat—enemy forces destroyed their city and Temple, and many Jews were taken as captives to a foreign country. This period is known as the Babylonian Exile. For more than 70 years, God's people were kept away from the Promised Land. During this time, God raised up prophets to speak to the captive people. One such prophet was Ezekiel.

32 A PROPHET IN A TIME OF CRISIS

Ezekiel

Jerusalem fell to the Babylonians, and many of God's people were taken into captivity. While living in a foreign land, one Jewish man had a supernatural vision and received a divine call to declare God's word. This man was Ezekiel.

EZEKIEL 1; 37

Along with many other Jews, Ezekiel came to Babylon as a captive. One day, he saw a vision of heaven. Then God told Ezekiel that He was sending him as a prophet to speak God's word to His people. The Lord said Ezekiel should boldly declare the message given to him, regardless of whether the people received it or not (Ezekiel 2:7). God told Ezekiel it was not his responsibility to convince anyone to believe the words he spoke. However, God would hold him accountable for delivering the warning to the people. In the face of rejection and suffering, Ezekiel had to speak the words given to him by God.

God required Ezekiel to communicate His message in some unusual and vivid ways. For example, God told the prophet to lay on his left side for 390 days and then on his right side for 40 days. This symbolic act would show the people their sinful rebellion and God's coming judgment.

Not every message God gave to Ezekiel was about judgment, though. One day, the Lord showed the prophet a valley of dry bones. As Ezekiel looked at the bones, God asked him if he thought the bones could become living people again. Ezekiel replied that only God knew the answer to that question (Ezekiel 37:3). God then told the prophet to speak His word to the bones. Ezekiel was to say that God would put muscle and skin on them and breathe life into them. At God's word, the people came back to life and stood on their feet as a great army. God told Ezekiel this vision was a picture of His people. Even though the Jews thought there was no hope of ever becoming a nation again, God was capable of raising them up once more. The prophet who spoke of judgment also declared words of hope and restoration.

Ezekiel's life offers challenges as well as hope:

Obey God. Share His message.

- God told Ezekiel to declare His word. The prophet was not responsible for how the people responded to the message, but he would be held accountable if he did not speak the words the Lord gave him. The Lord also asks us to share our faith and the gifts He has given us with others. We cannot force anyone to respond favorably to God's message. However, we are responsible for our own obedience.

God gives a message of hope.

- Ezekiel brought more than a message of judgment; he also shared words of encouragement and hope. Even when the Babylonians destroyed Jerusalem and took the Jews captive, God declared His people would be restored. God would bring them back home (Ezekiel 39:25–29).

God's promise is to all nations.

- Ezekiel spoke of a restoration beyond Israel. He envisioned a day when God would restore the world from the effects of sin. The Lord showed Ezekiel a river flowing from the Temple; this river brought life wherever it went. Trees on both sides of the river bore fruit each month, and their leaves brought healing (Ezekiel 47:12). The Bible also describes a river in the Garden of Eden. Beside the river was the tree of life and other trees for Adam and Eve to enjoy. When the couple sinned, God evicted them from Eden. Later, Jesus offered living water to the woman at the well (John 4:10–11). She had come to get physical water, but He offered water to quench the thirsting of her soul. Jesus came to bring life to all who are dead in sin. In the book of Revelation, the apostle John writes about the river of life. Like the Garden of Eden and in Ezekiel's vision, this river has trees on each side that bear fruit with leaves for healing. Because of Jesus, anyone who believes in Him will gain what Adam and Eve lost.

In the book of Ezekiel, God offers a fresh start after His people have a terrible false start. Ultimately, Jesus is the One sent by God to rescue all humanity. He offers living water to every person in every nation.

1. God told Ezekiel to share His message regardless of the way people responded. How can you have confidence in sharing God's message no matter how others receive it?
2. Sometimes our actions have negative consequences, whether through natural causes or God's supernatural judgment. How would you share God's message of hope with someone who has suffered negative consequences for their actions?
3. How do you participate in fulfilling God's desire for all nations to follow Him?

---

Ezekiel was not the only prophet God called to deliver His message during the Babylonian Exile. God continued speaking to His people even while they experienced His correction and judgment. Many powerful words from God came through the prophet Daniel.

33 A FAITHFUL PROPHET

Daniel

Not everyone likes honest and loyal people. There are those who brag unjustifiably about how good they are while they secretly do evil things. Others quietly live admirable and honest lives. These humble people work hard and treat others right. Daniel was one such person. Though many admire this type of person, others do not.

DANIEL 1–2; 6

When God's people turned away from Him, He often allowed them to come under the control of other nations. The Babylonian Exile was the worst of those experiences—many Jews were forced to leave their homeland and taken to Babylon. Young men whom the king considered to have the most potential benefit to him received special training. Daniel was one of them. After he was captured and taken to Babylon, this young man remained faithful to the Lord. Others began to see God's blessing on Daniel's life. One night, the king had a terrifying dream. No one could tell him its meaning except Daniel. When Daniel interpreted the dream, the king made the Jewish captive a ruler over Babylon (Daniel 2:48).

Later, the nation of Persia defeated Babylon. The Persian King Darius appointed Daniel as one of the three highest officials in the land. Because the king valued Daniel so highly, the other leaders became jealous. They looked for a way to make the king dislike Daniel, but they were unable to find any fault with the godly young man. Unable to use Daniel's character as an excuse for punishment, the leaders decided to use his faith in God to destroy him. They tricked the king into signing a law that made it illegal for people to worship anyone but the king himself for 30 days (Daniel 6:7–10). They knew Daniel would not stop praying to the Lord, and it would only be a matter of time before Daniel's actions would force the king to punish him.

Against the king's order, Daniel continued to pray three times each day. His enemies quickly reported this "crime" to the king. The news upset the king because he liked Daniel; however, he could not ignore his own law. The king reluctantly ordered Daniel to be thrown into a den of lions. That night, the king did not eat or sleep, and as soon as morning arrived, he rushed to the den to see if God had spared Daniel. To the king's great joy, Daniel was safe. God had sent an angel to keep the lions from hurting him. Then the king gave a new order: he had Daniel's accusers thrown into the den of lions. Because Daniel trusted God, he was spared. Those who hated him received the punishment they wanted for Daniel.

Daniel's life offers these two valuable lessons:

Your faithfulness will have influence on others.

— Even though Daniel was captured and taken to a foreign land, he remained faithful. God blessed him and gave him favor with his captors. Through Daniel's faithfulness, unbelieving rulers had to admit his God was the one true God. When we are faithful, we give others the opportunity to follow God. Daniel also influenced his enemies, though they did not learn from his example. Their jealousy and hatred kept them from experiencing God's love and grace. When we are faithful to God, some people will respond positively and others negatively, but we will influence them all.

When we are faithful, God is even more faithful.

— After the king signed the law, Daniel continued to pray. He remained faithful even in the face of death, and God delivered him. The same lions Daniel's enemies hoped would kill him actually killed them! Daniel trusted God, and God protected him. We can always trust God to be faithful to His people.

1. In what ways have you positively influenced others through your faithfulness to God?
2. Has anyone ever bullied or even persecuted you because of your faith? How did you respond?
3. How would you encourage someone who is suffering because of their faith?
4. How has God shown you His faithfulness in difficult situations?

Daniel is an example of faithfulness. Away from his home and family, he faced intense persecution—to the point of death—but he remained loyal to the one true God. Daniel had three friends who also remained faithful under pressure, and God protected them as well.

34 THREE FAITHFUL FRIENDS

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego

The Babylonians defeated the nation of Israel and took many Jews captive. One of the best-known captives was Daniel, but he also had three friends with him. Their Hebrew names were Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, but they are better known by their Babylonian names: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

DANIEL 1; 3

The king of Babylon had special plans for Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Like Daniel, they were specially trained to serve the king. Even though they were captives in a foreign land, things were going as well for them as could be expected. Everything changed, though, when the king made a large idol and required everyone in his kingdom to worship it. The three young men willingly served the king, but they would not bow down to an idol. They believed their God alone was worthy of worship.

When the king learned of their refusal, he threatened to have them thrown into a furnace if they did not comply. However, his threat did not change their minds. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego told the king that their God was able to save them from the flames of the furnace. They went on to say, "But even if he doesn't, we want to make it clear to you, Your Majesty, that we will never serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up" (Daniel 3:18).

Their response made the king furious! He ordered the furnace to be heated seven times hotter than normal. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were tied up and thrown into it. As the king looked on, he was shocked to see not three but four men in the furnace! He also saw they were untied and unharmed by the fire. Then the king called for Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to come out of the furnace. To the surprise of all the Babylonian officials, the three men were unharmed! In fact, not a single hair on their heads or any of their clothing had been burned. They didn't even smell like smoke! (Daniel 3:27). The king was so amazed by this miracle that he praised God. He also decreed that no one could say anything against the God who had delivered Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then the king gave all three men higher positions in his kingdom.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego demonstrated how we should live our lives in the midst of ungodly situations:

God will deliver those who are faithful to Him.

— The faith of these three men caught the attention of unbelievers in a remarkable way. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego displayed their faith in God through their confidence that He could deliver them and by their willingness to die rather than to worship a false god. Believers do not need to compromise their faith to be successful in this life. The three captives were elevated in Babylon before they were ordered to worship the idol, and they were promoted a second time after they remained faithful to God in the face of death. Though blessed in this way, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego had their priorities in order. They were not motivated by personal gain or fame, and they remained faithful to the Lord even when tested. God delivered them, and He will deliver you too.

Honor those in authority but honor God first.

— God wants us to honor those who are in authority over us until or unless they require us to deny our Lord. The apostle Paul affirms that God Himself places people in positions of power (Romans 13:1). The apostle Peter tells us to respect and honor those in authority (1 Peter 2:17). Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego did just that until they were told to deny their God. Even then, they did not rebel against authority. They were willing to submit, even unto death. They simply obeyed a higher authority—God. Even though the king of Babylon had them thrown into a furnace, they honored him after God delivered them.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego demonstrated their faithfulness to God. They showed that obedience brings great blessings. However, our priority should always be obedience first; blessings are simply the result. Serve the Lord with all your heart in the abundance of blessings and in the face of death. God will protect and provide for you as you do.

1. When has God blessed you for your faithfulness?
2. When has God protected you as you stood firm in your faith?
3. We should obey those in authority. What is an example of someone who disobeys authority for the wrong reasons? What would be a right reason to disobey authority?

The Jewish people learned many important lessons over their 70 years in captivity. The Exile taught them how to remain faithful to God even when others mistreated or threatened them. Their experiences in Babylon formed them as a people who could live and thrive anywhere in the world, even until today. In time, the Babylonian Exile ended. Many Jews stayed in Babylon, but others returned home to the Promised Land. However, the land was in disrepair, the city in ruins, and the Temple destroyed. They would need to rebuild. God raised up two important men to complete the reconstruction of Jerusalem: Ezra and Nehemiah.

35 THE REBUILDERS

Ezra and Nehemiah

The Babylonians took God's people captive. Later, the Persians defeated the Babylonians, and after some time, the Persian king allowed God's people to return to Jerusalem. Their first tasks were to rebuild the city and its Temple. God worked through two men in particular to accomplish these goals: Ezra and Nehemiah.

EZRA 1; 7–10; NEHEMIAH 1–2; 4; 8–9

In the first year of his reign, King Cyrus of Persia declared that God had told him to have the Temple in Jerusalem rebuilt (Ezra 1:2). The king gave the Jews permission to return to their homeland, and he also returned the special worship items the Babylonians had stolen from the Temple in Jerusalem. When the rebuilding of the Temple began, the enemies of God's people tried to stop the project. They wrote letters to King Cyrus asking him to stop the work. Then they told him it would be a threat to his kingdom if he allowed the work to continue.

At first, Cyrus agreed, and he issued a decree to halt the rebuilding. The next king, Darius, allowed the work to continue after finding the original decree from his predecessor. At that time, Ezra returned to Jerusalem with a letter from Darius that gave the Jews permission to complete the work. Through Ezra's leadership and encouragement, the people rebuilt the Temple.

Nehemiah was one of the Jews who served the king of Persia. One day, some men came from Judah and told Nehemiah about the conditions back in Jerusalem. The people were suffering, and the walls of the city were broken down. Nehemiah prayed and then asked the king for permission to return to Jerusalem. The king granted his request. When Nehemiah arrived, he inspected Jerusalem's walls and motivated the people to rebuild them. Enemies tried to stop the work, but Nehemiah rallied the people to continue. Some men stood guard with weapons while others built from dawn until dark until they finished rebuilding the wall (Nehemiah 4:21).

Ezra and Nehemiah played critical roles in the rebuilding of Jerusalem's city and Temple, and they made an even greater impact in rebuilding the people's use of and respect for God's Word. They knew the destruction of the city and Temple happened because the people failed to obey God. God had given the Jewish people a fresh start, but it would not last unless they honored His commands and worshipped Him alone. Thus, Ezra "determined to study and obey the Law of the LORD and to teach those decrees and regulations to the people of Israel" (Ezra 7:10). Ezra and Nehemiah gathered God's people to hear His Word as Ezra read it. When he finished, they confessed their sins and worshipped God (Nehemiah 9:3). Whenever Ezra and Nehemiah became aware of anyone not obeying God's word, they took action. They did not want to repeat the past.

Ignoring God and His Word are dangerous acts. God's Word told the people His will for their lives, but they had neglected it. The people were to worship God alone, but they had turned to idols. The Temple was the Jews' center of worship, but because of their sin and disobedience, God allowed the Babylonians to destroy it. The city walls were smashed too. God's people lost the place where the Lord's presence dwelt as well as the protection around them. Then they were taken captive by their enemies. They failed God. But God never fails, and He never abandons His people either (Deuteronomy 31:6). He eventually brought the Jews back to the land He had promised their ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. God protected them from hostile enemies as they rebuilt the city, the Temple, and their relationship with Him. The people of Israel had once forfeited God's presence and protection through their disobedience. They now knew the consequences of sin were painful, and the only way to avoid bondage was to keep God first and follow His Word.

1. What are some ways you can keep God's Word at the center of your life?
2. Have you ever ignored God's Word and suffered the consequences? What was the result?
3. How would you tell someone to find freedom after they have made poor choices?

While many Jews returned to Jerusalem when their years in exile ended, some chose to stay in the foreign land where their families had lived for decades. Mordecai's family remained in Susa, the fortress of King Xerxes. Mordecai had a beautiful young cousin whom he adopted as his own daughter. Her name was Esther.

36 THE TIMELY QUEEN

Esther

God calls His people to be faithful no matter where they live or who rules over them. After the Babylonian Exile, many Jews returned to Jerusalem, but some remained in the land where their families had lived for the past 70 years. Mordecai's family continued living in Susa, where King Xerxes ruled over his vast empire of 127 provinces. Mordecai had a cousin whom he adopted as his daughter when her parents died. Though originally called Hadassah, this girl also went by another name: Esther.

As a young Jewish girl, Esther had little reason ever to imagine herself as a queen of Persia. However, her life's direction abruptly changed one day when agents of the king gathered all the attractive young women in the province—Esther included—and took them to the king's harem. King Xerxes was in search of a new queen. The former queen, Vashti, had infuriated the king by refusing to appear before him at a banquet. As punishment, King Xerxes banished Vashti from his presence and stripped her of her royal title. One of the young, beautiful women now gathered in the harem would replace Vashti.

Esther impressed the servant in charge of the harem, and she received special food, beauty treatments, and even her own maids. At the direction of Mordecai, Esther kept her Jewish identity a secret, even when King Xerxes chose her to be his queen. Esther remained in close contact with her cousin and continued obeying his instructions. When Mordecai, now a palace official, warned the queen of a plot against the king, Esther told King Xerxes and gave the credit to Mordecai. This information saved the king's life.

While Queen Esther kept her Jewish identity a secret, Mordecai did not hide his. One day, he found himself at odds with a powerful enemy: Haman. King Xerxes had given Haman authority to rule over all the officials of the Persian Empire. Everyone was required to bow down to Haman, but Mordecai refused. Haman was so enraged he wanted to destroy not only Mordecai but also Mordecai's people—the Jews.

Haman went to the king and told him a certain race of people were enemies of the crown and should be destroyed. King Xerxes agreed to let Haman destroy this race, and a decree was written and stamped with the king's own ring. The decree stated that on March 7 of the following year, "all Jews—young and old, including women and children—must be killed, slaughtered, and annihilated on a single day" (Esther 3:13).

Terrified of this impending doom, Jews all over the empire began mourning. When Esther, unaware of the king's decree, learned of Mordecai's deep sadness, she sent her servants to ask him about his troubles. Mordecai sent back a copy of the decree and asked Esther to plead with the king to spare the Jews. However, the queen had not been summoned to appear before the king in a month. Without an invitation, an appearance could be a death sentence. Mordecai reminded Esther that her position in the palace did not erase the fact she was Jewish; neither she nor her people were safe. He said, "Who knows if perhaps you were made queen for just such a time as this?" (Esther 4:14). Gathering her courage, Esther asked all the Jews in the city to fast with her for three days. Then, in spite of the risk, she would appear before the king.

Three days later, Esther dressed in her finest clothes and appeared before King Xerxes. He invited her to approach the throne and make her request. Esther then invited the king and Haman to a banquet. As they were feasting that evening, Esther invited the men to return again the next day, and she promised to tell the king the true nature of her request.

Haman was thrilled to receive a second invitation, but his hatred for Mordecai and the Jews still burned within him. He was temporarily appeased when King Xerxes asked how a man who had pleased the king should be honored. Thinking this pleasing man was himself, Haman gave his grand suggestions, only to be humiliated when he learned that the pleasing man was Mordecai! King Xerxes had never shown his appreciation for Mordecai's information that prevented an assassination attempt and wanted now to correct this oversight. Haman was forced to carry out the honors he had suggested for his most hated enemy.

Haman's troubles had only just begun, however. At the second banquet that evening, Esther asked King Xerxes to spare the lives of her people and revealed Haman to be the leader of this planned genocide. The king stormed out of the room in a fit of rage. Haman realized his life was in jeopardy, but as he attempted to beg for mercy, he fell onto Esther. King Xerxes thought Haman was attempting to hurt the queen, and Haman's fate was sealed. He was impaled on the very pole he had once hoped to use to kill Mordecai.

Esther and Mordecai were safe, but the Jewish people throughout the empire were still in danger. King Xerxes's first decree could not be revoked, but an additional decree was written that allowed the Jews to protect themselves from any enemy wishing to harm them. March 7 soon came, but unlike Haman's plan, the Jews were not harmed—"no one could make a stand against them, for everyone was afraid of them" (Esther 9:2). Instead, the Jews defeated their enemies and spent the next day in celebration. This celebration became an annual event known as the Festival of Purim. Every year, the Jews throughout the Persian Empire remembered and rejoiced that their lives had been spared, and Jewish people around the world celebrate this event even to this day.

Esther remained faithful even in the face of difficult and dangerous circumstances. When she became queen, she continued to honor and obey Mordecai. When she learned about Haman's plot, Esther advocated for the Jews, risking both her secret and her life. And even after securing her own safety, Esther used her position to rescue her people from annihilation. The book of Esther never directly mentions God, but His presence and power are evident throughout the life of the queen who saved His chosen people.

1. Has your life ever gone in an unexpected direction? How can you honor God even when you feel like you aren't in control of your circumstances?
2. What are some ways you can encourage others to trust God in difficult times?
3. Sometimes it takes great courage to stand for what is right. Why is it important to surround yourself with other believers who support you?

Whether the Jews lived in foreign lands or Jerusalem, God continued to show His faithfulness to His people. Time and again, He rescued them from their enemies. In the land of Israel, peace lasted for a short time after Ezra and Nehemiah oversaw the rebuilding of Jerusalem and the Temple.

Between the last Old Testament writing and the birth of Jesus, 400 years passed. Even though the Bible does not record the events during those centuries, many things happened. Judea had a brief time of self-rule but was also ruled by Persians, Greeks, Egyptians, Syrians, and finally Romans. A group of rabbis translated the Old Testament into a Greek version called the Septuagint. This version is the most often quoted text in the New Testament. Pharisees and Sadducees came to power, and scribes gained influence among the Jews. Many people began to hope and pray for the coming of the Messiah, although few would recognize His appearance (Matthew 16:13-16). Jesus was born during a time of uncertainty and unrest. It may have been a strange time, but as the apostle Paul says, "When the right time came, God sent his Son, born of a woman, subject to the law" (Galatians 4:4, emphasis added).

37 THE MOST BLESSED WOMAN

Mary

The last Old Testament book, penned by the prophet Malachi, had been written 400 years earlier. During the intervening years, the people of Israel had been under one foreign occupation after another. Some Jews cooperated with the invaders, some revolted against the enemy, and some simply waited and prayed for God's salvation. Most Jews knew the Old Testament prophets had promised that God would send a Messiah to rescue His people, although they did not agree on what kind of Messiah He would be. Almost no one expected the strange way God would send His Son to save the world.

The Gospel of Luke records the angel Gabriel's visit to a young woman named Mary. Angels visited other people in the Bible, but none like this. Gabriel gave Mary a unique message: even though she had never been intimate with a man, she would become pregnant and give birth to a son. The angel told her to call the baby Jesus.

LUKE 1:26–56; 2

Mary, a young Jewish woman, was engaged to a man named Joseph. The angel Gabriel told Mary that God favored her, and although she had never had a physical relationship with a man, she would become pregnant and give birth to a son. At first, Mary asked Gabriel how this could happen since she was a virgin. The angel replied that her pregnancy would be the work of the Holy Spirit. In response, Mary said, "I am the Lord's servant. May everything you have said about me come true" (Luke 1:38).

Joseph stayed with Mary, but he did not have a physical relationship with her until after the child was born. In time, Mary gave birth to a son and named him Jesus as Gabriel had instructed her to do. When Jesus was born, angels appeared to shepherds who were watching their flocks at night and declared the Savior had been born.

Mary and Joseph faithfully taught Jesus how to follow the Lord, and they watched Him grow "in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and all the people" (Luke 2:52). Mary was present when Jesus performed His first public miracle by turning water into wine at a wedding feast (John 2:1–11). She was also at the cross where her Son suffered greatly and died. After Jesus rose from death, Mary stayed with His followers as they waited for the promised Holy Spirit to come (Acts 1:14).

God did amazing things through many of the Bible's men and women. Prophets and apostles heard from God and performed many miraculous signs. But there could be only one woman in all of history to give birth to God's Son, Jesus. Mary was undoubtedly the most favored among women.

Mary demonstrated that she was a woman of faith when she believed what Gabriel told her. As the Lord's servant, she willingly accepted God's call for her life. God chose Mary and honored her, though others likely did not. Few would have believed her story. After all, how many women have ever given birth without a man's involvement in the child's conception? If many Jews did not believe Jesus' claim to be the Messiah, imagine how many others doubted Mary's claim of divine intervention. Even so, she remained a virtuous woman.

The infant Messiah grew within Mary, which would have been evident to those who saw her. Even while John the Baptist was in his mother's womb, he recognized the great gift that was within Mary (Luke 1:39–45). Mary faithfully carried God's presence until the time came for her to give birth to the Savior of the world. None of us will ever carry and bring Jesus into the world the way Mary did. However, each of us can receive Him into our lives and carry Him to others.

In one sense, Mary was special and favored by the Lord, but in another, she was just like us. She was an ordinary person and typical of many women during that time, but God's call and the Holy Spirit's work made her extraordinary. In the same way, God can do amazing things in and through us by the power of the Holy Spirit if we will faithfully do whatever He asks.

1. Why was it important for Mary to have no physical relations with a man before Jesus was born? What does this fact say about Jesus?
2. Has God ever asked you to do something that seemed truly impossible? What does Mary's response teach us about trusting and obeying God?
3. How can you show God today that you are willing to do whatever He asks you to do?

Mary obeyed God and His messenger Gabriel even though it meant great personal risk. However, she was not the only person who dared to do something great for God at the time of Jesus' birth. Joseph, Mary's fiancé and eventual husband, also received special messages from God about how to care for this new baby. Joseph was not Jesus' biological father, but he parented Him in a loving and sacrificial way. As a good and honorable man, he had the faith to obey God.

38 A JUST MAN

Joseph, Mary's Husband

Most people have some familiarity with “the Christmas story.” They probably know it centers on the birth of Jesus. They may also be aware that it involves angels, shepherds, and a special star in the sky. Beyond that, though, the details become fuzzy.

Jesus was born to a young virgin named Mary. While some Christians give meaning to her that others do not, all believers agree that she should be greatly esteemed because God held her in such high regard. Her relative Elizabeth said Mary would be blessed above all women, just as her child was blessed (Luke 1:42). As God chose a special woman to give birth to Jesus, He also selected a special man to be Jesus’ earthly father. That man was Joseph.

MATTHEW 1:18–24; 2:13–14; LUKE 2

Joseph was a carpenter or builder by trade, and he likely taught this skill to his Son, Jesus (Mark 6:3). Joseph was probably not a wealthy or privileged person; he was a hardworking tradesman. As the Bible follows Jesus’ adult life, it mentions Mary several times but does not mention Joseph. Some Bible scholars believe Joseph may have died some time before the beginning of Jesus’ earthly ministry. Perhaps this is the reason why Jesus, while hanging on the cross, asked the “disciple he loved” (probably John) to care for Mary as if she were his own mother (John 19:26–27).

The Bible has more to say about Mary than it does Joseph, yet it does reveal a few things about this man’s character and faith. Matthew describes Joseph as a good man who obeyed the Lord (Matthew 1:19, 24). When Joseph first learned about his fiancée’s pregnancy, he wanted to protect her from any shame or disgrace: “He decided to break the engagement quietly” (Matthew 1:19). Joseph had more concern for Mary’s feelings and reputation than his own. He may even have been saving her life because women who became pregnant outside of marriage were often killed during that time.

The angel Gabriel told Mary she would become pregnant “through the power of the Holy Spirit” (Matthew 1:18). Few people have ever seen an angel, but Mary did. And so did Joseph. He actually had multiple angelic encounters. As Joseph thought about breaking off his engagement to Mary, an angel told him through a dream that Mary’s pregnancy did not mean she had been unfaithful. God had done a great miracle in her, and Joseph was to name the baby Jesus. Joseph believed the angel’s words, and he married Mary. They refrained from being physically intimate until after the baby arrived, and “Joseph named him Jesus” (Matthew 1:25).

King Herod later learned from the wise men that a new king had been born. Enraged and paranoid, the ruler ordered the murder of every boy from birth to two years old in the area. An angel warned Joseph in a dream, though, to escape with Mary and Jesus to Egypt. Joseph heeded the warning, and the family stayed in the foreign land until a third angelic dream told Joseph it was safe to return to Israel. Upon arriving in their home country, Joseph had a fourth dream that led him to settle his family in Nazareth.

The Bible offers many details about the lives of some people, such as Abraham, Moses, and David. For others, however, it includes little information. Joseph belongs to the latter group. Like Mary, Joseph was an ordinary person, but he demonstrated his character and faithfulness through his actions. He was a good man in the way he treated Mary, and he honored God through his quick obedience. Scripture never says Joseph performed great miracles or preached powerful sermons. Yet God chose him to be the earthly father—perhaps the most significant male role model—of Jesus. The Bible does not record a single negative thing about this Jewish tradesman. He feared God, protected his family, and led them well.

1. How can you show concern for someone’s reputation and feelings even when you don’t feel like it?
2. Joseph took a special role in protecting Jesus. How do you think God wants you to protect others who cannot protect themselves?
3. Joseph was quick to obey God. Why did the speed of his obedience make a difference?

Jesus grew up just like any other Jewish boy, with one significant difference—He was God’s Son. Even from childhood, the Holy Spirit was working in Him in a special way. Jesus knew God was His Father, and He wanted to obey Him. As God was preparing Jesus for a world-changing ministry, He was also preparing another special boy: Jesus’ cousin John the Baptist. God put a great calling on John’s life. This man preached for people to repent—change their hearts and minds and turn to God. Then he baptized them as a sign of their repentance. John told the people that the Kingdom of God was very close; it was so near they could touch it. That Kingdom would come in the person of his own cousin Jesus.

39 THE FORERUNNER

John the Baptist

Throughout the history of the nation of Israel, God often sent prophets to speak to His people. These messengers told about what would happen in the future, and they also called God's people to change the way they were living in the present. Malachi was the last prophet God sent before the time of Jesus. This man spoke about another prophet who would come after him (Malachi 3:1). Centuries later, God sent John the Baptist as the fulfillment of Malachi's words.

MATTHEW 3; 14:1-12

John the Baptist preached a simple and clear message—he called for people to change their hearts and minds and return to the Lord in preparation for the coming Messiah. Hundreds of years earlier, the prophet Isaiah had said that John the Baptist would be “a voice shouting in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord’s coming! Clear the road for him!’” (Matthew 3:3). Many people believed John was a prophet of God. He baptized those who believed his message and repented of their sins. However, many of the religious leaders did not believe John was a prophet, so they refused to be baptized by him.

One day, John saw his cousin Jesus and called out, “Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!” (John 1:29). John preached a message of repentance, but Jesus was the One who came to take away sin. John knew Jesus was the promised Savior of the world, and he was surprised when Jesus came to be baptized by him. When John protested, Jesus answered, “It should be done, for we must carry out all that God requires” (Matthew 3:15). Jesus never sinned, but He was baptized so others would follow His example. When Jesus emerged from the water, the Holy Spirit came and settled upon him like a dove. Then God said, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy” (Matthew 3:17).

Not long after, King Herod imprisoned John the Baptist for criticizing his ungodly marriage. While in prison, John sent some of his followers to ask Jesus if He really was the One God promised—the Messiah. Jesus confirmed His identity, and as John's followers left, He told the onlooking crowd that there was no one greater than John. However, Jesus also said that the “least person in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater” than John (Matthew 11:11). Jesus did not say this to criticize His cousin. Instead, He was giving the crowd a clue as to the importance of His own ministry for those who would believe in Him.

While John the Baptist was still in prison, a birthday party was held for King Herod. This ruler only served because the Romans allowed him to do so. Herod was married to his half-brother's former wife, Herodias. John condemned the marriage, and this disapproval infuriated Herodias. At the party, Herodias's daughter Salome danced before Herod. Her dancing pleased the king so much that he vowed to let her have whatever she requested. Herodias convinced her daughter to ask for the head of John the Baptist. At first, King Herod was reluctant to honor Salome's request, but he feared what his party guests might say if he went back on his word. Thus, he ordered John's execution. John the Baptist's life and ministry ended that day, but his legacy lives on.

For centuries, God spoke to His people through prophets. After many years of silence, God again spoke through John the Baptist. John announced the promises God would soon fulfill through Jesus; he prepared the way for the Messiah. God always sets things in order, according to His design and timing. He prepared the way for you to receive Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, using one of a variety of circumstances to gain your attention. You may have gone through a traumatic event, or God may have reached you through a gentle prodding in your heart. Perhaps you heard about Jesus from a friend. The Holy Spirit works through events and people to draw you to the Messiah. He prepares the way.

1. Think about someone who shared the gospel with you. What can you learn from their example as you tell others about Jesus?
2. Why did John the Baptist preach repentance? How is this message still relevant to today's culture?
3. What did John the Baptist mean when he called Jesus “the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world” (John 1:29)?

God orders our lives. He sent John the Baptist to prepare the way for the Messiah, Jesus. We will never know all the arrangements God made for us to come to Him in repentance and faith, but we can appreciate the beauty of His plan. Many of the encounters Jesus had with people occurred in ways we would not expect, but God designed them all. One night, Jesus met with an important Pharisee named Nicodemus. This inquisitive man came with many questions. Not only did Jesus provide answers, but He also corrected many of the questions. Little did Nicodemus know that this clandestine meeting would reveal some of the Bible's greatest teaching about God's plan for humanity.

40 THE NIGHT VISITOR

Nicodemus

A man once took a great risk and came to see Jesus late at night. He likely wanted to keep his visit a secret because he was a Pharisee, a Jewish religious leader. Most of the Pharisees did not believe Jesus was the Son of God. In fact, they were some of His most hostile opponents. However, this Pharisee saw something in Jesus that made him want to know more. His name was Nicodemus.

JOHN 3:1–21

Nicodemus approached Jesus and said, “We all know that God has sent you to teach us. Your miraculous signs are evidence that God is with you” (John 3:2). This statement may indicate what Nicodemus believed about Jesus, or it may reveal his inner conflict. He may have struggled to reconcile his fellow Pharisees’ rejection of Jesus with the obvious miracles the latter performed.

In response, Jesus made a statement that confused Nicodemus: “Unless you are born again, you cannot see the Kingdom of God” (John 3:3). This announcement surprised Nicodemus because according to the Pharisees’ religious beliefs, he was already “born again.” He had already completed all the necessary steps, such as bar mitzvah, marriage, and leading a school for rabbis. How could he start all over now?

Then Jesus made it clear He was speaking not of a physical birth but a spiritual one. It is in the context of this conversation that we find perhaps the most famous verse in all of Scripture: “For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16). Nicodemus’s nighttime visit with Jesus resulted in the great revelation that being born again had nothing to do with human efforts and everything to do with God’s remarkable gift of His Son. Only by believing in Jesus can a person experience God’s salvation—this is the Good News!

Nicodemus was an educated man, but he was also humble enough to recognize there was something special about Jesus. It took courage to seek out the truth, especially when the other leaders rejected everything this new Teacher had to say. This man may have been fearful at first, but when Jesus’ body was taken down from the cross, Nicodemus was there to help wrap the Messiah’s body and lay him in the tomb (John 19:39–42).

Like Nicodemus, we should seek Jesus’ presence. No matter how much we’ve learned or how rich or poor our religious heritage may be, encounters with Jesus will always reveal truth to us. If we come to Him with seeking hearts, He will answer our questions and open our eyes. Every person needs a spiritual rebirth in Jesus Christ. Paul says that every person is spiritually dead because of sin (Ephesians 2:1). Therefore, we all need to be “born again.” We must humble ourselves and ask the Holy Spirit to open our eyes to the truth about Jesus.

In Jesus’ encounter with Nicodemus, He revealed the motive and purpose for His coming to earth—God’s love. God loved the world so much that He was willing to send His own Son to die for us. The purpose was to bring us eternal life. Jesus died in our place so we could live forever. Although we were dead because of sin, Jesus came to give us eternal life. He did not come to judge us but to save us (John 3:17).

1. How would you tell someone what it means to be “born again”?
2. Some people move boldly toward Jesus while others take small, tentative steps. Do you know someone who is taking baby steps toward Jesus? If so, ask God to give them courage and open their eyes and heart.
3. Some people believe God only wants to judge them. What would you say to someone who thinks this way?

Like the evening encounter with Nicodemus, the Gospels record several one-on-one conversations Jesus had with people. Some of our Savior’s most important teaching moments happened through these personal connections. One such meeting took place with a Samaritan woman at a water well on the edge of her town. It would change her life.

41 LIVING WATER

The Woman at the Well

Jesus often had conversations with unlikely people. Most religious leaders would avoid certain types of people because of their gender, social class, or identity. However, Jesus did not abide by these limitations. He came to reach lost people.

A Samaritan woman He met at a water well was one of those people.

JOHN 4:1-42

One day, Jesus and His disciples journeyed through an area called Samaria. Few Jews traveled that way because of a long history of conflict between Jews and Samaritans. Many years before, some Jews intermarried with people from other nations. The offspring produced from those relationships were the Samaritans.

Tired from the journey, Jesus stopped to rest by a well while His disciples went to buy food. As Jesus waited, a Samaritan woman came to draw water from the well. Jesus surprised her by asking for a drink. Jewish men did not usually talk to unfamiliar women and certainly not to a Samaritan woman. The woman expressed her astonishment: "You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. Why are you asking me for a drink?" Jesus responded, "If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask me, and I would give you living water" (John 4:9-10).

The woman did not understand that Jesus was speaking about something spiritual. She wondered how He could offer her a drink without having a bucket or utensil to draw water from the well. Jesus then said if she drank the water He was offering her, she would never be thirsty again (John 4:14). So the woman asked Him to give her this water.

Jesus replied in an unusual way—He told her to go get her husband. The woman revealed she didn't have a husband, but Jesus already knew that fact. He agreed with her and said she had five previous husbands and was not married to the man with whom she now lived. When Jesus made this revelation, the woman immediately recognized He was not an ordinary man. She turned the conversation toward religious matters and began to talk about the coming Messiah. Jesus said, "I AM the Messiah" (John 4:26). At that moment, the woman ran back to her town and told everyone about Jesus.

Sometimes Christians believe they should remain distant from those who are not believers. This separation is a wise practice if you know others will lead you to sin; however, it does not apply if you merely dislike someone. Jesus did not stay away from people who were not like Him. If He did, He would have avoided everyone. Jesus willingly spoke to this Samaritan woman, though most Jews had racial prejudice against her ethnicity. Among her own people, she would have been looked down on for her marital status and living arrangements. Even so, Jesus talked to this woman about living water. He used a natural truth about water and human thirst to share with her a spiritual truth. She went to the well to satisfy the physical need to drink, but her life showed that her true thirst was spiritual. Jesus did not condemn the woman for the way she was living, but He didn't excuse it either. Instead, He made her aware of her real need.

Jesus showed this Samaritan woman her moral condition and lack of spiritual understanding. In the same way, God brings us to a place where we cannot deny our shortcomings, our lack of understanding, or our inability to meet our deepest needs. He loves us enough not to let us stay in a state of spiritual hunger and thirst. Jesus loved the Samaritan woman so much that He revealed His true self to her. He also wants us to know Him and drink from the living water that will quench our spiritual thirst. When we drink from Jesus, we will never thirst again!

1. Before people meet Jesus, what are some ways they try to satisfy their spiritual thirst?
2. How is the living water that Jesus speaks of different from physical water?
3. Do you know someone who needs living water? How would you encourage them to let Jesus satisfy their deep spiritual needs?

Jesus taught great spiritual truths through His conversations with individuals. He also taught groups, both large and small. To teach these truths, Jesus often told simple stories called parables. The Gospels record 46 parables.

42 DIFFERENT KINDS OF SOIL

The Parable of the Farmer Scattering Seed

Jesus often taught spiritual truths through simple stories called parables. Not everyone understood these parables, but the Gospels do provide explanations for some of them. One of the most famous of these stories is the Parable of the Farmer Scattering Seed (sometimes called the Parable of the Sower). This story tells about a man who aimlessly threw seeds into a field. He was not a careful farmer, though the story does not focus on his lack of horticultural ability. The seed he was spreading represents God's Word, but the focus of the parable is on different types of soil and what each represents.

MATTHEW 13:1-23; MARK 4:1-20; LUKE 8:4-15

Seeds have amazing potential. They begin as small bundles of life and can eventually become entire orchards or fields of crops. However, if not planted in the right kind of soil with the right conditions, they are useless and will die.

Jesus told a story about a farmer who scattered seeds onto four kinds of soil:

- footpath
- rocky ground

- ground with thorns
- and fertile soil.

The farmer threw the same type of seed on all four surfaces, but each location produced different results:

- The seeds on the footpath never had a chance to grow because birds quickly ate them.
- The seeds that fell on the rocky ground started to grow, but they couldn't take root and quickly withered in the sun.
- The seeds that landed around thorns died because the thorns stole the space and nutrients needed by the seeds to grow.
- The seeds in the fertile soil took root and grew into healthy plants. They even bore fruit.

The seeds that landed on the fertile ground were the only ones that grew long enough and strong enough to reach their full potential.

What did Jesus want His followers to learn from this parable?

- The seeds represent God's Word.
- The different kinds of soil represent the different ways people receive or respond to God's Word.
- Three of the ways lead to a false start. Only one way leads to a fresh start.

The footpath represents people who hear God's Word, but either their hearts are hardened to the truth, or they cannot understand its importance. As a result, the devil removes the life-changing Word of God before it can have a positive effect on their lives. The rocky ground describes people who have initial excitement about God's Word, but their shallow faith falters when troubles come. The ground with thorns symbolizes those who believe and receive God's Word long enough for it to start growing. Over time, though, life's worries and the desire for wealth become more important. When people allow these things to take precedence, the power of God's Word becomes absent in their lives.

The fertile ground represents people who not only hear God's Word but also believe it and live fruitful lives for Him. Like the seed in the parable, God's Word has the power to bring life. God's Word will change you, but you have to take part in the process. If your heart is hard toward God, His Word will have no real effect on your life. If you put your faith in God but then turn away when troubles come, you will be as shallow as the rocky soil. Your faith must go deeper. Like thorns, worry and temptation will stunt or even stop your spiritual growth. You can trust Jesus. He promises to take care of you (Matthew 6:25–33) and give you the strength to resist temptation (1 Corinthians 10:13).

God's Word will help you grow in your faith. It will change your life from one that is dry and empty to one that is full and vibrant. Read it, learn it, study it, and believe it. Then watch what God will do.

1. What kind of soil are you right now? What kind do you want to be?
2. What are some ways you can deepen your faith?
3. How would you talk to someone who struggles with worry or temptation?
4. Have you ever "fallen away" from God when life became difficult? What happened? How did you return to Him?

Jesus taught crowds and had conversations with many individuals, but sometimes He ministered to people who had no relationship with Him at all. He met those people for the first time and immediately knew how to meet their deepest needs. One such person was the woman caught in the act of adultery.

43 A FORGIVEN WOMAN

The Woman Caught in Adultery

The apostle John is the only writer who includes the following event in his Gospel. Several men wanted to shame and even kill a particular woman, but Jesus rescued her in more ways than one. He used the incident to teach an amazing lesson about judgment and forgiveness. Because John did not record her name, she is known only as the woman caught in adultery.

JOHN 8:1–11

Some Jewish religious leaders and teachers caught a woman in the act of adultery. They brought her to Jesus and told Him what she had done. Everyone present knew the Law of Moses said adultery was punishable by stoning (Leviticus 20:10). These men thought they had Jesus trapped because if He showed mercy to this woman, it would appear as if He didn't honor God's commands. They could then use this to refute His claim to be the Messiah.

The accusers demanded an answer from Jesus, but He knelt down and wrote something in the dirt instead. After they kept pressing Him, Jesus replied, "All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!" (John 8:7). When the accusers heard this, they walked away one at a time. Not a single man threw a stone—none of them were without sin.

When they had left, Jesus turned to the woman and asked her if any of her accusers were still willing to pass judgment on her. She replied that none remained to condemn her. Then Jesus told her, “Neither do I. Go and sin no more” (John 8:11).

Some of the most amazing things Jesus said and did were in response to situations that appeared to have no simple solution. The Jewish religious leaders and teachers often sought to trick Jesus into hurting His credibility, and they thought they had the perfect opportunity with the woman caught in adultery. In their minds, no matter how Jesus responded, He would leave Himself open to criticism. Always one step ahead, though, Jesus did not fall into their trap. Instead, He put the focus back on their own shortcomings. If they were going to punish this woman for her sin, they would first have to declare themselves to be sinless. Unable to claim such perfection, each man had no choice but to walk away.

This event teaches several important truths:

Our judgment of others is never impartial.

- The teachers and leaders told Jesus that Moses’ Law required the woman to be put to death. However, the Law actually required the punishment of both the man and the woman caught in adultery (Leviticus 20:10). If the man and woman had equally sinned, why did these accusers only condemn the woman?

All have sinned.

- The woman’s accusers were quick to hold her accountable for her sin while ignoring their own. Challenged by Jesus to confront their own sinfulness, no one was left to judge her. We all have broken God’s commands. Thankfully, Jesus did not come to condemn us according to the law, but to bring us salvation. The apostle Paul writes, “For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 6:23).

God condemns sin and loves people.

- Jesus revealed God’s heart in the two statements He made to the woman. First, He told her He did not condemn her. John 3:17 says Jesus came to save the world, not to judge it. Second, Jesus said, “Go and sin no more.” Just as He did not condemn the woman, He did not ignore her sin either. The proper response to God’s mercy and grace is to turn away from sin and choose to live in a way that pleases Him.

We should hope no one “gets what they deserve.”

- All people are more deserving of judgment than they are qualified to judge. Jesus is the only One without sin in all of history, yet He did not condemn the woman others were so quick to judge. Jesus was qualified to throw stones, but He didn’t.

Do not take God’s grace for granted. Go and sin no more. You will never be perfect in this world, but you can choose each day to serve Jesus. By His grace, He did not—and does not—condemn you.

1. How would you explain to someone that God loves them no matter what they have done?
2. As a believer, why is it important to show mercy to others, even if it feels like they don’t deserve it?
3. How do you think God wants you to deal with guilt and shame from your past?

The apostle John’s account of Jesus and the woman caught in adultery is a dramatic demonstration of God’s love and mercy. Jesus often did things that surprised even His closest followers. Nothing could be more amazing, though, than His ability to raise His friend Lazarus from death.

44 THE FRIEND WHO LIVED AGAIN

Lazarus

Lazarus, Jesus’ friend and follower, became very sick. His sisters sent a messenger to tell Jesus about the seriousness of his illness. At first, it appeared as if Jesus did not show concern because He waited two days before traveling to see His friend. By the time Jesus arrived, Lazarus had died.

JOHN 11:1–44

In addition to the 12 disciples who traveled with Him, Jesus had other followers who supported and believed in Him. Lazarus and his two sisters, Mary and Martha, lived in the town of Bethany, and they were especially close to Jesus. When Lazarus became ill, his sisters sent word to Jesus: “Lord, your dear friend is very sick” (John 11:3). Jesus cared very much for this family, but He also knew His Father had a miraculous plan that would require patience. After two days, Jesus told His disciples that Lazarus was dead and what they were about to witness would increase their faith (John 11:14–15).

Jesus and His disciples went to Bethany and learned that Lazarus had died four days earlier. Martha came out to meet Jesus with a heavy heart and mixed emotions. She said, “Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask” (John 11:21–22). Jesus replied that Lazarus would rise from the dead. Martha believed His words, but she thought Jesus was referring to a future time. Neither she nor her sister, Mary, had any idea what Jesus planned to do that very day.

Because He was both God and human, Jesus understood the overwhelming sorrow and heartache Mary and Martha felt. He even wept as He walked toward the tomb (John 11:35). Jesus told onlookers to roll away the stone covering the tomb's entrance. Then He prayed to His Father and shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" (John 11:43). Immediately, Lazarus emerged from the tomb, fully alive. Because of this miracle, many people believed in Jesus.

Jesus' followers had seen Him heal many people; consequently, they failed to understand why He did not come in time to heal Lazarus. If He healed strangers, why would He not also heal His friend? The choice to wait for two days had nothing to do with a lack of compassion or love for Lazarus; rather, Jesus knew His Father wanted to bring about an even greater miracle than simply curing a sickness. By raising Lazarus from death, Jesus demonstrated His power over death. It was one thing for Jesus to say, "I am the resurrection and the life" (John 11:25), but it was quite another to bring a man back to life.

Jesus told His disciples He would one day be crucified. They heard His words but did not understand what Jesus meant. As the promised Messiah, they thought He would defeat God's enemies and set up His Kingdom on earth. Jesus would indeed defeat His enemies, but they would be death, sin, hell, and the devil!

The apostle Paul wrote that Jesus defeated sin and Satan on the cross. Death is the final enemy to be defeated (1 Corinthians 15:26). No matter how strong, rich, or holy we may be, death is the inescapable end of every person's life. Death came to the human race because Adam and Eve sinned. Jesus came not only to pay the price for our sin but also to destroy death. He said to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying" (John 11:25). As proof, Jesus raised Lazarus from death. Then, after His own death on the cross, Jesus rose out of the grave!

God is not indifferent to the sorrow death brings. Jesus wept over the death of Lazarus and the sorrow it caused others. He was even angry (John 11:38). His anger was not toward the grieving people, though; it was toward the terrible effects of sin and death on the world. God sent His Son, Jesus, to remove sin and defeat death. Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life" (John 14:6). He is the only way to deal with the great enemy of death. Many people fear death, but believers can have confidence in Jesus. The apostle Paul even says that physical death brings believers into the presence of the Lord (2 Corinthians 5:8).

1. If someone told you Jesus does not still heal today, how would you respond?
2. What did Jesus mean when He called Himself "the resurrection and the life"?
3. How does Jesus' resurrection prove He has power over sin, death, hell, and the devil?

The story of Lazarus demonstrates Jesus' power over death, and when Jesus later rose again after the Crucifixion, He defeated death for all time. By faith, we have eternal life in Him, and death no longer has the final word. The Good News of Jesus cannot be told without His resurrection. For some people, though, Jesus was not Good News because they did not want to respond to Him in faith. The rich young religious leader was one of those people.

45 A VERY SAD MAN

The Rich Young Religious Leader

People came to Jesus for many different reasons. One day, a young religious leader who was very rich approached Jesus with a question. He asked Jesus what he needed to do to inherit eternal life. The answer Jesus gave caused the man to be very sad.

MATTHEW 19:16–22; MARK 10:17–22; LUKE 18:18–23

When a rich young religious leader asked Jesus what he needed to do to receive eternal life, Jesus responded by asking the man if he had kept several of the Ten Commandments. However, Jesus did not mention the tenth commandment, which lies at the heart of this encounter.

Bible scholars often divide the Ten Commandments into two major sections, which they sometimes call tables. The first table primarily addresses duties to God: no gods beside the God of Israel, no idols, no misuse of God's name, and the command to keep the Sabbath. Jesus did not address any of the commandments in the first table. Why? Because any good Jew would have readily kept those commandments. Jesus did refer to the second table, though. He asked if the man had honored his parents and avoided murder, adultery, stealing, and lying. However, Jesus did not ask the man if he coveted or had a greedy fixation on things that belonged to others.

Why did Jesus not mention the tenth commandment? Actually, He did—in a very subtle way. The ancient rabbis referred to the tenth commandment as "the fence around the Law," which means it holds a unique position among the commandments. If we were to follow someone very closely for many years, we could determine if that person had kept the first nine commandments. Simple observation will show if a person has stolen, killed, committed adultery, and so on. But how would we know if someone coveted? It is possible to covet something in one's heart and mind without ever showing an outward sign of breaking that commandment.

During Jesus' ministry, some rabbis taught that something could only be considered a "sin" if someone physically committed that action. But what about things that happen on the inside? Jesus knew that God also looks at the heart. He even strengthened the Law by telling His followers to avoid sinful thoughts. Jesus said, "For from the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, all sexual immorality, theft, lying, and slander" (Matthew 15:19).

The man replied that he had kept the commandments Jesus mentioned. Then Jesus began to address the condition of the man's heart. He said, "There is still one thing you haven't done. Sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me" (Luke 18:22). What Jesus said made this man very sad. In Greek, his "face fell." It was not what the man wanted to hear, and he was not ready or willing to do what Jesus called him to do.

Was Jesus' directive specifically for this one man, or is it a command for every believer? The answer is clear, though not simple. God may call an individual believer to give away all earthly possessions to follow Him. However, He has not given that call to every Christian throughout history. Some believers have had great financial success and used it to further God's Kingdom. Several New Testament believers also fit into this category. While God may call certain individuals to give up all earthly possessions, this is not the usual calling for the majority of believers.

However, Jesus does give a command to every believer: change your heart and mind and come follow Him. Your desire for God must be greater than any other desire. Jesus knows the truth about your heart. You may follow God on the outside but have hidden sin on the inside. Jesus said, "No one can serve two masters. . . . You cannot serve God and be enslaved to money" (Matthew 6:24). In a letter to Timothy, the apostle Paul wrote, "For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. And some people, craving money, have wandered from the true faith and pierced themselves with many sorrows" (1 Timothy 6:10). Beware—the love of money does not apply only to those who are wealthy. Many people who have little money love it just as much. Covetousness is an equal-opportunity sin.

The Holy Spirit stands ready to convict you and help you change. It is not true that only you know what you think and feel—God knows too. He is fully aware, but He is also available to forgive you and make you more like Him. God will not force you to serve Him. He lovingly calls you to draw closer. If you truly hunger for a deep relationship with Jesus, He will show you if there is something in the way. The rich young religious leader heard the voice of God, but then he walked away. Don't walk away.

After the conversation between Jesus and the rich man, Peter said he and the other disciples had left their homes to follow Jesus. In response, Jesus said anyone who had given up anything or anyone to follow Him would receive even more now and in the future Kingdom of God (Luke 18:29–30). Don't settle for things that are only temporary. God has so much more for you, both now and throughout eternity.

1. What do you believe is God's opinion about money and possessions?
2. God speaks to all believers about what they should do with their money. What has God specifically said to you?
3. How would you explain to someone that God cares as much about what is in our hearts and minds as what we do on the outside?
4. What is the Holy Spirit saying to you about your heart and mind?

The rich young religious leader allowed his money and possessions to control his heart and prevent him from truly serving God. However, there was another rich man who would not allow his wealth to stop him from following Jesus. This man's name was Zacchaeus, and he was a tax collector.

46 A VERY JOYFUL MAN

Zacchaeus

The Gospel of Luke closely links Jesus' encounters with the rich young religious leader and Zacchaeus in terms of sequence, time, distance, and major spiritual truth. Salvation is the primary theme in both stories. The rich young religious leader wanted to know what he needed to do to be saved. To Zacchaeus, Jesus said, "Salvation has come to this home today" (Luke 19:9). The rich young religious leader allowed his wealth to prevent him from fully serving God. Zacchaeus, on the other hand, experienced a radical change of heart and was willing to give his wealth away to follow Jesus.

LUKE 19:1–10

Jesus drew a crowd wherever He went. As word spread about His teaching, compassion, and miracles, people gathered around Him. Some tried to discredit Him, but others saw Him as the great hope of Israel. When Jesus came to Jericho, a man named Zacchaeus desperately wanted to see Him. Zacchaeus could not see Jesus over the crowd, so he climbed a tree to get a better view. From his perch among the sycamore-fig tree's branches, he saw Jesus. More importantly, Jesus saw him. He told Zacchaeus, "Quick, come down! I must be a guest in your home today" (Luke 19:5). Zacchaeus hastily returned to the ground, and he "took Jesus to his house in great excitement and joy" (Luke 19:6).

The onlooking crowd did not share Zacchaeus's happy emotions. They didn't like this man because he was the area's lead tax collector. Jewish people of the day considered tax collectors to be some of the worst sinners. They often viewed these men as traitors for cooperating with the foreign occupiers. The Jews also knew that many of the tax collectors collected more than what was required and kept the extra for themselves. Even so, the crowd's opinion did not prevent Jesus from having dinner in Zacchaeus's home. While they ate, Zacchaeus told Jesus he was going to right the wrongs he had committed as a tax collector. He said, "I will give half my wealth to the poor, Lord, and if I have cheated people on their taxes, I will give them back four times as much!" (Luke 19:8). Zacchaeus had a genuine change in his heart and mind.

Jesus "came to seek and save those who are lost" (Luke 19:10). For Him, Zacchaeus was not a sinful tax collector, unworthy of love; instead, Jesus saw him as a "true son of Abraham" (Luke 19:9). Even though Zacchaeus had lost his way for a time, he was still one of God's chosen people. The crowd had rejected him, but Jesus came to find people just like Zacchaeus. The story began with Zacchaeus trying to get a brief glance of Jesus, but it ends with Jesus at Zacchaeus's dining room table. God told the prophet Jeremiah, "If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me" (Jeremiah 29:13). The rich young ruler avoided the call of Jesus. But Zacchaeus looked for Jesus and found Him.

Every person is lost apart from Jesus. The Good News is that Jesus came to seek and save us. When we lost our way because of sin and selfishness, Jesus came looking for us. When we called out to Him, He forgave us of our sins and saved us. Jesus doesn't see you as others see you. He doesn't even see you as you see yourself. In your heart, you may label yourself in unflattering ways, just like the Jews labeled Zacchaeus as a sinful tax collector. Remember what Jesus called him, though—a true son of Abraham.

Just as Jesus saved Zacchaeus, He is willing to save all people who come to Him with simple faith and a sincere desire to change their hearts and minds. Jesus didn't reject Zacchaeus, and He won't reject you. Seek Him, and you will find Him.

1. What are the similarities between the rich young religious leader and Zacchaeus? What are the differences?
2. How does God see you differently than others do? How does He see you differently than you see yourself?
3. What are some ways you can show your commitment to God?

Jesus was changing everything. Outcasts like Zacchaeus were receiving forgiveness, and leaders were coming under God's judgment. The Jewish religious leaders were angry about these changes, so they began plotting to kill Jesus. They would need allies, though. Sadly, they found a willing coconspirator among Jesus' closest followers. The betrayer's name was Judas.

47 THE BETRAYER

Judas

Jesus called 12 men to be His closest followers. For over three years, the disciples traveled with Jesus, heard Him teach, and watched Him perform many miracles. Jesus chose these men to take His message to the world, which most of them did. However, one man named Judas didn't. Instead, he betrayed Jesus.

MATTHEW 26:14-16, 47-56; 27:1-10; LUKE 22:1-6

Near the end of Jesus' earthly ministry, Satan entered into Judas. This disciple then approached the religious leaders "to discuss the best way to betray Jesus to them" (Luke 22:3-4). These men were eager to destroy Jesus, but they preferred to do it secretly, not in front of the crowds. Thrilled to accept the disciple's offer, they gave Judas 30 pieces of silver in exchange for helping them find the right time to arrest Jesus (Matthew 26:14-16).

As Jesus and His disciples gathered together to eat the Passover meal, Jesus revealed that one of them would betray Him. This deeply upset the disciples, and one by one, they began asking, "Am I the one, Lord?" (Matthew 26:22). Not wanting to appear suspicious, Judas asked as well. To him, Jesus replied, "You have said it" (Matthew 26:25).

Later that evening, Jesus and the disciples went to the Mount of Olives. Judas alerted the religious leaders that this was their opportunity to act. A group of men carrying weapons came to arrest

Jesus. Having arranged the signal beforehand, Judas went up to Jesus and kissed him. Jesus replied, “Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?” (Luke 22:48).

The men arrested Jesus and brought Him to the religious leaders who wanted Him killed. Most of the disciples fled, but a few followed at a distance. When Judas realized his actions would result in Jesus’ death, he returned to the religious leaders and confessed, “I have betrayed an innocent man” (Matthew 27:4). These men did not care about Judas’s guilty conscience, and they were certainly not going to set Jesus free. Judas threw the 30 pieces of silver back at them and left. Overcome with remorse, he took his own life by hanging himself (Matthew 27:5).

Judas followed Jesus every day for over three years. He heard and saw everything the other 11 disciples did. How did his life end so differently from theirs? The Bible only provides a small amount of information about Judas, but what it tells is quite revealing. Shortly before Passover, the disciples attended a dinner held to honor Jesus who had recently raised Lazarus from death. Mary, a sister of Lazarus, poured costly perfume onto Jesus’ feet as a sign of love. Judas harshly criticized Mary for expressing her love in such an extravagant way. He said it would have been better to sell the perfume and give the proceeds to people in need. Contrary to his words, Judas did not have a generous spirit; he wanted the money for himself. Judas was responsible for the disciples’ money, and he frequently stole from the group’s funds (John 12:6).

The encounter with Mary is even more significant considering Judas willingly betrayed Jesus for money. According to the Law of Moses, the value of a slave was 30 pieces of silver (Exodus 21:32). Judas sold himself into slavery to Satan for that amount. Like the rich man, Judas had a problem with greed. He stole from Jesus and the other disciples and then betrayed the Lord for money.

We do not need to be afraid of ending up like Judas. No one was ever more evil. However, we would be wise to learn from his bad example. Slavery to his own greed destroyed Judas. Nothing should prevent you from following Jesus with all your heart. If something is standing in the way of complete surrender, let it go. If it is a struggle, ask the Holy Spirit to give you the power to overcome it. Jesus is more valuable than anything else you will ever find.

1. What kinds of things get in the way of people fully following Jesus?
2. What is the Holy Spirit saying to you about money and material possessions?
3. Some people act as if they are following Jesus, but their hearts are not committed to Him. How can you make sure you are following Him with all your heart?

Judas played a major role in Jesus’ execution, but his was not the only part. Religious leaders plotted against Jesus and riled the people against Him. The disciples ran away, and one of them even denied knowing Jesus. The Roman governor Pilate sent Jesus to Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee, but Jesus refused to answer Herod’s questions. In the end, Pilate sent Jesus to His death. No one was innocent, even if they proclaimed themselves to be so.

48 THE MAN WITH BLOODY CLEAN HANDS

Pilate

The Jewish religious leaders feared Jesus and hated His influence on the people. Time after time, they tried to discredit Him, but with no success. There seemed to be only one solution—Jesus had to die. With help from the disciple Judas, they had Jesus arrested, and they questioned Him in front of a religious tribunal. Then they brought Jesus to Pilate, the Roman governor. The governor found no cause to condemn Jesus, but the religious leaders vehemently demanded Jesus’ death. In the end, Pilate’s hands held Jesus’ fate. Though he did not want to take on that responsibility, the governor soon found he could not wash his hands of Jesus, even when he tried.

MATTHEW 27:11–26; JOHN 18:28–19:16

Jesus’ teaching and ministry captured the hearts of many but hardened the hearts of others. Most of the Jewish religious leaders saw Jesus as a threat to their position and power. They paid Judas, one of the disciples, to help them find a time to arrest Jesus. After eating the Passover meal, Jesus and His disciples went to the Garden of Gethsemane to pray. Judas led a band of soldiers to the garden, and they arrested Jesus. They immediately brought Him to a tribunal of prominent religious leaders where He was falsely accused of speaking against God. Then they brought Jesus to Pilate, the Roman governor who ruled over their land. The religious leaders did not have the authority to execute Jesus, but Pilate did (John 18:31). They told Pilate that Jesus deserved to die on a cross.

Pilate questioned Jesus, but he discovered Jesus had not broken any Roman laws. The governor also realized the religious leaders did not want justice as they claimed; instead, hatred and jealousy motivated their actions. Every year during Passover, the Jews asked Pilate to free one prisoner. Hoping to excuse himself from the situation, Pilate offered to release Jesus; however, the accusers wanted the criminal Barabbas released instead.

Pilate was in a difficult situation. He did not want to condemn Jesus because he could not find Him guilty of breaking any laws. However, the governor also feared that a riot would break out if he refused to give the religious leaders what they wanted. When Pilate attempted to set Jesus free, the angry men yelled, “If you release this man, you are no ‘friend of Caesar.’ Anyone who declares himself a king is a rebel against Caesar” (John 19:12).

Pilate felt trapped. If he released Jesus, someone might accuse him of opposing Caesar’s rule, which would put his own life in jeopardy. But if he had Jesus crucified, he would be guilty of condemning an innocent man. The governor reasoned that his only choice was to give Jesus over to be crucified but publicly disown the decision. Rinsing his hands in water, Pilate told the crowd, “I am innocent of this man’s blood. The responsibility is yours!” (Matthew 27:24).

God sent His Son to the world to pay the price for humanity’s sins, but Pilate still had the authority to either release Jesus or have Him killed. Pilate’s wife even warned him to “leave that innocent man alone” (Matthew 27:19). The Roman governor did not want to have an innocent man’s blood on his hands and conscience. However, by succumbing to the pressure from the Jewish religious leaders, Pilate could not completely wash his hands of his involvement, even though he tried.

Many factors affect the choices we make, but God still holds us responsible. The actions and opinions of others may influence us, but in the end, we are responsible for our own actions. When faced with the drastic choice about Jesus, Pilate wrestled with his accountability to Rome, the words of Jesus, the demands of the religious leaders, and his own conscience. In the end, he yielded to the pressure from the crowds. He chose to protect himself, even though he knew it meant the death of an innocent man.

Making right choices is not always easy. We can often disappoint or even anger others. Sometimes the right decision isn’t immediately obvious. However, God promises to help us when we face difficult choices. Stop focusing on “my decision” and spend your efforts on listening to the Holy Spirit. There is a big difference between deciding and discerning. Deciding implies your will takes precedence. Discerning means giving God’s will first place. The Bible says,

Trust in the LORD with all your heart;
do not depend on your own understanding.
Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take (Proverbs 3:5-6).

If you want to do what is right, listen to the Holy Spirit.

God will forgive you for any bad choices you have made if you simply ask Him. You may have to live with some of the consequences of those choices, but you do not have to live with guilt and shame. Ask the Holy Spirit to speak to you clearly and trust Him to guide you to the right choices. He may tell you to go against the crowd, but you will experience joy and peace in your heart when you follow His voice.

1. Have you ever made your own choice and ignored the Holy Spirit? What happened?
2. Think of a time when you obeyed the Holy Spirit’s voice, even though it meant going against the crowd. What was the result?
3. Do you need to hear the Holy Spirit’s voice regarding a specific situation today? If so, ask Him to speak clearly to you right now.

Pilate sent Jesus to His death. Roman soldiers mocked Jesus, beat Him, and placed a crown of thorns on His head. They led Him outside the city of Jerusalem and nailed Him to a cross. It was the worst event in human history. However, it was also the best event in human history.

49 A NEW MAN IN PARADISE

The Thief on the Cross

Pilate reluctantly gave into the demands of the Jewish religious leaders and sentenced Jesus to death by crucifixion. Spurred on by the taunting crowd, Roman soldiers mocked Jesus and treated Him as a criminal. They also placed two actual criminals on crosses next to Him. As these men suffered and took their dying breaths, one chose to put his last hope in Jesus.

LUKE 23:33-43

Crucifixion is a gruesome way to die. A condemned person often hung on a cross for hours, slowly suffocating. The Romans used crucifixion as a cruel method to kill criminals and enemies of the state. They specifically designed this execution to torture and humiliate the condemned person as well as deter others from rebelling against Roman rule. The Jewish religious leaders demanded Jesus’ crucifixion because they did not want Him simply to go away—they wanted Him to suffer as well.

Soldiers led Jesus and two convicted criminals to Golgotha (also known as The Skull) and nailed the three men to crosses. Onlookers taunted Jesus, “Let him save himself if he really is God’s Messiah, the Chosen One” (Luke 23:35). They dared Jesus to prove Himself as the Messiah by coming down from the cross. One of the criminals hanging next to Jesus showed no remorse for his actions and joined in the crowd’s mocking, saying, “So you’re the Messiah, are you? Prove it by saving yourself—and us, too, while you’re at it!” (Luke 23:39).

The other criminal, however, recognized there was something different about Jesus. Speaking to the first criminal, he said, “We deserve to die for our crimes, but this man hasn’t done anything wrong” (Luke 23:41). Then he asked Jesus to remember him when Jesus entered His Kingdom. Recognizing this man’s faith, Jesus responded, “I assure you, today you will be with me in paradise” (Luke 23:43).

The contrasting responses of the two criminals represent the ways people respond to sin and the Good News of Jesus Christ. One man showed no remorse for his crimes. Instead, he defiantly challenged Jesus. The other man acknowledged his guilt, accepted his punishment, and humbly asked Jesus for mercy. If we respond like the second man, we too can receive the promise of eternal life with the Lord.

In reality, we all deserve death, but Jesus offers us the incredible gift of eternal life. Our response to Him makes all the difference. At the very end of his life, one man received the promise of eternity with the Lord. The other did not. As long as we are alive, it is never too late. We are never too old to put our faith in Jesus Christ. The sooner we do, though, the more our lives will count for His Kingdom.

1. What would you say to someone who believes it is too late for them to put their faith in Jesus?
2. What would you say to someone who wants to be saved but says they will wait until a later date?
3. The criminal who put his faith in Jesus while on the cross was saved. However, what did he miss experiencing by waiting to be right with God until he was dying?

Jesus is in the business of forgiveness, and He wants to make us right with God. He is the God of second chances. As long as we live, He stands waiting for us to change our hearts and minds and turn to Him. Jesus gave forgiveness from the cross, and He even forgave those who once turned their backs on Him during His time of need. Simon Peter was one of those people. Not only did Jesus forgive him, but He also called Peter to lead other believers as Jesus was getting ready to return to heaven.

50 THE SECOND CHANCE

Simon Peter

Simon Peter, a fisherman by trade, had fished through the night without a single catch. The next morning, he was surprised to hear Jesus say, “Now go out where it is deeper, and let down your nets to catch some fish” (Luke 5:4). Peter was tired from the previous night’s attempt, but he trusted Jesus. When the fisherman threw out his nets this time, he caught so many fish that both his boat and his partners’ boat almost sank! Then Jesus told Peter, “Don’t be afraid! From now on you’ll be fishing for people!” (Luke 5:10).

JOHN 21:1–19

As one of Jesus’ 12 disciples, Peter courageously (and impulsively) said and did things the other disciples would not. For example, he was Jesus’ only follower to walk on water (Matthew 14:29). When Jesus asked the disciples who they believed Him to be, only Peter identified Him as the Son of God (Matthew 16:16). Bible scholars often note Peter’s impulsivity. For example, only shortly after his declaration that Jesus was the Messiah, Peter scolded Jesus for speaking about His eventual death and resurrection. Jesus rebuked the overzealous disciple, even saying Peter’s words came from Satan (Matthew 16:21–23).

As the time came near for His death, Jesus gathered the disciples and told them they would all turn away from Him. Peter protested, “Even if everyone else deserts you, I will never desert you. . . . Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!” (Matthew 26:33–35). After soldiers arrested Jesus, Peter secretly followed them to the high priest’s home. However, when questioned about his association with Jesus and faced with the danger of personal harm, Peter did the very thing he swore never to do. He denied knowing Jesus—not once but three times! Earlier that evening, Jesus had warned Peter this would happen: “Before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you even know me” (Matthew 26:34). The usually audacious disciple was devastated when he realized what he had done. In bitter shame and disappointment, Peter returned to his previous profession as a simple fisherman (John 21:3).

Thankfully, Peter’s story continues from there. Following the Resurrection, the newly risen Jesus appeared to His disciples several times, and it was by the Sea of Galilee—where Peter first met Jesus—that the broken disciple received a life-changing second chance. Peter had once again fished all night with no success. The next morning, he and the disciples with him could see someone standing on the shore, and this unknown person told them to throw their net on the other side of the boat. When they did, the net became so full of fish they could not pull it in. Immediately, they knew who the mysterious person was—Jesus! Peter jumped out of the boat and swam to Him while the other disciples brought the fish to the shore.

When the disciples reached Jesus, He was already cooking breakfast over an open fire. Following the meal, Jesus asked Peter if he loved Him, not once but three times. After each affirmative response, Jesus called Peter to care for His “sheep”—His people. Peter had denied his Lord three times, but Jesus forgave him and gave him a second chance. Peter became a great apostle and boldly proclaimed the gospel for the rest of his life.

Have you had moments of incredible success as well as times of embarrassing failure? Maybe you served the Lord faithfully for a while, but then in a critical moment, you yielded to temptation and did not obey what the Lord wanted you to do. You may have failed to stand for Jesus in the face of opposition, even though you had thought you were strong. If you have had any of these experiences, the devil wants you to believe God has given up on you. Don’t believe it! God never gives up on His sons and daughters.

Peter lost hope when he denied the Lord, but Jesus never lost hope in Peter. This fisherman eventually became a great evangelist and even wrote two of the New Testament’s letters. Your past failures do not determine your future worth. Admit your weakness and put your hope in the Lord. Jesus can do in your life what He did for Peter. Turn your heart to the Lord and trust Him to give you a fresh start.

1. Have you ever experienced failure in your spiritual life? What does Peter’s story say about God’s ability to restore His people?
2. How would you encourage someone to believe God gives second chances?
3. What does it mean for you to be God’s son or daughter?

Jesus told Peter to feed His people. A transformation was taking place in Peter’s character, but he was not yet up to the task. He would need greater power than a changed heart or mind could bring. The resurrection of Jesus had certainly made a great difference, but one more event would equip Peter to assume leadership of this new movement. No one knew exactly what would happen next, but Jesus promised more power would come on the Day of Pentecost.

51 THE DAY THE CHURCH WAS BORN

Pentecost

Just before He returned to the Father, Jesus told Peter and the other disciples to wait for the power they would need to take the Good News about Him to the world. The disciples watched Jesus ascend to heaven, and then they gathered in Jerusalem, as instructed, to pray and wait for God’s promised gift—the Holy Spirit.

ACTS 2

The sound of a mighty wind from heaven suddenly swept through the house where the followers of Jesus were meeting. Flames of fire settled over each person in the room, and they all began to speak in other languages. Jesus had promised to send a gift—the Holy Spirit—and an awareness rose with the crescendo of the voices: this is it! The Holy Spirit had come with presence and power (Acts 2:4). Once again, the disciples knew the words of Jesus were true—visibly, physically, and undeniably true. This is no subjective event; those present experienced it with all their senses. Everyone saw, heard, felt, and probably tasted and smelled. The Holy Spirit arrived on the Day of Pentecost and changed the meaning of that day forever.

Pentecost was a Jewish feast that brought people from many nations to Jerusalem. For the Jewish people, it commemorated the annual harvest and the firstfruits that came from it. For those present at the Church’s first Pentecost, it also commemorated a harvest of new souls and the firstfruits of Jesus’ resurrection. People from many nations stood and marveled at hearing these Jews from Galilee speaking in their own mother tongues. Some wondered what this miraculous occurrence meant; others simply accused Jesus’ followers of drunkenness (Acts 2:12–13).

Filled with the Holy Spirit’s power, Peter spoke to the crowd. He began by assuring the onlookers that the disciples were sober; it was, after all, still morning. Then Peter made a most radical claim—this is that. What the people were seeing and hearing was the fulfillment of something the prophet Joel had predicted many years earlier: “In those days I will pour out my Spirit” (Acts 2:18). Next, Peter reminded the crowd of the miracles Jesus performed. He told them Jesus was crucified according to the will of God and had also risen from death. Then the disciple proclaimed, "So let everyone in Israel know for certain that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, to be both Lord and Messiah!" (Acts 2:36). When Peter finished, many in the crowd asked what they needed to do to be saved. He told them, "Each of you must repent of your sins and turn to God, and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. Then you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:38). Three thousand people were saved and baptized that very day.

After Jesus' arrest, Peter was powerless. After the Holy Spirit's arrival, the disciple was powerful. God wants to provide His people with the power we need to accomplish all He calls us to do. After His resurrection, Jesus instructed His disciples to go to the whole world and preach the Good News. However, they would need the supernatural power of the Holy Spirit to accomplish this task. That is why Jesus told them to wait.

On the Day of Pentecost, Jesus' followers received the power they needed. Peter said the Holy Spirit anointed Jesus with power. Now, every believer can receive that same anointing from the Holy Spirit, which empowers us to be witnesses for Jesus. The Holy Spirit was present throughout the Old Testament years. At various times, He would manifest Himself to God's people. Now, He can live inside every believer everywhere and all the time.

You need the Holy Spirit. You cannot do all God has called you to do without Him. Supernatural tasks require supernatural power to accomplish them. Jesus promised to give His disciples the power they needed to do what He called them to do. He can and will do the same for you. As you share and live out your faith, you may feel like Peter before Pentecost, but that does not have to be your experience. Ask Jesus to fill you with the Holy Spirit. Peter said this gift is for "all who have been called by the Lord our God" (Acts 2:39). All includes you.

1. How did the Holy Spirit change the lives of the first believers?
2. How does the Holy Spirit change a believer's life today?
3. If you have received the Holy Spirit, how has He changed your life?

Those who first believed in Jesus not only preached the Gospel but also ministered in the power of the Holy Spirit. The book of Acts records miracles taking place as believers proclaimed the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Their preaching and power led to many believing in Jesus as Lord. However, some people tried to destroy the new movement. The first person killed for his faith in Jesus was a man named Stephen.

52 A MAN FULL OF GOD'S GRACE

Stephen

After the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, new believers joined the Church every day. The numbers swelled so quickly the apostles had trouble managing the care of every person. It was a good problem to have, but it was still a problem. The apostles decided to choose more leaders to help carry the burden. They selected seven men to make sure every believer was treated fairly when it came to mealtimes. Though these men were not apostles, they preached the Good News of Jesus in powerful ways. One of those chosen men was Stephen.

ACTS 6-7

Stephen boldly proclaimed the Good News of Jesus, and miracles confirmed his preaching. People who opposed him could not match his persuasive message, so they falsely accused him of rejecting both the Temple and Moses. These lies led to Stephen's arrest, and he was forced to appear before the Jewish religious leaders. Speaking to this high council, Stephen responded by recounting the history of the Jewish people, starting with Abraham and continuing through the captivity in Egypt and the Exodus. Then Stephen spoke about Solomon, the king God called to build His Temple.

Stephen ended his message by telling the religious leaders that just as their ancestors often refused to listen to the prophets who spoke for God, they were now rejecting what the Holy Spirit was speaking through him. At that moment, Stephen received a vision of heaven, where he saw Jesus standing at the right hand of the Father. Stephen infuriated his accusers by telling them what he was seeing, and they rushed to stone him to death. As they hit him with stones, Stephen focused on the vision of heaven. Just as Jesus did during the Crucifixion, he asked God to receive his spirit and not to hold his accusers accountable for their sin (Acts 7:59-60). Then Stephen died and went to be with the Lord.

The first Christians boldly proclaimed the Good News of Jesus and walked in the power of the Holy Spirit. However, they also experienced persecution, even to the point of death. Many people gladly received their message, but many others rejected it. The situation today is no different. Many receive the message of salvation while others reject it.

Believers around the world still suffer persecution, even unto death.

The Good News of Jesus remains the same. God has called us to follow Jesus and has anointed us to proclaim His truth. Some will joyfully receive the message; some will hatefully reject it. Like Stephen, we cannot allow the fear of rejection or persecution to prevent us from answering God's call. We should not seek conflict; rather we should make the gospel attractive to those who will listen. Even so, some people will have no desire to embrace the truth or to change their hearts and minds. Jesus was with Stephen, and He will be with you as well. As you obey God, He will watch over you. Jesus said He will acknowledge before the Father anyone who acknowledges Him before people.

God can work mightily through anyone. Stephen was not an apostle; he was a man the apostles appointed to ensure food was distributed fairly. Yet Stephen was also "a man full of God's grace and power, [who] performed amazing miracles and signs among the people" (Acts 6:8). No one was able to challenge his wisdom and the Holy Spirit within him (Acts 6:10). You may see yourself as just an ordinary person without any great spiritual position or title. Believe that God can and will do great things through you as you serve Him faithfully. The same Holy Spirit available to Stephen is available to you today.

1. What special calling has God placed on your life?
2. How can you remain faithful to proclaim the truth about Jesus even in the face of opposition?
3. How can we support and encourage persecuted believers around the world?

The book of Acts also includes events in the lives of other early church leaders. Philip in the book of Acts is often called the Evangelist or Deacon to distinguish him from the apostle Philip. He was one of the seven men chosen by the apostles to ensure the fair distribution of food. When the Jewish religious leaders killed Stephen and began persecuting the Church, many believers left Jerusalem. Philip went to Samaria and told people there about Jesus. Later, the Holy Spirit sent Philip to explain the gospel to a man who served as the treasurer of Ethiopia.

53 A TRUE SEEKER

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch

After His resurrection, Jesus told His disciples to go into the world and tell people the Good News about Him. He said they should start in Jerusalem and Judea. After Judea, Jesus told them to preach in Samaria and then the rest of the world (Acts 1:8). Jesus not only wanted the Jewish people to hear the Good News but the entire world too. Most of the people in Jerusalem and Judea were Jews. However, those who lived in Samaria were a mixed race of people who were descendants of Jews who married people from other nations.

Like Stephen, Philip was also chosen by the apostles to help with the daily needs of the Church. Philip had great spiritual power and authority, and when persecution began in Jerusalem, he went to preach the truth about Jesus to the Samaritans. The Lord then worked through Philip to tell the Good News to people from other parts of the world. One of those people was the treasurer for Kandake (Candace), the queen of Ethiopia.

ACTS 8:26-40

After Philip preached to the people of Samaria, an angel told him to head south toward the town of Gaza. As he did, he encountered the treasurer of Ethiopia who was traveling home after going to Jerusalem to worship God. The Holy Spirit told Philip to walk alongside the Ethiopian's carriage.

As he did, Philip learned that the Ethiopian was reading the words of the prophet Isaiah. By divine appointment, the man was reading Scripture that specifically addressed the death of Jesus.

Since the Ethiopian did not understand what he was reading, Philip took the opportunity to tell him about Jesus. When the Ethiopian heard and understood, he put his faith in Jesus and asked Philip to baptize him immediately. Philip did as the man requested, and immediately after, the Lord miraculously took Philip away. Then the Ethiopian treasurer continued on his journey home with great joy (Acts 8:39).

This event in Philip's life offers many words of encouragement:

The Holy Spirit can empower every believer.
— Philip was not one of the apostles. The apostles simply appointed him to care for the physical needs of some believers in the Church. However, Philip preached the Gospel in Samaria, and "many evil spirits were cast out. . . . And many who had been paralyzed or lame were healed" (Acts 8:7). You do not need to be famous or serve as the pastor of a large church for God to do great things through you.

God looks at the heart.

— The Ethiopian man was not only a treasurer; he was also a eunuch, which means he did not have the typical body parts that distinguish a man from a woman. This procedure was often done to men who served in a royal palace in the ancient world. According to the Law of Moses, a man with such physical limitations was not allowed to enter the Temple (Deuteronomy 23:1). Even so, this man had a heart for God. The Ethiopian made the long journey from his homeland to Jerusalem to worship God, and God recognized his faith. The Holy Spirit led Philip to bring this man the message of salvation through Jesus Christ. God wanted to reach the Ethiopian with the Good News. He also put the right people in your life so you would hear about Jesus. As the Lord said through the prophet Jeremiah: “If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me” (Jeremiah 29:13).

God loves all people.

— Jesus told His disciples to take the Good News about Him throughout the earth because God loves every person in every nation. The Jewish people had rejected the Samaritans because they were a mixed race, but God sent Philip to reach them with the message of salvation. Then the Holy Spirit sent Philip on a special mission to explain God’s Word to the Ethiopian. God loved the world so much that He sent Jesus to save whoever would believe in Him (John 3:16).

He loves every person, including you. If you seek Him, you will find Him. If you have come to know Jesus as your Savior, then allow the Holy Spirit to lead you as you tell others about the Good News, just as Philip did.

1. Has the Holy Spirit ever given instructions to you? What did He tell you to do?
2. God wants all believers to have a heart for global missions. What are some ways you can support missions around the world?
3. What can you do today to help other people understand God’s Word?

As men and women began to tell the story of Jesus to people outside Jerusalem and Judea, the young Church faced new challenges. What would they do with people who did not understand Jewish laws or customs? They wondered what Jesus meant when He told them to tell everyone about Him. Should the Church expect new believers to conform to the same standards as the Jewish Christians? Would the same Holy Spirit be available to all people no matter where they lived? These were serious matters that could not be taken lightly. The Holy Spirit began to challenge their preconceptions, including the mindset of the apostles.

54 GOD LOVES ALL PEOPLE

Cornelius and Peter’s Vision

Jesus is the promised Savior of the Jewish nation, but He also came to offer salvation to every person. “For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life” (John 3:16). The first apostles did not yet understand all the implications of this verse. Over time, however, the Holy Spirit began to show them. The book of Acts contains an important story about salvation coming to someone who was not Jewish. This man’s name was Cornelius, and his salvation changed many things, including the heart and mind of the apostle Peter.

ACTS 10

Cornelius was a devout and generous Roman officer who led a God-fearing household. This Gentile man prayed to God regularly (Acts 10:1-2). One day, an angel came to tell Cornelius to send for the apostle Peter who was staying in the city of Joppa. Cornelius obeyed what the Lord had told him to do. Through this meeting, Cornelius had a divine encounter, and soon Peter did as well. In a vision from the Holy Spirit, Peter saw a large sheet descend from heaven with many animals that the Law of Moses forbid the Jewish people to eat. According to the Law, meat from these animals was “unclean.”

Then a voice told Peter to eat the animals from the sheet. Peter had never eaten “unclean” food before, so he objected. The voice replied, “Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean” (Acts 10:15). Peter saw the same vision three times. As he mulled over what he had seen and heard, the men whom Cornelius sent arrived. At that moment, the Holy Spirit revealed to Peter that he should go with the men at the door. Peter obeyed the Lord and traveled with the men to the home of Cornelius the very next day.

When Peter arrived, he told everyone that even though the Jewish law prohibited him from entering a Gentile home, “God has shown me that I should no longer think of anyone as impure or unclean” (Acts 10:28). The apostle realized that the Lord’s vision was less about food than it was about the people the Jews considered “unclean”—the Gentiles. Many Jews believed God had rejected these people. When Peter heard the reason Cornelius had sent for him, he responded, “I see very clearly that God shows no favoritism” (Acts 10:34). Peter told everyone in the household about Jesus, and the Holy Spirit fell on those who were listening, just as He had come upon the Jewish believers on the Day of Pentecost. God worked through Cornelius and Peter to bring the Good News about Jesus beyond the Jewish nation and into the Gentile world.

God called Abraham to be the father of the Jewish nation. They were to be different from all the other nations. God gave the Jewish people His covenant and told them not to worship the false gods of other nations. However, God also told Abraham his descendants would bless all the nations. At the time when Peter encountered Cornelius, most Jewish people simply looked down on those who were not like them.

God did separate the Jewish people from other nations, but He did it to keep them holy, not to keep the other nations from knowing about His grace and goodness. Many of God's people forgot this greater mission. When some of the Jews began to believe in Jesus, they willingly shared their faith with other Jews, but not with Gentiles. God had to do something special and radical to change their attitudes, so He brought Cornelius and Peter together.

God loves people from every race, nation, language, and background. He wants to save anyone who will come to Him in faith. He shows no favoritism. Even today, many people in one group will not accept those in another. If we are to view everyone as God does, then we will recognize we are all the same in two important ways: God created all of us in His image, and Jesus died for every one of us. Every person has sinned and is in need of a Savior. God sent His Son, Jesus, to save the world, not just one group of people. He calls us to share the love of Jesus with everyone.

God will always accomplish His purposes. In the case of Cornelius and Peter, God was speaking to both of them in different places at the same time for the same purpose. He prepared them for what was about to happen. At times, the Holy Spirit will ask you to do something that may seem unusual, difficult, and even scary—but never impossible. If He calls you to do something, all of heaven is moving things into place to accomplish God's plan. As you obey, you will be amazed at what God has been doing behind the scenes.

1. What has God called you to do that seemed difficult at first but later revealed His hand at work?
2. How can you share the Good News about Jesus with people who are not like you?
3. What does "God shows no favoritism" mean to you?

The early church's mission to the Gentiles was just beginning. However, much more work remained. If Peter's actions broke down some of the barriers between Jews and Gentiles, Paul's activities shattered them.

55 A MESSENGER TO THE GENTILES

Paul

Paul was a devout Jewish Pharisee on a mission to stamp out the new movement of Jesus' followers. He believed he was accomplishing God's work until he encountered the resurrected Jesus. Soon, the Lord called Paul to preach the Good News in many places. The Holy Spirit also inspired this man to write a significant portion of the New Testament.

ACTS 7:58-8:3; 9:1-31; 11:25-30; 13-16

Not only was Paul present at the stoning of Stephen for his faith in Jesus Christ, but Paul may have thrown the first stone. Traditionally, one person threw the first stone, and then the others put their coats at his feet as a way to show their complicity in the stoning. In any case, Paul approved of Stephen's execution. Soon after, he traveled toward the city of Damascus. Paul intended to persecute the believers living there. While he was on his way, a light brighter than the noonday sun knocked him off his horse and blinded him. Then Paul encountered the risen Lord.

Paul was shocked to hear Jesus ask, "Why are you persecuting me?" (Acts 9:4). The Lord told Paul He was calling him to preach the gospel to the entire world (Acts 26:16-18). Then He told Paul to go to Damascus where he would receive further instructions. Paul remained blind for three days. The people traveling with him had to lead him into the city. The Lord called a man named Ananias to pray for Paul's healing and filling with the Holy Spirit. Ananias obeyed, and Paul regained his vision. Immediately, Paul began preaching the Good News about Jesus.

At first, Christian believers questioned Paul's sincerity. They wondered if he faked his conversion in an attempt to arrest more Christians. Over time, they realized Paul had experienced a miraculous transformation. The man who had once tried to silence the message of Jesus was now boldly proclaiming it!

The book of Acts describes Paul's three missionary journeys. He preached boldly, and the miracles he performed by the power of the Holy Spirit confirmed his message. Paul declared the gospel in much of the then-known world. For his efforts, he experienced persecution from both unbelieving Jews and Gentiles wherever he went. During one visit to Jerusalem, Paul nearly lost his life. He was later sent to Rome and imprisoned for a long time. During his imprisonment, the Holy Spirit inspired him to write letters to the churches; these communications now make up a significant portion of the New Testament. After many years of faithful service to the Lord, Paul died for his faith at the hands of the Roman government. Paul had one of the most amazing lives in all history. No other person had a greater impact on the world for the cause of Christ than Paul.

Although most of us will likely never have Paul's influence, we can still learn many things from his life and ministry

Remember who you were before Jesus saved you.

— Paul never forgot the person he was before Jesus saved him. He had led a ruthless persecution of believers. As a result, Paul knew he was as unworthy of God's grace as any person, which made him all the more grateful to the Lord. He once said he was the worst of all sinners (1 Timothy 1:15). We must never forget who we were before God rescued us from our sin. We have no right to look down on others who have not yet accepted Jesus. Pride should have no place in our lives. The past humbles and reminds us that God's grace alone saved us.

Remember who you are now that you are saved.

— Paul knew how sinful he had been, but he did not let the past keep him from fulfilling God's call on his life. Instead, his past motivated him to serve with greater zeal and passion (1 Corinthians 15:10). Your past does not disqualify you from God's service. Instead, it should motivate you to serve the Lord with all that you have.

Remember what Jesus has saved you to do.

— Paul brought Jesus' message of salvation to the Gentiles, the very people many believed unworthy of it. Remember, God so loved the world, not just those we consider acceptable. Like Paul, we must share the Gospel with everyone. Paul's conversion shows us that God's grace can reach any person. Who could have expected the man who mercilessly persecuted Christians to become a champion for Jesus? No one is beyond God's reach. The worst of sinners can become the greatest of Christ's followers. Someone simply must tell them about Jesus.

1. What was your life like before Jesus saved you? How is it different now?
2. What would you say to someone who believes their past disqualifies them from receiving God's grace?
3. Who in your life needs to hear the Good News about Jesus today? Ask God to give you the opportunity to share His love with that person.

During Paul's second missionary journey, he met a follower of Jesus named Timothy. This young man had a Jewish mother and a Greek father. All who knew Timothy spoke well of him, so Paul selected him as a traveling partner. Timothy became one of Paul's spiritual sons.

56 A SON IN THE FAITH

Timothy

During his second missionary journey, the apostle Paul met the young man Timothy while in the city of Lystra. Paul chose Timothy to accompany him for the remainder of his trip. Timothy was the child of a mixed marriage; his mother was Jewish while his father was Greek. Timothy had not been circumcised, so Paul encouraged him to submit to the procedure to avoid any unnecessary hindrances to Paul's ministry. For years, Timothy ministered under and alongside this great apostle.

ACTS 16:1-5; 1 TIMOTHY 4:11-13;
2 TIMOTHY 2; 3:14-17

In the book of Acts, Timothy faithfully served alongside Paul, both traveling with him and serving in whatever cities Paul asked him to go or stay. Paul wrote two letters to Timothy. Timothy was also the coauthor of the letters Paul wrote to the Corinthians, Thessalonians, and Philippians.

While Paul was in prison towards the end of his life, he wrote the second letter to Timothy. Not only did Paul give instruction, but he also made a personal and urgent request for Timothy to visit him (2 Timothy 4:9). Before Paul's death, he greatly desired to see his apprentice. The writer of the book of Hebrews states that Timothy also spent time in prison for his faith (Hebrews 13:23).

Timothy's life provides many valuable lessons:

A godly upbringing has great value.

— Timothy's father may or may not have believed the Bible, but Timothy's mother and grandmother were women of faith (2 Timothy 1:5). Timothy himself learned about God's Word at an early age (2 Timothy 3:15). His upbringing certainly contributed to the godly man he came to be. Do not underestimate the benefit of training children about the Lord from a young age. The influence of a godly parent, relative, or teacher can have a profound effect on a child's future. Children may not be able to understand everything in the Bible, but they can still receive great benefits from learning what it says, even at an early age. The Word of God can have a powerful influence on young children.

We need examples to follow.

- Timothy benefitted tremendously from Paul's example, training, and encouragement. When the young leader struggled, Paul encouraged him to let his character and calling qualify him (1 Timothy 4:12). Even the most gifted person requires good mentors, solid advisors, and positive role models. A wise person recognizes the need to learn from those who are more mature and experienced. Every "Timothy" should look for a "Paul" from whom to learn.

We need believing friends.

- Timothy held a special place in Paul's heart. They were fellow workers (Romans 16:21), but Paul also referred to Timothy as his son (1 Timothy 1:18). Over time, Timothy became more than a ministry partner to Paul; he became a dear friend. In Paul's letter to the Philippians, he said he had no one in his life like Timothy (Philippians 2:20). Learn from Timothy's example and find believing friends who will stand by you at all times. God will bring people into your life who can nurture, train, and develop you. Consider these people a divine gift. As you grow in the Lord, He may place you in relationships with others who can teach you how to fulfill your calling. The best-known spiritual leaders always had others to help them fulfill their calling.

God wants you to reproduce.

- As you become a mature believer, be willing to take on a "Timothy" as Paul did. God wants spiritual leaders to raise up the next generation. Today, you may wonder if you will ever be qualified as an example for others to follow. Learn from the Lord as well as from those He places in your life.

1. Who are the spiritual mentors God has placed in your life?
2. How should you prepare to one day be able to take on a "Timothy"?
3. What are you doing today to surround yourself with believing friends?

While imprisoned in Rome, Paul received a visitor from Colossae named Onesimus. Onesimus was the escaped slave of Philemon, one of Paul's friends. Paul encouraged Onesimus to return home and sent a letter with him. This letter asked Philemon to welcome Onesimus back, not merely as a servant but also as a brother in Christ.

57 A BROTHER IN CHRIST

Philemon

During the time of the New Testament, slaves made up a large percentage of the population. Onesimus, the slave of Philemon, fled from his master to Rome where Paul was imprisoned. Onesimus became a useful helper to Paul (Philemon 11). Paul knew Onesimus needed to return to Philemon, but Paul wanted things to be different this time around.

PHILEMON 1–25

The runaway slave Onesimus had become a follower of Christ, possibly while he was spending time in Rome with Paul. Paul was his mentor, but the imprisoned missionary knew that Onesimus needed to make things right with his former master, Philemon. Philemon was a believer as well as one of Paul's friends. Paul wrote a letter to Philemon asking him to accept Onesimus back as his brother in Christ rather than as a mere slave. Paul did not demand obedience from his friend; rather, he made an appeal to Philemon to look at Onesimus in a different light (Philemon 10). As far as society was concerned, Onesimus was merely a slave. However, in light of the work of Christ, he had become a brother in the Lord. Paul humbly asked Philemon to view Onesimus from a spiritual perspective. Doing so would completely change the nature of their relationship.

Philemon had every right to treat Onesimus as only a slave, but Paul asked him to lay that attitude aside and embrace Onesimus as a partner in Christ. To help his friend make this choice, Paul offered to cover any financial loss Philemon experienced while Onesimus served Paul. In his letter, Paul also appealed to their deep friendship and asked Philemon to receive Onesimus as if he were Paul himself.

At first glance, some people may wonder why the letter to Philemon is in the Bible. Is it only a personal letter from Paul to a friend about a slave? No, God put it there for very important reasons. Paul's letter teaches us that social differences and cultural prejudices have no place among the followers of Jesus. Philemon had a legal right to punish Onesimus for escaping. He could continue treating him as a slave. However, Paul asked Philemon to relate to Onesimus according to a “higher law” because of their shared faith. Paul urged Philemon to receive Onesimus back as a brother in the Lord, not as a slave.

Today, many distinctions still exist between people based on wealth, ethnicity, and other factors. Our society does not consider everyone as equal. These distinctions regard one person as better or lesser than another, but according to Paul, these differences disappear in Christ (Galatians 3:28).

Sadly, some believers do not always treat others as sisters and brothers. The book of James confronted and corrected believers who were favoring the wealthy over the poor. In the Church, those who were rich were not to receive any special favor or attention over those who were poor (James 2:1–4).

Paul reminded the believers that they had all been slaves to sin before coming to Christ. Now, every believer is a servant of Christ because of faith in Him (Romans 6:18). Jesus sets both slaves and non-slaves free from sin! Both slave and free can partake of the same Holy Spirit and join the same body of believers (1 Corinthians 12:13).

Paul’s letter to Philemon shows that societal distinctions no longer apply to those in Christ. God so loved the world—not just those of a particular tribe, tongue, nation, or people. The Holy Spirit helps us love others without distinction. Every person is lost apart from Christ, but anyone can join His family of believers.

1. Why is it important for believers to love one another, regardless of differences? What message does this send to unbelievers?
2. How can you pray for your church to become a place where all races are included?
3. What is the Holy Spirit saying to you about your attitude toward others who are different from you?

Jesus chose 12 disciples who later became known as apostles. James and his brother were both fishermen before they became disciples. James’s brother was likely only a teenager when Jesus called him, but he lived longer than any of the other apostles. The Bible describes him as the disciple whom Jesus loved. This brother’s name was John.

58 THE BELOVED DISCIPLE

The Apostle John

While Jesus chose 12 men as His closest followers, only three spent almost all their time with Him. John was one of those three. Jesus gave John and John’s brother James a nickname: “Sons of Thunder” (Mark 3:17). These men once asked if they should call down fire from heaven upon a village of people who did not welcome Jesus. The Lord corrected them for their rash request (Luke 9:51–55). John was on the mountain when Jesus met Moses and Elijah and His appearance was transformed (Mark 9:2–4). John stayed close to Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus prayed shortly before His arrest. During Jesus’ final meal with His disciples, John sat right next to Jesus. This man referred to himself as “the disciple Jesus loved.”

JOHN 1:1–16; 1 JOHN 4:7–21

The Holy Spirit inspired John to write one of the four Gospels. This apostle also wrote three letters and the book of Revelation. John’s Gospel includes stories the other three do not. John 21 records the personal conversation Jesus had with Peter after His resurrection. Peter had previously denied Jesus three times, and now Jesus asked Peter three times if he loved Him. Jesus gave Peter a second chance to prove his love for Him.

John wrote a great deal about God’s love for us and the love we should have for Him and other believers. As the “disciple Jesus loved,” he clearly understood the importance of loving God and loving others. John stated that if we truly love God, we will keep God’s commandment to love others (1 John 4:11).

John had an amazing life as he faithfully served the Lord into old age. Jesus called him when he was young, and for decades, John followed as the Lord guided and instructed him. In his Gospel, John reveals Jesus as the Word that was from the beginning, the Light of the world, the Bread of Life, and the Good Shepherd. He experienced the love of Jesus. As a result, John encouraged other believers to love God and to love others. He truly understood the two most important commandments Jesus gave (Matthew 22:36–40).

Near the end of his life, John received a special revelation of heaven from the resurrected Jesus. He saw a new heaven and a new earth where God had removed sin and evil. One day God will rid us of all sorrow, pain, and tears. He will dwell with His people for all eternity.

John followed Jesus over many years. His teaching is the key to a long life of service to the Lord—love God and love others. It is possible for us to make the Christian life too complicated. We may begin with a sincere desire to do everything right, but if we are not careful, that pursuit may lead us to self-righteousness. John never forgot the example of love Jesus demonstrated in life and in death. John's heart and mind were changed by Jesus' love. Even in old age, that love remained the center of John's life and teaching.

1. Why do you think loving God and loving others is the most important Christian teaching? How is this teaching different from other beliefs?
2. Can you think of a person who has lived a long life for the Lord? If so, what is special about that person?
3. What are some ways you can express the love of God through your words and actions this week?

59 BEHOLD THE LAMB

Jesus in Revelation

God didn't give us the Bible to make us fearful nor to frustrate us. He gave us His Word to answer life's deepest questions and to introduce God as a loving Father. While some things in Revelation may seem hard to figure out, what is clear is that God wants to give us hope for the present and the future.

REVELATION 1; 21

Revelation does not focus primarily on judgment, war, or destruction. The central figure in the book is Jesus Christ, and the central message is hope. The apostle John encountered the risen Lord on the island of Patmos, where John lived in exile. Jesus shows John many things and commands him to write them down (Revelation 1:19).

Though much of what John wrote addresses what has and will happen on earth, he also gave us a picture of heaven. In Revelation, John is taken up into the heavenly realm, and there he sees the hand of God holding a scroll. No one is worthy to open the scroll except the Lamb. This Lamb is Jesus.

Lambs play an important role in Scripture. The people offered them as substitute sacrifices for sin. Before God judged the Egyptians for preventing the Israelites from leaving, every Jewish family killed a lamb and placed some of its blood on their doorway. When the Lord killed the firstborn of the Egyptians, He spared Israel's sons (Exodus 12:23-29).

When John the Baptist saw Jesus, he said, "Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" (John 1:29). John knew why Jesus had come to earth. On the cross, Jesus bore the penalty for all our sins and died in our place. He was—and is—the Lamb whom all the other sacrificed lambs foretold.

In Revelation, John sees Jesus as the Lamb—the One who died for the sins of the world. Adam and Eve's sin corrupted God's perfect creation, but God had a plan to restore everything from the very beginning. This plan involved the Lamb. Jesus' death and resurrection broke the power of sin and death. God is now in the process of

Many people find John's book of Revelation difficult to understand. The apostle received visions of things like a beast with seven heads and 10 horns coming out of the sea (Revelation 13:1). The descriptions of earthquakes, water turning to blood, and destruction fill some people with fear and dread. Others experience frustration as they try to grasp the book's meaning. However, God did not confuse John, nor will He lead us to confusion. The book of Revelation is in the Bible to encourage us and give us hope.

restoring all things. That is the central message of John's Revelation.

John did have visions of earthquakes, death, and destruction. He described the judgment upon people who refused to repent. He wrote about water turning to blood, the sun and moon darkening, and stars falling from the sky. However, none of those events is the true focus of John's vision. The book of Revelation is not primarily about destruction; instead, it is about God's plan to put an end to everything that is evil, destructive, and not the way God designed it to be.

No one was found worthy to open the scroll except the Lamb. Likewise, none of us has the ability to save ourselves. Only the Lamb can save us from the effects of sin. Only the Lamb can restore us from our brokenness. When we make the Lamb our Lord, we have great hope for both the present and the future.

John's Revelation concludes with a picture of the new heaven and earth, in which God has restored His relationship with us. The world returns to the way He intended it. The time is coming when God will wipe away every tear from our eyes. Death, sorrow, and pain will be gone forever (Revelation 21:4)!

1. How does John's description of the new heaven and earth differ from our current earth?
2. Many people believe the book of Revelation is confusing. How would you encourage someone to discover its message of hope?
3. What does the image of Jesus as the Lamb mean to you?

No matter what your past looks like, God can restore you. He wants to give you a fresh start so you can spend the rest of your life and all of eternity with Him. John's Revelation clearly reveals Jesus as the Lord who will return for His people. If He is your Lord, you can look forward to a future in His presence without sorrow or pain.

and a desire to know better and that is why we have come to a different understanding of the meaning of worship. We are not alone in this. All over the world, people are realizing that worship is more than a set of words or a series of songs. It is a way of life.

It is a way of looking at the world and of living in it. It is a way of thinking and of feeling. It is a way of being.

WHAT IS WORSHIP?

ZACH NEESE

Worship is not a type of music. If it were, we could categorize it, consume it, and critique it. We could limit our engagement to our preferences and moods. Also, worship is not for people. If it were, people would be the objects of worship. And if people were the objects of worship, we would be gods unto ourselves.

Worship is for God. We worship Him with all three parts of ourselves: body, soul, and spirit. If one part is disengaged, we are not truly worshipping. As a tool, music helps us engage all three parts of ourselves with all three parts of God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Music affects our heartbeats, communicates emotions, and moves our spirits. But music itself is not worship.

The word worship is a compressed form of the Old English term worthship, which means ‘to give something worth.’ We worship God by communicating and demonstrating His value. When we value something, we put a price on it. That’s why worship is so often associated with sacrifice. We only sacrifice for things (or people) that are important to us—things that are valuable.

The first mention of worship in the Bible is in Genesis 22:5 when Abraham brings his son Isaac up the mountain to offer him as a sacrifice to God. Abraham says to his servants, “Stay here with the donkey . . . The boy and I will travel a little farther. We will worship there, and then we will come right back.” Worship. What Abraham really means is, “I will offer God the greatest sacrifice I have to offer, the most valuable thing in my world—my son—because God is worth even more to me.” Now, God doesn’t want us to sacrifice our children, so He provided a ram for Abraham to sacrifice instead. Today, God provides the sacrifice through Jesus, but the principle remains. Worship—valuing God—must cost the worshipper something. We sacrifice when we offer God our time, our money, our songs of praise when our circumstances don’t look praiseworthy, and our attitude of gratitude when we feel like grumbling. Sacrifice is always uncomfortable and always has a price. Worship is sacrifice.

One Hebrew word that is sometimes translated as ‘worshipper’ is abad. This word means ‘bondservant.’ Deuteronomy 15:12–18 explains that when a slave was released from his time of servitude, he had a choice to make. He could go free, or if he loved his master, he could choose to remain with him and serve him as a bondservant. We do not serve God because of any religious requirement or the threat of hell. We choose to serve Him because He loves us. And we love Him so much that there is nothing we would rather do for the rest of our lives than serve Him with every faculty of our being. That is worship.

Bond service speaks directly to the difference between religion and worship. Slaves serve their masters out of compulsion. They obey because there is a constant threat of negative repercussions for disobedience. They must obey because it is their duty. A bondservant, however, serves his master out of love. The bondservant is free to go his own way, but he chooses to stay with his master for the rest of his life. He loves his master so much that there is nothing he would rather do than serve him. And there is nowhere he would rather be than in his master’s house.

A religious person is like a slave. He serves God out of compulsion, fear, or a sense of duty. He is not truly free because he feels constrained to obey God, but his heart longs to be its own master. A worshipper, however, is a person who has complete freedom to choose but loves God so much that he chooses to serve and obey Him because there is nothing he would rather do.

Religion is motivated by fear and the sense that our identity and value are maintained through our work. Worship is always motivated by love. Two people can do the same thing, and God will receive one as an act of worship and reject the other as a religious work. The first biblical example of this can be seen in the sacrifices of the brothers Cain and Abel.

When it was time for the harvest, Cain presented some of his crops as a gift to the LORD. Abel also brought a gift—the best portions of the firstborn lambs from his flock. The LORD accepted Abel and his gift, but he did not accept Cain and his gift (Genesis 4:3–5).

Worship begins with a motivation from the heart, but it never stops there. The motivation is love, and that love must find expression in order to be considered worship. Unexpressed love is no love at all. God is not convinced by mere lip service. He reads our body language. Incidentally, the world reads body language too. It is only the Church that seems to be deceived by hollow platitudes and empty songs of affection.

So how do we demonstrate adoration for God? How do we demonstrate worship? Worship is love expressed God’s way. There are some ways we may think we are expressing love to God that He doesn’t see as love at all. For instance, God does not feel loved just because we sing a song that says we love Him. God needs more from His people.

God’s Word clearly teaches us how to express our love to God in a way He will recognize.

— “If you love me, obey my commandments” (John 14:15).

— “Those who accept my commandments and obey them are the ones who love me. And because they love me, my Father will love them. And I will love them and reveal myself to each of them” (John 14:21).

- “All who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will come together and make our home with each of them” (John 14:23).

- “Anyone who doesn’t love me will not obey me. And remember, my words are not my own. What I am telling you is from the Father who sent me” (John 14:24).

Salvation demonstrates God’s love for us. Worship demonstrates our love for Him.<sup>1</sup>

WHOM DO WE WORSHIP?

AARON CRIDER, DMIN

Worship has always been a centerpiece in the history of humanity. From the beginning, human beings have been drawn to worship anything that looks good at the moment. In Exodus 32, the people of Israel worshipped a golden calf when they grew impatient for Moses to return from the mountain. Ancient Egyptian worship was polytheistic, meaning they practiced idol worship of many different gods. These gods could be virtually anything and often included animals or parts of animals. Ancient Greeks opted for worshipping people and idols that looked like people. Today, we can clearly see humanity offering their worship at the altar of the gods of fame, fortune, substance, and self. The question for us today is not “Do you worship?” but “Whom do you worship?”

For believers, there can only be one answer: We worship the one true God. This fundamental statement of faith creates a distinction between Christians and those who simply worship a god. The prophet Isaiah says,

God, the LORD, created the heavens and stretched them out.
He created the earth and everything in it.
He gives breath to everyone, life to everyone who walks the earth (Isaiah 42:5).

Two chapters later, the Lord declares,

“How foolish are those who manufacture idols.
These prized objects are really worthless.
The people who worship idols don’t know this,
so they are all put to shame.
Who but a fool would make his own god—an idol that cannot help him one bit?” (Isaiah 44:9-10).

Isaiah plainly says there is one Creator of the heavens and one Giver of life on earth. That “One” is the only being deserving of glory and praise, and to give worship to any other is foolishness. That “One” is He whom we call God.

In Exodus 3:14-15, the one true God speaks to Moses and refers to Himself as “I AM . . . the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” As translated from the Hebrew, “I AM” expresses the nature of God—or Yahweh as verses 15-16 call Him—as the absolute, eternal, and unchanging Being who is and will always be. This one true God spoke the universe into existence in Genesis 1:1, and He breathed life into people in Genesis 2:7. All throughout Scripture, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob is revealed to us as eternal (Psalm 90:2), all-powerful (Matthew 19:26), unchanging (James 1:17), and even personal (Deuteronomy 34:10). The great hymn of praise in Romans 11 concludes with verse 36:

For everything comes from him and exists by his power and is intended for his glory. All glory to him forever! Amen.

He is the original Cause of all things, He is the current Sustainer of all things, and He is the eternal Lord of all things. That is the God we worship!

Having a full understanding of who God is is truly exciting. He stands alone as the one true God of the universe. Throughout the Old and New Testaments, God is both one and triune. Scripture testifies that the one true God exists eternally in three persons. These three persons are the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. These are not three separate gods, and they are not three gods in one. The Trinitarian doctrine articulates the testimony of Scripture by defining God as one eternal God, whose singular nature expresses itself in three persons. Genesis 1:26 says, “Then God said, ‘Let us make human beings in our image, to be like us.’” This passage shows the Trinity being revealed through Scripture when God speaks to Himself in the plural.

So who are the three persons of the Trinity? God the Father is the eternal and loving Creator of the universe, the Source and Sustainer of all life and all things. The Father created people for the purpose of relationship, and He is now calling them back to Himself through the Son who died on the cross for our sins.

God the Son—Jesus Christ—is the eternal Son of God who has been one with the Father and Holy Spirit from the beginning. Through Him, all things were created. Jesus left His place in heaven and came to this earth by the Holy Spirit, through the virgin Mary. Being fully God, Jesus took on a second nature and became God and Man in one person. The Son fulfilled the sayings of the Old Testament prophets by living a perfect, sinless life and dying on the cross for our sins so that we might be saved. God the Father raised Jesus from death, and Jesus is now seated at the right hand of the Father, where He intercedes for us as our eternal High Priest.

God the Holy Spirit is also eternal God and the Lord of life. Active throughout the entire Bible, the Holy Spirit was given to the Church in the fullness of power on the Day of Pentecost. The Holy Spirit empowers, comforts, and guides believers and is manifested by the fruit and gifts of the Spirit in our lives.

This truth can be a lot to grasp, but the reality is that we worship the one true God of all Creation whose nature is expressed in the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. There has never been, and there will never be any other like Him or above Him. He is the Kings of all kings and Lord of all lords. We worship the one true God who loves us with an everlasting love and wants nothing more than to have a relationship with us. Galatians 4:6 refers to Him as “Abba, Father,” which means ‘Daddy.’ In Hebrew, Psalm 7:17 calls Him El Elyon, which means ‘God Most High.’ Psalm 91:1 says He is El Shaddai, which means ‘God Almighty,’ and Genesis 22:14 says He is Yahweh-Yireh, which means ‘the LORD will provide.’

Deuteronomy 31:6 gives one of the most beautiful pictures of who the God we worship is:

“Do not be afraid and do not panic before them. For the LORD your God will personally go ahead of you. He will neither fail you nor abandon you.”

1. How can God be both one and triune? What are the actions of the three persons of the Trinity?
2. How do the different names of God (such as El Shaddai and Yahweh-Yireh) demonstrate His desire to have a relationship with us?
3. What are some common “idols” that people worship today? Are any of these idols preventing you from truly worshipping God?

WHY DO WE WORSHIP?

THOMAS MILLER

Genesis 1:27 states, “God created human beings in his own image.” To this crown of His creation, God gave the most remarkable gift: free will. From the moment we humans take our very first breath, we have the ability to choose how we will live and what we will do with our lives. The options may seem wide-ranging or even overwhelming at times. However, in the light of eternity, only one choice truly matters: Will we choose to live with God or without Him?

Worship is our prerogative. God created the first human, Adam, and assigned him to care for the Garden of Eden. The Lord also presented the man with his first opportunity to make a choice:

“You may freely eat the fruit of every tree in the garden—except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. If you eat its fruit, you are sure to die” (Genesis 2:16-17).

Why did God allow there to be such a tree? Was He unfairly introducing temptation to lead humanity astray? Actually, God was extraordinarily fair. He created a choice so Adam could exercise his free will. The man could choose to obey, partake of all the acceptable trees in Eden, and be connected to God. Or he could choose to disobey, eat the forbidden fruit, and sever his connection to God. God clearly laid out the consequences of disobedience: death and disconnection.

God could have named the animals, but instead, He brought them to Adam “to see what he would call them, and the man chose a name for each one” (Genesis 2:19). In the same way, God could make us do what He wants us to do, but He gives us a choice. We do not worship because we have to. We worship because we get to choose, and we choose the greater thing—connecting with God.

In Romans 12:1, the apostle Paul instructs believers to give their bodies as a “living and holy sacrifice” to God because “this is truly the way to worship him.” Jews in Paul’s day were very familiar with the concept of sacrifice as required by the Law of Moses. The Law called for burnt offerings of doves, goats, bulls, and other animals as atonement for sin. However, once sacrificed, these animals were dead. What does Paul mean by “living . . . sacrifice”? How can a sacrifice—something burned and therefore dead—be living (alive)? How can followers of Jesus offer themselves as living dead things? Paul explains that every believer must make this choice. We must choose to give our lives entirely to God, dying to our own control and surrendering to His. We worship God by offering all that we are for all that He is.

Bible translators render several Hebrew words as worship, but the most common connotation is ‘to bow low’ or ‘bow before.’ Many consider bowing to be one-directional—down. When we bow, we bow down. However, bowing also means to move toward. When we kneel before God, our posture is toward Him. False humility, on the other hand, leans back. This is the posture of those who merely go through the motions of worship as they want it to be—acting as if they live for Christ but surrendering no control. True, submitted worship always leans down and forward.

Worship is our purpose. God created us to worship. In John 4:23-24, Jesus tells the woman at the well, “True worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for those who will worship him that way. For God is Spirit, so those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.”

When we worship in spirit, our spirits connect with God’s Spirit. We reach beyond the physical realm in which we live and connect with the spiritual realm where God dwells. When we worship in truth, we declare that we wholly and openly offer our lives to the Lord. There is no false humility or artificial harmony. Nothing is held back.

When God spoke creation into existence, He said it was “good” (Genesis 1:9, 12, 18, 21, 25). However, when He created man, He said it was “very good!” (Genesis 1:31): God is self-sustaining, self-governing, and utterly complete within Himself, yet He created humans because He wants a relationship with us. Relationship is why we were created; therefore, relationship is our purpose.

Some people look to culture or entertainment to find their purpose, but the real answer is in the Word of God. Jesus says, “Those who accept my commandments and obey them are the ones who love me. And because they love me, my Father will love them. And I will love them and reveal myself to each of them” (John 14:21).

We were created to be with God, and we show our love to Him by doing what He commands. Worship is not about singing songs or showing emotions, though both can indeed be aspects of worship. At its core, worship is about fully offering ourselves to the Lord and obeying His commandments.

We are His pleasure. When we experience the incredible power of Christ’s love and forgiveness, our hearts change. One sign of this heart-change is the transformation of our desires. We no longer want to live to please only ourselves. Instead, we want to be pleasing to the Lord. When the apostle John had a vision of worship in heaven, he saw 24 elders bowing before God's throne and saying,

"You are worthy, O Lord our God,
to receive glory and honor and power.
For you created all things, and they exist because you created what you pleased" (Revelation 4:11).

God created what He pleased and what pleased Him—us! We are His prized creation. Psalm 37:23 says the Lord "delights in every detail" of our lives, and Psalm 149:4 says, "The Lord delights in his people." When we understand how much God cares for us, we in turn desire to be pleasing to Him. We can worship the Lord in spirit and in truth, choosing to fulfill our purpose and His greatest desire by giving our lives wholly to Him.

1. Why did God create the tree of the knowledge of good and evil?
2. What does it mean to offer yourself as a "living and holy sacrifice" to God?
3. How can we worship "in spirit and in truth"?

HOW DO WE WORSHIP?

MARK HARRIS

As a believer, you may know that the Bible says you should worship God. You may even feel a deep desire to express your thankfulness to Jesus, your Savior, who rescued you from sin and gave you a brand-new life. But you have one question: How do I worship?

Should you stand reverently with a hymnal in your hands and sing softly? Or are you supposed to shout and wave your arms? What about bowing? Dancing? What about acts of service, like feeding the poor or helping those in need? What is the right way to worship?

Worship always begins with a heart submitted to God. The position of your heart determines whether your actions are merely physical gestures or also spiritual ones—if you are connecting to your emotions or connecting to God. If the position of your heart is not worship, then nothing you can do with your body will be either.

The apostle Paul simplifies the “how” of worship in his letter to the believers in Rome:

Dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him” (Romans 12:1, emphasis added).

But what does it mean to be a “living and holy sacrifice”? Paul goes on to explain that God has given every believer a unique gift.

Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function, so it is with Christ’s body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other (Romans 12:4–5).

When we use the gifts God has given us for His glory, we worship Him. Many well-meaning Christians think worship only occurs during church services, but this is not true. On the contrary, worship can and should occur every day of our lives! Paul tells believers,

If God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly (Romans 12:6–8).

God does not require His people to become something they are not. He does not ask tone-deaf individuals to become expert singers or reserved introverts to become exuberant extroverts. Rather,

God allows us the amazing privilege of using the gifts He has already placed inside us. He has already equipped you with everything you need to worship Him. What an amazing Father!

Pastor Robert Morris says worship is “love expressed.” If this is true, then the how of worship is any act of service to God. It does not have to be extravagant, but it does have to be an expression of a humble heart. Pride and worship cannot coexist. Though he was created to be heaven’s worship leader, Satan fell because pride entered his heart. He wanted to “be like the Most High” (Isaiah 14:14). Pride is an easy trap to find ourselves tangled in; after all, it rarely presents itself as a dangerous sin. Instead, pride begins as the briefest notion of “I deserve . . .” When we begin to think we deserve more, we are entering the danger zone. We must remind ourselves of this truth: “Everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God’s glorious standard” (Romans 3:23). The only thing we “deserve” through our own merit is death. How amazing it is, then, that “the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord” (Romans 6:23). God alone is worthy of all worship.

When you speak or act in God’s name, you worship. This includes:

- raising your hands to the heavens,
- bowing your knees,
- singing songs of praise,
- comforting a hurting friend,
- working diligently at your job,
- teaching your children about God’s love,
- buying groceries for a struggling single parent,
- give an encouraging word to a neighbor,
- and so much more.

Worship does not require a talented singing voice, the ability to play an instrument, or a résumé full of community service. None of these are wrong, of course, and they can all be forms of worship. However, unless they are used for the glory of God, they are simply human effort. And in the light of eternity, human effort is worthless. True worship, on the other hand, has eternal significance.

Perhaps you have a hard time believing you can worship anywhere and anytime. You may feel as if God is so holy that nothing you do or say will be meaningful enough. Take comfort in 1 Samuel 16:7: “The Lord looks at the heart.” God does not require the “right” words or actions; He just wants the right heart.

While teaching His disciples about the final judgment, Jesus shared the following story:

“The King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. For I was hungry, and you fed me.

I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.'

Then the righteous ones will reply, 'Lord when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?'

And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!'" (Matthew 25:34-40).

1. How is the position of your heart related to worship?
2. Why can't pride and worship coexist?
3. What are some ways you can worship God in your everyday life?

BARKING UP THE WRONG TREE

ELIZABETH SETTLE

The LORD God made all sorts of trees grow up from the ground—trees that were beautiful and that produced delicious fruit. In the middle of the garden he placed the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

—Genesis 2:9

When God placed Adam in the Garden of Eden, He gave the man free reign, with only one exception:

“You may freely eat the fruit of every tree in the garden—except the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. If you eat its fruit, you are sure to die” (Genesis 2:16-17).

God put trees in the garden for Adam’s benefit. Adam and Eve, the helper God made for Adam, could receive all the nourishment they needed from the “delicious fruit” (Genesis 2:9). To enjoy a perfect existence in this paradise, the first humans simply had to stay away from one particular tree. God warned them that the tree of the knowledge of good and evil would be their tree of death. The choice was theirs, just as it is ours today. Will we choose life? Or will we choose death?

God designed people to depend on Him as their Supplier and Sustainer. When Adam and Eve chose to eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil (Genesis 3:6), they rejected God and elected their own knowledge to supply and sustain them. The sly serpent told Eve the forbidden fruit would make her like God, “knowing both good and evil” (Genesis 3:4). This deceitful serpent omitted the fact that with this knowledge came spiritual death. Adam and Eve’s spirits died the moment they ate that fruit. From then on, their bodies began to deteriorate, and their souls exchanged peace for shame (Genesis 3:7). They disobeyed, and with this fateful choice, “creation was subjected to God’s curse” and “has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time” (Romans 8:20, 22).

Even though the couple had eaten, the fruit of knowledge did not satisfy them. Imagine sitting down at a restaurant, hungry and eager to see the menu. You flip through its pages and consider how each dish might taste. The server pulls out a pad and pen to take your order, and you say, “I’ll take the menu, please.” The server seems puzzled and asks, “You mean you want to order every item on the menu?” Shaking your head, you clutch the menu to your chest and reply, “Oh, no, no, no. I mean I want to keep the menu. I’m going to study and memorize it, and then I will be full.”

At first glance, this may seem like a ridiculous illustration, but it makes an important point. You will not get full simply by knowing about food. In fact, you will die of malnourishment. In the same way, you cannot become fully alive merely by knowing about God. Again, the results are death—spiritual death. When the Pharisees boasted about how much they knew about God, Jesus confronted them: “You search the Scriptures because you think they give you eternal life. But the Scriptures point to me! Yet you refuse to come to me to receive this life” (John 5:39-40). Knowing about Jesus and knowing Jesus are two completely different kinds of “knowing.” Knowledge may be good, and knowledge may be evil. Either way, knowledge itself is not life. Or to put it another way, knowledge without a relationship is a waste of a life.

“Barking up the wrong tree” is an English expression that refers to hunting dogs who mistakenly think their prey is in a particular tree. These dogs plant themselves in front of that tree and bark persistently, but their efforts are useless because their prey has actually gone into another tree. The tree at which they are standing does not have and cannot give the dogs what they want. The dogs can bark all day, but their prey is long gone.

We may be smarter than dogs are about prey and trees, but sin and Satan deceive us about other more important goals. Our sin nature drives us to “bark up” the tree of knowledge as we strive to do good and avoid evil. We mistakenly believe that wanting to know more will lead to doing better. Thus, we plant ourselves in front of the tree of knowledge, hoping to be satisfied and nourished. However, knowledge never delivers the life we are seeking. Despite what we might learn or achieve, it is a polluted tree rooted in death. We are barking up the wrong tree, and life has actually gone elsewhere.

The apostle Paul writes, “Just as everyone dies because we all belong to Adam, everyone who belongs to Christ will be given new life” (1 Corinthians 15:22). Where the first man, Adam, failed, the New Man, Jesus, succeeded. Jesus came into the world as fully God and fully human, and He accomplished the greatest do-over of all time (1 Corinthians 15:47). By grace through faith, God will make us alive in Christ and restore us to His original plan to eat from the tree of life—Him!

Jesus said again, “I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you cannot have eternal life within you. But anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise that person at the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him” (John 6:53-56).

Sin, shame, sickness, Satan, and death are life's greatest enemies. You can stand by the tree of knowledge for the rest of your life, but you will never overcome them. The only real option is to surrender to Jesus' finished work, which He accomplished on another "tree"—the cross of Calvary.

Taste and see that the LORD is good.

Oh, the joys of those who take refuge in him!
(Psalm 34:8).

1. What happened to Adam and Eve's bodies when they ate the fruit from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil? What happened to their spirits?
2. Why is knowing about God not enough for your spirit to be alive?
3. Is there any sin, sickness, or shame in your life that you need to overcome? If so, tell God about it right now. He loves you, and He wants to make you fully alive through Jesus today!

UNBOUND

ELIZABETH SETTLE

Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him go!"

—John 11:43-44

When Jesus called Lazarus to come out of the grave, the once-dead man emerged alive. Fully alive! Salvation works in a similar way. When you are born again, Jesus calls your name, and by grace through faith, you come forth from the grave of sin. No longer spiritually dead, you are "alive to God through Christ Jesus" (Romans 6:11). Like Lazarus, those of us who have accepted Christ are now fully alive!

However, one problem remains: we are still bound. Our spirits are alive, but the fallen world in which we live still affects our bodies and souls. This is not the way it should be! God designed us to be influenced by His life-giving Spirit, but sin entered the world through Adam and Eve's disobedience. From the moment we are born, we are subject to sin's effects, including pain, sickness, dysfunction, and fear.

Salvation does not take us out of this fallen world. Like the risen Lazarus, many new followers of Christ find themselves alive yet still bound. Our "graveclothes" include the ways we have learned to self-satisfy, self-protect, and self-soothe in this hostile and often traumatizing environment. However, when we become born again, we no longer need to use these methods. We are children of God, and our heavenly Father promises to satisfy, protect, and soothe us as members of His own family. We just have to learn how to receive His love and allow it to free us from our areas of bondage.

The good news is we have already taken the first step! Through salvation, we accept God's amazing grace, which rescues us from death and makes us truly alive for the first time.

For God made Christ, who never sinned, to be the offering for our sin, so that we could be made right with God through Christ (2 Corinthians 5:21).

While we were still His enemies, Jesus paid the price to redeem our relationship with God (Romans 5:10). Jesus became rejected so we could belong. He became bound so we could be free.

As believers, we must mature into our new identity as children of God, which takes time. The apostle Paul explains,

Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect (Romans 12:2).

Our minds need to be transformed because we are accustomed to living in bondage. Satan does not want us to claim the freedom we rightfully have in Christ, so he tries to keep us trapped in old patterns of thinking and living. We may be tempted to think that our biggest problems are financial or relational; however, according to Ephesians 6:12, there is a more significant battle:

We are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.

No wonder we need the comfort and encouragement of other believers! Consider Lazarus once again. When he came out of the grave, his freedom was greatly limited by the graveclothes binding him. Jesus did not leave Lazarus to unbind himself. No, the Healer told those standing nearby to help. When you are born again as a child of God, you instantly become part of a family. God will bring healthy influences, helpful leaders, and wise counsel into your life. He does not expect us to live godly lives on our own. Community is a powerful part of our healing.

Have you ever had someone quickly remove a bandage from your arm? It hurts! Sometimes removing graveclothes hurts too.

Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed (James 5:16).

When we emerge from the grave of sin, the graveclothes of our past are all we know. It can be painful to lay down the thoughts, words, and actions that defined our former lives. We need one another to help us break free from the bondage in our soul.

Lazarus was dead for four days before Jesus raised him (John 11:39). If there was hope for Lazarus, there is hope for us! Are you ready to exchange what you know—what is old and familiar—for what you need in God, who offers a new and better life? Are you ready to be unbound from the bondage of your past and walk into a free future? God wants to speak life to your spirit and freedom to your soul. Like Lazarus, you too can be unbound.

1. How can you be spiritually alive but still bound?
2. Why is being part of a godly community an essential step toward freedom?
3. Are you still wearing some “graveclothes” from your past? What old patterns of thinking and living do you need to lay down today?

PROMISED LAND OR PRISON?

BENJAMIN GILMORE

Pharaoh sent for Moses and Aaron during the night. "Get out!" he ordered. "Leave my people—and take the rest of the Israelites with you! Go and worship the LORD as you have requested."

—Exodus 12:31

Exodus contains the account of God's deliverance of His people from slavery in Egypt. The Lord went to great lengths to set His people free, and He revealed Himself through 10 amazing plagues. However, the Hebrew text refers to these events not as plagues but as "signs." Whether they are signs or plagues really depends on your perspective. God told Moses the reason for them: "I will show you that I am the LORD" (Exodus 7:17). If you were a Hebrew, you would have seen the "signs" of God's mighty hand; if you were the Pharaoh, you would have seen God's visitation as "plagues." God delivered two messages with a single act: follow God and be delivered, or stand against God and death will visit your house.

Pharaoh missed the signs and got the plagues. Each plague served as a message to him, but it wasn't until the tenth plague that he finally understood: This God of the Hebrews is totally unlike the many gods of Egypt. After the tenth and final plague—the death of the firstborn sons—Pharaoh finally yielded his stubborn heart and reluctantly agreed with the call of God to "let my people go" (Exodus 5:1).

There's much more to this story, though. It didn't begin with the 10 plagues, nor did it end when Pharaoh finally gave in to God's command. The people of Israel had spent centuries crying out for deliverance from Egyptian oppression. Like the Israelites, we all start with important areas in our lives that need to change. Our inability to bring about these changes by ourselves leaves us feeling trapped, bound, and enslaved. We can't escape our hurts from the past or our current troubles. We want out, but there's no way out on our own. So like the Israelites, we come to the Lord and cry out, "Set us free!"

God was listening to His people, the Hebrews, the entire time. Consider the great effort He made to secure their freedom. Here's an amazing revelation: You are also one of God's people. He will go to great lengths for your freedom too! God cares more about your freedom than you do. He created you to live for Him and with Him—worshipping Him "in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24). It won't even take centuries; God has already heard you. He purchased your freedom before you even knew you needed it (Romans 5:8).

For the Hebrews, Egypt was a prison, but God was going to take them to Canaan, the Promised Land. However, between the two places was another land—the wilderness of Sinai. Very soon after their escape, the Hebrews came to the border of the Promised Land. Following God's command, Moses sent 12 spies into Canaan to explore the area. Forty days later, they returned with a report. The majority (10 spies) gave their fearful account: while the land is bountiful, the current inhabitants are too powerful, and they will destroy us. Only two spies gave the minority report. Joshua and Caleb acknowledged the facts about the land, but they came to a different conclusion: these Canaanites are big, but the Lord is bigger. With His help, we can defeat them.

The Hebrews had witnessed God's strong hand of deliverance in Egypt and the destruction of Pharaoh's army in the Red Sea (Exodus 14:15–31). So why did they still have the minds and hearts of slaves? They were physically free yet spiritually bound by fear and doubt. It's one thing to know God is powerful, but it's quite another to believe He will use His power on your behalf. Given the "facts" about their circumstances, the Hebrews refused to trust God's faithfulness. Instead, they complained, saying they would be better off dead than to face the challenges of the Promised Land. Some even began plotting to return to Egypt (Numbers 14:4).

You might think God was toying with the Hebrews as He led them in circles through the wilderness for 40 years, but that is not the case. They were the ones who refused to enter the Promised Land because of their stubbornness and fear. They fell under judgment, but they actually brought it on themselves—they got what they wanted and didn't have to face the Canaanites. Eventually, everyone from that generation died, except for Caleb and Joshua. These men were the only two original participants of the Exodus to enter and occupy Canaan.

Sometimes on your journey to freedom, you may find yourself taking a detour through your own wilderness. Trust God. He is working things into you as well as working things out of you. He sees the areas where you need to grow and the areas that need to die. Though it may be difficult, even painful, the wilderness is an expression of God's kindness. He is working to get you to a place where the freedom before you is the freedom within you.

For four centuries, the Hebrews lived in bondage, and while their bodies left Egypt, their hearts and minds remained captive. God had taken them out of slavery, but He still had to take slavery out of them. The same is true for you today. When you find yourself looking toward the Promised Land but seeing only a prison, there is still work to be done inside of you. This work can only be accomplished by setting time apart with God.

Do you see a room full of strangers as a Promised Land or a prison? Do you think, Look at all the people I can meet or Look at all the people who will reject me? When you see a business opportunity, do you say to yourself, I will never be good enough. I'll fail! or This could be what God is calling me to oversee?

God stands on the edge of the Promised Land, beckoning you. No giant is bigger than the Lord. He is calling you to a place of freedom where you can be who He called and created you to be. It's a place He had in mind for you when He rescued you from the bondage of sin and death. This Promised Land is awaiting you. Embrace the process.

Welcome your wilderness journey, no matter how long it takes. Believe that God cares more about your freedom than you do and give Him the time and space to work the bondage out of you.

1. What messages did God send with the 10 plagues or signs?
2. How can you be physically free but spiritually bound?
3. Do you feel like you are on a detour through your own wilderness? Ask God to show you what things He wants to work into you and what things He wants to work out of you.

BOUND FOR FREEDOM

BENJAMIN GILMORE

This High Priest of ours understands our weaknesses, for he faced all of the same testings we do, yet he did not sin.

—Hebrews 4:15

Every believer faces obstacles along their journey to freedom. Financial difficulties, relationship struggles, and health problems can affect anyone and threaten to interfere with their relationship with God. When dealing with these issues in my own life, I often ask Jesus, “Lord, what would You do in this situation?”

You may be thinking, But Jesus was perfect! He didn't have any issues. And you're partially right. Jesus was perfect; Hebrews 4:15 says He never sinned. But look at the beginning of that verse: “He faced all of the same testings we do.” In other words, Jesus dealt with issues too! He faced the same temptations and felt the same frustrations we do today. Knowing that Jesus understands my struggles encourages me in every area of life.

But what happens when your struggle is less a frustration and more a bondage? What if your issue has you wrapped up, tied down, and unable to see a way out? Does Jesus still understand? Most people would never relate Jesus to bondage. In fact, if I were to ask you to name a person who embodies the idea of freedom, you'd probably say “Jesus.” Many of our prayers and worship songs are about the freedom we have in Jesus, and rightly so—“If the Son sets you free, you are truly free” (John 8:36). So how could such a free person understand bondage?

One day while I was praying about my own bondage, I asked Jesus, “Were You ever bound?” He immediately reminded me of the story of Judas's betrayal in the Garden of Gethsemane. I turned to John 18 and read:

So the soldiers, their commanding officer, and the Temple guards arrested Jesus and tied him up (v. 12).

I had probably read this verse dozens of times before, but I had never stopped to think about Jesus—the King of all Kings and Lord of all Lords—being literally tied up. And not only is He tied up, but He is willingly tied up. Several verses before, the soldiers and guards come to the garden in search of Jesus, but as soon as He identifies Himself, “they all drew back and fell to the ground!” (John 18:6). Jesus has the power to walk away and remove Himself from danger, but He chooses to stay. He allows Himself to be arrested, tied up, and led away.

If you're in bondage today, you may feel alone. You may also feel hopeless. Whether the bondage is of your own making or the fault of others, you just can't see a way out. For Jesus, there was no way out. His arrest led to questioning and mocking, which then led to torture and a horrific death on the cross. Everything Jesus had worked for in His ministry seemed to be lost. Perhaps you feel as if you have lost everything too.

No matter how painful, humiliating, or overwhelming your bondage is, Jesus understands. He experienced extreme pain and utter humiliation as He took on the most overwhelming task of all time—paying the penalty for humanity's sins. Why would Jesus endure all this for us? Because He wanted to give us something we could never earn—freedom. Jesus wanted you to be free, and He was willing to do whatever it takes. The apostle Paul writes about this divine sacrifice in his letter to the Philippians:

He gave up his divine privileges;
he took the humble position of a slave
and was born as a human being.
When he appeared in human form,
he humbled himself in obedience to God
and died a criminal's death on a cross
(Philippians 2:7-8).

Jesus was the perfect sacrifice, and His death on the cross cleared our sin-stained record before God. Then three days later, He rose again, fully alive and fully free.

Jesus' temporary bondage paved the way for our eternal freedom. Any bondage you may be facing today, including the grip of death, is subject to His divine authority. You can bring any struggle, issue, or temptation to Him. He cares, He understands, and He wants to set you free.

1. What are some common obstacles believers face today?
2. How do you think Jesus felt as He saw the soldiers and guards coming to arrest Him?
3. How does it make you feel to know that you have a Savior who was willing to do whatever it takes to give you freedom?

BIBLE READING BREAKTHROUGH

MY DAILY JOURNEY

JOEL STOCKSTILL

Without God's Word, I would have died long ago. For over 20 years, I have battled chronic illness, and I lost my first wife to cancer. No one volunteers for these kinds of experiences, and many have compared my life with Job's. However, I have found my refuge in the Bible.

1. God's Word will give you victory over despair.
Many times, it seemed as if I would die. Other times, my soul grew weary, and I simply wanted the suffering to end. Despair comes when we face great hardships, and we cannot rely on natural things to help us through them. Our only rock of safety is the Word of God.
2. God's Word will reveal and clarify your calling.
As you read the Bible, you will discover situations and characters that correspond to your specific calling in God's Kingdom. The Holy Spirit will use certain passages to speak directly to you.

3. God's Word will help you understand mysteries.
God has revealed many things to me through the daily study of His Word. None is more precious than the revelation of Christ's suffering on the cross (1 Corinthians 2:2). I am so thankful for the death, burial, and resurrection of our precious Savior. God has marked my ministry through this revelation.

After spending more than 15 years making disciples, preaching sermons, and mentoring leaders, I can say without hesitation that the greatest asset to my leadership and spiritual walk has always been the daily reading of God's Word.

THE 15-MINUTE BREAKTHROUGH

PASTOR ROBERT MORRIS

If I told you that you could experience miracles by doing something for 15 minutes a day, would you do it? I am talking about having a daily quiet time. You might cringe when you hear that phrase because so many of us have had bad experiences in this area. We have tried to have a quiet time, but it wasn't very good. When we hear other people talking about their quiet times, it seems like Moses, Elijah, and Jesus show up—but some of us simply don't have quiet times like that. We might even fall asleep during our quiet times. And eventually, we just give up on the whole idea. We think, I'm a Christian. I love God. I serve God and come to church, but I'm just never going to have a quiet time like other people.

I used to feel that way too, so I want to help you by disproving three common myths about quiet times.

1. You can only have a quiet time from 4 am to 6 am.

I used to travel and preach at crusades and revivals. Our services started at 7 pm, and most nights I didn't get to bed until midnight or later. For years, I was a late riser. But when I would get around my friends in ministry who were early risers, they always talked about how they met with God at 5 am. It sounded so spiritual, and it made me feel terrible because I didn't get up early to have a quiet time.

I want you to understand this: If you show up later than 7 am, God isn't going to say, "Sorry, we're closed. You should have come earlier when the spiritual people were here." You can have a quiet time whatever time of day you want. I suggest doing it at the start of your day, but it's important to realize you can have it anytime.

2. Your quiet time must last at least one hour.

There is nothing in the Bible about a one-hour-minimum requirement for spending time with God. I know there are those who think that "spiritual" people need to spend at least an hour each day having a quiet time, but I'm a pastor, and I don't do that. The reason why is I am a bottom-line kind of person. I'm not a long-winded preacher. I like to get to the bottom line, and my prayers are that way too.

3. Your prayer journal must sound like the Bible.

Have you ever had someone read to you from their prayer journal, and it was unbelievably awesome? I was with a group of ministers once when one of the guys said, "I want to read something to you that the Lord spoke to me this past Tuesday." As he read, I thought, "I have never heard anything like that in my life." There was such poetry to it! Wondering what God spoke to me on that Tuesday, I looked in my journal, and this is what I had written: "Try not to be a jerk today." That is what the Lord had spoken to me! It wasn't eloquent or poetic. But it was real.

God doesn't want to burden you with "rules" about quiet times that other people have set. He just wants to spend time with you. Can you imagine what it would be like to have to go down a checklist when we are trying to spend time with God?

Now that we have cleared the air, I want to show you four things that have helped me tremendously in my quiet time. I absolutely believe 15 minutes with the Lord each day can change your life.

Quiet Your Mind

Let all that I am wait quietly before God, for my hope is in him (Psalm 62:5).

In this passage, David tells his soul to be quiet before God, and we need to do the same. A quiet time is not a time to be busy; it's a time to slow down. In order to do that, you are going to have to quiet your mind and soul.

Focus Your Mind on God

Shout with joy to the LORD, all the earth!

Worship the LORD with gladness.

Come before him, singing with joy.

Acknowledge that the LORD is God!

He made us, and we are his.

We are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving;

go into his courts with praise.

Give thanks to him and praise his name.

For the LORD is good.

His unfailing love continues forever, and his faithfulness continues to each generation (Psalm 100).

When I go to meet with the Lord and quiet my mind, God always puts a song in my heart. For the rest of the day, that song is my key into God's presence. If you will just listen, He will give you a song too. You can sing it out loud if you want to, but you don't have to. What is important is that you are focusing on Him. Singing to the Lord turns your focus toward God, and it can be your key into His presence.

Pray What's on Your Mind

Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done (Philippians 4:6).

Just talk to God like you talk to anyone else, and pray about whatever concerns you. You don't have to pray for world peace unless that is on your heart. Pray about what is burdening you. You are never going to pray passionately until you pray about something that burdens you. You can pray for your kids, your marriage, your job, or your finances. It doesn't matter. Simply pray about whatever God has put on your heart and mind.

Renew Your Mind

Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect (Romans 12:2).

Renewing your mind will transform every area of your life, and the process is simple: read God's Word every day. There have been so many times when something I read in the morning was exactly what I needed for that day. God's Word gives me life, peace, and strength. It's like lifting weights—sometimes it feels good, and sometimes it doesn't. But if you persevere and do it consistently, you are going to see results over time. The more regularly you read the Bible, the stronger you will become spiritually. Reading God's Word every day renews your mind, changes your thinking, and transforms you into His image!

On September 16, 1999, I had my quiet time like any other day, but something special happened as I met with God. After I prayed, I asked the Lord, "Where do You want me to read?" Very clearly, I heard God say, "Genesis 35 and Deuteronomy 11." So I opened up to Genesis 35 and read, "Move to Bethel and build an altar for Me there" (v. 1 paraphrase). As soon as I read that, the Holy Spirit immediately spoke to me and said, "Move to Southlake and start a church." As I kept reading, God began unfolding His plan for Gateway Church. Where Gateway is today all came out of that little quiet time several years ago!

What is five years down the road for you? What is 10 years down the road? God knows. Are you giving Him an opportunity to tell you? Please don't miss it because you are too busy. All it takes is 15 minutes.

THE PROMISE PRINCIPLE

PHILLIP HUNTER

The Promise Principle is based on 2 Peter 1:3–11. God has given us His promises to participate in His nature rather than to live in our nature, which tends to be ruled by our circumstances.

In view of all this, make every effort to respond to God's promises (2 Peter 1:5).

HOW CAN I IDENTIFY GOD'S PROMISES?

His promises are either a truth or a commandment.

HOW DO I RESPOND TO GOD'S PROMISES?

1. Ask for by faith (Matthew 21:22; James 4:2)
2. Receive with thanks (1 Timothy 4:4; Ephesians 5:20)

Every truth and commandment is a promise from God. As you read, underline every promise from God and ask yourself if this is a promise you should ask God for in faith or receive with a thankful heart. Then pray it!

Pray about everything (Philippians 4:6).

Example #1

God decided in advance to adopt us into his own family by bringing us to himself through Jesus Christ. This is what he wanted to do, and it gave him great pleasure (Ephesians 1:5).

IS THIS A PROMISE YOU SHOULD ASK FOR BY FAITH OR RECEIVE WITH THANKS?

Receive with thanks!

ASK THE HOLY SPIRIT HOW YOU NEED TO RESPOND TO THIS PROMISE BASED ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES IN YOUR LIFE. THEN PRAY IT.

Lord, there are times when I feel unloved and struggle with loneliness, but I thank You that You picked me and made me a part of Your family. I am loved by You. I belong! Thank You that You desire me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Example #2

Asking God, the glorious Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to give you spiritual wisdom and insight so that you might grow in your knowledge of God. I pray that your hearts will be flooded with light so that you can understand the confident hope he has given to those he called—his holy people who are his rich and glorious inheritance (Ephesians 1:17–18).

IS THIS A PROMISE YOU SHOULD ASK FOR BY FAITH OR RECEIVE WITH THANKS?

Ask for by faith!

ASK THE HOLY SPIRIT HOW YOU NEED TO RESPOND TO THIS PROMISE BASED ON THE CIRCUMSTANCES IN YOUR LIFE. THEN PRAY IT.

Lord, I want to know You and all that You have for me. I ask You to give me spiritual wisdom and insight. My desire is to grow in my knowledge of You. I need to know You because I feel despair, and I am anxious. I am filled with fear. Would You fill my heart with light and overcome the darkness? Help me understand the hope that I have in You. I want You to be my confidence. In Jesus' name, Amen.

Recap

1. Underline the promises as you read.
2. Identify the promise as a truth or a commandment.
3. Ask the Holy Spirit what circumstance in your life is touched by this promise.
4. Do you need to ask for by faith, receive with thanks, or both?
5. Pray it!
6. Journal what the Holy Spirit is saying to you.

TRAVELING THE SCRIPTURES

MARY JO PIERCE

People often ask me why I love prayer so much. My answer is that it works! This one word encompasses the whole of why we were created. Prayer is pure, powerful, and our greatest calling. We were created to pray—to connect with God and to connect others to God.

The Bible is often referred to as a Prayer Book. Through its pages, we come to understand how we develop and cooperate with the Trinity through prayer. In the Scriptures, Jesus demonstrates a lifestyle of prayer and teaches us how to pray. The Holy Spirit directs our prayers, and the Father releases His will in our lives and through our prayers. From Genesis to Revelation, we see God pursue people. In Psalms we see people pursue God, a relationship established through prayer.

What you are holding right now is the greatest single tool for growing a personal prayer life, one that delights God and brings you great joy. Early in my relationship with the Lord, I came across a book by John Sherrill entitled My Friend, the Bible. At first, this title did not make sense to me. How could the Bible be a friend? I was curious, so I bought a copy of the book and began to read it. I couldn't go to sleep until I finished it! This book opened my eyes to experiencing the Bible as an ongoing conversation with God.

Over the years, the Holy Spirit has taught me how to have a conversation with God through His Word. I'll often ask the Lord, "What do You want to talk about today?" Then I will sit still—in a hush—waiting for His answer. Suddenly a word, a situation, or a conversation with a friend will come to mind. The Holy Spirit can speak from many sources, and each time He directs me to the Word.

I have come to refer to this experience as "traveling the Scriptures," and I have discovered that it is the key to following God and finding His heart for my prayers. Often, a particular Bible selection will stand out and speak to my spirit, triggering me to look at another Scripture. It is an adventure in hearing God as I journey through His Word.

The Bible has become my close, intimate friend, and this friendship grows even stronger when I ask questions, listen, and seek to know the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Scriptures become the "script" to my prayers as I dig deeper into God's will for my life. They mold my heart while also directing my path. The Bible is alive. God lives within its pages—so real and so close.

I listen for God's voice throughout the day. I may hear it as I read, or it may come as a thought, something spoken, or something seen. It can be a picture, a story, or a formed question. I can hear God's voice when I am talking to Him alone, writing in my journal, praying for others privately, or praying with others corporately.

After the Resurrection, Jesus met two of His followers on the road to Emmaus. The Bible says that while He spoke with them, their hearts burned (Luke 24:32). I can relate to this experience. The Bible can bring tears, laughter, joy, questions, and answers. It changes the way I see and understand things. I can barely describe the joy I experience when I am speaking with the Lord, and then I open the Bible and receive a perfect response. That is so God!

Prayer is a living, breathing relationship and partnership with God. I'm passionate about engaging God in every area of my life. His Word is a wonderful traveling companion and such good company.

All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. God uses it to prepare and equip his people to do every good work (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

1. Why do you think prayer is such an important aspect of our relationship with God?
2. Would seeing the Bible as your "friend" change your prayer life? If yes, in what way?
3. What sources in your life do you think the Holy Spirit might use to direct you to God's Word?

KINGDOMS OF ISRAEL

The United Kingdom of Israel came into being at the coronation of Saul, grew in size and influence under David, and reached its height during Solomon's reign. Solomon inherited a powerful kingdom from his father, David, covering the entire area inhabited by the 12 tribes of Israel. Throughout Solomon's reign, his power and influence increased as he also gained control over many of the surrounding nations.

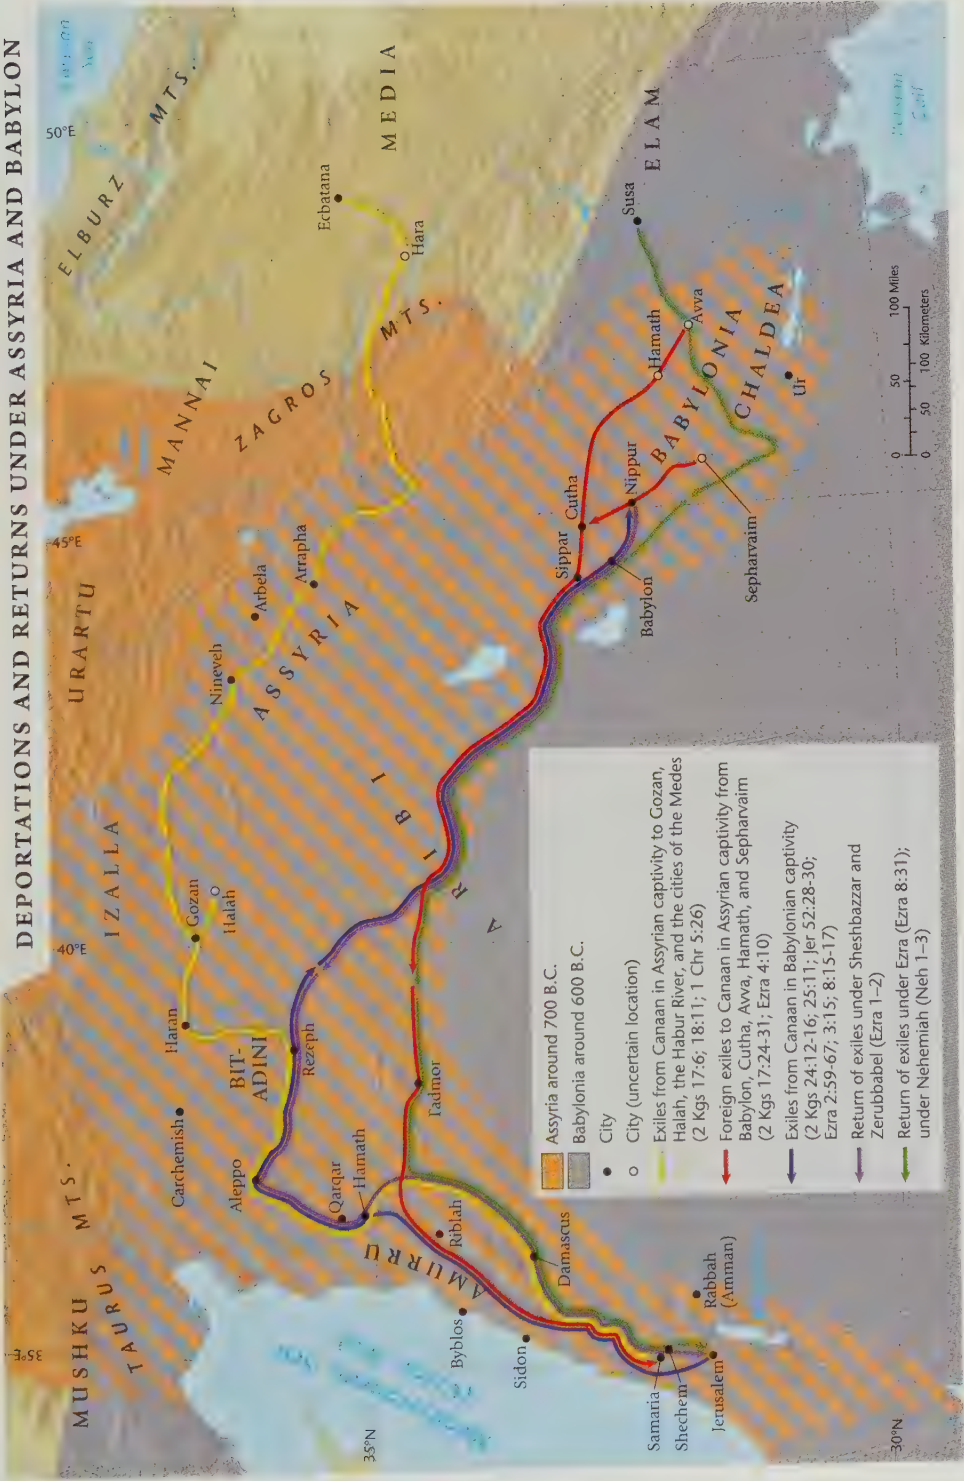

After the death of Solomon, the kingdom of Israel divided. Solomon's son Rehoboam remained king of the southern kingdom of Judah, with Jerusalem as its capital. Jeroboam became the king of the northern kingdom of Israel and rebuilt Shechem as his capital. He also built new worship centers in Bethel and Dan, influencing his people to stay away from Jerusalem and its annual religious festivals. The division of the kingdom of Israel began a downward spiral into idolatry and godless leadership for both nations, eventually leading to the exile of the northern kingdom to Assyria and the southern kingdom to Babylon.

ROMAN DIVISION OF PALESTINE

Chronologically speaking, it is not possible to sequentially arrange the events in the life of Christ in any definitive way; none of the New Testament Gospels follows an overtly chronological pattern. Accordingly, the arrangement here follows a geographic order, basically proceeding from north to south on the map. Because the Gospel of Matthew most frequently contains information cited here, and because it is the most geographically particularistic Gospel, synoptic passages are keyed to the book of Matthew, except where they are unattested there or where more pertinent information about the event cited is available in another Gospel.
